◆ Senior attackers Ela Hazar and Maggie Bill and junior midfielder Kara Klages were second-team selections.

◆ McCool earned first-team honors for the ◆ Bill and Hazar earned all-conference honors for the second time each, with Hazar having won first-team accolades in 2017 and Bill second-team in 2015.

HOEG'S CAREER YEAR

◆ Sophomore attacker Katie Hoeg has posted a career-best season thus far in 2018, grabbing a starting job for the Tar Heels for the first time and breaking school records along the way. She has career highs in goals, assists and points this season.

◆ Hoeg enters Friday's game with a UNC school-record 87 points, breaking the previous record of 83 in the NCAA quarterfinal win over Northwestern.

◆ She also has a UNC-record 48 assists, including four in the NCAA second round against Virginia Tech and three in the quarterfinals against Northwestern.
