NEWS & NOTES

ROAD DOGS

- While most seem to hold an advantage at home, the Dukes thrived away from Harrisonburg with a 12-4 record during their 2022-23 campaign. James Madison started the season 8-0 in true road games and 1-0 in neutral-site contests before falling to Coastal Carolina, 79-64, on Jan. 26.

- The team's 12 wins on the road tied for the program record with the 2006-07 and 2014-15 seasons.

- JMU was also perfect at neutral locations at 4-0 during the regular season, with victories over Eastern Michigan at the Saint Joseph's Hawk Classic (Dec. 20), and 3-0 in the Sun Belt Tournament in Pensacola, Fla. (March 3-6).

- Only 10 schools in Division I had at least a dozen true road victories: BGSU (14-3), Columbia (14-3), South Carolina (13-0), Villanova (13-1), FGCU (13-2), UC Irvine (13-3), Holy Cross (13-5), Creighton (12-3), Gardner-Webb (12-4), and JMU (12-4).

- The trend continued as the Dukes rolled past Xavier, 81-54, on Nov. 11. Next, the Dukes head to Mexico for the Cancun Challenge to face Michigan State (Nov. 23) and Montana State (Nov. 24) before heading to Lynchburg, Va. to square off against Liberty (Dec. 1).

COACH HARROW PROMOTION

- Neil Harrow has been elevated to associate head coach, as announced by Head Coach Sean O'Regan on Sept. 22. The 2023-24 season will mark Harrow's second as a member of the Dukes' coaching staff.

- In his new role, Harrow will oversee transfer, international and junior college recruiting. Shortly after arriving in Harrisonburg, he brought on Caroline Germond (TCU) and Kobe King-Hawe (Texas), who combined for 44 starts in 2022-23. The new title also gives Harrow scouting coordinator duties where he will oversee the planning and development of scouting activities.

- Lastly, Harrow takes over offensive coordinator responsibilities, as the Dukes head into their second season in the Sun Belt Conference. As a member of Troy's coaching staff, he helped guide the Trojans to their best offensive season since the 1992-93 season when they averaged 86.0 ppg, the third-best average in the NCAA in 2020-21.

2023 SUN BELT TOURNAMENT

- James Madison entered the Sun Belt Tournament as the No. 1 seed, having shared the regular season crown with Texas State and Southern Miss. Head Coach Sean O'Regan's squad opened against No. 8 Marshall, smothering the Thundering Herd in the quarterfinals, 62-43.

- The Dukes then took on No. 5 Old Dominion, the season's third matchup between JMU and the Monarchs. Jefferson and junior Kseniia Kozlova produced 22 and 20 points, respectively, to pull away for the 70-64 victory on March 5. The win punched the Dukes' ticket to the championship game against Texas State.

- After a 14-14 score at the end of the first quarter, James Madison ran away with the game. Junior Peyton McDaniel connected on 7-of-7 shots from three-point range to tie her career-high of 30 points, while Jefferson went 4-for-5 (80.0%) from deep for 22 points. The Dukes overpowered the Bobcats in an 81-51 romp on March 6. The 30-point victory was the largest margin in Sun Belt title game history.

2023 NCAA TOURNAMENT

- No. 14 James Madison led No. 3 Ohio State 26-14 after the opening quarter but saw the Buckeyes outscore the Dukes 66-40 the rest of the way as OSU came away with an 80-66 victory on March 18, inside Value City Arena at the Schottenstein Center.

- Kiki Jefferson led the way for James Madison with 17 points and eight rebounds. Jamia Hazell added 10 points and five boards in 24 minutes of action, while Caroline Germond finished with eight points and a pair of assists. Peyton McDaniel and Annalicia Goodman both contributed with nine points off the bench.

HEAD COACH SEAN O'REGAN

JMU '03 | EIGHTH SEASON | 160-63

Sean O'Regan enters his eighth season at the helm of the James Madison women's basketball program at the start of the 2023-24 season.

O'Regan is coming off a 26-8 (13-5 Sun Belt) season in 2022-23 that saw the Dukes capture the Sun Belt Championship Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament berth. His squad led the league in scoring margin (+8.8), opponent field goal percentage (.361), opponent three-point percentage (.286), and rebounding margin (+8.1). Kiki Jefferson was named Sun Belt Player of the Year, while Peyton McDaniel was tabbed as the league's Sixth Woman of the Year. The two dazzled in the SBC Tournament, with Jefferson earning the conference's Most Outstanding Player award and McDaniel picking up All-Tournament Team honors.

In 2021-22 O'Regan coached VaSID First Team All-State and Second Team All-CAA honoree Kiki Jefferson, who became the 32nd player in program history to surpass the 1,000-point milestone. Jefferson led the Dukes and finished third in the conference with 18.8 points per game. The guard netted 174 foul shots over the course of the season to rank fourth in the country in free throws made.

The Dukes were ineligible for postseason play due to conference realignment.

