Flash Facts

- The Kent State men's basketball team squares off against Miami on Tuesday, Feb. 27 at 7 p.m. at the M.A.C. Center in the Flashes' last regular season home game of the year.
- Kent State is 51-91 all-time against the RedHawks and is 31-36 at home.
- Head coach Rob Senderoff is 8-6 against Miami since taking over the program in 2011-12.
- This is the second meeting against the RedHawks this season, with Miami winning in Oxford, 80-69, in just the third conference game of the season. Kent State was down 23 points at half-time and came back to make it an 11-point game, outscoring Miami, 44-32 in the second half.
- Kent State won its last game, 64-63 at home against Bowling Green on Saturday night. The Golden Flashes improved to 11-3 at home and will at least host a MAC Tournament first round game.
- Kent State still has an outside shot at a first round bye to Cleveland, if the Flashes win both of their remaining games and Eastern Michigan drops its last two.
- Kent State's defense was sensational against Bowling Green, holding the Falcons to 33.8% (23-of-68) from the field. It was the lowest opposition shooting percentage allowed this season against a Division I opponent (Ohio Christian 31.5%). ## LAST TIME OUT

Junior Jalen Avery made all four of his free throw attempts in the game's final 17 seconds to give Kent State a 64-63 victory over Bowling Green Saturday evening at the M.A.C. Center. Avery's final trip to the line came with 3.9 seconds left and his team down by a point (63-62). The Falcons' Antwan Lillard fired a deep three-point attempt that rimmed out as time expired to seal the Golden Flashes' one-point win. The missed Bowling Green shot was indicative of the entire second half as Kent State's defense held the Falcons to just 21 percent from the field (8-for-38) in the final 20 minutes. Sophomore Danny Pippen played a major in the Flashes' defensive effort with a career-high seven blocked shots. Pippen also had 11 points and eight rebounds.

MIAMI 80, KENT STATE 69 - JANUARY 9, 2018

Kent State's big second half wasn't enough to overcome a slow start in an 80-69 loss to Miami University at Millett Hall on Tuesday night. A big 44-point second half couldn't dig the Golden Flashes out of the hole they dug for themselves in a first half that saw Miami take a 48-25 lead into the break. Adonis De La Rosa led Kent State (4-10, 8-10) with 16 points and seven rebounds in 28 minutes. Jalen Avery added 12 points and two assists in another turnover-free game at point guard. Led by Kevin Zabo, who recovered from a rough-shooting first half to finish with 11 points, the Golden Flashes closed the game by hitting nine of their last 11 shots from the field. The RedHawks were led by freshman Nike Sibande's 17 points. Darrian Ringo added 16 for Miami.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Bowling Green leads the all-time series over Kent State, 91-51. Miami won the prior matchup this season, 80-69, on the road (Jan. 9). The Flashes are 31-36 when playing at home at the M.A.C. Center, and have won the past three at home. The RedHawks hold the longest winning streak in the series (18) from 1963-71.

BLOCK PARTY

The Golden Flashes recorded the most blocks in a game in program history with 11 against Bowling Green on February 24. It broke the previous record of 10 last season vs. Hiram College. Danny Pippen was the leading contributor with seven blocks which tied a program-record. Khaliq Spicer rejected seven shots against Ball State in 2016.

WALKER CLIMBS THE RECORD BOOK

Junior guard Jaylin Walker crossed the 1,000 point milestone at Central Michigan (Jan.27) with a three-pointer roughly four minutes into the second half. He became the 32nd player in Kent State history to do so and the fifth player to cross 1,000 under head coach Rob Senderoff. He currently has 1,152 career points which is 20th in program history. John Whorton (1996-00) is next on the list for Walker to surpass with 1,173 career points.

If Walker can stay on the floor consistently, he is on pace to approach 1,300 career points, putting him just outside the Kent State all-time top-10. He will likely pass Kris Brewer, another top scorer under Rob Senderoff. The all-time points record at Kent State is 1,820 by Trevor Huffman.

Walker is sixth in program history in three-point field goals made (191) and third in three-point field goals attempted (570).

13 3-POINTERS

The Flashes recorded a season-high 13 3-pointers made in the team's win over Western Michigan (Jan.16), connecting on 57 percent of its 23 3-point shot attempts. The Golden Flashes hit the double-digit mark in 3-pointers made for the fifth time this season against Akron, and are 5-0 when eclipsing the 10 three-pointer mark . Last season, Kent State had seven games of 10 or more 3-pointers, tying the program-high during the Rob Senderoff era. The Flashes have had at least four games with 10 or more 3-pointers in every season since the 2012-13 campaign.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Junior center Adonis De La Rosa has taken on a much bigger role this season averaging 11.9 ppg, which is third on the team, after averging just 3.7 last year. He scored a career-high 24 points in the Flashes' 85-69 win over Central Michigan shooting 9-for-13 from the floor on January 6th. He is fourth in the MAC with a 57% field goal percentage. The Bronx, New York native registered a career-high five assists in the Flashes home win over Buffalo (Jan. 30). De La Rosa scored 20 points in back-to-back games for the first time in his career against Buffalo and Bowling Green.

