Brice Biggin Head Coach | 33rd Season

Brice Biggin is in his 33rd season as head coach of the Kent State gymnastics team and has been associated with the program for more than 40 years.

During Biggin's tenure with Kent State, the Golden Flashes have appeared in 23 NCAA Regionals, captured eight Mid-American Championships and won nine MAC regular season titles. Along the way, the 11-time MAC Coach of the Year has mentored the eight Mid-American Conference's Gymnasts of the Year and 63 MAC All-Conference award winners.

During the 2023 season, the Flashes were strong across the board under Biggin. Kyndall Gilbert finished the year ranked sixth in the MAC on vault with a 9.835 NQS and tied for third in the event at the MAC Championships. Rachel DeCavitch ranked in the top-10 in the conference on bars, beam, and in the all-around, placing second in all three at the MAC Championships. Alyssa Guns earned MAC Specialist of the Week twice thanks to her strong showings on floor while Karlie Franz posted scores of 9.900 or higher in seven of her nine routines. Both qualified for the NCAA Regionals on floor while DeCavitch qualified in the all-around after scoring 39.425 at the MAC Championships.

The Flashes led the MAC and ranked 23rd in the country and 29th on bars en route to the MAC regular season title in 2022. Karlie Franz won on floor at the MAC Championships while Rachel DeCavitch finished second in the all-around and was named to the MAC Tournament Team. Franz, DeCavitch, Guns, and Sarah Haxton all qualified for the NCAA Regionals, with Franz and Guns competing on floor, Haxton on bars, and DeCavitch in the all-around.

Under Biggin in 2021, Abby Fletcher was named the Mid-American Conference Senior

Gymnast of the Year. She tied for first place in the MAC on floor and was top-5 in the conference on beam. Fletcher was named to the All-MAC Second Team and a spot on the All-MAC tournament team after winning the individual floor title at MAC Championships.

Under Biggin's mentorship on bars, the Flashes ranked 25th in the country in 2021. Rachel DeCavitch and Jade Brown both finished inside the top-10 in the MAC on bars. Both gymnasts posted career highs of 9.900 on bars during the 2021 season.

In 2019, Biggin coached three MAC champions. Abby Fletcher and Jade Brown tied for the MAC floor title, while Dara Williams took home the bars title. Williams and Fletcher represented the Flashes in the 2019 NCAA Regional at Ann Arbor.

Biggin was named MAC Coach of the Year in 2017 after helping Rachel Stypinski earn MAC Gymnast of the Year.

In the 2015 season, Kent State took home the MAC Title with a thrilling 196.375-196.275 win over the defending champs Central Michigan. The title marked the 12th in team history, first since 2009, and their fifth when hosting the championships in Kent (1981, 1988, 2001, 2008, 2015). Ending the 2015 campaign, Rachel Stypinski, the MAC Freshman of the Year and Specialist of the Year, qualified for the NCAA Regionals in Columbus, Ohio on the floor exercise and balance beam. Stypinski tied for second on the floor (9.900) and tied for 13th on the beam (9.800). Following the 2015 season, seven gymnasts were named to the Academic All-MAC team and 10 garnered National Association of College Gymnastics Coaches/Women (NACGC/W) Scholastic All-America honors.

In 2014, the Golden Flashes saw Marie Case advance to the NCAA National Championships as an individual to compete in the All-Around. Biggin and Kent State finished the season ranked 27th in the nation and 25th in the floor exercise. Biggin saw Marie Case finish in the top-15 in the all-around nationally, ranking 13th with a high of 39.600 and an average on the year of 39.275. Biggin saw two individuals rank in the top-100 nationally for individual events: Amiah Mims finished the year T-96th on floor while Case ranked T-23rd on Floor, T-27th on Balance Beam, T-88th on Vault and T-100th on the uneven bars.

