WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1990

The 1990 Kent State softball team wrote a “Cinderella story” by advancing to the Women’s College World Series.

Kent State entered the 1990 campaign as a team coming off a respectable 23-14 1989 season in which it finished fourth in Mid-American Conference. Led by fifth-year head coach Sue Lilley, the squad was youth-laden with just two seniors and 10 players of only sophomore or freshman status. The fact of the matter was, nobody really expected this group to be among the eight to clinch a trip to the NCAA Women’s College World Series in Oklahoma City at the end of May. Little did the softball world know what was about to hit them.

The Flashes certainly got the 90s off on the right foot, opening the season with nine victories in 10 games and six days at the Houston Games at Sam Houston State. Kent State began conference action by losing its first two MAC meetings at Western Michigan, then proceeded to rattle off 19 straight conference victories and finish the regular season with a 40-7 overall record (20-4 MAC).

Guiding all those different personalities was Lilley, who could dish out the tough love when needed but was quick to counter with a pat-on-the-back or a high-five when deserved.

With Lilley’s coaching and the combination of talents peaking at the perfect time, KSU captured its first MAC softball crown and punched its ticket to its first NCAA postseason appearance. Despite being ranked 17th in the country going into the NCAA Mideast Regional in Columbus, Ohio, the Flashes certainly did not receive the notoriety that Ohio State and Oregon did.

The Golden Flashes responded to the doubters in emphatic fashion, posting back-to-back shutouts of the Buckeyes and Ducks and then sealing the regional championship with a 5-3 victory over OSU on its home turf.

The regional title set Kent State up with a date against two-time defending national champion UCLA in the opening game of the College World Series. Kent State’s stay in Oklahoma City was short, as the Flashes fell to UCLA and UNLV in the double-elimination tournament.

The 1990 Kent State softball team represents the standard of excellence for the program to this day. The players remain close and are able to constantly update each other on the goings-on in their lives through Facebook. Their successes in life have not been limited to the collegiate softball diamond, either.

KENT STATE, PLEASE...

Kent State University respectfully requests that the institution and its intercollegiate athletics teams be referred to as "Kent State" or "KSU" in shortened reference, as opposed to "Kent." Thank you.

MAC TOURNAMENT REWIND

- Kent State became just the third team in conference history to come out of the loser's bracket and win three games on the final day to capture the Mid-American Conference Tournament championship
- The fourth-seeded Golden Flashes defeated Ball State and Western Michigan in their first two games of the tournament before falling to Ohio on Friday evening.
- Saturday's historic day began with a 9-3 victory over Northern Illinois before defeating Ohio, 1-0, on an eighth-inning double by Holly Speers.
- The Flashes struck for three runs in the first inning of the final game and senior Ronnie Ladines tossed a three-hit shutout to cap a historic day.
- Kent State outscored its opponents 26-9 for the week and batted .280.
- The Flashes hit 11 doubles and seven home runs to a .491 slugging percentage.
- Ladines earned MVP honors as Kent State's leader in the circle and at the plate. In the circle, the Flashes' ace went 4-1 with a save. She fanned 34 batters compared to just six walks and owned a 1.06 ERA over 33 innings. At the plate, Ladines led the way with a .529 batting average, four home runs and seven RBIs.
- Freshman Madi Huck was Kent State's unsung hero, as she made her MAC Tournament debut by tossing seven scoreless innings in Saturday's first matchup against Ohio to give the Flashes an opportunity to win the game in the eighth.
- Senior Maddy Grimm was spectacular on the field that she will call home with the Akron Racers this summer, batting .500 (9-for-18) with three doubles and one home run to earn All-Tournament Team honors.
- Speers was named to the All-Tournament Team after hitting a team-high four doubles. She batted .316 (6-for-19) with one home run and four RBIs.
- Junior Emily Dobbin drove in four RBIs and made a spectacular leaping catch at the wall in left field to rob Ohio's Morgan Geno of a home run in the final game of the tournament.

