Hired March 13 as the 27th head men's basketball coach, Casey Alexander begins year one with a 14-man roster that includes one returner - sophomore Andrej Kostic - 10 Division I transfers and 3 true freshmen. The first-year coach has won more than 300 games in his 15-year head coaching career, which includes stints at Stetson (2011-13), Lipscomb (2013-19) and his alma mater Belmont (2019-26) with six conference championships.

Q. Walk us back to your first meeting with this team. What was your message to them?

■ "We started our workouts June 1, so it was May 31. It had nothing to do with basketball. It was entirely what the expectations are, of who we wanted to be. Accountability is really important to me. I want guys to do what they're supposed to do, who represent K-State well and who play together. Guys who aren't entitled, guys who have a lot of self-discipline. That's really, really important to me. And if we can get that part right, we got a much better chance to win games. I think we can figure out about how to play. But it's really important that we get all that other stuff right. And we're not ever going to be perfect, but it's been a real reason for our success historically."

Q. Where have you seen the greatest growth since you started?

■ "Oh, I mean, we've covered a lot. But basketball has a lot of possibilities and it's a game of mistakes, and so we're trying to get as close to perfect as we can, but of all the scenarios, there's still a lot of room for growth, no matter what. I mean, when you think about everything being brand new, and you look back to June 1 when we started, and as we sit here today, like it is amazing how far along we are, what all we've covered, the culture piece and camaraderie that comes together pretty quickly. You do install for basic offense and defense, and that's comes along okay. We've covered a lot, but there is a long ways to go and a lot of improvement to make."

Q. Where do you need to make the biggest improvements?

■ "My greatest concerns right now aren't so much where I see a real deficiency. It's more 14 new faces, new staff, new everything, and I remember when (head football coach) Collin (Klein) was getting ready to start, and he talked about when the bullets start flying, things can change. Like that's really my greatest concern is getting ready for those moments, and it's pretty hard to actually get ready for them until you're in them."

Q. You have mentioned that the goal of this team is to make the NCAA Tournament. What gives you such optimism?

■ "It's not so much this year because it's year one or this team or anything like that. It's just NCAA Tournament. It's not an easy, not an easy accomplishment. And this league is a really tough league, and it's important to stay healthy. It's important to not let a game or two losing streaks turn into a four or five game losing streaks. Those kinds of things. But I believe in this team. I wouldn't mention that. It's not fool's gold. I think that we have good pieces. I think that we're a really smart team. I think we'll play really hard. I think we'll play really well together. And I think that's a good formula for winning. It always has been for us. And I think this team can do that."

Q. Tell me about the leadership of this team. I know that Jaden Schutt, Brandon Rechsteiner and Brock Vice were chosen as captains in a vote by the team.

■ "I think we had six different guys get votes, so we have some good leadership. I think we've got some good experience. We don't have a lot of superstars coming in here from the portal that everybody is just eyebrows raised and like, 'amazing what they did and how they'd get that guy?' But we have a lot of players who have really good experience. I'm banking on that. Even though roles are going to be different, we need a lot of those guys to outperform what they've done previously. I'm not concerned about having enough guys here who've done it. We're just going to have some guys be better than they've been. Brock Vice is a good example. It wouldn't take much for him to be better than he's been, but he's going to be a lot better than he's been."

Q. You mentioned about guys outperforming their previous performances. Can you walk us through that?

■ "Brandon (Rechsteiner) was the leading scorer last year in a really good Mountain West. He's a fourth-year guy. (Jaden) Schutt's a fifth-year guy. He's played 25 minutes a game in the last two seasons in the ACC. (Dez) Lindsey played 20 minutes a game in the Big Ten. (Isaiah) Abraham started almost every game in the Big East. (Montana) Wheeler played 22 minutes a game in the Valley for a really good Bradley team. JT (Rock) played 37 games for a New Mexico team that went to the NIT semifinals. Pape (N'Diaye) has played in the Mountain West and the Big East. We've got guys who've been around, but we've got to put the pieces together."

Q. How helpful has it been to have two players like Brandon Reinsteiner and Jaden Schutt who have played together?

■ "Well, it can for sure, and I think more than anything, they both just bring a veteran presence. They've been to multiple places. They're very experienced guys, confident guys, and so with that, they kind of set themselves apart from a lot of the others just for that reason. But their familiarity with each other definitely helps."

Q. What has Brock Vice done so well to earn the trust of his teammates and be named a captain?

■ "On the first day he acted like he belonged and played that way. And I think it's really admirable. You take a guy who's this is his fourth stop, and he's had no individual success to speak of at any of those stops, and he comes into the highest level that he's ever played, and he's very vocal. He's got great energy. He's a really tough kid. He plays with a lot of confidence. People kind of gravitate to him naturally, and his performance has been outstanding. I could go a lot of different directions with this, but he kind of he thrives in chaos a little bit, and offensively we can look that way sometimes. And so, rather than having to learn these 20 sets and fit into this role, he's been in a position where we just ask him to go be a player a little bit, and he's performed very well."

Q. You have gotten a lot of attention for your abilities as an offensive coach? What can you say about how you will defend?

■ "Yeah, well, there's going to be some changes to what we've typically done. I think we'll mix defenses up a little bit more than we have historically. I would say historically we've been 95 percent of a man-to-man team, and then we'll sprinkle in a possession or two of something else. And I would like, in a perfect world, for that to be more of like an 80-20, 90-10 scenario. But it's more like, do we switch one through four sometimes? Do we switch one through five sometimes? Do we trap something sometimes? Do we play a little bit of a zone? Just some things that keeps the offense off balance to some degree. I think that'll be important for us."

Q. When will you determine a starting lineup?

■ "It could change at the last moment. It's so rare that even if everybody's healthy, there aren't starting lineup changes. Health is going to dictate that to a great degree. Timo (Malovec), I would have said is a guaranteed starter if you'd asked me this summer, but he hasn't been practicing since we've been back from summer. So, things like that really kind of determine the answer to that question. But we probably know who a few of them are going to be. We've got a scrimmage with Tulsa, and we've got two exhibition games, and so those things will tell us a lot. We'll learn more from two, three, four games of competition than we have in the last six months of practice."

Q. What went into building the non-conference schedule?

■ "I feel good about it. It's such an inexact science. I think that it's very important that we're tested multiple times, which I think we will be. I think it's very important that we get home games. I think it's important that we find a way to get some games early in the season. Not that they are gimmies by any stretch. You'll never hear me say that, but where we can see who we are and kind of ease our way into it a little bit, especially with a new coaching staff and a new team altogether, those early home games. I think four out of five of them are buy games, maybe. You know, I like how that part turned out. The Players Era is a great opportunity. I mean, that's the best of the best in a great venue, and so I'm excited about that as well. That's a pretty good challenge there, to say the least."

Q. What can you take from year ones at your other stops?

■ "(At Belmont) we had a lot of guys returning. They were young. They were really young. But I mean, this is the fourth time I've taken over a new team. I have learned plenty from when I got my first job at Stetson to when I went to Lipscomb to when I went to Belmont. Every circumstance has been different. They require different kind of strategy, but hopefully, I've gotten a little wiser with age and having gone through it before. I feel good about that. I think one of my strengths is kind of the management piece of all that, and being organized enough with a good enough plan to see all that stuff come together, and I feel confident in that part of it."

Q. What do love most about this job?

■ "The journey of a season is my favorite part of coaching, starting at zero and seeing how far you can go. And now the zero line is a little different from year to year, because of retention and how long you've been in a certain place, but this year we literally started at zero. Almost every staff member knew Andrej (Kostic) was the only player that came back, but that was a different staff, so he was new to us. We were new to him. So, there's just great joy in going through that with a group and collectively trying to determine how you can all get the job done. To the extent where you call it a success, and success is measured in different ways."

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the K-State Athletic Communications Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering K-State, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Officially recognized Kansas State student publications or student electronic media outlets.

4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

6. Websites/blogs will only be afforded credentialing opportunities if affiliated with legitimate news outlets*.

7. Freelance photographers will not be afforded credentialing opportunities unless hired by legitimate news outlets* or the opponent media relations staff. Personal NIL photographers and videographers are allowed on a case-by-case basis and subject to space limitations in the photo areas of Bramlage Coliseum.

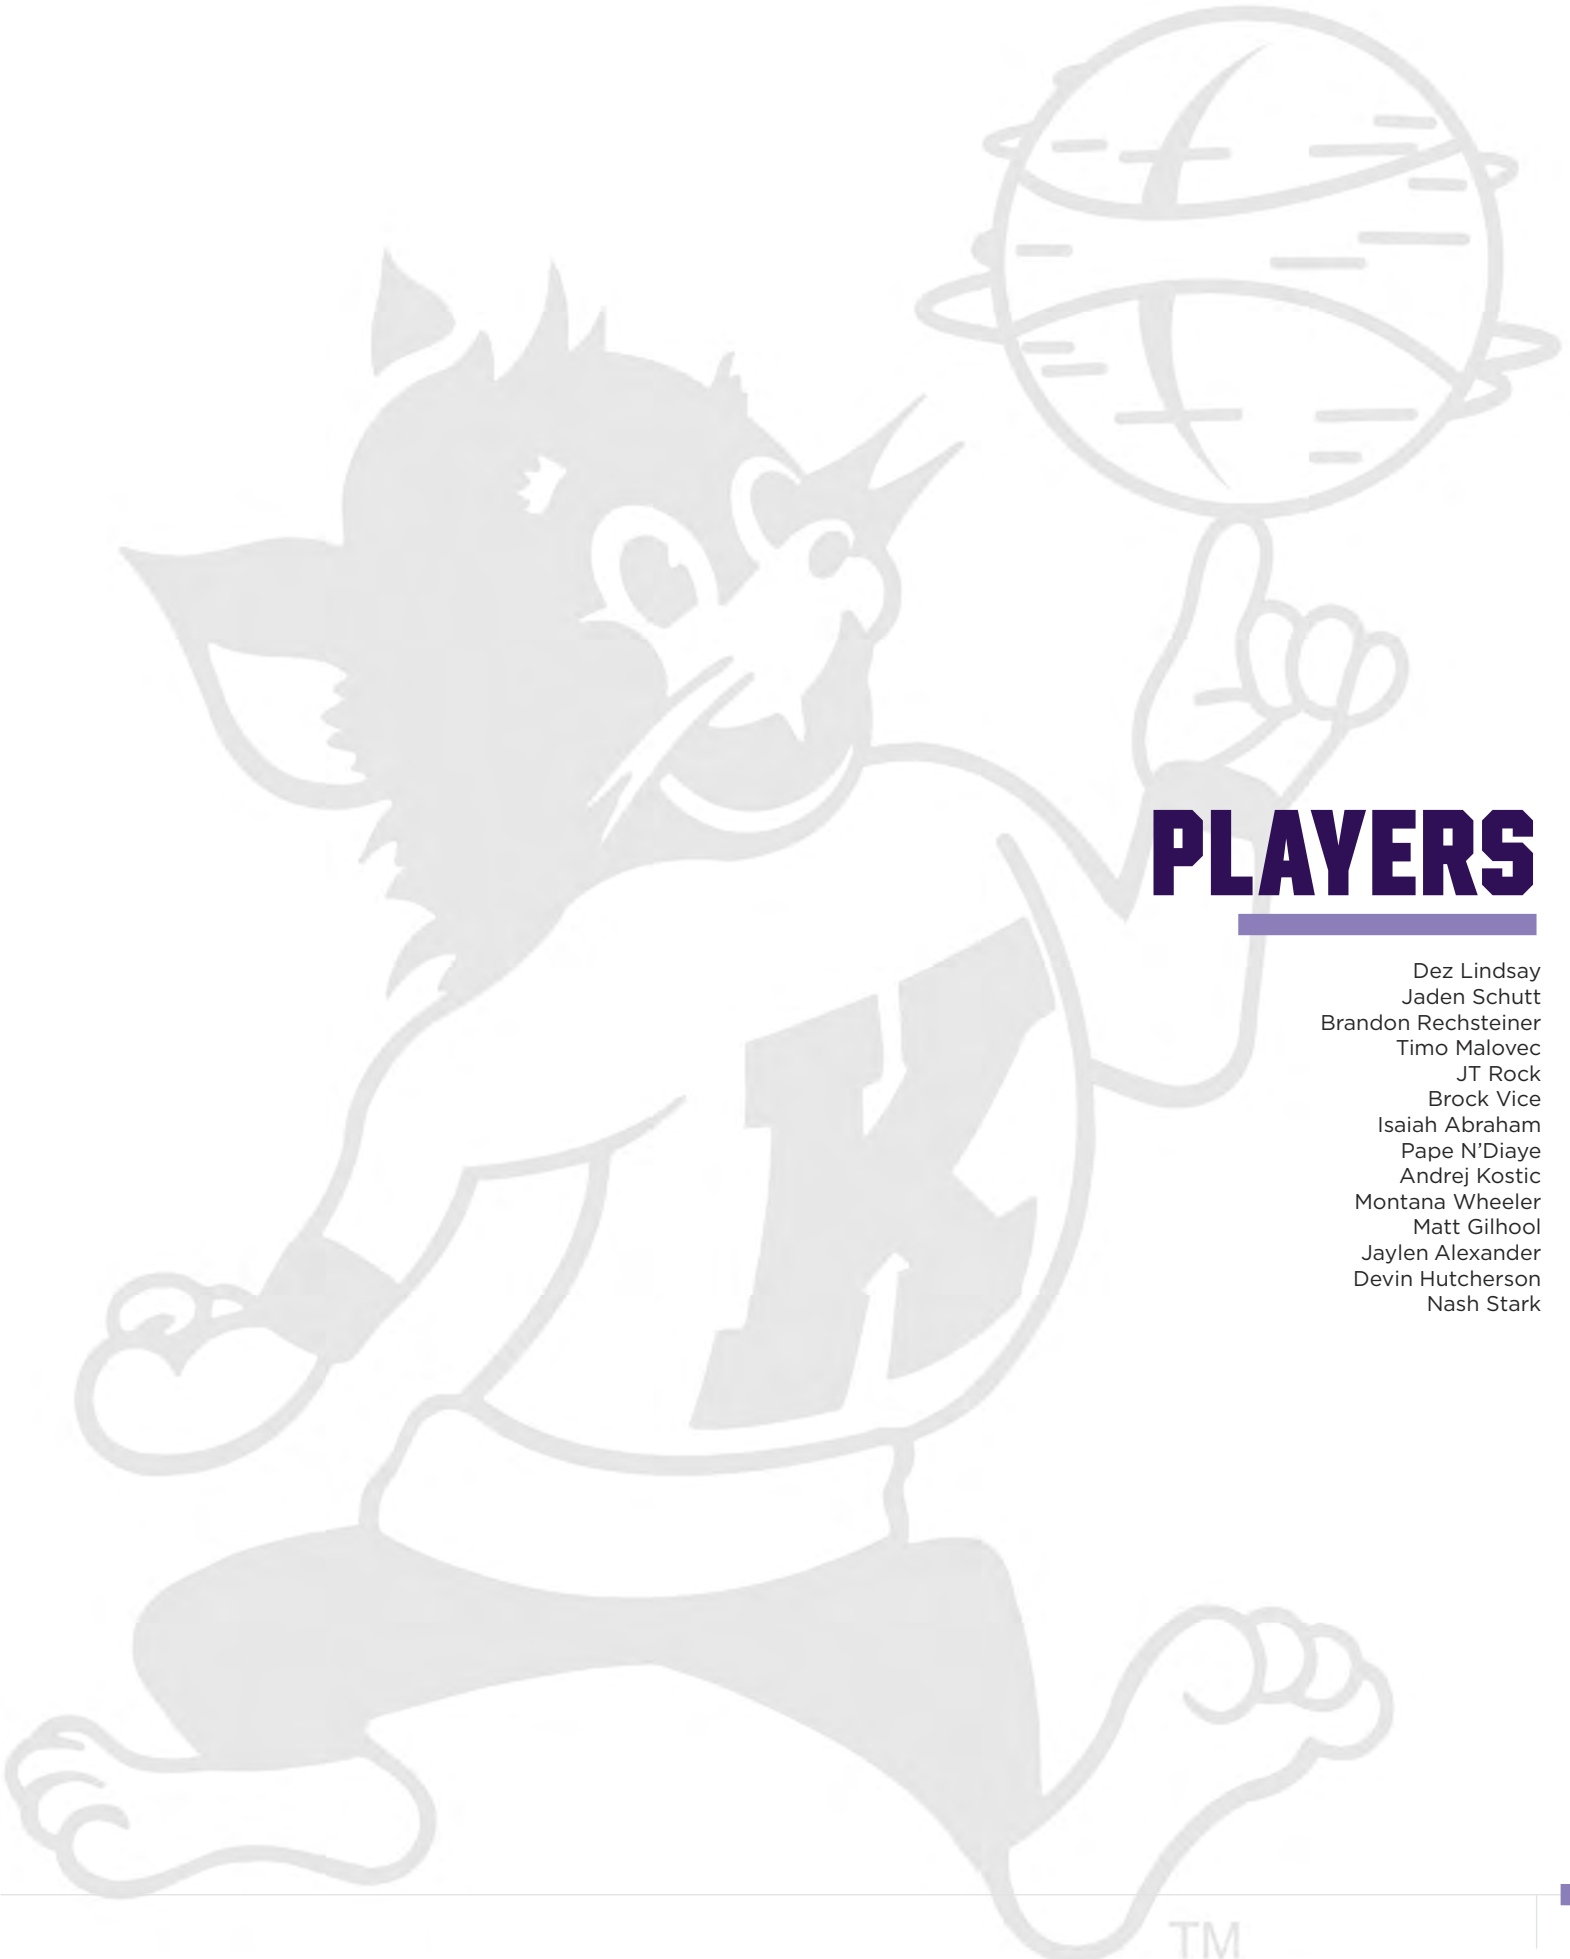

GUIDELINES FOR COVERING K-STATE ATHLETIC EVENTS

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- With the exception of beat writers covering K-State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space in Bramlage Coliseum.
- Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working media members.
- K-State Athletics, Inc. reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
- All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
- Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
- Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conference from K-State events are limited to and cannot excede five (5) minutes in length per event.
- Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "photo" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use in the Bramlage Coliseum photo areas.

The definition of "legitimate news outlets" is at the sole discretion of K-State Athletics.*

These guidelines were developed prior to July 1, 2026 and are subject to change due to any alterations in city, county, University or big 12 Conference policy.

CASEY ALEXANDER

HEAD COACH

First Season at K-State // Belmont '95 // Austin Peay '96

Casey Alexander, who guided Belmont to 166 wins and four conference titles in the last seven seasons (2019-26), including the 2026 Missouri Valley Conference Championship, is set to begin his first season as the 27th head men's basketball coach at K-State in 2026-27.

Alexander, 53, was named head coach on March 13, 2026 before being formally introduced to the public on March 16, 2026 in the Shamrock Zone inside Bramlage Coliseum.

Alexander has accumulated 303 victories (303-180; .627) in his 15-year head coaching career, which includes stints at Stetson (24-36; 2011-13), Lipscomb (113-84; 2013-19) and his alma mater Belmont (166-60; 2019-26), with six conference championships (2018 Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament, 2019 Atlantic Sun Conference regular season, 2020, 2021 Ohio Valley Conference regular season, 2020 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament and 2026 Missouri Valley Conference regular season).

Alexander agreed to a 5-year contract, which was approved by the K-State Athletics, Inc., Board of Directors and President Richard Linton, in March 2026. He will be paid $3.3 million in 2026-27 and will receive a $50,000 base salary increase each year remaining on the contract ($3.35 million in 2027-28, $3.4 million in 2028-29, $3.45 million in 2029-30, $3.5 million in 2030-31).

"I'm incredibly excited to join the team at K-State," Alexander said. "K-State has such a rich tradition and a wildly passionate fan base and I'm grateful for the opportunity provided by Gene Taylor to be a part of it."

Alexander has led teams to 10 consecutive 20-win seasons (238-91; .723 winning percentage), which includes double-digit conference win totals each season (138-42; .767 winning percentage), despite navigating three different conferences (Atlantic Sun, Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley). In that span, his teams have averaged nearly 24 wins a season (23.8), including nearly 14 (13.8) in conference play, with six total championships, including four regular-season league titles, and three runner-up finishes while placing no lower than fourth place.

Alexander is one of four coaches to win 20 or more games in 10 consecutive seasons, joining Gonzaga's Mark Few, Houston's Kelvin Sampson and Kansas' Bill Self (ironically the Wildcats will face all three coaches in 2026-27).

