QUICK HITS

» The Sycamores head into the midweek rematch with the Hoosiers after a 3-1 week this past week including wins at Purdue and the series victory at home over Southern Illinois. Indiana went 2-2 this past week with a midweek win at home against Ball State, while falling in two of three in the weekend series at Illinois.

» Indiana took the first game of the season series against the Sycamores back on March 11 in Bob Warn Field as the Hoosiers claimed the 9-4 midweek nonconference win. Indiana scored five runs in the sixth inning of the contest aided by a pair of Sycamore errors over the stretch to claim the early contest.

» Indiana State took two of the three games this past weekend at Bob Warn Field as the Sycamores claimed the Friday and Sunday wins over Southern Illinois to secure the Missouri Valley series win. The Sycamores topped SIU on Friday night, 9-7, before falling in Saturday's contest, 16-9. Indiana State rallied back in the final game of the series with a 12-8 win on Sunday afternoon in securing their third MVC series win of the season.

» Jackson Taylor (.556) and Carter Beck (.500) paced an Indiana State lineup that hit a combined .349 from the plate against the Southern Illinois pitching staff over the weekend. Carlos Pena (.385) added three of Indiana State's five home runs over the series, while Zack Henderson (1.000) and Andrew Ortiz (.750) both connected from the plate in drawing weekend starts against the Salukis.

» Gavin Morris (1-0, 0.00 ERA) was untouchable for the Indiana State pitching staff as the senior right-hander worked 5.0 scoreless innings across two games against SIU. He finished with four strikeouts, including two key punchouts in the Sycamores' Sunday win over the Salukis.

» Overall, the Indiana State pitching staff combined for a 9.33 team ERA over the series with a 21:18 strikeout-to-walk ratio. The Sycamores allowed the Salukis to hit .292 from the plate over the three games.

» The Hoosiers are 10-5 overall at Bart Kaufman Field including winning their last four home games against Michigan State (series sweep) and Ball State (Apr. 8). The Hoosiers are 2-0 against the Missouri Valley this season with wins over Indiana State and Evansville to their credit.

» Indiana holds the all-time 69-48-1 record against Indiana State dating back to the opponents' first contest back on Mar. 26, 1898. The series has gone the way of the Hoosiers recently with Indiana taking eight of the last 11 contests with the teams last splitting the series in 2024.

Scouting the Opposition

Indiana Hoosiers

» Indiana enters the midweek contest with a 20-16 overall record and 10-8 mark in Big Ten competition.

» The Hoosiers are 10-5 overall at Bart Kaufman Field including winning their last four home games against Michigan State (series sweep) and Ball State (Apr. 8).

» The Hoosiers are 2-0 against the Missouri Valley this season with wins over Indiana State and Evansville to their credit.

» IU entered the season coming off a 33-26-1 mark, including a 15-9 record in Big Ten play as the Hoosiers advanced to the 2024 NCAA Knoxville Regional.

» Last season's success parlayed into this season's preseason recognition as Indiana was selected third overall in the Big Ten's preseason baseball poll with junior outfielder Devin Taylor earning Big Ten Preseason Player of the Year honors.

» Taylor continues to live up to the billing in the 2025 season with a team-leading .368 batting average with 10 home runs, 40 RBIs, and 44 runs scored.

» Jake Hanley (.359), Korbyn Dickerson (.352), and Cooper Malamazan (.333) are among the six Hoosiers hitting .300 or better from the plate on the season as IU has connected at a .305 clip as a team on the year. Dickerson is the team's primary power threat with 15 of IU's 58 home runs.

» Twenty different IU pitchers have taken the mound for the Hoosiers across the 2025 season as Indiana has combined for a 5.67 team ERA over 303.0 innings pitched.

» Jackson Yarberry (0-0, 9.72 ERA) is projected as the midweek starter for the Hoosiers this week, while six different IU pitchers have recorded double-digit appearances on the season and could be in play on Tuesday night.

Series History Notes

» Indiana holds the all-time 69-48-1 record against Indiana State dating back to the opponents' first contest back on Mar. 26, 1898.

» The series has gone the way of the Hoosiers recently with Indiana taking eight of the last 11 contests with the teams last splitting the series in 2024.

Sycamores in the MLB

Two Indiana State players remain in the MLB ranks heading into the 2025 season as Sean Manaea (New York Mets) and Colin Rea (Chicago Cubs) are projected to be in the starting rotation for their respective clubs.

