2018 Coaching Staff

Kent State University announced the hiring of Sean Lewis as its 22nd head football coach on Dec. 21, 2017. Along with his head coaching duties, Lewis also works with the Golden Flashes' quarterbacks.

Lewis brought an extensive coaching résumé to Kent State and has been one of the fastest-rising coaches in the nation over the last decade. He came to the Golden Flashes after serving as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Dino Babers at Syracuse. Lewis' background stretches from his four-year playing career at the University of Wisconsin under Barry Alvarez, to winning the 2015 Mid-American Conference (MAC) Championship as the co-offensive coordinator at Bowling Green.

That ascension led Lewis to becoming the youngest Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) head coach in the nation at the age of 31. That distinction was previously held by the University of Oklahoma's Lincoln Riley at age 34.

Lewis spent his previous six seasons alongside head coach Babers at Syracuse (2016-17), Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13).

"We are thrilled to bring Sean to Kent State," Director of Athletics Joel Nielsen said. "Sean brings an innovative style of football to Kent State with an offensive system that is proven in the MAC. We are confident Sean can build broad support and engagement in our program along with competitive success."

In 2017, Syracuse put up 40 or more points in three games and knocked off defending national champion Clemson 27-24 on Oct. 13. Syracuse's offense averaged 456.3 yards and 24.4 first downs per game.

Those numbers were fueled by a fast-paced offense that led the nation in offensive snaps per game (87.8). Wide receiver Steve Ishmael broke the single-season program records for catches (105) and yards (1,347), earned second-team All-America honors and was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award. Wide receiver Ervin Philips earned All-ACC Second Team honors and was named Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year after making 89 catches for 904 yards.

During Lewis' first season with the Orange in 2016, its offense set or tied over 40 program records including most passing yards in a season (3,855). Syracuse quarterbacks ranked 11th in the nation in passing. Its 5,290 yards of total offense were the second most in program history.

In 2015, Bowling Green ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (546.8) and sixth in scoring offense (42.2 ypg). Lewis served as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Matt Johnson, that season's MAC Offensive Player of the Year. Johnson finished second in the nation in both passing yards (4,946) and touchdowns (46). All-American wide receiver Roger Lewis finished second in the nation in receiving yards (1,544) and third in touchdown catches (16). One year earlier, the Bowling Green Falcons won a MAC East title and the Camellia Bowl. Lewis coached tight ends and inside receivers at Eastern Illinois. The Panthers made the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs both seasons and reached the quarterfinals in 2013 with a 12-2 mark. Eastern Illinois' offense was led by San Francisco 49ers' quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo.

A tight end and quarterback at Wisconsin, Lewis was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection under Alvarez. Current Wisconsin Badger head coach Paul Chryst served as his offensive coordinator and position coach.

Lewis' coaching career began as the offensive coordinator for his alma mater, Richards High School in Illinois. Richards was led by veteran Gary Korhonen, who earned National High School Coach of the Year honors from both the National Football Hall of Fame and the National High School Coaches Association. Lewis transitioned to the college level in 2010 as tight ends coach at Division II Nebraska Omaha. He made his first MAC stop in 2011 as a graduate assistant for Akron. Lewis earned a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin in agricultural sciences in 2007. He and his wife, Sarah, have a son, Rory.

2018 Coaching Staff

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR Andrew SOWDER

Offensive Coordinator • Baylor '11 • First Season

Andrew Sowder joined Kent State in January of 2018 as offensive coordinator. He also works with quarterbacks and tight ends.

Sowder came to Kent by way of San Jose State where he served as the team's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 2017, implementing the spread offense. Prior to San Jose State, Sowder was at the University of Texas for one season as an offensive quality control coach, working primarily with the wide receivers.

Prior to Texas, Sowder spent four seasons alongside Sean Lewis at Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13) under Dino Babers.

As Bowling Green's wide receivers coach, Sowder helped the Falcons to back-to-back MAC East Division titles, a 2014 Camellia Bowl win and the 2015 MAC Championship. He also served as director of player personnel and recruiting coordinator for the Falcons in 2014. In 2015, Bowling Green ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (546.8) and sixth in scoring offense (42.2 ypg). All-American wide receiver Roger Lewis finished second in the nation in receiving yards (1,544) and third in touchdown catches (16).

In 2012 and 2013, Eastern Illinois won back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships while Sowder served as wide receivers coach. Eastern Illinois was the FCS national leader in total offense in 2013 after ranking seventh in 2012.