Belmont is one of only 19 Division I programs with 165 or more victories since the start of the 2019-20 season, which includes the likes of Houston, Gonzaga, Duke, Arizona and UConn. The Bruins are one of five teams outside the traditional multi-bid leagues (Akron, Drake, Liberty and VCU) in that fraternity. The 166 wins since 2019-20 tie for the 17th-most among Division I programs, while the .735 winning percentage is 12th in Division I in that span.

Despite coaching exclusively in one-bid league throughout his entire head coaching career, Alexander's teams have appeared in the postseason three times, including the 2018 NCAA Tournament where Lipscomb lost to 2-seed North Carolina in the first round and twice in the Postseason NIT (2019, 2022), including a trip to the championship game in 2019. In that run, the Bison won three consecutive road games at Davidson, UNC Greensboro and N.C. State and a neutral-site victory over Wichita State in Madison Square Garden before a loss to Texas in the title game.

Alexander's first Belmont squad in 2019-20 earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament after winning the OVC Tournament before it was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. His final Belmont squad would've given him another postseason after winning the Missouri Valley Conference regular season title but declined an NIT bid.

Alexander has twice been named the conference Coach of the Year, first in the Atlantic Sun Conference in 2018-19 after leading Lipscomb to 29 wins and the regular season conference title and most recently in the Missouri Valley Conference in 2025-26 after guiding Belmont to 26 wins and the school's first-ever championship in the league. He was also honored with the 2018 Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, which is given annually to a Division I head coach who achieves success on the court while demonstrating moral integrity on and off the court. He was selected as a finalist for the award for a fourth time in 2025-26.

Alexander has developed 27 all-conference selections across three different conferences (Atlantic Sun, Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley) in his time as a head coach, while he helped produce a pair of conference Players of the Year in Garrison Mathews (2019 ASUN at Lipscomb) and Lundblade (2026 MVC at Belmont), along with a conference Newcomer of the Year in Cade Tyson at Belmont in 2023. Lundblade was joined on the All-MVC First Team by Drew Scharnowski, who was also on the All-Defensive and Most Improved Teams, along with Second Team pick Sam Orme. Rookies Eoin Dillon and Jack Smiley were named to the All-Freshman Team, while Smiley and Brigham Rogers were selected to the All-Bench Team by the league's media.

Alexander coached current NBA players Ben Sheppard, who is beginning his fourth year in the league with the Indiana Pacers after being chosen in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft out of Belmont, and Will Richard, who played his freshman season at Belmont in 2021-22 before three more seasons (2022-25) at Florida. Richard is in his second year with the Golden State Warriors. He has also coached Garrison Mathews at Lipscomb, who has played in 329 NBA games in the last seven seasons, along with former Belmont star Ian Clark, who won the 2017 NBA Championship with the Warriors and currently plays professionally in Puerto Rico.

Alexander has produced some of the top offensive teams in the country in his coaching career, as his teams have ranked in the top-40 in effective field goal percentage in each of the last eight seasons (including all seven seasons at Belmont) with four Top-10 finishes (No. 10 in 2019-20, No. 9 in 2020-21, No. 8 in 2021-22 and No. 1 in 2025-26). Effective field goal percentage is an important metric because it adjusts traditional field goal percentage to account for the extra value of 3-point shots, providing a more accurate measure of shooting efficiency.

Alexander's teams have also been among the best in 2-point field goal percentage with four top-5 finishes at Belmont, including No. 1 in 2021-22 at 60.7 percent, as well as 3-point field goal percentage with four consecutive seasons ranking in the top 25, including No. 1 in 2025-26 at 41 percent. Individually, he coached the NCAA 3-point field goal percentage champion or runner-up in three consecutive seasons, including 2022-23 runner-up Drew Friberg (45.5), 2023-24 runner-up Cade Tyson (46.5) and 2024-25 leader Tyler Lundblade (48.1). His teams have also been among the best sharing the ball, ranking in the top-25 in assist percentage eight times.

"We couldn't be more excited to announce Casey Alexander as the next men's basketball coach at K-State," Taylor said. "We had significant interest in our job from numerous talented and successful coaches. What was evident throughout the search was the positive reputation of K-State basketball, and of the coaches we talked with, Casey emerged as the one who best fit our program. He is known as a tremendous evaluator of talent and one of the best offensive minds in the college game. He has built and maintained successful and winning programs at Stetson, Lipscomb and Belmont, and his reputation of developing players and a strong culture all make him a perfect fit. We are pleased to welcome Casey, his wife Sunni and their children - Allie, Reed and Mason - to the K-State family."

At Belmont (2019-26)

A majority of Alexander's 303 wins have come at the helm of his alma mater Belmont, which he guided to a 166-60 (.735) overall record, including a 102-33 (.756) in conference play, since following the legendary Rick Byrd as head coach in 2019-20. He played for Byrd from 1991-95, then served as his assistant coach from 1995-2011. His teams have won four conference championships in that span, including the 2026 Missouri Valley Conference title.

In 2025-26, Alexander led Belmont to a 26-6 record, including a 16-4 mark in winning its first outright Missouri Valley Conference regular season title by three games. The Bruins opened the year with eight straight victories then after a 1-2 start to conference play, which included 2 losses by 2 points, they ran off nine consecutive wins in league play before an overtime setback at Bradley on Feb. 9. The team won four more in a row before ending the year with back-to-back losses. The squad had 11 true road wins which were only surpassed by Miami (Ohio) and SFA.

The Bruins ranked in the top-12 nationally in five offensive categories in 2025-26, including first in 3-point field goal percentage (40.4), third in field goal percentage (51.4) and effective field goal percentage (60.7), fourth in assists/game (18.6) and 11th in 3-point field goals/game (10.9). The team was also 25th in scoring offense (83.9 ppg.). Graduate Tyler Lundblade ranked first in free throw percentage (93.4), while he was fifth in 3-point field goals/game (3.59) and sixth in total 3-pointers (115).

Lundblade led a bevy of Belmont players on the All-Missouri Valley Conference team, earning First team honors to go with his Larry Bird Player of the Year award. He was joined on the team by redshirt sophomore forward Drew Scharnowski, who was also selected to the All-Defensive and Most-Improve teams. Redshirt sophomore forward Sam Orme was named to the Second Team, while Eoin Dillon and Jack Smiley made the All-Freshman Team. Alexander collected his second conference Coach of the Year award.

The 2025-26 record-breaking campaign was nothing new for Alexander, who succeeded his mentor - Rick Byrd - as the 10th head coach in Belmont history on April 10, 2019. He led the Bruins to a 26-7 record in his first season in 2019-20, winning the Ohio Valley regular-season championship with a 15-3 mark, and defeating Eastern Kentucky and Murray State en route to earning the tournament title and the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. However, the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the 2020 NCAA Tournament.

Alexander's 26 wins were the most by any first-year head coach in NCAA Division I in 2019-20, which included a 12-game winning streak to end the season. Sophomore Grayson Murphy became just the second Belmont player in its Division I era to earn conference defensive player of the year honors. He named to the First Team All-OVC team, along with teammates Nick Muszynski and Adam Kunkel.

The Bruins once again won 26 games in Alexander's second season in 2020-21, which included a 21-game winning streak from Dec. 8, 2020 to Feb. 20, 2021, as they won their second straight OVC regular-season title with an 18-2 mark. However, after wins over SIU Edwardsville and Jacksonville State in the first two rounds of the conference tournament, the squad lost to upstart Morehead State, 86-71, in the finals. Murphy repeated as the league's Defensive Player of the Year and was again joined on the OVC First Team by Muszynski. Alexander was named the 2021 Tennessee Sports Writers Association (TSWA) Men's Basketball Coach of the Year, while he was a finalist for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year and the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year awards.

Belmont finished the 2021-22 season with a 25-8 record, including a second-place finish in the OVC with a 15-3 mark, but a narrow loss to Morehead State in the conference tournament sent the Bruins to the NIT, where they lost to crosstown rival Vanderbilt, 82-71. Murphy and Muszynski were both named to the OVC First Team for the third straight season, along with junior Ben Sheppard who led the team in scoring at 16.2 points per game. Future pro Will Richard was selected to the league's All-Newcomer team before transferring to Florida.

Despite graduating program legends Murphy and Muszynski and seven of the Bruins' top eight scorers, Alexander led Belmont to a 21-11 record, including a tie for third place in its first season in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 14-6 mark, in 2022-23. The Bruins earned season sweeps of regular season champion Bradley and 2022 regular season champion Northern Iowa. Sheppard was named to the All-MVC First Team after finishing second in the league in scoring at 18.8 points per game. He would become the second Bruin to be selected in the NBA Draft in six seasons when he was taken with the No. 26 pick by the Indiana Pacers.

Despite a rough stretch in the early part of Valley play, Alexander extended Belmont's streak of 20-win season to 14 in 2023-24 by winning seven of its last eight regular season games to finish with a 20-13 record, including a tie for fourth in the conference with a 14-6 mark. Sophomores Ja'Kobi Gillespie and Cade Tyson were both named to the All-MVC Second Team, as Tyson finished second nationally in 3-point field goal percentage at 46.5 percent.

Belmont was among top offenses in the Valley in 2024-25, finishing among the top-3 in 12 categories, while ranking nationally in 3-point field goal percentage, effective field goal percentage, assists and assist-to-turnover ratio, en route to winning 22 games, including 13 in league play to finish fourth. Seniors Jonathan Pierre and Carter Whitt were both named to the All-MVC team, including Pierre to the first team, while junior Tyler Lundblade led the nation in 3-point field goal percentage at 48.1 percent.

At Lipscomb (2013-19)

Alexander returned to his alma mater after spending six seasons (2013-19) across town at Lipscomb, where he produced a program renaissance in leading the Bison to the best 3-year stretch (72-31) of their NCAA Division I era and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history in 2017-18. Overall, he led the school to a 113-84 (.574) record, including a 59-31 (.656) mark in Atlantic Sun Conference play.

Alexander slowly built the Bison program from the ground up, winning 41 games in his first three seasons before busting out to record three consecutive 20-win seasons and three top-2 ASUN finishes from 2016-19, which began with just the second 20-win season in school history in 2016-17 before a 23-win campaign and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017-18 and the eventual record-breaking 29-win season in 2018-19.

Behind the play of sophomore guard Garrison Mathews (20.4 ppg.), the Bison broke through with their first 20-win season since 2005-06, which included a second-place finish in the ASUN with an 11-3 mark. They followed that season with a 23-10 record in 2017-18 and another second-place finish in the league at 10-4 before earning the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament with a run through the ASUN Tournament with victories over Stetson and Jacksonville before a dominant 108-96 win at Florida Gulf Coast in the finals. The team earned a 15-seed in the NCAA Tournament, falling to No. 2 seed North Carolina, 84-66.

Alexander capped his tenure at Lipscomb in 2018-19 with one of the school's most memorable seasons as the Bison rewrote the program's record book with total wins (29), their first victory over a nationally-ranked opponent (No. 18 TCU), first-ever votes in the AP Top 25 and a top 50 ranking in the NET ranking system. The team ran away with the ASUN regular-season championship with a 15-3 mark, which included a 11-game winning streak, before losing a heartbreaker to Liberty, 74-68, in the conference tournament finals for the league's bid to the NCAA Tournament.

However, the Bison shook off the disappointment by making a run in the 2019 NIT, winning three consecutive road games at Davidson, UNC Greensboro and N.C. State to earn a trip to Madison Square Garden and tournament finals. The Bison dispatched off Wichita State, 71-64, in the semifinals before falling to Texas, 81-66, in the title game. Alexander was named the 2019 Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year, while Mathews was selected as an honorable mention AP All-American and the ASUN Player of the Year. He left the school as its all-time Division I era leader in scoring (2,478).

At Stetson (2011-13)

Alexander earned his first head coaching job at Stetson University located in Deland, Fla., in 2011-12, guiding the Hatters to 24 wins in two seasons (2011-13), including 18 in Atlantic Sun Conference play.

Alexander's first team won nine games, which were the most at Stetson in three seasons, including six in league play to finish eighth in the ASUN. The second year the win total climbed to 15 with 11 coming in ASUN play to earn the school's highest conference finish (third place) in five years. Senior Adam Pegg became the Hatters' first all-conference first team selection in 12 years.

Alexander's success as a head coach has followed his tremendous pedigree as first a player (1991-95) then as an assistant coach (1995-2011) for Byrd, who won 713 games in developing Belmont into a NAIA powerhouse from 1986-96, before moving to Division I in 1996-97 and making the Bruins an NCAA Tournament mainstay before his retirement in 2019. He helped the school to eight NCAA Tournament appearances while winning a combined 25 regular-season and tournament championships.

Belmont is one of three Division I programs (along with Gonzaga and Kansas) to win 20 or more games in each of the last 16 seasons, while the 21 combined conference championships (13 regular season and eight tournament titles) since 2006 are only surpassed by the aforementioned programs. Belmont, along with Houston and Louisville, are the only Division I programs to win conference championships in three different conferences over the last two decades.

In addition, Belmont has led the nation in Academic All-America selections and NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) over the past two decades.

Alexander played point guard for Byrd at Belmont from 1991-95, where he led the school to the top of the NAIA ranks with a 119-25 record, four consecutive postseason appearances and two conference titles. As a senior in 1995, he directed the then-Rebels to a 37-2 record, a No. 1 national ranking and the NAIA National Semifinals.

Alexander joined Byrd's staff upon graduation in 1995, spending the next 16 seasons (1995-2011) with the Hall of Famer, where he was part of 287 wins. In his final eight seasons on staff, the Bruins tallied 172 victories, six postseason appearances (4 NCAA Tournaments, one NIT, one CIT), four ASUN regular-season championships and four more tournament titles. The team was a remarkable 132-41 (.763) in conference play in that span and posted road victories over Missouri, Alabama and Cincinnati.

In 27 years (1991 to 2026) as a player (1991-95), assistant coach (1995-2011) and head coach (2018-26) at Belmont, Alexander was part of 563 victories, 16 conference championships and 11 postseason appearances.

Alexander was inducted into the Belmont University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005.

Personal

Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Belmont in 1995 before obtaining a Master's degree in sports management from Austin Peay in 1996.

Alexander was born on June 8, 1972 in Nashville, Tenn., and prepped at Brentwood Academy. He and his wife, the former Sunni Dixon, also a 1995 Belmont graduate, are the parents of three children: Allie, Reed and Mason.

GENERAL MANAGER

First Season at K-State // Cortland State '07

@CoachRutigs

Sean Rutigliano is in his first season as the general manager and recruiting coordinator at K-State in 2026-27 after being hired to the position by head coach Casey Alexander on April 9, 2026.

Rutigliano is the first person to hold the title of General Manager. In this new role, he will manage the construction of the men's basketball roster in consultation with Alexander and the rest of the coaching staff while developing strategies to retain current student-athletes and attract prospective student-athletes.

"I've worked with Sean for 10 years and there's no responsibility I wouldn't trust him with," said Alexander. "He's the ultimate go-getter and will work tirelessly for K-State as our General Manager."

The Suffern, N.Y. native, spent 10 seasons with Alexander on staff at Lipscomb (2015-19) and Belmont (2019-25), where he was part of 224 wins, five conference championships (three regular-season and two tournament titles) and four postseason bids (two NCAA Tournaments and two Postseason NITs). He was part of a coaching staff that produced nine consecutive 20-win seasons between the two schools.

Rutigliano spent the past season (2025-26) as the head coach at Division III Colby College in Waterville, Maine, where he led the Mules to a 16-9 overall record, including a 4-6 mark in the highly-competitive New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC), which is often referred to as the "Little Ivy League" due to its athletics and high academic standards. He was just the third head coach for the Mules since 1970.

The 16 wins in year one by Rutigliano were the highest win total for the program since winning 20 games in 2022-23, as Colby ended the year with a loss to No. 11 Tufts in the NESCAC Quarterfinals. The Mules led the conference in assists at 17.4 per game while they were fifth in scoring at 77.2 points per game.

Rutigliano coached sophomore guard Dan Civello to All-NESCAC Second Team honors in 2025-26, as Civello ranked second in the league in scoring at 18.3 points per game, while he was fifth in field goal percentage (52.7) and third in 3-point field goal percentage (39.8). He was one of four underclassmen to earn all-conference honors. Junior Savion Stroud ranked third in the conference with 3.9 assists per game. Before his departure to K-State, he assembled a strong 2026 recruiting class that included Mr. Maine Basketball winner Nolan Ames.

"I'm incredibly excited to join the K-State basketball staff and to reunite with Casey Alexander, someone I have so much respect for as both a coach and a person," said Rutigliano. "I feel very fortunate for the opportunity to be part of a winning tradition and to compete in the Big 12. It's an honor to join a program with such high standards, and I'm eager to get to work."

Rutigliano was part of 140 wins during his 6-year stint at Belmont (2019-25), which included a 21-game winning streak, two Ohio Valley Conference regular-season titles and an OVC Tournament Championship and the automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament in 2020. He was elevated to associate head coach prior to the 2023-24 season.

During his time at Belmont, Rutigliano helped in the development of 15 all-conference selections, including 10 First Team recipients, seven all-newcomer picks, three all-freshmen nominees and a conference Newcomer of the Year in Cade Tyson in 2023. He also coached three-time First Team All-OVC selections Grayson Murphy (2020, 2021, 2022) and Nick Muszynski (2020, 2021, 2022) and two-time First Team pick Ben Sheppard (2022, 2023).

Rutigliano helped Lipscomb win 85 games from 2015-19, including a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference titles. In his final season, he helped guide the Bison to a historic 29-win season, which included a run to the NIT finals. He coached six all-conference selections at Lipscomb highlighted by three-time First Team pick and 2019 ASUN Player of the Year Garrison Mathews as well as three all-freshman nominees.

Four of his former players have attracted NBA attention, including NBA veterans Sheppard and Mathews, both of whom have played for the Indiana Pacers, as well as Will Richard (Golden State Warriors) and Jonathan Pierre (Washington Wizards).

Rutigliano joined the Lipscomb staff in 2015 after four seasons (2011-15) as an assistant coach for coach Zach Spiker at Army West Point, where he was part of the first winning season (16-15) in 28 years in 2012-13. In all, he was part of 58 wins with double-digit win totals all four seasons, including 29 in Patriot League play. He coached nine all-conference selections, including two-time First Team All-Patriot League pick Ella Ellis (2012, 2013).

Prior to Army, Rutigliano gained experience at the Division II and III levels as an assistant coach, first at Division III Kean in Union, N.J., then at Division II at Alabama-Huntsville and Ouachita Baptist in Arkadelphia, Ark.

Rutigliano was a two-sport standout in basketball and tennis at SUNY Rockland Community College in Suffern, N.Y., where he earned an associate's degree in 2005. He also earned the SUNY Chancellor's award for student excellence as well as national academic recognition from the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Rutigliano graduated magna cum laude from Cortland State in Cortland, N.Y. with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 2007. He earned a master's degree from Ball State in 2010.

Rutigliano and his wife, Bridget, are the parents of a son, Kaleb.

GENERAL MANAGER SEAN RUTIGLIANO Q&A

Sean Rutigliano spent 10 seasons with Casey Alexander at both Lipscomb and Belmont before becoming a head coach for the first time in 2025-26 at Division III Colby College. The Suffern, N.Y., native left the Mules after one season to become the first person to hold the title of General Manager for K-State men's basketball.

Rutigliano spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his journey to K-State.

Q. What was it about your skill set that made you the right choice to be the general manager because it's a relatively new role in college basketball.

■ "Coach Alexander will say that never I never put my phone down. I get in trouble with my wife all the time. I think it's just a 24/7 job. I think it's wanting to do that. I think it's wanting to be on the phone. I think it's skill evaluation. It's taking some of that stuff off Coach's plate, so he can just prioritize the guys on his roster. And then when it comes time to make sure that we have the right guys lined up to be potential Wildcats. When we first got the job, it was all hands on board to put together a team. But by next year, roster composition and balancing out the budget, all that stuff, that will kind of be something that (director of analytics) Bryce (Haase) and myself will take that over. And then once you know, middle of the season, conference play, Big 12 play, we'll start looking at like, 'Hey, this is where we need to go in this direction. Here's what we have. This is what we need.' But I think it's definitely a moving target. If you asked, any power conference head coach or AD, 'Hey, what is the role of your GM? I think you get a bunch of different answers, and I do think with the landscape of college athletics right now, that's a changing deal from day to day, sometimes hour to hour. If we have this bill in Congress go through, I mean, that totally changes the game for the next six months in terms of recruiting. And so, one of the best quotes I've ever heard is, 'Everybody has a plan until they get punched in the face,' and I think that's going to be something that we go through on a daily basis right now with the landscape of college athletics. Coach Alexander has always been one to change with the times and adapt, but he's also going to do it to a high level of character."

