QUICK HITS

BATTLE OF THE BLUE RIDGE WINNERS

- Last week, James Madison opened the season with a 20-13 win over Liberty in the Battle of the Blue Ridge at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- In front of a national TV audience, the Dukes scored on their first four possessions of the game and held the Flames to 91 rushing yards on 38 attempts (2.4 avg). It marked the Flames' lowest rushing total since the 2022 season.
- RB George Pettaway (7-yard rush) and WR Corey Scott (5-yard catch) each found the end zone for JMU, while K Morgan Suarez went 2-for-2 on field goals, making kicks from 46 and 32 yards, respectively.
- JMU was outgained 321-291 in the game, ran just 49 total offensive plays and held a time of possession of 22:38. However, the Dukes' defense forced a pair of turnover on downs in the second half to help secure the win.
- Coach Billy Napier became the fifth in program history to win their JMU head-coaching debuts, joining Joe Purzycki (1985), Alex Wood (1995), Mike Houston (2016) and Bob Chesney (2024).
- The Dukes are now 44-11 all time in home openers, including 24 straight wins.

SEVEN STRAIGHT WINS IN OPENERS

- With last week's triumph over Liberty, JMU has now won seven straight season openers, dating back to 2020.
- In those seven wins, the Dukes have allowed just 50 total points - an average of 7.1 points per game.
- In fact, Liberty's 13 points were the most scored by an opponent in openers since 2020. Prior to that, JMU hadn't allowed more than 10 points during its current win streak in lid lifters.
- JMU holds an all-time record of 32-22-1 record in season openers.
- The Squad's last season-opening loss occurred in the 2019 season, a 20-13 loss at West Virginia. That team went on to win 14 games and play for an FCS National Championship.

NEW NAMES ALL OVER

- James Madison opened the season with 18 first-time starters against Liberty, featuring eight on offense and 10 on defense.
- Quarterback JC Evans made his first career start under center, finishing with 69 yards on the ground and 61 more through the air. He also threw a touchdown in the win. In front of him, four of five offensive linemen were new.
- Linebacker Nakian Jackson, who was named one of four weekly captains for the Dukes, also started for the first time at JMU, as did leading tackler safety Jayon Harvey (game-high 8 tackles).
- JMU's only starters from the Liberty game who had previously gotten the nod at the school were offensive lineman Zach Greenberg, running back George Pettaway, edge Amar Thomas and wide receiver Braeden Wisloski.

Head Coach Billy Napier

Billy Napier was hired as James Madison's 10th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2025, and enters his first season at the helm in Harrisonburg.

Napier welcomes 34 letterwinners back from 2025's Sun Belt championship and CFP team and has added 61 total newcomers, including 39 transfers, to the mix this fall.

Napier boasts a 62-35 career record as a head coach and most recently led Florida of the Southeastern Conference for the last four years, highlighted by an 8-5 record in 2024 and a win in the Gasparilla Bowl over Tulane.

That team won its last four games, including back-to-back top-25 triumphs over No. 22 LSU and No. 9 Ole Miss, followed by topping Florida State on the road and the bowl win over Tulane. Other ranked wins included 2025 over No. 9 Texas, 2023 over No. 11 Tennessee and 2022 in his Florida debut over No. 7 Utah.

Prior to Florida, Napier authored a dominant run at Louisiana, going 40-12 in four seasons from 2018-2021 with four appearances in the Sun Belt Conference Championship game as West Division Champions and two league titles in his last two seasons in 2020 and 2021.

In his first season as a college head coach in 2018, the Ragin' Cajuns went 7-7 overall but won the Sun Belt West at 5-3 with a tie for first. Louisiana improved in each of Napier's seasons, including 11-3 (7-1 SBC) in 2019, 10-1 (7-1 SBC) and a league title in 2020 and 12-1 (8-0) and a title in 2021.

The 2019 and 2020 squads won appearances over Miami (Ohio) in the LendingTree Bowl and over UTSA in the First Responder Bowl, respectively. The 2021 team went on to defeat Marshall in the New Orleans Bowl following Napier's departure for Florida. The Ragin' Cajuns were ranked as high as 15th in the AP Poll in 2020 and 16th in 2021.

