LAST TIME OUT

Jaylin Walker nearly matched the 30 points he dropped on Akron in last year's Mid-American Conference Championship game and Jalen Avery took over at the end of Saturday's rivalry renewal as the Golden Flashes held off the arch-rival Zips for a 78-68 victory at the M.A.C. Center. Akron pulled ahead late with a 17-4 run and had Kent State mired in a field-goal drought of more than eight minutes before a Walker three-pointer from the right wing with 5:38 to play. Still trailing at the 4:47 mark, Avery drilled a three from the same spot on the floor, igniting a stretch that saw the point guard score all of his 16 points in the game's closing minutes. Walker finished with 27 points, going 7-for-12 from three-point range while teaming with Avery to close out the win from the foul line as time ticked away. As a team, KSU made 22 of its 24 foul shots. B.J. Duling added 13 points, including two on a soaring alley-oop dunk to cap a fast break with 17:35 to play. The highlight-reel play was part of a fast start to the second half that saw the Flashes make their first five shots from the field. Kent State trailed by as many as 11 points in the first half only to battle back to take a 32-31 lead into halftime. The Flashes won the battle of the boards 35-30 behind a team-best eight from Danny Pippen. Desmond Ridenour's three steals and Duling's two helped Kent State outscore Akron 20-13 off of turnovers. Akron (11-15, 4-10) was led by Malcolm Duvivier's 27 points and Daniel Utomi's 20. The win ended a four-game losing streak for the Flashes (13-14, 7-7), who go on the road to play Ohio University on Tuesday.

KENT STATE 70, OHIO 69 - JANUARY 12, 2018

Senior guard Kevin Zabo scored a career-high 24 points and missed a key free throw in the closing seconds to help Kent State clinch a 70-69 win over Ohio University on Saturday night at the M.A.C. Center. Yes. You read that right. Zabo intentionally missed the second of two free throws with 3.1 seconds to play and Kent State clinging to a 70-69 lead. Jalen Avery then rebounded the miss off of the front of the rim as the final seconds ticked away. Senderoff assumed Ohio was likely to get the rebound, but with no timeouts remaining the Bobcats would have a difficult time getting a good look at a game-winner with three seconds remaining and their basket the better part of 94 feet away. After the miss, Jaylin Walker blocked out the Bobcat next to him and Avery grabbed the ball as Kent State (8-9, 2-2) secured its second Mid-American Conference win. Kent State center Adonis De La Rosa put the Flashes back on top for good with a jump hook at the 20 second mark. The Kent State center finished with 8 points and 3 rebounds. Walker chipped in 15 points for the Golden Flashes. Zabo added 6 rebounds to his career night.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Ohio leads the all-time series over Kent State 94-51. Kent State won the prior match-up this season, 70-69, at home on January 12th. The Flashes are just 12-54 when playing on the road in Athens and last won in the Convocation Center in 2015, 64-51. Ohio has the longest winning streak in the series at 17 in a row from 1959-69 and won 29 of 30 from 1952-69. Last season KSU defeated Ohio, 68-66 in the semifinals of the MAC Tournament in Cleveland.

WALKER CLIMBS THE RECORD BOOK

Junior guard Jaylin Walker crossed the 1,000 point milestone at Central Michigan (Jan.27) with a three-pointer roughly four minutes into the second half. He became the 32nd player in Kent State history to do so and the fifth player to cross 1,000 under head coach Rob Senderoff. He currently has 1,130 career points which is 20th in program history. John Whorton (1996-00) is next on the list for Walker to surpass with 1,173 career points.

If Walker can stay on the floor consistently, he is on pace to approach 1,300 career points, putting him just outside the Kent State all-time top-10. He will likely pass Kris Brewer, another top scorer under Rob Senderoff. The all-time points record at Kent State is 1,820 by Trevor Huffman.

The Flashes recorded a season-high 13 3-pointers made in the team's win over Western Michigan (Jan.16), connecting on 57 percent of its 23 3-point shot attempts. The Golden Flashes hit the double-digit mark in 3-pointers made for the fifth time this season against Akron, and are 5-0 when eclipsing the 10 three-pointer mark . The Flashes have had at least four games with 10 or more 3-pointers in every season since the 2012-13 campaign.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Junior center Adonis De La Rosa has taken on a much bigger role this season averaging 12.1 ppg, which is third on the team, after averging just 3.7 last year. He scored a career-high 24 points in the Flashes' 85-69 win over Central Michigan shooting 9-for-13 from the floor on January 6th. He is second in the MAC with a 58% field goal percentage. The Bronx, New York native registered a career-high five assists in the Flashes home win over Buffalo (Jan. 30). De La Rosa scored 20 points in back-to-back games for the first time in his career against Buffalo and Bowling Green.