Q. How surprised were you to get the team put together so fast? I mean you recruited and signed 13 players in about 3 weeks. What did that process look like?

■ I give all the coaches a ton of credit. We all came together because we believe in everything that Coach Alexander brings to the table. We came down and we spent three straight weeks. I mean it was every night. It was from 7 am to 11 at night for three straight weeks. We have all known him for a while, so we understood what he was looking for in terms of a player, in terms of a person, probably person being the most important. We're not going to take a really talented kid that doesn't fit our culture. I think that's a good way to really go in the wrong direction early. But we do understand that talent, the right guys are really important. We did a lot of pre-portal stuff, and it's calling a lot of agents, calling a lot of AAU coaches, high school coaches, etc. And so, when those guys do enter the portal and their names pop up, that we're able to make decisions really fast. One of the biggest stars of the show is Bailey (Bachamp) on our staff, our director of basketball operations. You're flying in people from all over the place, so there would be visits where we'd have three guys on campus, and one's coming in, one's going. They're coming in from 12 different states, and so she was unbelievable in orchestrating that. She is a huge advocate of K-State basketball. She loves it, and I think that shows when we have recruits come on campus. And then I think we just have different guys on staff. Everybody just brings a different element, and they're all a special group of guys from all different walks of college basketball. And so, I think it was us just being on the same page and being a cohesive team."

Q. How many hours of film would you say you watched?

■ "I think recruiting is such an information game. The winner goes to the staff that can get the most information the fastest, and obviously right now it's become a little more transactional than relational. But if you're in the same wheelhouse, it's it's going to be a recruiting battle, and I think those are things that excite you. And so, in terms of film, I couldn't put a precise minutes or hours, but I will say we had a lot of guys behind the scenes that broke down a lot of film for Coach Alexander, so those guys deserve a lot of credit. They spent late nights in the office, and it's just not the film that you're watching to evaluate somebody. It's the phone calls going into college and high school coaches, 'Hey, are these the right guys? Hey, are there red flags that you don't see on film?', and so coach would watch a ton, and we watch as a staff, and then it's also video staff that put time into, so we can present a lot of film to those recruits coming in like 'Hey, this is how we play. Hey, this is how your game fits into how we're going to play at K-State, and so they feel comfortable with our style of play."

Q. You have had a very unique professional journey. What went in to the decision to leave a head coaching position and join Coach Alexander at K-State.

■ "I could have stayed with Coach Alexander my whole career at Belmont. I just always wanted to be a head coach, and it's always been a dream of mine. I worked at a great place in Colby College that was unbelievable to me. I do think it made me even more prepared for this because there's nothing as difficult as recruiting in that league. You asking kids to pay $100,000 a year out of pocket. You're striking out way more. You would never make the baseball Hall of Fame being a recruiter in one of those leagues, and I think that really helps you to attack this job at this level right now in terms of the information and the communication. But when Coach Alexander called me and we had our initial conversation, I just I think the world of him. He's been really good to my family. I have a seven-year-old son that means the world to me, and I would only go work for somebody that I feel like you know understands the whole family dynamic, and he he gets it. He works really hard, but he's a family man."

JJ BUTLER

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at K-State // Lipscomb '16

@JJButler_5 / jjbutler

JJ Butler is in his first season as an assistant coach at K-State in 2026-27 after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on March 30, 2026.

"My family and I are excited to be in Manhattan," said Butler. "We are excited to meet the K-State faithful, get the ball rolling, and win a lot of games."

Butler joins the staff after one season (2025-26) as an assistant coach at Belmont, where he helped the Bruins win 26 games and capture the regular season Missouri Valley Conference Championship with a 16-4 mark.

Butler joined the Belmont staff after two seasons (2023-25) as an assistant coach at Delaware for head coach Martin Ingelsby. He helped the Blue Hens win 35 games, including a 19-win campaign in 2023-24 with 10 wins in CAA play. In 2024-25, the squad battled all the way to the CAA Championship Game as a No. 12 seed, winning four games (Stony Brook, Campbell, William & Mary and Towson) in four days before losing to UNC Wilmington.

Butler has also served as an assistant coach at Division III Susquehanna University (2018-20) in Selinsgrove, Pa., and as both an assistant coach (2017-18) and head coach (2020-23) at Division II Chestnut Hill College in Philadelphia, where he finished his playing career in 2016-17.

Butler's history with Alexander dates back to Lipscomb, where his last three seasons (2013-16) coincided with Alexander's first three seasons as head coach of the Bison. Butler played in 85 games with nine starts in his Lipscomb career, totaling 128 points, 109 assists and 70 rebounds, before transferring to Chestnut Hill in 2016-17 for his final season of eligibility. He played in 21 games with 12 starts for head coach Jesse Balcer and the Griffins, averaging 5.5 points, 3.0 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 1.8 steals in 25.6 minutes per game.

Butler earned his first coaching job at Chestnut Hill in 2017-18 before departing for Susquehanna, where he was an assistant from 2018-20. The River Hawks won 37 games in Butler's two seasons on staff, including a memorable 2019-20 season in which they won their first-ever Landmark Conference Championship and advanced to the Division III Championship Tournament for just the third time in school history. They ranked 32nd nationally in scoring defense (66.4 ppg.) per game en route to winning 21 games and 11 in league play.

Butler followed Balcer as head coach at Chestnut Hill in May 2020 while also serving as the Assistant to the Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement, which played a critical role in the day-to-day operations of the College's Department of Athletics and Recreation. The school opted to not play in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic before returning to action in 2021-22.

In his first season as head coach, Butler led the Griffins to their highest win total (14) in a decade and equaled their total from the previous 3 seasons (2017-20). The team won 11 in Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference play and finished second in the South Division. He guided Chestnut Hill to a second consecutive winning season in 2022-23 with a 16-14 record, including a trip to the second round of the CACC Championship Tournament. The 30 wins from 2021-23 were the most by the school in a two-year span since also winning 30 between 2011-12 and 2012-13.

Butler played four seasons (2012-16) at Lipscomb, including the last three seasons for Alexander, before finishing his college career at Chestnut Hill College in 2016-17.

A native of Abingdon, Md., Butler earned his bachelor's degree in corporate management with a minor in finance from Lipscomb in 2016. He earned a master's degree in human services from Chestnut Hill College in 2018.

Butler and his wife, Marina, are the parents of a daughter, Harper, and a son, Xavier.

ASSISTANT COACH JJ BUTLER Q&A

Once an assistant coach at Division III Susquehanna University, then a head coach at Division II Chestnut Hill, then an assistant coach at Delaware and at Belmont, JJ Butler is proud of the hard work that helped pave the path along his journey. Now at K-State, Butler is on a mission.

Butler spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his journey to K-State.

Q. What was your immediate reaction when you heard Casey accepted the K-State job?

■ "I was excited, thrilled, and a little nervous, just for the transition with my family. I'd just moved from Delaware to Nashville, so to tell my wife, "We're going to pack up and move again," that just initially gave me a little bit of nerves, but my wife, my family, and I, are thrilled to be at K-State and to be a part of the K-State basketball family. More than anything, I'm really confident and excited to see the impact that Casey and our staff can have on the basketball program and on the athletic department as a whole. At some point, Casey mentioned that K-State had reached out. He said, "Hey, if this comes to fruition, is this something you and your family would be interested in?" He encouraged me to take some time and talk with my wife. To be honest, there wasn't much of a conversation about if we'd be interested, it was just whether or not the opportunity was going to come to fruition."

Q. What do you admire the most about Casey as a person and then what do you admire most about him as a coach?

■ "He's so committed to being genuine in the relationships that he has outside of basketball. It's funny, I played for Casey at Lipscomb, who's Belmont's rival and where Casey had great success before taking over at Belmont, and the relationships that he had with friends and people in Nashville who'd come to practice and support Lipscomb, that's the closest rival in college basketball, and there's — and I say this loosely — bad blood between the two schools, but to see those relationships being continued when I joined the staff at Belmont, and walked into practice and see a lot of the same faces, that speaks volumes to who he is as a man off the court. As far as who he is as a father, I had the chance to know his kids when they were younger, and getting a chance to come back to Nashville and re-meet them and re-introduce myself and my family to them, it's funny, because I didn't even recognize his youngest son. His youngest was a manager for us, and it took me three days to recognize it was his son. Seeing how he maintains success at such a high level as a basketball coach but keeps his family close every step of the way is inspiring."

Q. Describe your chemistry with Casey and what makes you tick.

■ "This was my first year on staff with him. My chemistry with Casey when I played for him as a player wasn't very eye-to-eye, I didn't play a ton and didn't have a huge role, but there was a ton of respect. I respected his basketball IQ, his knowledge, and the way he was able to play chess with the game of basketball. It's funny, my disdain for him was more of a selfish thing because I wasn't playing as much as I should have, but hindsight being 20-20 I wasn't a good enough player. Then, becoming a head coach myself, and seeing the pressures that fall upon your shoulders and the decisions you have to make, you learn quickly that everybody isn't going to be happy with the decisions you make, and honestly, that made me respect him a lot more, just seeing that he was true to his vision and what his vision unfolded as is how successful he was at Lipscomb and Belmont."

Q. What aspect of coaching do you enjoy the most?

■ "The people and the relationships. Relationships is what keeps people going, whether it's family, friends, and the fact that my profession allows me to positively impact the next generation through the game of basketball, which I love, and which taught me so much as a young man, and as a kid growing up who learned so many lessons through it. To create authentic relationships with kids as they come through K-State and grow in the game of basketball is exciting. One of my favorite memories as a coach was being invited to a wedding of one of my former players. I was a young head coach, and we watched the guys that I coached stand behind him as he committed himself to his wife. It was a full-circle moment to me. The relationship piece is definitely huge."

Q. Recruiting and signing guys out of the transfer portal is more crucial today than ever. What's the message?

■ "First and foremost, we're going to find the guys that fit what we do. That's really important. What Casey has found to be successful is finding guys that want to play a style of basketball where we're going to share it a ton and play fast and value the shot quality on offense and play together on defense. Finding guys who fit that mold is really important because it allows guys to love the game that they're playing because they're playing a style that they prefer and then grow within that as well rather than trying to mold guys into a fashion that they're not accustomed to or even desire to play in. Finding guys who fit is very, very important."

Q. From that young boy in Abingdon, Maryland, to the man you are today, what has JJ Butler learned most about himself?

■ "I can't do it by myself. A younger me would've been arrogant and said I was good enough to make it happen. If I were to tell him, "This is where I'm at," he probably would think of all the way and all the things that I did to get here, but an older me would tell him that there were so many people involved in propelling my career and in propelling me as a man. My wife is as supportive as a partner could be in this profession, where it's not easy for our wives. Having her as a partner through it all has been huge. Parents and colleagues, Casey brings me here. Colleagues and friends pushed me along the way. I'd tell the younger me to continue to cherish and nurture relationships that mean a lot to you because you don't know where they'll take you."

JOHN COOPER

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at K-State // Wichita State '91

coachcoop14_

Veteran coach John Cooper is in his first season as an assistant coach at K-State in 2026-27 after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on April 10, 2026.

"This is really an exciting time for me and understanding the great tradition that Wildcat basketball has had throughout the years," said Cooper. "Being a Big Eight fan growing up, this really is a full circle moment in many ways for me, being from right down the road in Kansas City. I have been fortunate enough to work with and be around several past K-State players like Tim Jankovich and Lon Kruger, so I know what those guys mean to the Wildcat family. I'm really, really excited to be part of this, and hopefully many, many more good years to come. I know we are working hard to put a product on the floor that everyone will be proud of and really excited to watch."

Cooper joins the staff after three seasons (2022-25) as an assistant coach to Kevin Kruger (son of Lon Kruger) at UNLV, where he helped the Runnin' Rebels to 58 wins, including 30 in Mountain West Conference play, and the school's first postseason appearance in 11 years. He helped the Rebels to their highest win total (21) in 11 years in 2023-24, as the squad won 21 games, finished fourth in the MWC and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals with wins over Princeton and Boston College. The Rebels' 84-77 win over Princeton was the first postseason win in 16 years, while the victory over BC gave them two postseason victories for the first time in 17 years. In his first season, he helped the Rebels to a 10-0 start, their best start in 34 years, en route to 19-win campaign in 2021-22.

Cooper helped coach five players who earned All-MWC honors in his time in Vegas, including Second Team selection and 2014 Mountain West co-Freshman of the Year Dedan Thomas Jr. Thomas led the team in scoring (13.6 ppg.) and assists (5.1 apg.) while leading the nation in assists (174) among freshmen.

Cooper coached with K-State alum Tim Jankovich in his final two seasons (2020-22) at SMU, where the pair led the Mustangs to 35 wins, including 20 in AAC play, and back-to-back NIT appearances. The team won 24 games in 2021-22, while placing second in league play with a 13-4 mark, and advanced to the second round of the NIT. He helped coach three Mustangs who earned All-AAC honors, including AAC Player of the Year Kendric Davis.

Cooper was on staff at Big 12 rival Oklahoma State from 2017-20, working as the Special Assistant to Head Coach and current Michigan interim coach Mike Boynton Jr. The Cowboys won 51 games in his three seasons on staff, including 21 in year one when they led the nation with six victories over ranked teams.

Cooper was a Division I head coach for eight seasons at Tennessee State (2009-12) and Miami-Ohio (2012-17), compiling a 102-152 overall record.

Cooper revitalized the Tennessee State program in his three-year stint (2009-12), leading the Tigers from nine wins in year one to their first 20-win season in 32 years in year three. He won 43 games in total at TSU, including 27 in Ohio Valley Conference play, and advanced to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament in 2012. He coached three All-OVC selections, including First Team pick Robert Covington in 2011-12, as well as 2011 OVC Freshman of the Year Patrick Miller. His 2011-12 team earned national recognition with a win over No. 7 Murray State before narrowly missing a berth in NCAA Tournament with a 54-52 loss to the Racers in the OVC Championship.

Cooper became head coach at Miami in April 2012 following the retirement of Charlie Coles, winning 59 games in five seasons (2012-17). His defense-first philosophy saw the RedHawks rank among the nation's top 50 in steals in four of his five seasons. He coached five All-MAC selections, including 2017 MAC Freshman of the Year Michael Weathers.

Cooper spent time as an assistant coach at Oregon (2002-04) and Auburn (2004-09) before earning his first head coaching position at Tennessee State in 2009. He was part of 41 wins in two seasons at Oregon with head coach Ernie Kent, including an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2003, while he was part of 81 wins under head coach Jeff Lebo at Auburn, including 24 in 2008-09.

Cooper began his coaching career at Division II Fayetteville State in Fayetteville, N.C. in 1993 before joining his college coach Eddie Fogler at South Carolina in 1995. He was on staff with the Gamecocks for six seasons (1995-2001) where he was part of 104 wins, including 48 in SEC play, with four postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1997 and 1998. In his second season on staff at USC, the Gamecocks won the SEC regular-season title with a 15-1 mark en route to winning 24 games and earning a bid to the 1997 NCAA Tournament. The team followed with a 23-win campaign and another trip to the Big Dance.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Cooper played collegiately at Wichita State from 1987-91, where he was a two-time captain for Fogler and Mike Cohen. He scored more than 1,100 points in his Shocker career, as he led the team in scoring and rebounding in his junior and senior seasons. He was a Second Team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection and a member of the All-Defensive Team in 1990 after averaging 17.0 points and 7.2 rebounds per game.

Cooper, 57, earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Wichita State in 1991 before playing in the CBA with the Fort Wayne Fury (1991-92) and Commodore Mustangs (1992-93) and overseas in the Netherlands.

Cooper and his wife, Melissa, are the parents of a daughter, Kennedy, and a son, Kameron.

ASSISTANT COACH JOHN COOPER Q&A

John Cooper knows K-State. Because Lon Kruger recruited him to K-State. Cooper, a native of Kansas City, Kan., grew up watching Rolando Blackman. So Cooper was thrilled at the opportunity to return to the Midwest and to a place he knew very well when Casey Alexander phoned him with the opportunity to join him in Manhattan.

Cooper spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his journey to K-State.

Q. What was your immediate reaction when you heard Casey accepted the K-State job?

■ "I was excited for him. I knew Casey when I was the head coach at Tennessee State. Casey was the assistant coach at Belmont. You have Tennessee State, Belmont, Lipscomb and Vanderbilt that are all right there in Nashville and all are separated just by miles. When you're there, eventually, you'll see each other, and you become friendly. There was a point where we lived in the same neighborhood, but then I took the job at Miami, but we always remained friendly. It was that kind of relationship. I'm from Kansas City, born and raised, so I have probably a better feel than a lot of people that aren't from this part of the country about K-State. I was recruited to K-State by Lon Kruger and Dana Altman and that staff. I came here for an elite camp and all those things. I worked for Tim Jankovich. All those people and all those names I knew growing up. There's a familiarity. When I grew up it was K-State basketball and Rolando Blackman and all those guys. That's what I watched. I understood the significance and great opportunity Casey had in being able to get this job, so I was certainly excited for him."

Q. Did you either watch or play games at Ahearn Field House?

■ "Yeah, so my freshman year at Wichita State in 1987-88 when Mitch Richmond, Steve Henson and Will Scott were on that K-State team, I actually played in both arenas. My freshman year we played in Ahearn Field House, and then the next year K-State came to us at Wichita State, and then the next year we played K-State in Bramlage Coliseum in its first year. My freshman year, I played about 18-20 minutes a game as a freshman and came onto the court inside Ahearn Field House and (Mitch) Richmond told me, "You have your hands full, young fella." Mitch didn't say anything on the court. He chewed that gum and he gave you work. There was a picture of me playing in Ahearn Field House that hung in Rockhurst High School for a long time."

Q. How does it feel to now wear the Powercat?

■ "Heck, man, it's awesome. It's the closest I've ever been to home. I've never been one of those people who is like, "I want to get back close to home." I just knew basketball and the life, and I knew a lot of people that are K-State grads and who are in Kansas City, so to be back here, it's certainly exciting. To see the commitment on all fronts with athletics, you feel good. You feel like this is real. There was definitely excitement. There are a lot of really, really nice people here. I've known Casey Scott for almost 40 years now since I was a player at Wichita State. It's exciting."

Q. You know Casey Alexander and you know his teams. What would be the best description for a Casey Alexander player?

■ "He'll be savvy, skilled and know how to play. He'll be smart, unselfish, and about "us" and not "me." He'll be willing to do the little things, maybe a screen, maybe delivering the pass in the right spot, and he'll be someone who wants to play with and together. He'll obviously have the ability to shoot. If you look at Casey's teams and background, the style has evolved, but those are always things you saw in his teams. They're unselfish with good spacing and there's a sense in knowing this is what it'll take to be successful. The sum of the parts is greater than the individual and how they fit together. You look at the teams you're like, "Man, that's a good team."

Q. You've had a long, great career in the industry. What are some of the most important things you've learned over the course of your career that you're bringing to K-State?

■ "It's about people. It's about being with people — good people. Administrations win championships and being fortunate enough to have an administration that supports you is important. The older you get the more you appreciate the little things and the things you say you're going to do. Stand on your word and treat people the right way whether it's student-athletes or custodiams. How do you go about it when people aren't watching? It's one of those things in 30 years of coaching experience that certainly rings true as you get into the bowels of it with people who don't see the everyday life and inner workings of things. They only see a lot of times what's on the court. But it's really interesting when you see the things behind the curtain and you start looking at programs that have had sustained success — the coaching is extremely important as are the relationships with the young men."

Q. From that little boy growing up in Kansas City to the man you are today, what have you learned most about yourself during your journey?

■ "For me, it goes back to being able to look back now and see the formative years and the people that impacted my life. Number one, how blessed and fortunate I was as a kid to have a mother and father that I did and their value system and what that meant to me, and second, moving on through the years, the impact of Rockhurst High School. It's hard to grow as a person if you aren't exposed to things. The exposure Rockhurst gave me and taught me, the one thing it taught me through the years is that you have to be true to yourself, and how you treat people is extremely important. Being respectful and respecting is extremely important and it's something I learned, and I learned about being humble, because this is a fleeting business. Being humble, respectful and treating people the right way is extremely important to me and to who I am and what I'm about."

PHIL CUNNINGHAM

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at K-State // Campbellsville '90

@philcunningham / coachphilcunningham

Veteran coach Phil Cunningham is in his first season as an assistant coach at K-State in 2026-27, after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on April 10, 2026.

