DAWG BITES

- The Huskies earned wins on Sunday and Monday to take a series split with San Diego State over the weekend
- Three of Washington's starting pitchers threw quality starts against the Aztecs (Jackson Thomas - 2/29; Gunnar Nichols - 3/1; Hayden Lewis - 3/2)
- In each of the three quality starts, the starting pitcher struck out at least nine batters. Each strikeout total was a career-high for that pitcher (Thomas 9, Nichols 10, Lewis 9)
- Hayden Lewis threw 7.0 innings in his start on Monday, the most of any starting pitcher this season
- Braeden Terry leads the team in batting average (.415), slugging (.634), hits (17), triples (2), total bases (26), is second in on base percentage (.457), and RBIs (6)
- Terry also leads the team in multi-hit games (5). Four of his multi-hit games have at least three hits
- Colton Bower has the most multi-RBI games with three
- Freshman Daniel Porras is Washington's joint-leader in home runs (2) and has the most RBIs on the team with seven
- Gunnar Nichols paces the pitching staff with a .191 opposing batting average, 18 strikeouts and three games started
- Washington welcomed four new staff members to Montlake ahead of the 2026 season. Kade Kryzsko joins as an assistant coach, Justin Jacobs is the new recruiting coordinator, Scott Junck serves as the director of baseball operations, and Jake Rook is the director of baseball analytics.
- The Huskies were picked to finish eighth in the Big Ten conference by D1Baseball

SERIES HISTORY

Indiana leads 2-0 (Last matchup 2019)

NUMBERS TO KNOW

2 2026 is the first season for Eddie Smith at the helm for UW. The Olympia, Wash. native comes to the Huskies after three years at Utah Valley.

23 Washington has 23 new faces on the 26 roster including 16 transfer student-athletes.

6 The Huskies return a core of the offense from a season ago, as six of nine starters come back to Montlake. Washington will feature 13 returning players this season.

3 Three Diamond Dawgs were named to the D1Baseball Preseason Player Rankings. Sam DeCarlo - top-50 SS, Casen Taggart - top-50 1B, and Jackson Thomas - top-200 SP.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS: Washington Assistant Director of Communications Jack Larkin handles all communications duties for the Washington baseball program. For any questions or special requests, contact him at (206) 617-0132 or by email at jlark@uw.edu.

PRACTICES/INTERVIEWS: The Huskies practice throughout the week at Husky Ballpark, with practice typically occurring from 2-5 p.m. PT. Media wishing to arrange interviews with coaches or players either in person or remotely should contact Athletic Communications. All interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Media availability for players is subject to the team's time management plan.

CREDENTIALS: Requests for credentials must be sent to UW Athletic Communications at least 24 hours prior to each game. Please only submit credential requests for games you are sure to attend. Priority will be given to media outlets and members who regularly cover Washington baseball. Space in the press box at Husky Ballpark is extremely limited and some outlets may need to be seated outdoors.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP/STADIUM ENTRANCE: Credentials can be picked up on gameday at Husky Ballpark. Please contact Jack Larkin to arrange/coordinate pickup. Gates are open for batting practice prior to games, but credential access begins being enforced just over an hour before first pitch.

PARKING: Media parking will be located in Lot E18, off Montlake Boulevard adjacent to Husky Ballpark and Husky Soccer Stadium. Media parking will be distributed on a per-game basis. To request a parking pass, contact Jack Larkin at least 48 hours in advance of the game or series you wish to cover.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY: Still photographers may shoot from the film deck behind home plate or inside the camera wells down both base lines. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from within the dugout area. Any photographer not following the guidelines may have his credentials revoked at any time. Credentials must be clearly and properly displayed at all times. To request a credential, please contact the Washington Athletics Communications office.

VISITING RADIO: Please contact Jack Larkin for credentials. The visiting radio booth is behind home plate on the first base side of the plate. There is space to fit a crew of two comfortably for each broadcasting medium.

POSTGAME MEDIA: The Husky locker room is CLOSED to the media following the game, by facility policy. Selected players will be brought to the media down the first base line following a 10-minute cooling off period. Washington head coach Eddie Smith will address the media approximately 10 minutes after the game following player interviews. Media wishing to schedule interviews with a Washington opponent should work with that team's athletic communications office.

TELEVISION INFORMATION: All Washington home games not already scheduled for national television are broadcasted live on Big Ten Plus. Links for these broadcasts are made available on the schedule page at GoHuskies.com, as well as in each week's preview. All other games scheduled on the Big Ten Network can be found on the schedule page online.

LIVE STATS: Live stats are available for each Washington baseball game. Links to follow will be made available online at GoHuskies.com, and can generally be found specifically in game previews or game notes. For all Husky home games, live stats are available via StatBroadcast on the schedule page at GoHuskies.com or by visiting HuskyStats.com.