Manaea returns to the Mets after signing a 3-year, $75-million contract after posting a pair of postseason wins on his way to finishing the season as one of the organization's top starters. Manaea posted a 12-6 overall record, including a 3.47 ERA over 181.2 innings of work. Manaea picked up wins against the Philadelphia Phillies (Oct. 8, 7-2) and Los Angeles Dodgers (Oct. 14, 7-3) in recording the first postseason win by an Indiana State alum since Zane Smith recorded the 1-0 Game Five win over the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series back on October 14, 1991.

Rea signed a 1-year, $5-million free agent contract with the Chicago Cubs after wrapping up a season as one of the top pitchers in the Milwaukee Brewers' organization. Rea posted a 12-6 overall record, including a 4.29 ERA over 167.2 innings of work. The Brewers advanced into the MLB Postseason after winning the NL Central Division with a 93-69 record to take the divisional title over the Cardinals and Cubs by 10.0 games.

HOME SWEET HOME // BOB WARN FIELD (2,000)

The base for one of the Midwest's finest Division I collegiate baseball programs, Bob Warn Field at Sycamore Stadium, has undergone a number of changes over the past several years. The installation of a FieldTurf infield, a new locker room and coaches' offices, the construction of a new seating area with both chairback and bleacher seats and a larger press box and parking lot highlight the renovation of the entire facility.

On the field, the Sycamores play on a FieldTurf infield and natural grass outfield, providing the team with an environment that allows for competition when weather conditions would force other facilities to stop play. New dugouts and bullpen mounds have also been installed.

Off the field, Indiana State provides numerous facilities to aid the baseball team in their success, including: a new locker room and coaches offices at Sycamore Stadium, a total of 2,000 chairback and bleacher seats for fans, a press box that allows for multiple radio broadcasts for Indiana State and their visitors, expanded parking and an indoor facility located two blocks from the playing field.

OVC FOTY

GRANT PARSON

Parson signed with the Sycamores by way of the University of Southern Indiana as the Owensboro, Ky. native enters his sophomore season.

The right-handed pitcher started 11 games over the course of his freshman season at USI throwing 60.0 innings with a team-best 3.90 ERA while adding 60 strikeouts and holding opponents to a .215 batting average. Highlighting his season included striking out a season-high nine batters against Southern Illinois, while going at least 7.0-innings in four different games.

Parson took home a number of postseason accolades including being named the Ohio Valley Conference's Freshman of the Year, a Second Team All-OVC selection, and an OVC All-Freshman selection.

Parson lettered in baseball at Owensboro Catholic High School playing under Coach Jody Hamilton. He posted a 4-3 record with a 1.14 ERA and 77 strikeouts over 49.0 innings of work. He posted a no-hitter and was one batter shy of a perfect game in a postseason start against St. Mary's High School.

NCAA RPI Rankings

A new season begins, but the standards remain the same as Indiana State is once again expected to be highly-regarded in the NCAA's RPI Rankings. The Sycamores have been an annual top 30 selection over the last few seasons, rising all the way to No. 9 in the 2023 season, while finishing 2024 at No. 11.

Indiana State's high ranking in the RPI has been aided with 20-plus win seasons in true road and neutral-site games over the last two years. This includes winning an NCAA Division I-best 28 games away from the friendly confines of Bob Warn Field last season.

Courtesy of that performance, the Sycamores were granted the rights to host the NCAA Terre Haute Regional in 2023, while earning the No. 2 seed as an at-large in the NCAA Lexington Regional last year.

This season, the RPI again shines on the Sycamores as Indiana State is projected to post the No. 25 RPI overall in WarrenNolan.com's preseason RPI projected rankings. This includes playing the No. 26 overall non-conference strength of schedule and 80th strength of schedule overall.

New Coach

For the first time in over a decade, the Sycamores will have a new skipper in the dugout as Head Coach Tracy Archuleta takes the reins of the program following the summer departure of previous head coach Mitch Hannahs (South Florida). Archuleta became the 30th head baseball coach in program history following his hiring in mid-June.

The long-time baseball coach joined the Sycamores following an 18-year tenure as the head coach at the University of Southern Indiana where he built the Screaming Eagles into an NCAA Division II powerhouse before guiding USI's transition to NCAA Division I in 2023. He was recognized as the Division

II ABCA National Coach of the Year twice (2010, 2014); the ABCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year five times (2007, 2010, 2014, 2016, 2018) and the GLVC Coach of the Year twice (2011, 2014).

