Head Coach Billy Napier

Billy Napier was hired as James Madison's 10th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2025, and enters his first season at the helm in Harrisonburg.

Napier, a 2026 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Watch List selection, welcomed 34 letterwinners back from 2025's Sun Belt championship and CFP team and has added 61 total newcomers, including 39 transfers, to the mix this fall.

Napier boasts a 70-37 career record as a head coach and most recently led Florida of the Southeastern Conference for the last four years, highlighted by an 8-5 record in 2024 and a win in the Gasparilla Bowl over Tulane.

That team won its last four games, including back-to-back top-25 triumphs over No. 22 LSU and No. 9 Ole Miss, followed by topping Florida State on the road and the bowl win over Tulane. Other ranked wins included 2025 over No. 9 Texas, 2023 over No. 11 Tennessee and 2022 in his Florida debut over No. 7 Utah.

Prior to Florida, Napier authored a dominant run at Louisiana, going 40-12 in four seasons from 2018-2021 with four appearances in the Sun Belt Conference Championship game as West Division Champions and two league titles in his last two seasons in 2020 and 2021.

In his first season as a college head coach in 2018, the Ragin' Cajuns went 7-7 overall but won the Sun Belt West at 5-3 with a tie for first. Louisiana improved in each of Napier's seasons, including 11-3 (7-1 SBC) in 2019, 10-1 (7-1 SBC) and a league title in 2020 and 12-1 (8-0) and a title in 2021.

The 2019 and 2020 squads won appearances over Miami (Ohio) in the LendingTree Bowl and over UTSA in the First Responder Bowl, respectively. The 2021 team went on to defeat Marshall in the New Orleans Bowl following Napier's departure for Florida. The Ragin' Cajuns were ranked as high as 15th in the AP Poll in 2020 and 16th in 2021.

Widely touted for his recruiting and player development, each of Napier's recruiting classes at Florida were ranked top 20 in the nation. Meanwhile, he had 14 NFL Draft selections in three years of drafts at Florida and another seven picks in four years at Louisiana. Most recently, seven Gators were taken in the 2025 NFL Draft. In 2024, wide receiver Ricky Pearsall was a first round pick by the 49ers, which followed a first-round selection of quarterback Anthony Richardson in 2023. He coached an additional 20 NFL Draft picks as an offensive position coach across four FBS assistant jobs. That group featured five first-round selections, consisting of four wide receivers and a running back.

Head Coach Billy Napier

Fifteen years of experience as an assistant coach helped prepare Napier for his head coaching roles, with 14 coming at the FBS level and all 15 on the offensive side.

He spent two years as a GA at Clemson before then returning to Tommy Bowden's staff in roles as tight ends and recruiting coordinator coach, then quarterbacks and offensive coordinator when Dabo Swinney took the helm.

In 2011, Napier joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama as an offensive analyst, then followed Jim McElwain from Alabama to Colorado State to serve a season as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach.

He returned to Alabama as wide receiver coach for four seasons (2013-2016) and then spent one year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona State in 2017 prior to earning the Louisiana job.

Napier was a four-year contributor at Furman (FCS/then I-AA) and was a two-time All-Conference quarterback in the Southern Conference.

He led the Paladins to two conference championships and, in 2001, led Furman to a national runner-up finish in I-AA.

He set a Furman career record by completing 64.8% of his passes. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier compiled a Furman-record 2,475 passing yards and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award as the nation's most outstanding offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn, and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy and Charlie. He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

IN THE POLLS
- James Madison has received votes eight times in both the AP Poll and US LBM Coaches Poll this season.
- The Dukes are the only Sun Belt team to earn votes in either poll at any point in 2026.
- JMU earned a season-best 80 points in the Oct. 18 edition of the Coaches Poll and 52 in that day's AP Poll.
- JMU finished last season ranked No. 19 in the AP and No. 20 in the Coaches Poll - the first time it ever finished a season ranked in the FBS.
- Altogether, JMU has been ranked in 14 AP Polls since 2022, received votes in an additional 28 and have appeared in the poll in all five FBS seasons (ranked in 2022, 2023 and 2025).

