KICKING OFF

KEY STORYLINES

Indiana women's soccer will travel to their first roach match to play No. 23 Saint Louis on Thursday, Aug. 26 at Robert R. Hermann Stadium in Saint Louis, Mo.

The Hoosiers are returning 19 players from the 2024 season with five new additions to the squad, including two freshmen and three transfers.

This will be the fifth meeting all-time between the programs with the Billikens leading the series 2-1-1.

Head coach Josh Rife will look to become the third coach in program history to start his tenure 3-0.

The Billikens look to continue their longstanding success as head coach Katie Shields looks to lead her team to their 10th straight season of double figure wins.

LAST TIME OUT

The Hoosiers will travel for two road games after their 1-0 shutout over Ball State.

The first half was highlighted by the defenses. The Hoosier defense held the Cardinals to only three shots and zero on goal.

In the 62nd minute IU was awarded a corner kick. Senior Marisa Grzesiak played the ball into the box. Sophomore Aleyna Quinn found the ball for a header to give IU a 1-0 lead.

Ball State would make a final push but could not convert on three shot opportunities. Senior goalkeeper Dani Jacobson tagged two saves to help the defense shut out the Cardinals.

RETURNERS

The Hoosiers will see 19 returners from the 2024 season, including four starters.

IUWS is returning seven of its 13 goal scorers last year. Neighbors, Grzesiak, and Coffield scored at least two goals with an additional four scorers returning this season.

Indiana's backline returns plenty of scoring from veteran defenders in Piper Coffield, Natasha Kim, Olivia Albert,

NEW ADDITIONS

The Hoosiers added five new additions to the team including graduate transfers Jenna Chatterton and Sally Rainey along with Sophomore Aleyna Quinn. Two true freshmen in Tori Brewer and Grace Hamm will look to provide a spark coming into their first years with the program.

Rainey will look to take over responsibilities in goal for the Hoosiers. She comes in as the 47th ranked player on the Top Drawer National Rankings list having recorded 55 saves a season ago.

Sophomores Haggerty, Vlcek and Pratl will continue to add depth to the IU's backline while Maggie and Aleyna look to create more scoring changes for the Hoosiers.

BIG TEN PLAYERS TO WATCH

Three Hoosiers were named Big Ten Players to Watch in the conference's season preview.

Kennedy Neighbors, Midfielder

Neighbors earns her spot on the Players to Watch list as she looks to lead the Hoosiers up front. She made 15 starts in 17 appearances through the 2024 season and is the leading scorer among returners with three goals scored. The Evansville, Ind. native scored her first career goal in a shutout win over Tennessee to start the season. Neighbors also saw goals in wins over Ball State and Lawrence.

Aleyna Quinn, Forward

Quinn, a Sophomore transfer from Ball State, earns a spot on the Player to Watch List while looking to make a big impact in her first year with the Hoosiers. She joins the Indiana women's soccer team after spending her freshman year with the cardinals. She follows Coach Rife looking to apply her year of experience in a familiar playing style. As a forward, she appeared in all 13 matches and totaled 3 points in her career all coming from assists. Quinn held a .357 shots on goal percentage through her young career.

Haden Vlcek, Defender

Vlcek comes into her second season with the Hoosiers after a standout freshman campaign. She played a total of 1067 minutes, holding Indiana's backline strong. She scored her first career goal to give IU a 2-1 victory over Ball State (8/20). The Springfield, Ill. native finished the season tallying three points along with a .600 shots on goal percentage.

STRONG STARTS

Josh Rife enters his first season at the helm of the Indiana women's soccer program in the Fall of 2025.

Rife is the fifth head coach in program history and takes over after a six-year stint as the head coach of Ball State women's soccer. Indiana University Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Dolson announced the hiring of Josh Rife as the head coach of the program on February 11, 2025.

He returns to his alma mater as the Honolulu, Hawaii native played two seasons for Indiana men's soccer from 2000-01. At Indiana, Rife led the Hoosiers to back-to-back Final Four appearances in 2000 and 2001, and a Big Ten title in 2001.

Rife owns an overall record of 49-38-21 (33-18-13 MAC) in his six-season tenure at Ball State, highlighted by a program record-tying 15 wins in 2019. His teams have been especially good at home, going 29-12-8 at the Briner Sports Complex.

Rife has coached 19 All-MAC selections, including 2023 MAC Offensive Player of the Year Lexi Fraley and 2022 MAC Freshman of the Year Delaney Caldwell. In 2020-21, BSU set a program record with four United Soccer Coaches All-Region selections.

His teams have also excelled off the field with multiple team academic awards and a total of 73 Academic All-MAC selections. Fraley was voted Second Team Academic All-America by the CSC in 2023. In 2020-21, Mason and Smith became the first players in program history to be named to the United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-America teams.

Rife led the Cardinals to a second-place MAC finish in his debut season in 2019 and followed it with a MAC West Division title and a MAC Championship Game appearance in the COVID-delayed 2020-21 campaign. The championship game appearance was the third in program history.

After Rife introduced a new style of play, Ball State finished 20th in the country in total assists in 2019, and teammates Tatiana Mason and Sam Kambol both set the school record for assists in a single season with seven apiece.

Rife came to Muncie from Starkville, Mississippi, where he spent one season as an assistant coach at Mississippi State. During his lone year in Mississippi, Rife helped lead the Bulldogs to their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Rife led a record-breaking defense at MSU, holding opponents to 11.6 shots per game and allowing only 17 goals.

Before Mississippi State, Rife spent two seasons in Virginia as an assistant coach for the women's soccer team at Liberty University. There, he guided the Flames to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016 after winning the Big South Conference title. Prior to Liberty, Rife served as an assistant for the Pittsburgh Riverhounds of the United Soccer League (USL), and was head coach of the team's U-23 squad. Additionally, he became the youngest head coach in the Major Indoor Soccer League when he was hired by the Rochester Lancers in 2013.

Rife's coaching career began in 2003 as an assistant with Missouri Baptist University. He also made a stop at Palm Beach Atlantic University in Florida where he worked as an assistant coach. In 2010, he led the Sailfish to the National Christian College Athletic Association National Championship after compiling a 15-6 record. Rife also served as a volunteer assistant at Gardner Webb University in 2012.

In addition to his several years of coaching experience, Rife played professionally both indoor and outdoor. From 2003-2012 he played in the USL for the Charlotte Eagles and then spent the 2013 season with VSI Tampa Bay FC. From 2005-2013, Rife also spent time in the MISL, playing for the Philadelphia Kixx, Detroit Ignition and Milwaukee Wave.

Rife played collegiately for Texas Christian University for two years before transferring to Indiana University. After graduating from Indiana with a degree in general studies and a business certificate, Rife has gone on to receive his premier diploma and advanced national diploma from the United Soccer Coaches.

He and his wife Christy have two daughters, Maddison and Kilee.