"It's a tremendous honor and privilege to join Coach Alexander's new staff at Kansas State," said Cunningham. "Coach and I forged a friendship in the bleachers of Disney's Wide World of Sports (in Orlando) as assistant coaches recruiting every summer at the AAA National Tournament, and I've always admired the way his teams play. He fits perfectly with the blue-collar mantra of the K-State community, and I can't wait to be a part of this program."

Cunningham spent the last two seasons (2024-26) at Louisiana-Monroe (ULM), including the 2025-26 season as head coach. His ULM team lost at K-State, 94-85, on Dec. 28.

Cunningham joined the ULM staff after a second stint at Western Kentucky, where he spent four seasons (2019-23) as associate head coach to Rick Stansbury. He was part of 77 wins, including 43 in Conference USA play, with one conference title and one postseason appearance. The squad won 41 games in his first two seasons (2019-21) on staff, including 21 in year two with a first-place finish in the Conference USA East Division and the NIT quarterfinals.

Cunningham earned his first Division I head coaching job at Troy in 2013, spending six seasons (2013-19) in charge of the Trojan program. He led Troy to the school's first Sun Belt title and its second NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017, where the Trojans faced No. 2 seed Duke in the Greensboro Region. The 13-win improvement in 2016-17 was one of the biggest in school history while they finished with most wins (22) since 2003-04. In addition to his on-court success, his teams prioritized academic achievement, as the Trojans won two Sun Belt Team Academic Awards with 16 players who competed as seniors earning their degrees.

Cunningham signed and coached two of the most talented players in Troy history in Wesley Person Jr. and Jordon Varnado, who hold the top two spots on the school's all-time scoring list. The 2017 SBC Tournament MVP and 2015 SBC Freshman of the Year, Person became the second player in Sun Belt history to be named all-league in four consecutive seasons. Person is the all-time career leader in Sun Belt history for made 3-point field goals. Varnado was a three-time All-SBC honoree and was recognized on the 2017 Sun Belt All-Tournament Team and 2018-19 Julius Erving National Small Forward of the Year Watch List.

Prior to becoming a head coach at Troy in 2013, Cunningham spent one season as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky with head coach Ray Harper, where the pair led the Hilltoppers to 20 wins, a Sun Belt Tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. The team won four games in four days at the SBC Tournament to collect the school's second-straight conference title before narrowly losing to No. 1 seed Kansas in the NCAA Tournament.

Cunningham spent 12 seasons (2000-12) as an assistant coach at Mississippi State, where he first worked under Stansbury. While in Starkville, he was part of six NCAA Tournament appearances and 10 total postseason bids while the school posted a 259-137 (.654) overall record, including 109-83 (.568) mark in SEC play. The Bulldogs won five SEC Western Division crowns, one regular-season conference championship and a pair of SEC Tournament titles during Cunningham's tenure. MSU made it to the semifinal round of the SEC Tournament in 7 of Cunningham's 12 seasons, playing in the championship game four times while winning two titles.

All 12 recruiting classes Cunningham was involved with at MSU were nationally recognized, as he was the lead recruiter on highly-touted prospects such as Jarvis Varnado, Jamont Gordon, Arnette Moultrie, Charles Rhodes and 2004 Gatorade National Player of the Year Monta Ellis.

Before joining the MSU staff, Cunningham spent five seasons (1995-2000) as assistant coach under Naismith Hall of Fame head coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell at James Madison (1995-97) and Georgia State (1997-2000). He was part of 76 wins during that span, including four consecutive winning seasons and two conference championships (1998, 2000). He was promoted to Driesell's associate head coach in his final two seasons at GSU, helping build the Panthers into one of the winningest programs in the Atlantic Sun. His recruiting efforts proved pivotal in landing successive conference player of the year recipients Shernard Long (2001) and Thomas Terrell (2002).

Cunningham earned his first head coaching job at Sue Bennett College in London, Ky., in 1992. Taking over a former junior college program making the jump to four-year competition in the NAIA, he led the school to 48 victories in three seasons (1992-95), including two postseason tournament appearances.

Cunningham was a graduate assistant for Richard Williams at Mississippi State in 1991-92.

A native of Campbellsville, Ky., Cunningham was part of a Division II national championship team at Kentucky Wesleyan in 1986-87 before transferring to Campbellsville to play for his father, Lou, who remains the school's all-time winningest coach (335; 1966-72; 1978-97) from 1987-90. The younger Cunningham still ranks eighth on the school's all-time list for assists (436), while he is tied for fifth on the single-season list with 236 assists (1989-90). He started his coaching career at Campbellsville for his dad in 1990-91 when the pair guided the Tigers to a 19-11 record, a District 32 Championship and a trip to the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City.

Cunningham earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Campbellsville in 1990 before earning a master's degree in sports administration from Mississippi State in 1992. He has a daughter Shelby, who hold an undergraduate degree from the University of Buffalo and a master's degree from Columbia.

ASSISTANT COACH PHIL CUNNINGHAM Q&A

Phil Cunningham fancies himself as a sports historian. The veteran college basketball coach recalls the Wildcats' rich basketball history, and called the rise of K-State football "the greatest success story in college football in my lifetime." He envisions another success story in the Little Apple under Casey Alexander.

Cunningham spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his journey to K-State.

Q. You have coached for nearly four decades, mostly in the southeast at places like Mississippi State and Western Kentucky. How are excited are you about this opportunity at K-State?

■ "To have that Powercat on your chest, to me, this is an area that seems to be a blue-collar area where it's about toughness, grit and work ethic, and in basketball, too, that's been the mantra for years. The fan base is really going to be pleased with what Coach Alexander, his staff, and this team bring to the court. This has a chance to be something really special here, and I'm excited about it all."

Q. We mentioned your experience especially during your run at Mississippi State, which was one of the best in its history. What do you bring to table as an assistant coach?

■ "All my Power 4 experience has been in the SEC and I'm excited about being in the Big 12. I'm not going to be overbearing but just inject some opinion from experience when those times come. A lot of people think in terms of positional groups with the football mentality of having position coaches. Basketball is different. I bring a lot of versatility with recruiting and the experience I have throughout my career as much as anything is what I add to this staff. I've worked with guards, bigs, and as the head coach, and I've done it all. These young guys who came from Belmont on Coach's staff, they did the work that got them to this point. They earned this opportunity because of the way they recruited, coached and developed. I'm so excited for them to have this opportunity."

Q. You have been around a lot of successful programs in your career. What is the most important ingredient for the Wildcats to succeed under Coach Alexander's leadership?

■ "Collective competitiveness. You see it every day individually, but it's got to be collective. You have to have that grit, toughness and willingness to compete. Teamwork is such a huge part of that. Ultimately, it comes down to how competitive you can be collectively. There are so many little things that go into that. I'm a huge guy in having that competitive mindset."

Q. How surprised were you to get the team put together so fast? I mean you recruited and signed 13 players in about 3 weeks. What did that process look like?

■ "What struck me immediately in the way Casey put this together — the word is 'efficient.' Casey is efficient as a coach, too, when you look at offensive and defensive efficiency. In analytics, he's always been a coach who's been efficient. That was immediately applied to recruiting. He was ready to put this roster together and start moving forward. In my role, I transferred that urgency into the recruit himself, his family, his agent, and whoever is involved. I told them, 'Now you need to understand, Coach knows what he wants, he has a profile, and you fit that profile. You need to understand once you leave this official visit somebody else is coming in right behind you.' What I've seen so far, there's a real eagerness to be a part of this. I'm a believer in being straight forward with these guys. I was extremely impressed with how he delegated things and brought things together and listened and had what he wanted personally, but he listened to everybody, and when you have as many guys as we have on our staff, he made us feel a part of the process. I was really impressed with how quickly it came together."

Q. You have mentioned before the relationships you have built on the international stage and how you have encouraged Casey Alexander to start recruiting international players. Can you talk about the benefits on international players?

■ "I've been saying to Coach Alexander for years, 'You need to get into international recruiting, because their offensive background fits your system so well. Now we're going to have two guys and moving forward I hope we have more. The European system of play really fits what Coach has done in the past and what he's going to do here. I've recruited international so much and have so many relationships with agents, and they're aware of Casey and what he did at Belmont, and there's a lot of excitement in getting some of their guys over here. The one thing I see from international guys who come to the U.S., how many of them are that one guy who maybe can be the shooter for us, or we peg him into a role, and not many do what Illinois has done, and say, 'We're going to take what they do,' and really take advantage of their skill set when they get here."

Q. Obviously, not a lot of fans have seen the players before. What has you excited about this group?

■ "So many of those guys fit the profile for what's been the Belmont profile and what is now the K-State profile. When you combine their individual skill set with the system that's going to be in place and the way it's going to be coached, the opportunity they have to really shine in this system, it'll be a great motivator. When the individual improves then collectively you improve. The potential is there and if they take that next step. If five or six of them take that next step individually in what they're capable of doing, we have a chance to really surprise people."

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at K-State // Belmont '13

@CoachKerronj / kjbbruin03

Kerron Johnson is in his first season as an assistant coach at K-State in 2026-27 after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on March 30, 2026.

"I'm super excited about getting here," said Johnson. "As Coach said in his press conference, once you get here you understand it's a special place. I can't wait to get on the court and give people something to cheer for."

Johnson spent four seasons (2022-26) on Alexander's Belmont staff, the first two seasons as the director of player development before being elevated to assistant coach in 2024-25. He was part of 89 wins, including 55 in league play, as the Bruins transitioned from the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) to Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) while extending their streak of 20-win season to 15, dating back to his playing career (2009-13). He helped Belmont win 26 games and capture its first-ever Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship in 2025-26.

Johnson also played a part in the development of a MVC Player of the Year (Tyler Lundblade), one Newcomer of the Year (Cade Tyson), nine all-conference selections (four first team picks), five all-newcomer team honorees, four all-freshman team members and three all-defensive team selections. In addition, he worked closely with two-time all-conference guard Ben Sheppard, who was selected No. 26 by the Indiana Pacers in the 2023 NBA Draft. He also played an instrumental role in the development of numerous Bruin lead guards, most notably Ja'Kobi Gillespie, Keishawn Davidson, Carter Whitt and Brody Peebles.

Johnson is considered one of the most decorated players in Belmont history while playing for Hall of Fame head coach Rick Byrd from 2009-13. The former point guard led the Bruins to a 102-32 (.761) overall record, including a 63-11 (.851) mark in conference play, with four consecutive conference championships (3 Atlantic Sun Conference and 1 Ohio Valley Conference) to go along with three trips to the NCAA Tournament (2011, 2012, 2013).

Johnson was a two-time first team all-conference selection, first in the Atlantic Sun in 2012 before doing it in the Ohio Valley in 2013, while he is among an exclusive list of players to earn conference tournament MVP honors in two different leagues (2012 Atlantic Sun and 2013 Ohio Valley). His game-tying and game-winning shots in the 2013 OVC Championship win over Murray State rank among the most recognizable moments in program history. He also ranks among the Belmont career leaders in points (1,388), assists (515), steals (206) and free throws made (511). He was inducted into the Belmont Athletics Hall of Fame in 2021.

Upon graduating from Belmont in 2013, Johnson played professionally for nine years overseas before returning to the school as the director of player development in 2022. Among the many stops include teams in New Zealand, Germany, France, Italy, Israel, Romania, Russia and Poland.

Johnson began his professional career playing for the New Zealand Breakers in 2013. He played in 28 games for the Breakers, averaging 12.6 points, 2.8 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 1.2 steals per game. He moved to MHP Riesen Ludwigsburg of the German BBL in 2014-15, where he averaged 14.2 points, 2.7 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 1.1 steals per game. He then played a club in France (SPO Rouen Basket) before returning to Riesen Ludwigsburg in 2017-18.

In 2018-19, Johnson played in 18 games for Italian club Pistoia Basket 2000, where he averaged 12.1 points, 3.1 rebounds and 3.7 assists, before moving to Israeli club Hapoel Be'er Sheva, where he averaged 14.3 points, 2.6 rebounds, 4.8 assists and 1.3 steals per game in 16 games in leading the squad to the 2019 Israeli League Playoffs. After stints with clubs in Romania, Russia and Germany, he finished his pro career with Spojnia Stargard in the Polish Basketball League in 2022.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Johnson starred at Madison Academy in Madison, Ala., where he was named 2009 Alabama Mr. Basketball while averaging 24 points, 6 assists and 2 steals in helping the Mustangs win 29 games.

Johnson comes from a family of coaches, as his sister, Nyla, is the head women's basketball coach at Vincennes University in Vincennes, Ind., while his brother, Kerryon, is in his second season as the running backs coach at East Tennessee State. Nyla is in her second season at Vincennes, where she led the Trailblazers to a 20-10 record in her first season in 2025-26, including an 11-3 mark in Region 24 play and a second-place finish in the league standings. Kerryon played football at Auburn (2015-17), where he became the 2017 SEC Offensive Player of the Year. He was drafted in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft by Detroit. He spent three seasons (2018-20) with the Lions before stints with the Philadelphia Eagles (2021) and San Francisco 49ers (2021).

Johnson earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Belmont in 2013.

Johnson, 35, and his wife, Gina, are the parents of a son, Kayden, and a daughter, Kaylee.

Q. What was your immediate reaction when you heard Casey accepted the K-State job?

■ "I was excited for him and for everybody. We knew it was a big opportunity for him, something he's been waiting for a long time — his opportunity. To see him actually get it, to see the relief on his face when he got it, it was exciting for us. We had had conversations about potentially following him. We knew how good he was and how us having a good year would garnish some attention, so he talked to us pretty early in the process about how quickly it could happen and if we were interested. Of course, we were going to go where the captain goes."

Q. What do you admire the most about Casey as a person and then what do you admire most about him as a coach?

■ "I admire how much he cares about his players. In the world that we live in now, we could become transactional. In a world where that's a lot of the situations, it's not for him. He invests deeply into the guys he coaches and recruits. He believes everything that he tells the family in the recruiting process about how we want to make them better men, not just better players. So, it's very important for us that we relay those messages when we talk to our guys. We have very personal relationships with our guys. At Belmont, when we lost one, it really hurt. It wasn't just, 'Good luck.' That's probably the biggest thing I admire about him as a person. As a coach, I admire his leadership style. He gives us a lot of responsibility and trusts us a lot more, and he delegates a lot to us, but he knows that we all have ambitions of being head coaches one day, and so he gives us all the responsibilities that we'd need to be successful. A lot of coaches, that's hard for them to do, to relinquish control, but in doing that our responsibilities are higher, he expects a lot more of us, and he's tough on us, but he's fair and he's honest."

Q. Describe your chemistry with Casey and what makes you vibe.

■ "He was my coach and he recruited me at 16 years old, and he was my position coach. Our intensity and the way we go about things and the way we see how the game should be played, we see it very similarly. We vibe from that. I tend to look more at the defensive side of the ball whereas he's an offensive guru, so that's where our balance naturally happens as far as on a staff. He recruited me because he saw a lot of the same traits in being a competitor and intense and being demanding, those things, but we just balance each other in how we see the game."

Q. What makes K-State a good fit for Kerron Johnson?

■ "Man, you kidding me? This place is awesome. You grow up watching Michael Beasley and Jacob Pullen in here and you know how special this place is. You understand that K-State fans care a lot about their team. As a competitor, coach and athlete, that's what you want. You want people who care about winning and losing, and who care about guys in the program. We were more than excited about having this opportunity to come here where everybody is as invested as they are. This place is special, man. I can't wait to take my son to a football game, our women's programs, baseball, all of it. Growing up in Alabama, this type of community seems normal for me."

Q. What are the keys to being a great point guard?

■ "Competitiveness is the first thing. There's a lot of skilled players out there today and I think competitiveness and motor are the separators, and it's what separates those guys that you mention. Ja'Kobi (Gillespie) competed every day. I saw him play a whole half of basketball with a broken right wrist. He played left-handed. Those guys are extremely competitive. It's easy to just work on skills, but developing the mental, how they watch the game, how they see the game, that's what separates them, and that's what we do a great job of. Ben (Sheppard) should've been national defensive player of the year and Larry Bird Player of the Year. That kid is a freak. It's a lot of time, dedication and trust on their part, and building that trust so they believe what you're telling them."

Q. Recruiting and signing guys out of the transfer portal is more crucial today than at any other time. What's the message?

■ "We're going to have every resource available to get the best players in the country, so for us, it's even more important that we recruit the right type of kids, the right kids that are about the right things. It's instrumental in what's made us successful, it's what they trust Casey to do, is to have a bunch of guys that we know are going to be talented, but who truly care about the sacrifice that it takes to be a championship team. In an age where you have a lot of money and can get a lot of different players, it's never been more important to get the right type of kids in your program. That's our No. 1 priority is to get the right kids and everything else will take care of itself. "

Q. From that little boy growing up in Huntsville, Alabama, to the man you are today, what has Kerron Johnson learned most about himself during his journey?

■ "That I don't break. I played professional basketball for nine years in Russia and Germany and was a long way from home, and there's been a lot of ups and downs and failures. I don't break. Whatever happens, it won't affect how we go about taking care of our business. And that's the only way I've been successful. You can bend, just don't break. You can find your way through it."

LUKE SMITH

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season at K-State // Belmont '21, '22

@Coach_SmithKSU

Luke Smith is in his first season as an assistant coach at K-State in 2026-27 after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on March 30, 2026.

"I'm super honored and excited to be coming to K-State and joining Coach Alexander's staff," said Smith. "We are excited about putting a product on the floor that Wildcat fans can be proud of."

Smith spent two seasons (2024-26) on Alexander's staff at Belmont, first as the director of player development in 2024-25 before becoming an assistant coach prior to the 2025-26 season. He was part of 48 wins, including 29 in conference play, as the Bruins extended their streak of 20-win seasons to 15, dating to his player career (2019-22). He helped the school win 26 games in 2025-26 and capture their first-ever MVC regular season championship.

Smith returned to his alma mater after spending the 2023-24 season as an assistant coach at Division II Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, Tenn., for head coach Kevin Carroll. He helped the Trojans post a 16-13 record, including an 11-9 mark in conference play. The 16 wins equaled the most wins in the school's NCAA era, while the 11 conference wins were the most since 2009-10. It was the second winning season in the Division II era.

Before joining the college ranks, Smith served as the head coach at Knoxville Catholic High School – his alma mater – in 2022-23. He led the Fighting Irish to a 20-8 overall record, including a 5-3 mark in district play, where they finished third in the Division II-AA East District, and advanced to the state tournament. He earned the position while he was still playing at Belmont in September 2022 to replace his high school coach Michael Hutchens.

Smith played three seasons at Belmont (2019-22) after transferring from Division III University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn., where he played two seasons (2017-19). He was part of 77 wins with the Bruins, which included two Ohio Valley Conference regular season titles (2020, 2021), an OVC Tournament Championship (2020), an automatic bid to the 2020 NCAA Tournament and an at-large bid to the 2022 Postseason NIT.

Smith started all 63 games in the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons, averaging 10.3 points on 43.6 percent shooting, including 36.8 percent from 3-point range, and 84.8 percent from the free throw line to go with 2.6 assists, 2.1 rebounds and 1.6 steals in 27.7 minutes per game. He was the member of the OVC All-Newcomer Team in 2020-21 after leading the league in both 3-point field goals made (78) and 3-point field goal percentage (39.4).

Smith went on to start all 53 games in his career at Sewanee from 2017-19, averaging 17.7 points on 46 percent shooting, including 40.6 percent from 3-point range, to go with 4.4 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.7 steals in 34.3 minutes per game. As a sophomore, he helped the Tigers earn their first NCAA Tournament bid since 1998.

In helping the school to the NCAA Tournament, Smith was a D3hoops.com All-South Region Second Team selection, a member of the All-Southern Athletic Association (SAA) First Team and the SAA Tournament MVP. He was a three-time SAA Player of the Week. His sophomore season, he averaged 20.1 points on 48.8 percent shooting, including 43.4 percent from 3-point range, to go with 4.3 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 2.1 steals in 35 minutes per game.

Smith made an immediate impact for the Tigers as a freshman in 2017-18, where he earned SAA Newcomer of the Year honors and was a All-SAA Second Team selection. He started all 25 games, averaging 15.2 points on 42.8 percent shooting, including 36.9 percent from 3-point range, while dishing out 105 assists.

A two-time Academic All-Academic selection, Smith scored 1,588 career points in his college career at the University of the South and Belmont with 273 made 3-point field goals.

Smith prepped at Knoxville Catholic, where he was a finalist for Mr. Basketball Tennessee in 2017, under head coach Michael Hutchens. He led the Fighting Irish to a runner-up in the Class AA state tournament during his senior year, which was the team's first appearance in the state final since 2006. He was an all-state selection in 2017, while he was the Prep Xtra and KIL Player of the Year. He graduated in the top 10 percent of his high school class.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Smith earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Belmont in 2021 before earning an MBA in 2022.

