DUKES OPEN HOME STRETCH WITH PANTHERS

- James Madison is fresh off its second and final open week and set to host Sun Belt Conference foe Georgia State Saturday at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- It will be the 2024 Black Ops Black Out game, as fans are encouraged to wear black.
- It's also Heroes Day, and there will be a military contracting ceremony at halftime.
- Saturday's game is sponsored by Glo Fiber, and the 2024 JMU football season is presented by CarMax.

BREAKING DOWN THE SERIES

- Saturday marks the fourth meeting all-time between JMU and Georgia State, as the Dukes hold a 3-0 lead.
- The series began in 2012 while the teams were members of the FCS's Colonial Athletic Association - a 28-21 home win for the Dukes.
- Since both teams became conference mates in the Sun Belt, scoring has not been an issue, with a combined 138 points over the past two seasons.
- JMU won last season's matchup in Atlanta, 42-14, while taking the 2022 home meeting by a 42-40 margin, a game that featured JMU rallying back from a 34-14 halftime deficit.

SATURDAY'S COVERAGE

- JMU's matchup with Georgia State will be streamed on ESPN+. On the call are Curt Dudley and JMU Hall of Fame running back Delvin Joyce, while David Hulvey is down on the sidelines.
- Fans can listen to the game on the Morris Insurance and Financial JMU Radio Network, with Dave Riggert and former JMU linebacker Kelvin Azanama calling the action.
- Pregame radio coverage at Bridgeforth begins two hours prior to kickoff at 1:30 p.m.
- Live stats are available at JMUStats.com.

BOWL ELIGIBLE FOR THE FIRST TIME

- JMU is bowl eligible for the first time after improving to 6-2 with its win on Oct. 26 against Southern Miss.
- While the Dukes are bowl bound for the second time in as many years, JMU was not technically considered bowl eligible in 2023 due to the FCS to FBS reclassification.
- The Dukes competed in the 2023 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl versus Air Force due to there not being enough bowl eligible programs, coupled with JMU being in year two of the reclassification process with at least six wins.
- Last season, a record 12 Sun Belt Conference teams competed in bowl season, and JMU became the second conference school to clinch eligibility, behind SBC West leader Louisiana.
- Entering this week, three Sun Belt teams are eligible, adding in Georgia Southern, while three others are 5-3.

JMU Head Coach Bob Chesney

Former James Madison Director of Athletics Jeff Bourne named Bob Chesney as the ninth head coach in the history of the JMU football program on December 7, 2023.

He was awarded a five-year contract to lead the Dukes, who begin the 2024 season as a full-fledged member in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Chesney brings 14 years of head coaching experience ranging from Division I FCS to Division III, winning seven conference championships with a career record of 111-46 (.707).

He takes over a JMU program that made a historic transition from the Football Championship Subdivision to the Football Bowl Subdivision, going 19-4 over the past two regular seasons. JMU finished atop the Sun Belt Conference East Division standings in both years with a combined 13-3 conference record, and the Dukes received a bid to the 2023 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl for the program's first bowl game in program history. JMU has also sustained success spanning more than two decades, finishing with at least a .500 record in 21 straight seasons and finishing with a winning record in 10 straight.

Most recently, Chesney spent six seasons as head coach at Holy Cross (2018-23), guiding the Crusaders to unprecedented success with a program-record five consecutive Patriot League Championships since 2019 and an overall record of 44-21.

In 2022, he led Holy Cross to its third undefeated regular season and an FCS quarterfinal berth for the first time in nearly 40 years, finishing #6 in the final AFCA Coaches Poll. HC's stretch run from 2021-23 were the team's best three-year run since the 1989-91 seasons, going 29-8.

While at Holy Cross, Chesney recorded wins in back-to-back seasons against FBS opponents, defeating UConn, 38-28, in 2021 and Buffalo, 37-31, in 2022. During the 2023 campaign, the Crusaders dropped a pair of three-point contests to Boston College and Army West Point.

His 2023 squad featured a pair of Walter Payton Award finalists in quarterback Matthew Sluka and receiver Jalen Coker and a Buck Buchanan Award finalist in Jacob Dobbs. Dobbs additionally was a finalist for the prestigious Campbell Trophy, while Sluka was voted Patriot League Player of the Year.

Chesney is a three-time Patriot League Coach of the Year (2019, 2021, 2022) and twice was named the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year (2021, 2022). He was additionally honored as the AFCA FCS Region 1 Coach of the Year following Holy Cross' historic 2022 season.

JMU Head Coach Bob Chesney

Prior to Holy Cross, he was head coach at Division II Assumption College, going 44-16 from 2013-17. A two-time Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the Year, he led the Greyhounds to five straight winning seasons for a program that had posted just two winning records in the 17 years prior to his arrival. Chesney took Assumption to the NCAA Division II playoffs in each of his final three seasons, reaching the quarterfinal in 2017.

He began his head coaching career at Division III Salve Regina, posting a 23-9 record in three seasons at the helm from 2010-12. Chesney rebuilt a Salve Regina program with three consecutive winning seasons after it had gone through eight straight losing seasons. In 2011, he guided Salve Regina to the ECAC North-West Bowl, and in his final season in 2012, his team reached the New England Football Conference championship game.

Before becoming a head coach, Chesney had coaching stops as an assistant at Johns Hopkins (2005-09), King's College (2003-04) Delaware Valley College (2002) and Norwich University (2000-01).

A native of Kulpmont, Pa., Chesney was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back at Dickinson College, where he earned his degree in 2000. He was a Second Team All-Centennial Conference selection in 1998 and 1997 and was the 1997 recipient of the team's Vincent Correal MVP Award.

Chesney and his wife Andrea have two daughters, Lyla and Hudson, and one son, Bo.

SPENCE UP FOR THORPE AWARD

- Cornerback Terrence Spence became JMU's first semifinalists for the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award, which is given annually to college football's top defensive back.
- He's additionally the only Sun Belt athlete to make the 15-man list.
- Through eight games, Spence leads the league and ranks second nationally with five interceptions.
- He's just one shy of Cal's Nohl Williams (6) for the FBS lead. Spence also ranks third in the Sun Belt with eight total passes defended (5 INT, 3 PBU).
- The award was established in 1986 and is named after history's greatest all-around athlete, Jim Thorpe.

POTTS, ALL-TIME STARTS LEADER

- Cole Potts is in a league of his own for JMU football, as he stands as the program's all-time starts leader, with 51.
- He made his 51st start at right guard on Oct. 26 against Southern Miss, surpassing JMU Hall of Fame safety Tony LeZotte, who started 50 games from 2004-07.
- Potts has started all but one game, as he appeared as a reserve in JMU's 2020-21 spring opener against Morehead State.
- Since April 17, 2021, when he made his first start against Richmond, Potts has started every JMU game since then.

SOLD OUT ONCE AGAIN

- This Saturday marks the fifth sellout of the 2024 season and the 10th consecutive sellout dating back to last season.
- JMU is averaging 25,344 fans at Bridgeforth Stadium this year, which includes two of the top-10 attendances ever.
- On Oct. 10, a total of 25,622 spectators were on hand for JMU's first Thursday night home game in its FBS era, which is the ninth-best attendance in Bridgeforth history.
- Family Weekend on Sept. 28 versus Ball State saw 25,786 in attendance, which is seventh in stadium history.