In Archuleta's 18 seasons, USI won two NCAA II national championships and five NCAA II Midwest Regional titles; won three GLVC West crowns and three GLVC East banners; one GLVC Tournament championship; and appeared in six NCAA II Regionals. Archuleta's Eagles also have featured 12 All-Americans, eighth Academic All-American, 34 All-Region performers, and 54 All-GLVC players. Fourteen players were drafted into the MLB ranks with USI alum Darin Mastroianni playing six years with both Toronto and Minnesota (2011-2016).

New Roster

Gone are a number of familiar names and faces from the Sycamore roster as Indiana State lost 32 players from the 2024 Missouri Valley regular season championship squad and NCAA Lexington Regional participant.

Indiana State returned nine players from last year's team in one of the most major shakeups in college baseball across the country. The Sycamores' return nine players to the 40-man roster this season with key names including Carlos Pena (1B/DH), Keegan Garis (OF), Jordan Austin (OF), Jackson Taylor (IF), Aaron Moss (RHP), Jacob Spencer (RHP), Max McEwen (RHP), as well as redshirts Cole Chace (RHP) and John Curl (1B).

Overall in the statistics, the Sycamores return 28 at-bats (out of 2028) and 19.2 innings (514.0) to the field from last year's squad across six players that saw action on the field in the 2024 season.

OUTFIELD

CARTER BECK

Beck signed with the Sycamores by way of the University of Mary as the Carnduff, Saskatchewan, Canada native enters his sophomore year. The outfielder hit .349 over 49 starts in his inaugural collegiate season finishing second on the team with 66 hits and 12 home runs, while pacing the Marauders with 53 RBIs. Beck added a .634 slugging percentage and .432 on-base percentage, while going 11-for-11 on stolen base attempts on the year.

Beck was highly decorated after his inaugural collegiate season earning the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Freshman of the Year honors in addition to Second Team All-Conference honors. He also earned University of Mary Rookie of the Year recognition.

Over the course of his prep career at Carnduff Education Complex, Beck hit .470 from the plate with a .570 on-base percentage and 1.350 OPS. He was a two-time Baseball 5K Player of the Year and two-time SPBL MVP and Top Hitter honoree. He was also awarded the Canada Cup Top Hitter Award. In addition to baseball, he also competed in hockey, volleyball, and track, earning a Track Provincial Championship.

USI Transfers

Head Coach Tracy Archuleta will have several familiar faces on his end join the Indiana State roster this spring as Thomas Emerich (IF/OF), Carson Seeman (RHP), Grant Parson (RHP), and Gavin Morris (RHP) all entered the transfer portal at Southern Indiana and committed to join the Sycamore roster.

Emerich hit .311 in his lone season at USI as the graduate transfer played in 36 games making 35 starts on the year. He hit .429 in Ohio Valley games, including .375 in the OVC Baseball Championship with a trio of RBIs and a home run.

Seeman was a solid arm on the mound for the Screaming Eagles as the Auburn, Calif. native made 21 appearances with five starts over the course of his lone season at USI. He posted a 4-2 record with two saves over 46.0 innings with a 34:9 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Parson took on a weekend role for the Screaming Eagles on his way to earning Ohio Valley Freshman of the Year honors. He started 11 games while throwing 60.0 innings and is projected to be in the mix for the weekend rotation at Indiana State.

Morris was a three-year pitcher at USI posting 124.1 innings and 107:71 strikeout-to-walk ratio during his time with the Screaming Eagles. He made 45 career appearances with 19 starts and is expected to be a key arm in the late innings for Indiana State early in the 2025 season.

Hitting the Transfer Portal

Indiana State was not alone among the teams that hit the transfer portal hard over the course of the 2024 summer campaign as Head Coach Tracy Archuleta and staff hit the recruiting period hard while building the 2025 roster. The Sycamores lost 32 total players due to various reasons including graduation, MLB Draft, and transfer portal, so Indiana State had to go hard in filling out the 40-man roster this spring. Overall, 22 players joined the Sycamores in the 2025 season courtesy of the transfer portal. Indiana State was seen as a destination place by a number of players from the NCAA Division I ranks and on down.

TEAM NOTES

Karst - Preseason All-Conference

Indiana State junior right-hander Ryan Karst was named to Perfect Game's Missouri Valley Conference Preseason All-Conference team as announced by the organization.