Smith and his wife Hannah were married this past summer.

ASSISTANT COACH LUKE SMITH Q&A

Luke Smith was the first K-State men's basketball assistant coach to arrive in Manhattan. He pulled open the doors to the Ice Family Basketball Center, met head coach Casey Alexander in his office, and the two got to work.

Before the start of practice, Smith spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his journey to K-State.

Q. What was your immediate reaction when you heard Casey accepted the K-State job?

■ "Excitement for him and his family. He's gotten what he deserves in terms of the ability to coach at the highest level. For the longest time, I thought he's one of the best coaches in the country and he's a competitive as anyone, so to get to do it now at the highest level, I'm super excited for him. Obviously, you have conversations as things are transpiring, but you don't really know how serious those are or what that means. After he accepted the job, we had some more serious conversations. It's a no-brainer opportunity for me to stick with someone I know, trust and love, and know that we align a lot on how we see college basketball and developing young men and coaching young men. To be able to do that at the highest level with someone that I trust is a no-brainer."

Q. What do you admire the most about Casey as a person and then what do you admire most about him as a coach?

■ "He's extremely honest and he has no problem having hard conversations and telling you things that maybe you don't want to hear but that you need to hear. It's something I've always admired and have appreciated about him. It might not be the style for everyone, but for people who want to get better and want to hear how they can get better, it's an honest relationship that gives the opportunity for real growth. I admire so many things about him as a coach, but his overall consistency in how he prepares and attacks every day, he's just a relentless worker. He's in the office early and just consistent in how he approaches things, attacks the day. You wouldn't really know if we were on a three-game skid or had won 10 in a row. It's that kind of consistency that's brought him a lot of success."

Q. Describe your chemistry with Casey and what makes you tick.

■ "I probably annoy him every now and then but I believe in everyone getting their thoughts and ideas out on the table so we can all decide the best course. Ultimately, as assistants, it's our jobs to give him those ideas, talk about what we think we need, or what players we need to go after, and he gets to sign off on everything. Regardless of if it's what I wanted or what Kerron or JJ wanted, we all understand that he makes the decision, and if we can all get our ideas out there, whatever he chooses, we can all be on the same page and push forward with a united front. He's given me a lot of freedom and power to have a voice, coach the guys, and it's been amazing working for him."

Q. What aspect of coaching do you enjoy the most?

■ "Just being around the players. I coached high school for one year and there's just a level of maturity that's not there in the sense that you can't have real, real relationships with those guys, and the ability to talk about hard things and face hard things together. I love being able to go through a season with 18-to-24-year-olds and just be able to attack it together, because I'm still young enough to understand what they're going through, and what they are experiencing, and I think that's valuable on a staff. Just having a relationship with those guys and helping them face their problems and trying to achieve some great things."

Q. I saw where you were set to see an increased role in game planning, scouting reports and recruiting at Belmont. How excited are you to possibly take on those tasks here?

■ "That's what's exciting about this, is that some of that stuff we won't have to completely start over in the sense of our style and how we attack things and how we want to recruit and develop players. Obviously, there's different challenges and other things, but the basketball part is what I'm best at, and I'm excited to do that here."

Q. Recruiting and signing guys out of the transfer portal is more crucial today than at any other time. What's the message?

■ "We have to show them how special this place is and the fans and everything else, but really we just want to bring in guys and build a culture that they want to do it for K-State and they want to do it for their team, and really not care who's getting the credit. It's about all of us getting on the same page so we can accomplish great things, and do something bigger than ourselves, and give the people of Manhattan something that they're proud of — a team that's totally bought into winning and winning for K-State. We have to go find those guys."

Q. From that young coach at Knoxville Catholic High School in 2022, to the man you are today, what have you learned the most about yourself during this journey?

■ "My first year at Catholic, being a head coach and being 22 years old, I tried to make concessions and make everyone happy, and do all these things, and I wasn't really true to myself and what I believe about how basketball works, how life works, and how you should coach young men — all of that. I learned that I couldn't live with myself if I didn't get to do it that way, and coach guys in that way. I think I just learned a lot about myself in terms of — those are my values and regardless of where you are, you have to be able to stick to those and try to implement them, even if it's at a higher level.

WES LONG

CHIEF OF STAFF

First Season at K-State // Clemson '04

@KSU_CoachWes / coachweslong

Wes Long is in his first season as the Chief of Staff at K-State in 2026-27, after being hired by head coach Casey Alexander on April 13, 2026.

"The opportunity to work with Coach Alexander, at a place as special as Kansas State, is both exciting and humbling at the same time." said Long. "I've held the utmost respect for Casey as a basketball coach for a long time. As I got to know him better over the years, his character as a man and leader made me admire him even more. The chance to come alongside him and do it at tradition-rich K-State is such a blessing. My wife and I, along with our children, cannot wait to make Manhattan home and to help him build a program that will make all Wildcats fans proud."

A former Division II head coach at Queens University in Charlotte from 2008-13, Long has 22 years of coaching experience, including stints at Queens (2004-13), Chattanooga (2013-15), VCU (2015-17), UNC Asheville (2017-18) and Middle Tennessee State (2018-26). He has been a part of more than 400 wins in his coaching career, including 75 as a head coach at Queens, with five conference championships and nine postseason appearances.

Long has worked under notable head coaches Larry Shyatt and Oliver Purnell at Clemson (2001-04), Brian Good at Queens, Will Wade at Chattanooga and VCU and Nick McDevitt at UNC Asheville and MTSU.

At Middle Tennessee State (2018-26)

Long joined the K-State coaching staff in April 2026 after eight seasons (2018-26) at Middle Tennessee State, including the last four (2022-26) as associate head coach under head coach Nick McDevitt. He was part of 122 wins with the Blue Raiders, including 69 in Conference USA, with a pair of postseason appearances. He spent one season with McDevitt at UNC Asheville before making the move to MTSU.

After enduring three consecutive losing seasons from 2018-21, including just 5 wins in 2020-21, the Blue Raiders rebounded to win nearly 58 percent (98-71) of their games in Long's last five seasons (2021-26) on campus, including 20-win seasons in 2022 and 2025. The team's 122 wins in the last eight seasons are the fourth-most by a coaching staff in school history, while the 69 conference victories rank third. In addition, the Blue Raiders advanced to the semifinals of the C-USA Tournament four straight seasons from 2022-25.

The 2021-22 squad made a 21-game improvement from a 5-win campaign in 2020-21 to win 26 games and advanced to the finals of the CBI, where they lost to UNC Wilmington in double overtime, 96-90. The Blue Raiders finished first in the East Division of C-USA with a 13-5 league record, including a perfect 9-0 mark at home. The team won 22 games in 2024-25, including 12 in C-USA play, and were selected as a 4-seed in the Dayton Region of the NIT, where they lost in triple overtime to Chattanooga, 109-103.

During his time in Murfreesboro, Long coached two C-USA Newcomers of the Year (Antonio Green and Essam Mostafa), 15 all-conference selections (including First Teamer Mostafa), four all-freshmen team picks and one member of the all-defensive team. In addition, 17 players earned CUSA Player of the Week honors.

As the team's defensive coordinator, Long helped the Blue Raiders to a number of high-water marks setting school records for steals (295) in 2021-22 and blocks average (4.8) and total blocks (159) in 2022-23. The squad also set the record for most blocks in a game with 13 vs. a Casey Alexander-coached Belmont team on Dec. 10, 2022. As recently as 2024-25, Long helped MTSU rank 19th in 3-point field goal percentage defense, 30th in rebounds per game and 42nd in defensive rebounds per game.

This past season, MTSU posted a 17-15 overall record, including an 11-9 mark in C-USA play, and had a pair of all-conference selections, including Third Team pick Torey Alston. The team held teams to 55 points or less on three occasions, most notably in a home game against Louisiana Tech on Jan. 2 when the Bulldogs scored just 51 points, which were fewest surrendered to a C-USA opponent since 2021-22.

At UNC Asheville (2017-18)

Long followed McDevitt to MTSU after one season (2017-18) as an assistant coach at UNC Asheville, where the pair led the school to 21 wins, the Big South regular season Championship and an automatic bid to the NIT, where the Bulldogs lost to top-seed USC in double overtime, 103-98. The team won nine of their last 11 games in the regular season, including a 7-game winning streak in league play that began with an 84-68 victory at eventual tournament champion Liberty. They lost to the Flames in the conference semifinals.

Big man Ahman Thomas was the Big South Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight year, while Thomas was joined on the All-Big South First Team by MaCio Teague.

At VCU (2015-17)

Long spent four seasons on head coach Will Wade's coaching staff at both Chattanooga (2013-15) and VCU (2015-17), where he was part of 91 wins and three postseason appearances (two NCAA Tournaments (2016, 2017) and one CollegeInsider.com Tournament (2014).

VCU advanced to the NCAA Tournament each of Long's two seasons on staff, including a trip to the Round of 32 after a win over Oregon State in 2016, while compiling a 51-20 record. The Rams went an impressive 28-8 in Atlantic 10 play, tying for 2016 regular season title and appearing in two A10 Tournament Championship games.

VCU won 25 games in Long's first season on staff, tying for the Atlantic 10 regular season title with Dayton and St. Bonaventure with identical 14-4 marks. The team won 12 straight games from Dec. 22, 2015 to Feb. 3, 2016 to open A-10 play 9-0 before battling back to win five of their last seven and losing a 68-67 overtime heartbreaker at Dayton on the last day of the regular season. The Rams advanced to the A-10 Tournament Championship, losing to bid stealer Saint Joseph's, 87-74. They still earned a bid to the 2016 NCAA Tournament, knocking off 7-seed Oregon State, 75-67, before losing 85-81 to No. 2 seed Oklahoma.

The Rams won 26 games in 2016-17, including 14 in Atlantic 10 play, to finish second behind Dayton in the league standings. The squad posted eight and nine-game winning streaks during the season before another narrow loss at Dayton ended their title hopes. They advanced to the A-10 Championship game, losing to Rhode Island, 70-63. They made a return to the NCAA Tournament, falling to Saint Mary's, 85-77, in the West Regional in Salt Lake City.

Long was the position coach for Rams point guard JeQuan Lewis, who earned First Team All-A10 honors as a senior in 2017, while also coaching big man Mo Alie-Cox, who finished his career as the school's all-time leader in field goal percentage. Alie-Cox is currently in his ninth season as a tight end for the Indianapolis Colts.

At Chattanooga (2013-15)

Long was part of 40 wins in two seasons (2013-15) with Wade at Chattanooga, including back-to-back runner-up finishes in the Southern Conference, with a trip to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament in 2014. He was instrumental in building a Mocs team that won a school-record 29 games and captured both the SoCon regular season and tournament titles in 2015-16.

The Mocs won 18 games in Long's first season on staff, including a second-place finish behind Davidson with a 12-4 mark in SoCon play, before falling to rival East Tennessee State, 79-66, in the CIT first round. The squad enjoyed a 10-game winning streak from Dec. 29, 2013 to Jan. 25, 2014, which including an 8-0 start in the conference play. They won 22 games in 2014-15, finishing a game behind Wofford at 15-3 in league play, which included a six-game winning streak to end the regular season before a 69-67 upset loss to Furman in the tournament quarterfinals.

Long helped coach a pair of Southern Conference Defensive Players of the Year in Z. Mason (2014) and Justin Tuoyo (2015) as well as All-Southern Conference selections Mason, Casey Jones (2014, 2015) and Tuoyo (2015).

At Queens (2004-13)

Before becoming a Division I assistant coach in 2013, Long spent nine seasons (2004-13) at then Division II Queen University in Charlotte, N.C., where he rose from a graduate assistant (2004-06) to assistant coach (2006-08) before serving as head coach for his last five seasons (2008-13). He was part of 151 wins with the Royals, including 108 in Conference Carolinas play, with three trips (2007, 2008, 2011) to the Division II playoffs. He coached five NABC Division II Southeast All-District selections and 13 all-conference honorees.

Queens increased its win total in each of Long's four seasons (2004-08) as a graduate assistant and assistant coach, including back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2007 and 2008, and two NCAA Division II Tournament berths under head coach Brian Good. He was promoted to a full-time assistant and recruiting coordinator at Queens in 2006. He was promoted to head coach in June 2008 after Good departed for Wingate.

Long went 75-66 (.532) in his five seasons as head coach, building the Royals from a 7-win season in 2008-09 to consecutive conference regular season titles in 2011 and 2012. His 2010-11 squad won 21 games, including a 16-2 mark in Conference Carolinas play, and advanced to the second round of the Division II Southeast Region before losing at Augusta State, 71-60. He was named the Conference Carolinas Coach of the Year. He followed that 21-win campaign with 19 in 2011-12, including 13 in league play to finish first in the East Division of Conference Carolinas.

Long's 75 wins still rank third on Queens all-time coaching ledger behind Bart Lundy (333, 1998-03; 2013-22) and Dale Layer (168, 1989-98).

Long coached six all-conference selections, including three-time selection Daniel Bailey (2010, 2011, 2012) and two-time pick Antonio Stabler (2012, 2013). Bailey (2010, 2012), Stabler (2013) and Reggie Hopkins (2011) all earned NABC Division II Southeast All-District honors under Long.

>>> JEROME TANG

END OF AN ERA

The Jerome Tang era ends in the midst of season four, as K-State finishes with losses in 16 of its last 19 games

Overview

▶ A season of promise, in which, Kansas State opened the season with 5 straight wins, including victories over Cal, Tulsa and Mississippi State, showed cracks in early December with home losses to Bowling Green and Seton Hall before completely falling apart in Big 12 play with losses in 11 of its first 12 games. Head coach Jerome Tang was let go on Feb. 15, 2026 with the Wildcats sitting at 10-15 overall and 1-11 in league play, as associate head coach Matthew Driscoll took over for the last 7 games of the season, leading to a 2-5 finish. The team completed the year at 12-20 overall, including a 15th-place finish in Big 12 play with a 3-15 record.

▶ Tang became the first Wildcat head coach to be dismissed during the season, as the other interim stints came due to the health of the head coach, including Darryl Winston serving in the position for the final 15 games of the 1984-85 season after Jack Hartman's heart attack.

▶ A 105-91 loss to BYU in the first round of the Big 12 Tournament, in which, NBA No. 1 draft pick AJ Dybansta scored a tournament-record 40 points, put the finishing touches on the Wildcats' second consecutive losing season. It was the fewest wins (12) in a season since winning just 11 in 2019-20, while it was the fourth 20-loss season in school history.

▶ The 12 wins represented the third-fewest in the last 25 seasons, only surpassed by 9 in 2020-21 and 11 in 2019-20, while the 3 Big 12 wins tied for the second-fewest since the league's inception and the lowest since winning 2 games in 1999-2000. The 15 conference losses tied for the most, matching the 15 in 2019-20, while the 15th-place finish was the worst.

▶ After starting the season with 5 straight wins, K-State won just 7 games the rest of the season, which included 5- and 6-game losing streaks. The Wildcats opened Big 12 play with 5 consecutive losses for the first time since 1996-97, while the 1-11 start was the worst since 2020-21.

Tang Era Ends

▶ Head coach Jerome Tang's tenure ended on February 15, 2026 less than 24 hours after the Wildcats dropped a 78-64 decision at No. 3/3 Houston to fall to 1-11 in Big 12 play and 10-15 overall. Selected as the 2023 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year after guiding K-State to a 26-win season and its 13th trip to the Elite Eight in his inaugural season, was the 25th head coach in school history.

▶ In his 4 seasons as head coach, Tang led the Wildcats to a 71-57 (.555) record, including 29 wins in Big 12 play, with back-to-back postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the Elite Eight. Among his 71 wins were 16 against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 7 Top 10 opponents. He also posted a 12-1 mark in overtime games, including an NCAA single-season record 7 such wins in 2023-24. He is one of 4 head coaches (Lon Kruger, Frank Martin and Bruce Weber) to help the Wildcats to the postseason in their first 2 seasons.

Driscoll Serves as Interim Coach

▶ Associate head coach Matthew Driscoll served as the Wildcats' interim head coach for the last 7 games of the season, guiding the squad to a 2-5 mark, including home wins over Baylor and West Virginia. The winningest coach in both North Florida (248) and Atlantic Sun (144) history was just in his first season on the coaching staff.

▶ In snapping the school's 6-game losing streak in the 90-74 win over the Bears on Feb. 17, 2026, Driscoll became just the second interim head coach in school history to win his debut and the first in nearly 20 years when Jimmy Elgas led the Wildcats to a 66-63 win over Iowa State on Feb. 8, 2006. His two wins are the second-most by an interim head coach, as Darryl Winston went 5-10 in a similar role in 1984-85.

Haggerty Becomes All-American

▶ Junior PJ Haggerty capped an impressive year on the court by earning honorable mention All-America honors from The Associated Press. It marked the second time in his career that he earned All-America honors from the AP after being selected to the Second Team while at Memphis in 2024-25. He became the 44th All-American in school history.

▶ Haggerty finished as the nation's No. 4 scorer at 23.4 points per game, while scoring in double figures in all 31 games played, which included 23 games of 20 or more points and five games of 30 or more points. His 725 points were the fourth-most in a single season and the most since Michael Beasley had a school-record 866 in 2007-08. He finished in the top-15 in a number of categories in the Big 12, including second in scoring and 20-point games and third in 30-point games.

▶ Haggerty's 23 20-point games were second-most ever by a Wildcat (only surpassed by Beasley's 26 in 2007-08), while his 5 30-point games ranked fifth in single season and the most since Beasley had 13.

01 UNC GREENSBORO

Nov. 4, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

UNC Greensboro	34	30	—	64
K-STATE	33	60	—	93

▶ K-State erupted for 60 points in the second half to shake off a one-point halftime deficit, as the Wildcats opened the 2025-26 season with a 93-64 win over UNC Greensboro on Nov. 4 before 7,765 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Three Wildcats scored in double figures, including a pair of 20-point efforts from junior P.J. Haggerty (27 points) and senior Nate Johnson, who narrowly missed the school's first recorded triple-double, with 22 points and game-highs of 9 rebounds and 9 assists. Junior Abdi Bashir Jr. scored all 16 of his points in the second half, hitting on 6-of-7 field goals, including 4-of-5 from 3.

▶ It marked the first time in nearly 18 years that a pair of Wildcats each went over 20 points in an opener and the first since Michael Beasley and Blake Young went for 32 and 22 points against Sacramento State on Nov. 9, 2007.

▶ K-State shot just over 50 percent (34-of-67) from the field, including 59.5 percent (22-of-37) in the second half, while hitting on 51.9 percent (14-of-27) from 3-point range. Eleven of the Wildcats' 14 makes from beyond the arc came after halftime. The 14 3-pointers tie for the seventh-most in any game, while the 11 in the second half tie for the second-most in any half.

▶ The 60-point second half marked just the 11th time that the Wildcats have scored 60 or more points in any half, as it ties for the ninth-most points in any half and are the most since a 63-point second half against UAPB on Dec. 1, 2024.

▶ K-State is now 95-27 all-time in season openers, including an 83-10 mark at home and a 31-3 mark at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ UNCG (0-1) led by as many as 10 points in the first half before K-State closed to within one at the break. The Spartans were led by graduate Justin Neely, who had 15 points to go with a team-high 9 rebounds, 5 assists and 3 steals in 32 minutes. Freshman Lilian Marville added 14 points in his college debut, while junior Domas Kauzonas chipped in 10 points.

02 BELLARMINE

Nov. 8, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Bellarmine	30	41	—	71
K-STATE	46	52	—	98

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures, including the first career points/assists double-double for junior P.J. Haggerty, as K-State moved to 2-0 with a 98-71 win over Bellarmine on Nov. 8 before 8,040 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The offense continued its fast pace, as K-State (2-0) posted 90 or more points in the first 2 games for the first time in nearly 34 years while totaling the most points in that span since scoring 193 to open the 1991-92 season.

▶ The Wildcats posted the highest field goal percentage of the Jerome Tang era at 62.3 percent (33-of-53), including 60.9 percent (14-of-23) from 3-point range. It was the highest field goal percentage since hitting on 62.5 percent against Alabama State on Dec. 11, 2019.

▶ Haggerty led the way with his third career double-double and first points/assists double-double, as he finished with a game-high 23 points on 5-of-9 field goals and 11-of-12 free throws to go with a career-best 11 assists. It marked his first double-double since posting a pair of tradition points/rebounds double-doubles while playing at Tulsa in 2023-24.