AN UNFORGETTABLE SEASON
- JMU's inclusion in last season's College Football Playoff was historic for a variety of reasons, perhaps most notably being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever make the CFP field.
- The Dukes also were the first team from Virginia to compete for a CFP national championship.
- JMU punched its ticket to the CFP in just year four playing a Football Bowl Subdivision schedule and its second as a full-fledged FBS eligible program.
- The 2025 squad won 11 straight games at one point, capturing its first Sun Belt Championship.
- James Madison earned the No. 12 seed in last year's CFP, thanks to being one of the five highest-ranked conference champions.

2025 SUN BELT CHAMPIONS
- JMU used a pair of late touchdowns to pull away from Troy for a 31-14 victory to capture the 2025 Sun Belt Football Championship.
- It marked JMU's first conference crown at the FBS level, the 11th in program history and its first since 2021, when JMU closed its chapter in the Football Championship Subdivision.
- The win moved JMU to the 12-win mark for the first time since that 2021 season.
- JMU became the second straight East Division team to win the Sun Belt title and the fourth to claim the trophy in the seven overall SBC championship games.
- RB Wayne Knight was named the championship's MVP after rushing for a career-high 212 yards and setting an SBC title game record with 234 all-purpose yards.
- DL Sahir West also set title records with career bests of 5.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks to lead the defense.

JMU'S CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY
- JMU has claimed 11 conference titles in its history, with nine as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association (formerly Atlantic 10).
- The Dukes' first championship came in 1975 as a Division III squad in the Virginia College Athletic Association.
- JMU won six CAA championships over its last seven FCS seasons, winning three straight between 2015-17 and 2019-21. The Dukes won their first CAA championship in 1999 and later added titles in its 2004 national championship season and in 2008.
- JMU's first Sun Belt title also was its first won in a championship game format, as all previous titles were awarded based solely on regular-season finishes ahead of the FCS Playoffs.

DEFENDING THE CROWN
- The Dukes were voted to finish atop the East Division in the 2026 Sun Belt Preseason Coaches Poll, which was released on July 13.
- JMU received 11 of 14 first-place votes and 94 total points in the poll.
- Following JMU in the East were Old Dominion (73 points, 1 first-place vote), Marshall (67), Georgia Southern (53, 1 first-place vote), Coastal Carolina (45, 1 first-place vote), App State (43) and Georgia State (17).
- In the West Division, Troy, which claimed 12 first-place votes and 96 points, garnered the top spot.

SUN BELT SUCCESS
- James Madison has earned instant success inside the Sun Belt Conference since joining the league in 2022.
- Overall, JMU is 30-9 in conference games in that span, including 15-4 at home and 15-5 on the road. It also defeated Troy in its first-ever Sun Belt Championship Game last season at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- The Dukes posted a 12-game conference win streak for a span during the 2025 and '26 seasons. They won all eight Sun Belt games last year and the first four this year.
- JMU was the only G6 program not to lose a game to another G6 in 2025, going 11-0.
- Against all G6 opponents since joining the Sun Belt in 2022, JMU has gone 40-10 (.800).

- Against the East, JMU is 22-7, which includes a 5-0 mark against Georgia State and Old Dominion and 4-0 vs. Coastal Carolina.
- JMU also holds an 8-2 record against Sun Belt West Division squads in league play.
- Last year, JMU became one of three teams to finish a Sun Belt season at 8-0 in the championship-game era.
- It was the first time since 2021 that a team finished 8-0 in SBC play (Louisiana, coached by Billy Napier).

STACKING WINS
- Since joining the FBS ranks in 2022, JMU has won 48 of 61 games (.787).
- That is tied for No. 8 for the most wins in college football during that time (No. 1 among G6 programs) with the fifth-best win percentage.
- It's also the most wins by any SBC team, as Troy has 39 since the start of the 2022 season, while Marshall has 35.
- On the road, JMU is 21-8, which are the most wins away from home in the country and good for No. 5 in road win percentage (.724).

