SERIES INFORMATION

Overall Series	Maryland Trails, 12-14 (.462)	Current Streak	Maryland Won 1 (2024-pres.)
Swope vs. Indiana	1-2 (.333)	Last Matchup	W, 6-5 (3/12/25)

NOW AND THEN

WHERE WE ARE ...

- ▶ Maryland heads back on the road in conference play, as they head to Bloomington to face Indiana. This marks the second consecutive season both teams have met, with Indiana taking two of three in the match-up in College Park.
- ▶ The Terrapins are coming off a midweek win over Mount St. Mary's on the road by a score of 10-2. Five Terps hit home runs in the game, while Brayden Ryan picked up his second win in as many weeks. Jacob Orr came up a triple short of the cycle, while Eddie Hacopian hit a three-run shot late in the game. Ryan threw a career-high seven innings on the mound in the start, holding the Mountaineers to five hits and striking out four.

YEAR TWO FOR CALARCO

- ▶ Alex Calarco is having a career year in year two in College Park. Calarco continues to be one of the top hitters in the nation. Calarco ranks among some of the top hitters in multiple categories as the team reaches the midpoint of the season.
- ▶ Calarco's 13 home runs this season are the 27th-most in the nation and are tied for the fifth-most in the Big Ten. Calarco was the first player to reach double-digit home runs nationally. Calarco has 49 RBI on the year, which are tied for the 20th-most in the country.
- ▶ On Thursday, Calarco was named as one of 45 players to the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List. The Golden Spikes Award is given annually to the best amateur baseball player in the country. Calarco is the first Maryland player to feature on the midseason watch list since Matt Shaw in 2023.

MR. 200

- ▶ Eddie Hacopian reached a career milestone this last weekend, picking up his 200th hit at Maryland. Hacopian became the 14th player in program history to reach 200 hits. He currently has 209 career hits at Maryland, one off from tying Charlie White (2011-14) for 10th all-time.
- ▶ Hacopian is making his way up the Maryland career lists. Hacopian has scored 147 runs while at Maryland, a total that sits as the 10th-most in program history. Hacopian has also climbed the program career RBI charts with 128, the 12th-most all-time for a Terp. He is one away from tying his former teammate Kevin Keister for 11th all-time.
- ▶ Hacopian also needs four doubles to tie Ken Noe for 12th all-time with 45. Hacopian is also at 88 walks in his time at Maryland, two off from tying Chuck Easter (1997-2001) and Mike Murphy (2006-09) for 12th in program history.

TERRAPIN TEAM NOTES

WALK IT OUT

- ▶ The Terps' offense continues to be patient at the plate, leading the conference in walks with 230 and ranking 10th in the country. The Terps have three players who rank in the top 25 in the conference in walks this season.
- ▶ Brayden Martin leads the bunch with 38 walks, the most in the Big Ten and ranking as the 12th-most nationally. Next is the pair of Chris Hacopian and Alex Calarco who both have 29 walks this season, tied for the 11th-most in the conference.

MCCOY'S BRILLIANCE ON THE MOUND

- ▶ Redshirt sophomore Kyle McCoy has returned to the Terrapins' rotation in 2025 after missing the 2024 season due to injury. In his return, McCoy turned in an impressive performance so far and leads the Terps pitching staff in multiple categories. Through eight starts, McCoy has a 3-2 record with a 3.06 ERA and 51 strikeouts.
- ▶ McCoy tied his longest outing of his career against USF, going eight innings. The start for McCoy was his third consecutive with seven or more strikeouts. McCoy only allowed one earned run in the outing, with four outings this season where the lefty has allowed zero or one earned run.
- ▶ McCoy has been very effective in his first season back from injury. McCoy has had five or more strikeouts in six of his last seven outings, holding a strikeout-to-walk ratio of 3.6:1. McCoy is tied for the third-most innings in the conference this season and has allowed just 14 walks across his 53 innings pitched this season.

KING OF THE HILL

- ▶ Aden Hill had a pair of home runs in Maryland's 17-1 win over Princeton in Winston-Salem, with both home runs coming in the second inning. In Hill's first appearance at the plate, the junior right fielder clubbed a two-run shot over the left field fence. In his second at bat of the inning, Hill hit a three-run homer to the same exact spot in right center field.
- ▶ Hill's two home runs tied an NCAA record for the most home runs by a player in an inning. Hill is the first Terp to accomplish the feat since Will Watson, who hit two home runs in the third inning in a 17-2 win over Rutgers back on May 12, 2018.

