Looking to get back in the post-season tournament picture, Keene State (13-5, 6-1) extended its winning streak to five games. Southern Maine goes to 5-12 overall and 1-6 in the LEC.

The Owls dominated play from the start not allowing Southern Maine a shot on goal the entire game.

Ahern, who added an assist in the game now has a team and conference leading 17 goals and 43 points. DaRosa, who also had two assists, and Belanger now have nine and three goals respectively this season.

"It wasn't a great game to prepare us for Salem State on Tuesday, but we did some things that could help us," said KSC coach Butcher. "Every one knows Tuesday is a make it or break it game for us."

Tuesday's key regional battle with the Vikings is scheduled for 6p.m. at Owl Stadium Complex.
