HEAD COACH ADAM HUGHES

110-121 (.476) • Eighth Season

Adam Hughes was elevated to head coach of the Maryland volleyball program on Jan. 23, 2018 and will enter his eighth season at the helm in 2025. Previously the associate head coach for the Terrapins, Hughes is the fifth head coach in program history.

Hughes hit 100 career wins as Maryland picked up its first-ever win over UCLA on November 9, 2024.

Hughes continued to make history in 2023 season. The Terps brought in 10 non-conference victories, including two tournament sweeps in September. Maryland clinched a historic five-set victory over No. 16 Minnesota, earning the programs' first-ever win over the Golden Gophers.

Hughes led Maryland to another strong season in 2022, notching victories in nine of their opening 12 matches. The Terps continued their success in Big Ten play, picking up ranked wins over No. 9 Purdue and No. 5 Ohio State. The sweep over the Boilermakers marked the program's first-ever road victory over a top-10 team.

In 2021, Hughes led the Terps to one of their best seasons in recent memory. The Terps' 19 victories is the most since 2010 for the Terps. Maryland's undefeated 13-0 start was the team's best beginning since 2005. Their seven Big Ten victories, are the most for the program since 2018. The highlight of the season came with a thrilling five-set victory over the eventual NCAA National Champion Wisconsin Badgers. He recorded his 50th career victory with a 3-0 sweep over Indiana on October 9, 2021.

Hughes elevated Maryland to new heights within the Big Ten in his first year as head coach, leading the Terps to a number of program bests and firsts. In 2018, Maryland won a program-best nine Big Ten matches and the most road matches (nine) in 13 years. In addition, Hughes led Maryland to their first road win over a ranked team, defeating No. 15 Michigan on November 7, first ever win at Ohio State, and season sweeps over Ohio State, Rutgers and Iowa. Hughes coached Maryland's first-ever First Team All-Big Ten performer, Erika Pritchard, who led the conference in kills per set and Maryland's first ever three-time Big Ten Player of the Week, Allegra Rivas, who took home the defensive award three times.

Prior to becoming head coach, Hughes served as an assistant coach with the Terps for four seasons from 2014-18, worked with Penn State as both a volunteer assistant from 2003-08 and Director of Volleyball Operations from 2010-14, where he witnessed the Nittany Lions capture three NCAA National Championships and eight Big Ten Conference titles. He also served as a volunteer assistant with UC Irvine from 2008-09.

Hughes earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from the Penn State Smeal School of Business in 2006. Adam and his wife, Alice, have three daughters, Harper, Hayden, and Henley.
