Flash Facts

- The Kent State men's basketball team plays its regular season finale on the road on Friday, Mar. 2 against arch-rival Akron at 7 p.m.
- Kent State has a chance at a top-four seed and a MAC Tournament first round bye. The Golden Flashes must defeat Akron and Ball State has to lose on the road to Northern Illinois for KSU to have a possibility at a bye. It also depends on how Western Michigan and Eastern Michigan finish.
- Kent State has a 76-73 record against the Zips and are 24-40 on the road.
- The Golden Flashes are going for their first regular season sweep of Akron since 2010.
- Head coach Rob Senderoff is 7-10 against the Zips since taking over the program in 2011-12.
- This is the second meeting against Akron this season, with Kent State taking the first matchup, 78-68. The win propelled the Flashes to win three of their last four games.
- The Flashes are coming off a thrilling 90-83 overtime win over Miami at home. KSU was down by six with 1:39 left in regulation and stormed back to force OT and outscored Miami 15-8 in the overtime period.
- Kent State had five players in double-figures for the second consecutive game.
- Sophomore forward Danny Pippen put up a monster game against Miami, scoring 17 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. He also had a block that helped the game go to OT.
- Jaylin Walker scored a season-high 27 points in the last meeting against the Zips. As a team Kent State drilled 10 threes for the fifth time this year, and are 5-0 when doing so.
- Walker leads the team in scoring (17.0 ppg) and scored in double-digits for the 14th consecutive game, dropping 15 against Miami. He has 1,167 career points which is 20th in program history. He also ranks sixth in threes (193) in school history.

LAST TIME OUT

Kent State (15-15, 9-8) continued to find unique ways to win close games at home with a 90-83 overtime victory over Miami (15-15, 8-9) Tuesday night at the M.A.C. Center. On Senior Night, the Golden Flashes overcame a five-point deficit with a under minute to play in regulation and continued their late run of stifling defense in OT. A difficult three-pointer by Miami's Nike Sibande brought the RedHawk bench to the center of the court to celebrate at the end of regulation. However, an official's review reversed the call, showing time had expired. The inbound play came with 2.0 seconds left, just after sophomore Danny Pippen made a game-saving block on a layup attempt by Darrian Ringo. Pippen's last-minute heroics began with a three-pointer with 41 seconds left, cutting the lead to 75-73. On Miami's next possession, a late steal by sophomore Mitch Peterson set up a game-tying layup from senior Kevin Zabo with seven seconds left.

KENT STATE 78, AKRON 68 - FEBRUARY 17, 2018

Jaylin Walker nearly matched the 30 points he dropped on Akron in last year's Mid-American Conference Championship game and Jalen Avery took over at the end of Saturday's rivalry renewal as the Golden Flashes held off the arch-rival Zips for a 78-68 victory at the M.A.C. Center. Akron pulled ahead late with a 17-4 run and had Kent State mired in a field-goal drought of more than eight minutes before a Walker three-pointer from the right wing with 5:38 to play. Still trailing at the 4:47 mark, Avery drilled a three from the same spot on the floor, igniting a stretch that saw the point guard score all of his 16 points in the game's closing minutes. Walker finished with 27 points, going 7-for-12 from three-point range while teaming with Avery to close out the win from the foul line as time ticked away. As a team, KSU made 22 of its 24 foul shots.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Kent State leads the all-time series against the Zips 76-73. The Golden Flashes won last season's MAC Tournament Championship over Akron, 70-65. Kent State has a 24-40 disadvantage in the series when on the road. Head coach Rob Senderoff is 7-10 against Akron since taking over the program in 2011-12.

THE RIVALRY

The Kent State and Akron rivalry is one of the best in mid-major basketball and one of the closest as the two schools are seperated by just 14 miles. Akron won the first ever meeting between the schools, 37-16, on February 19, 1916 in Kent. It has often decided the outcome of league championships as in six of last 10 seasons either has has won the regular season or tournament crown. The teams have combined for 11 championships during that stretch.