DUKES' SUCCESS AT BRIDGEFORTH

- Dating back to the 2016 season, JMU's success at home has been pretty remarkable, winning more than 93% of its home games at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- Over the last eight-and-a-half seasons, the Dukes have gone 57-4 at home.
- JMU is 4-0 this season and has four unbeaten home slates during the span, going 9-0 in 2017 and 2019, 8-0 in 2016 and 5-0 in 2020.
- JMU has scored 50+ points in 23 of 61 home games, which includes 60+ in 11 games, 70+ in four games and at least 80 on two occasions.
- This season, JMU has won its four home games by an average of 36.75 to 8.75.
- JMU has allowed just three touchdowns to opposing teams at home entering the week.

DUKES DOWN GOLDEN EAGLES

- Last time out, JMU clinched bowl eligibility with a 32-15 victory over Southern Miss on Oct. 26.
- George Pettaway and Wayne Knight combined for 180 rushing yards, led by Pettaway's career-high 119 and a score.
- The Dukes notched nine sacks and 11 tackles for loss while Cam Ross returned the opening kickoff of the second half for a touchdown.
- JMU led 17-3 before a pair of USM field goals to end the half.
- After Ross's 94-yard kickoff return, that stretched the lead to 23-9, Southern Miss answered with a score, but a blocked PAT returned by Chris Shearin for a 2-point defensive PAT made it 25-15.
- After a red-zone takeaway, JMU put the game away early in the fourth with an Alonza Barnett touchdown pass to Ross.

D-LINE SOME BALLHAWKS

- JMU's defensive line has a knack for finding the football this season.
- While the defensive front has produced a combined 15.5 sacks, what's more impressive is their interceptions.
- JMU's defensive line has produced four interceptions with a pair of pick-sixes this season, marks that no other team in the country can claim.
- The Dukes have seen interceptions from Chris Fitzgerald (at Charlotte), Eric O'Neill (vs. Ball State), Lloyd Summerall III (vs. Coastal Carolina) and Immanuel Bush (at Georgia Southern).
- O'Neill and Summerall III housed their interceptions for pick-sixes, much to the delight of the Bridgeforth Stadium faithful.
- The d-line also has two fumble recoveries, upping their total to six takeaways and two touchdowns.

HANSON SOLID IN PUNT GAME

- Ryan Hanson is having arguably the best season of his career, as he's averaging 45.6 yards per punt in 2024.
- Hanson has 29 punts this season with 13 pinning inside the 20, eight over 50 yards and three touchbacks.
- He has a pair of punts over 60 yards, including a season-best 66-yarder at Georgia Southern.
- He's one of only four players ever to be named to the Ray Guy Award watch list five times.

BRIDGEFORTH TOP ATTENDANCES

- In 2023, JMU set a single-season attendance record, as a total of 152,234 spectators watched JMU football at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- That's an average of 25,372 per game, which is 102% of the stadium's capacity.
- This season, JMU is averaging 25,344 fans.
- This Saturday marks the 5th sellout of 2024 and 10th straight sellout dating back to last season.
- JMU sold out five of six game last year, bringing in three of the top six attendances ever.
- The 2023 Homecoming game was the highest-attended home game in stadium history.
- A record 26,239 fans were on hand for JMU's 30-27 win over rival Old Dominion.
- That broke the record set on 2022 Homecoming when JMU hosted 26,159 against Marshall.
- In the home finale, the sixth-largest crowd of 25,838 was on hand following an epic College GameDay on the Quad.
- Below are JMU's top-10 home attendances.

Attendance	Game	Date

DUKES FALL IN STATESBORO

- Georgia Southern jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the first half and JMU struggled to find an offensive rhythm, falling 28-14 on Oct. 19
- The Eagles out-gained JMU 405-253, which included a 190-67 margin in the run game.
- Despite forcing JC French into three interceptions, including one for a touchdown, he led Southern with three touchdown passes. Jalen White added 134 rushing yards.
- JMU's defense was led by Jacob Dobbs, who had 17 tackles with a fumble recovery.
- The Dukes also had interceptions from Jacob Thomas, DJ Barksdale (pick-six) and Immanuel Bush to finish +4 in the turnover margin.
- Alonza Barnett finished with 186 passing yards and a score, while George Pettaway added 63 rushing yards.

THURSDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

- JMU turned in its most complete performance in its 39-7 victory against Coastal Carolina on Thursday, Oct. 10 at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- The Dukes used a 22-point second quarter and reeled off the final 32 points of the game in front of a sold-out crowd of 25,622 - the ninth-largest attendance in school history.
- Alonza Barnett III accounted for four total scores in the win, going 16-of-28 for 199 yards and three touchdowns while rushing for 13 yards and another touchdown on the ground. It was his third game with at least four scores.
- JMU rushed for 222 yards as a team, led by George Pettaway's career-high 89 yards. Wayne Knight also contributed 43 yards on six touches. Nine Dukes caught at least one pass, with Yamir Knight leading the way with five grabs.
- The Dukes produced points on both sides of the ball, as Lloyd Summerall III returned his first career interception 35 yards for a touchdown, opening up a 22-7 lead on the Chants.
- After scoring on its second drive, Coastal Carolina, which was limited to just eight first downs and a season-low 181 yards, would only gain 101 yards on its final 12 possessions, including 28 yards in the second half.
- With the win, JMU is now 3-1 all-time on Thursdays, including a 2-0 mark as a member of the Sun Belt Conference.

SPECIAL TEAMS FUN

- JMU has successfully converted on all three non-traditional two-point conversions this season, with each coming in different fashions.
- After blocking a punt for a touchdown at UNC, JMU kicker Noe Ruelas took the snap and found long snapper Jack Mowrey on the two-point pass.
- After its second touchdown against Ball State, Mowrey snapped directly to Taylor Thompson, who ran it in for the conversion.
- In the Coastal win, Mowrey once again snapped to Thompson, but this time, he found Josh Phifer on a pop pass for two.
- In addition to the two pointers, Ruelas also converted an onside kick in the first quarter of the UNC game.
- Against Southern Miss, JMU blocked its second kick, this time on a point-after attempt, as Darold DeNgohe's block gave way for a 94-yard defensive PAT for Chris Shearin.

JMU, THE EVERYTHING SCHOOL

- The 2023-24 athletics year saw JMU continue to raise the bar of success and achievement in intercollegiate athletics.
- JMU captured Sun Belt Conference titles in swimming and diving and in men's basketball, the first conference title in men's basketball for JMU in 11 years, leading to JMU's first trip to the Second Round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship in 41 years.
- Altogether, James Madison saw 10 teams represented in NCAA Championships, including five squads earning at-large bids (men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball, baseball and lacrosse).
- Cross country participated in NCAA Regional Championships while swimming & diving and women's golf were each represented by individual competitors.
- The 10th team was football, which received the first bowl invitation in program history with an appearance in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl during JMU's second year of FBS Reclassification.
- JMU finished second among the 14 Sun Belt schools in the Bubas Cup, the league's all-sports trophy, for the second straight year and registered a .609 winning percentage among all sports. That mark included a .652 rating among men's sports, the best for the department since 1994-95.
- James Madison finished 77th in the final LEARFIELD Director's Cup standings, which measures team qualification and advancement in NCAA Championships. JMU was first among Sun Belt schools (Arkansas State 89, Texas State 103) after scoring points in men's soccer, women's soccer, volleyball, football, men's basketball, lacrosse and baseball.
- JMU had 14 All-Americans, five conference players of the year, two coaches of the year and 36 Academic All-District selections.
- JMU also collected a 989 single-year APR score and earned the Sun Belt's top institutional academic honors for the second straight season.
- Altogether, six JMU squads were nationally ranked, including the first-ever AP ranking for men's basketball and second for football in as many years, both as high as No. 18.
- Men's soccer and lacrosse both also received rankings while volleyball and baseball received votes in national polls.
- During the football season, JMU hosted ESPN's College GameDay for the third time (2015, 2017, 2023) to become the first school outside the Power 5 to host on its campus a third time.
- The Dukes also captured the "Royal Rivalry Challenge" against Old Dominion for the second time in as many years with a 14-5-7.5 victory head-to-head among all sports.
- In his final year before retirement, Jeff Bourne was named an AD of the Year by NACDA and a finalist for AD of the Year by Sports Business Journal.

