• IU improved to 53-3 (.946) in home openers at Assembly Hall since the facility opened for the 1971-72 season.

• IU closed the opening half on an extended 22-2 scoring run over the final 8:22, turning a one-point lead into a commanding 44-23 halftime advantage. The Hoosiers held Eastern Illinois without a made field goal for the final 9:45 of the period and forced nine turnovers during the stretch.

• The Hoosiers forced 22 Eastern Illinois turnovers and converted those into a 29-8 advantage in points off turnovers. IU recorded 13 steals, including 10 in the first half. The Panthers committed 14 turnovers before halftime.

• IU's 13 steals are the most in a single game since putting up 13 in a win over Illinois on January 3rd, 2019. Four different players had multiple steals against Eastern Illinois.

• IU shot 50.0% (29-of-58) from the floor, 37.5% (9-of-24) from the 3-point line, and 75.0% (24-of-32) from the free throw line. The Hoosiers connected on six triples after halftime and scored 47 second-half points.

• The Hoosiers scored 91 points in the win, the second time in his two years that head coach Darian DeVries has had a team score 90 points in a season opener. It's the 12th time since 2000 that IU has put up 90-or-more points in the first contest of the year. It's in the ninth time in the DeVries era that IU has scored 90 in a game.

• The Hoosiers limited Eastern Illinois to three made 3-pointers on 14 attempts (21.4%). The Panthers went 0-of-7 from behind the arc in the second half.

• The 13 offensive rebounds that IU grabbed are the most in a single game since picking up 14 in last year's (Jan. 7, 2026) win at Maryland. Third-year center Samet Yigitoglu had a team high five offensive rebounds.

• 10 players made their IU debut in the win over Eastern Illinois. All five players in the starting lineup were new to the program. Fourth-year guard Markus Burton led the way with 19 points.