SUCCESS SPREADS
- Including this season, JMU has now recorded 13 straight winning seasons, dating back to 2014.
- The squad also has produced at least a .500 record or better in 24 straight seasons.
- What's more, the Dukes have been led by six different head coaches in that span of success.
- James Madison last was under .500 in 2002 (5-7), one of two seasons this millennium with more losses than victories.
- The Dukes have turned in eight 10-win seasons since its first national championship campaign in 2004.
- Dating back to year one of the program in 1972, JMU has a winning record in 37 of 55 seasons.

- On Sept. 23, Greenberg was named one of 206 semifinalists for the 2026 William V. Campbell Trophy, which honors college football's premier scholar-athlete.
- Now in its 37th year, the Campbell Award recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.
- Greenberg graduated with a bachelor's degree in computer science and is currently pursuing a master's in adult education/human resource development.

SCOTT ON JET AWARD WATCH LIST
- On Oct. 14, WR Michael Scott was named to the Jet Award Midseason Watch List, which honors the most outstanding return man in college football.
- Scott is the nation's leader in combined return yardage, with 794.
- He also is No. 1 nationally in kick returns (36.2) and No. 6 in punt returns (15.9).
- Scott is one of five players in the country with two punt return TDs this season - he did it in the same game (Sept. 12 vs. Wagner).

100-YARD RUSHERS
- JMU has featured a 100-yard rusher in six games this season from three different running backs.
- RB George Pettaway reached the century mark on the ground in four straight games from Sept. 26-Oct. 17. It's a feat that hadn't been accomplished by a Duke since Khalid Abdullah in 2016.
- That streak included a career-high 206 yards and two TDs vs. Marshall on Oct. 3.
- RB Nick Herman was the Dukes' first 100-yard rusher this season, going 133 yards with two scores on just nine carries vs. Wagner (Sept. 12).
- Last week, RB Seth Cromwell became JMU's third different player to hit the century mark, tallying 23 carries for 135 yards and a TD.

FLOWE GOODWORKS
- S KJ Flowe's community impact was recognized in a big way this preseason.
- Flowe was named an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team nominee and the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, which honors players who lead through community service while excelling in the classroom and on the field.
- Flowe has made a profound impact on the youth of Harrisonburg and the surrounding area through his community service endeavors and other philanthropic activities.
- He is the fourth Duke to be tabbed to the list, joining Camden Wise (2023), Jacob Dobbs (2024), and Blake Kendall (2025).

BACK FOR 2026
- A total of 48 players have returned this season following JMU's historic 2025 campaign.
- In all, the Dukes feature 34 returning letterwinners, including five starters.
- On offense, OL Zach Greenberg started all 14 games for James Madison last season, while EDGE Amar Thomas and LB Gannon Weathersby and logged 14 and 11 starts at JMU in 2025, respectively.
- K Morgan Suarez and P Patrick Rea again head up the squad's special teams unit.
- Additionally, five other Dukes on the 2026 roster have made at least one start in the purple and gold prior to this season: RB George Pettaway (11), WR Dylan Williams (2), WR Michael Scott (1), LB Jaylen Studio (1), WR Braeden Wisloski (1).

PUNTING ... AND THROWING FOR A CAUSE
- This season, P Patrick Rea is supporting the Robert Connor Dawes (RCD) Foundation by donating $100 for every punt downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- The cause is close to Rea's heart, who lost his sister, Pippa, to childhood brain cancer in 2015.
- The same illness took John Paul Macri, a young JMU fan who became close to the program over the past two seasons, on Oct. 4.
- The RCD Foundation supports families affected by childhood brain cancer and funds critical research in the U.S., as well as Rea's home country of Australia.
- After 10 games, Rea has placed 15 punts inside the 20 to help his cause.
- QB Camden Coleman joined in Rea's effort midseason and pledged $100 to RCD for each TD pass he throws this season.

Evans Leads Dukes in Road Win at Southern Miss

HATTIESBURG, Miss. – James Madison scored 38 second-half points to push the Dukes to a 54-23 win over Southern Miss on Thursday night at Renasant Stadium in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

Quarterback JC Evans accounted for four touchdowns in the win, including three on the ground to help snap the Dukes' two-game losing skid. Evans finished 19-of-26 for 251 yards and a score through the air and added 47 yards and three touchdowns on the ground.