De La Rosa is also the team's leading rebounder, ripping down 7.7 rpg, which is fifth in the MAC. After tireless hours in the gym this summer, he has increased his free throw pertenage from 56% (43-77) last year to 79% (98-124) this season. His 79% mark is the highest free throw percentage in the country for any player seven feet or taller.

VERY HIGHLY RANKED IN THE NATION

Junior point guard Jalen Avery is second in the country in assist to turnover ratio at 4.86. The Covington, Ky. native has committed the second fewest turnovers (20) of all players in the country that qualify (min. 3 assists per game). He was ranked first at 6.15 two weeks ago, but had five turnovers and three assists against Eastern Michigan (Feb.6).

PIPPEN PRODUCING

Kent State sophomore forward Danny Pippen exploded for a career-high 21 points in Kent State's home victory over Buffalo (Jan. 30). He scored the go-ahead basket and blocked a shot on the next play for a key defensive stop. He ripped down 13 rebounds as well. Pippen scored 11 points with a career-high 16 rebounds in an overtime win against Ball State (Jan. 23).

Pippen has made an impact defensively for Kent State, serving as one of the league's best shot blockers. Pippen has 33 blocks so far, averaging 1.3 per game which is sixth in the MAC. The single-season blocks record is 81, held by John Edwards. The most blocks in a season during the Rob Senderoff era is 56, a mark that ranks third overall and is held by former MAC Defensive Player of the Year Khaliq Spicer.

ZABO EMERGING AS DYNAMIC SCORER

Senior Kevin Zabo went through a stretch of games scoring 20 or more points in five straight games. His 24 points in the win over Ohio (Jan. 12) are the most in his career, and he also grabbed a career-best six boards. He is second on the team, averaging 12.3 points per game. After scoring less than 15 points in the previous five games, Zabo bounced back with 17 points against Buffalo.

NONCON WRAPUP

The Golden Flashes finished the non-conference portion of the season at 6-7, taking crucial steps toward a run through the Mid-American Conference. The defending league champions took some lumps against top competition, falling on the road to the likes of Xavier, Albany and Loyola-Chicago. However, several highlights were had, including the program's fourth Power 5 victory under head coach Rob Senderoff, taking down Oregon State at home, 79-78. Kent State also maintained its claim as the best basketball program in Northeast Ohio, taking down Youngstown State, 111-78, and Cleveland State, 72-62. Individually, multiple student-athletes have broken out into bigger roles. Adonis De La Rosa has emerged as a top low post threat, with nine double digit scoring efforts. Jalen Avery has also established himself as one of the nation's most efficient point guards, leading the country in assist to turnover ratio. Jaylin Walker has led the scoring efforts as expected, averaging a team-best 17.6 points per game.

MISTAKE-FREE AVERY

Jalen Avery has had an incredible start to his junior season and is making a name for himself as one of the most efficient point guards in the Mid-American Conference. Through 26 games, Avery has committed just 20 turnovers, while racking up 100 assists. His best game distributing came against Mississippi Valley State, in which he recorded a career-high 10 assists to no turnovers. It was the first double-digit assist game for Kent State since Derek Jackson recorded 11 on December 6, 2014 against Kennesaw State (W, 58-46). Avery has also only had 17 fouls called against him. Last season, Avery ranked second in the nation among qualified players in fouls called against per 40 minutes at 1.11. This rate was only topped by Saint Mary's starting point guard Emmett Naar at 0.93. The top four players ranked in this statistic made the NCAA Tournament.

COACH SENDEROFF

Rob Senderoff made his first trip to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach in his sixth season with the program. With this record-breaking season in the books, Senderoff now ranks third all-time at Kent State in total wins at 135. He ranks 4 wins behind Jim Christian and 14 behind Jim McDonald. His winning percentage of .593 is the third best among coaches with at least five years at Kent State, ranking behind Christian (.704) and Gary Waters (.605).

GOLDEN FLASHES PICKED SECOND IN MAC EAST

Kent State was tabbed to finish second in the MAC East Division as selected by the league's 12 head coaches and an 18-member MAC News Media Panel. Junior guard Jaylin Walker was voted to the MAC East Preseason All-MAC Team

ROB SENDEROFF

>> HEAD COACH

- Seventh Season
- Albany, '95

Rob Senderoff enters his seventh year as the head men's basketball coach at Kent State. The 44-year-old took over the program in April 2011 after spending seven previous years on the Golden Flashes' coaching staff. He ended the 2016-17 season with a 122-81 record as head coach, including a trip to the 2017 NCAA Tournament.

In his six seasons as head coach, the 22-year coaching veteran has continued the success of the storied program that he helped build by leading the Golden Flashes to four 20-win campaigns and postseason appearances.

The six year run culminated in a fantastic 2016-17 season in which the Flashes returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2008. Kent State claimed the program's first Mid-American Conference Tournament Championship under Rob Senderoff, defeating the top three seeds in the tournament in succession. The Flashes scored the most points in program history at 2,722, beating the previous record by 40 points. Senderoff led his squad to the postseason despite almost a dozen newcomers to the program.