▶ Two Wildcats – senior Khamari McGriff and sophomore David Castillo – each went perfect from the field, becoming the 24th and 25th players in school history to go perfect from the field on 5 or more field goals. Castillo scored a career-high 19 points on 7-of-7 shooting, including 5-of-5 from 3-point range, while McGriff totaled 16 points on 8-of-8 field goals.

▶ K-State broke open a back-and-forth affair with an 18-4 run near the midway point of the first half en route to taking a 46-30 lead into the halftime break. The lead grew to 19 points in early moments of the second half before a timeout by Bellarmine head coach Doug Davenport keyed a surge by the Knights, who closed to within 62-52 with 13:04 to play.

▶ Bellarmine kept the pressure on K-State over the next 6 minutes, staying within 11 points, including 73-62 on back-to-back layups, before a 10-5 run by the Wildcats pushed the lead to 83-67 at the final media timeout. The squad then ended the game on a 15-4 run to put it away.

▶ Bellarmine (0-2) saw four players score in double figures, including 19 points from sophomore Michael Wilson, Jr., and 18 from senior Jack Karasinski. The Knights shot 45.9 percent (28-of-61) from the field, but just 20 percent (4-of-20) from beyond the arc.

03 CALIFORNIA

Nov. 13, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

California	34	62	—	96
K-STATE	55	44	—	99

▶ K-State scorched the nets in building as much as a 25-point lead before holding off a late charge from a hot-shooting California squad in a 99-96 win on Nov. 13 before 7,521 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The 195 points are the most combined points in Bramlage Coliseum history, surpassing the 194 scored between K-State and Marshall on Dec. 2, 1995. The Wildcats have now scored 90 or more points in each of the first 3 games for the first time since 1991-92. The 290 points scored through the first 3 games are the most since that Dana Altman-led team scored 308 nearly 34 years ago.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures, including three 20-point scorers in junior P.J. Haggerty (23 points), senior Khamari McGriff (21 points) and senior Nate Johnson (20 points). It marked the first time three Wildcats each had 20 points since the trio of Dean Wade (34 points), Kamau Stokes (23 points) and Barry Brown Jr. (21 points) did it at Iowa State on Dec. 29, 2017.

▶ K-State posted the highest field goal percentage of the Jerome Tang era for the second straight game, as the Wildcats connected on 64.4 percent (38-of-59) from the field, including 50 percent (9-of-18) from 3-point range. It was the highest field goal percentage since hitting on 66.0 percent against Wake Forest in the First Four on March 14, 2017.

▶ A 13-0 run by K-State early in the first half broke open a back-and-forth contest, as the Wildcats built a 20-point lead with 7:43 to play on a 3-pointer by Haggerty then increased it to 25 points on two occasions, including 53-28 with 3:01 before halftime. The lead stood at 55-34 at break, as the squad shot 67.6 percent (23-of-34) from the field, including 34 points in the paint.

▶ Despite several runs by Cal, including an 8-2 spurt to open the second half, K-State maintained as much as 21-point lead (77-56) after a 3-pointer by Castillo near the midway point of the second half. However, the Golden Bears caught fire from the field, slowly chipping away at the lead before back-to-back baskets closed the deficit to 86-73 with 5:37 to play.

▶ The lead stood at 98-85 after a 3-point play by McGriff with 2:03 remaining but Cal kept up the fight, as former Wildcat Dai Dai Ames started a 7-0 run with a layup to pull the Bears to within 98-92 with 38 seconds. After a free throw by Haggerty, freshman T.T. Carr scored on a dunk with 8 seconds left before a layup at the buzzer finished off the scoring a 99-96.

04 TULSA

Nov. 17, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Tulsa	34	49	—	83

▶ K-State rallied from a 5-point deficit with 49 seconds to play with a 6-0 run to end the game, as the Wildcats moved to 4-0 with a nail-biting 84-83 win over a defiant Tulsa squad on Nov. 17 before 7,123 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Down 83-78 after a pair of free throws from junior Myles Rigsby with 49 seconds remaining, K-State was able to pull out the improbable victory behind the heroics of junior P.J. Haggerty and sophomore David Castillo, who combined for the final 6 points.

▶ Haggerty connected on 2 free throws before a successful coach's challenge reversed an out of bounds play leading to a jumper by Haggerty that closed it to 83-82 with 31 seconds. Senior Khamari McGriff stole the ball on the next possession, leading to the game-winning layup by Castillo with 18 seconds.

▶ Tulsa (3-1) had two chances in the final seconds to escape with victory, but senior Miles Barnstable missed a 3-pointer with 7 seconds, then after a second coach's challenge reversed another out of bounds call this time in favor of the Golden Hurricane, graduate David Green missed a jumper and senior C.J. Jones was able to corral the rebound as the clock expired.

▶ Haggerty finished the night with 31 points on 10-of-17 field goals and 11-of-12 free throws to go with a game-high 10 rebounds, 3 assists and 2 steals in 32 minutes. He is the first Wildcat with a 30-point, 10-rebound performance since Michael Beasley registered 33 points and 14 rebounds against Colorado on March 4, 2008. He scored 27 of his game-high 31 points in the second half, which the fifth-most by any Wildcat in a half and the most since 2009.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by McGriff, who narrowly missed his own double-double with 13 points and 9 rebounds, while Castillo and junior Abdi Bashir Jr. added 12 and 10 points, respectively.

▶ K-State entered averaging 96.7 points on 58.7 percent shooting, including 54.4 percent from 3-point range, but scored its 84 points in a different way with lows in field goal percentage (44.1) and 3-point field goal percentage (20.8).

▶ The Wildcats shot 56.8 percent (25-of-44) inside the 3-point arc with 46 points in the paint to go with 26 fast-break points and a 17-15 edge in second-chance points while out-rebounding the nationally-ranked Hurricane, 40-38. They also converted on their opportunities from the free throw line, hitting on a season-best 90.5 percent (19-of-21).

05 vs. MISSISSIPPI STATE

Nov. 20, 2025 | Kansas City, Mo. / T-Mobile Center

Mississippi State	36	41	—	77
K-STATE	44	54	—	98

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty scored a season-high 37 points to go with a game-high 8 assists and 7 rebounds to lift K-State to the Hall of Fame Classic Championship game with 98-77 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 20 at the T-Mobile Center.

▶ Haggerty paced three Wildcats with his season-high 37 points, which came on 13-of-21 field goals, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range, and 7-of-8 free throws. The 37 points are the most scored by a K-State player in 49 games played at the T-Mobile Center, eclipsing the 29 scored by Makol Mawien against Kansas in the Big 12 Championship on March 9, 2018.

▶ The 37 points are the most by a Wildcat since Barry Brown Jr. scored 38 against Oklahoma State on Jan. 10, 2018, while he is the first player with back-to-back 30-point games since Markquis Nowell posted 36 points vs. Texas and 32 points vs. Baylor on Jan. 3 and 7, 2023.

▶ In addition, Haggerty is the first Wildcat to record a stat line of 30 or more points, 5 or more rebounds and 5 or more assists since Brown tallied 34 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in a win at Baylor on Jan. 22, 2018.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by senior Nate Johnson and junior Abdi Bashir Jr., who posted 14 and 12 points, respectively. The Wildcats also got 9 points from sophomore David Castillo, 8 points from senior Khamari McGriff and 7 points from freshman Andrej Kostic.

▶ K-State took the lead for good on a rare 4-point play by Kostic with 9:11 left in the first half then slowly pulled away behind the play of Haggerty, who had 15 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in the first half. Haggerty's old-fashioned 3-point play extended the lead to 40-32 with 2:07 remaining before consecutive baskets by Castillo and Johnson made it 44-36 at the break.

▶ The lead grew to double digits early in the second half after a 3-pointer by Johnson, but the Bulldogs closed within 69-62 after 4 consecutive free throws with 9:24 to play. However, four more points from Haggerty and a layup by McGriff extended it back to double figures at the third media timeout. From there, the advantage grew to more than 20 points, including its largest at 91-68 after a 3-pointer by Bashir with 3:13 to play.

▶ The 98 points broke the school record for points scored at T-Mobile Center, topping the 87 scored in the school's first-ever game in the building against Florida A&M on Dec. 17, 2007.

06 vs. NEBRASKA

Nov. 21, 2025 | Kansas City, Mo. / T-Mobile Center

Nebraska	45	41	—	86
K-STATE	35	50	—	85

▶ Senior Sam Hoiberg knocked down the winning free throw with 0.6 seconds left to lift Nebraska to an 86-85 win over K-State in the championship game of the Hall of Fame Classic on Nov. 21 at the T-Mobile Center.

▶ After Hoiberg intentionally missed the second free throw and senior Nate Johnson grabbed the rebound, the officials made a timing adjustment to give K-State one last chance with 0.9 seconds, however, senior Khamari McGriff's pass was off the mark, as Nebraska (6-0) ran its winning streak to 10 games.

▶ The backcourt tandem of juniors P.J. Haggerty (27 points) and Abdi Bashir Jr. (26 points) combined for 53 of the team's 85 points, including 33 in the second half when the Wildcats rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit.

▶ K-State, which trailed by as many as 15 points in the first half, got a spark from Bashir out of halftime as he connected on three 3-pointers to ignite an 11-0 run that gave the Wildcats a 46-45 lead. From there, the teams went back and forth with neither holding more than a 5-point lead in a second half that included 12 lead changes and nine ties.

▶ Haggerty gave K-State its largest lead at 72-67 on a layup with 7:21 to play before Nebraska answered back with 9 straight points to go ahead 76-72 with just 5 minutes remaining. However, four free throws by the Wildcats tied it at 76-all, including 3 in a row from Bashir.

▶ Neither team led by more than 2 points in the last 4 minutes, as they matched each other shot for shot. Tied at 83-all with less than a minute to play, senior Rienk Mast gave the Huskers an 85-83 lead by converting on a layup with 35 seconds before Haggerty matched it 8 seconds later to knot it at 85-all.

▶ Nebraska called a full timeout with 22 seconds to play to set up the final sequence, as junior Pryce Sandfort missed a 3-pointer, but Hoiberg grabbed the offensive rebound and was fouled.

▶ The Huskers did most of their damage in the paint, where they outscored the Wildcats, 48-24. They converted on 54.1 percent (33-of-61) of their field goals, including a stellar 86.2 percent (25-of-29) of their 2-point attempts.

▶ K-State shot a season-low 43.5 percent (27-of-62), including 34.3 percent (12-of-35) from beyond the arc, while hitting on 86.4 percent (19-of-22) from the line. The 24 paint points and 12 fast-break points were also season-lows.

07 AT 25/24 INDIANA

Nov. 25, 2025 | Bloomington, Ind. / Assembly Hall

25/24 Indiana	39	47	—	86
K-STATE	27	42	—	69

▶ K-State was forced into a season-high 19 turnovers leading to 27 Indiana points, as the No. 25/24 Hoosiers remained unbeaten with an 86-69 win over the Wildcats on Nov. 25 before 12,342 fans at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall.

▶ The Wildcats (5-2), whose offense entered the game averaging more than 90 points per game, were held to a season-low in both points and field goal percentage (42.1), while the nation's leading scorer – junior P.J. Haggerty – finished with a season-low 16 points on 7-of-17 shooting and 6 turnovers. The reigning National Player of the Week saw his school-record streak of games scoring 20 or more points to open the season come to an end at 6 games.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by seniors C.J. Jones and Nate Johnson who finished the night with 15 and 13 points, respectively. Junior Elias Rapieque posted a season-high 9 points to go with 5 rebounds.

▶ K-State struggled from the opening tip, as Indiana jumped out to a 20-4 lead while holding the Wildcats to a 1-of-11 start from the field and 7 turnovers. A 10-0 run sparked by the play of Johnson, Jones and Rapieque enabled the Wildcats to climb back to within a possession on three different occasions. However, a pair of free throws by the Hoosiers before the final media timeout ignited a 13-3 run to end the half that pushed the lead back out to 12 points.

▶ Indiana's momentum continued out of the halftime break, as the Hoosiers scored 10 of the first 12 points to go ahead 49-29 and forced a timeout by Jerome Tang less than 4 minutes into the second half. Haggerty helped start a 13-4 run that pulled the Wildcats to within 67-57 with 8:51 remaining.

▶ However, a 3-point play by Conerway on the next possession ended any hopes of a further comeback, as the Hoosiers rattled off 10 of the next 12 points to push back ahead 77-59 with 5:39 to play. The home team extended the lead to as many as 23 points before the Wildcats closed the game with 3-pointers from sophomore David Castillo and Jones for the final margin.

▶ In addition to the 27 points scored off turnovers, Indiana also took advantage of a season-high 25 personal fouls by K-State, converting on 22 of 29 attempts from the free throw line. The Hoosiers shot 47.4 percent (27-of-57) from the field, including 57.7 percent (15-of-26) in the second half.

▶ The win continued the Hoosiers' mastery of the Wildcats as they have now won 10 straight in the series, including all 5 matchups at famed Assembly Hall.

09 SETON HALL

Dec. 6, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Seton Hall	35	43	—	78
K-STATE	29	38	—	67

▶ Seton Hall showed why it is one of the top defensive teams in the country by forcing Kansas State into season-lows into multiple offensive categories en route to a 78-67 win on Dec. 6 before 9,195 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The Pirates (9-1), who rank in the top-15 in scoring defense, blocks, turnover margin and steals, continued their impressive start to the season by converting 16 Wildcat turnover into 22 points while also holding the potent K-State offense to 67 points on season-lows for field goal percentage (37.1), 3-point field goal percentage (20.0) and free throw percentage (42.9).

▶ In game where the Pirates held a slight edge in field goal percentage (38.9 to 37.1) it was the 22-7 advantage in points off turnovers and 20 missed free throws by the Wildcats (5-4) that proved to be too much to overcome despite a season-best crowd of 9,196 fans who were on hand to see the introduction of new head football coach Collin Klein at halftime.

▶ Seton Hall led by as many as 8 points in the early going before 7-foot-2 junior center Dorin Buca helped ignite a 10-2 run by K-State that tied it at 22-all, forcing a timeout by coach Shaheen Holloway with under 8 minutes to play in the half. The teams went back and forth before a driving layup by senior Elijah Fisher sparked an 8-0 run that carried the Pirates to a 35-29 halftime lead.

▶ The momentum carried into the early moments of the second half, as a dunk by freshman Najai Hines started a 9-2 run that extended the lead to 44-31, forcing a timeout by K-State head coach Jerome Tang with 17:21 to play. The Wildcats used another 10-2 run to close the deficit to 62-54 with less than 6 minutes to play, but the Pirates responded with 9 straight points to put the game away at 71-54 with just over 4 minutes remaining.

▶ Graduate transfer A.J. Staton-McCray and Fisher paced four Seton Hall players in double figures with a game-high 16 points each, while Hines and junior Adam Clark added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

▶ All five K-State starters scored in double figures for the first time this season led by a team-high 12 points from senior Khamari McGriff. Juniors Abdi Bashir Jr. and P.J. Haggerty and senior Nate Johnson all added 11 points while sophomore David Castillo had 10 points in his second straight start.

▶ Buca finished with his best all-around game of the season with 5 points, 7 rebounds, 2 assists and 3 blocked shots in just 17 minutes of action.

10 MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE

Dec. 8, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Mississippi Valley	21	28	—	49
K-STATE	55	53	—	108

▶ K-State ended its 4-game skid with a thorough domination of Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 8, breaking 100 points for the fourth time under head coach Jerome Tang while connecting on 57.6 percent shooting in a 108-49 victory before 6,682 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State (6-4) eclipsed 100 points in a game for the 42nd time, while the 108 points tied for the eighth-most in school history and were the most since the Wildcats scored a school-record 120 points in a win over UAPB more than a year ago. The 59-point margin of victory tied for the fourth-largest and was the largest since a 61-point win over Alabama-Huntsville on Nov. 13, 2012.

▶ In shooting 57.6 percent (38-of-66) from the field, the Wildcats made 63.3 percent (19-of-30) of their 2-point field goals, including a 34-10 advantage in the paint, while collecting the third-most 3-point field goals (19) in school history on 52.8 percent shooting. They also outscored the Delta Devils in points off turnovers (17-4), second-chance points (17-7) and fast-break points (27-11).

▶ The 19 made 3-pointers are only surpassed by the school-record 23 against Fresno State in 1994 and the 21 vs. UAPB in 2024. Six different players had at least one 3-pointers, including 5 each from juniors P.J. Haggerty and Abdi Bashir Jr. and sophomore David Castillo.

▶ All 11 players who saw action had at least one made field goal while four Wildcats scored in double figures led by a game-high 28 points from the nation's leading scorer – Haggerty – who has now scored in double figures in all 10 games this season. Castillo had 19 points off the bench on 6-of-11 field goals, while Bashir and senior Nate Johnson added 15 and 14 points, respectively.

▶ The Wildcats also shared the ball well with the third-most assists (30) in a game on their 38 made field goals, as four players tallied 5 or more assists, including a game-high 6 by Johnson.

▶ K-State took control less than 2 minutes into the game with 6 straight points before stretching its lead to 20 points (32-12) near the midway point of the first half. The lead was 18 points before a 14-0 run made it 50-18 with less than 2 minutes before halftime. The second half was much of the same as the deficit never fell below 32 points and grew to as many as 61 (108-47) with 1:25 to play.

▶ MVSU (1-9) shot just 25.8 percent (16-of-62), including 22.2 percent (4-of-18) from 3-point range. Junior Michael James led the way with 23 points.

Creighton	33	43	—	76
K-STATE	51	32	—	83

▶ Sophomore David Castillo scored six of his game-high 19 points in the last two minutes to help K-State hold off a furious Creighton rally in an 83-76 win on Dec. 13 before 16,657 fans at CHI Health Center Omaha.

▶ K-State (7-4) earned its first win in a non-conference road game since a 75-60 victory at LSU on Dec. 9, 2023, snapping a 4-game skid. The Wildcats posted just their third all-time win in 10 visits to Omaha (1969, 1987 and 2025) while running their winning streak over the Bluejays to 4 games.

▶ Buoyed by a near record-setting 51-point first-half, K-State led by as many as 20 points in the early moments of the second half before Creighton (5-5) slowly chipped away at the deficit, closing to within 73-70 with 2:41 to play. However, Castillo saved his best for clutch time, scoring six of the Wildcats' last 10 points while adding an assist. It marked the fourth straight game in double figures for the sophomore, including the second in a row off the bench with 19 points.

▶ After Bluejay senior Josh Dix missed a 3-pointer that would have tied the game with 2:10 remaining, Castillo grabbed the rebound and converted on a driving layup. Following another 3-point miss, Castillo once again drove the lane, feeding senior Khamari McGriff on a lob dunk to put the Wildcats ahead 77-70 with 1:21 left. Castillo then knocked down a pair of free throws for a 79-73 lead before finishing things off with a breakaway dunk with 18 seconds.

▶ Castillo was one of four Wildcats to score in double figures, collecting his 19 points on 7-of-11 field goals, including 2-of-4 from 3-point range, while making all 3 free throws. Omaha native junior Abdi Bashir Jr. put on a show for the hometown crowd with 18 points on 6 made 3-pointers, including 15 points in the first half when he eclipsed 1,000 career points. Senior Khamari McGriff and junior P.J. Haggerty added 12 and 10 points, respectively, while senior Nate Johnson had game-highs in both assists (6) and steals (4) go with 8 points.

▶ K-State led by as many as 18 points in the first half, including 51-33 at the break, as the Wildcats connected on 59.4 percent (19-of-32) from the field, including 64.7 percent (11-of-17) from 3-point range.

▶ The Wildcats, which shot a season-low 27.8 percent (10-of-36) in the second half, finished at 42.6 percent (29-of-68) for the game, including 42.9 percent (12-of-28) from 3-point range. The team also made 13 of 15 attempts (86.7 percent) from the free throw line and turned the ball over just 7 times.

12 SOUTH DAKOTA

Dec. 20, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

South Dakota	34	42	—	76
K-STATE	57	49	—	106

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty paced five Wildcats in double figures with a game-high 24 points, as K-State recorded its second 100-point game of the season in a 106-76 win over South Dakota on Dec. 20 before 7,287 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The Wildcats (8-4), which scored a season-high 108 points in the win over Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 8, notched their second 100-point performance in the last 3 games while tying the school single-season record with the 1966-67, 1979-80, 1993-94 and 1997-98 teams. It also matched the 1993-94 and 1997-98 teams for the most 100-point games at home in a single season.

