NO. 22 K-STATE OPENS BIG 12 PLAY AT OKLAHOMA STATE

Following an impressive 31-24 comeback victory at No. 23 Mississippi State and a bye week, No. 24/22 Kansas State begins its Big 12 slate on Saturday at Oklahoma State. The game will kick at 6 p.m., and be shown on Big 12 Now on ESPN+ with Mark Neely (play-by-play), Ray Bentley (analyst) and Ed Aschoff (reporter) on the call.

The game can be heard across the 39-station K-State Sports Network with Wyatt Thompson (play-by-play), former K-State quarterback Stan Weber (analyst) and Matt Walters (sidelines) calling the action. The game can also be heard on SiriusXM (S: 134; XM: 200; Internet: 954) in addition to the TuneIn app.

A LOOK AT K-STATE

• K-State has opened the Chris Klieman era with three impressive victories as the Wildcats defeated Nicholls and Bowling Green by a combined score of 101-14, and it followed that up with the win at No. 23 Mississippi State.

• The victory at MSU marked the first time in program history that K-State won a road game against an SEC team that was in the league at the time of the game. K-State had previously been 0-11 in such games.

• The Wildcats went from not receiving any votes in either the Amway Coaches or Associated Press polls two weeks ago to ranking No. 22 in the Amway Coaches Poll and 24th in this week's Associated Press Top 25.

• K-State's offense has been propelled by a rushing attack that has averaged 280.0 yards per game to rank seventh in the nation. The Wildcats also have 12 rushing touchdowns to tie for seventh nationally in rushing scores after tallying only 20 rushing scores a year ago.

• The rushing attack has been anchored by a pair of graduate transfers in seniors James Gilbert (277 yards) and Jordon Brown (154 yards), in addition to junior Harry Trotter (97 yards). K-State backs have accounted for 10 rushing touchdowns after the group only had 13 a year ago.

• The backs have an experienced offensive line in front of them as there are five senior starters, led by 41-game starter Scott Frantz (left tackle), 33-game starter Tyler Mitchell (right guard) and 28-game starter Adam Holtorf (center).

• Skylar Thompson has been one of the most efficient signal callers in the country as he ranks fifth nationally in ESPN's QBR.

• The K-State defense has been one of the nation's best through four weeks as the Wildcats rank second in third down defense (16.1%), second in passing defense (118.7 yds/gm), ninth in total defense (256.0 yds/gm) and 13th in scoring defense (12.7 points/gm).

• Safety Denzel Goolsby, who earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors following the MSU game, and linebacker Da'Quan Patton lead the team with 15 tackles apiece.

• Cornerback AJ Parker has a team-high two interceptions, while Daniel Green, Kyle Ball and Trey Dishon each have a sack this season.

▼ A K-STATE WIN WOULD...

• Make K-State 4-0 for the 18th time in school history, the 12th time since 1993 and the first time since 2012.

• Be K-State's 12th Big 12-opening win since the league's inception in 1996.

• Give the Wildcats their 11th win in their first Big 12 road game since the league's inception in 1996 and the first since winning at No. 11 Oklahoma in 2014.

• Make Chris Klieman the first coach in program history to win his first four games as head coach.

• Give Klieman his 25th-straight win as a head coach.

• Make Klieman-led teams 18-0 in games immediately following in-season bye weeks.

CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website, located at www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 225 of the 2019 K-State Football Media Guide.

Due to inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

WEEKLY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Tuesdays: Head coach Chris Klieman hosts a weekly news conference in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre of the Vanier Family Football Complex. Lunch will be served at noon followed by Klieman's press conference at 12:30 p.m. Requested players are available from 1 p.m., to 2 p.m. Player requests must be submitted to Ryan Lackey by 12 p.m., on Mondays.

Wednesdays: Players who are requested and not available on Tuesdays due to scheduling conflicts will be made available on Wednesday from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m., in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre of the Vanier Family Football Complex. Additionally, four non-coordinator assistant coaches (two on offense, two on defense) will be available for a 15-minute breakout session beginning at 2 p.m.

Thursdays: Offensive coordinator Courtney Messingham and defensive coordinator Scottie Hazelton will hold interviews for 10 minutes apiece beginning at 2 p.m. These will also take place in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre at the Vanier Family Football Complex.

PRESS CONFERENCE VIDEO

Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of press conferences on Tuesday and Thursday will available for download in the afternoons on those respective days. Please contact Ryan Lackey for FTP access instructions.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

K-State's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey at the start of the fourth quarter. During home games, Coach Klieman will address the media in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre on the third floor of the Vanier Family Football Complex, followed by the requested players. To get to the theater, proceed to the concourse and walk toward the Vanier Family Football Complex. Enter the first set of double doors and take an immediate left into the theater. On the road, these interviews will take place either in the designated visiting interview area or outside the visiting locker room.

WEEKLY BIG 12 TELECONFERENCE

The weekly Big 12 Coaches Teleconference is held each Monday morning throughout the season. If you wish to participate, please email joni@big12sports.com with your name, affiliation and phone number to obtain the media dial-in number. The number will not be distributed over the phone.

INTO THE RANKINGS

• Kansas State went from unranked and not receiving votes in either the Amway Coaches Poll or AP Top 25 the first three weeks of 2019 to being ranked No. 22 in the Coaches poll and 24th in the AP poll this week.