OAKLEY EARNS 100TH CAREER VICTORY

- Second-year head coach Eric Oakley recorded his 100th career victory in Kent State's 6-3 win at Eastern Michigan on March 25. Oakley earned his 50th victory at Kent State one week later at Central Michigan (April 2).
- It was a fitting setting for the milestone victory, as Oakley's first 19 victories came as interim head coach of the Eagles during the 2010 season.
- He took over a North Dakota program in its final year of transitioning to NCAA Division I status and led UND to 34 wins from 2012-14.
- Oakley made his return to the Mid-American Conference in July 2014 when he was hired to work with Kent State's pitchers and catchers.
- Under his tutelage, the Golden Flashes had the nation's third-lowest ERA (1.55) during the 2015 season and finished the season with a 41-17 record.
- Oakley was named interim head coach in August 2015. Faced with the challenge of hiring a coaching staff in September and replacing two-time MAC Pitcher and NPF Draft selection Emma Johnson, expectations were low and Kent State was voted third in the MAC East Division by the conference's 12 head coaches prior to the season.
- Despite the distractions, Oakley led KSU to seven straight wins to open the season and the best 12-game start in program history (11-1). Only the 1977 team that finished with a 21-3 record had a better start to the season than the 2016 squad.
- Oakley was named 2016 MAC Coach of the Year after leading the Flashes to their second straight MAC regular season title and a 37-22 mark.
- He was named the sixth head coach in Kent State softball history in June 2016.
- The Flashes won 78 games during Oakley's first two seasons on staff, which is the winningest two-year span in program history.

SENIOR CLASS LEAVING A LEGACY

- In addition to earning a spot in the NCAA Tournament with three wins on the Saturday the 2017 senior class tied Kent State's record for wins, joining the 2008, 2009 and 2010 classes with 135 wins.
- The seniors have set the standard for future Kent State softball teams with MAC regular season championships in 2015 and 2016, and now a MAC Tournament crown.

KSU NAMED MAC EAST FAVORITE

- Kent State was picked to win the East Division in the Mid-American Conference Softball Preseason Poll (released Jan. 30), as was voted on by the league's 12 head coaches.
- The Golden Flashes received five first-place votes in addition to three votes to win the conference tournament and earn the conference's automatic bid to NCAA Regionals.
- Kent State seeks to become just the second MAC program to win three consecutive regular season titles. The Flashes are the East Division favorite for the first time since 2014 after being picked to finish third a year ago and second in 2015.
- Ohio was picked to finish second in the East Division and had six first-place votes. The Bobcats were chosen as the 2017 MAC Softball Championship favorite with four votes.
- Northern Illinois received eight first-place votes and was selected to successfully defend its MAC West crown. The Huskies were the only other team to receive more than one vote to win the conference tournament.

KENT STATE BOLSTERS NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

- Head coach Eric Oakley put together a rigorous non-conference schedule this season in order to improve the team's RPI and have opportunity to show that the Golden Flashes can play with nation's top programs.
- As of May 7, Kent State's had played the 53rd-toughest schedule in the country, and the Flashes' non-conference schedule ranked as the 23rd-toughest.
- In addition to participating in the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic in Cathedral City, Calif., Kent State also traveled to a tournament at Kentucky, followed by a series at Michigan the following weekend.
- Kent State has played nine opponents in the Top 35 of the RPI (as of May 14) this season with a 0-9 record in those contests.
- The Flashes also had a game canceled against No. 33 Arkansas at the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic and a second game against No. 16 Kentucky canceled at the Wildcats' home tournament.
 - Feb. 17 vs. No. 2 Oregon - L, 3-4
 - Feb. 18 vs. No. 24 California - L, 7-8 (6 innings)
 - March 11 at No. 16 Kentucky - L, 0-2
 - March 12 vs. No. 21 Michigan - L, 1-5
 - March 18 vs. No. 21 Michigan - L, 0-2
 - March 19 vs. No. 21 Michigan - L, 3-11 (6 innings)
 - March 19 vs. No. 21 Michigan - L, 0-3
 - March 28 at No. 15 Alabama - L, 3-5
 - May 3 at No. 35 Ohio State - L, 0-3

45-45-45 CLUB

- Senior Maddy Grimm will go down as one of the greatest hitters to ever play in the Mid-American Conference, and is among the top hitters in Division I softball this season.
- Grimm has set a new Mid-American Conference record for walks in a season (49), broke her own Kent State record for RBIs in a season (55) and is one run scored (50) from tying her own school record.
- Entering NCAA Regional competition, Grimm is one of only seven Division I players with at least 45 runs scored, 45 RBIs and 45 walks on the season.
- With one more walk, Grimm will join an even more exclusive group of players with 50 runs scored, 50 RBIs and 50 walks.
- Minnesota's Kendyl Lindaman and Florida International's Stephanie Teixeira are currently the only players to accomplish all three.