TWO DECADES AT .500 OR BETTER

- JMU has produced a plethora of wins on the gridiron year in and year out.
- With an 11-2 record a season, the Dukes easily secured its 10th consecutive winning season (2014-23).
- Additionally since moving up to FBS, JMU is 19-5.
- It has secured a .500 record or better now in 21 straight seasons.
- Only four teams at the Division I level (FCS or FBS) have gone .500 or better every year over the previous 21 seasons - JMU, Boise State, Wisconsin and Oklahoma.
- Since 2003, JMU has produced 19 winning seasons with a pair of 6-6 records added in.
- Dating back to year one of the program in 1972, JMU has a winning record in 34 of 52 seasons.

BEST RECORD IN A TRANSITION

- JMU completed its reclassification from FCS to FBS with the best record in history.
- Over two seasons, JMU put together a 19-5 overall record while playing full FBS schedules in both years.
- That also included finishing atop the Sun Belt Conference East Division in each of those seasons, going a combined 13-3 in conference bouts.
- In 2023, JMU went 11-1 during the regular season and 7-1 in Sun Belt play, finishing with an 11-2 mark after facing Air Force in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.
- It was JMU's first Bowl Season berth, and despite going through reclassification and due to a lack of bowl-eligible teams, both JMU and Jacksonville State, both in year two of FCS to FBS, earned bids.
- Prior to last season, no team had ever won more than its first five games during a transition up to the FBS level, though JMU was one of those teams in 2022.
- The Dukes won 10 games over FBS opponents in 2023, which is a record for any year-two transitioning team.
- Georgia Southern previously beat eight FBS foes during the 2014 season.
- In 2022, JMU started 5-0 and became the inaugural first-year transition team to earn an AP Top 25 ranking.
- Last season, the Dukes were ranked in the AP Top 25 for seven straight polls entering the postseason and in the US LBM Coaches Poll for six of seven.

QUITE THE ROSTER TURNOVER

- Coaching transition. The transfer portal. JMU's roster in 2024 is unlike any that preceded it.
- The Dukes return just 62 players and only 38 letterwinners.
- A total of six starters are back from the 2023 squad, including offensive linemen Tyshawn Wyatt (LT), Tanner Morris (C) and Cole Potts (RG), cornerback Chauncey Logan, safety Jordan Thomas and punter Ryan Hanson.
- The 2024 edition features 58 newcomers, including 31 transfers.
- The breakdown of the roster is vast, with 21 total states represented, including representation from all Pacific Coast states.
- While half the roster hail from Virginia (36), Maryland (13) and North Carolina (11), through the portal, players made their trek to JMU from states such as Michigan, Texas, Alabama, Missouri, Washington, Oregon and California.
- Additionally 45 of 120 players are freshman or redshirt freshman.

BACK-TO-BACK VERSUS THE ACC

- JMU has now won games against Atlantic Coast Conference teams in back-to-back seasons.
- Both wins were also the two highest-scoring games for the Dukes versus a power-conference team.
- Before winning 70-50 at North Carolina on Sept. 21, the Dukes captured a 36-35 victory at Virginia back on Sept. 9, 2023, in Charlottesville.
- JMU also had a punt block for a touchdown in both games, as Terrence Spence had the block and Jayden Mines the return at UNC, while former Dukes Aiden Fisher and D'Angelo Ponds blocked it and scored in the UVA win.
- JMU is now 4-10 all-time against the ACC, with two wins over Virginia and one each over UNC and Virginia Tech.

63+ BACK-TO-BACK, JUST LIKE 2019 LSU

- Alonza Barnett III and Joe Burrow have something in common. They are the last two quarterbacks to lead their respective teams to consecutive games with at least 63 points.
- While JMU scored 70 and 63 in its last two games, Joe Burrow guided the 2019 national champion LSU squad to 65 and 66 on Sept. 14 and Sept. 21.
- While JMU accomplished the feat against FBS foes, LSU's first 63+ game occurred versus an FCS opponent.

ULM EDGES JMU IN SBC OPENER

- JMU had a quick starting, going up 10-0 in the first quarter, but ULM outscored the Dukes 21-9 over the final three stanzas to edge the Duke, 21-19, on Oct. 5 in Monroe, La.
- Trailing 21-13 in the fourth, JMU put together a 75-yard drive and found the endzone on a Tyler Purdy one-yard rush with 4:04 to play, but the two-point conversion was no good.
- JMU's defense got two stops late but was unable to get in field-goal range, as ULM stopped the Dukes twice on fourth down in the final minutes.
- Despite the loss, JMU out-gained the Warhawks 399-257 and held a 2-1 lead in takeaways.

DUKES ROLL PAST BALL STATE

- JMU dominated all three phases, not punting one time and holding Ball State to 250 yards en route to a 63-7 win on Family Weekend.
- Aiding Alonza Barnett III's six-touchdown performance were his four receivers who combined for five touchdown catches.
- Taylor Thompson caught a career-high five passes for 91 yards and a touchdown, while Yamir Knight made four grabs for 44 yards and his first two career touchdowns. Omarion Dollison and Cam Ross also combined for 94 yards and a score each.
- JMU also rushed for 236 yards, averaging 6.9 per carry. Wayne Knight had a career day with 63 yards on just six rushes, while Jobi Malary had 50 yards and a touchdown on five touches. George Pettaway also added 35 yards and a TD.
- The defense produced points for the second straight week, as Eric O'Neill returned an interception for a touchdown to open the second half. JMU, which leads the country in turnover margin (+10), had three interceptions, as Terrence Spence had his third in two weeks and DJ Barksdale snagged the other.
- JMU averaged 8.3 per play, while Ball State was limited to 3.5 per snap.
- The Dukes also finished 9-of-10 on third down and 1-of-1 on fourth down.

NATIONAL TEAM OF THE WEEK

- James Madison's win at UNC earned it a national team distinction, as it was named the Cheez-It National Team of the Week.
- The award was selected by the All-America Committee of the FWAA.
- This is the first time JMU has earned the accolade from the FWAA, which originated in 2002.
- It's the first award for a Sun Belt Conference team since Sept. 10, 2022, when App State, Georgia Southern and Marshall all earned wins at power-conference opponents.

DUKES DROP 70 IN WIN AT UNC

- JMU produced points in all three phases and set multiple records en route to a 70-50 win at UNC.
- Alonza Barnett III set a school record with seven total touchdowns, as he became the first Sun Belt player to throw for five touchdowns passes and rush for two more in the same game.
- Barnett III finished 22-of-34 for 388 yards with no interceptions, while rushing for a career-best 99 yards on 13 carries (7.6 avg.). His 487 total yards ranked third in JMU single-game history, while his 388 passing total was tied for seventh.
- The Dukes set multiple team records, recording their most points in a game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent and as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. It nearly doubled the previous record of points scored against an autonomy five team, besting the 36 they scored at Virginia last season.
- JMU lit up the scoreboard early, scoring a school-record 53 points in the first half, as the 70 it scored matched the most UNC had ever given up in a game and a Kenan Stadium record for a road team.
- It was also the most points a Group of Five team has ever scored on the road at a power-conference program.
- In a game featuring over 1,200 combined total yards, the 120 points was the most points scored by both teams in a single game in JMU history, besting the 108 JMU and Richmond scored at Bridgeforth Stadium in 2015.