Widely touted for his recruiting and player development, each of Napier's recruiting classes at Florida were ranked top 20 in the nation. Meanwhile, he had 14 NFL Draft selections in three years of drafts at Florida and another seven picks in four years at Louisiana. Most recently, seven Gators were taken in the 2025 NFL Draft. In 2024, wide receiver Ricky Pearsall was a first round pick by the 49ers, which followed a first-round selection of quarterback Anthony Richardson in 2023. He coached an additional 20 NFL Draft picks as an offensive position coach across four FBS assistant jobs. That group featured five first-round selections, consisting of four wide receivers and a running back.

Fifteen years of experience as an assistant coach helped prepare Napier for his head coaching roles, with 14 coming at the FBS level and all 15 on the offensive side.

He spent two years as a GA at Clemson before then returning to Tommy Bowden's staff in roles as tight ends and recruiting coordinator coach, then quarterbacks and offensive coordinator when Dabo Swinney took the helm.

In 2011, Napier joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama as an offensive analyst, then followed Jim McElwain from Alabama to Colorado State to serve a season as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach.

He returned to Alabama as wide receiver coach for four seasons (2013-2016) and then spent one year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona State in 2017 prior to earning the Louisiana job.

Napier was a four-year contributor at Furman (FCS/then I-AA) and was a two-time All-Conference quarterback in the Southern Conference.

He led the Paladins to two conference championships and, in 2001, led Furman to a national runner-up finish in I-AA.

He set a Furman career record by completing 64.8% of his passes. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier compiled a Furman-record 2,475 passing yards and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award as the nation's most outstanding offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn, and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy and Charlie. He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

IN THE POLLS

- JMU received votes in Week 1's edition of the AP Poll, earning four points.
- The squad earned votes in both the AP and US LBM Coaches Polls this preseason.
- JMU earned six points in the coaches poll, marking the third time in the last four seasons the Dukes earned preseason recognition as a team. It registered three points by AP voters.
- The Dukes were the only Sun Belt team to earn votes in the AP Poll and they were one of 10 from non-autonomous FBS conferences to gain votes by the coaches in the preseason.
- JMU finished last season ranked No. 19 in the AP and No. 20 in the Coaches Poll - the first time it ever finished a season ranked in the FBS.

A HISTORIC YEAR

- JMU's inclusion in last season's College Football Playoff was historic for a variety of reasons, perhaps most notably being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever make the CFP field.
- The Dukes also were the first team from Virginia to compete for a CFP national championship.
- JMU punched its ticket to the CFP in just year four playing a Football Bowl Subdivision schedule and its second as a full-fledged FBS eligible program.
- The 2025 squad won 11 straight games at one point, capturing its first Sun Belt Championship.

2025 SUN BELT CHAMPIONS

- JMU used a pair of late touchdowns to pull away from Troy for a 31-14 victory to capture the 2025 Sun Belt Football Championship.
- It marked JMU's first conference crown at the FBS level, the 11th in program history and its first since 2021, when JMU closed its chapter in the Football Championship Subdivision.
- The win moved JMU to the 12-win mark for the first time since that 2021 season.
- JMU became the second straight East Division team to win the Sun Belt title and the fourth to claim the trophy in the seven overall SBC championship games.
- RB Wayne Knight was named the championship's MVP after rushing for a career-high 212 yards and setting an SBC title game record with 234 all-purpose yards.
- DL Sahir West also set title records with career bests of 5.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks to lead the defense.

JMU'S CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

- JMU has claimed 11 conference titles in its history, with nine as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association (formerly Atlantic 10).
- The Dukes' first championship came in 1975 as a Division III squad in the Virginia College Athletic Association.
- JMU won six CAA championships over its last seven FCS seasons, winning three straight between 2015-17 and 2019-21. The Dukes won their first CAA championship in 1999 and later added titles in its 2004 national championship season and in 2008.
- JMU's first Sun Belt title also was its first won in a championship game format, as all previous titles were awarded based solely on regular-season finishes ahead of the FCS Playoffs.