▶ K-State shot better than 60 percent from the field for the third time, as the Wildcats connected on 62.1 percent (41-of-66), including 50 percent (12-of-24) from 3-point range, and 75 percent (12-of-16) from the free throw line. The team hit on better than 56 percent in each half, including a season-high 57 first-half points on a season-high 67.6 percent (23-of-34) shooting. The 41 made field goals are the most in 115 games under Jerome Tang and the most since totaling 43 vs. UTSA more than 34 years ago on Nov. 23, 1991.

▶ The Wildcats were particularly lethal inside the 3-point arc, hitting on 69.1 percent (29-of-42) of their 2-point attempts, including a school-record tying 56 points in the paint. The team also had 56 points in the paint against Cal earlier this season as well as against South Dakota in 2010 and Miami in 2023. The team also dished out 23 assists, including 5 each from junior Abdi Bashir Jr. and sophomore David Castillo, and posted a 44-28 advantage on the glass.

▶ Haggerty posted his eighth game of 20 or more points this season, leading the way with 24 points on 10-of-12 field goals and 3-of-4 free throws to go with a game-high 6 rebounds and 3 assists in just over 26 minutes. Joining Haggerty in double figures were Castillo with 16 points, Bashir and senior Nate Johnson with 15 points each and senior Khamari McGriff with 10 points.

▶ Haggerty went perfect from the field in the first half, making all 8 attempts in the paint, as he helped power an early 11-0 run that the Wildcats built into as much as a 24-point lead, including 57-34 at the halftime break. The second half was much of the same, as the home team's lead grew to more than 30 points less than 3 minutes into the half while it stood at a game-high 36 points with 9:25 left. The team broke the 100-point mark after a pair of free throws by junior Dorin Buca with 3:02 remaining.

▶ K-State has now won 11 meetings with South Dakota, all coming at home.

13 ULM

Dec. 28, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

ULM	36	49	—	85
K-STATE	46	48	—	94

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty scored 23 of his team-high 24 points in the second half, as K-State wrapped up non-conference play with a 94-85 win over a pesky ULM squad on Dec. 28 before 8,163 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The victory extended the team's winning streak to 4 games, as they finished non-conference play with a 9-4 record, which is the third-best mark in the last 7 seasons and the best since the 2023-24 squad opened at 10-3. K-State is now 197-66 in non-conference play since 2006-07, including 137-16 at home.

▶ Haggerty, who collected his ninth game of 20 or more points this season, bounced back from his worst first half of the season to score his 23 second-half points on 7-of-10 field goals and 9-of-9 free throws. None of his 23 second-half points proved more critical than a pair of 3-point plays after the Warhawks (3-11) had whittled the lead from a game-high 20 points (69-49) with 13:18 to play to just 4 points (75-71) with just over 6 minutes remaining.

▶ With momentum shifting to ULM after a 6-0 run cut the deficit to 75-71 at the 6:04 mark, Haggerty converted on the first of his 3-point plays out of a K-State timeout. He then added a second one following a Warhawks' 3-pointer that gave the Wildcats an 83-74 lead with 4:51 remaining.

▶ After yet another rally closed the deficit to 87-83 with just over 3 minutes to play, Haggerty came through with a big defensive rebound before assisting on a fast-break layup by sophomore David Castillo that pushed the lead to 92-83 with 2:24 left. He then scored the game's final points on a layup with 1:10 remaining that put the Wildcats ahead 94-85.

▶ Haggerty finished the day 7-of-16 from the field and 10-of-11 from the free throw line to go with a team-best 8 rebounds and 3 assists in 29 minutes. He has now scored in double figures in all 13 games while leading in scoring 10 times.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by senior Nate Johnson (14 points) and junior Abdi Bashir Jr. (11 points). Two other Wildcats had 9 points (junior Elias Rapieque and Castillo), while senior Khamari McGriff and junior Taj Manning added 8 points each. Manning also had a career-high 7 rebounds.

▶ Despite shooting a lackluster 28.6 percent (10-of-35) from 3-point range, K-State still managed to score 90 or more points for the seventh time in 13 games. The Wildcats converted on 65.7 percent (23-of-35) of their shots inside the 3-point line, including a 44-32 advantage in the paint.

14 10/10 BYU

Jan. 3, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

10/10 BYU	45	38	—	83
K-STATE	35	38	—	73

▶ Despite a valiant effort before a sold-out crowd, K-State could not overcome a poor shooting afternoon from 3-point range in an 83-73 loss to No. 10/10 BYU on Jan. 3 in the Big 12 opener for both schools at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State, which entered the day 10th in 3-point field goal percentage (39.9), was held to a season-low 14.3 percent (3-of-21) shooting from beyond the arc, including just 15.4 percent (2-of-13) in a first half in which the Wildcats fell down by 10 points at the half.

▶ BYU (13-1, 1-0 Big 12) climbed out of an early 14-9 deficit with a 9-0 run midway through the first half then outscored K-State, 16-8, to enter halftime with a 45-35 lead. The Wildcats closed the deficit to single digits several times in the second half, including 47-41 at the first media timeout and 78-71 with 2:21 remaining, but each time the Cougars had an answer to maintain their lead.

▶ Even though the Wildcats struggled from the arc, they gave themselves a chance against the Cougars, winners of 10 straight games, with 48 points in the paint, 17 points off turnovers and a special performance junior P.J. Haggerty, who finished with his best all-around effort in his first Big 12 game.

▶ The junior recorded his 10th game of the season with 20 or more points, tying freshman AJ Dybantsa with a game-high 24 points, to go with 7 rebounds, 6 assists and a season-high 4 steals in 36 minutes. He is now the first Wildcat since Jacob Pullen in 2009-10 to score in double figures in the first 14 games.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by junior Abdi Bashir Jr., who was responsible for all 3 of the Wildcats' 3-pointers to finish with 16 points, along with sophomore David Castillo and senior Khamari McGriff, who finished with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

16 AT ARIZONA STATE

Jan. 10, 2026 | Tempe, Ariz. / Desert Financial Arena

Arizona State	36	51	—	87

▶ K-State made a furious rally to close a 9-point deficit to one with 5 seconds left, but senior Moe Odum calmly sank 2 free throws on the ensuing possession to help Arizona State hold on for an 87-84 win at Desert Financial Arena.

▶ K-State had one last chance with 4.3 seconds left, but junior P.J. Haggerty's desperation 3-point attempt fell short as the buzzer sounded. The guard led all scorers with 25 points, as he registered his 11th game of 20 or more points. He was joined in double figures by Abdi Bashir Jr., who added 22 points.

▶ The near comeback came on the heels of a key 10-0 run midway through the second half that provided Arizona State (10-6, 1-2 Big 12) the difference in a back-and-forth game that included 9 lead changes and 9 ties. The Sun Devils, who played just 7 players due to injury, saw all 5 starters score in double figures, including 21 by Odum and 7-foot-1 freshman Massamba Diop. Sophomore Santiago Trouet had a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

▶ The pivotal 10-0 run came after K-State took a 64-58 lead with 10:32 to play on a sixth 3-pointer from Bashir. The front court trio of Trouet, Diop and graduate Allen Mukeba combined for all 10 points to help ASU go ahead 68-64 with 7:13 remaining. From there, the Sun Devils continued their momentum, scoring 8 of the next 11 points to take their largest lead at 76-67 and force a timeout by head coach Jerome Tang with 4:21 to play.

▶ The Wildcats didn't go away quietly though, as a 3-pointer from Haggerty sparked a 17-9 run that closed the gap to 85-84 with 5 seconds. Haggerty was responsible for 9 of the 17 points, including a circus 3-pointer that made it 85-84, while Bashir and senior Khamari McGriff each had 4 points. The Sun Devils assisted the rally by making just 5-of-10 free throw attempts during this stretch.

▶ A key stat in the game came in the paint, where ASU outscored K-State, 50-28, that came alongside a 48-34 rebounding advantage that included a combined 34 boards from the quartet of Trouet (10), Diop (9), Mukeba (8) and sophomore guard Noah Meeusen (7). The Sun Devils converted 18 offensive rebounds into a 24-20 narrow edge in second-chance points. In addition, ASU scored 24 points at the free throw line, taking advantage of 27 fouls on K-State.

▶ The Wildcats were able to stay competitive in the game with 13 made 3-pointers, including 6 from Bashir and 3 from Haggerty. It marked the ninth time this season that the team has registered double-digit 3-point field goals.

17 UCF

Jan. 14, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

UCF	42	40	—	82
K-STATE	28	45	—	73

▶ K-State battled back from a 16-point deficit to close to within one possession numerous times in the second half, but UCF had an answer to every rally en route to posting an 82-73 win on Jan. 14 at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ After trailing as many as 16 points in the first half, including 12 at the half, K-State showed some desperation out of break, closing to 57-56 at the 11:18 mark after a layup from junior P.J. Haggerty, who scored 18 of his game-high 23 points in the second half.

▶ UCF (14-2, 3-1 Big 12) responded with consecutive 3-pointers from graduate Themus Fulks and junior Jordan Burks to push back ahead 63-56 near the midway point. After consecutive layups from junior Taj Manning got K-State to within 63-60, senior Riley Kugel connected on a 3-point play to once again put some distance between the teams with 8:50 remaining.

▶ Haggerty split a pair of free throws to close the deficit to 68-65, but a tip-in from junior Chris Johnson and a layup from Kugel put the Knights up 72-65, forcing a timeout from Jerome Tang with 5:14 to play. Another 3-point play from Haggerty gave the Wildcats' one last opportunity at 72-68, but Johnson came through with a big 3-pointer to again answer the rally. From there, they got no closer than 5 points, as the Knights salted it away at the free throw line.

▶ UCF connected on 52.5 percent (32-of-61) of its field goals, including better than 50 percent in each half, while hitting on 46.7 percent (7-of-15) from beyond the arc. Four players scored in double figures, including 19 from Kugel, 18 from senior Jamichael Stillwell and a points/assist double-double from Fulks with 13 points and a game-high 12 assists.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by 15 points from senior Khamari McGriff, 12 points from junior Abdi Bashir Jr. and a new career-high 10 points from junior Taj Manning. Senior Nate Johnson tied a career-high with 10 assists to go with 7 points, 6 rebounds and 3 steals.

▶ K-State rebounded to shoot 54.5 percent (18-of-33) from the field in the second half after making just 34.4 percent (11-of-32) in the first half. For the game, the Wildcats hit on 44.6 percent (29-of-65), including just 20 percent (6-of-30) from 3-point range.

▶ The win was the first in 3 tries for UCF at Bramlage Coliseum.

18 AT OKLAHOMA STATE

Jan. 17, 2026 | Stillwater, Okla. / Gallagher-Iba Arena

Oklahoma State	48	36	—	84
K-STATE	43	40	—	83

▶ Sophomore Vyctorius Miller connected on all 3 free throws after being fouled with 2.8 seconds left, as Oklahoma State came from behind to post an 84-83 win in a back-and-forth affair on Jan. 17 at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

▶ In a game that included 13 lead changes and 11 ties, K-State (9-9, 0-5 Big 12) took an 83-81 lead with 49 seconds remaining on junior P.J. Haggerty's jumper. On the ensuing possession, junior guard Kanye Clary twice missed from 3-point range with Oklahoma State (14-4, 2-3 Big 12) each time getting the offensive rebound, including on a jump ball with 4 seconds left.

▶ Miller received the inbounds pass in the corner and was fouled by junior Abdi Bashir Jr. as he attempted to swap down at the ball, resulting in 3 free throws. After Miller's 3 free throws gave the Cowboys an 84-83 lead, the Wildcats still had an opportunity to win. The inbounds pass was caught by Taj Manning at midcourt, where he called K-State's last timeout with 2.1 seconds. However, Haggerty's 3-point attempt fell short as the buzzer sounded.

▶ Haggerty paced four Wildcats in double figures with 21 points on 8-of-17 shooting, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range, to go with 8 rebounds, 3 assists and a steal while playing all 40 minutes. He has now scored 20 or more points 13 times with double figures in all 18 games. He is the first Wildcat to open with 18 consecutive games in double figures since Jacob Pullen in 2009-10.

▶ OSU led 48-43 after ending the first half on a 7-2 run then continued that momentum with 8 of the first 11 points out of halftime to take a double-digit lead at 56-46 and force a timeout at the 17:15 mark. From there, K-State scored 15 of the next 20 points to register the first of 7 ties in the second half at 61-all.

▶ The Wildcats went ahead 67-64 near the midway point before the teams battled through ties of 67-all, 69-all and 71-all. After a McGriff dunk gave the visitor a 73-72 lead, the home team responded with 5 straight points to go back ahead 77-73 with 5:12 remaining. However, the Wildcats didn't go away, as 3-pointers from senior C.J. Jones and Haggerty plus a dunk by Johnson made it 81-79 at the final media timeout with 92 seconds left. The Cowboys tied it at 81-all on a Clary jumper with 1:15 to play before the final sequence.

▶ OSU shot just 41.2 percent (28-of-68) from the field with 5 less field goals and 7 fewer 3-point field goals but made up for it by scoring 26 points off 16 K-State turnovers while converting on 20-of-24 attempts (83.3 percent) from the free throw line. The Cowboys had just 7 turnovers.

19 UTAH

Jan. 20, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Utah	43	35	—	78
K-STATE	46	35	—	81

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty scored 28 of his game-high 34 points in the second half in helping a short-handed Kansas State to an 81-78 win over Utah before 8,061 fans at Bramlage Coliseum to end a 5-game losing streak to open Big 12 play.

▶ The 28 points tied for the third-most points in a half, including the most since Denis Clemente went for 32 points in the second half at Texas on Jan. 31, 2009.

▶ K-State (10-9, 1-5 Big 12) had just 10 available players due to injuries, as the Wildcats had to play without regulars Abdi Bashir Jr. and Khamari McGriff, who had started the previous 18 games. This forced head coach Jerome Tang to insert juniors Dorin Buca and David Castillo into the lineup, alongside Haggerty, senior Nate Johnson and junior Taj Manning, who made his third straight start in place of the injured Elias Rapieque.

▶ Despite this adversity, the Wildcats found a way to pick up their first Big 12 win as Haggerty came through with a big jumper shot with a score tied at 77-all before Johnson iced the game with a pair of free throws with 6.7 seconds left. The Utes (9-10, 1-5 Big 12) had one last chance, but junior Terrence Brown's 3-point attempt fell short with 2 seconds remaining.

▶ Haggerty's 34 points were the 10th-most by a Wildcat in a Big 12 game and the most since Markquis Nowell went for 36 at Texas on Jan. 3, 2023. He hit on 15-of-29 field goals, including 1-of-4 from 3-point range, and 3-of-6 free throws to go with a game-high 8 rebounds, 4 assists and 2 steals in 39 minutes.

▶ Haggerty was joined in double figures by Castillo, who posted his second career 20-point games and first in Big 12 play with 20 points, and Johnson, who added 17 points on 5-of-9 field goals, including 3-of-5 from 3-point range, to go with a game-high 6 assists and 5 rebounds. Castillo hit a career-high 6 3-pointers, which tied for the 10th-most by a Wildcat in a Big 12 game.

▶ The Utes were led by Brown, who nearly equaled Haggerty with a team-high 33 points on 14-of-24 shooting, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range. Brown was joined in double figures by junior Seydou Traore and graduate Don McHenry, who had 15 points each.

▶ Both teams shot nearly 50 percent with K-State hitting on exactly 50 percent (31-of-62) for the second consecutive game, including 52.2 percent (12-of-23) from 3-point range. Utah shot 49.2 percent (32-of-65), including 34.8 percent (8-of-23) from long range.

20 19/19 KANSAS

Jan. 24, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

19/19 Kansas	37	49	—	86
K-STATE	35	27	—	62

▶ No. 19/19 Kansas broke open a tight contest with a decisive 8-0 run to snap a 3-game losing streak at Bramlage Coliseum and earn an 86-62 win in the 304th Dillons Sunflower Showdown on Jan. 24.

▶ Kansas (15-5, 5-2 Big 12) saw 5 players post double-digits led by sophomore Flory Bidunga's 21-point, 10-rebound double-double while senior Melvin Council Jr. added his own double-double with 17 points and 12 assists.

▶ K-State (10-10, 1-6 Big 12) played its second consecutive game with just 10 available players due to injuries, as starters Abdi Bashir Jr. and Khamari McGriff each missed their second straight game. A third regular starter – Elias Rapieque – missed his fourth game in a row.

▶ The potent Wildcat offense, which entered averaging 85.3 points on 47.3 percent shooting, was held to its lowest output of the season with just 62 points on 34.4 percent (21-of-61) shooting with season-lows for both field goals made (21) and points in the paint (18).

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty scored a game-high 23 points, doing most of his damage at the free throw line, where he was 10-of-12, to go with 5 rebounds and 4 assists in nearly 39 minutes. He has now scored in double figures in all 20 games this season with 15 20-point scoring efforts.

▶ Freshman Andrej Kostic posted his first double-digit scoring game with 12 points, going 4-of-7 from 3-point range.

▶ The Wildcats trailed just 59-55 after a 3-pointer by Haggerty just before the third media timeout with 7:26 to play. However, a Bidunga free throw sparked a run of eight straight points that pushed the lead to 67-55, prompting a timeout by head coach Jerome Tang with 5:37 to play.

▶ A Haggerty free throw broke the run out of the timeout, but the Jayhawks continued their push with 7 of the next 9 points to go ahead 74-58 at the final media timeout with 3:41 to play. From there, the lead ballooned to as many as 24 points in the eventual 86-62 loss.

▶ The first half was a back-and-forth affair with Kansas leading by as many as 7 points before K-State closed to with 37-35 at the halftime break. The Wildcats had a chance to take the lead just before halftime but senior C.J. Jones' 3-pointer just rimmed out at the buzzer.

21 AT WEST VIRGINIA

Jan. 27, 2026 | Morgantown, W.Va. / Hope Coliseum

West Virginia	28	31	—	59
K-STATE	22	32	—	54

▶ Senior Treysen Eaglestaff came through in the clutch for West Virginia, scoring 8 of his 12 points in the last 3 minutes to help the Mountaineers rally past Kansas State, 59-54, on Jan. 27 before 10,809 fans at Hope Coliseum.

▶ The win extended West Virginia's home court winning streak to 16 games, as the Mountaineers (14-7, 5-3 Big 12) remained perfect at home.

▶ Despite Eaglestaff's heroics erasing a 49-45 lead with 3:38 to play, K-State had two chances to tie the game in the last 22 seconds. Following a missed free throw by senior Honor Huff, junior P.J. Haggerty drove to the basket but his layup with blocked out of bounds with 14.5 seconds left. Haggerty then received the inbound pass, but his 3-pointer fell short with 10 seconds.

▶ Huff made amends for his earlier free throw miss by icing the game with 2 free throws to make it 59-54 with 8 seconds. He led all scorers with 17 points.

▶ Haggerty paced three Wildcats in double figures with 16 points, all of which came in the second half, while sophomore David Castillo and senior Nate Johnson added 15 and 13 points, respectively.

▶ K-State continued to play shorthanded with just 10 available players due to injuries, as starters Abdi Bashir Jr. and Khamari McGriff each missed their third straight game. Elias Rapieque missed his fifth game in a row.

▶ While the offense struggled for the second straight game with a season-low 54 points, the Wildcat defense played perhaps its best game, as they held the Mountaineers scoreless for more than 7 minutes in the second half while holding them to a season-low 59 points at home.

▶ After trailing by 10 points in the early moments of the second half, back-to-back 3-pointers by Haggerty and Johnson ignited an 8-0 run that brought K-State to within 36-34 with 13:23 remaining. West Virginia went back ahead 45-41 near the midway point before a jumper by Castillo sparked 8 straight points that carried the Wildcats to a 49-45 lead with 4:30 to play.

▶ A putback by Eaglestaff at the 3:17 mark ended a more than 7-minute scoring drought, as the senior followed with a 3-pointer to give the Mountaineers the lead for good with 2:08 to play. After 3-pointers by each team, Eaglestaff made his biggest play of the night as he followed his own shot with a layup before finishing the 3-point play with 43 seconds left to make it 57-52.

23 AT TCU

Feb. 7, 2026 | Fort Worth, Texas / Schollmaier Arena

TCU	42	42	—	84
K-STATE	46	36	—	82

▶ Junior Xavier Edmonds scored 6 of the game's last 7 points, including the game-winning free throws with 6.7 seconds left, as TCU rallied from an 18-point first-half deficit to hand K-State an 84-82 loss on Jan. 7 at Schollmaier Arena.

▶ K-State led 82-77 after a dunk by senior Khamari McGriff with 1:29 to play, but the Wildcats didn't score again as they turned the ball over on each of their last 3 possessions while the Horned Frogs ended the game on a 7-0 run.