NATIONAL POTW FOR ZO

- Alonza Barnett's performance in JMU's win at North Carolina earned him numerous individual accolades, including a trio of national awards.
- He was first named Associated Press National Player of the Week and followed that up with the Walter Camp National FBS Offensive Player of the Week and the Davey O'Brien National Co-Quarterback of the Week honor.
- In addition to winning Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week, Barnett was also honored as one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week and the Davey O'Brien Award Great 8.
- By virtue of his honor from Davey O'Brien, Barnett has been added to the midseason watch list for the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, honoring the nation's best quarterback.

WELCOME TO THE 5-2 TD CLUB

- Alonza Barnett III etched his name in JMU and Sun Belt history with his seven-touchdown performance at UNC.
- Entering week eight of the college football season, he is one of just two players with seven touchdowns, with the other also turning in a five pass-TD, two rush-TD outing.
- Clemson quarterback Cade Klubnik threw for five and ran in for two more on Sept. 7 in a 66-20 win against Sun Belt foe App State.

CHESNEY FIRST HC TO START 4-0

- JMU Head Coach Bob Chesney is the program's first head coach to win his first four games at the helm and cap off a perfect opening month.
- Of JMU's nine coaches, Chesney was just the fourth head man to start 2-0, joining Mike Houston (2016), Alex Wood (1995) and Joe Purzycki (1985).
- With the UNC win, he became the first 3-0 first-year head coach for the Dukes.
- Four others lost their first game to power-conference opponents.

DEFENSE STRONG IN HOME OPENER

- JMU used big stops on the defensive side of the ball and held Gardner-Webb to three points each half to earn a 13-6 win on Sept. 7 in the home opener at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- JMU forced a pair of GWU interceptions and stopped the Runnin' Bulldogs twice on fourth down while holding them to just 269 total yards.
- JMU's defense held GWU to just 2-of-15 on third down, as the group was led by Jacob Dobbs' 13 tackles. Chris Shearin had a career-high nine, while Raymond Scott, Kye Holmes and Khairi Manns had six apiece.
- JMU trailed 3-0 at halftime before scoring on its first two possessions of the second half, which included Tyler Purdy's first JMU touchdown. Leading 13-6 in the fourth, GWU was stopped in the red zone on a turnover on downs, as the visitors got as close as the JMU five yard line.

DUKES WIN CHESNEY'S DEBUT

- JMU scored 27 unanswered points and posted a second-half shutout to run away with a 30-7 victory at Charlotte in the opener on Aug. 31.
- Alonza Barnett III threw for two touchdowns in his second career start, as he finished 10-of-17 for 219 yards while also rushing for 89 yards on just nine carries.
- Cam Ross accrued 94 total yards, making two catches for 53 yards to go with a 41-yard rush. Omarion Dollison also caught a pair of passes for 80 yards, which included a 73-yard touchdown.
- George Pettaway and Ayo Adeyi combined for three scores, as Pettaway rushed for 25 and a touchdown and caught a 33-yard touchdown. Adeyi added 41 on the ground and a touchdown.
- JMU out-gained Charlotte by a 417-324 margin, which included 198-131 on the ground.
- After trailing 7-3, JMU's defense forced Charlotte into two picks, two 3-and-outs and two turnovers on downs over the host's final seven drives.

SUCCESS IN THE TAR HEEL STATE

- JMU has seen its fair share of success in the state of North Carolina over the past decade, posting an 8-2 record in games played in the state since the 2015 season.
- The Dukes have won five in a row since 2019, including both road trips to the state this season, beating Charlotte (30-7) in the opener and UNC on Sept. 21 (70-50).
- JMU also captured a 32-28 victory at App State in the program's first Sun Belt game in 2022.
- The only two teams to claim wins in the state since 2015 are NC State (24-13) in 2018 and North Carolina (56-28) in 2016.
- While an FCS member, JMU opened the 2017 season with a dominant victory over ECU (34-14) for its largest win over an FBS team while a member of the lower division.

JMU Dominates Second Half in Season-Opening Win at Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – James Madison football picked up its first win of the Bob Chesney era with a second-half shutout and scored 27 unanswered points to upend Charlotte 30-7 in the season opener on Saturday night at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

Alonza Barnett III threw for two touchdowns in his second career start, guiding JMU back from a 7-3 deficit with four touchdown drives to bridge the halves. He finished the games 10-of-18 for 219 passing yards and two scores with an interception while also rushing for 89 yards.

Cam Ross was a factor both in the run and pass game, accruing 94 total yards, as he caught two passes for 53 receiving yards while also rushing for 41 yards, a career high. Omarion Dollison made two catches for 80 yards and a touchdown, while George Pettaway tallied 58 total yards with 25 rushing and a 33-yard touchdown catch. Ayo Adeyi also found the endzone for his first JMU touchdown, as he added 41 rushing yards.

Defensively, three Dukes had six tackles, led by Jacob Thomas who had 1.5 tackles for loss. Khairi Manns also had a half TFL, while Kye Holmes turned in his career-high tackles total. Jacob Dobbs and Trent Hendrick each had 1.5 TFL and a sack, while Chauncey Logan made three pass breakups, with one leading to an interception by Chris Fitzgerald.

JMU out-gained Charlotte by a 417-324 margin, which included 198-131 on the ground.

Charlotte was paced by Max Brown, who threw for 193 yards and a touchdown, while Terron Kellman led the 49ers with 76 rushing yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- JMU took advantage of a three-yard shanked punt by Charlotte, setting up a short field, and Noe Ruelas drilled a 43-yard field goal to put JMU up 3-0 after one
- After a strip sack, Charlotte got on the board with a 26-yard touchdown, as Max Brown connected over the middle with Isaiah Myers to give the hosts a 7-3 lead with just over eight minutes before halftime.
- JMU regained the lead and took a 9-7 halftime lead after a wild two-play sequence late in the second. Logan batted a pass that was picked off by Fitzgerald for his first career interception. On the ensuing play, Barnett III connected down the far sideline for a 33-yard touchdown pass to Pettaway
- The Dukes extended the lead to 16-7 on the second play of the third quarter, as Barnett III found Dollison deep for a 73-yard touchdown pass.
- JMU opened the fourth capping off a 7-play drive, as Adeyi scampered into the endzone from eight yards out to make it 23-7.
- Charlotte threatened at the other end, but a fourth-down stop stymied the 49er offense, giving JMU the ball back with nine minutes to play.
- The Dukes forced another turnover over on downs later in the frame and turned the stop into points with a one-yard touchdown from Pettaway.

GAME NOTES

- JMU improved to 3-0 all-time against Charlotte and remained unbeaten against American Athletic Conference teams, moving to 3-0 as well.
- On third downs, the Dukes went 3-for-11 (.273) while the 49ers converted on 7-of-19 (.368) opportunities.
- Charlotte recorded more tackles for loss (10-6) with JMU held the advantage in sacks (2-1).
- The 73-yard touchdown from Barnett III to Dollison was the longest play of both players' careers.
- JMU's interceptions by Justin Eaglin and Fitzgerald were the first career picks for each defender.
- The Dukes have won five consecutive season openers. The last time JMU fell in its first game of the season was a 20-13 loss at West Virginia on Aug. 31, 2019, when the Dukes competed at the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level.