The 2011 NACGC/W Head Coach of the Year led the Golden Flashes to their first trip to the NCAA Championships in program history after placing second at the 2011 NCAA Ann Arbor Regional April 2, achieving the special feat of competing for a national title while also playing co-host to the event along with the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission. Kent State defeated the likes of No. 4 Stanford, No. 16 Ohio State and No. 23 Minnesota at the regional en route to becoming the first regional six seed and MAC team ever to advance to the national finals. The Golden Flashes completed the season with their highest ranking in program history at No. 12 after totaling a team score of 195.000 on April 15 at the national semifinals at the Wolstein Center.

Since being named head coach in 1992,

Biggin has been selected the MAC Coach of the Year eight times, NCAA Northeast Region Coach of the Year twice and NCAA Central Region Coach of the Year in 2001.

Biggin was named to the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Committee in July, 2012, and is one of seven individuals on the committee, which is made up of one representative from each of the six Division I regions and one member representing Divisions II and III. Among Biggin's responsibilities as a member of the committee is helping to select the field and creating the bracket for the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships.

Long a fixture on the Kent State's campus, Biggin was recognized during the 2011-12 academic year by former Kent State President Lester A. Lefton with a President's Excellence Award, one of only 10 awards given out each year by Lefton to faculty and staff members that demonstrate exceptional performance in advancing one of the goals of the university's excellence agenda during the previous fiscal year.

Prior to being named Kent State's head coach, Biggin served as the women's associate coach for five seasons under Kent State coaching legends Rudy and Janet Bachna. Biggin was Kent State's first-ever graduate assistant coach for the women's gymnastics program from 1985-87. He also served as an assistant coach for the Kent State men's gymnastics team on a part-time basis from 1983-85.

A four-time letterwinner and two-year team captain on Kent State's men's gymnastics team from 1980-83, Biggin led the men to a Great Lakes League Championship his senior season.

A native of Howland, Ohio, Biggin graduated from Kent State with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He married the former Jen McGrath, Oct. 22, 2004. They have three children: Austin, Addison and Alexandria.

Gymnastics Opens Home Schedule Against Mountaineers

Kent State is set to face off against West Virginia on Sunday in the first home meet of the 2024 campaign after a record-setting performance last week and the Tennessee Collegiate Classic. The Golden Flashes trail in the all-time series with the Mountaineers, 4-24, with their last win coming in 2005. Last season, West Virginia bested the Flashes in the season opener, 195.100-194.475, though Karlie Franz won her first floor title of the season with a 9.850.

Last Season in Review

» Kent State finished third at the Mid-American Conference Championships, posting a season-high 196.175 in the championship meet. The team's 49.450 on bars in the meet was the second-highest score in the event in program history.

» Kyndall Gilbert earned a podium finish at the conference championship meet on vault, finishing tied for third with a 9.850.

» After being named to the All-MAC Second Team, both Karlie Franz and Alyssa Guns earned a spot at the NCAA Norman Regional, competing on floor. It was the second year in a row that Franz and Guns both represented the Flashes in postseason competition.

» Alyssa Guns was named the MAC Specialist of the Week twice during the 2023 season. The now-junior posted the third-highest NQS (9.910) in the MAC for the season and scored a career-high 9.900 on beam.

» The Flashes posted a 6-9 mark on the season, going 5-7 in competitions outside of the M.A.C. Center.

» The squad's season-high road score came at the Ohio State Tri-Meet against the Buckeyes and Illinois when the Flashes posted a 196.025 against the pair of ranked opponents.

Last Time Out

The Flashes placed second at the Tennessee Collegiate Classic last Friday with a program-record 197.725. Kent State also set new program-best scores on floor (49.675) and tied the highest-ever results on bars (49.500) and second-highest on vault (49.300). Including exhibitions, the Flashes hit on 32/32 routines.