DEFENDING THE CROWN

- The Dukes were voted to finish atop the East Division in the 2026 Sun Belt Preseason Coaches Poll, which was released on July 13.
- JMU received 11 of 14 first-place votes and 94 total points in the poll.
- Following JMU in the East were Old Dominion (73 points, 1 first-place vote), Marshall (67), Georgia Southern (53, 1 first-place vote), Coastal Carolina (45, 1 first-place vote), App State (43) and Georgia State (17).

- In the West Division, Troy, which claimed 12 first-place votes and 96 points, garnered the top spot.

SUN BELT SUCCESS

- James Madison has earned instant success inside the Sun Belt Conference since joining the league in 2022.
- Overall, JMU is 25-7 in conference games in that span, including 13-3 at home and 12-4 on the road. It also defeated Troy in its first-ever Sun Belt Championship Game last season at Bridgeforth Stadium.
- The Dukes were one of just three teams to go unbeaten in conference play in 2025, as the Big Ten's Indiana and Ohio State also finished 9-0.
- In fact, JMU was the only G6 program not to lose a game to another G6, going 11-0.
- Against all G6 opponents since joining the Sun Belt in 2022, JMU has gone 34-8 (.810).

- Against the East, JMU is 18-6, which includes a 4-0 mark against Coastal, Old Dominion and Georgia State.
- JMU holds a 7-1 record against Sun Belt West Division squads in league play, as ULM is the only team to best JMU, earning a 21-19 win in 2024.
- Last year, JMU became one of three teams to finish a Sun Belt season at 8-0 in the championship-game era.
- It was the first time since 2021 that a team finished 8-0 in SBC play, as coach Billy Napier's Louisiana went undefeated that season, while Coastal Carolina achieved the feat in 2020.

STACKING WINS

- Since joining the FBS ranks in 2022, JMU has won 41 of 52 games (.788).
- That ranks No. 11 for the most wins in college football during that time and second amongst G6 programs, trailing just Tulane (43).
- It's also the most wins by any SBC team, as Troy has 36 since the start of the 2022 season, while Marshall has 30.
- On the road, JMU is 17-6, which is tied for the third-most road wins in the country and sixth in road win percentage (.739).

SUCCESS SPREADS

- JMU has recorded 12 straight winning seasons, dating back to 2014.
- The squad also has produced at least a .500 record or better in 23 straight seasons.
- What's more, the Dukes have been led by five different head coaches in that span of success.
- James Madison last was under .500 in 2002 (5-7), one of two seasons this millennium with more losses than victories.
- The Dukes have turned in eight 10-win seasons since its first national championship campaign in 2004.
- Dating back to year one of the program in 1972, JMU has a winning record in 36 of 54 seasons.

JMU'S SUCCESS AT HOME

- Since 2016, visitors have not seen much success against the Dukes inside Bridgeforth Stadium.
- Over the last decade, JMU has turned in a 66-5 record (.930) at home, which has included five unbeaten regular seasons in Harrisonburg.
- That also includes winning all 32 non-conference home games, 11 of which occurred in the FCS playoffs between 2016-21.
- Since joining the FBS, JMU is 23-3 (.885) at home.

JMU IN LEAGUE OPENERS

- JMU is 24-9 in league openers following last season's win against Georgia Southern.
- That came after a setback in the conference opener in 2024 at ULM, which snapped a nine-game conference-opening win streak that spanned from 2015-23 between the Colonial Athletic Association and the Sun Belt Conference.
- Before 2025, JMU opened conference play on the road in five of six seasons (2021). The Dukes also open Sun Belt play on the road this season at Old Dominion.
- Since joining the Sun Belt, JMU is 3-1 in league openers.
- JMU conference openers by league: 3-1 in Sun Belt (1-0 home, 2-1 road); 21-8 in CAA (11-3 home, 10-5 road).

FIRST GAME, FIRST WIN

- JMU coach Billy Napier's debut with the Dukes was a successful one, as James Madison earned a 20-13 win over Liberty on Sept. 5.
- With the win, Napier improved to 5-4 in his career in season openers.
- He also became the fifth JMU coach to win their first game with the Dukes, joining Joe Purzycki (1985), Alex Wood (1995), Mike Houston (2016) and Bob Chesney (2024).
- In all, the 10 head coaches at JMU have combined to go 5-5 in their first game at the helm.

