HEAD COACH MIKE GAMBINO

Mike Gambino was hired on July 3, 2023 as the 15th head coach in Penn State baseball program history. Gambino took over the Penn State Baseball program after 13 years at the helm of his alma mater Boston College.

In 2024, Penn State went 29-24 overall and 12-12 in Big Ten play. The 29 wins are Penn State's most under a first-year head coach.

Penn State posted its first winning record in the regular season since 2016 (28-27) and maintained a .500 or better mark from the entire season for the first time since 2011 (32-22). The Blue and White notched its best record in Big Ten play since going 12-12 in 2016.

The Nittany Lions finished with a Top-100 RPI for the first time since 2007.

Penn State reached the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game for the first time since 2000 and won three-straight games to open the Big Ten Tournament for the first time in program history. Gambino was the first Big Ten baseball coach to lead his team to a Big Ten Championship Game in year one since Minnesota's John Anderson in 1982.

The Nittany Lions' tremendous Big Ten Tournament run, as the eighth seed, included wins over Illinois (8-4) and Michigan (9-5 and 7-6) before falling to No. 2 seed Nebraska, 2-1, in the championship game.

In the regular season, Penn State earned Big Ten sweeps over Maryland and Northwestern, a series win over Rutgers and victories against Michigan, Indiana, Michigan State and Minnesota. PSU was 6-2 in Big Ten series openers.

Non-conference play included series wins over Stanford, Davidson, Harvard and UMass Lowell, while also earning two wins over Army and one over Monmouth on opening weekend and a win over Georgetown. Midweek wins included Pitt and FDU.

Penn State had three of its five largest home crowds in 2024. The Nittany Lions set a program record with 5,025 fans against Kent State (4/16). PSU also had 4,902 fans against FDU (4/9) and 3,505 against Pitt (3/26). Penn State finished second in the Big Ten in average attendance (1,615).

Adam Cecere (first team), J.T. Marr (first team) and Travis Luensmann (second team) were tabbed American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-Region East Team. Penn State had three ABCA All-Region selections for the first time since 1973. The three selections were tied with Maryland for most in the Big Ten.

Cecere (second team) and Marr (second team), Bryce Molinaro (third team) and Mason Horwat (freshman team) earned All-Big Ten honors.

As a team, Penn State finished among the Top Five in the Big Ten in batting average (.306; 2nd), slugging percentage (.491; 2nd), sac flies (32; 2nd), double plays (46; 3rd), double plays per game (0.87; 3rd), doubles per game (2.08; 4th), home runs per game (1.34; 5th) and runs per game (7.6; 5th).

The Nittany Lions had seven players with 52+ hits and eight with 40+ hits, seven players with 37+ RBI, five with a .409+ on-base percentage and eight with a .425+ slugging percentage.

Penn State, Illinois and Indiana were the only Big Ten teams with seven players owning 37+ RBI and PSU was one of two Big Ten teams with seven players owning 52+ hits.

The Nittany Lions launched 71 homers, its most since hitting 91 in 1998. PSU's 46 homers in Big Ten games were tied for most in the conference with Illinois.

Cecere (17), Grant Norris (14) and Molinaro (11) became Penn State's first trio with 11+ homers in a season since 1999 (Shawn Fagan, 13; Dan Beers, 13; Chris Netwall, 12).

Marr posted incredible numbers, batting .416 with 92 hits (17 doubles, six homers), 54 RBI and 50 runs. His batting average never dipped below .408 in the entire 2024 season. Marr's 92 hits are tied-second in a season at Penn State, while he ranks seventh in total bases (127), eighth in at-bats (221), doubles (17) and RBI (54).

Marr ranked second in the Big Ten in hits per game (1.74; 2nd nationally), batting average (.416; 5th), hits per game (92; 22nd), eighth in on-base percentage (.464) and 11th in OPS (1.039).