SECOND SEASON UNDER SMITH

On July 9, 2024, Eddie Smith was named the 25th head coach of University of Washington baseball, announced by UW Director of Athletics Pat Chun. Smith, a native of Olympia, Washington, comes to Montlake after three seasons at Utah Valley. Smith begins his second season at the helm of the Huskies in 2026.

UP NEXT

Washington begins the Big Ten slate this weekend, facing Indiana in Bloomington for a three-game set. Friday will be just the third all-time meeting between the two programs. Indiana has claimed wins in both of the previous meetings.

The Huskies will throw Noah Kenney on Friday, Jackson Thomas on Saturday, and Gunnar Nichols on Sunday.

SERIES SPLIT WITH SDSU

The Huskies battled back from an 0-2 start in the series against San Diego State to earn a 2-2 split on Monday. Washington took down SDSU 4-1 in the finale to secure the split. Hayden Lewis turned in the third straight quality start by a Husky starter on Monday. He went 7.0 innings with nine strikeouts and only three hits, one walk, and one run allowed. The Husky offense provided four runs of support, led by Sam DeCarlo with two runs driven in on a two-run home run. It was DeCarlo's first long ball of the season. Braeden Terry also chipped in two hits in his four at bats. Over the last eight games, Terry has batted .533 (16-30).

The Huskies also took Sunday's game 11-2 over the Aztecs. Gunnar Nichols turned in a dominant performance in his third Husky start. The senior threw 6.0 innings, allowing just two hits and one run while striking out a career-high 10 batters. He moves to 1-2 on the year with the victory. Among Husky starters this year, he leads the team in hits allowed (9), runs allowed (6), strikeouts (18), and batting average allowed (.191).

On the offensive end, Washington scored early and often to take the win. The Huskies were led by Ian Draper in RBIs with five, including a three-RBI double in the second inning. The freshman went 3-5 on the day as the designated hitter and raised his season batting average to .389. Braeden Terry continued his hot hand in the batter's box as well. The left fielder went 4-5 on the day, his third game of three hits or more in the last week.

QUALITY PITCHING

Washington turned in three straight quality starts from Saturday to Monday. Jackson Thomas, Gunnar Nichols, and Hayden Lewis each threw 6.0 innings or more with less than three runs allowed. Each pitcher struck out at least nine batters as well.

Lewis became the first Husky this season to toss at least 7.0 innings in a game while Nichols struck out a career-best 10 batters on Sunday afternoon.

BRAEDEN TERRY BOOMING

Braeden has been on a tear for the Dawgs, currently pacing the offense with a .415 average and a 1.091 OPS. In the last eight games, Terry is batting 16-30 with a .533 average. He has seven more hits than the next best player during that stretch, including two doubles, two triples, one home run, and six RBIs.

Terry has been terrorizing right handed pitchers this season. He's batting 17-34 against righties this year, hitting at a .500 clip. He's also hitting .350 with runners on base.

FRESHMAN FIREPOWER

Ian Draper has burst onto the scene, making the most of his moments on the field. He’s made eight appearances, including four starts and is batting .333 with two doubles and five RBIs. All five of his runs batted in came on Sunday against San Diego State as he was responsible for plating nearly half of Washington’s 11 runs that day. Draper has played as a third baseman, second baseman, and designated hitter this season.

MULTI-HIT HUSKIES

Six Dawgs have recorded at least three multi-hit games this season, led by Braeden Terry with five. Terry is the lone Dawg to record a four-hit game and has had at least three hits in three of the last five games. Mic Paul has four multi-hit games while Ty Cowan, Daniel Porras, Ian Draper, and Ethan Swidler each have three.

SHUTOUT RELIEVERS

Tommy Brandenburg and Bryce Johnson recorded saves over the weekend against San Diego State, helping preserve wins for the Diamond Dawgs on Sunday and Monday. Brandenburg tossed 3.0 innings on Sunday, allowing just three hits and one run while fanning three of the batters he faced.

Bryce Johnson made two relief appearances over the weekend, tossing a total of 5.0 innings without allowing a run. He threw 3.0 scoreless innings on Saturday, giving up just one hit while striking out three. On Monday, he earned his first career save, finishing off the Aztecs in the eighth and ninth innings with two hits allowed against two strikeouts and zero walks.

Brandenburg and Johnson each rank fourth in the Big Ten with one save on the season.

TRIPLE THREAT

The Huskies have knocked three triples this season, the fourth-most in the Big Ten and the 32nd in the NCAA. Braeden Terry, Mic Paul, and Casen Taggart are responsible for the three-baggers and have the Dawgs averaging 0.33 per game, good for 46th in the NCAA.

TOUGH TY COWAN

Ty Cowan has been one of the toughest players to strike out in the Big Ten this season. He ranks 13th in the conference in the metric, averaging one strikeout every 10.5 at bats. He has only four strikeouts on the season in his team-leading 42 at bats.