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCE

- ▶ Maryland had the bats working on Feb. 22 against Western Carolina, scoring an impressive 35 runs in a 35-12 win. The 35 runs scored for the Terps set a new program record, with the previous record being 32 runs against Howard back on April 21, 1988.
- ▶ The Terps also had 27 hits in the game, which broke the previous program record of 25 which happened on two separate occasions against Howard (April 6, 1992) and Coppin State (March 14, 2007).
- ▶ Chris Hacopian scored six runs in the game on Saturday, setting a new program record for runs scored in a game and tying the Big Ten record held by Bill Hess of Ohio State on April 21, 1962 and Reid Roper of Illinois on May 10, 2015.

THE HACOPIAN BROS.

- ▶ Brothers Eddie and Chris Hacopian continue to be crucial pieces to the Maryland lineup. Chris has a .350 average with five home runs and 36 RBI. Chris has a .497 on-base percentage this season, tied for the fifth-best in the Big Ten. Eddie has nine doubles, one triple, five home runs and 28 RBI. Eddie has scored 44 runs, which is the fifth-most in the conference.
- ▶ In his junior season, Eddie Hacopian finished the season with a .377 batting average with nine home runs and 51 RBI. Eddie was fourth in the Big Ten in both batting average and hits (83) a season ago. Following a successful junior campaign, Eddie earned First Team All-Big Ten honors and was named Second Team All-East Region by the ABCA.
- ▶ The tradition of awarding the No.3 jersey at Maryland continued this year, as Eddie Hacopian was named the team's captain in 2025. The #3 is a huge honor for whoever is given the number for a given season as it embodies the three pillars of Maryland Baseball: toughness, ownership, and growth mindset.
- ▶ Chris Hacopian had one of the best freshman season in Maryland history. Chris finished his first season in college baseball with a .323 average and added 15 home runs and 42 RBI. Chris earned Second Team Freshman All-American accolades from D1Baseball, Baseball America, and Perfect Game, becoming the first Terp to earn freshman all-American honors since Matt Shaw in 2021. In addition to those national honors, Chris was named Second Team All Big Ten and to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Chris's 15 home runs were the second-most in program history for a freshman, tied with Maxwell Costes who hit 15 in 2019. His 42 RBI in 2024 tied Brandon Lowe for the fourth-most in program history.

AIN'T IT GRAND!

- ▶ The Terps got off to a great start with the bases loaded, hitting six grand slams in their first six games. College records aren't available to confirm if a team has ever hit six grand slams in a six-game span. For perspective, never in Major League Baseball history since 1901, has a team hit six grand slams in a six-game span, let alone in the first six games of a season. The 2020 San Diego Padres hit five grand slams in a six-game span within a season from Aug. 17-22, 2020.
- ▶ By comparison the 2023 Maryland team which finished the year with a national-best 11 grand slams, hit a grand slam in each of their first three games and four in their first six games.
- ▶ Alex Calarco leads the pack with three grand slams this season. He is followed by Chris Hacopian, who has hit two grand slams this year. Paul Jones II hit a grand slam during Maryland's 35-12 win on Saturday, which was also his first home run of his collegiate career.

CONTINUING A FAMILY TRADITION

- ▶ Brayden Martin was an important piece for the Terps in his first season in College park a season ago. Martin finished 2024 playing in 55 games with 51 starts, batting .266 with a home run and 24 RBI.
- ▶ This season Martin switched to #42, following in the footsteps of his uncle Walt Williams who wore the #42 while starring for the Maryland's men's basketball program from 1988-92.
- ▶ Williams finished his Maryland career with 1,704 points, which is the 13th-most in program history. "The Wizard", as he is known in College Park, was a finalist for the Wooden and Naismith Player of the Year Awards as a senior, averaging 26.8 points per game. Following his playing days at Maryland, Williams was selected with the seventh pick in the 1992 NBA Draft by Sacramento and went on to play 11 season in the NBA.
- ▶ Martin has started every game for the Terps so far this season in the infield. The sophomore infielder has a batting average of .310 with four doubles, one home run, 16 RBI, a .462 on base percentage and five stolen bases.