MAC TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND BYE SCENARIOS

Kent State has a chance of getting a first round bye but must defeat the Zips and need Ball State to fall to Northern Illinois. KSU holds the tiebreaker over BSU after a season split by virtue of the Flashes win over #1 seed Buffalo. If Western Michigan wins as well and all three teams are 10-8 in the league KSU again wins the tie-breaker going 2-1 against the three teams by virtue of the head-to-head win over the Broncos. If Eastern Michigan loses at Toledo and all four teams are 10-8 in the MAC, the Eagles would own the tie-breaker for the first round bye.

BLOCK PARTY

The Golden Flashes recorded the most blocks in a game in program history with 11 against Bowling Green on February 24. It broke the previous record of 10 last season vs. Hiram College. Danny Pippen was the leading contributor with seven blocks which tied a program-record. Khaliq Spicer rejected seven shots against Ball State in 2016.

Kent State Game Notes

WALKER CLIMBS THE RECORD BOOK

Junior guard Jaylin Walker crossed the 1,000 point milestone at Central Michigan (Jan.27) with a three-pointer roughly four minutes into the second half. He became the 32nd player in Kent State history to do so and the fifth player to cross 1,000 under head coach Rob Senderoff. He currently has 1,167 career points which is 20th in program history. John Whorton (1996-00) is next on the list for Walker to surpass with 1,173 career points.

If Walker can stay on the floor consistently, he is on pace to approach 1,300 career points, putting him just outside the Kent State all-time top-10. The all-time points record at Kent State is 1,820 by Trevor Huffman.

Walker is sixth in program history in three-point field goals made (193) and third in three-point field goals attempted (577).

13 3-POINTERS

The Flashes recorded a season-high 13 3-pointers made in the team's win over Western Michigan (Jan.16), connecting on 57 percent of its 23 3-point shot attempts. The Golden Flashes hit the double-digit mark in 3-pointers made for the fifth time this season against Akron, and are 5-0 when eclipsing the 10 three-pointer mark . Last season, Kent State had seven games of 10 or more 3-pointers, tying the program-high during the Rob Senderoff era. The Flashes have had at least four games with 10 or more 3-pointers in every season since the 2012-13 campaign.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Junior center Adonis De La Rosa has taken on a much bigger role this season averaging 11.9 ppg, which is third on the team, after averging just 3.7 last year. He scored a career-high 24 points in the Flashes' 85-69 win over Central Michigan shooting 9-for-13 from the floor on January 6th. He is fifth in the MAC with a 56% field goal percentage. The Bronx, New York native registered a career-high five assists in the Flashes home win over Buffalo (Jan. 30). De La Rosa scored 20 points in back-to-back games for the first time in his career against Buffalo and Bowling Green.

De La Rosa is also the team's leading rebounder, ripping down 7.7 rpg, which is fifth in the MAC. After tireless hours in the gym this summer, he has increased his free throw pertenage from 56% (43-77) last year to 80% (107-134) this season. His 80% mark is the highest free throw percentage in the country for any player seven feet or taller.

AVERY LEADS THE NATION

Junior point guard Jalen Avery is leads the country in assist to turnover ratio at 5.29. The Covington, Ky. native has committed the least amount turnovers (21) of all players in the country that qualify (min. 3 assists per game). He has 111 assists to 21 turnovers. Avery ranks ahead of Michigan's Muhammad-Ali Abdur Rahkman (5.00).

PIPPEN PRODUCING

Kent State sophomore forward Danny Pippen exploded for a career-high 21 points in Kent State's home victory over Buffalo (Jan. 30). He scored the go-ahead basket and blocked a shot on the next play for a key defensive stop. He ripped down 13 rebounds as well. Pippen scored 11 points with 16 rebounds in an overtime win against Ball State (Jan. 23), and later in the season scored 17 with a career-best 18 boards in an overtime win against Miami (Feb.27).