• It is the first time K-State has been ranked in both polls since the third week of 2017 (Sept. 10, 2017) when the Wildcats were No. 18 in both polls.

CONFERENCE OPENERS

• K-State is 11-12 all-time in Big 12 openers after last year's loss at No. 12 West Virginia.

• The Cats are only 1-3 in their last four Big 12 openers.

BIG 12 ROAD OPENERS

• Opening Big 12 play on the road is nothing new to the Wildcats as this weekend will be the 19th time in the 24-year history of the conference that K-State will open league play away from home (17 road, 2 neutral), including the seventh time in the last eight years.

• The Wildcats are 10-13 all-time in their first Big 12 road game of the season and are looking for a win in their inaugural conference road game of the season since a 32-28 triumph at Iowa State in 2014.

TWO OF THE BIG 12'S BEST

• Saturday's matchup between K-State and Oklahoma State features two teams that rank in the top four in Big 12 wins since the league's inception in 1996. The Wildcats rank third with 113 Big 12 wins, while Oklahoma State is fourth with 102 victories.

• The Wildcats also rank third in the conference in winning percentage since round-robin play began in 2011. They sit at .611 (44-28), trailing only Oklahoma (.819; 59-13) and Oklahoma State (.655; 47-26).

A NEW ERA

• The new era of K-State Football under Chris Klieman has opened with three wins.

• Klieman, who was named the 35th head coach in school history on December 10, 2018, is just the fourth head coach in K-State history to start 3-0 and could become the first in program history to begin his tenure 4-0 with a win at Oklahoma State.

• Additionally, Klieman-led teams have won 24-straight games as the last loss was when his North Dakota State squad suffered a 33-21 setback at South Dakota State on November 4, 2017.

A WINNING HISTORY

• A proven winner with a championship history, Chris Klieman came to Manhattan after capping his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018.

• Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, making NDSU just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship.

• A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman has a career record of 75-13 (.852), as he went 69-6 in his five seasons at North Dakota State, 3-7 in one year as the head coach at Division III Loras College in 2005 and 3-0 so far at K-State.

• Klieman's overall winning percentage ranks third among all active NCAA coaches – regardless of division – and tops among active FBS coaches.

5.	Tony Annese	Ferris State (D3)	.839

VERY EFFICIENT

• K-State has been one of the most efficient teams in the nation through the first four weeks as the Wildcats rank eighth in the country in team efficiency according to ESPN.

• One of the main reasons the Wildcats rank highly in efficiency is due to the fact they are the only team in the nation to rank in the top five in third-down conversions (4th), third-down defense (2nd) and time of possession (3rd).

YOUNG PUPS

• K-State's roster features 60 total freshmen (true and redshirt), which equates to 47.2 percent of its total squad.

• The 60 freshmen are the eighth most in the nation.

• The Wildcats played 20 total freshmen (combined true and redshirt) in their season opener, which ranked seventh in the nation.

• In week two against Bowling Green, the Wildcats played 32 freshmen.

THESE CATS ARE SMART

• Kansas State has been one of the top teams in the Big 12 in terms of performance in the classroom as the Wildcats lead the league with 135 All-Big 12 honors over the last five seasons.

• The Wildcats have 29 more than the next closest team, Oklahoma State (106), and the Wildcats and Cowboys are the only two programs to top 100 academic all-conference honors since 2014.

• Additionally, Kansas State is tied for first in the nation with SMU by having 21 graduates on its current roster.

HIGH T.O.P.

• K-State enters conference play ranked third nationally and first in the Big 12 in time of possession at 36:58.

• The Wildcats' best season time of possession average since 1985 was 33:55 during the 2011 season.

• K-State possessed the ball for a total of 41:09 against Nicholls, the most in the nation in the opening weekend. The Wildcats followed that up with 42:52 against Bowling Green to rank as the most is the most by at K-State team since at least 1988, while it ranked eighth in Big 12 history and was the most by a Big 12 team since 2011.

TRACKING THE REDSHIRTS

• Three true freshmen played in the season opener in linebacker Levi Archer, fullback Jax Dineen and wide receiver Joshua Youngblood, while 11 true freshmen played against Bowling Green.

• Against the Falcons, the Wildcats used a total of 88 players, while eight of the 11 true freshmen saw the first action of their career.

BUILDING DEPTH

• The 88 players that played in the Bowling Green game are the most for the Wildcats in a single game since at least 2003. The next closest was 75 against FAU in 2016.

• K-State showed from the beginning that it will play multiple players as 20 Wildcats played on the season-opening offensive drive against Nicholls. However, six of those remained constant with the offensive line and quarterback Skylar Thompson staying in the entire drive.

• Of the other five offensive positions, 14 Wildcats rotated into the game for an average of 2.8 players per spot on the 12-play drive.

CATS TOPS IN NON-OFFENSIVE TDs

• K-State is the nation's best in non-offensive touchdowns over the last 20-plus seasons as it has 114 since 1999, nine more than the next closest team.

• Entering the season, the Wildcats were averaging 5.6 non-offensive touchdowns per year since 1999, while the yearly average for the other 105 teams to play FBS football since 1999 was 3.3.