Cecere paced the Big Ten in slugging percentage (.676) and OPS (1.140), while holding second in walks per game (0.89; 49th nationally), third in home runs (17), home runs per game (0.32) and walks (47), fourth in on-base percentage (.474) and sixth in sac flies (5).

Cecere's 47 walks are tied for a PSU season record and his 17 homers are tied-second in a season at Penn State. He also ranks sixth in a season in slugging percentage (.676), seventh in hit-by-pitches (10), eighth in total bases (125) and ninth in RBI (53).

Joe Jaconski ranked fifth in the Big Ten in walks (43) and Norris ranked ninth in homers (14). Norris' 14 homers are sixth in a season at PSU, while Jaconski's 43 walks are fourth.

On the mound, Luensmann ranked fifth in the Big Ten in hits allowed per nine innings (6.67; 34th nationally) and sixth in wins (7), while Jaden Henline sat second in walks per nine innings (1.99) and Anthony Steele was third in appearances (26).

In 13 seasons leading the Eagles, Gambino ranks second in program history in wins (291) while guiding Boston College to a pair of NCAA Regional appearances in 2016 and 2023 and an NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2016. He had five seasons of 25 or more wins and eight seasons with 10 or more ACC wins. BC also appeared in the ACC Championship Tournament four times under Gambino's tutelage, including berths in three of four years for the first time since Boston College joined the ACC in 2006.

Gambino has a long history of developing Major League Baseball talent with 34 draft picks in his 13 years at BC. He had three first round picks and eight picks in the first five rounds of the MLB Draft in his BC tenure. Four former Boston College players appeared in MLB games in 2023: outfielder Jake Alu (Washington Nationals), outfielder Sal Frelick (Milwaukee Brewers), pitcher Michael King (New York Yankees) and pitcher Emmet Sheehan (Los Angeles Dodgers). Five of Gambino's former BC players have reached the major leagues.

He coached five All-American selections and five Freshman All-Americans at Boston College. Gambino guided 16 All-ACC selections, including 2021 ACC Player of the Year Sal Frelick.

In his time at Boston College, Gambino put together five recruiting classes ranked among the nation's Top 60 by Perfect Game.

In 2023, Gambino guided the Eagles to a 37-20 overall record and 16-14 mark in ACC play. The 37 overall wins tie the program record set by the 2005 squad and the 16 ACC victories are also a highwater mark for the program topping the 14 victories by the 2010 team. Boston College logged 12 ranked wins, including a thrilling 7-6 victory over No. 2 Tennessee in 10 innings, on the way to playing in the Tuscaloosa Regional and reaching the regional final. The Eagles were ranked for 12 weeks in the D1Baseball Poll, reaching as high as ninth. Three of Gambino's players earned All-ACC accolades, including Chris Flynn claiming second-team All-ACC as a starting pitcher.

Gambino also spent two years as a regional scout for the Detroit Tigers and was an assistant coach at Boston College from 2003-05.

Gambino played for the Eagles from 1997-2000, starting 166 games in the middle infield. He posted a career batting average of .313 with 22 doubles, eight home runs, 87 RBIs and 117 runs. His 78 hits in 2000 were a program record that stood until 2011. Gambino's 52 runs his final year are in the top 10 in BC history.

The Garrison, New York native was a first-team All-Big East, All-New England and All-Northeast region honoree following his senior campaign. He also earned second-team All-New England and Big East Academic Team accolades during his playing career.

Gambino played two seasons in the Boston Red Sox minor league system. He spent the 2000 season with the Augusta Green Jackets before splitting the 2001 season between Augusta and the Lowell Spinners. In 2002, the Red Sox hired Gambino as a special assistant to the Major League staff before heading back to Lowell for a coaching role with the Spinners just prior to the June draft. Following his stint in Lowell, the Red Sox sent Gambino to the MLB Scout Development Program.

Gambino received his bachelor's degree from Boston College in English and theology. He and his wife, Jill, have two children, Sonny and Callahan.