In the 2015-16 season, Senderoff led the Golden Flashes to 19 wins in a campaign that was highlighted by All-District honors for junior Jimmy Hall and MAC Defensive Player of the Year honors for Khaliq Spicer. 2014-15 was Senderoff's most successful as head coach, as he led Kent State to a share of the Mid-American Conference regular season title. The championship season was followed by a postseason run to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) quarterfinals during which Senderoff tied the school record for postseason wins. The Flashes were earned road wins at Middle Tennessee and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi before falling to Northern Arizona.

The inaugural year for Senderoff began with one of the most memorable debuts in the coaching profession. Kent State recorded a monumental 70-60 win over West Virginia and Hall of Fame Head Coach Bob Huggins, snapping the Mountaineers' 36-game non-conference home winning streak. The victory, which was part of ESPN's 24-hour College Basketball Tip-Off Marathon, also marked the first true road win over a BCS school for Kent State in 41 years.

The historic first win was just the beginning, as the Flashes won 21 games, advanced to the semifinals of the MAC Tournament and earned an invitation to play in the CIT in each of his first two seasons. Senderoff earned the first postseason victory of his head coaching career in 2013, as the Golden Flashes defeated Fairfield in a CIT first round matchup.

During his 13 seasons as part of the Kent State program, Senderoff has helped guide the Golden Flashes to 11 postseason appearances (2002-06; 2008-13; 2015; 2017), racking up 250 victories for an average of nearly 22 wins per year in the process. He has been on the sideline for four of the six Mid-American Conference regular season titles in school history. In 2011, Kent State became the first MAC team in 21 years, and just the second in 48 years, to claim second consecutive outright regular season championships. The Golden Flashes capped off the year by advancing to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) quarterfinals.

Senderoff assumed the de facto role of offensive coordinator during his three seasons as Associate Head Coach (2008-11), taking Kent State's scoring to new heights under his watch. In 2010-11 the Golden Flashes poured in 2,626 points, which trailed only the 2001-02 Elite Eight team for the highest single-season total in school history. In his first year back with the program in 2008-09, Senderoff helped orchestrate an offense that led the MAC in both scoring and field goal percentage. It was the first time since joining the league in 1951-52 that the program has led the conference in scoring.

Long known for his ability to develop post players, Senderoff transformed the play of 2011 MAC Player of the Year Justin Greene. Under his tutelage, Greene went from a 2.2 points per game scorer as a freshman to the nation's most improved player in 2009-10, followed by an Honorable Mention All-American selection in 2010-11. Greene capped off his career in 2012 and will go down as one of the top players to ever put on a Kent State uniform, ranking fourth in career scoring, second in rebounding and second in blocked shots.

SENDEROFF'S COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Led Kent State to the postseason four times as head coach, including a NCAA Tournament berth and three CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) appearances.
- In his first game as a head coach, led Kent State to a 70-60 win over West Virginia and Head Coach Bob Huggins in Morgantown.
- Has graduated every student-athlete that has made it through senior day during his time as a head coach.

A proven national recruiter, his track record as a talented young assistant did not go unnoticed. Current ESPN.com Insider Jeff Goodman analyst recognized him as the top assistant coach in the MAC in 2010, the same year that The Hoop Scoop rated him as one of the top 50 Mid-Major Assistants in the country. Coming in at No. 4 on the list, he was the only MAC assistant coach ranked in the top 25.

During Senderoff's first stint on staff from 2002-06, the Golden Flashes went 89-40 (.690) and won three MAC East Division titles. After three straight NIT appearances, he helped KSU advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06 as the team won both the MAC regular season and tournament titles with a 25-9 overall record. Senderoff spent the 2006-07 season at Indiana where he worked with All-Big Ten and preseason All-American D.J. White. While a member of the Hoosier's staff, IU went 21-11 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He was also part of a staff that recruited The Hoop Scoop's No. 1 recruiting class in the country in 2007.

With the Golden Flashes he had a critical role in the progression of 2004 First Team and MAC Defensive Player of the Year, John Edwards, who played in the NBA with the Atlanta Hawks and Indiana Pacers. Additionally at Kent State, Senderoff also coached All-MAC performer Antonio Gates who went on to become an All-Pro tight end for the San Diego Chargers.

A native of Spring Valley, N.Y., Senderoff began his coaching career as a student assistant at the University at Albany under legendary coach Richard "Doc" Sauers before moving on to the MAC as a graduate assistant at Miami from 1995-97 where he was part of a staff that helped develop NBA players Wally Szczerbiak and Ira Newble. Returning to the East Coast, he spent time at Fordham (1997-99), Yale (1999-2001) and Towson (2001-02) prior to joining the Golden Flashes staff.