The Elm Grove, Wis. native was the lone Sycamore on the list as he heads into his first season with the program after transferring in by way of stops at UIC and Madison College. The junior made eight appearances on the mound with one start over the 2024 season at Madison College. He posted a 1-1 record over 15.1 innings with a 5.28 ERA while recording 13 strikeouts.

The Elm Grove, Wis. native transferred to Madison following his freshman season at UIC over the 2023 season where he appeared in 19 games and made five starts for the Flames. He posted a 1-2 record at UIC with an 8.68 ERA and 25 strikeouts on the mound.

D1Baseball Positional Rankings

One year after dotting the D1Baseball positional ranks, the Sycamores were shut out of the organization's rankings heading into the 2025 season. Indiana State's roster features a number of unknowns heading into the year, but there are still multiple players to keep your eyes on as the year progresses.

NCBWA Receiving Votes

Indiana State baseball is receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) preseason poll as announced by the organization prior to the start of the 2025 regular season. The Sycamores are coming off a 44-15 season and their fourth trip to the NCAA Regionals in the last five seasons dating back to 2019 as Indiana State heads into the year as the defending two-time Missouri Valley Conference regular season champions.

Indiana State was ranked by all six major baseball collegiate polls heading into the 2024 postseason rising as high as No. 9 in both the NCBWA and CB Newspaper polls, while sitting No. 10 in Perfect Game, 11 in both D1Baseball and Baseball America, and No. 14 in USA Today.

ESPN Game

Indiana State baseball will have one games on ESPN this spring marking the fourth consecutive season the team will appear on the network as ESPN notified the Missouri Valley Conference of its 2025 collegiate baseball programming schedule.

Indiana State's April 19 contest at Evansville has been picked up by the network as the game features the two teams that have met in the last two Missouri Valley Conference Baseball Championship Games. First pitch at German American Bank Field at Charles H. Braun Stadium is set for 6 p.m. ET.

The Sycamores went 2-0 in the 2024 season in their ESPN game picking up wins at Southern Illinois and home against Evansville. Overall since 2021, the Sycamores have been featured on the network five times and have posted a 4-1 mark.

Head Coach Bob Warn selected to MVC Hall of Fame

Head Coach Bob Warn will be inducted into the 28th Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame class as announced by the conference office this year. Coach Warn served as head coach of the Sycamore baseball program for 31 seasons, posting a 1,070-745-9 record in his tenure. The three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year (1979, 1983, 1984) is a member of numerous Hall of Fame organizations: Indiana Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame (1990), Iowa Western College Hall of Fame (2000), and American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame (2003); and Indiana State's Hall of Fame (2011). He served as President of the American Baseball Coaches' Association (1997). Warn compiled a head coaching record of 1,174-783-9 in 34 seasons.

Warn ranks top 30 all-time in wins among of Division I coaches, and his teams earned MVC Tournament titles six times (1979, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1989, 1995) and seven NCAA Tournament appearances (1979, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1989, 1995). In 1986, ISU was Midwest Regional Champion and advance to the College World Series that year.

A total of 126 players were recognized as All-Missouri Valley Conference during his tenure along with 72 players named to the All-MVC Tournament teams, four named MVC Tournament MVP, 97 players being named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete team, 90 players advancing to the professional ranks including 21 in the Major Leagues, 11 players were named All-Americans, and 30 players earned All-Region recognition.

#CUREFA Game Recap

Head Coach Tracy Archuleta and Indiana State baseball hosted the fifth annual CUREFA Game sponsored by the West Side Nut Club on October 19 against Morehead State in a fall exhibition game at Bob Warn Field set for 1 p.m. ET, with proceeds from the game going to the Friedrich's Ataxia Research Alliance (FARA). The exhibition game between the Sycamores and Morehead State benefitted the fight against Friedrich's Ataxia (FA), a degenerative neuro-muscular disorder that affects one in 50,000 people in the United States.

The Friedrich's's Ataxia Research Alliance is supporting research that will improve the quality and length of life for those diagnosed with FA and will lead to treatments that eliminate its symptoms. More information about FA can be found at CureFA.org.

TEAM NOTES

Coach Archuleta's son, Sam, is living with this disorder which provides the origin of the game and gives the charitable organization a personal connection to Coach Archuleta and the Sycamores.

Hitting The Road - First Month Travels
Indiana State will be getting its money's worth in mileage this spring as the Sycamores will be traveling the southeastern part of the United States to start the 2025 season. The Sycamores open the year with a neutral site weekend series in Gastonia, N.C., before heading down to Ft. Myers, Fla. and Port Charlotte, Fla. for week two. A trip to Greenville, N.C. rounds out the first three weeks of the season.