De La Rosa is also the team's leading rebounder, ripping down 7.7 rpg, which is fifth in the MAC. After tireless hours in the gym this summer, he has increased his free throw pertenage from 56% (43-77) last year to 79% (101-127) this season. His 79% mark is the highest free throw percentage in the country for any player seven feet or taller.

AVERY LEADS THE NATION

Junior point guard Jalen Avery is leads the country in assist to turnover ratio at 5.14. The Covington, Ky. native has committed the least amount turnovers (21) of all players in the country that qualify (min. 3 assists per game). He has 108 assists to 21 turnovers. Avery ranks ahead of Michigan's Muhammad-Ali Abdur Rahkman (5.00).

PIPPEN PRODUCING

Kent State sophomore forward Danny Pippin exploded for a career-high 21 points in Kent State's home victory over Buffalo (Jan. 30). He scored the go-ahead basket and blocked a shot on the next play for a key defensive stop. He ripped down 13 rebounds as well. Pippin scored 11 points with a career-high 16 rebounds in an overtime win against Ball State (Jan. 23).

Pippin has made an impact defensively for Kent State, serving as one of the league's best shot blockers. Pippin has 43 blocks so far, averaging 1.6 per game which is sixth in the MAC. The single-season blocks record is 81, held by John Edwards. The most blocks in a season during the Rob Senderoff era is 56, a mark that ranks third overall and is held by former MAC Defensive Player of the Year Khaliq Spicer. Pippin tied Spicer atop the program leaderboard with seven blocks in one game against Bowling Green (Feb. 24).

DULING DOING GOOD THINGS OFF THE BENCH

Freshman forward BJ Duling has found success in the past handful of games. He has scored in double-digits in two of the last five games. He dropped 13 points against rival Akron, the most points scored by a KSU freshman against the Zips in this century. He scored seven points on the road against Buffalo on 3-of-5 shooting with three rebounds. He has been one of Kent State's most successful scoring options off the bench of late.

NONCON WRAPUP

The Golden Flashes finished the non-conference portion of the season at 6-7, taking crucial steps toward a run through the Mid-American Conference. The defending league champions took some lumps against top competition, falling on the road to the likes of Xavier, Albany and Loyola-Chicago. However, several highlights were had, including the program's fourth Power 5 victory under head coach Rob Senderoff, taking down Oregon State at home, 79-78. Kent State also maintained its claim as the best basketball program in North-east Ohio, taking down Youngstown State, 111-78, and Cleveland State, 72-62. Individually, multiple student-athletes have broken out into bigger roles. Adonis De La Rosa has emerged as a top low post threat, with nine double digit scoring efforts. Jalen Avery has also established himself as one of the nation's most efficient point guards, leading the country in assist to turnover ratio. Jaylin Walker has led the scoring efforts as expected, averaging a team-best 17.6 points per game.

MISTAKE-FREE AVERY

Jalen Avery has had an incredible start to his junior season and is making a name for himself as one of the most efficient point guards in the Mid-American Conference. Through 29 games, Avery has committed just 21 turnovers, while racking up 108 assists. His best game distributing came against Mississippi Valley State, in which he recorded a career-high 10 assists to no turnovers. It was the first double-digit assist game for Kent State since Derek Jackson recorded 11 on December 6, 2014 against Kennesaw State (W, 58-46). Avery has also only had 17 fouls called against him. Last season, Avery ranked second in the nation among qualified players in fouls called against per 40 minutes at 1.11. This rate was only topped by Saint Mary's starting point guard Emmett Naar at 0.93. The top four players ranked in this statistic made the NCAA Tournament.

COACH SENDEROFF

Rob Senderoff made his first trip to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach in his sixth season with the program. With this record-breaking season in the books, Senderoff now ranks third all-time at Kent State in total wins at 136. He ranks 2 wins behind Jim Christian and 12 behind Jim McDonald. His winning percentage of .593 is the third best among coaches with at least five years at Kent State, ranking behind Christian (.704) and Gary Waters (.605).

ROB SENDEROFF

>> HEAD COACH

- Seventh Season
- Albany, '95

Rob Senderoff enters his seventh year as the head men's basketball coach at Kent State. The 44-year-old took over the program in April 2011 after spending seven previous years on the Golden Flashes' coaching staff. He ended the 2016-17 season with a 122-81 record as head coach, including a trip to the 2017 NCAA Tournament.

In his six seasons as head coach, the 22-year coaching veteran has continued the success of the storied program that he helped build by leading the Golden Flashes to four 20-win campaigns and postseason appearances.