• Kansas State's average is boosted by the fact that it has at least five non-offensive touchdowns in six of the last eight years.

• K-State has two non-offensive touchdowns this season, a 25-yard fumble return by Jonathan Alexander against Nicholls and a 100-yard kickoff return by Malik Knowles at Mississippi State, the latter earning Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

CONTROLLING THE TEMPO

• K-State has showcased a balanced offense in the opening three games, highlighted by a 280.0-yard average on the ground to rank second in the Big 12 and seventh nationally.

• The Wildcats had 573 yards of total offense against Nicholls, which tied for the seventh most in school history and were the most ever in a season opener.

• With 521 yards against Bowling Green, K-State eclipsed the 500-yard total offense mark in the first two games of a season for the first time ever.

NO OFFENSIVE TURNOVERS

• Through four weeks of play, Kansas State is the only team in the nation that has not lost a turnover on offense. Of the Wildcats' four lost fumbles this year, three are on punt returns and one is on an interception return.

• It is the first time since at least 1961 that K-State did not have an offensive turnover through three games. The closest in recent history are the 2002 and 2017 squads that lost their first offensive turnover in the third game.

CONVERT AT A HIGH RATE

• K-State has converted on 22-of-38 third downs through three games as the Cats rank fourth nationally with a 57.9% conversion rate.

• In the opener, K-State converted on 10-of-12 third downs (.833), a mark that was not only the highest in week one of the season but also the second highest in Big 12 history.

• The Wildcats' rate against Nicholls was also the highest by K-State since at least 1989.

RUN TO WIN

• The Wildcats have shown that they will establish the run from the outset of 2019 as they rank seventh nationally by averaging 280.0 rushing yards per game.

• K-State carded over 300 yards rushing in each of the first two games, marking the first time since at least 1965 that the Wildcats went over the 300-yard mark twice to open a season.

• Kansas State's 840 total rushing yards in the first three games are the most since at least 1949. It is only the fourth time during that stretch that K-State has over 800 rushing yards in the first three games, joining the 2001 (806 yards), 1997 (804 yards) and 1957 (828 yards) teams.

• Six different Wildcats have tallied rushing touchdowns this year for a team total of 12. Last year K-State had 20 total rushing touchdowns in 12 games.

• The Wildcats' 4.0 rushing touchdowns per game mark is tied for second in the nation behind Louisiana (4.5).

• K-State running backs have accounted for 10 rushing touchdowns this season after the position group only had 13 in 2018.

SKYLAR IN CHARGE

• Junior Skylar Thompson is now entrenched as the starting quarterback after splitting starting duties in 2017 and 2018.

• Thompson ranks fourth in school history in completion percentage (minimum 300 attempts) at 60.76-percent, while his 136.61 career passing efficiency rating ranks fifth in K-State history.

• Additionally, the Independence, Missouri, native has 2,566 career passing yards to rank 15th in school history, while his 28 touchdown responsible for in his career are four away from tying for 10th.

HIGHLY EFFICIENT

• Skylar Thompson has proven to be one of the most efficient quarterbacks in the nation so far as evidenced by his 91.1 Total QBR by ESPN to rank fifth in the country.

▼ TOTAL QBR (via ESPN)

5.	Skylar Thompson	K-State	91.1

ICE IN HIS VEINS

• Skylar Thompson has shown he can have a calming effect in the huddle when games come down to the wire.

• Thompson has led the Wildcats on three touchdown drives in the fourth quarter or later to either tie or take the lead, the latest being at Mississippi State when he threw a touchdown pass with 5:37 left to take a 31-24 lead.

• As a redshirt freshman in 2017, Thompson led a drive and scored on a 1-yard run at Texas Tech to tie the game with 0:42 left. He then threw a touchdown pass on the first possession of overtime for a 42-35 win.

• Three weeks later in the regular-season finale against Iowa State, Thompson threw a touchdown pass with no time left for a 20-19 victory.

• Senior running back James Gilbert began his K-State career with a with a pair of 100-yard games, going for 115 yards against Nicholls and 103 against Bowling Green.

• The Ball State transfer was the first Wildcat with consecutive 100-yard games to open a season since John Hubert in 2012.

• With 3,083 career yards, Gilbert ranks fifth nationally among active players.

VETERAN O-LINE

• The 2019 K-State offensive line is one of senior leadership as all five players who have started the first three games are seniors.

• The five starters along the line have combined for 109 starts at K-State with a majority of those coming from left tackle Scott Frantz (41), right guard Tyler Mitchell (33) center Adam Holtorf (28).

• Frantz has started every game since the beginning of 2016, a span of 41-straight starts. His 41 starts rank sixth among Wildcat offensive linemen since 1990.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

GOOD START ON DEFENSE

• K-State currently leads the Big 12 and ranks second nationally in passing defense (118.7), while the Wildcats rank first in the league in total defense (256.0) and scoring defense (12.7). The latter two figures rank ninth and 13th in the country, respectively.

• The Cats held Bowling Green to 140 total yards, marking the first time since the 2011 Eastern Kentucky game (129) that an opponent under had fewer than 150 yards.

• Bowling Green was also 0-for-11 on third downs, marking the first time since the 2003 KU game that the Wildcats have held an opponent to zero first downs (0-11). It was also the first time since 2011 that a Big 12 team did not allow a third down conversion.

