RECORDS

Saturday was the 99th all-time meeting between K-State and Missouri, and the first in Columbia since November 13, 2010, a span of 4,691 days in between meetings at Memorial Stadium... K-State is now 33-61-5 all-time against the Tigers... K-State holds a 50-89-5 record all-time against current members of the SEC, which includes games against former conference members Missouri and Texas A&M... K-State suffered its first regular-season loss since a 34-27 home setback on Nov. 5, 2022 to Texas and the first on the road since a 38-28 loss at TCU on Oct. 22, 2022.

HOWARD MOVES UP THE CHARTS

Senior quarterback Will Howard started his 18th career game, throwing for 270 yards and three touchdowns on 25-of-39 aim... His 25 completions were a career high, bettering the 21 he had last year against Oklahoma State and last week against Troy... He is now ranked 10th in school history with 303 career completions... Howard has now thrown multiple touchdown passes in each of the last eight regular-season games, the longest streak by a Wildcat since at least 1982... He has now thrown at least three touchdown passes in three games... He now has 32 passing touchdowns in his career as he moved into eighth place in school history, passing current K-State offensive coordinator Collin Klein... He has been responsible for 45 touchdowns in his career, ranking ninth in school history.

BROOKS MOVES UP AS WELL

Senior wide receiver Phillip Brooks hauled in five passes for 50 yards and one touchdown, while he returned two punts for 31 and one kickoff for 36 yards... He now has 3,358 career all-purpose yards to rank ninth in school history.

SINNOTT SCORES

Junior tight end Ben Sinnott hauled in five passes for 78 yards and two touchdowns... It was his second-career game with two touchdown receptions, matching the mark he had last year at Baylor... Last year's game at Baylor was the first two-touchdown game by a K-State tight end since Jarrett Grosdidier against Indiana State in 1996.