Dukes Hold Off Runnin' Bulldogs in Home Opener

HARRISONBURG, Va. – James Madison football used big stops on the defensive side of the ball and held Gardner-Webb to three points in each half for a 13-6 victory in the home opener on Saturday night at Bridgeforth Stadium.

The Dukes moved to 2-0 on the year, while the Runnin' Bulldogs fell to 0-2 after suffering its second straight single-digit defeat.

JMU forced Gardner-Webb into two turnovers, both on interceptions, while also stopping the visitors twice on fourth down, including for the final time in the red zone with 2:32 remaining. An Alonza Barnett III first-down rush on the ensuing drive sealed the win.

Jacob Dobbs led the Dukes with a game-high 13 tackles, while Chris Shearin had nine, including four solo stops. Raymond Scott, Kye Holmes and Khairi Manns each tallies six tackles each. Chris Fitzgerald led the team with a pair of TFLs and a sack.

The running back tandem of George Pettaway and Tyler Purdy paced the offense, as the duo combined for 142 rushing yards and the game's only touchdown. Pettaway had a career night, turning in his first career games with over 100 total yards (116).

He rushed for a career-high 84 yards on 10 carries (8.4 avg.) while making a career-high four receptions for 32 yards. Purdy found the end zone for the first time at JMU, as he had a big second half to finish with 58 yards on 10 attempts (5.8 avg.).

Additionally, Barnett was 14-of-22 for 135 passing yards, finding six different pass catchers. Aside from Pettaway, Taylor Thompson and Cam Ross also made three catches each, combining for 49 receiving yards.

For Gardner-Webb, Tyler Riddell finished 17-of-30 for 160 passing yards and two interceptions, while Edward Saydee rushed for a game-high 87 yards. Camden Overton had five grabs for 65 receiving yards, while Trevor Moffitt paced the defense with 12 tackles, 2.5 TFL and a sack.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- Teams traded turnover on downs in the opening stanza, leading to a scoreless tie after the opening quarter.
- Gardner-Webb struck first with 8:51 to play in the half on a 44-yard field goal by Jay Billingsley.
- JMU couldn't muster a scoring drive, gaining just 124 yards on 30 offensive plays in the first half, giving the visitors a 3-0 lead into the locker room.
- The Dukes finally got on the scoreboard on its first drive of the second half, as the ground game accounted for 51 of 58 yards, capped off by a Purdy one-yard touchdown scamper.
- Chauncey Logan recorded his third career interception on the ensuing drive, setting up a Noe Ruelas 48-yard field goal, extending the lead to 10-3 midway through the third.
- GWU threatened late in the third, getting to the JMU eight, but a defensive stand held the visitors to a 30-yard Billingsley field goal, making it 10-6 heading to the fourth.
- JMU's 12-play drive to bridge the third and fourth quarters was stopped in the red zone, as Ruelas converted his second field goal of the night from 26 yards out to extend the lead to 13-6.
- Gardner-Webb had one last chance to tie it in the closing minutes, but a Fitzgerald and Amar Thomas shared sack set up a fourth-and-long, and the pass was incomplete to allow JMU to run out the clock.

GAME NOTES

- JMU out-gained GWU by a 285-269 margin, including 150-109 on the ground.
- JMU was 3-of-12 on third down, while GWU managed just 2-of-15.
- Fourth downs favored the visitors, as it finished 4-of-6, while JMU failed on both attempts.
- JMU scored on both trips to the red zone, while the Runnin' Bulldogs were 1-for-2.
- Gardner-Webb had six tackles for loss and three sacks, as opposed to JMU's four and two.
- Despite the win, JMU was out-possessed by Gardner-Webb, 33:58 to 26:02.
- The first-quarter interception by Jacob Thomas was the first of his career.
- JMU was shut out in the first half for the first time since Dec. 17, 2021, when it trailed 13-0 to North Dakota State in the 2023 FCS semifinals.
- Purdy's third-quarter score was his first JMU touchdown and the sixth of his career.
- Ruelas made two of three field goals and now has 18 for his career.
- The home opener was the 50th career game and punt start for Ryan Hanson, as he averaged 49.3 yards on his three boots, which included a season-long 53-yarder.

Barnett Sets TD Record, JMU Drops 70 to Beat Carolina in Chapel Hill

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – James Madison quarterback Alonza Barnett III set a single-game school record with seven touchdowns to lead the Dukes to a record-setting 70-50 non-conference football victory at North Carolina on Saturday afternoon at Kenan Stadium.

The Dukes improved the 3-0 on the season after notching their second straight win against an Atlantic Coast Conference team, while the Tar Heels fell to 3-1. JMU now owns four wins against the ACC and picked up its first victory at UNC in four tries.

Barnett III had a career afternoon, becoming the first player in history to record more than six total touchdowns in a single game, passing for a career-high five while rushing for two more. He finished the game 22-of-34 for 388 yards with no interceptions, while rushing for a career-best 99 yards on 13 carries (7.6 avg.).

His 487 total yards ranked third in JMU single-game history, while his 388 passing total was tied for seventh.

The Dukes set multiple team records, recording their most points in a game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent and as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. It nearly doubled the previous record of points scored against an autonomy five team, besting the 36 they scored at Virginia last season.

JMU lit up the scoreboard early, scoring a school-record 53 points in the first half, as the 70 it scored matched the most UNC had ever given up in a game. The 20-point win was also the largest margin of victory for JMU against the ACC.

In a game featuring over 1,200 combined total yards, the 120 points was the most points scored by both teams in a single game in JMU history, besting the 108 JMU and Richmond scored at Bridgeforth Stadium in 2015.

Two JMU players went over 100 receiving yards for the first time in 2024, as Cam Ross caught seven passes for 107 yards and a touchdown, while Omarion Dollison had three grabs for a career-high 125 yards and a score. Eight Dukes made at least one reception, as Yamir Knight recorded career bests of five catches and 81 receiving yards. Three others scored their first JMU touchdowns in Taylor Thompson, Logan Kyle and Dylan Williams.

On the ground, JMU averaged 5.7 per carry, accumulating 223 rushing yards as a team. Barnett aside, George Pettaway ran 16 times for a career-high 87 yards against his former team.

UNC's high-octane offense was paced by Jacoby Criswell, who was 28-of-48 for 475 passing yards and three touchdowns with a pair of interceptions. All-American Omarion Hampton rushed for 139 yards and a game-high three touchdowns.

Defensively, JMU was led by Terrence Spence, who had a pair of interceptions and a blocked punt, which resulted in a Jayden Mines touchdown. Trent Hendrick and DJ Barksdale each had seven tackles, as both tallied career highs of 2.0 tackles for loss each. Hendrick added a sack and forced fumble while recovering an onside kick. Eric O'Neill had season bests of 2.0 TFL and a sack

- Carolina just out-gained JMU by five total yards, at 616-611.
- Teams combined for 55 first downs, with UNC at 30 and JMU at 25.
- The Dukes out-rushed the Tar Heels, 223-141, while the hosts had a 475-388 edge through the air. However, JMU had 14 less passes and completed 6.3 percent more attempts.
- JMU averaged 8.4 yards per play, as opposed to 7.8 for Carolina.
- JMU forced UNC into five turnovers, with two interceptions and three fumble recoveries, while losing just one fumble.
- JMU had an 8-4 lead in tackles for loss and 3-2 edge in sacks.
- JMU has now scored on a blocked punt for a touchdown in consecutive seasons against an ACC opponent.
- The 50-yard field goal for Ruelas was the longest for JMU since Jason Pritchard's 51 yarder at Richmond on Oct. 11, 2008.
- The opening stanza featured teams combining for 39 points and 440 yards, as JMU took a 25-14 lead after the opening 15.
- JMU outscored UNC, 28-7, in the second quarter, making it 53-21 at the break. It was JMU's highest scoring half in school history, and the 28 points in the second matched the highest-scoring stanza in a road game ever.