• K-State held Bowling Green to just five first downs, the fewest it allowed since North Texas also had five in 2005.

WELL RESTED

• Not only is the K-State defense rested after a bye week, but the Wildcats are one of the nation's leaders in fewest defensive snaps played.

• K-State has defended against just 156 plays in its three games as the Wildcats' 52.0 defensive snaps per game rank second in the nation to Iowa (51.7).

UNDER AVERAGE

• Kansas State generally held its opponents under their season scoring averages over the past several years, and 2019 is shaping up to be more of the same.

▼ SCORING AVERAGE DIFFERENCE

Nicholls	32.3*	14	-18.3
Bowling Green	46.0	0	-46.0
Mississippi State	38.0	24	-14.0

 PPG Average from 2018*

GETTING OFF THE FIELD

• The K-State defense has excelled on getting off the field on third down during the first three games of the year as the Wildcats rank second in the nation in third down defense (16.1%) behind Wisconsin (10.5%)

• The Wildcats are allowing only 1.67 third down conversions per game, ranking second in the country.

• K-State has already forced opponents to 14 three-and-out possessions after just 19 such occurrences all of last season. It is the most 3-and-outs by the Wildcat defense through three games since the 2008 team also had 14.

• The Cats forced eight 3-and-outs against Bowling Green, the most since forcing nine against North Texas in 2005.

GREAT BOOKENDS

• Defensive ends Reggie Walker and Wyatt Hubert were continually in the opposing backfield last season, and the duo is back again in 2019.

• Walker, a Preseason All-Big 12 selection, is tied for 11th nationally among active players with 16.0 career sacks, while he is tied for second in the country with eight career forced fumbles.

• Coming into the season, Hubert ranked second and Walker was tied for third among returning Big 12 edge defenders in terms of QB pressures a year ago according to Pro Football Focus. Hubert got home 34 times on the year, while Walker was at 33.

▼ WILDCATS IN THE NFL

With the NFL in the midst of its 100th season, K-State currently has 11 players NFL rosters. Of the 11 players, seven are on offense and four are on defense. The longest-tenured former Wildcat is Darren Sproles (15th year; Philadelphia), while Tyler Lockett (Seattle) and Cornelius Lucas (Chicago) are set to begin their fifth seasons.

K-State has two players from last year's squad on NFL rosters, which includes second-round draft pick Dalton Risner (Denver) and sixth-round pick Duke Shelley (Chicago). Their selections extended K-State's Big 12-leading streak with at least one player selected in the NFL Draft to a Big 12-record 26 years.

BACK FOR MORE

• Sophomore defensive end Wyatt Hubert had an outstanding rookie campaign in 2018 as he earned Freshman All-America honors from USA TODAY Sports after carding 8.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

• Hubert led all Big 12 freshmen in TFLs per game (0.71), while he was second among freshmen in sacks per game (0.38), the latter ranking third in the nation.

REGGIE CLOSING IN

• Senior defensive end Reggie Walker is closing in on one school record and is close to entering the top 10 in two other categories.

• The Ponchatoula, Louisiana, native has eight career forced fumbles to tie for third in school history and is one shy of tying the school record of nine held by Darren Howard (1996-99) and Grady Newton (1983-87).

• Walker also has 16.0 career sacks to sit two away from entering the school's top-10 list, while his 30.0 tackles for loss are nine shy of entering the record book.

• If Walker can get to 40.0 TFLs and 20.0 sacks, he would become just the fifth Wildcat to reach both benchmarks.

STOUT UP THE MIDDLE

• Not to be outdone by the edge, the interior of the defensive line also has a bevy of experience as senior Trey Dishon has started 40 games, including 38-straight.

• Senior Jordan Mittie has taken a hold of the other tackle spot in 2019. A career 34-game starter, which includes 24 starts in two seasons at Texas State, Mittie had perhaps his best game as a Wildcat at Mississippi State when he had a K-State career-high seven tackles – two shy of his overall career high – and a tackle for loss.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

• Kansas State has been far and away the best team among FBS programs over the last 15 years when it comes to scoring via a kickoff or punt return.

• The Wildcats have a combined 49 kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005, 20 more than any other FBS school during that stretch.

• After only having one in 2018 – a punt-return score in the season opener – Malik Knowles got things going in 2019 with a 100-yard return at Mississippi State.

T2.	Oklahoma State	29
	Oregon	29
	USC	29
T5.	Alabama	28
	North Carolina	28

DEFENSE IN THE THIRD PHASE

• On the flip side, K-State has been just as consistent in terms of kickoff coverage.

• The Cats have not allowed a kickoff-return touchdown in the last 78 games as the last was against Louisiana on Sept. 7, 2013. During that stretch, K-State has defended against 298 kickoff returns.

• K-State has ranked in the top 30 nationally in kickoff return defense each of the last five seasons. The high-water mark during that stretch was a No. 2 national ranking in 2017 when the Wildcats allowed just 16.6 yards per return.

LYNCH IS ACCURATE

• A former walk-on, Blake Lynch has proven to be an accurate kicker as he currently ranks 11th nationally among active players in career field goal percentage at 84.2% (16-for-19).