Overall, the Sycamores will face Wagner, Florida Gulf Coast, Northeastern, Bethune-Cookman, Virginia Tech, East Carolina, and Kent State over the 19-day road trip that will span 2,968.6 miles before returning home to Bob Warn Field for the March 4 home opener against Purdue.

First Road Trip Mileage
Terre Haute, Ind. to Gastonia, N.C. - 644.9 miles
Gastonia, N.C. to Ft. Myers, Fla. - 717.5 miles
Ft. Myers, Fla. to Port Charlotte, Fla. - 37.4 miles

Sycamores Among D1Baseball Top 100 Programs
Indiana State continued to garner national acclaim as the Sycamores were ranked among NCAA Division I baseball's top programs over the last five years by D1Baseball in the fall. The Sycamores clocked in at No. 47 in the annual rankings continuing a climb that started after being ranked No. 94 back in 2015. Indiana State's latest ranking prior to 2024 came in at No. 60 in 2022.

D1Baseball started its Top 100 list as it continues an exercise started back in the fall of 2015. The rankings reflect an attempt to assess the overall health of each program in the current era and is updated every two years with the latest coming back in 2022. Programs earn points for making regionals, winning regionals, reaching the College World Series, and winning the national championship in the last five (completed) seasons, and a fewer amount of points for success between six and 10 years ago.

Big Ten Success
Indiana State saw its Big Ten home winning streak snap on March 4, as the Sycamores' nine-game home streak against the conference dating back to 2022 was broken in the 14-4 loss to Purdue. Prior to that, the Sycamores had won nine consecutive home games against the Big Ten Conference dating back to the 2022 season. Included during the stretch are wins over Illinois, Purdue, Indiana, and a pair of wins in the NCAA Terre Haute Regional over Iowa in 2023.

Conference Winning Streak Ends

Indiana State's conference series winning streak came to an end earlier this season as the Sycamores dropped two of three at Belmont back over the April 3-5 weekend in Nashville. The loss ended a stretch of 21 consecutive enters the weekend looking to continue the program's longest conference series winning streak as the Sycamores have won 20 consecutive conference series dating back to the end of the 2022 season.

The 2023 season featured the most conference wins in program history with ISU claiming 24 victories on their way to winning the MVC regular season title by six games. The Sycamores followed up with a 22-5 mark in conference play in the 2024 season on their way to claiming the conference title by five games.

Indiana State has won double-digit conference games every season since 2015.

Scoring In Bunches

Indiana State put together a NCAA-record 20-run third inning on Sunday, February 16, to set a new national record for runs scored in the frame in their 36-6 win over Wagner. The Sycamores had 21 consecutive batters reach base in the inning with all nine Indiana State players in the lineup scoring, while seven different players recorded hits and RBIs during the inning.

The 20-run frame marked the most runs scored in the third inning by an NCAA Division I team according to the NCAA Baseball Record book, breaking the previous mark of 19 runs set by Clemson back on March 21, 1998, in the third inning against Maryland.

It was one of three double-digit run-scoring innings the Sycamores put together over the opening weekend against Wagner.

Big Run Innings in 2025 Season

Feb. 14 vs. Wagner	W, 16-6	11 runs (5th)
Feb. 16 vs. Wagner	W, 36-6	20 runs (3rd)
Feb. 16 vs. Wagner	W, 36-6	10 runs (5th)

Record-Setting Day

Indiana State's 20-run third inning against Wagner set a new NCAA Division I record for runs scored in the third inning, surpassing the previous mark of 19 runs set by Clemson back on March 21, 1998, against Maryland in the Tigers' 19-6 win over the Terrapins.

The Sycamores' 20-run inning was one off the overall NCAA Division I record of 21 runs scored achieved by Valparaiso (vs. Chicago State, 5th, April 2, 2010), Wichita State (vs. Friends, 6th, March 3, 1984), and Penn (vs. Franklin & Marshall, 6th, May 25, 1983).

Indiana State's 25 plate appearances in the third inning was one off the NCAA Division I record of 26 plate appearances recorded by Belmont in the sixth inning of their 34-10 win over UT Martin back on March 29, 2015.

The Sycamores' 11 hits in the third inning was one off the NCAA Division I record for hits in the third inning set four times with the latest by UT Martin (12 hits vs. Bethel, 3rd, March 7, 2017).