JMU Sets Two-Game Scoring Record in 63-7 Victory over Ball State

HARRISONBURG, Va. – James Madison dominated every phase, and Alonza Barnett III had another stellar performance, accounting for six total touchdowns, to lead the Dukes to a convincing 63-7 Family Weekend victory against Ball State on Saturday afternoon in front of a sold-out Bridgeforth Stadium.

The Dukes moved to 4-0 on the year, while the Cardinals fell to 1-3. It was JMU's first win over a Mid-American Conference team in its third attempt and the fifth straight season the program has started with at least a 4-0 record.

The second consecutive scoring outburst set JMU's two-game scoring record off 133 points, as the win follows JMU's 70-50 victory at North Carolina on Sept. 21. The 133 points over the past eight quarters surpassed the previous record of 131 points which JMU scored on Oct. 29, 2016 (84-7 vs. Rhode Island) and on Nov. 5, 2016 (47-43 at Richmond).

Barnett III tallied 324 yards and six touchdowns, as he was 20-of-28 for 280 yards and five touchdowns while rushing for 44 yards and a score. In his past two outings, he's combined for 13 total touchdowns (10 passing, 3 rushing) and 811 yards of offense, which includes 668 passing yards.

Four different Dukes caught touchdown passes, including Yamir Knight, who made four receptions for 44 yards and a career-high two touchdowns. Taylor Thompson made a career-best five catches for 91 yards and a score. Omarion Dollison caught four balls for 48 yards and a touchdown, while Cam Ross added a touchdown, making three grabs for 46 receiving yards.

The Dukes were strong in the ground game, accounting for 220 yards of rushing, averaging 6.5 per carry. Two players had at least 50 rushing yards, led by Wayne Knight, who had a career-high six rushes for 63 yards, with a long of 37. Jobi Malary tacked on 50 yards on just five carries, scoring his first JMU touchdown to complete the scoring output. George Pettaway added a touchdown after contributing 35 yards.

The Dukes scored eight times on offense and didn't punt one time, which was the first time since Dec. 7, 2019, the punt team didn't have a single snap. JMU out-gained Ball State by a wide margin, at 506-250, including 220-77 on the ground.

Defensively, JMU forced three interceptions, including one pick-six, and also stopped Ball State three times on fourth down. Terrence Spence made five tackles and had an interception to set a single-season career high with three after his two a week ago. Eric O'Neill made a season-best 2.0 sacks and returned an interception 27 yards to the house for his first career touchdown. Khairi Manns also registered a pair of sacks for a new career high, while DJ Barksdale produced his first career interception.

For the Cardinals, they were paced by Kadin Semonza, who was 22-of-35 for 168 yards and a touchdown with three interceptions. Braedon Sloan rushed for a game-best 72 yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- JMU opened the game with scoring drives on its two opening drives, as Barnett III drove the length of the field, connecting with Yamir Knight on his first career touchdown on a 12-yard pass.
- After a Spence interception, JMU needed just 35 yards to score again, as Pettaway hit paydirt from 24 yards out for the score. Thompson rushed it in for two more points, making it 15-0 just over eight minutes in.
- Ball State answered with multiple chunk plays, and Semonza threw a dart to Tanner Koziol for the 15-yard touchdown, trimming JMU's lead to 15-7.
- JMU came back with another touchdown drive, converting a 30-yard pass on fourth down to Logan Kyle before Dollison caught a five-yard toss in the back corner of the endzone to make it 22-7 after one.
- Possessions were at a premium in the second, as Ball State ran nearly eight minutes off the clock to bridge the quarters, but sacks by O'Neill and Manns thwarted the drive.
- JMU made the most with its only full possession of the quarter, as Barnett III accounted for 46 of 59 yards, capped off by a 10-yard pass to Yamir Knight for the score, making it 29-7.
- Ball State threatened but a tipped pass interception by Barksdale, which was his first career pick, kept it a 22-point game at the break.
- The interception train continued into the opening minute of the second half, as O'Neill jumped a pass at the line of scrimmage and returned it for his first career pick-six, making it 35-7.
- JMU extended the lead to 49-7 with consecutive touchdown drives that ended with a Ross 26-yard touchdown catch and a Barnett III 18-yard rush.
- In the fourth Barnett III finished his day with a dime to Thompson from 22 yards out for the score, making it a 56-7 lead.
- Late in the game, JMU put together one more drive to the goal line, as Malary found a seam for a 32-yard touchdown scamper.

GAME NOTES

- The Dukes averaged 8.3 yards per play, while Ball State was limited to 3.5 per snap.
- JMU turned in arguably its best third-down performance in recent memory, going 9-of-10 to extend drives. Ball State did a decent job on third down as well, finishing 7-of-16.
- On fourth down, JMU went 1-of-1, while Ball State was 2-of-5.
- JMU had five sacks, as opposed to the Cardinals' three. JMU also held an 8-3 lead on tackles for loss.
- After Ball State's touchdown drive, its final eight possessions consisted of two interceptions (one pick-six), three turnovers on downs and a pair of three-and-outs.
- The 63 points were the second-most points JMU has ever scored against an FBS opponent, trailing the 70 it scored just last week at UNC.
- Over the past two games, JMU has combined for 47 first-quarter points, as it had 25 at North Carolina on Sept. 21.
- JMU was out-possessed by a 33:41 to 26:19 in the game. Despite only having 2:09 of possession time in the third quarter, JMU outscored Ball State 20-0 in that stanza.

JMU Drops Sun Belt Opener at ULM

MONROE, La. – James Madison and ULM put on a defensive slugfest, and the Warhawks overcame an early 10-point deficit for a 21-19 victory against the Dukes on Saturday night at Malone Stadium.

The Warhawks moved to 4-1 on the year and 2-0 in Sun Belt play, while the Dukes suffered their first setback of 2024, dropping to 4-1 overall and 0-1 in league games.

JMU took an early 10-0 lead after one quarter, but a pair of touchdowns, one by the ULM defense, gave the hosts a 14-13 lead at halftime. JMU moved the ball but was unable to finish off drives, while ULM extended its lead to 21-13 early in the fourth.

The Dukes eventually answered with a 15-play, 75-yard drive, however, the two-point conversion failed as they trailed 21-19 with 4:04 remaining. JMU regained possession with 0:32 on the clock but turned the ball over on downs to fall 21-19.

Aiden Armenta finished 17-of-30 for 147 passing yards and a touchdown with an interception to lead the ULM offense.

Ahmad Hardy rushed for a game-high 82 yards and a touchdown, while Jake Godfrey made seven catches for 60 yards and a score. ULM's defense combined for three sacks and was led in tackles by Wydett Williams Jr. with nine.