• Lynch, who earned a scholarship after the first game in 2018, finished the 2018 season by going 14-of-16 (87.5-percent) as he ranked 12th in the nation and third in school history in field goal percentage.

• A 2019 Lou Groza Award candidate, Lynch also led the Big 12 and ranked 14th nationally in field goals per game (1.56) a year ago.

ANCTIL HAS A STRONG LEG

• A 2019 Ray Guy Award candidate after earning Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors last year, Devin Anctil has averaged 45.6 yards on his eight punts, a mark that would rank 22nd nationally if he had the required minimum of attempts.

• He set a new career high in average at Mississippi State with a 50.6-yard average, a game that featured three punts that traveled 50 yards or more.

• Anctil, a product of Lenexa, Kansas, held a 43.6-yard average in six games last season to rank sixth in school history. He would have led the Big 12 and ranked 25th nationally if he played in the minimum amount of games.

KNOWLES TO THE HOUSE

• Redshirt freshman Malik Knowles turned momentum over to the Wildcats in the fourth quarter at Mississippi State when he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a game-tying touchdown.

• It was the seventh 100-yard return in school history (first since Morgan Burns vs. Iowa State in 2015) and just the third in a road game in school history (Tyler Lockett at Texas Tech in 2011).

• Knowles, who totaled 124 kickoff-return yards against the Bulldogs, was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week.

▼ OSU AT A GLANCE

- The Cowboys head into the matchup with a 3-1 record following a 36-30 loss at No. 12 Texas last week.
- The offense is dynamic with quarterback Spencer Sanders, running back Chuba Hubbard and wide receiver Tylan Wallace.
- Sanders has thrown for seven touchdowns and 890 yards and also is the team's second-leading rusher.
- Hubbard is one of the nation's top running backs, averaging 160.5 yards per game and totaling 9 rushing touchdowns.
- Wallace leads the Big 12 in receiving yards per game at 118.2 and has six receiving touchdowns.
- On defense, Malcolm Rodriguez leads the team with 38 tackles, while Amen Ogbongbemiga has 36, including 6.0 for losses.

▼ SERIES NOTES

- Oklahoma State leads the all-time series, 26-39, but K-State leads the series, 8-7, since the Big 12 began in 1996.
- Games between the Wildcats and Cowboys have been hotly contested as of late with eight of the last 12 games being decided by a touchdown or less.
- The latter is especially true in Stillwater as the last six meetings at OSU have been decided by a touchdown or less and by an average margin of 4.0 points.
- Last season in Manhattan, K-State held a slim 6-3 lead at halftime before outscoring the Cowboys, 28-6, in the second half for a convincing 31-12 victory.
- Two years ago, Kansas State earned a 45-40 win over No. 10 Oklahoma State in Stillwater, the Wildcats' first win at OSU since 1999.
- In that game, Skylar Thompson threw for 204 yards and three touchdowns, while he ran for another.

▶ Game Notes

• The win, couped with last year's 45-40 victory over the 10th-ranked Cowboys in Stillwater, Kansas State earned consecutive victories over Oklahoma State for the first time since the end of a nine-game winning streak in 2002.

• Kansas State and Oklahoma State combined for nine total first half points... It was the fewest combined points in a half between the Wildcats and Cowboys since a scoreless second half in 1992.

• Junior Alex Barnes rushed for 181 yards and three touchdowns on a career-high 34 carries... Barnes moved into the top 10 in school history in career rushing yards, a mark that now stands at 2,049.

• With his 181 yards on Saturday, Alex Barnes has rushed for over 175 yards in the last two games... He is the first Wildcat with consecutive 175-yard games since Darren Sproles did so against Missouri (273) and Oklahoma (235) in 2003.

• Alex Barnes had a career-high 34 rushing attempts on Saturday... He became the first Wildcat with at least 30 attempts since Jess Ertz had 30 attempts against Oklahoma State in 2016, but he was the first Wildcat running back since John Hubert had 30 carries at Kansas in 2013.

• Duke Shelley recorded his seventh- and eighth-career interceptions with two picks against OSU... It was the second time in his career he had picks in consecutive games, doing so at Iowa State and against Oklahoma State in 2016... It was also Shelley's first career multiple interception game.

BARNES' 4 TDS ENERGIZES CATS OVER OSU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Junior running back Alex Barnes found the end zone on four occasions, while the defense held Oklahoma State to the fewest points in the series since 2002, as Kansas State defeated Oklahoma State 31-12 in front of a Homecoming crowd of 50,245 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

The Wildcats were led by Barnes, who rushed for 181 yards and four touchdowns, behind a career-high 34 attempts. Barnes' effort moved him into the top-10 in K-State history in rushing yards, while also surpassing the 2,000-yard plateau with 2,049 yards in his career.

Oklahoma State was held to 12 points, the lowest total in the series since 2002, when the Wildcats defeated the Cowboys 44-9. The Wildcat defense held Oklahoma State to 311 yards, while also forcing two turnovers from senior defensive back Duke Shelley.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Following a 319-yard rushing performance a week ago against Baylor, K-State hit the ground running again, accumulating 87 yards on the ground in the first quarter, including a 29-yard rush by Barnes. Despite the success on the ground, the Wildcats remained scoreless in the first quarter, while the Cowboys found points on a 48-yard field goal by place-kicker Matt Ammedola to make the score 3-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Upon opening the second quarter, the Wildcats capped off a 13-play, 50-yard drive that resulted in a 31-yard field goal from redshirt freshman Andrew Hicks as the score was knotted at 3-3 with 13:32 left in the half.

