OPENING KICK

► Jackson State opens the season on the road for the third time in four years under head coach T.C. Taylor. The Tigers are currently 2-1 in season openers under Taylor, with their only loss coming on the road against ULM in 2024. They have defeated South Carolina State (neutral site) in 2023 and Hampton (home) in 2025.

► Tonight's meeting will be the 47th all-time between Jackson State and Tennessee State, with Tennessee State leading the all-time series 25-20-2. The two teams have met just one time to open the season in their history.

► Jared Lockhart returns after earning co-Freshman of the Year honors in the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) last season, splitting time with JaCobian Morgan before the senior's injury. The sophomore is undefeated as a starter entering the 2026 season, earning a 5-0 mark and second team All-SWAC honors.

► The Tigers have won three of their last four games on the road, with their last true road loss coming against Southern Miss on Sept. 6. Jackson State is 10-4 on the road under Taylor over the last three years.

► Since the fall of 2021, Jackson State has won 60 of 72 games overall and are 36-4 in regular season games against conference competition. The Tigers have won three Southwestern Athletic Conference [SWAC] championships, played in three Celebration Bowls, and won the 2024 HBCU national championship.

► Jackson State returns 37 players from last year's team that claimed its second consecutive SWAC East Division Championship, and adds 56 total new players - transfer portal and incoming freshman.

► Since the Spring 2021 season, Mississippi Veterans Memorial Stadium has hosted five of the last six SWAC Championship Games including a neutral site game during the spring season. Jackson State has appeared in four of the last five championship games, winning three of those games.

► Jackson State went over two years without an interception return for a touchdown following Travis Hunter accomplishing the feat in 2022 against Alcorn State. The Tigers have had two in the last two weeks with Mike Smith III returning one 60 yards against Mississippi Valley State [11/8/25] and B.J. Washington returned one 82 yards against Bethune-Cookman [11/15/2025], the first defensive touchdowns since a fumble recovery against Florida A&M last season.

T.C. TAYLOR

NAMED HEAD COACH OF HIS ALMA MATER IN 2023, TAYLOR QUICKLY LED JACKSON STATE TO ITS THIRD SWAC CHAMPIONSHIPS IN FOUR YEARS IN 2024. HE ALSO LED THE TEAM TO ITS FIRST CRICKET CELEBRATION BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS AND THE HBCU NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP. TAYLOR WAS NAMED THE SWAC COACH OF THE YEAR BY HIS PEERS FOLLOWING THE SEASON IN 2024.

One of the most accomplished players in Jackson State football history, T.C. Taylor has risen to lead his alma mater as the 22nd Head Coach of the Tigers. A former JSU quarterback and record-setting wide receiver, Taylor officially took over the program following the 2022 Celebration Bowl and has quickly cemented his legacy as a transformative leader.

Taylor has been an integral part of Jackson State’s football resurgence since joining the staff in 2019. He coached tight ends and wide receivers during an era that saw the Tigers post a dominant 23-3 record from 2021-22, including back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) titles and undefeated regular seasons.

In his second season as head coach in 2024, Taylor led the Tigers to a 12-2 record and captured the HBCU National Championship with a commanding 28–7 win over South Carolina State in the Cricket Celebration Bowl. Under his leadership, JSU claimed the SWAC East Division and SWAC Championship titles, with running back Irv Mulligan earning SWAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. That season, the Tigers produced 32 All-Conference selections (SWAC and Phil Steele), 15 All-Americans, and 8 postseason all-star participants. Taylor was named HBCU Legends Coach of the Year and earned widespread postseason recognition for his accomplishments.

Taylor’s teams have also stood out statistically. In 2024, JSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in several NCAA categories, including red zone offense (2nd), team defense (4th), scoring offense (5th), and scoring defense (6th). The Tigers finished the season ranked in over 30 key statistical categories, demonstrating elite performance on both sides of the ball.

Last season (2025), Taylor guided the Tigers to the 2025 SWAC East Division Championship; while the team was ranked among the best nationally in rushing offense (254.9 ypg), total offense (459.9 ypg), and passing yards per completion (14.06). In his debut season as head coach (2023), Taylor guided Jackson State to a second-place finish in the SWAC East Division. The Tigers led the conference in total offense (389.4 ypg) and finished top three in both rushing and passing, while also ranking among the SWAC’s best in total defense and scoring.

As an assistant coach, Taylor played a pivotal role in developing one of the most explosive wide receiver units in the conference. From 2021-22, he coached standouts such as Malachi Wideman, Keith Corbin, Dallas Daniels, and Shane Hooks - several of whom earned All-SWAC and All-American honors. During the abbreviated Spring 2021 season, Daylen Baldwin led the SWAC in receiving yards (540) and touchdowns (7). Prior to the 2022 season, Taylor was selected for the prestigious NFL Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship with the Tennessee Titans.

A native of McComb, Mississippi, Taylor enjoyed a stellar playing career at Jackson State from 1998 to 2001. After beginning as a quarterback, he transitioned to wide receiver, where he set the JSU single-season record with 84 receptions for 1,234 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2001. He earned NCAA Division I-AA Third-Team All-America honors from The Sports Network and First-Team Black College All-America recognition from Sheridan Broadcasting. He was also the runner-up for the 2001 Conerly Trophy, awarded to Mississippi’s top college football player, finishing behind Eli Manning. Following his playing career at JSU, Taylor signed with the New England Patriots as a rookie free agent in 2002. He went on to win a World Bowl championship with the Frankfurt Galaxy in NFL Europe and participated in the 2003 preseason with the Detroit Lions before an injury ended his professional playing career.

Before returning to Jackson State, Taylor built a strong coaching résumé, including successful stints at:

- North Carolina Central [2014–2018] – Offensive Coordinator/QBs Coach. Guided the Eagles to three MEAC championships and the 2016 Celebration Bowl. Coached 28 All-MEAC players, five All-Americans, and helped QB Malcolm Bell become a finalist for Black College Football Player of the Year.
- Texas Southern [2012–2013] – Wide Receivers Coach & Recruiting Coordinator.
- Coahoma Community College [2005–2011] – Offensive Coordinator. His offenses consistently ranked in the top five among Mississippi JUCOs.

Taylor earned his bachelor’s degree in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation from Jackson State in 2005. He is married to his wife, Dawn, and they are the proud parents of two sons, Tre and Tylan.
