THE GAME

The Kent State women's basketball program will take the court for the first time under the leadership of first-year head coach Fran Recchia on Monday, as Troy visits the M.A.C. Center for a MAC-Sun Belt Challenge contest to open the 2026-27 season.

Recchia, who was the Golden Flashes' top assistant coach for the past decade, was able to retain the majority of the personnel from last season. Assistant coaches Mary Dunn, Alexa Golden and Paige Salisbury remain on staff, and former director of basketball operations Alison Seberger returns as an assistant coach after gaining valuable experience coaching at three other schools over the past seven seasons. Additionally, the roster includes seven student-athletes who have combined to play in 333 games in a Kent State uniform.

Janae Tyler is the most decorated of the returners having earned All-MAC honorable mention accolades in 2025. Tyler enters the year with career averages of 10.5 ppg and 4.4 rpg, and has converted 54 percent of her shots as a Flash. Riley Rismiller and Emory Klatt join her to provide Kent State with one of the top interior trios in the Mid-American Conference. Rismiller averaged 8.2 ppg and a team-high 5.9 rpg last season, while Klatt was named MAC Sixth Player of the Year with 6.3 ppg on 59.7 percent shooting and 4.5 rpg.

Corynne Hauser provides a veteran presence in the backcourt and boasts career averages of 9.1 ppg and 3.0 apg. Anna Campanelli (4.7 ppg) averaged 6.2 ppg and shot better than 40 percent from three-point range after moving into the starting lineup for the final 11 last season. Journey Hildebrand (5.2 ppg) and Caitlyn Holmes (3.6 ppg) were also part of the perimeter rotation a year ago.

Troy enters the season at No. 18 in the Mid-Major Top 25 and were picked second in the Sun Belt preseason poll. Troy tied its program record with 25 wins last season and has led the nation in rebounds per game each of the past nine seasons.

Aniya Hubbard, who was voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team, averaged 15.5 ppg and 5.4 rpg over two seasons (2022-23 and 2023-24) at Florida Atlantic. She earned C-USA Freshman of the Year, all-conference second team and all-defensive honors as a freshman in 2023. Aniya Finger earned HBCU All-America Second Team honors last season at NC Central and posted averages of 11.8 ppg and 6.1 rpg.

KENT STATE IN SEASON OPENERS

- Kent State is 25-26 all-time in season openers after setbacks to Sun Belt champion James Madison each of the past two years.
- The Golden Flashes have gone 5-5 in openers over the past 10 seasons while first-year head coach Fran Recchia has been on the staff.
- Only three of the last 10 openers have been played at the M.A.C. Center, beginning with a 77-52 victory over Bradley in 2016 and followed by losses to Florida State (71-80) in 2022 and James Madison (56-67) in 2024.

THE GOLDEN FLASHES NICKNAME

The origin of the nickname "Golden Flashes" has been a topic of debate. According to documentation in Phillip Shiver's book, The Years of Youth, widely regarded as historically correct, the reason for Kent State's nickname is noted in a letter to Linda Baughman, dated Aug. 6, 1959. Merle Wagoner recalled that the change in the name of Kent State athletics teams from "Silver Foxes" to "Golden Flashes" occurred in 1926 after the dismissal of President John E. McGilvrey (Kent State's first nickname originated from McGilvrey, who had a silver fox farm east of campus).

With Acting President T. Howard Winters providing the impetus, a contest was held (with a $25 first prize) to select the new name. No special significance was attached to the winning suggestion, which was used first in 1927 by the basketball team after it had been approved by the student body and the faculty athletic committee. Also laying claim to the origin was Oliver Wolcott, one-time Kent State grid great who played center on the 1921 and 1922 teams. As former sports editor of the Kent Courier Tribune, the local newspaper, the name "Silver Foxes" seemed pretty frail to him. So, during the 1927 football season, he began referring to the team as "Golden Flashes."

KENT STATE IN MAC-SUN BELT CHALLENGE

- Kent State is 3-3 all-time in MAC-Sun Belt Challenge play, which began during the 2023-24 campaign.

The Fran Recchia era began on April 1, 2026, as the long-time assistant coach officially took over as the seventh head coach in Kent State women's basketball history.

Recchia transitions to the head coaching seat after being the Golden Flashes' lead assistant for the previous 10 seasons, including eight in the associate head coach position. Kent State totaled five postseason appearances and 179 victories, the second most among Mid-American Conference schools in the state of Ohio, during her decade in Kent. A MAC Tournament championship and return to the NCAA Tournament in 2024 highlight the program's successes, which also includes four WNIT appearances, two MAC East Division titles and four 20-win seasons.

The Flashes have beaten four Power 4 team during Recchia's time on staff, including a historic victory over No. 19 UCLA as part of the Gulf Coast Showcase on Nov. 26, 2021. This marked the highest-ranked opponent beaten in program history. Kent State has also defeated Penn State and Missouri on neutral courts and went into Stillwater and handed Oklahoma State its first loss of the Jacie Hoyt era.

Recchia has worked with both the point guard and wing groups during her time on staff, resulting directly in Flashes players earning three all-conference, two all-freshman team and one all-defensive team honors. Eight players who she coached or recruited have gone on to play professionally overseas.

Charged with spearheading recruiting efforts upon arriving at Kent State, Recchia helped land two of the highest-touted signing classes in school history in 2018 and 2019. Both classes had two student-athletes earn spots on the MAC All-Freshman Team, while only one other school had multiple honorees over the two seasons. Her five years as recruiting coordinator yielded six MAC All-Freshman Team selections.

In her first season on staff in 2016-17, Recchia helped guide Kent State to one of biggest turnarounds in NCAA Division I women's basketball, which concluded with a MAC East Division title and a WNIT postseason berth. The Golden Flashes compiled a 19-13 overall record, had the nation's largest RPI improvement, jumping 222 spots from the previous season, and were the fifth most-improved record in the country. MAC Player of the Year Larissa Lurken enjoyed a breakout senior season under Recchia's tutelage, setting program records for points (752) and scoring average (23.5 ppg) while making a NCAA Division I record 280 free throws. She was the only Division I player in the nation that averaged 20 points, six rebounds, two assists, two three-pointers, one steal and one blocked shot per game.

Before arriving in Kent, Recchia had spent five of the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Radford. Upon returning in 2013, she served as the program's recruiting coordinator and was responsible for wing player development, scouting, academics and compliance. Overall, she helped guide the Highlanders to one WNIT appearance and two Big South runner-up finishes while mentoring five All-Big South selections.

Recchia served as an assistant coach at Tusculum College in Greeneville, Tennessee during the 2012-13 season and was head coach at William Byrd High School in Vinton, Virginia from 2007-10.

Prior to that, she spent five years at Virginia Tech, playing guard from 2001-05 and then serving as a graduate assistant during the 2005-06 season. She helped the Hokies to four 20-win seasons and five postseason appearances, including four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

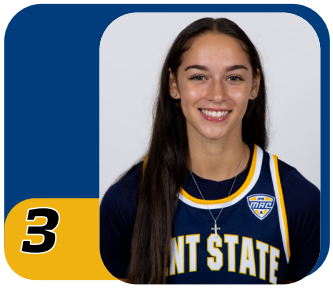

A 2004 graduate with a bachelor's degree in physical education from Virginia Tech, Recchia earned a master's degree in education in 2006.