OSU converted on the field goal from 22-yards out later in the half, as Amendola connected on 2-of-2 field goals to give the Cowboys six points in the first half.

After no touchdowns in the first half, K-State was able to strike on its opening possession of the second half, as the Wildcats drove 70 yards down the field, capped off by an 11-yard rush by Barnes.

On the next possession, K-State went back to Barnes, where sophomore quarterback Skylar Thompson found Barnes on a wheel route for a 28-yard gain. The pass positioned the Wildcats in the red zone, as Barnes found the end zone from 1-yard out on a carry out of the Wildcat formation. K-State led 17-6 with 2:41 left in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Cowboys fought back behind a 1-yard touchdown rush by Cornelius to bring the score to 17-12 with 14:23 remaining in the game after the failed 2-point conversion.

K-State expanded its lead to 24-12 with another efficient drive in the fourth quarter, in which, the Wildcats drove down the field in 9 plays, spanning 75-yards and 4:42. Barnes found the end zone on his third touchdown of the game, this time from 8 yards out to put the score at 24-12 with 9:41 remaining.

K-State put the game out of reach late in the fourth quarter, when Barnes found the end-zone for the fourth time of the afternoon, making the score 31-12. On Oklahoma State's final possession, Shelley registered his second interception of the game to seal the ball game at 31-12.

CHRIS KLIEMAN

Head Coach

26th Year in Coaching • Seventh Year as a Head Coach

Northern Iowa '90, '92

Chris Klieman, a proven winner with a championship history, was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018.

Klieman (pronounced KLY-men) capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of all seven of NDSU's national championships, the most in FCS history.

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman as the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman finished first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

"I'm very excited to have Chris Klieman lead our program," Athletics Director Gene Taylor said at the time of Klieman's hiring. "He is a perfect fit for us, both from a personal standpoint and as a head coach. He's a tremendous teacher who I had the pleasure to hire at NDSU and watched him turn into a very successful coach. He will bring a ton of energy and excitement. His teams play extremely hard, disciplined football. He's a winner. That's all he does is win, and we're excited to have Chris, Rhonda and the entire Klieman family join our K-State family. They will be a great fit not only for Kansas State Football and Kansas State Athletics, but also the entire community of Manhattan."

"This is an absolute dream job," Klieman, a four-time finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award as the FCS Coach of the Year, said. "I'm so happy and thrilled to follow a legend in Coach Snyder. I've followed him from afar, went to his camps while playing in Waterloo, Iowa, and played against his Kansas State team when I was at Northern Iowa. The opportunity to follow in an icon's footsteps is something I don't take for granted and don't take lightly. I know I have huge shoes to fill, and I'm excited to carry on his legacy. I have prepared my entire life for this opportunity and had great experiences at many institutions, most notably North Dakota State, where we've had unmatched success over the last eight years. I can't express how pleased I am, and I thank President Myers, Gene Taylor and the search committee for trusting in me and handing over the keys to this great program."

Klieman holds a 75-13 record in his six-plus seasons overall as head coach, including a 69-6 mark at North Dakota State. His 85.2 winning percentage as a head coach is the third-highest mark by an active coach among all NCAA Divisions, while it was the top mark among FCS coaches that finished their season in 2018 by over eight percent.

Klieman's record is even more impressive considering 39 of his 69 wins at North Dakota State (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition – a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams have also been stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

"We're pleased to welcome Coach Klieman to Kansas State University," President Richard Myers said. "Athletic Director Gene Taylor conducted a high-quality, thorough search and we are confident Chris puts us in a great position for future success. We know he will receive the tremendous support for which we have become nationally known. This is a great time to be a Wildcat!"

Klieman's teams were a model of success at NDSU, ranking highly in many of the key statistical categories throughout his tenure. The Bison scoring offense ranked in the top 10 each of his final three seasons in Fargo, including a 41.5-points-per-game mark to rank sixth in 2018, and their total offense mark ranked in the top 20 the final two years, including a 271.7-yard mark in 2018 to rank 14th in the nation.

Klieman, who came up through the coaching ranks on defense, has always produced on that side of the ball as NDSU finished his final season ranked in the top 15 in red zone defense (1st), scoring defense (3rd) and total defense (5th). The Bison ranked in the top six in scoring and total defense in four of his five seasons as head coach, including a No. 1 national ranking in total defense in 2017 (237.4).

Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986-90. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

▶ Game Notes

• Head coach Chris Klieman earned a win in his first game leading the Wildcats... The 35-point victory by the Klieman-led Wildcats was the biggest margin of victory by a K-State head coach in their debut... The previous high was 31 points as the Ward Haylett-led Wildcats defeated Kansas Wesleyan, 37-6, in 1942.

• K-State finished the game with 573 yards of total offense, which tied for the seventh most for a game in school history and the most ever in a season opener.