For JMU, Alonza Barnett III was 20-of-47 for 251 yards while rushing for 49 yards and a score. George Pettaway gained 62 yards on the ground, while Tyler Purdy recorded a rushing touchdown and chipped in with 16 yards. Taylor Thompson tied his career high of five catches for 59 yards. Yamir Knight led all receivers with 67 yards on four receptions.

Defensively, Khairi Manns made a pair of tackles for loss with a sack and pass breakup, as JMU has seven tackles for loss as a team. Jacob Thomas came away with an interception, 1.5 TFL and seven stops.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- JMU opened the scoring on the opening drive, as Barnett III connected on a 29-yard pass to Knight before evading a sack and running it in from 27 yards out to make it 7-0 just over two minutes in.
- After a Thomas interception, JMU settled for three by way of a Noe Ruelas 48-yard field goal, giving JMU a 10-0 advantage through one.
- After converting on fourth down, Hardy hit a seam up the middle and scored untouched from 38 yards out, as ULM trimmed the JMU lead to 10-7 with 5:52 remaining in the first half.
- Late in the second, JMU had favorable field position off a muffed punt by ULM, but two plays in, Barnett III fumbled and Daniel Knudsen picked up the loose ball and returned it 82 yards for a scoop-and-score, giving the hosts a 14-10 lead.
- JMU drove into field-goal range in the final seconds of the half, and Ruelas converted from 39 yards out to get within a point, at 14-13, at the break.
- Neither team was able to muster points and combined for 127 total yards in the third, as JMU was stopped in ULM territory late in the stanza to keep it a 14-13 score heading to the fourth.
- ULM opened the fourth with the half's first score, converting a fourth down and a third and long, capping off the 11-play drive with a 12-yard touchdown pass from Armenta to Jake Godfrey. ULM led JMU 21-13 with 10:30 to play.
- The Dukes responded with a 1-yard rush from Purdy to cap off a 15-play, 75-yard scoring drive with 4:04 remaining. The two-point conversion failed with an incomplete pass as JMU trailed 21-19.
- James Madison forced a ULM punt and took over at their own 14 with 0:32 left to play. Facing a fourth down, an incomplete pass from Barnett resulted in a turnover on downs to hand the ball back to the Warhawks.

GAME NOTES

- The loss snapped a nine-game win streak in conference openers for JMU (2015-23).
- The Dukes outgained the Warhawks 399-257.
- ULM held an advantage in time of possession by a margin of 31:04 to 28:56.
- JMU went 7-for-16 (.438) on third downs and converted on 1-of-5 (.200) tries on fourth.
- The Dukes came away with one interception and one fumble recovery, scoring three points off ULM turnovers.
- Thomas' first-quarter interception was the second of his career while Chase Regan notched his first career fumble recovery on a muffed punt.
- With his 48-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 39-yarder to close the first half, Ruelas has now made 22 field goals in his career.

JMU Controls Coastal Carolina 39-7

HARRISONBURG, Va. – James Madison’s white out turned out to be a wipeout.

Quarterback Alonza Barnett III threw for three touchdowns and the Dukes’ defense took over the national lead in turnovers, blowing out visiting Coastal Carolina, 39-7, on Thursday night at Bridgeforth Stadium.

“It’s great when you’re playing on national TV and you play at the level we played at today,” said linebacker Jacob Dobbs. “

In front of the ninth largest crowd in stadium history -- 25,622, many clad in white for the Dukes’ annual Brighten the Lights of Madison game – JMU outgained the Chanticleers 421-181 to pick up its first Sun Belt victory of the season.

Running back George Pettaway rushed for 89 yards on 13 carries and caught a 9-yard touchdown pass, as the Dukes racked up 222 yards on the ground.

JMU (5-1 overall, 1-1 SBC) shook off last weekend’s loss at ULM in impressive and dominant fashion, jumping out to a 29-7 halftime lead on its way to a fourth straight blowout of Coastal Carolina.

“Obviously that was disappointing last week for all of us,” Barnett said of the previous game. “But just the continued confidence we have in each other will take us a long way.”

In their three FBS meetings with the Chanticleers, the Dukes have now outscored them 142-28. Thursday, it stifled the conference’s No. 2 scoring offense, holding Coastal Carolina to its lowest point and total yard marks this season.

“You had everybody playing within the framework of the defense, doing their one eleventh,” said Dobbs, who posted a team-high nine tackles. “And the D-line, I thought, just dominated the game. They wrecked the game.”

The offense was creative, unpredictable and – for much of the night – unstoppable. The defense continued its dynamic play, not only holding the Chanticleers to a 3 for 14 showing on third downs, but also taking over the nation’s lead in turnovers with 17.

That included defensive tackle Lloyd Summerall III’s 35-yard pick-6 in the second quarter.

“It’s still surreal for me right now,” Summerall said. “Just seeing the ball in the air and took it to the crib. It was a great feeling.”

Five days after struggling offensively on the road at ULM, the Dukes had no trouble moving the ball against the Chanticleers, as offensive coordinator Dean Kennedy’s diverse and deceptive game plan kept Coastal (4-2, 1-1) on its heels all night.

JMU got on the board first, scoring on a nifty red zone play where it motioned Pettaway out into a bunch formation, then threw him a bubble screen. Tight end Josh Phifer opened space for Pettaway to juke up field, and wide receiver Dylan Williams threw the final block, at the 2-yard line, to get Pettaway into the end zone for a 7-0 lead with 6:51 left in the first quarter.

After Coastal responded with a big play of its own, a 40-yard touchdown pass from Ethan Vasko to Jameson Tucker, JMU dialed up some more offensive creativity.

Barnett took a shotgun snap and gave the ball to Pettaway, who shuffled it to wide receiver Omarion Dollison on a reverse. Dollison flipped it back to Barnett who fired down field to an open Taylor Thompson for 33 yards.

That set up a 25-yard touchdown grab by Thompson, who made a leaping catch on a well-placed ball by Barnett to put the Dukes – who picked up the 2-point conversion – ahead 15-7.

Summerall’s interception return, the first of his career, put JMU ahead 22-7 and signaled that the rout was on.

JMU improved to 20-3 following its first regular-season loss since 2000 and coach Bob Chesney won his 10th straight game following a defeat, a streak that dates back to his years at Holy Cross.

The Dukes next play at Georgia Southern on Oct. 19 at 4 p.m. and airing on ESPN+.

Dukes Drop First-Place Battle at Georgia Southern

STATESBORO, Ga. – Georgia Southern jumped out to an early 21-0 lead, and James Madison’s offense struggled to find a rhythm on offense, as it fell 28-14 on Saturday evening at Allen E. Paulson Stadium.

The Eagles remain in first place in the Sun Belt Conference East Division, improving to 5-2 on the year and 3-0 in league play, while the Dukes fell to 5-2 on the year and 1-2 in SBC games. GS also moved to 6-0 all-time against JMU in games played at Paulson Stadium.

Georgia Southern dominated the yards category, out-gaining JMU by a 405-253 margin, including 190-67 on the ground. JC French finished 24-of-33 for 215 passing yards and three touchdowns with three interceptions. Jalen White rushed for 134 yards, averaging 5.8 per carry, while David Mbadinga added 38 yards and a score.

Jacob Dobbs led the way for JMU on defense, recording a season-high 17 tackles, including eight solo, and a fumble recovery. Jacob Thomas grabbed his third interception of the season and finished with eight stops and a career-high 2.0 tackles for loss, while Darold DeNgohe chipped in with a career-best 2.0 TFL. The defense also produced interceptions by Immanuel Bush and DJ Barksdale, with the latter resulting in JMU’s fourth pick-six of the season.

