LAST TIME OUT

Jacksonville fell on the road to Kennesaw State, trailing almost the whole game after taking a 3-0 lead to begin and allowing a season-high tying 81 points. The Dolphins struggled in the tough road environment, allowing the highest opponent shooting percentage of the season and making just four three-pointers, tied for the second-least in a game this year. The Owls also scored 16 points off of JU's 15 turnovers on the night. It was also a tough night at the charity stripe, with Jacksonville shooting just 12-20 from the line.

Individually, Jordan Davis bounced back from his first scoreless game as a Dolphin to lead the team with 16, while Gyasi Powell got back into double-figures after a one-game hiatus, scoring 15. Mike Marsh chipped in 14. Osayi Osifo added seven rebounds and Kevion Nolan dished out six assists.

INTERESTING?

- Jacksonville won four road conference games last year (winless in three games so far this season)
- The Dolphins went a perfect 15-0 at home last season, are now 21-0 under Coach Mincy
- Jacksonville is 25-2 when holding opponents under 60 points in the Jordan Mincy era
- JU is 18th nationally in scoring def (60.2), 40th in FG% def (40.0) & t-17th in 3pt% def (28.6) as of 1/13
- JU leads the ASUN in 3pt field goal defense, FG % defense and is second in rebounding margin & scoring defense

JORDAN MINCY NAMED 2022 JOE B. HALL AWARD WINNER

Jacksonville University men's basketball coach Jordan Mincy was announced as the winner of the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award on April 1, 2022.

He was selected out of 15 finalists, including Hubert Davis at North Carolina, Tommy Lloyd at Arizona and Mike Woodson at Indiana for the award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

"I cannot thank the committee enough for honoring me with this year's Joe B. Hall Award," said Mincy. "I am extremely blessed and humbled to be selected out of such a great field for such a prestigious award.

"The support I received from our administration and the hard-work from our players and staff are what makes moments like this possible for our program."

Mincy joins the pantheon of former winners, including Brad Underwood (2014, Stephen F. Austin), Steve Prohm (2012, Murray State) and Ryan Odom (2017, UMBC).

"What an honor it is for Coach Mincy to receive the Joe B. Hall Award as the top first year head coach in Division I. Jordan is so deserving of this recognition, said Athletic Director Alex Ricker-Gilbert. "From the time he stepped foot on campus almost exactly one year ago, he has made an impact on our community, program, and student-athletes. He has created an atmosphere of family and that is being felt by our young men.

"This is the first of many 'coach of the year' honors that Jordan Mincy will receive as Head Men's Basketball Coach at Jacksonville University."

In his first year on-campus, Mincy led the Dolphins to its most wins since the 1985-86 season, going undefeated at a routinely raucous Swisher Gymnasium and advancing the ASUN Men's Basketball Championship final while connecting with community and reviving the aura around JU basketball in the city.

The Dolphins won 21 games, secured the first undefeated home season since 1972-73 and advanced to the doorstep of the NCAA Tournament. After being picked in the preseason to finish 10th out of 12 teams in the league, JU finished ASUN play with 11 wins, its most wins since the 2010-11 campaign, and finished as the two-seed in the South Division, including a sweep of North Florida in the River City Rumble.

JU earned its first postseason victory since 2018, beating Central Arkansas in the ASUN Quarterfinal round and advanced to its first conference tournament championship game since 2009 after defeating Jacksonville State on the road in the semifinal round.

Mincy compiled the second-most wins for a first-year head coach in program history and was one of only five mid-major coaches in the country to reach the 20-win mark in his first season.

He coached the team to a conference-best scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, three-point percentage defense and rebounding margin. The scoring defense was fifth in the nation among Division I teams and the rebounding margin was good for 12th in the country.

Kevion Nolan earned First Team All-ASUN honors, the first Dolphin to make the All-Conference First Team since Kori Babineaux in 2016.

The committee that selects the winner is a 15-member panel, consisting of five current Division I head coaches, five retired head coaches and five collegeinsider.com staff members.

Joe B. Hall passed away on Jan. 15, 2022, at the age of 93.

THE MATCHUP

Jacksonville travels to Jacksonville State to face the Gamecocks for the second time in the last 12 days. The Dolphins hosted JSU on Jan. 2 and prevailed 62-46, never trailing in the matchup. JU shot 50 percent from the field and made a season-high 12 three-pointers. The defense stifled the Gamecocks, allowing only one double-digit scorer, with JSU making only 36 percent of their shots and just 8-of-28 three-pointers.

Jordan Davis scored a season-high 19 points, making five threes, a JU career-best. He also led the team with seven rebounds, while Gyasi Powell and Kevion Nolan each dished out five assists each.

KEVION NOLAN - BACK FOR MORE

Kevion Nolan battled injuries during much of his early moments in a Dolphin uniform, limited to just nine games in his first season after sitting out as a transfer in 2019-20. After a knee injury in the 2021-22 season opener sidelined him again, he worked even harder to come back.