• Kansas State finished the game with 361 rushing yards on 58 carries... It was the most rushing yards by any Wildcat team in a season opener since 1981, when the Wildcats rushed for 368 yards in a 31-10 home-opening win over South Dakota (9/12/81).

• Junior quarterback Skylar Thompson made his second-straight start in a season opener... He became the first Wildcat quarterback since Collin Klein (2011, 2012) to win two-consecutive season openers.

• Senior running back James Gilbert tallied a 100-yard game as he went for 115 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries... It was his ninth-career 100-yard game and first since the 2018 season opener against Central Connecticut when he was playing for Ball State... He was the first Wildcat to reach the 100-yard mark in their Wildcat debut since Daniel Thomas went for 104 yards against UMass on 2009.

• A total of 51,189 fans witnessed Saturday's game, marking the 11th-straight sellout of the Wildcats' season opener.

CATS RUN WILD, OPEN KLIEMAN ERA WITH WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Chris Klieman wasn't the only one making his K-State debut on Saturday night. Almost all of K-State's running backs were as well.

All left positive first impressions.

K-State won, 49-14, against Nicholls in front of a sold-out crowd. The Wildcats, who returned zero rushing yards from running backs from last season, amassed 361 rushing yards to open the Klieman era. It marked the most in a K-State season opener since at least 1981.

The Wildcats accomplished this behind, mostly, a trio of K-State newcomers: James Gilbert, Jordon Brown and Harry Trotter. Those three combined for 214 rushing yards, led by Gilbert's 115 yards on 18 carries. Each of them had one touchdown, all coming in a first half that K-State dominated by a 28-0 margin.

Tyler Burns, who returned to K-State's program after a season away, joined the rushing fray late on Saturday. He rushed for 60 yards on 10 attempts, including 56 yards on nine carries on K-State's final scoring drive about midway through the fourth quarter. He finished it with a 1-yard touchdown plunge.

For a position group that started all but empty when Klieman and his staff took over, depth did not look to be an issue after nine months of work.

Gilbert, a graduate transfer from Ball State, became the first Wildcat to eclipse 100 yards rushing in his first K-State game since Daniel Thomas in 2009. Gilbert's longest run, a 24-yard scamper in the second quarter, finished one of K-State's five scoring drives of at least 10 plays.

Trotter, a junior who sat out last season after transferring from Louisville, collected 50 yards on 10 carries. The Atchison native ran through multiple tackles on a 9-yard touchdown run that capped a 12-play, 72-yard drive to open the game. K-State followed with three straight scoring drives.

Brown, a graduate transfer from North Carolina who joined the team in July, added in 49 yards on 11 carries. He scored on a 14-yard run early in the second quarter, but he also snagged a pair of passes for 28 yards from redshirt junior quarterback Skylar Thompson, who finished 16-of-22 through the air for 212 yards and a touchdown.

The run game set the tone, helping K-State eat up more than 41 minutes of clock. But the defense factored into that as well.

K-State allowed only 17 yards in the first quarter and 64 in the first half. AJ Parker jumped a pass for an interception on Nicholls' second offensive play of the day, setting up K-State's second touchdown. The Colonels did not get a first down until the second quarter and finished with only two in the opening half.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jonathan Alexander forced a fumble and scooped it for a 25-yard touchdown. He celebrated with a sledgehammer on the sideline, part of K-State's "Pound the Stone" mantra that Klieman said the team fully bought into coming into this season.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State started 2-0 for the second time in the last three seasons and the eighth time in the last 12 years... Head coach Chris Klieman became the seventh coach in school history to win their first two games... Saturday's victory marked the 23rd-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• Kansas State broke the 500-yard mark of total offense for a second-straight game as the Wildcats racked up 521 yards on Saturday and 573 yards last week against Nicholls... It was the first time in school history that K-State began the season with two-straight games of 500 yards total offense, while it was the first overall since 2003... That season, the Wildcats had 502 yards at Iowa State followed by 561 yards at Nebraska.

• Kansas State finished the game with 333 rushing yards on 58 carries... Paired with last week's 361 rushing yards against Nicholls, it was the first time since at least 1965 that the Wildcats started with two-consecutive outings of 300 rushing yards... It was the first time overall with consecutive 300-yard games since playing Kansas (342) and TCU (336) in 2016.

• Following five rushing scores last week, Kansas State added five more on Saturday to bring the season total to 10... It was the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first two games of the season since the 2002 team had 10 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe)... Of the 10 rushing touchdowns this season, 9 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

CATS DOMINATE BOTH SIDES OF BALL IN 52-0 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Different opponent, same dominance.

K-State totaled 521 yards of offense, allowed less than 150 yards on defense and rolled to a 52-0 win against Bowling Green.

Like last week, the Wildcats' extreme command of the game could be seen early and all over the field, including the sideline. That's where K-State's defense spent more than 22 minutes in the first half and 42 minutes for the game.

K-State's defense barely played half that on Saturday, with Bowling Green only getting 44 plays of offense.

The Falcons also went 0-for-11 on third down conversions and 0-for-2 on fourth, but the tone was set early. In Bowling Green's first four drives, the Wildcats forced three three-and-outs. They finished with eight such series en route to their first shutout since blanking South Dakota in 2015.