Offensively, Alonza Barnett III was 22-of-41 for 186 passing yards while George Pettaway ran for 63 rushing yards. Cam Ross (five catches) and Yamir Knight (four catches) combined for nine receptions for 78 yards. Omarion Dollison hauled in three receptions for a team-best 51 yards.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- JMU forced a pair of first-quarter turnovers with a tipped-pass interception by Bush, and a fumble recovery by Dobbs, but the Dukes weren’t able to produce points off either takeaway.
- Georgia Southern converted a third-and-long and a play later, Mbadinga had a wide-open seam down the near sideline, going 29 yards for the score to make it 7-0 Eagles after one.
- Southern doubled its lead to 14-0 with 3:48 to go before halftime on a five-yard pass from French to Derwin Burgess Jr., scoring on a GS-record, 18-play drive that stretched 96 yards and 9:14 off the clock.
- After another 3-and-out by JMU, the Eagles needed just five plays to score again, this time on a 15-yard pass from French to Tyler Fromm, giving the hosts a 21-0 halftime lead.
- JMU got on the board midway through the third quarter, to climb within 21-7, as Barksdale jumped the route at the line of scrimmage and returned it 10 yards for a pick-six.
- GS responded with a one-yard touchdown toss from French to Elijah Walton for his first career touchdown, giving the Eagles a 28-7 lead after three.
- Barnett connected with Dollison for a 35-yard touchdown to make it 28-14 with 14:32 remaining in the final frame.
- Still trailing 28-14, the Dukes took over at their own eight-yard line at the 4:43 mark and drove deep into Georgia Southern territory, but failed to register points before time expired.

GAME NOTES

- The Eagles were solid on third down, going 9-of-13 to extend drives, while JMU was just 7-of-18.
- Georgia Southern turned in its lopsided total-offense advantage with a huge second quarter, in which it held a 135-47 margin to move the score from 7-0 to 21-0 at the break.
- The 21-0 halftime deficit was the largest for JMU in its FBS history (2022-present).
- With Bush’s first-quarter interception, JMU’s defensive line has now produced an FBS-leading four interceptions.
- JMU had four takeaways and now has 21 this season, and Barksdale’s third-quarter touchdown was JMU’s fourth pick-six of the year and first by a safety.

Defense, Special Teams Boost Dukes to Bowl Eligibility in 32-15 Win

HARRISONBURG, Va. – A trick play got James Madison going in the second quarter Saturday against Southern Mississippi. And once the Dukes got going, they just kept on going.

George Pettaway and Wayne Knight combined to rush for 180 yards, JMU's defense racked up a season-high nine sacks and Cam Ross ran the opening kickoff in the second half back 94 yards for a score as the Dukes rolled past the Golden Eagles, 32-15.

"Those sparks are what you need at moments," JMU coach Bob Chesney said. "We just have to continue to do that, move that ball down the field, take some chances, take some risks, put some exciting plays together."

The win made JMU bowl eligible in its first official year reclassified as an FBS program. The Dukes (6-2 overall, 2-2 Sun Belt) had been transitioning from the FCS since 2022.

Pettaway ran for a career-high 119 yards and a score on 16 carries, for his first career 100-yard effort. Knight contributed 61 rushing yards and another 41 on receptions.

Ross, opened the fourth quarter with a 7-yard touchdown reception to go with his explosive special teams play.

The Dukes, coming off last weekend's loss at Georgia Southern again showed the ability to bounce right back. In front of a homecoming crowd of 25,399, JMU's defense led the way, hitting season highs in sacks and tackles for losses and adding two more turnovers to their nation-leading total.

"From the beginning of the game, the coaches just told us, 'We have to win upfront. We have to win the battle on the line of scrimmage,'" said defensive lineman Darold DeNgohe, one of eight Dukes involved in a sack on the day. "We were just trying to dominate, get some penetration."

JMU got itself, and its capacity homecoming crowd, going late in the second quarter. A trick play that saw Barnett sling the ball out to Taji Hudson, who threw downfield to Wayne Knight, kicked the Dukes into another gear.

The play was one the team practiced all week, but it didn't unfold exactly as the Dukes planned. Southern Miss actually bumped Knight off his route and Hudson had to throw a different pass than the one he had prepared for.

Hudson's background as a high school quarterback in Georgia certainly helped in that moment.

Two plays later, Pettaway scored JMU's first touchdown of the game, a 4-yard carry that put JMU ahead 10-3 with 5:45 left in the half.

From there, the Dukes took over. Terrence Spence's fifth interception of the season set up Alonza Barnett's 10-yard scoring strike to tight end Taylor Thompson less than a minute later, positioning JMU to keep Southern Miss (1-7, 0-4) at arm's length for the rest of the game.

"I thought our guys did enough to win this game," Chesney said. "They've got to do a whole lot more and we're going to have to do a whole lot more as we move forward to win a whole bunch more."

Leading 17-9 at the break, JMU got another big play to open the second half.

Ross took the kickoff back 94 yards for the touchdown and a 23-9 advantage. As Ross zipped up the Southern Miss sideline, he had one defender to beat. A pair of teammates, Gabriel Hollingsworth and Khairi Manns, made sure that happened, delivering a sandwich block that got Ross to the end zone with the team's first kickoff return score since 2021 against Towson.

Even when the Golden Eagles scored in the second half, JMU turned it into points for itself. After a Southern Miss touchdown in the third quarter, Dukes defensive tackle Darold DeNgohe blocked the extra point kick. Chris Shearin scooped it up and returned it 92 yards for two points for the home team.

The Golden Eagles, playing their first game under interim coach Reed Stringer, committed eight penalties for 93 yards.

The Dukes now have their second open date, then host Georgia State on Nov. 9. The kickoff time for that game will be announced Monday.

The victory kept JMU – which played in a game back of first place in the Sun Belt East. And, a year after playing in the Armed Forces Bowl when not enough FBS teams earned eligibility – the Dukes now are bowl worthy without any asterisk.

"I'm happy that we got the bowl game. It was a great time last year," said senior offensive lineman Cole Potts. "But we've got higher expectations than that and higher goals."

GAME NOTES

- JMU out-gained Southern Miss by a 357-319 margin, including 199-141 in the run game.
- Cole Potts made his 51st career start Saturday, setting the JMU program record for starts. He surpassed Tony LeZotte, who started in 50 games for the Dukes.
- Terrence Spence's second-quarter interception was his fifth of the season in just his eighth game with the program. He now has nine for his career, as he produced four in 35 career games at Holy Cross (2020-23).
- JMU finished the game with season bests of 11 tackles for loss and nine sacks, resulting in a loss of 40 yards for the Golden Eagles.
- Eight different Dukes recorded at least a half sack, led by Jacob Dobbs, who had a season-high two. Eric O'Neill and Mychal McMullin each had 1.5 sacks, with it being a career high for McMullin.
- JMU broke up six passes, which marked the third time in four home games JMU has had at least six PBU.
- Cam Ross's 94-yard kickoff return was a career-long return for Ross and JMU's first kickoff for a touchdown since Nov. 20, 2021.
- JMU blocked an extra point for the first time since Oct. 9, 2021, and subsequently Chris Shearin returned it 93 yards for a defensive PAT, marking the first such play since Vidal Nelson on Nov. 29, 2009.
- The win secures JMU playing in its second bowl game in 2024 and its first as a fully reclassified program.