Prior to Eastern Illinois, Sowder coached running backs at West Texas A&M in 2011. The Buffs won the Kanza Bowl and ranked 14th in the nation in total offense.

A 2011 Baylor University graduate, Sowder majored in digital media. His coaching career began as a student assistant on Art Briles staff in 2009 and in 2010 when the Bears played in the Texas Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance in 16 years.

As a player at Baylor, Sowder was both a wide receiver and tight in 2007 and 2008. Sowder grew up in Shallowater, Texas.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH Tom KAUFMAN

Defensive Coordinator • John Carroll '03 • First Season

Tom Kaufman joined Kent State in January of 2018 as associate head coach and defensive coordinator.

Kaufman spent the 2017 season as defensive coordinator at Chattanooga. The Mocs led the Southern Conference in total defense allowing just 326.4 yards per game and 309.6 yards per contest in conference games.

Chattanooga also led the SoCon in pass defense and ranked second in first downs allowed. Four Mocs on defense earned all-conference honors and senior linebacker Tae Davis was selected to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

In 2016, Kaufman served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Syracuse alongside Sean Lewis. Two Syracuse linebackers and two specialists earned All-ACC honors under Kaufman's guidance, while the Orange punt return unit ranked fourth in the nation.

Prior to Syracuse, Kaufman and Lewis spent four seasons together at Bowling Green (2014-15) and Eastern Illinois (2012-13) under Dino Babers.

While at Bowling Green, Kaufman directed the Falcons' defensive line and special teams. The Falcons won back-to-back East Division titles, the 2014 Camellia Bowl and the 2015 MAC Championship Game.

Eastern Illinois won back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships in 2012-13 with Kaufman serving as linebackers coach. The Panthers finished 12-2 in 2013, advancing to the FCS quarterfinals.

Kaufman was a quality control coach at Texas in 2011 and Kansas in 2010. He served as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 2009. He also coached six seasons (2003-08) at the Division III level, spending time at Heidelberg, Case Western Reserve and Chicago, where he served as defensive coordinator. In 2008, seven players on Chicago's defense earned all-conference honors.

"Tom is a relentless recruiter and a great football mind," Lewis said upon Kaufman's hiring. "He's going to bring an aggressive, attacking defense that was No. 1 in the SoCon last year. I couldn't be more excited to have him on board."

Kaufman played at John Carroll from 1999-2002 and earned his undergraduate degree in 2003 as an English major. He earned a master's degree from Heidelberg in 2005. Tom and his wife Stephanie, have a son, Jack.

Zac Barton joined Kent State in January of 2018 as special teams coordinator.

Barton spent the previous six seasons as an assistant coach for Winona State, where he served as co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. He was also the Warriors' recruiting coordinator.

In 2012, the first season of his second stint at Winona State, Barton helped the Warriors win 10 games and earn an appearance in the Mineral Water Bowl. The following season, Winona State's special teams excelled, finishing second in the nation with six blocked kicks. The Warriors finished second in their conference in both punting and punt returns.

Prior to Winona State, Barton worked with the offensive line at the University of Memphis, helping with all aspects of the offensive game plan.

In 2010, Barton was on staff with Sean Lewis at Nebraska-Omaha, serving as defensive line coach.

Barton's first stint with Winona State came in 2007, lasting three seasons coaching the defensive line and special teams. The Warriors captured the NSIC title and earned a spot in the NCAA Division II playoffs during his first season.

A 2006 graduate of Bloomsburg University, Barton earned a degree in history. He was an all-conference and all-region selection as a senior at Bloomsburg and a member of three conference championship teams. Barton was also a CoSIDA Academic All-Region selection and a four-time member of the PSAC All-Academic Team.

In 2009, Barton received his Master of Science degree in sports management from Winona State.

Jon Cooley took over as secondary coach for Kent State in January of 2018.

Cooley is one of three Kent State defensive coaches who spent the 2017 season at Chattanooga. The Mocs led the Southern Conference in total defense allowing just 326.4 yards per game and 309.6 yards per contest in conference games. Chattanooga also led the SoCon in pass defense and ranked second in first downs allowed.

Prior to serving as defensive backs coach at for the Mocs, Cooley was a defensive graduate assistant at Kentucky in 20016. The Wildcats finished tied for second in the SEC East and earned a bowl bid.