Indiana State's 36 runs set a new school record, breaking the previous mark of 32 runs set against Rose-Hulman (32-9) back on May 2, 1897.

The Sycamores' 29 hits in the game equals the team's single game record set first back on March 23, 1979, against Lawrence.

Indiana State's 34 RBIs marks a new program record breaking the previous mark of 25 set at College of Charleston back on March 15, 2008.

All nine Sycamores in the starting lineup recorded a hit, scored a run, and drove in a run in the game. Thirteen different Indiana State players recorded hits in Sunday afternoon's game. Ten different Indiana State players scored at least one run in Sunday's game. Ten different Indiana State players drove in at least one RBI in Sunday's game.

Back-To-Back, Homering in the Same Inning

Home runs came in bunches for the Sycamores last season with ISU connecting on back-to-back home runs six different times in the 2024 season. Indiana State continued the trend this season with Carter Beck and Weston Fulk going back-to-back on Opening Day against Wagner in the second game of the doubleheader.

Back-to-Back

Feb. 14 vs. Wagner - Carter Beck, Weston Fulk (1st)

Same Inning

Feb. 14 vs. Wagner - Carter Beck, Weston Fulk (1st)

TRACY ARCHULETA

HEAD COACH FIRST SEASON AT INST 24TH SEASON OVERALL

Tracy Archuleta joins the Sycamores in the summer of 2024 following an 18-year tenure as the head coach at the University of Southern Indiana and a 23-year overall career as a head coach at both the NCAA Division I and Division II levels.

Archuleta led the Screaming Eagles for 18 years, including the programs transition to NCAA Division I and to two NCAA Division II national championships since taking the helm in 2007. He also has been recognized as the Division II ABCA National Coach of the Year twice (2010, 2014); the ABCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year five times (2007, 2010, 2014, 2016, 2018) and the GLVC Coach of the Year twice (2011, 2014). He was the winningest coach in the history of the program with 571 victories over his tenure.

The Eagles progressed during their second season in the OVC and Division I action in 2024, improving by nine wins to 27-32 overall and finishing over .500 in the conference with a 14-13 mark. USI was fourth during the OVC regular season and finished third in the OVC Baseball Championship that included a win over top-seeded University of Arkansas at Little Rock. USI also grew statistically during the 2024 run raising its team batting average 10 points and lowered its team ERA by nearly two runs.

In Archuleta's 18 seasons, USI won two NCAA II national championships and five NCAA II Midwest Regional titles; won three GLVC West crowns and three GLVC East banners; one GLVC Tournament championship; and appeared in six NCAA II Regionals. Archuleta's Eagles also have featured 12 All-Americans, eighth Academic All-American, 34 All-Region performers, and 54 All-GLVC players. Fourteen players were drafted into the MLB ranks with USI alum Darin Mastroianni playing six years with both Toronto and Minnesota (2011-2016).

Archuleta came to USI after five seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside that featured a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances and a pair of 40-win seasons. UW-Parkside also advanced to the NCAA II North Central Regional title game in 2005 and was 148-124 (.544) during Archuleta's tenure.

After setting the foundation during his first two years, Archuleta directed the UW-Parkside Rangers into the national spotlight with a 41-18 season in 2004, finishing on top of the GLVC standings and earning the school's first-ever NCAA II Tournament bid. In his tenure at UW-Parkside, Archuleta coached the Rangers first All-American, Regional Player of the Year, GLVC Player of the Year, and he had two players sign professional contracts and 11 players earn All-Region honors. He was tabbed GLVC Coach of the Year in 2004.

Archuleta served as an assistant coach for five seasons at Wayne State College (Nebraska) and Central Missouri State University at the NCAA II level before taking the top spot at UW-Parkside.

At Wayne State, he was the infield coach, hitting coach, and recruiting coordinator on the team that captured its first NSIC championship and NCAA II regional birth in the 2001 season. Archuleta helped guide the team's batting average to 25th in the country (2000) and, in 2001, the squad was third in the country in fielding percentage (.969). In 2001, Wayne State finished 26th in the country with a record of 35-10.

During his tenure at CMSU, the Mules won the regular season conference championship with a record of 20-1 and were ranked as high as fifth in the nation. The team picked up an NCAA tournament bid and finished 16th in the country with a 43-10 mark. Archuleta was CMSU's outfield coach and recruiting coordinator. He also assisted the hitters.

The native of Iliff, Colorado, earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver and has a master's degree in education from Wayne State College. He has three children, Mikaela, Alex, and Sam.