In all, JMU (8-2, 5-2 Sun Belt) tallied 498 yards of total offense in the win.

After the Dukes got a three-and-out on defense to start the game, they took an early lead on a 32-yard field goal by kicker Morgan Suarez. Another quick defensive stop helped JMU add to its lead later in the quarter. Evans called his own number for a 3-yard touchdown run, which was set up by a 34-yard catch by wide receiver Corey Scott.

JMU led, 10-0, after the first quarter.

USM (3-6, 2-3 Sun Belt) got on the board two plays into the second quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run to cut the Dukes' lead to 10-7. But on the ensuing possession, Suarez made his second field goal of the night – this one from 31 yards – to bump the lead back to six.

It stayed that way until just before the half when the Golden Eagles logged a 10-play, 82-yard drive and got into the end zone with just 37 seconds to play before halftime on a 2-yard touchdown run. It gave the hosts their first lead of the night at 14-13.

However, it didn't last long. JMU was able to quickly get into field-goal range to set up Suarez for his third try of the night – a 40-yarder – as time expired to give the Dukes a 16-14 halftime lead.

JMU added on at the start of the third quarter. Evans ran in his second score of the night from 16 yards out to make it 23-14.

The Miami native wasn't done there.

Later in the quarter, Evans scored again on the ground on a 2-yard dive. That put the Dukes up 30-14 with 5:56 to play in the frame.

Then, Evans did it through the air. He hit running back Seth Cromwell for a 16-yard touchdown with 13:41 to play in the game to extend the lead even further.

From there, running back Jackson McCarter ran for a 30-yard touchdown – the first of his career – with 11:33 to play, making it a 44-14 game. In all, the Dukes scored 31 unanswered points to take total control of the game.

The final frame also saw a Southern Miss score a 34-yard touchdown with 9:10 to go, before wide receiver Michael Scott registered a 26-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Camden Coleman to make it 51-20.

Dukes Grind Out Road Win at Georgia Southern

STATESBORO, Ga. – James Madison overcame a four-point halftime deficit to take down Georgia Southern, 27-24, on Saturday night at Allen. E. Paulson Stadium.

The Dukes (6-0, 3-0 Sun Belt) scored 17 unanswered points at one point, helping them earn their first win in Statesboro in program history. The win moves the squad to 6-0 for just the fifth time ever and first since 2023.

Georgia Southern (2-4, 1-1 Sun Belt) took the lead early by opening the game with a 5-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. JMU, meanwhile, started slow offensively, punting and turning the ball over on downs on its first two possessions.

Then, the Dukes capitalized off an interception by cornerback Ken Willis, getting on the board with a 33-yard field goal by kicker Morgan Suarez with 54 seconds to play in the first quarter.

It stayed that way until the Eagles made a field goal of their own to make it 10-3 with 3:25 to play before halftime. From there, Suarez made his second field goal of the night from 21 yards as the first half expired.

Georgia Southern led, 10-6, at the break.

The Dukes grabbed their first lead of the night with a scoring drive to open the second half. A 29-yard catch by wide receiver Michael Scott and 35-yard run by running back George Pettaway set up wide receiver Jeremiah Harrison's 2-yard touchdown grab from quarterback Camden Coleman to put the visitors up, 13-10.

JMU got the ball right back when linebacker Nakian Jackson jumped on a fumble, which led to a 57-yard touchdown pass from quarterback JC Evans to tight end Cole Keller on a key, fourth-and-1 play.

That made it 20-10 at the 7:48 mark of the third.

In need of a spark, Georgia Southern orchestrated an 11-play, 73-yard touchdown drive to draw within three of the lead at 20-17 with 12:50 to play in the game.

But JMU bumped the lead back to 10 at the 5:27 mark when tight end KD Mosley scored off a 1-yard pass from Evans. The hosts wouldn't quit, however, cutting the Dukes' lead to 27-24 with 2:27 to go.
