DARTMOUTH, MASS. 10/10/98 — Keene State College erupted for four goals in the second half to post a come-from-behind 4-1 Little East Conference men's soccer victory over UMass-Dartmouth in a game played in a driving rain storm in Dartmouth on Saturday.

Keene State improves to 8-4 and 2-1 in the LEC. UMass-Dartmouth goes to 3-8-1 and 2-1 in the Conference.

In a physically played game, KSC played the final 60 minutes of the game two-men up when two Corsair players were given red card ejections.

Keene State capitalized on the opportunity in the second half. Chris Ahern tied the game 1-1 with his 10th goal of the season and Chris Brunette (Manchester, NH) got the eventual game-winner when he finished off a cross from Derek Bell on a corner ball.

Lakota Denton (Bernardston, Mass.) got his fourth of the season and Greg Lam (Barre, Mass. finished off the scoring with late second half goals.

Charlie Bailey (Charlestown, NH) made six saves for KSC in goal.

KSC will host Montclair State Tuesday at 5p.m.