Karlie Franz scored a perfect 10.000 on floor, the first Kent State gymnast to do so since Jessie James in 2004 and the first MAC gymnast to go perfect on floor since 2005. Alyssa Guns and Heidi Schultz each received a 10.00 from one judge, finishing second in the meet with a 9.975 each. On bars, five gymnasts set or matched their career-highs, led by Kyndall Gilbert's 9.925. In total, 15 of the Flashes' 24 routines on the night set or matched personal bests.

From the SEC to the M.A.C.C.

Josie Angeny joins the Kent State coaching staff as an assistant coach for the 2024 season, the first coaching change the Flashes have seen in over a decade. A four-year team member at Kentucky, she competed in 45 meets for the Wildcats. As a freshman in 2019, she earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors after scoring 9.800 on beam seven times. Angeny earned All-SEC honors after winning on beam three times in her sophomore campaign in Lexington and again as a junior after a breakout season where she set career-highs in all five events. She won three times on beam and bars and had two first-place finishes in the all-around. At the 2021 NCAA Salt Lake City Regional, Angeny won on beam with a 9.950, which tied her career-high, and set new personal bests on floor (9.900) and all-around (39.550). As a senior in 2022, she helped lead

STORYLINES

Kentucky to an NCAA Regional berth. Following the 2022 season, Ange-ny transferred to Georgia for her final year of eligibility, helping guide the GymDogs during a rebuilding year to a NCAA Regional berth. Angeny will primarily oversee the Flashes' beam routines.

She's Baaaaaaack

After a stellar senior campaign, Karlie Franz returns to Kent State for one last ride with the Flashes. The two-time All-MAC Second Team selection ranked fourth in the conference on floor with a 9.905 NQS a season ago en route to her second Regional appearance where she scored a 9.825 on floor. Franz scored a 9.9+ mark with her floor routine in six consecutive meets, highlighted by career-high 9.925s against NIU and Central Michigan. Also competing on bars and beam, Franz hit on 18 of her 20 routines during her senior season.

New Kids on the Block

The Flashes welcome seven newcomers to the squad for the 2024 campaign - six freshman and one sophomore transfer. Charlie Behner spent her freshman season at Temple, competing on vault and floor. Behner and freshman Ashley Morgan get to compete alongside Mya Migliore once again, as all three trained at Bio Gymnastics in Georgia before finding their way to northeast Ohio. Nene Alvine comes to Kent all the way from Seattle, a bit farther than Dani Fuertez's and Gabby Riley's homes in Michigan and Illinois, respectively. Coach Biggin and staff also recruited their own backyard well, keeping Grace Knurek and Kaileigh Norton in their home state. After losing a number of key routines from last year's squad, the incoming class will have ample opportunity to make an instant impact in the lineup.

Scouting West Virginia

The Mountaineers enter Sunday's meet ranked 44th in the country on vault, 46th on bars, 53rd on beam, and 50th on floor. West Virginia is coming off of a 195.025-194.850 defeat to Pitt last Sunday. The Mountaineers also sport a 0-1 record against the MAC this season after falling to Western Michigan 196.000-195.050 on January 13.

Abbie Pierson leads West Virginia with 161.100 points early in the season. The fifth-year senior is the 19th gymnast in program history to tally 1,500 career points. Emma Wehry, sister of former Golden Flashes gymnast Grace Wehry, is second on the squad with 87.525 points and leads WVU with a 9.825 bars average.

Jason Butts is in his 13th year at the helm of the West Virginia program. He sports a 150-109-1 record as head coach, highlighted by the squad's second-place finish at the 2015 Big XII Championships.

Up Next

Kent State start the month of February on the road, taking on Ball State to start MAC competition on Feb. 4 at 1 p.m. Ball State won the Tennessee Collegiate Classic last weekend with a program-best 198.025, led by a trio of perfect 10s. Zoe Middleton and Suki Pfister earned MAC Gymnast of the Week and Specialist of the Week honors as the Cardinals swept the conference's weekly awards for the second week in a row.