A Preseason All-ASUN pick in 21-22, he scored 25, including the quarter-court, buzzer-beating three to beat FGCU in the ASUN opener, posted his first career double-double at North Alabama and scored in double-figures in 16 games, topping 20 points six times, and registering five or more assists 10 times en route to being recognized by the league's coaches as a First Team All-ASUN performer.

Now, he is back for his final year at JU, and was a unanimous Preseason All-ASUN selection this year as he looks to power the Dolphins back to the NCAA Tournament.

SIZE ON THE INSIDE

Jacksonville men's basketball has one of the largest frontlines in program history, harkening back to the days of Artis Gilmore and Pembroke Burrows as twin 7-footers in the early 1970s.

Mike Marsh and Oumar Koureissi present two different looks at 6-foot-11, with Marsh anchoring an inside-outside presence with size and mid-range game and Koureissi capable of putting the ball on the floor and shooting from the outside.

Additionally, 6-foot-10 Illinois/Florida transfer Omar Payne acts as a traditional rim-protector, while athletic 6-foot-8 Osayi Osifo provides energy, defense and a deceptive mid-range game.

COACH ON THE RISE

Head Coach Jordan Mincy needed just one season to change the narrative surrounding JU men's basketball and his own stature. After leading the program to its best season in over 30 years and receiving the Joe B. Hall Award, he was recognized by Sports Illustrated as a candidate who "should be on the radar this year and beyond".

From staff writer Kevin Sweeney: "Mincy's first year as a head coach went extremely well: The former Florida assistant won 21 games (most by any Jacksonville coach since 1985-86), finished 129 spots higher in KenPom than the Dolphins did in the season before he arrived and was one win away from the NCAA tournament. He's also made a few splashes on the recruiting trail and only turned 36 this month. There has already been a lot of coaching movement down south lately, but he's a name to watch in Florida and throughout the region."

COMMITTED LONG TERM

After the strong debut season of the Jordan Mincy era, Jacksonville University Athletics signed him to a new long-term contract on March 16 that would keep him at JU for a decade. His new contract runs through the 2030-31 season.

PIERCE JOINS STAFF, BALLOCK ELEVATED

Troy Pierce joins the staff this season as an assistant coach, most recently serving on the staff of SIU-Edwardsville. Additionally, Andrew Ballock, who served as a graduate assistant the last two seasons, is now the Director of Player Development. He is assisted by former JU player Thomas Owen and Stuckey Mosley, a former All-CAA standout at James Madison, as Player Development Assistants.

LOCAL FLAIR

Jacksonville basketball has a proud history of local players going on to do big things. Four of the six current retired jerseys in the program were Floridians, and three, Roger Strickland, Otis

Smith and Dee Brown, all are Jacksonville-natives. Mincy has made it a priority to attack local recruiting, and three members of the team have local ties. Returner Gyasi Powell prepped at Bishop Snyder, and one of his old high school teammates, Jalen Nesmith, transferred into the program this year. Additionally, freshman Josiah Sabino, the reigning Florida Times-Union Player of the Year, joins the Dolphins this year from Orange Park High School.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

The year's team features two players with international backgrounds for the first time since Omar El Manasterly, an Alexandria, Egypt native, played on the team from 2013-17.

Sejr Deans, from Tasmania, Australia, comes stateside to start his college career, but already with some professional experience under his belt, having played as an amateur in the NBL last season with the Tasmania JackJumpers. Dylan O'Hearn, a transfer from NJIT who began his career at Western Oklahoma State College, where he played two years, was born in Windsor, Ontario, Canada before he moved to Michigan in third grade. He holds dual-citizenship in the US and Canada.

ROSTER MAKEUP

The Dolphins' roster features seven returners, including six letterwinners, and seven newcomers, a much more balanced number than Coach Mincy's first season, which featured 10 newcomers, tied for seventh-most in the country last year.

This year's newcomers are three Division I transfers, one Division II transfer, one junior college transfer and two true freshman.

HOME SWEET SWISHER

The Dolphins did not lose a game at home last season. JU went 15-0 in the not-so-friendly confines of Swisher Gym, finishing undefeated at home for the first time since 1972-73 and have continued the unbeaten run this year. The team holds the fourth-longest active home winning streak in the country. The longest win streak in program history is 36 games from Jan. 13, 1969-Dec. 7, 1971.

Winthrop's streak ended at 19 on Saturday, Dec. 3 vs. Coastal Carolina.

SEASON AT A GLANCE

Jacksonville is coming off of its best season in over a decade, winning 21 games (topping 20 wins for the first time since the 2010-11 season and the most wins in a season since the 1985-86 season) and advanced to the ASUN Basketball Championship Final for the first time since 2009.

Four starters return from last year's team, including First Team All-ASUN selection and unanimous Preseason All-ASUN pick Kevion Nolan at guard. He is joined by Jordan Davis, who scored a season-high 22 in the championship final at Bellarmine, Osayi Osifo and Mike Marsh, who each earned ASUN Newcomer of the Week honors in the frontcourt last season.