K-State allowed only three first downs and 81 yards of offense in the first half, which ended with the Wildcats up 38-0 — their largest halftime lead since a 42-0 advantage over Florida Atlantic in 2016. Bowling Green finished with a meager 140 yards of total offense against K-State's swarming defense — the first time the Wildcats have limited an opponent to less than 150 since 2011 against Eastern Kentucky.

K-State's offense returned the favor.

The Wildcats scored on their first seven drives in the game. After settling for a 24-yard field goal from Blake Lynch on the first drive of the game, the Wildcats finished their next six drives in the end zone.

K-State's 333 rushing yards helped push the team over 500 yards of total offense. It marked the first time in program history that K-State eclipsed 500 yards of total offense in its first two games of the season and the first time since 2003 for any two-game stretch.

Explosive plays and players were a big part of this.

Jordon Brown broke off a 50-yard touchdown run in the first quarter for K-State's first touchdown. James Gilbert, who recorded 103 yards for his second consecutive game over the century mark, picked up nearly half on a 51-yard scamper in the second quarter. Gilbert scored on the next play, his second touchdown of the day.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson continued to display his trust in redshirt freshman receiver Malik Knowles. Thompson, who finished 10-of-13 for 151 yards, targeted Knowles six times. They connected on five of them for 99 yards, including touchdown grabs of 34 and 20 yards.

K-State's early and continuous success allowed several younger players on the field for the second week in a row. In total, 88 different Wildcats and 11 true freshmen saw game time.

Quarterbacks Nick Ast and John Holcombe II traded off series for most of the second half. Freshman running back Jacardia Wright led the team with 14 carries, all in the second half, while fellow freshman Joe Ervin carried the ball eight times and scored his first touchdown from 6 yards out in the third quarter. Seth Porter and Joshua Youngblood each recorded their first catches in a K-State uniform.

▶ Game Notes

• The Wildcats earned their first road win in program history over a team that was in the SEC at the time the game was played... K-State's last road win over a current member of the SEC was 2008 at Texas A&M when it was a member of the Big 12... The victory over Mississippi State was also the Wildcats' first regular-season road victory over a non-conference Power 5 team since winning 28-24 at Miami in 2011... It was also the program's first regular-season victory over an SEC team since a 23-9 home win over Kentucky in 1982.

• K-State has started 3-0 for the first time since 2015 and the fifth time since 2010... Chris Klieman became the fourth coach in school history to win their first three games... The victory marked the 24th-straight victory by a Klieman-led team dating back to 2017 at North Dakota State.

• K-State added two more rushing touchdowns to bring the season total to 12... It is the most rushing touchdowns by K-State in the first three games of the season since the 2002 team had 13 (5 vs. Western Kentucky, 5 vs. Louisiana Monroe, 3 vs. Eastern Illinois)... Of the 12 rushing touchdowns this season, 10 have been by running backs... Last season, the Wildcats had 13 rushing touchdowns by running backs in 12 games.

• Malik Knowles returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 100 yards to tie the game... It was the Wildcats' seventh 100-yard kickoff return in school history and the first since Morgan Burns had one in 2015 against Iowa State... It was just the third in a road game in school history and first since Tyler Lockett did so at Texas Tech in 2011.

CATS CONTROL FOURTH QUARTER IN 31-24 WIN

STARKVILLE, Miss. – K-State faced roughly no adversity in its first two wins this season. The Wildcats knew that would end in Week 3, but they were prepared to bounce back from it in a 31-24 win at No. 23 Mississippi State in Davis Wade Stadium.

The Wildcats scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, after MSU put up 17 straight, to clinch the program's first road win against a Power Five opponent since topping Miami 28-24 in 2011. It also marked the program's first ever road win over an opponent in the SEC at the time the game was played.

Malik Knowles delivered a momentum-changing blow early in the fourth quarter of a game played in 100-degree humid temperatures. The freshman receiver tied the game at 24 with a 100-yard kickoff return. It ended a long dry spell from K-State, which included only two true offensive series and 15 total yards in the third quarter.

After the special teams score, the Wildcat defense forced two consecutive three-and-outs to give them five such stops for the game. Quarterback Skylar Thompson followed the second fourth quarter stop with a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive to take the lead. He ended it with a 15-yard touchdown pass to senior receiver Dalton Schoen with 5:37 to play.

K-State turned MSU over on downs on the ensuing drive. On fourth-and-16, AJ Parker and Elijah Sullivan capped the stop by hitting a diving MSU quarterback Garrett Schrader, propelling him into a helicopter spin that forced him to fall a yard shy of the first down marker.

K-State overcame a trio of lost fumbles with the strong fourth quarter, two on muffed punt returns and another on a Parker interception return. MSU turned those Wildcat turnovers into 17 points between the second and third quarters.

The Wildcats also turned the Bulldogs over three times, turning two of them into a combined 10 points.

Senior safety Denzel Goolsby, who led the team with 11 tackles, snagged an interception that bounced off the hands of a Mississippi State receiver in the first quarter. It led to a 35-yard field goal from Blake Lynch.

About three minutes before halftime, freshman linebacker Daniel Green scooped up a fumble to set up a 30-yard scoring drive. MSU answered, however, with a 31-second touchdown drive, finished by a 35-yard touchdown pass to take momentum into the half.