In an odd 2020-21 season due to COVID-19, O'Regan led his team to a 14-10 record and earned the No. 2 seed in the CAA Tournament. The Dukes dominated Northeastern 81-65 in the quarterfinals but fell just short to No. 3 Drexel, eventual champion, in the semifinals, 79-76 in overtime.

For the second consecutive season, O'Regan has coached the CAA Rookie of the Year as Peyton McDaniel earned the honor to become the 10th Duke in program history to do so. Former Rookie of the Year Kiki Jefferson landed on the 2020-21 All-CAA First Team while Rayne Tucker earned a spot on the All-CAA Third Team. Freshmen Peyton McDaniel and Jamia Hazell secured spots on the All-CAA Rookie Team after taking home CAA Rookie of the Week honors a combined six times in 14 opportunities.

Despite the crazy season of scheduling the Dukes still handled business on the court as JMU led the CAA in free throw percentage (76.8%) while being third in conference in scoring (70.0), field goal percentage (41.3) and three-point percentage (32.5).

Prior to the season getting shutdown early due to COVID-19 concerns, O'Regan led the team to its third consecutive CAA regular-season title after finishing the year with a 25-4 (16-2 CAA) record in 2019-20.

On Feb. 28, 2020, JMU dominated Drexel for a convincing 69-39 win in the Convocation Center to give O'Regan his 100th career victory. With the win, O'Regan became the fastest coach in program history to win 100 games (130 total games).

Following the season senior Kamiah Smalls was named the CAA Player of the Year, senior Kayla Cooper-Williams earned her second consecutive CAA Defensive Player of the Year nod and freshman Kiki Jefferson was tabbed CAA Rookie of the Year. The Dukes led the CAA with five all-conference selections: Kamiah Smalls (POY, First Team), Kayla Cooper-Williams (DPOY, All-Defensive Team, Third Team), Kiki Jefferson (ROY, All-Rookie Team), Jackie Benitez (Second Team) and Rayne Tucker (All-Rookie Team).

In his third year, O'Regan guided JMU to one of its most successful seasons in program history. He helped the Dukes advance to the WNIT Semifinals for the first time since 2012. The 29 team wins produced tied the program record for wins in a season, while capping off 18 wins in the Convocation Center for a program record and piecing together 31-straight wins at Convo for the second longest streak in JMU history.

O'Regan led the Dukes to two more team records in 236 three-pointers made and 218 blocks. The Dukes defense held 16 opponents under 50 points for their most in the Division I era and tied for the most in program history. JMU also held seven opponents under 40 points for the most in the Division I era and tied for most in program history.

O'Regan boasted CAA Defensive Player of the Year, All-Defensive Team, All-CAA Third Team, ECAC Honorable Mention Kayla Cooper-Williams during the season. Cooper-Williams broke the school record for blocks and ended the year at 240. She set three other records during the 2018-19 season. O'Regan also guided transfer Jackie Benitez to CAA Sixth Player of the Year accolades along with earning CAA Third Team and WNIT All-Tournament Team honors. Benitez accounted for 95 of the three-pointers made on the season, sixth most by a player in a season. In another strong year for Kamiah Smalls, O'Regan helped the junior earn All-CAA First Team, Richmond-Times Dispatch Player of the Year, Richmond-Times Dispatch First Team and VaSID First Team All-State honors. Junior Lexie Barrier earned All-CAA Second Team honors before her season ended due to injury before postseason play.

His second season saw a continuation of the success he helped build, as O'Regan guided the Dukes to a 23-11 record and a second straight appearance in the WNIT Third Round. Sophomores Kamiah Smalls (First Team), Lexie Barrier (Second Team) and Kelly Koshuta (Third Team) were all named to All-CAA teams following the season.

In his first season as head coach, O'Regan led the Dukes to a 26-9 season, a fourth consecutive appearance in the CAA title game and a third-round appearance in the WNIT after taking down Radford and Virginia at the Convo.

O'Regan has coached on the JMU women's basketball sidelines for 15 seasons, returning to his alma mater for the 2007-08 season as an assistant coach. He continued to ascend the Dukes' coaching ranks, being elevated to associate head coach in 2012 under JMU hall of fame coach Kenny Brooks.

As a team in 2016, the Dukes finished the regular season and league tournament on a 20-game win streak as they won their third consecutive CAA regular-season and tournament titles. JMU began receiving votes in the final regular-season polls and entered the NCAA tournament with the top 3-point field-goal defense in the country.

A JMU alum, O'Regan got his start in coaching as a student manager for the Dukes' men's basketball program and was a three-year head manager before graduating in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and concentration in sports management.

After graduation, he went to Evansville to be the men's basketball director of operations before moving into an assistant coaching position from 2005-07.

A native of Montpelier, Vt., O'Regan is married to the former Cara Campo, who is the Vice President of Marketing at a Boston-based firm. The two are parents to a son, Liam, born in October 2009, and a daughter, Addison Susan, born in May 2013.