FRESHMEN ON THE BUMP

- ▶ The Terrapins' pitching staff will feature several freshman pitchers who are expected to add to an already improved pitching staff from a season ago. The group includes the likes of Jake Yeager, Cristofer Cespedes, Logan Hastings, and Ryan Bailey
- ▶ Yeager has started seven games this season for the Terps. Through seven starts, Yeager has a 2-3 record with 17 strikeouts. Yeager earned his first win as a Terp on March 4, throwing five innings and allowing one hit against James Madison. Yeager made his first start against a Big Ten opponent against Washington, going 4.2 innings and striking out a pair of batters.
- ▶ Cespedes has been a consistent performer out of the Terps bullpen. Cespedes has made 12 appearances this season, pitching to an 3.98 ERA while holding opponents to a .157 batting average. Cespedes was one of the top high school pitching prospects nationally, ranking as the #218 player in the country and #1 pitcher in New York by Perfect Game.
- ▶ Hastings has made multiple appearances for the Terps, both coming out of the bullpen and starting games. Hastings has made 11 appearances with six starts for the Terps, making a five inning, six strikeout performance at Wake Forest in his first start. So far this season Hastings is pitching to a 3-4 record with 27 strikeouts in 35.0 innings.
- ▶ Bailey joins the Terps from New York, coming in as the 14th-ranked right-handed pitcher in the state according to Perfect Game. Bailey has made five appearances for the Terps this season, throwing 5.2 innings on the mound. Bailey made his first start as a Terp on March 12 against Mount St. Mary's.

HOLLIWOOD SWINGIN'

- ▶ Hollis Porter had one of the best weeks for the Terps last month. The redshirt sophomore first baseman finished the week of action with a .632 batting average with four doubles, four home runs, and 15 RBI.
- ▶ For his efforts, Porter took home a pair of weekly honors. Porter was named the Big Ten Player of the Week, the first time a Terp had been named the conference's player of the week since Matt Shaw on May 1, 2023. Porter was also named the Dick Howser Trophy National Co-Hitter of the Week. Porter was the second Terp to earn the national hitter of the week award, with Alex Calarco winning the award earlier in the season.
- ▶ This season, Porter has a .293 average, with 14 home runs and 46 RBI in his first year in College Park. Porter's 14 home runs are the fourth-most in the Big Ten. His 46 RBI on the campaign are also one of the top marks in the Big Ten, ranking fifth in the conference.