DAWG DEBUTS

17 Diamond Dawgs made their first career appearance over the first two weekends of the season. Position player debuts included Ian Draper, Ty Cowan, Aidan Dougherty, Drew Johnson, Mic Paul, Daniel Porras, Kevin Spear, Ethan Swidler, and Landon Young. Pitching debuts include Carson Boesel, Bryce Johnson, Noah Kenney, Hayden Lewis, Liam Lierman, Jay Miller, Jack Wade, and Tyler Walker.

FRESH FACES

Washington features a new-look team in 2026, including 23 newcomers, 16 of whom are transfer players. The Huskies return 13 letterwinners from a season ago, including nine position player starters.

FOUR NEW STAFF MEMBERS

The Huskies welcome four new members to the Diamond Dawg staff. Kade Kryzsko has joined as an assistant coach, Justin Jacobs is the team’s new recruiting coordinator, Scott Junck is the Director of Baseball Operations, and Jake Rook is the director of baseball analytics.

THREE DAWGS NAMED CONFERENCE PLAYERS TO WATCH

Hayden Lewis, Casen Taggart, and Jackson Thomas have each been named Big Ten Players to Watch, the conference announced on Wednesday.

Hayden Lewis, the newest of the three Huskies, joins Washington after two seasons and 22 appearances with New Mexico State. The senior right-handed pitcher tossed a career-high 28.2 innings last season in seven starts. He struck out 25 batters while allowing a .312 batting average.

Casen Taggart figures to again be a focal part of the Husky offense after leading the the team in batting average (.331), on base percentage (.471), and walks (46). The senior firstbaseman started in 50 games a season ago and had the longest reached-base streak on the team, totaling 31 straight games. His 0.92 walks per game had him ranked No. 33 in the nation, and he also launched six home runs, 11 doubles, and drove in 32 runs.

Jackson Thomas looks to be a key returning pitcher for the Diamond Dawgs after a strong debut on Montlake last season. Thomas threw 71.2 innings last season while making 15 appearances and 13 starts. He became the Huskies' Saturday starter and collected a 5-4 record while holding teams to a .276 average and 48 strikeouts. He tossed a career-best seven frames at Nebraska (March 8), allowing just four hits and two runs. In his 13 starts, Thomas allowed two or less runs on eight occasions.

BIG TEN PRESEASON POLL

Despite Washington's rise from 17th place in last season's poll to a fifth place finish, the Huskies have been left out of this season's Big Ten Preseason Poll. This year, the conference announced the voted top-six finishing programs.

In his first season on Montlake, Eddie Smith led the Huskies to a season that captured the essence of the bright future for UW Baseball. The 2025 Diamond Dawgs improved with 10 more wins while finishing with a top 75 RPI for just the second time since 2016.

Picked to finish 17th in the Big Ten preseason poll, the Huskies finished fifth in their inaugural Big Ten campaign and reached the conference tournament. The team made improvements in nearly every statistical category from the previous season despite playing a significantly more challenging strength of schedule.

Player development has been the hallmark of Smith's coaching career. He has coached 19 players who have gone on to play in the Major Leagues including All Star and World Series Champion Chris Taylor as well as rookie phenom Dylan Crews.

While also serving as the team's hitting coach, every offense Smith has coached since 2018 has improved its slugging percentage and home runs from the previous season. Nearly every position player on LSU's 2023 and 2025 National Championship teams was recruited and/or coached by Smith during his time as the hitting coach at LSU.

In 2024, the Utah Valley offense led the WAC in every major category and became just the second offense in NCAA history to hit 100+ home runs, steal 75+ bases, walk 270+ times, and get hit by 140+ pitches.

In 2019, the Tulane offense led by Smith rewrote the American Athletic Conference record books with new records in numerous offensive categories including home runs, OPS, slugging percentage, and runs per game.

Winning has highlighted every step of Smith's coaching career. He took over a Utah Valley program that went 10-47 in 2021 and lost more games than any college baseball program in the country from 2017-2021. By 2023, year two of Smith's tenure, UVU played for the conference championship and won 34 games, the largest turnaround in Division 1 baseball from 2021 to 2023.

At Lower Columbia College, Smith garnered

National Coach of the Year honors leading the Red Devils to the NWAC Championship in 2015 and finishing with a No. 10 national ranking. The program won the West Region title three consecutive seasons from 2015 to 2017 and followed up with another NWAC championship in 2017.

In total, Smith has been to eight NCAA Tournaments and four Super Regionals. He reached the College World Series in Omaha while coaching at Virginia in 2009 and 2011.

A native of Olympia, Washington, Smith graduated from North Thurston High School where he led the Rams to the 2002 WIAA State Championship with a perfect 24-0 record. That year, he was named the Washington Scholar Athlete of the Year by the Washington High School Baseball Coaches Association.

Smith went on to play two seasons at Centralia Community College. In 2004, the team set a program record for wins and Smith was inducted in to the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 2012. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 2006 with a 3.8 college GPA and a degree in Spanish. In two years as an infielder at Notre Dame, the Irish advanced to the NCAA Tournament and won the Big East Championship both seasons.
