THE GAME

The IUP football program closes out an early-season homestand on Saturday, September 16 in a PSAC cross-over clash with Shippensburg. Kickoff from Miller Stadium is slated for 2:00 p.m.

IUP [1-1] is looking to bounce back from a bizarre ending in last week's 13-12 setback to East Stroudsburg in the Hall of Fame Game. The Crimson Hawks marched down inside the five on the game's final possession on a drive that spanned about six minutes, but could not get the ball snapped on a potential game-winning field goal attempt.

Shippensburg [0-2] has seen its fair share of injuries in the early stages of the season, recently falling to Seton Hill on the road by a 28-23 score. Saturday marks the second consecutive road crossover game for the Red Raiders, which fell in the season opener to 24th-ranked Newberry.

QUICK NOTES / STORY LINES

• IUP slipped outside of the AFCA Top 25 Poll to the "receiving votes" section following last week's loss, also dropping 10 spots to No. 22 in the D2Football.com Top 25.

• IUP's 13-12 loss last week was the first loss when allowing 17 points or fewer since 2015.

• IUP is searching for win number 600 in program history, entering the matchup with an overall record of 599-277-23 (.677). Only eight DII football programs boast 600 wins or more, including West Chester of the PSAC East.

• IUP had a stretch of 22 consecutive victories in the series against Shippensburg that spanned from 1989-2018. Overall, the Crimson Hawks hold a 45-18-4 all-time edge in the series with the Red Raiders, with the first meeting coming in 1925.

• Head coach Paul Tortorella is one win shy of a milestone 50th win as the head coach at IUP. He would become the second fastest IUP head coach to reach 50 wins with a victory Saturday.

• Shippensburg is making its first trip to Indiana since the 2018 season, a 45-21 victory for the Raiders at Miller Stadium.

• IUP has won 23 of the last 25 head-to-head meetings with Shippensburg, including last season's 44-21 road win at Seth Grove Stadium.

• IUP is among the top 25 nationally in both scoring defense [23rd; 15.0] and total defense [21st; 248.5] and passing yards allowed [20th; 127.5] through the opening two weeks of the season.

• Defensively, IUP has surrendered under 300 total yards in both games this season. The Hawks limited ESU to 264 yards last week.

• Redshirt-junior QB Karst Hunter is ninth nationally in yards per completing [17.58] through two games, which included multiple long passes last week against East Stroudsburg.

• While working a trio of different backs into the offense last week, IUP struggled to get the running game going against East Stroudsburg with just 52 yards on the ground. Redshirt-junior RB Adam Houser enters the contest 63 rushing yards shy of 1,000 for his collegiate career.

NOTEBOOK

TORTORELLA CLOSING IN ON MILESTONE VICTORY

IUP head coach Paul Tortorella was named the PSAC West Coach of the Year for 2022, a reflection on the overall strength of the program under his leadership. Coaching his 50th career game in 2022 against Mercyhurst and now in his sixth season, Tortorella is 49-12 (.803) overall with a 29-6 mark against PSAC West opponents.

In his 62nd game, Tortorella would become the second fastest coach to reach 50 wins in IUP history, behind the legendary Frank Cignetti (59 games). He reached 30 wins faster than any other IUP coach (35 games), and has three NCAA playoff berths (2017, 2019, 2022), two PSAC West titles, two PSAC Championships and a regional title.

IUP IS NO STRANGER TO CLOSE GAMES

IUP has seen its fair share of one-score games, dating back to the 2021 season. Since the start of 2021, IUP is 9-4 in one-score games. IUP was 5-1 in one-score games last season, now 6-2 since the start of the 2022 campaign. Both of IUP's matchups this season have been decided by a combined margin of eight points.

CRIMSON HAWKS IN FAMILIAR TERRITORY; PICKED AS PRESEASON FAVORITE IN PSAC WEST

For the eighth time in the past 11 seasons, the IUP football program was picked as the preseason favorites in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Preseason Coaches' Poll.

IUP picked up six first-place votes in the PSAC West, followed by Slippery Rock, Cal U, Gannon and Edinboro in the top five. Shepherd was picked as the preseason favorite in the PSAC East.

DEFENSE HAS BEEN OUTSTANDING

Returning nine starters on the defensive side of the ball in 2023, the Crimson Hawks have played outstanding through two games. Allowing an average of 15.0 points through the opening two weeks, IUP leads the PSAC and ranks 21st nationally in yards allowed (248.5).

KARST HUNTER TAKING OVER AS QB1

IUP has a new starting quarterback leading the offense again in 2023, with highly-touted transfer Karst Hunter making his debut as a transfer from Colorado Mesa. Hunter has thrown for 545 yards with four touchdowns and three interceptions in 2023, averaging 17.5 yards per completion this season, which ranks ninth in NCAA DII.

Hunter was a two-year starter at Colorado Mesa, earning All-RMAC Honorable mention and RMAC Freshman of the Year honors. Hunter set single season passing records in yards (2,481), completions (190) and completion percentage (62.5) at Colorado Mesa.