TERRAPIN TEAM NOTES

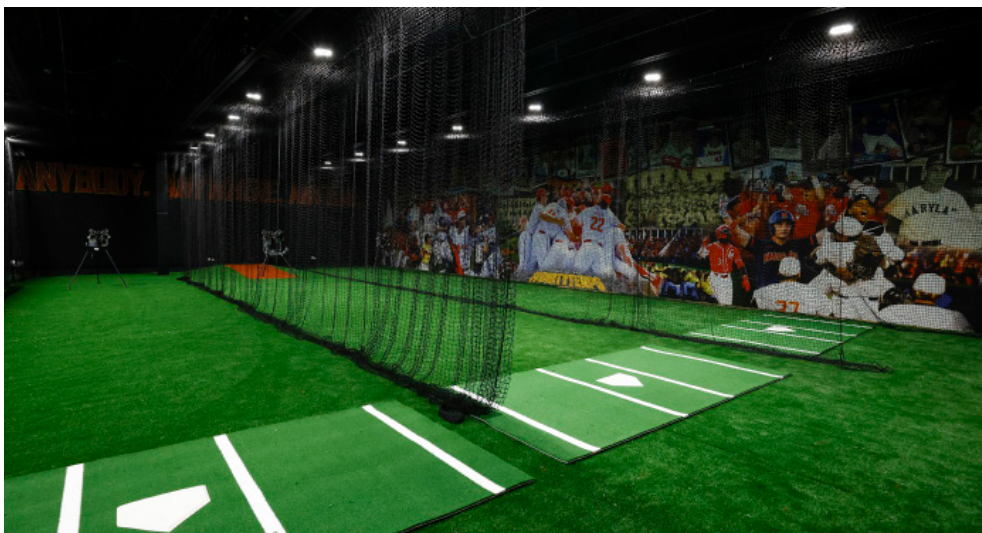

STAFF CHANGES FOR THE TERPS

- ▶ Maryland will have a bit of a new look within its coaching staff heading into the 2025 season. Tommy Gardiner returns as assistant coach after his first season as assistant coach in 2024. Gardiner has also been promoted to Recruiting Coordinator for the program, taking over for John Poss who has become the new head coach for the Clarion Golden Eagles.
- ▶ The Terps also welcome new assistant coach Brock Keener into the fold. Keener has some experience in the DMV Area, spending the previous three seasons at Georgetown. Keener helped lead the Hoyas to their first-ever Big East Championship Game in 2024 and coached six players that earned All-Big East honors.
- ▶ Before coaching at Georgetown, Keener was a assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Army West Point for two seasons. Keener was a student assistant coach at Michigan under former Maryland coach Erik Bakich in 2019, helping lead the Wolverines to the program's eighth NCAA College World Series and third-ever trip to the CWS finals in 2019. Keener also starred on the baseball program at Michigan from 2017-18, playing in 50 games in his career and finishing with five doubles, a triple, and 22 RBI.

STANLEY BOBB BASEBALL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- ▶ On Wednesday, Jan. 14, Maryland unveiled the new Stanley Bobb Baseball Performance Center. This will serve as the new indoor training facility for the Maryland Baseball program.
- ▶ This new state-of-the-art facility will allow baseball student-athletes the opportunity to train year round in a controlled environment, allowing them to continue to hone their skills regardless of the conditions.
- ▶ The 8,500 square foot facility will have defined spaces for both pitchers and hitters in a climate controlled environment. The facility features state-of-the-art technology.
- ▶ This project is one of the many as part of Maryland's Building Champions initiative, a campaign that enables investment in facility renovation and enhancement.
- ▶ The facility is named after the late Stanley Bobb, who pitched for the Terps from 1954-57. A member of the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame, Bobb was the starting pitcher in the dedication game at then-Shipley Field in 1954.

FRESHMEN HITTERS MAKING THEIR MARK

- ▶ Multiple freshman hitters have made early impacts for the Terps. These freshmen have made a combined 37 appearances for the Terps so far this campaign.
- ▶ Parker Corbin has played in 20 games for the Terps with eight starts. The freshman from Loveland, Ohio has a .244 batting average and five RBI. Corbin made his first appearance for the Terps in their 17-1 win over Mercyhurst, and his first start on Feb. 25 against Delaware.
- ▶ Colin Gibbs has made 14 appearances for the Terps, with seven of them being starts. Gibbs has a .double and seven RBI. Gibbs made his first start for the Terps on March 1, going 3-4 with a pair of RBI.
- ▶ Paul Jones II has played in six games for the Terps, with a .333 average with a home run and six RBI. Jones II hit his first home run of his career in Maryland's 35-12 win over Western Carolina, the sixth grand slam of the season for the Terps. Jones II got his first career start on March 29 against Northwestern.
- ▶ Aidan Driscoll has played four games for the Terps, and made his first career start on March 23 on the road against Washington. Driscoll earned his first collegiate hit on February 15, coming off the bench in Maryland's win over Mercyhurst.

¡VAMOS PUERTO RICO!

- ▶ Senior pitcher Omar Melendez pitcher had the opportunity to represent his home nation Puerto Rico this past summer at the Under-23 Baseball World Cup in Shaoxing, China.
- ▶ Melendez and Puerto Rico reached the world championship final and earned a silver medal. They finished 7-2 overall. The country's second-place finish was its best in the U-23 Baseball World Cup. In previous participations, Puerto Rico finished just eighth (2018) and ninth (2022).
- ▶ Melendez appeared in three games with two starts, posting a 3.94 ERA in 5.1 innings pitched. His best outing came against Colombia, where he pitched four innings and allowed just two hits and one run.