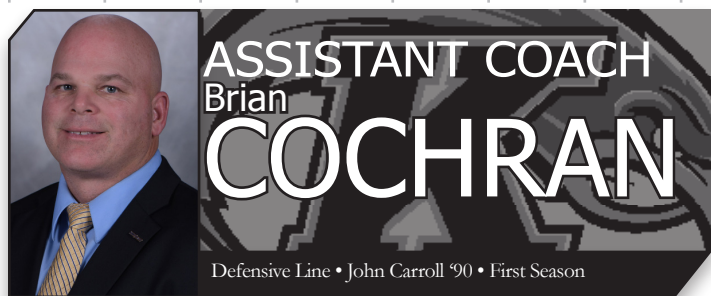

Before Kentucky, Cooley spent two seasons as secondary coach at his alma mater, John Carroll University. He helped the defense at JCU finish in the top five nationally in Division III both seasons.

Cooley's first coaching job came as a defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator at Millikin University in 2011. He then coached safeties at Bluffton University in 2012 and served as the team's equipment manager.

A native of Columbus, Cooley was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at John Carroll, when he first came to Northeast Ohio. The defensive back finished in the top 10 in career pass breakups for the Blue Streaks.

Cooley was elected as a Unity Council member in all four years at JCU and earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2011. He went on to earn an MBA and completed work towards a second master's degree in sport leadership at Kentucky.

2018 Coaching Staff

Brian Cochran was named Kent State's defensive line coach in January of 2018.

Cochran held the same position at Chattanooga in 2017, while working with defensive coordinator Tom Kaufman. The Mocs led the Southern Conference in total defense allowing just 326.4 yards per game and 309.6 yards per contest in conference games. Chattanooga also led the SoCon in pass defense and ranked second in first downs allowed.

He returns to Northeast Ohio a place in which he spent 10 seasons as a coach and four as a player at John Carroll University, serving in various roles including defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. The Blue Streaks made three NCAA playoff appearances from 2013-16, including a semi-finals appearance in 2016.

In 2016, JCU finished No. 13 in the nation in rushing defense and averaged more than three sacks per game.

In six of 10 seasons at JCU, Cochran served as defensive coordinator helping the Blue Streaks lead the nation in a several categories, including rushing defense and points allowed per game.

Prior to JCU, Cochran spent time as a head coach for Heidelberg University in Tiffin, Ohio from 2003 to 2006, MacMurray College (IL) and Ohio Northern University. In addition to football, he was the head coach of Heidelberg's wrestling program for two years as well, during his first stint with the Student Princes as an assistant coach.

Cochran, a 1990 graduate of John Carroll University was an All-American nose tackle as a senior in 1989 helping earn the program's first NCAA Division III tournament bid.

He was inducted into the JCU Athletic Hall of Fame on Sept. 30, 2011.

Matt Middleton was hired as wide receivers coach at Kent State in January of 2018.

Middleton came to Kent with 10 years of experience coaching college wide receivers, most recently spending the previous five seasons as both wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at South Dakota. In 2017, the Coyotes advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs, while averaging 333 passing yards per game.

Prior to South Dakota, Middleton, worked with wide receivers as a graduate assistant for one season at the University of Kansas.

In 2011, Middleton spent a season coaching at Division II Chadron State College (Neb.) coaching wide receivers and special teams returners. He held the same title at Nebraska-Omaha for the 2009 and 2010 seasons when he was on staff with Sean Lewis.

A native of Kansas City, Kansas, Middleton's first coaching experience came in 2008 at his alma mater, Ottawa University (NAIA) where he coached wide receivers. A wide receiver at Ottawa, he was a three-time all-conference selection and remains the program's all-time leader in receptions.

A graduate 2008 from Ottawa, Middleton earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and a master's degree from Nebraska-Omaha

ASSISTANT COACH Will WINDHAM

Inside Linebackers • Mississippi State '07 • First Season

Will Windham joined Kent State in January of 2018 as inside linebackers coach.

Windham spent the previous two seasons as a defensive quality control coach at Georgia. In 2017, he was a part of a Bulldogs' staff that won an SEC Championship and advanced to the College Football Playoff national championship game. Prior to the playoff, the Georgia defense held 10-of-13 opponents to 14 points or less. In 2016, the Bulldogs won eight games, including the Liberty Bowl.

In 2015, Windham served as defensive line coach at Davidson.

Prior to Davidson, Windham spent one season at Penn State and three seasons at his alma mater, Mississippi State as a defensive graduate assistant.

Windham's coaching career began at the high school level from 2009-11, at Saint Stanislaus Prep in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

A 2007 graduate of Mississippi State, Windham earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education and later earned a master's degree in teaching and coaching.

