THE GAME

Kent State hosts Duquesne on Saturday for the annual Team IMPACT Day game. Tip from the M.A.C. Center is scheduled for 1 p.m., and fans are encouraged to participate in a post-game Teddy Bear Toss. All teddy bears will be donated to Caring for Kids in Stow.

The Golden Flashes return home for the first time since an 89-78 opening-night loss to Troy and were most recently in action at Northern Kentucky last Saturday. Kent State erased a nine-point deficit to start the fourth quarter and tied it the final minute on a three-pointer by Whitney Stafford but didn't score on the next two possessions and lost 61-58. Emory Klatt led the way with 16 points and eight rebounds. Talia Harris scored nine of her 12 points on four-of-five shooting to spark the late rally.

Kent State has won the turnover battle in both contests and averages the fewest turnovers per game (15.5) in the Mid-American Conference. The Flashes are second in the league in turnover margin (+6.0) and forced Northern Kentucky into 25 miscues, which is the most by a Division I opponent since Georgia Southern (26) on Dec. 19, 2019.

Riley Rismiller had a strong performance against Troy in the opener with 18 points on 6-of-9 shooting and nine rebounds. Emory Klatt has also been an efficient scorer and averages 14.0 ppg on 56.3 percent shooting, while also grabbing 7.0 rpg.

Corynne Hauser and Talia Harris have been a productive backcourt duo. Hauser averages 12.5 ppg and 4.0 apg, which is tied for third in the MAC. Harris has displayed versatility with averages of 10.0 ppg, 2.5 rpg, 2.5 apg and 1.5 spg

Duquesne has beaten Clarion and Marist since opening with a 109-62 setback to Tennessee in the opener. The Dukes held their opponents to a .325 shooting percentage in the two victories. Nadia Moore (20.0 ppg) had a career night against Marist on Wednesday and scored 33 points on 11-of-16 shooting. Carla Viegas (18.7 ppg), a transfer from Pitt, dropped 24 against the Lady Vols in her Dukes debut and followed with 27 points against Clarion. Viegas had made a team-high 15 three-pointers.

THE GOLDEN FLASHES NICKNAME

The origin of the nickname "Golden Flashes" has been a topic of debate. According to documentation in Phillip Shiver's book, The Years of Youth, widely regarded as historically correct, the reason for Kent State's nickname is noted in a letter to Linda Baughman, dated Aug. 6, 1959. Merle Wagoner recalled that the change in the name of Kent State athletics teams from "Silver Foxes" to "Golden Flashes" occurred in 1926 after the dismissal of President John E. McGilvrey (Kent State's first nickname originated from McGilvrey, who had a silver fox farm east of campus).

With Acting President T. Howard Winters providing the impetus, a contest was held (with a $25 first prize) to select the new name. No special significance was attached to the winning suggestion, which was used first in 1927 by the basketball team after it had been approved by the student body and the faculty athletic committee. Also laying claim to the origin was Oliver Wolcott, one-time Kent State grid great who played center on the 1921 and 1922 teams. As former sports editor of the Kent Courier Tribune, the local newspaper, the name "Silver Foxes" seemed pretty frail to him. So, during the 1927 football season, he began referring to the team as "Golden Flashes."

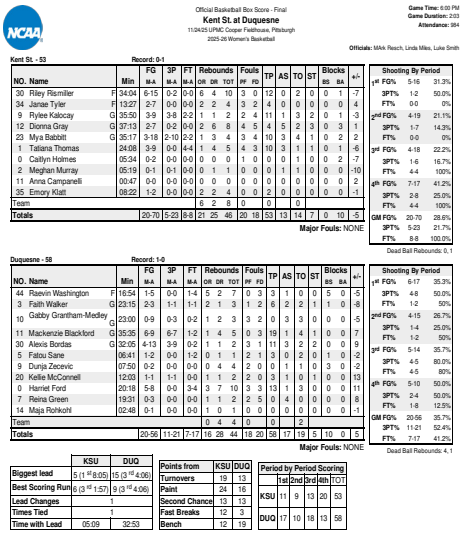

SERIES HISTORY

- Kent State is 6-8 all-time vs. Duquesne.
- The Dukes have won three of the last four matchups, including a 58-53 home victory last season.
- The Golden Flashes have won three straight at the M.A.C. Center and are 4-2 overall in home contests.
- The teams have split the eight meetings that have been played over the past decade.