TERPS EARN PERFECT GAME PRESEASON HONORS

- ▶ Three Terps were featured on Perfect Game's 2025 Preseason Honors list by class. Eddie Hacopian, Chris Hacopian, and Kyle McCoy each represented the Terrapins on the preseason lists.
- ▶ Eddie Hacopian was named the #34 collegiate senior by Perfect Game. Eddie is coming off his best year as a Terp, finishing with a .377 average with nine homers and 51 RBI last season.
- ▶ Chris Hacopian was named the 71st-ranked collegiate junior. This comes after a stellar freshman season which saw the Potomac-native earn freshman all-American honors and have one of the best seasons in program history.
- ▶ Kyle McCoy closes out the list as he was named the 90th-ranked collegiate junior. McCoy returns in 2025 after missing the 2024 season due to injury. In 2023, McCoy earned Big Ten All-Freshman honors after finishing with a 4-6 record and 39 strikeouts.
- ▶ Hollis Porter was named to the Perfect Game Preseason All-Big Ten Team at designated hitter. Porter was joined on the All-Conference Team by Chris Hacopian, who was included as a middle infielder.

SCOUTING THE HOOSIERS

- ▶ Indiana enters the weekend after falling in a midweek contest at home against Indiana State 7-5. Devin Taylor led the way offensively, hitting the 47th home run of his career to tie the program record. The Hoosiers mounted a comeback late, with a home run from Tyler Cerny in the ninth. The Hoosiers scored another in the inning on an RBI double, but the comeback bid fell just short in the loss.
- ▶ Offensively, Korbryn Dickerson leads the Hoosiers in most major categories. Dickerson comes into the weekend leading the team in hits (57), home runs (15), and RBI (58). Dickerson leads the Big Ten in RBI so far this year and is tied for the most in the country, while also ranking second in the conference in home runs. Devin Taylor leads the team in batting average, hitting .365 on the season. His .365 average ranks as the seventh-best in the Big Ten. As a team Indiana leads the conference and ranks in the top-20 nationally in hits with 324 on the year.
- ▶ On the pitching side, Cole Gilley leads the Hoosier rotation. Gilley comes into the weekend with a 7-1 record, pitching to a 3.02 ERA with 55 strikeouts in 41.2 innings. Gilley's seven wins on the year are tied for the most in the Big Ten, and are tied for the third-most nationally. Drew Buhr leads the team in ERA, coming into the weekend with a 2.29 ERA across 19.2 innings on the mound.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

- ▶ Matt Shaw made his MLB debut with the Chicago Cubs as a part of the Tokyo Series. Shaw hit his first career home run on March 29 in a 4-3 win over Arizona.
- ▶ Matt Shaw is one of the top prospects in baseball after two phenomenal years in the minors. Shaw finished the 2024 season across AA and AAA with a .284 average, 19 doubles, four triples, 21 home runs, and 71 RBI. Shaw was named the Southern League Most Valuable Player and the All-MiLB Prospect Second Team.
- ▶ Shaw currently ranks as the #1 prospect in the Cubs organization and the #19 prospect in Minor League baseball according to MLB Pipeline. During the offseason, Shaw represented the United States at the Premier12 Tournament where he finished with a .412 average, two doubles, a triple, two home runs, and a tournament-leading 14 RBI. In a 12-2 USA win over The Netherlands, Shaw finished the game with seven RBI. Shaw became only the second player in Team USA history to have seven RBI in a single game, and the first since Ken Griffey Jr. back on Mar. 10, 2006.

TERPS IN THE PROS

- ▶ The Terps have 18 former players in major and minor league baseball. Four of those players feature in the major leagues: LaMonte Wade Jr. (San Francisco Giants), Brandon Lowe (Tampa Bay Rays), and Sean Burke (Chicago White Sox), and Matt Shaw (Chicago Cubs)
- ▶ Wade finished 2024 with .260 average with eight home runs, 34 RBI in 117 games with the Giants. After missing multiple games early in the season due to injury, Lowe finished the 2024 season with a .244 batting average with 21 home runs and 58 RBI. Burke made his major league debut towards the end of the season with the White Sox. In his four appearances (three starts), Burke had a 2-0 record with a 1.42 ERA and 22 strikeouts in 19.0 innings while holding opposing hitters to a .174 batting average.
- ▶ During Spring Training, four Terps earned invitations to their respective team camps: Ben Cowles & Matt Shaw (Chicago Cubs), Jose Cuas (Philadelphia Phillies), Nick Dunn (Seattle Mariners).