Pippen has made an impact defensively for Kent State, serving as one of the league's best shot blockers. Pippen has 45 blocks so far, averaging 1.5 per game which is sixth in the MAC. The single-season blocks record is 81, held by John Edwards. The most blocks in a season during the Rob Senderoff era is 56, a mark that ranks third overall and is held by former MAC Defensive Player of the Year Khaliq Spicer. Pippen tied Spicer atop the program leaderboard with seven blocks in one game against Bowling Green (Feb. 24).

DULING DOING GOOD THINGS OFF THE BENCH

Freshman forward BJ Duling has found success in the past handful of games. He has scored in double-digits in two of the last sox games. He dropped 13 points against rival Akron, the most points scored by a KSU freshman against the Zips in this century. He scored seven points on the road against Buffalo on 3-of-5 shooting with three rebounds. He has been one of Kent State's most successful scoring options off the bench of late.

NONCON WRAPUP

The Golden Flashes finished the non-conference portion of the season at 6-7, taking crucial steps toward a run through the Mid-American Conference. The defending league champions took some lumps against top competition, falling on the road to the likes of Xavier, Albany and Loyola-Chicago. However, several highlights were had, including the program's fourth Power 5 victory under head coach Rob Senderoff, taking down Oregon State at home, 79-78. Kent State also maintained its claim as the best basketball program in Northeast Ohio, taking down Youngstown State, 111-78, and Cleveland State, 72-62. Individually, multiple student-athletes have broken out into bigger roles. Adonis De La Rosa has emerged as a top low post threat, with nine double digit scoring efforts. Jaylin Walker has led the scoring efforts as expected, averaging a team-best 17.6 points per game.

COACH SENDEROFF

Rob Senderoff made his first trip to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach in his sixth season with the program. With this record-breaking season in the books, Senderoff now ranks third all-time at Kent State in total wins at 136. He ranks 2 wins behind Jim Christian and 12 behind Jim McDonald. His winning percentage of .593 is the third best among coaches with at least five years at Kent State, ranking behind Christian (.704) and Gary Waters (.605).

GOLDEN FLASHES PICKED SECOND IN MAC EAST

Kent State was tabbed to finish second in the MAC East Division as selected by the league's 12 head coaches and an 18-member MAC News Media Panel. Junior guard Jaylin Walker was voted to the MAC East Preseason All-MAC Team

ROB SENDEROFF

>> HEAD COACH

- Seventh Season
- Albany, '95

Rob Senderoff enters his seventh year as the head men's basketball coach at Kent State. The 44-year-old took over the program in April 2011 after spending seven previous years on the Golden Flashes' coaching staff. He ended the 2016-17 season with a 122-81 record as head coach, including a trip to the 2017 NCAA Tournament.

In his six seasons as head coach, the 22-year coaching veteran has continued the success of the storied program that he helped build by leading the Golden Flashes to four 20-win campaigns and postseason appearances.

The six year run culminated in a fantastic 2016-17 season in which the Flashes returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2008. Kent State claimed the program's first Mid-American Conference Tournament Championship under Rob Senderoff, defeating the top three seeds in the tournament in succession. The Flashes scored the most points in program history at 2,722, beating the previous record by 40 points. Senderoff led his squad to the postseason despite almost a dozen newcomers to the program.

In the 2015-16 season, Senderoff led the Golden Flashes to 19 wins in a campaign that was highlighted by All-District honors for junior Jimmy Hall and MAC Defensive Player of the Year honors for Khaliq Spicer. 2014-15 was Senderoff's most successful as head coach, as he led Kent State to a share of the Mid-American Conference regular season title. The championship season was followed by a postseason run to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) quarterfinals during which Senderoff tied the school record for postseason wins. The Flashes were earned road wins at Middle Tennessee and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi before falling to Northern Arizona.

The inaugural year for Senderoff began with one of the most memorable debuts in the coaching profession. Kent State recorded a monumental 70-60 win over West Virginia and Hall of Fame Head Coach Bob Huggins, snapping the Mountaineers' 36-game non-conference home winning streak. The victory, which was part of ESPN's 24-hour College Basketball Tip-Off Marathon, also marked the first true road win over a BCS school for Kent State in 41 years.