STRONG AFTER OPEN WEEKS

- Since the 2014 season, JMU has turned in solid results coming off an open week, posting a 12-1 record after not having played the week prior.
- Over its last four games coming off a bye, JMU has won each by at least three scores.
- In addition to the 31-13 victory at Liberty last season, JMU handled North Carolina (70-50) and Georgia State (38-7) in 2024, and Georgia Southern (41-13) in 2023.
- In JMU's first FBS season, an early open weekend gave way to its thrilling 32-28 comeback win at App State in 2022, which was JMU's first Sun Belt game ever.
- While a member of the FCS and Colonial Athletic Association, JMU was a perfect 7-0 following a bye week between 2014 and 2021 (excluding the 2020 spring COVID season).
- That stretch included an 84-7 Homecoming win against Rhode Island in 2016, which to date is JMU's largest scoring game and largest margin of victory in the history of the program.

BEST RECORD IN A TRANSITION

- JMU completed its reclassification from FCS to FBS with the best record in history.
- Over two seasons, JMU put together a 19-5 overall record while playing full FBS schedules.
- That also included finishing atop the Sun Belt Conference East Division in each of those seasons, going a combined 13-3 in conference bouts.
- In 2023, JMU went 11-1 during the regular season and 7-1 in Sun Belt play, finishing with an 11-2 mark after facing Air Force in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.
- It was JMU's first Bowl Season berth, and despite going through reclassification and due to a lack of bowl-eligible teams, both JMU and Jacksonville State, both in year two of FCS to FBS, earned bids.
- The Dukes won 10 games over FBS opponents in 2023, which is a record for any year-two transitioning team.
- In 2022, JMU started 5-0 and became the inaugural first-year transition team to earn an AP Top 25 ranking.
- The Dukes were ranked in the AP Top 25 for seven straight polls entering the 2023 postseason and in the US LBM Coaches Poll for six of seven.

JMU Opens Season with Battle of the Blue Ridge Victory

HARRISONBURG, Va. – James Madison scored points on each of its first four drives to earn a 20-13 win over Liberty in the Battle of the Blue Ridge on Saturday at Bridgeforth Stadium.

The Dukes (1-0) never trailed, helping Billy Napier secure his first victory as the head coach at JMU. Running back George Pettaway led the way with 15 carries for 47 yards and a touchdown, while defensive back Jayon Harvey registered a game-high eight tackles on defense.

James Madison opened the year on a 12-play, 80-yard drive, capped by a seven-yard Pettaway touchdown run to make it 7-0.

After Liberty (0-1) got on the board with a second-quarter field goal, JMU responded with one of its own. Kicker Morgan Suarez drilled a 46-yard field to make it 10-3, before wide receiver Corey Scott caught a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback JC Evans to extend the lead to 17-3 with 1:53 to play before halftime.

Evans finished 7-of-9 through the air for 61 yards and the score, while also tallying 69 rushing yards in his first career start.

The Flames made it 17-6 at the break with another field goal on the final play of the first half.

Suarez added his second made field goal of the day – a 32-yarder – to open the third quarter. It marked his fourth career game at JMU with multiple field goals.

Liberty got within seven (20-13) at the 8:33 mark in the fourth quarter, thanks to a 34-yard touchdown pass from Deshawn Purdie to Makai Jackson. The Flames threatened again late but the Dukes' defense held, forcing a turnover on downs at midfield with 2:16 to play.

From there, JMU was able to run out the clock to preserve the season-opening victory.

With the win, the Dukes improved to 14-6 all time against Liberty, including 7-4 in Harrisonburg. It also marked JMU's 22nd straight and 102nd overall win over an opponent from Virginia.

JMU also extended its streak of home-opening wins to 24, dating back to 2003.

James Madison finished with just 49 total offensive plays and held a time of possession of just 22:38.

The announced attendance was 25,035, good for the seventh consecutive regular-season sellout at Bridgeforth Stadium. The Dukes have now sold out 17 of their last 19 regular-season home games.

Up next, JMU will remain at home and play host to Wagner on Saturday, Sept. 12, at Bridgeforth Stadium. Kickoff is set for 3:30 p.m. ET.