51-43 (.543) • 2nd Season

Matt Swope '03, who has been associated with Maryland baseball for more than two decades was named head coach of the Terrapins by Damon Evans, Barry P. Gossett Director of Athletics on June 12, 2023. Swope has been a part of the Maryland baseball staff for the past 11 seasons as the Terrapins advanced to six NCAA Regionals and two Super Regionals. Maryland won back-to-back Big Ten Championships in the last two seasons and won its first Big Ten Tournament Championship this past season, with Swope serving as associate head coach. He is the ninth head coach in the 132-year history of Maryland baseball as he replaces Rob Vaughn, who was hired at the University of Alabama.

Swope is a native of New Carrollton, Maryland, and a graduate of DeMatha Catholic High School. He becomes the first Maryland baseball head coach to lead his alma mater since Tom Bradley '72 (head coach from 1991-2000), who recruited Swope to Maryland in 1998. As a player and staff member, Swope has been a part of 461 victories as a Terp.

Swope has served as associate head coach of the Terps since 2022 as Maryland has had unprecedented success on the diamond. Maryland combined to win 90 games over the last two seasons, the two winningest seasons in program history as the Terps went 48-14 in 2022 and 42-21 in 2023, in winning Big Ten Championships and qualifying for the NCAA Regionals in both seasons. Overall, Swope has been a part of the six winningest seasons in program history (2002, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2022, and 2023).

Between 2022 and 2023, the Maryland offense shattered numerous program records under Swope's direction. The Terps set records for most home runs (137), most hits

(684), most runs (578), most RBIs (552), highest slugging percentage (.564), and most walks (385). Maryland became the first school in more than 30 years with outright back-to-back Big Ten Players of the Year in Chris Alleyne (2022) and Matt Shaw (2023).

In the 2023 season, Nick Lorusso set the school single-season records for home runs (26), RBI (105) and hits (100) becoming the first player in Division I baseball to drive in 100 runs in a season in 20 years. Shaw and Lorusso each broke the school records for career home runs and RBI. Luke Shliger broke Swope's 20-year record (181) for the most runs scored in a single season with 189.

Maryland enters the 2024 season having won 22 consecutive Big Ten series, dating back to the middle of the 2021 season.

During Swope's tenure on the Maryland staff since 2013, 34 Terps have been drafted, including 12 selections in the Top 10 rounds and more to come this summer in the 2023 MLB Draft.

Swope served as an assistant coach with the Terps from 2017-22 and director of operations from 2013-17. Swope helped overhaul the Maryland baseball brand in his time as director of operations, managing a number of areas including the Terps' budget, fundraising, scheduling, travel logistics, team events, compliance, social media, equipment, and apparel. He was directly involved with Maryland's locker room renovation project, the Home Field project with the architecture department, and upgrades to Bob "Turtle" Smith Stadium.

THE SWOPE FILE

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Full Name: Matthew Ross Swope
Hometown: New Carrollton, Maryland
Education: Maryland '03 (Criminology & Criminal Justice)
Family: Katie, Children: Olivia, Reese, Baylor

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

1999-02: Maryland, outfielder
2002: Vermont Expos, outfielder
2002: Clinton Lumber Kings, outfielder
2005: Washington Wild Things, outfielder

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2013-17: Maryland, Director of Operations
2017-22: Maryland, Assistant Coach
2022-2023: Maryland, Associate Head Coach
2023-Present: Maryland, Head Coach

The Maryland alum oversaw the state and foundation budgets and was directly involved with the Home Run Club, which liaises with former players and boosters of the program, helping raise more than $1 million in private funds since 2012.

Swope was a four-year starter and had an illustrious career in College Park from 1999-2002. Playing outfield for the Terps, Swope finished his career with a .331 batting average, 16 home runs, and 135 RBI. Many of his players have passed him on the career lists, but he still stands second in runs scored (181), and hits (253), fifth in walks (106), seventh in total bases (360), ninth in RBI, and 10th in stolen bases (44).

Swope was selected in the 2002 MLB Draft by the Montreal Expos where he spent the season with their Class A affiliate Clinton Lumber Kings and their Class A Short-Season affiliate Vermont Expos.

Swope was nominated as the Leukemia and Lymphoma Societies Man of The Year in 2010 and has raised over $100,000 for the LLS and Kids Vs. Cancer Foundation.

Swope received his bachelor's degree in criminology and criminal justice from the University of Maryland in 2003. Swope and Katie have three children: Olivia, Reese and Baylor.