ASSISTANT COACH Macky MACPHERSON

Running Backs • Syracuse '13 • First Season

Macky MacPherson took over as Kent State's running backs coach in January of 2018.

MacPherson followed current head coach Sean Lewis from Syracuse where he spent the previous two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant. In 2017, the Orange offense averaged 456.3 yards and 24.4 first downs per game.

Prior to Syracuse, MacPherson spent one season as a graduate assistant at Louisiana Tech, helping the Bulldogs finished 9-4 with a win over Arkansas in the New Orleans Bowl.

As a player, MacPherson was a four-year letterwinner at Syracuse and a two-time Big East All-Academic Team selection and an academic all-district selection. He was an All-ACC Second Team selection in 2013 and was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society.

A three-year starter at center and senior captain for the Orange, MacPherson helped his team to three bowl wins in his four seasons. He graduated from Syracuse with a bachelor's degree in geography in 2013.

Macky is the grandson of former Syracuse and New England Patriots' head coach Dick MacPherson, a 2009 College Football Hall of Fame inductee. Macky's younger brother, Cameron, also played football at Syracuse.

SPORTS PERFORMANCE
Jeff
SOBOL

Sports performance • Eastern Illinois '09 • First Season

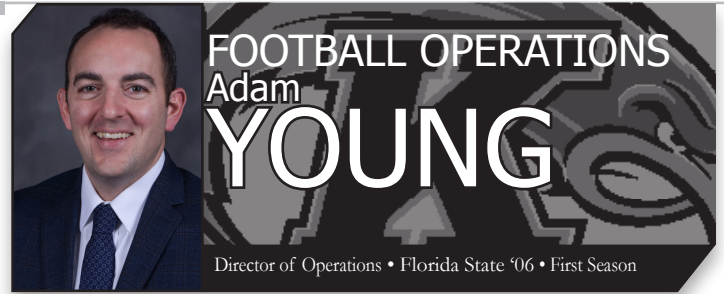

Jeff Sobol joined Kent State in January of 2018 as head football sports performance coach. Sobol spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons alongside several current Kent State staff members at Syracuse, serving as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to Syracuse, Sobol also worked with current Flashes' head coach Sean Lewis at Bowling Green. In addition to football, he worked with the Falcon baseball and softball teams.

"Our players have loved Jeff's workouts this offseason and enjoy the structure he has established," Lewis said of the 2018 offseason. "I've been around him for six seasons and he has a very specific way for athletes to be trained so they will be ready for the type of system we run. Right now, he's laying the foundation for the physical and mental aspects of what our players will face throughout the season."

A three-year starting defensive lineman at Eastern Illinois, Sobol transitioned into the sports performance field at his alma mater. He was a graduate assistant, working closely with the Panther football team.

Earning a bachelor's and master's degree from Eastern Illinois, Sobol also played three seasons in the Arena Football League.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
Adam

Director of Operations • Florida State '06 • First Season

Adam Young joined Kent State in January of 2018 as director of football operations. Young spent the 2015-2017 seasons as director of football operations at Louisiana Tech, including a year on staff with Kent State running backs coach Macky MacPherson. In two seasons prior to Louisiana Tech, Young served as assistant director of operations at UAB. Young also spent five seasons working with Florida State's recruiting and operations staff. He began working in college football in 2002 as a student, spending five seasons on the Seminoles' equipment staff.

PLAYER PERSONNEL
Steve SCHRUM

Director of Player Personnel • Maryland • First Season

Steve Schrum joined Kent State in January of 2018 as director of player personnel.

Schrum spent the previous year and a half at Syracuse as a recruiting quality control assistant for the Orange.

For much of 2016, Schrum spent time in the Mid-American Conference, working as assistant recruiting coordinator at Akron where he managed their recruiting database and oversaw unofficial visit operations.

Prior to Akron, Schrum was a recruiting assistant at Northwestern.

In 2014, Schrum served as the assistant recruiting coordinator at Towson, where he helped the Tigers sign the No. 1 rated recruiting class in the Colonial Athletic Association.

Schrum attended the University of Florida where he interned for the Gators as an assistant to the wide receivers coach. He earned his bachelor's degree from Florida in 2014, studying U.S. history and political science.

During his summers while at Florida, Schrum got his start in player personnel and recruiting as an intern for the Baltimore Ravens. He helped manage NFL roster boards and scouting depth charts and assisted with football analytics.

In 2010, Schrum began his tenure in college football, working with the equipment staff at Maryland.