FLASH BACK: (NOV. 24, 2025)

DUQUESNE 58, KENT STATE 53

- Kent State struggled to make shots and suffered a setback inside of UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse.
- It was the Golden Flashes who opened the game with stellar defense that prevented Duquesne from making a field goal until 4:21 remained in the first period.
- The Dukes made six of their final seven shots of the quarter to lead 17-11.
- Kent State trimmed the deficit to one late in the second before Duquesne went into the locker room with a 6-0 run.
- After trailing by as many as 15 points in the third period, the Flashes made it a two-possession game with 2:30 remaining but allowed an open three-pointer on the other end to push the deficit back to nine.
- Kent State finished 20-of-70 shooting for 28.6 percent.
- Riley Rismiller recorded a double-double with 12 points and game-high 10 rebounds.

The Fran Recchia era began on April 1, 2026, as the long-time assistant coach officially took over as the seventh head coach in Kent State women's basketball history.

Recchia transitions to the head coaching seat after being the Golden Flashes' lead assistant for the previous 10 seasons, including eight in the associate head coach position. Kent State totaled five postseason appearances and 179 victories, the second most among Mid-American Conference schools in the state of Ohio, during her decade in Kent. A MAC Tournament championship and return to the NCAA Tournament in 2024 highlight the program's successes, which also includes four WNIT appearances, two MAC East Division titles and four 20-win seasons.

The Flashes have beaten four Power 4 team during Recchia's time on staff, including a historic victory over No. 19 UCLA as part of the Gulf Coast Showcase on Nov. 26, 2021. This marked the highest-ranked opponent beaten in program history. Kent State has also defeated Penn State and Missouri on neutral courts and went into Stillwater and handed Oklahoma State its first loss of the Jacie Hoyt era.

Recchia has worked with both the point guard and wing groups during her time on staff, resulting directly in Flashes players earning three all-conference, two all-freshman team and one all-defensive team honors. Eight players who she coached or recruited have gone on to play professionally overseas.

Charged with spearheading recruiting efforts upon arriving at Kent State, Recchia helped land two of the highest-touted signing classes in school history in 2018 and 2019. Both classes had two student-athletes earn spots on the MAC All-Freshman Team, while only one other school had multiple honorees over the two seasons. Her five years as recruiting coordinator yielded six MAC All-Freshman Team selections.

In her first season on staff in 2016-17, Recchia helped guide Kent State to one of biggest turnarounds in NCAA Division I women's basketball, which concluded with a MAC East Division title and a WNIT postseason berth. The Golden Flashes compiled a 19-13 overall record, had the nation's largest RPI improvement, jumping 222 spots from the previous season, and were the fifth most-improved record in the country. MAC Player of the Year Larissa Lurken enjoyed a breakout senior season under Recchia's tutelage, setting program records for points (752) and scoring average (23.5 ppg) while making a NCAA Division I record 280 free throws. She was the only Division I player in the nation that averaged 20 points, six rebounds, two assists, two three-pointers, one steal and one blocked shot per game.

Before arriving in Kent, Recchia had spent five of the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Radford. Upon returning in 2013, she served as the program's recruiting coordinator and was responsible for wing player development, scouting, academics and compliance. Overall, she helped guide the Highlanders to one WNIT appearance and two Big South runner-up finishes while mentoring five All-Big South selections.

Recchia served as an assistant coach at Tusculum College in Greeneville, Tennessee during the 2012-13 season and was head coach at William Byrd High School in Vinton, Virginia from 2007-10.

Prior to that, she spent five years at Virginia Tech, playing guard from 2001-05 and then serving as a graduate assistant during the 2005-06 season. She helped the Hokies to four 20-win seasons and five postseason appearances, including four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

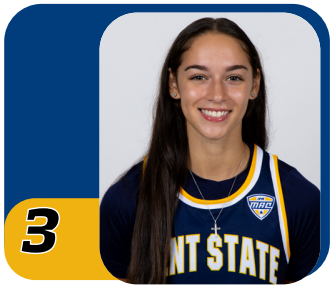

A 2004 graduate with a bachelor's degree in physical education from Virginia Tech, Recchia earned a master's degree in education in 2006.