The historic first win was just the beginning, as the Flashes won 21 games, advanced to the semifinals of the MAC Tournament and earned an invitation to play in the CIT in each of his first two seasons. Senderoff earned the first postseason victory of his head coaching career in 2013, as the Golden Flashes defeated Fairfield in a CIT first round matchup.

During his 13 seasons as part of the Kent State program, Senderoff has helped guide the Golden Flashes to 11 postseason appearances (2002-06; 2008-13; 2015; 2017), racking up 250 victories for an average of nearly 22 wins per year in the process. He has been on the sideline for four of the six Mid-American Conference regular season titles in school history. In 2011, Kent State became the first MAC team in 21 years, and just the second in 48 years, to claim second consecutive outright regular season championships. The Golden Flashes capped off the year by advancing to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) quarterfinals.

Senderoff assumed the de facto role of offensive coordinator during his three seasons as Associate Head Coach (2008-11), taking Kent State's scoring to new heights under his watch. In 2010-11 the Golden Flashes poured in 2,626 points, which trailed only the 2001-02 Elite Eight team for the highest single-season total in school history. In his first year back with the program in 2008-09, Senderoff helped orchestrate an offense that led the MAC in both scoring and field goal percentage. It was the first time since joining the league in 1951-52 that the program has led the conference in scoring.

Long known for his ability to develop post players, Senderoff transformed the play of 2011 MAC Player of the Year Justin Greene. Under his tutelage, Greene went from a 2.2 points per game scorer as a freshman to the nation's most improved player in 2009-10, followed by an Honorable Mention All-American selection in 2010-11. Greene capped off his career in 2012 and will go down as one of the top players to ever put on a Kent State uniform, ranking fourth in career scoring, second in rebounding and second in blocked shots.

SENDEROFF'S COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Led Kent State to the postseason four times as head coach, including a NCAA Tournament berth and three CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) appearances.
- In his first game as a head coach, led Kent State to a 70-60 win over West Virginia and Head Coach Bob Huggins in Morgantown.
- Has graduated every student-athlete that has made it through senior day during his time as a head coach.

A proven national recruiter, his track record as a talented young assistant did not go unnoticed. Current ESPN.com Insider Jeff Goodman analyst recognized him as the top assistant coach in the MAC in 2010, the same year that The Hoop Scoop rated him as one of the top 50 Mid-Major Assistants in the country. Coming in at No. 4 on the list, he was the only MAC assistant coach ranked in the top 25.

During Senderoff's first stint on staff from 2002-06, the Golden Flashes went 89-40 (.690) and won three MAC East Division titles. After three straight NIT appearances, he helped KSU advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06 as the team won both the MAC regular season and tournament titles with a 25-9 overall record. Senderoff spent the 2006-07 season at Indiana where he worked with All-Big Ten and preseason All-American D.J. White. While a member of the Hoosier's staff, IU went 21-11 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He was also part of a staff that recruited The Hoop Scoop's No. 1 recruiting class in the country in 2007.

With the Golden Flashes he had a critical role in the progression of 2004 First Team and MAC Defensive Player of the Year, John Edwards, who played in the NBA with the Atlanta Hawks and Indiana Pacers. Additionally at Kent State, Senderoff also coached All-MAC performer Antonio Gates who went on to become an All-Pro tight end for the San Diego Chargers.

A native of Spring Valley, N.Y., Senderoff began his coaching career as a student assistant at the University at Albany under legendary coach Richard "Doc" Sauers before moving on to the MAC as a graduate assistant at Miami from 1995-97 where he was part of a staff that helped develop NBA players Wally Szczerbiak and Ira Newble. Returning to the East Coast, he spent time at Fordham (1997-99), Yale (1999-2001) and Towson (2001-02) prior to joining the Golden Flashes staff.
