For as long as baseball is played at James Madison University, the 1983 season will always hold a special significance in the history of one of JMU's most successful athletic programs. The Dukes opened the season with an exhibition doubleheader against the defending world champion St. Louis Cardinals, won the NCAA Eastern Regional championship, competed in the College World Series and had four players chosen in the major league baseball draft.

JMU finished third in the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) South Tournament but received an at-large bid to the Eastern Regional where the Dukes stunned a strong field to become the first Virginia team to qualify for the College World Series.

That JMU, which compiled a 37-13 record, reached the CWS was surprising. The route the Dukes took to college baseball's most prestigious event, however, borders on the remarkable.

After being eliminated from the ECAC South play, the JMU players, who had no assurances the team would get an NCAA bid, returned home for the summer. When the regional invitation came more than a week later (three days before the tournament's opening), the team had only one full day of preparations before leaving for the University of North Carolina.

The Dukes upset top-seeded South Carolina 9-4 in the opener of the six-team tournament and used timely hitting, consistent pitching and solid defense to compile a 4-0 regional record.

After the win over South Carolina, JMU defeated ECAC South Tournament champion William & Mary (13-8), Southern Conference winner The Citadel (5-2) and East Coast Conference champion Delaware (6-5).

The Dukes faced two of the nation's top three teams in the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. The CWS field of eight teams included several future major leaguers, including Barry Bonds, Roger Clemens, Barry Larkin, Pete Incaviglia, Dave Magadan, and Chris Sabo. The Dukes played well except for one inning.

Texas 12, JMU 0

Calvin Schiraldi threw a five-hitter, and Texas scored eight runs in the eighth inning in the College World Series opener. The top-ranked and eventual national champion Longhorns collected 16 hits while Schiraldi, who would later be named the CWS Most Outstanding Player, struck out five and walked only two. Jeff Urban singled twice for JMU.

Stanford 3, JMU 1

Stanford went in front with two runs in the fourth inning and got a combined four-hitter from Steve Cottrell and Kevin Kunkel to end the Dukes' season. JMU took a 1-0 lead in the second on singles by Steve Cullers and Jeff Urban and an error, but got only two hits the rest of the way. Dennis Knight gave up only five hits in suffering the loss.

JMU 9, South Carolina 4

JMU broke a 1-1 tie with six third-running runs to defeat top-seeded South Carolina. Tony Marant's RBI single put the Dukes ahead, and Steve Cullers added three-run double. Dennis Knight pitched 5 2/3 innings to get the win. Cullers, Jeff Kidd, Jim Knicely and Jeff Urban each had two hits, and Knight had a two-run homer for the Dukes.

JMU 13, William and Mary 8

JMU won the game with five eighth-inning runs after giving up seven unearned runs in the seventh and squandering an 8-1 lead. Steve Cullers' RBI fielder's choice broke the 8-8 tie, and Dave Pleasants worked 2 2/3 scoreless innings in relief for the win. Jeff Kidd had three hits and Cullers, Tom Estep, Mike Reeves and Jeff Urban two each.

JMU 5, The Citadel 2

Randy Foster scattered 11 hits in going the distance in only his second start in seven weeks. Foster struck out six, and JMU led all the way after taking a 2-0 lead in the third. Mike Reeves' home run and Jim Knicely's RBI single provided the Dukes' third-inning runs. Jeff Urban had two hits for the third straight game, and Reeves and Knicely each had two hits.

JMU 6, Delaware 5

Tom Estep's RBI single capped a two-run, ninth-inning rally as JMU claimed the regional title and a College World Series berth. Dennis Knight reached base on an error to open the ninth and moved to second on Steve Cullers' sacrifice. Mike Reeves walked before singles by Jeff Urban and Estep put the Dukes ahead. Andy Heintzleman worked 1 2/3 scoreless innings in relief of starter Justin Gannon to get the win. Urban had three hits and Jeff Kidd and Jim Knicely two each.