IUP RACKING UP "SPLASH PLAYS" EARLY THIS SEASON

IUP has posted 15 total "splash plays" over two games, which is listed as a pass of 20+ yards or a run of 10+ yards. The Hawks had nine of their 15 splash plays in the second half this season, including last week's 39 yard pass play from Hunter to Derek Lockhart on fourth down.

RECEIVING OPTIONS APLENTY IN 2023

The Crimson Hawks have plenty of depth in the receiving room for 2023. Returning All-PSAC selection Hilton Ridley, who hauled in eight touchdown receptions in 2022, is among the experienced returners for the Hawks. Derek Lockhart (47 rec, 784 yds, 12 TD) is back in the IUP lineup after playing just one game in 2022 during the season opener against East Stroudsburg. Lockhart has made touchdown receptions in each of the first two weeks, going up for a contested grab on a fourth-down conversion against East Stroudsburg.

Quinn Zinobile made a big impact in his IUP debut as a transfer from Albany, collecting two touchdown catches on seven receptions and tallying 128 yards against Ashland. He followed it up with another 100-yard receiving game last week, now ranking 12th nationally in receiving yards (235). His father, Michael, played at IUP for legendary head coach Frank Cignetti in the early 1990s. Cyair Clark also impressed in preseason camp and throughout scrimmages and provides a dynamic skillset in the slot and in the return game.

VETERAN LEADERSHIP HEADLINES OFFENSIVE LINE

Despite filling the void left by two All-Americans, the IUP offensive line is an experienced unit going into the 2023 season. Still looking to gain chemistry as a unit, the Hawks will rely on veterans Gerald Comedy and McLean Djouha.

Djouha was granted an extra year of eligibility by the NCAA just before the start of camp. Both Comedy and Djouha were starters on last season's offensive line that allowed just five sacks in 2022. Chad Layton stepped into the starting center spot in the opener, with transfers Chance Battle, Kelechi Okoro and Daric Cotman seeing action on the line. The Hawks struggled to run the football last week, mustering just 52 yards on the ground against East Stroudsburg.

DYNAMIC STABLE OF BACKS TO SPEARHEAD RUSHING ATTACK

IUP returns its top three leading rushers from last season, accounting for 12 combined touchdowns on the ground in 2022. The trio of JD Younger, Adam Houser and Dayjure Stewart all saw carries last week for the Crimson Hawks against ESU in a game where running room was hard to come by. Houser is just 63 rushing yards shy of 1,000 for his collegiate career

Also returning in the IUP backfield is Parker Gregg, who has transitioned into a fullback and short-yardage back for IUP in 2023. Randy Washington converted from the secondary to running back during spring football, providing another option in a deep stable of backs.

NO-FLY ZONE: HAWKS BOAST EXPERIENCED SECONDARY IN 2023

The IUP secondary features a pair of returning All-PSAC honorees in Darius Bruce and Jaheim Howard. The Crimson Hawks ranked 18th in the nation in 2022 with 15 total interceptions, with the duo of Bruce and Howard accounting for seven last season. IUP ranks 1st in the league and 20th nationally in passing yards allowed (127.5) with six pass breakups through week two.

Naszhir Taylor (53 tackles, 3.0 TFLs, 1 INT 11 PBU in 2022), Kalen Frazier (19 tackles, 1 INT, 4 PBU in 2022) and Chuck Ingram (24 tackles, 1 INT in 2022) were all starters in the IUP secondary last season and make up the most experienced unit in terms of games played on the roster. Every starter except for Frazier, who was a true freshman in 2022, have played at least 20 college games.

DYNAMIC DUO OF DINUNZIO-BISS, HOLMES IN THE MIDDLE OF IUP DEFENSE

Drew DiNunzio-Biss paced the team with 88.0 tackles last season and has 133 total stops over two-plus seasons as a Crimson Hawk. An All-PSAC West First Team selection in 2022, DiNunzio-Biss was all over the field against East Stroudsburg with eight tackles (six solo), 2.0 TFL, 1.0 sack, along with a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

He's joined by Jay Holmes in the middle of the IUP defense. Holmes emerged as the season progressed in 2022, tallying 29 tackles with 3.5 TFLs.

FOWLER RETURNS IN 2023 ALONG DEFENSIVE LINE

Tyrone Fowler Jr. is back along the defensive line after missing most of 2022 to injury. The 2021 PSAC West Freshman of the Year, Fowler has 47 tackles and 9.5 sacks in just 16 games with the Crimson Hawks. He's joined on the defensive line by Cole Weightman, who made seven tackles in nine games last season as a rotational defensive end. Logan Danielson, Terell Williams, Cyler Rozina and Maurice Feazell are all key parts of the rotation for the Hawks on the defensive line.

PAUL TORTORELLA (6TH SEASON)

A longtime IUP assistant coach, Paul Tortorella stepped into the head coaching role in 2017 and led IUP to one of the best seasons in program history.

