KENT STATE, PLEASE...

Kent State University respectfully requests that the institution and its intercollegiate athletics teams be referred to as "Kent State" or "KSU" in shortened reference, as opposed to "Kent." Kent State University requests that its team name is referred to as the "Golden Flashes" on first reference with "Flashes" also being acceptable upon second reference. Thank you.

UNDER OAKLEY'S WATCH

Fifth-year head coach Eric Oakley has enjoyed one of the most successful stretches in Kent State softball history, leading the Flashes to a MAC regular season and tournament championship. Oakley became the fastest head coach in program history to win 100 games for the Blue and Gold and accomplished the feat in 173 games. In his first season in 2016, Oakley was named the MAC Coach of the Year while guiding the Flashes to a MAC regular season championship with a 37-22 record, the fourth-most wins in program history. During the 2017 NCAA Tournament, the Flashes eliminated Oregon State with a 2-1 victory. In 2018, Holly Speers to became the school's first ever NFCA First Team All-American. Over the last four seasons, Oakley has led all MAC coaches with 56 league victories. Oakley has been with the program since 2015 when he was named pitching coach and guided one of the most dominant staffs in the nation that finished with the third- lowest ERA in the country (1.55). In his head coaching tenure, he has beaten eight Power 5 opponents.

SCALI'S STRONG SHOWING

Redshirt sophomore pitcher Andrea Scali was named the MAC Pitcher and Freshman of the Year and became the first player in the conference to take home both honors since Kent State's Kylie Reynolds in 2007. She began her collegiate career striking out the side in the first inning en route to a complete game one-hitter with 12 strikeouts against Northeast Conference regular season champion LIU Brooklyn in a 7-1 win in February. Her 12 strikeouts were the most by a KSU pitcher in their first career start since current pitching coach Emma Johnson also punched out 12 against Weber State on Feb. 10, 2012. The record for most strikeouts in a debut is held by three-time MAC Pitcher of the Year Kylie Reynolds when she struck out 16 Campbell batters on Feb 16, 2007. She lost a no-hitter in the seventh inning against Conference-USA regular season champion North Texas and tossed a one-hitter against the Mean Green with 12 strikeouts. She followed that performance up with a two-hitter against #21 Baylor (2/23) and won a pitchers' duel 1-0 with 11 strikeouts. For her performance she was named the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Week. She won a second national awards when the NFCA named her Pitcher of the Week on April 23rd as she threw 22.2 innings withing allowing an earned run and no-hit Robert Morris. During conference-only games she led the MAC in ERA (1.00), wins (9), shutouts (4), opponent batting average (.182) and WHIP (0.94), while ranking second in total strikeouts (98) and strikeouts per seven innings (8.52). Her 22 wins this year are the eighth most in a single season in Kent State history and is the first freshman 20 game winner since Carla Brookbank's 23 in 1992. Her 269 strikeouts are the sixth-most in a single season in school history and the most ever by a freshman, surpassing Reynolds' 254 in 2007. She finished in the top-10 nationally in shutouts (11), strikeouts (269) and strikeouts per seven innings (9.46).

BRENNA BROWNFIELD NAMED PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Junior Brenna Brownfield was selected as the MAC Player of the Year by the conference's head coaches and became the first underclassmen to claim the award since Ball State's Jennifer Gilbert in 2012. Kent State also became the first school in MAC history to have three different players claim the MAC Player of the Year honors in consecutive seasons (Holly Speers 2018, Maddy Grimm 2017). During conference play the Thornville, Ohio native led the MAC in batting average (.488) and ranked third in on-base percentage (.542), OPS (1.333), RBIs per at bat (.325) and fourth in slugging percentage (.791). The sophomore tallied eight multi-hit games and five multi-RBI games. She began league play with an extra-base hit in five of her first six games. She was instrumental in Kent State earning series victories on the road at Toledo and Western Michigan, going 9-for-17 with seven RBIs and five extra-base hits.

TURNER EMERGES AT FIRST

Sophomore first baseman Megan Turner earned a starting role during conference play and ran away with the opportunity, clobbering MAC pitching to the tune of a .351 average. She finished the year second in MAC-only games among rookies in batting average and third in slugging percentage (.541). In the month of April, the Warren, Ohio product hit a homer in four games of a six-game stretch, including a grand slam at rival Akron. She had great success at the dish in a three-game series with eventual MAC regular season champion Miami, going 8-for-12, including a four-hit game. Megan's brother Michael is an All-MAC catcher on the Kent State baseball team. Both hit a grand slam last season.

SERIES HISTORY

Kent State is 3-1 all-time against this weekend's tournament field with each contest being played over the past three seasons. The Flashes are 1-0 against Lafayette with the lone contest being a 11-3 final in 2018. Kent State beat Howard twice by a combined score of 17-2 during opening weekend earlier this season. Duke took advantage of three unearned runs in the first inning to beat the Flashes, 8-0, in 2018.

AN HISTORIC DAY IN WACO

The Golden Flashes took down #21 Baylor two times in the same day on Saturday, Feb. 23. Kent State won the first game, 1-0, before taking the nightcap, 6-5, in eight innings. Kent State pitcher Andrea Scali shut out the Lady Bears for the first time this season in the 11-strikeout two-hitter. Baylor had not been two-hit since March 29th of last year when #2 Oklahoma All-American Paige Parker did so. It's also the most times the Lady Bears struck out since last season when All-American Kelly Barnhill of #2 Florida struck out 18 on March 3, 2018. Alexis Taube delivered a walkoff single in the eighth inning to beat the Lady Bears in game two. KSU won two games against a ranked team in the same day for the first time in program history. The last time Kent State defeated a ranked team was in 2015, at #3 Michigan, 3-0.

TAKING ON A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

Once again, Kent State head coach Eric Oakley has put together a challenging non-conference slates that will have his squad prepared when the MAC season comes around. The Flashes will play 12 games against teams that received a vote in the Preseason USA Today/NFCA Top 25 Coaches' Poll, with seven of the games against Top-25 opponents. Kent State will play true road games against #3 Oklahoma, #16 Georgia, #18 Texas Tech and #24 Arkansas. In total, the Flashes will play 12 games against teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament last season.

KENT STATE PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN THE MAC

The Golden Flashes were picked to finish second in the MAC preseason coaches' poll and received four first-place votes. Kent State has won three league championships in the last five seasons and has appeared in 16 straight MAC Tournaments, the longest streak in conference history since a regular tournament was held beginning in 1996. With Eastern Michigan discontinuing the sport after last season, the MAC has abolished divisions for the first time since 1997.

DIAMOND SPORTS EXCELLENCE AT KENT STATE

Kent State softball and baseball both have a rich tradition of winning. KSU is the only MAC school since the NCAA began sponsoring a softball championship in 1982 that have sent both diamond sports to both the Women's College World Series and College World Series. Golden Flashes softball made its run to the WCWS in 1990. The Golden Flashes knocked off powers Oregon and Ohio State en-route to the WCWS in Oklahoma City. Kent State baseball went to Omaha in 2012. KSU eliminated #12 Kentucky in a marathon 21-inning win and defeated #10 Oregon in a three-game series in Eugene. The Flashes also sent #1 Florida home at the CWS.

GETTING TO KNOW KENT STATE

Kent State is located in Kent, Ohio, about 50 miles southwest of Cleveland. The school and community are both named after Marvin Kent, who was influential in making the area a hub for the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad. Kent State boasts several notable alumni in the fields of sports and entertainment, including Nick Saban, Julian Edelman, Lou Holtz, James Harrison, Antonio Gates, Drew Carey and Michael Keaton.
