KENT STATE'S 13 NO-HITTERS

May 1, 1936: Dr. Marion E. "Lefty" Garner, a member of the Kent State Athletic Hall of Fame, threw the first no-hitter in school history, leading the Kent State to a 6-0 victory over Ashland. Garner struck out 24 of the 29 batters faced.

April 17, 1953: Lou Bocci, a member of the Kent State Athletic Hall of Fame, threw the first home no-hitter in Golden Flash history. However, Toledo won the game 1-0.

April 23, 1954: Lou Bocci became the first, and still the only, Golden Flash to throw two no-hitters when he hurled a 6-0 win over Marshall. It was the first no-hit win on Kent State's home field.

May 13, 1955: Lefty Bob Harrison blanked the Toledo Rockets, 5-0 to record the fourth no-hitter in Kent State history. The lefty faced 29 hitters in the series opener, issuing two walks that proved to be the only Rockets to reach base.

May 1, 1982: Lou Caracci faced only one man above the minimum in his 7-0 no-hit performance against Bowling Green. Caracci struck out five and walked two and Rob Goodwin made a fine sliding catch in the seventh inning to preserve the no-hitter. Caracci's no-hitter came exactly 46 years after the school's first no-hitter, pitched by Garner.

March 26, 1983: Rick Moyer, in the Flashes' first game since their spring break, threw Kent State's fifth no-hitter, defeating Dayton 9-2. Moyer struck out nine Flyers and gave up nothing even close to a hit. The win was one game into a 25-game winning streak, the longest in Ohio collegiate baseball history.

March 13, 1987: Freshman Brian Schubert made his first collegiate start a memorable one, no-hitting Youngstown State in the second game of a doubleheader. He faced only two batters above the minimum, striking out three and walking two. Only two pitchers in NCAA history had thrown no-hitters in their first collegiate outing before Schubert's 6-0 win.

March 29, 1993: Sophomore Travis Miller was a hit batter and a walk away from perfection in the first half of a doubleheader against Wright State. After retiring the first seven batters, Miller hit Rod Miller in the third inning but managed to get the next batter to hit into a double play. A sixth-inning walk of Andy Banks was the only other blemish on Miller's otherwise perfect game and 1-0 win.

April 6, 1993: Tom Bouch, Brian Tutkovics and Jim Farrell combine for an 11-inning no-hitter in a 1-0 win over Youngstown State.

February 25, 1995: Junior Jim Farrell struck out 13 and walked four in a 12-2 seven-inning no-hitter. He struck out the first seven Dayton batters and did not allow a Flyer baserunner past second until the seventh inning.

April 23, 1997: Junior Mike Skeeles struck out three and allowed five walks in a 1-0 no-hit win against Akron. Todd Mezlak, who went to second on a wild pitch in the fourth, was the only Zip to advance past first.

April 10, 2009: Junior Brad Stillings struck out nine and did not allow a walk and hit a batter in Kent State's 1-0 win over Toledo. Kent State scored its only run in the top of the sixth on an RBI double by Ben Klafczynski. Toledo threatened in the bottom of the sixth when the lead-off hitter was hot by a pitch and advanced to third on two-straight ground outs, but Stillings escaped unharmed.

May 13, 2016: Junior Eric Lauer was an error away from a perfect game as he struck out 13 in a 14-0 Kent State victory at Bowling Green. The Falcons' only baserunner reached in the 3rd. The Flashes erupted for a 12-run 9th inning to seal the victory and clinch a regular season MAC title.