Leading a balanced offensive powerhouse and one of the best defenses in Division II, Tortorella and the Crimson Hawks went 13-1, won the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Championship, and advanced to the NCAA Division II semifinals for the first time since 1999.

IUP won the outright PSAC West regular season title as the only undefeated team in the division and defeated West Chester 24-7 on the road for the conference title. The Crimson Hawks earned the top seed in Super Region One in the NCAA playoffs, defeated West Chester (44-10) and Assumption (27-22) to win the region, and entered the national semifinals against West Florida as the top overall seed.

The 13 consecutive wins and 13-1 overall mark both tied IUP records. The Crimson Hawks finished the year ranked third in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Top 25, the highest season-ending ranking for IUP in in the current set up of the poll. They also reached the No. 1 ranking in the D2Football.com weekly poll in the final weeks heading into the postseason.

The Crimson Hawks went 4-0 against ranked teams, defeating (RV/18) Ashland 26-23, (16/16) California 26-10, (9/13) Slippery Rock 34-17, and (15/15) Assumption 27-22.

Tortorella was named the Division II co-Coach and Super Region One Coach of the Year by the Don Hansen Football Gazette. He also earned PSAC West Coach of the Year and IUP Men's Coach of the Year honors.

Originally given the interim tag heading into the season, Tortorella was officially named IUP's head coach on November 14, 2017, just a few days after winning the PSAC championship.

Tortorella saw his first team finish in the top 25 of Division II in nine different statistical categories, including first downs (3rd, 335); rushing offense (9th, 256.1); rushing defense (9th, 89.9); defensive pass efficiency (10th, 97.23); scoring defense (13th, 15.7); offensive pass efficiency (15th, 158.08); 3rd down conversion pct. (15th, .473); total defense (18th, 287.5); and total offense (25th, 455.4).

Several individuals also saw success in Tortorella's first season, as IUP set a program record for All-Americans with seven players combining for 12 AA nods. Max Redfield was a 1st team selection by the AFCA and D2Football.com, and honorable mention by Don Hansen Football Gazette. JR Stevens was a 1st team AP All-America and Jerron Searles was a second team selection by the AP and D2CCA.

Redfield was also a finalist for the Cliff Harris Award, QB Lenny Williams, Jr. was a nominee for the Harlon Hill Award, and DT Jemal Averette was nominated for the Gene Upshaw Division II Lineman of the Year award.

IUP also set a program record with 18 total PSAC selections, including Justice Evans as the Freshman of the Year and Tortorella's Coach of the Year honor.

Since coming to IUP, Tortorella has directed a defense that has consistently ranked among the best in the nation. His extensive knowledge of schematics and personnel has made him one of the most respected coaches in the area.

In 2016, Tortorella guided an opportunistic defensive unit that ranked third in Division II with 24 interceptions and 35 caused turnovers. IUP's six total defensive touchdowns was tied for sixth in the country, while its .674 defensive red zone percentage was 20th.

For six straight games the Crimson Hawks limited opponents to 20 points or less, with high-scoring rival Slippery Rock finishing with just 19 in IUP's blowout mid-October victory. First round playoff opponent Fairmont State, which had a 10-1 record and averaged 30.0 points in the regular season, was limited to just 13 points by Tortorella's crew.

In 2015, the Crimson Hawks finished the year ranked in the top 12 in six defensive categories - scoring, interceptions, turnovers forced, red zone, third down percentage, and touchdowns - finishing with a 9-3 overall record.

The Crimson Hawks advanced to the postseason in each of the last two seasons, combining for a 19-5 overall record.

2012 was one of Tortorella's best seasons, as he was named the NCAA Division II Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop. Under Tortorella's guidance, IUP led the nation in total and scoring defense, while also ranking third in rushing defense, during a season in which the Crimson Hawks won the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) championship, and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals with a 12-2 record.

The Crimson Hawks gave up just 257.9 yards and 12.5 points per game, recording three shutouts and holding opponents to 10 points or fewer four additional times. IUP gave up an average of 80.1 rushing yards per outing, holding opponents to less than 100 yards nine times during the season. Offenses managed just 2.6 yards per carry and scored nine touchdowns in 439 carries.

The passing defense was also tough to crack, as IUP finished 17th in the nation by giving up 177.8 yards per game and 14th with a defensive pass efficiency of 101.85. Nine times quarterbacks failed to complete 50.0 percent of their passes against the Crimson Hawks, including each of the last four games. IUP racked up 20 interceptions and gave up just 14 touchdown passes.

Tortorella got his coaching start on the prep level in 1985, serving as linebackers coach at Mount Lebanon High School. He then began a nine-year stint as an assistant coach at a pair of Division I universities, including six at Maryland and three at Akron.

Tortorella is a 1985 graduate of Slippery Rock with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, Michele, are the parents of Luke, Annalise, Zachary and Michael.