The six year run culminated in a fantastic 2016-17 season in which the Flashes returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2008. Kent State claimed the program's first Mid-American Conference Tournament Championship under Rob Senderoff, defeating the top three seeds in the tournament in succession. The Flashes scored the most points in program history at 2,722, beating the previous record by 40 points. Senderoff led his squad to the postseason despite almost a dozen newcomers to the program.

In the 2015-16 season, Senderoff led the Golden Flashes to 19 wins in a campaign that was highlighted by All-District honors for junior Jimmy Hall and MAC Defensive Player of the Year honors for Khaliq Spicer. 2014-15 was Senderoff's most successful as head coach, as he led Kent State to a share of the Mid-American Conference regular season title. The championship season was followed by a postseason run to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) quarterfinals during which Senderoff tied the school record for postseason wins. The Flashes were earned road wins at Middle Tennessee and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi before falling to Northern Arizona.

The inaugural year for Senderoff began with one of the most memorable debuts in the coaching profession. Kent State recorded a monumental 70-60 win over West Virginia and Hall of Fame Head Coach Bob Huggins, snapping the Mountaineers' 36-game non-conference home winning streak. The victory, which was part of ESPN's 24-hour College Basketball Tip-Off Marathon, also marked the first true road win over a BCS school for Kent State in 41 years.

The historic first win was just the beginning, as the Flashes won 21 games, advanced to the semifinals of the MAC Tournament and earned an invitation to play in the CIT in each of his first two seasons. Senderoff earned the first postseason victory of his head coaching career in 2013, as the Golden Flashes defeated Fairfield in a CIT first round matchup.

During his 13 seasons as part of the Kent State program, Senderoff has helped guide the Golden Flashes to 11 postseason appearances (2002-06; 2008-13; 2015; 2017), racking up 250 victories for an average of nearly 22 wins per year in the process. He has been on the sideline for four of the six Mid-American Conference regular season titles in school history. In 2011, Kent State became the first MAC team in 21 years, and just the second in 48 years, to claim second consecutive outright regular season championships. The Golden Flashes capped off the year by advancing to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) quarterfinals.

Senderoff assumed the de facto role of offensive coordinator during his three seasons as Associate Head Coach (2008-11), taking Kent State's scoring to new heights under his watch. In 2010-11 the Golden Flashes poured in 2,626 points, which trailed only the 2001-02 Elite Eight team for the highest single-season total in school history. In his first year back with the program in 2008-09, Senderoff helped orchestrate an offense that led the MAC in both scoring and field goal percentage. It was the first time since joining the league in 1951-52 that the program has led the conference in scoring.

Long known for his ability to develop post players, Senderoff transformed the play of 2011 MAC Player of the Year Justin Greene. Under his tutelage, Greene went from a 2.2 points per game scorer as a freshman to the nation's most improved player in 2009-10, followed by an Honorable Mention All-American selection in 2010-11. Greene capped off his career in 2012 and will go down as one of the top players to ever put on a Kent State uniform, ranking fourth in career scoring, second in rebounding and second in blocked shots.

SENDEROFF'S COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Led Kent State to the postseason four times as head coach, including a NCAA Tournament berth and three CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) appearances.
- In his first game as a head coach, led Kent State to a 70-60 win over West Virginia and Head Coach Bob Huggins in Morgantown.
- Has graduated every student-athlete that has made it through senior day during his time as a head coach.

A proven national recruiter, his track record as a talented young assistant did not go unnoticed. Current ESPN.com Insider Jeff Goodman analyst recognized him as the top assistant coach in the MAC in 2010, the same year that The Hoop Scoop rated him as one of the top 50 Mid-Major Assistants in the country. Coming in at No. 4 on the list, he was the only MAC assistant coach ranked in the top 25.

During Senderoff's first stint on staff from 2002-06, the Golden Flashes went 89-40 (.690) and won three MAC East Division titles. After three straight NIT appearances, he helped KSU advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06 as the team won both the MAC regular season and tournament titles with a 25-9 overall record. Senderoff spent the 2006-07 season at Indiana where he worked with All-Big Ten and preseason All-American D.J. White. While a member of the Hoosier's staff, IU went 21-11 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He was also part of a staff that recruited The Hoop Scoop's No. 1 recruiting class in the country in 2007.

With the Golden Flashes he had a critical role in the progression of 2004 First Team and MAC Defensive Player of the Year, John Edwards, who played in the NBA with the Atlanta Hawks and Indiana Pacers. Additionally at Kent State, Senderoff also coached All-MAC performer Antonio Gates who went on to become an All-Pro tight end for the San Diego Chargers.

A native of Spring Valley, N.Y., Senderoff began his coaching career as a student assistant at the University at Albany under legendary coach Richard "Doc" Sauers before moving on to the MAC as a graduate assistant at Miami from 1995-97 where he was part of a staff that helped develop NBA players Wally Szczerbiak and Ira Newble. Returning to the East Coast, he spent time at Fordham (1997-99), Yale (1999-2001) and Towson (2001-02) prior to joining the Golden Flashes staff.