▶ Edmonds paced TCU with 26 points on 9-of-10 field goals and a game-high 10 rebounds in 30 minutes. He was joined in double figures by sophomore David Punch (14 points) and senior Jayden Pierre (10 points).

▶ It marked the second consecutive matchup between the teams in Fort Worth that ended with TCU on a game-winning run as the Horned Frogs scored the last 6 points in a 63-62 win on Jan. 4, 2025. They have now won 6 of the last 8 meetings in the series, including 4 in a row.

▶ The loss particularly stung as the short-handed Wildcats led for more than 39 minutes and 30 seconds in the game, including 42-24 with 5:31 to play in the first half and by double figures 3 times in the second half, including 78-68 with 5:26 remaining. The 18-point lead represents the third-largest blown in school history and the largest since a loss to Western Carolina on Dec. 19, 2001.

▶ K-State now has 5 losses by 5 points or less, including 4 in Big 12 play.

▶ The Wildcats shot better than 50 percent from the field for the ninth time this season, as they connected on 52.4 percent (33-of-63) from the field, including 11 made 3-pointers, while getting a game-high 30-point performance from junior P.J. Haggerty and a season-high 15 points from senior reserve Marcus Johnson, who made 5-of-6 attempts from 3-point range.

▶ Haggerty, who has now scored in double figures in all 23 games, recorded his 17th game of 20 or more points and his fourth 30-point game of the season. The 4 30-point game this season ties for the fifth-most in a single season and the most since Michael Beasley had 13 in 2007-08.

▶ Senior Nate Johnson added his second career double-double and first this season with 13 points and a career-high 11 assists to go with a career-best 6 steals in 37 minutes. Sophomore David Castillo gave the Wildcats a fourth double-digit scorer with 11 points.

25 AT 3/3 HOUSTON

Feb. 14, 2026 | Houston, Texas / Fertitta Center

3/3 Houston	33	45	—	78
K-STATE	19	45	—	64

▶ K-State went toe-to-toe with No. 3/3 Houston on Feb. 14 before the Cougars used their patented defense to pull away for a 78-64 victory to extend their winning streak to 18 games at the Fertitta Center.

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty, who eclipsed 2,000 career points in the first half, led three Wildcats in double figures with a game-tying 23 points, while senior Nate Johnson posted his second double-double with 12 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Junior Taj Manning matched his career-high with 10 points.

▶ K-State led for nearly 11 minutes in the first half, including 15-6 after back-to-back 3-pointers from senior C.J. Jones and Haggerty at the 11:35 mark. However, the Big 12-leading Cougars turned up the defensive intensity, holding the Wildcats to just 4 points the rest of the half on 1-on-15 field goals with 7 turnovers.

▶ Offensively, Houston took control of the game over the last 11 minutes of the first half, shaking off a 1-of-12 start from the field to score 27 points and lead 33-19 at the break. A dunk by freshman Chris Cenac Jr. gave the Cougars the lead for good with 7:26 before halftime as part of an 8-0 run.

▶ The 19 first-half points tied for the fewest under head coach Jerome Tang and lowest since also scoring 19 against Oklahoma on Jan. 30, 2024, while the Wildcats were held to just 20.8 percent (5-of-24) shooting, including just one made 2-point field goal, which is a new low under Tang.

▶ Houston continued its momentum in the early moments of the second half, extending its lead to 24 points (47-23) after back-to-back 3-pointers from Cenac and senior Emanuel Sharp at the 16:41 mark. K-State continued to battle, using a 9-0 run to pull to within 47-32 at the first media timeout with under 15 minutes remaining before a 3-pointer from sophomore David Castillo closed the deficit to 59-49 with 7:06 to play.

▶ However, that would be closest it would get, as a 3-pointer from senior Milos Uzan sparked a 10-4 run that put the Cougars ahead 69-53 at the final media timeout. The Wildcats scored 10 of the last 15 points for the final 78-64 margin.

▶ Neither team shot the ball very well, as Houston made 40.7 percent (24-of-59) of its field goals compared to 35.1 percent (20-of-57) for K-State. The team combined for 32 turnovers and 45 personal fouls with Wildcats scoring 26 points off 15 Cougar turnovers.

26 BAYLOR

Feb. 17, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Baylor	34	40	—	74
K-STATE	41	49	—	90

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty and senior Nate Johnson became the first Wildcat duo to each record a 30-point game since 2008, as K-State led from start to finish in a 90-74 win in interim coach Matthew Driscoll's debut on Feb. 17 before 6,789 fans at Bramlage Coliseum to snap a 6-game losing streak.

▶ Haggerty (34 points) and Johnson (33 points) combined for 67 of the Wildcats' 90 points on 26-of-39 (66.7 percent) shooting from the field, including 6-of-10 from 3-point range. They are the first duo to go for 30 or more points since Michael Beasley (44 points) and Bill Walker (31 points) accomplished the feat at Baylor on Feb. 23, 2008.

▶ In addition to his career-high 33 points, Johnson dished out a game-high 9 assists to go with a game-best 6 steals and 5 rebounds in playing nearly 39 minutes. He went 11-of-16 from the field, including 5-of-8 from 3-point range, and made all 6 of his free throws. Haggerty knocked down 15 field goals for the second time this season, as he posted his fifth 30-point game of the season.

▶ The win snapped K-State's 6-game losing skid, as Driscoll defeated his close friend and former boss Scott Drew in their first matchup. Driscoll is just the second interim head coach in school history to win his debut and the first in nearly 20 years when Jimmy Elgas led the Wildcats to a 66-63 win over Iowa State on Feb. 8, 2006 in place of head coach Jim Wooldridge.

▶ The Wildcats shot 50 percent or better from the field for the 10th time, hitting on 56.7 percent (34-of-60) from the field, including 47.1 percent (8-of-17) from 3-point range, while connecting on 82.4 percent (14-of-17) from the line.

▶ Johnson set the tone early, knocking down his first three 3-point attempts, to push K-State out to an early lead. Haggerty got into the act with 11 points in a stretch where the Wildcats expanded their lead to 34-21. The Bears scored 13 of the last 20 points to close the deficit to 41-34 at the break.

▶ K-State took control of the game in the first 8 minutes of the second half, as Johnson and Haggerty combined for 15 points, as the Wildcats led 61-40 with 11:44 to play after a 20-6 run. Baylor didn't go away, scoring 17 of the next 22 points to pull to within 66-57. However, the Bears could get no closer, as the Wildcats slowly rebuilt the lead to as many as 18 points down the stretch.

▶ Baylor was led by sophomore Isaac Williams IV, who paced four Bears in double figures with 16 points on 6-of-11 field goals to go with 6 assists.

27 AT 13/13 TEXAS TECH

Feb. 21, 2026 | Lubbock, Texas / United Supermarkets Arena

13/13 Texas Tech	49	51	—	100
K-STATE	35	37	—	72

▶ No. 13/13 Texas Tech responded to its first game without reigning Big 12 Player of the Year JT Toppin with a pair of 20-point performances from senior Donovan Atwell and sophomore Christian Anderson, en route to a 100-72 victory on Feb. 21 before 14,644 fans at United Supermarkets Arena.

▶ Atwell scored 21 of his game-high 26 points in the first half, while Anderson did most of his damage in the second half with 16 of his 21 points coming after halftime. In all, all five Red Raider starters scored in double figures, including 19 points from junior LeJuan Watts, 12 points from sophomore Luke Bamgboye and 10 points from freshman Jaylen Petty.

▶ Texas Tech (20-7, 10-4 Big 12) broke the 100-point barrier for the first time in the 53-game series history, as the Red Raiders shot 54.8 percent (34-of-62) from the field, including 46.8 percent (13-of-28), while making 82.6 percent (19-of-23) from the free throw line.

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty led three Wildcats in double figures with 17 points, while senior Nate Johnson and junior Taj Manning added 15 and 10 points, respectively. Haggerty has now scored in double figures in all 27 games, while Johnson scored in double figures for the third straight game. Manning tied his career-high for points for the third time, while posting a career-best 3 blocks.

▶ K-State (11-16, 2-12 Big 12) shaved a 22-point first-half deficit to 10 points twice in the second half, including to 70-60 after a jumper by Johnson with 9:10 to play. However, Texas Tech responded with 12 straight points, including 10 from Anderson, to go ahead 82-60 and put the game out of reach with just under 7 minutes remaining.

▶ K-State shot 43.8 percent (28-of-64) from the field, including 30 percent (6-of-20) from 3-point range, and made just 10 of 17 free throw attempts.

▶ The Red Raiders built the early lead behind their potent 3-point shooting, as Atwell hit 3 from beyond the arc to key a 17-5 run that flipped a 5-point lead (17-12) into a 34-17 advantage with just over 8 minutes to play before halftime. The lead grew to 44-22 at the 3:50 mark before the Wildcats were able to close the gap to 49-35 at the break on the strength of a 13-5 run.

▶ United Supermarkets Arena remains a house of horrors for the Wildcats, who are winless in their last 11 visits. The Red Raiders have now won 17 of 21 all-time meeting at the arena.

28 AT COLORADO

Feb. 25, 2026 | Boulder, Colo. / CU Events Center

Colorado	42	37	—	79
K-STATE	33	37	—	70

▶ A 3-pointer by freshman Andrej Kostic helped K-State close to within a possession with 2:13 to play after trailing by as many as 22 points, but Colorado was able to salt the game away from the free throw line, knocking down 6 of 8 attempts, to hold on for a 79-70 win before 6,058 fans at the CU Events Center.

▶ The loss spoiled an impressive performance by junior P.J. Haggerty, who led the Wildcats with a game-high 25 points and a career-tying 10 rebounds. It was his fifth career double-double, including his third of the season. He was joined in double figures by senior Nate Johnson and Kostic, who each had 10 points.

▶ The game came down to a pair of 5-minute scoring droughts, one in each in half, that helped Colorado gain the lead that it held for nearly 34 minutes.

▶ The Wildcats led 14-13 after a Kostic 3-pointer with under 12 minutes to play in the first half before the Buffaloes scored 16 straight points to go ahead 29-14 at the 7:22 mark. The lead grew to as many as 19 points (37-18) with 3:45 to play before a 15-5 run cut the deficit to 42-33 at the break.

▶ K-State further whittled the lead to 42-37 just 2 minutes into the second half before it was struck with another scoring drought, as Colorado rattled off 17 straight points to expand the lead to its largest at 59-37 with 13:14 to play. A jumper by Haggerty ended the drought and sparked a 20-5 run that included 9 straight points that closed the gap to 64-57 at the 6:31 mark.

▶ The Buffaloes responded with 7 of the next 11 points to go ahead 71-61 at the final media timeout, but the Wildcats gave it one last push with 8 straight points that was capped by a corner 3-pointer from Kostic that pulled them to within 73-70 with 2:13 to play. However, it would get no closer, as the home team made 6 of 8 free throws to pull away for the final 79-70 margin.

▶ Colorado narrowly out-shot K-State, 43.1 to 38.8 percent, but made 4 more 3-pointers (9-5) while hitting 7 more free throws (20-13).

▶ Five Buffaloes recorded double-digit scoring games, including a near triple-double from freshman Isaiah Johnson, who had 18 points, 9 rebounds and 7 assists in 33 minutes. Fellow freshman Ian Inman had 17 points off the bench.

▶ This was the first meeting between the schools in Boulder and the CU Events Center in more than 15 years since a 58-56 win by the Buffaloes on Feb. 12, 2011. Colorado has the upper hand of late with wins of 5 of the last 6 meetings.

29 TCU

Feb. 28, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

TCU	41	36	—	77
K-STATE	38	30	—	68

▶ A 9-0 run gave TCU the lift it needed in a back-and-forth affair with K-State, as the Horned Frogs won their fifth straight over the Wildcats with a 77-68 victory on Feb. 28 before 8,184 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ TCU (19-10, 9-7), winners of 3 straight and 6 of its last 7 games, swept the home-and-home series with K-State for the first time and now have won 7 of the last 9 games in the series.

▶ The Wildcats (11-18, 2-14 Big 12) pulled to within 67-65 on a 3-point play by sophomore David Castillo with 4:44 to play before the decisive 9-0 run that put the Horned Frogs up 11 (76-65) with just over two minutes remaining.

▶ TCU was led by junior Xavier Edmonds, who once again proved to be a nightmare for K-State with a 15-point, 13-rebound double-double that came with 3 assists, 3 steals and 2 blocks. After scoring 6 of the game's final 7 points in a come-from-behind win in Fort Worth on Feb. 7, Edmonds was responsible for 6 of the 9 points in the decisive run that put the game away for the Horned Frogs.

▶ Edmonds was joined in double figures by junior Tanner Toolson (14 points), sophomore David Punch (13 points) and junior Liutauras Lelevicius (12 points).

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty paced a pair of Wildcats in double figures with 18 points on 9-of-14 field goals to go with 7 rebounds and 5 assists, while senior Nate Johnson added an impressive stat line with 16 points on 6-of-12 field goals, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range, to go with a team-high 9 assists, 5 rebounds and 3 steals. Junior Taj Manning had a career-high 10 rebounds.

▶ On a night when the Wildcats shot 50 percent (28-of-56) from the field, it was turnovers and second-chance points that proved to be the difference. The Horned Frogs turned 18 turnovers into 28 points, while they converted 11 offensive rebounds into 15 second-chance points.

▶ In addition, TCU scored 12 more points from the free throw line (16-4) on 14 more attempts.

▶ The Horned Frogs took the lead for good with 6:43 to play in the first half on a layup by Edmonds en route to a 41-38 lead at the half. Three times the Wildcats pulled to within one point in the second half before Castillo's 3-point play made it 67-65 with less than 5 minutes left. The 9-0 run then put the game out of reach, giving the Frogs their largest lead (11) with 2:06 to play.

30 WEST VIRGINIA

March 3, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

West Virginia	26	37	—	63
K-STATE	23	42	—	65

▶ Seniors Khamari McGriff and Nate Johnson had memorable last games in Bramlage Coliseum, as the duo combined for 34 points to carry a K-State team playing without leading scoring P.J. Haggerty to a 65-63 win over West Virginia.

▶ Both seniors had memorable performances in their last home games, as McGriff had a game-tying 18 points on 6-of-9 field goals and 6-of-8 free throws to go with 7 rebounds and 2 blocks, while Johnson posted an impressive stat line of 16 points, 9 rebounds, 7 assists and 5 steals.

▶ Fellow senior C.J. Jones, who started in place of Haggerty, also performed well in his last game at Bramlage Coliseum, as he added 8 points, 2 rebounds and 2 assists in a season-high 37 minutes. Junior Taj Manning and freshman Andrej Kostic chipped in 8 points each.

▶ K-State, which built as much as a 19-point lead (57-38) on the strength of a season-best 21-0 run in the second half, had to fight off a staff challenge from West Virginia, which entered the game fighting for its NCAA Tournament lives.

▶ The Mountaineers used an 11-0 run to close the deficit to 57-49 with 4:20 to play then continued to whittle away at the lead with 9 of the next 13 points to get within a possession at 61-58 with 48 seconds remaining. However, with a chance to tie, Jones stole the ball from senior Honor Huff with 19 seconds left before getting it to Johnson, who was fouled with 17.6 seconds remaining.

▶ Johnson knocked down both free throws to extend the lead to 63-58. After a tip-in by Chance Moore made it 63-60 with 7.7 seconds, McGriff was fouled on the inbounds pass and calmly hit both free throws to clinch the game at 65-60 with 7 seconds. Huff made a 3-pointer at the buzzer for the final margin.

▶ K-State narrowly outshot WVU, 40.8 percent (20-of-49) to 39.3 percent (24-of-61), as the Wildcats won for the first time this season (1-14) when scoring less than 80 points. They also won the points off turnovers battle, 20-11, despite posting 3 more turnovers (16-13) than the Mountaineers.

▶ Neither team was particularly sharp to start the game, as it took nearly 3 minutes for the first points and more than 4 minutes for the first field goal. WVU used a 10-0 run to take as much as a 7-point lead in the first half before K-State closed to within 26-23 at the break.

▶ Moore led four Mountaineers in double figures with a game-tying 18 points.

14/15 Kansas	46	58	—	104
K-STATE	33	52	—	85

▶ Freshman Darryn Peterson and senior Tre White each posted 20-point games, as No. 14/15 Kansas shot nearly 60 percent from the field en route to 104-85 win over K-State in 305th edition of the Dillons Sunflower Showdown.

▶ With the win, the Jayhawks (22-9, 12-6 Big 12) extended their amazing streak of winning Senior Day to 43 consecutive seasons, as they won their 20th straight over the Wildcats at home.

▶ K-State (12-19, 3-15 Big 12), which had already clinched the 15-seed at next week's Big 12 Tournament, fell to 0-9 on the road in Big 12 play this season.

▶ Peterson paced all scorers with 27 points on 10-of-15 shooting, while White added a double-double with 23 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, as the Jayhawks connected on 59.2 percent (42-of-71) from the field, including 76.7 percent (23-of-30) in the second half.

▶ The 104 points were the most scored by Kansas in the 305 all-time meetings.

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty and senior Nate Johnson paced four Wildcats in double figures with 21 points each. Haggerty tied the legendary Bob Boozer for second place on the single season list with his 22nd 20-point game of the season. Johnson, who posted double figures for the seventh straight game, tallied his fourth 20-point game of the season.

▶ The pair were joined in double figures by senior Khamari McGriff, who had back-to-back double-digit scoring game for the first since mid-January with 17 points, and freshman Andrej Kostic, who posted his second double-digit scoring game vs. Kansas with 11 points.

▶ The teams were nip and tuck in the first half before an 8-2 run before the third media timeout helped the Jayhawks build a 10-point lead that they extended to 13 (46-33) at the break.

▶ An 11-4 run pulled K-State to within 58-47 with 14:35 remaining, but that would be closest it would get, as Kansas built the lead back to 20 points then extended to as many as 30 (90-60) with just over 9 minutes left.

▶ Peterson and White were joined in double figures by senior Melvin Council Jr., who had a near triple-double in his final game at Allen Fieldhouse with 17 points, a game-high 10 assists and 8 rebounds. Sophomore Flory Bidunga added 13 points on 6-of-6 shooting with 5 rebounds and 4 blocked shots.

32 VS. rv/rv BYU

March 10, 2026 | Kansas City, Mo. / T-Mobile Center

BYU	50	55	—	105
K-STATE	49	42	—	91

▶ Freshman AJ Dybantsa scored a freshman Big 12 Tournament record 40 points, as 10-seed BYU ended K-State's season with a 105-91 win in the first round of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Tournament at the T-Mobile Center.

▶ The 40 points by the Big 12 Freshman of the Year surpassed the previous freshman tournament record of 37 points by Texas' Kevin Durant against Kansas on March 11, 2007. It was just the second 40-point game in the history of the Big 12 Tournament and the first since 2009.

▶ Dybantsa scored his 40 points on 15-of-21 field goals, including 2-of-6 from 3-point range, and 8-of-9 free throws to go with 9 rebounds, 6 assists and 3 steals in 37 minutes. He was joined in double figures by junior Kennard Davis Jr. (15 points), sophomore Robert Wright III (14 points) and freshman Aleksej Kostic (11 points). Freshman Khadim Mboup had a game-high 14 rebounds.

▶ The 105 points were the most scored by a team at the Big 12 Tournament, as the Cougars shot 54.8 percent (40-of-73) from the field with 50 points in the paint, 22 fast-break points and 18 points off turnovers.

▶ K-State recorded its first 90-point game in a Big 12 Tournament game and the first in any conference tournament game since scoring 101 points against Iowa State in 1980. The Wildcats shot 50.8 percent (32-of-63) from the field with a Big 12 Tournament-high 13 made 3-pointers on 56.5 percent (13-of-23) shooting.

▶ Junior P.J. Haggerty led four Wildcats in double figures with 27 points on 8-of-20 field goals, including 2-of-4 from 3-point range, and 9-of-11 free throws to go with 5 rebounds, 2 assists and 2 steals in 37 minutes. It tied for the second-most points by a Wildcat at the Big 12 Tournament.

▶ In a game that went back and forth, it was a 13-0 run over the first and second halves that gave BYU the lead for good. K-State overcame a 10-point first-half deficit with an 11-0 run that the Wildcats rode to a 49-43 lead with 1:28 to play. However, the Cougars scored the last 7 points of the half to go ahead 50-49 at the break before adding the first 6 points of the second half.

▶ The lead grew to 11 points before a 10-2 run by the Wildcats cut the deficit to 70-67 at the 12:44 mark. However, it would go no closer as the Cougars scored 22 of the next 29 points to extend their lead to 19 points (92-73) with 5:32 remaining. The lead grew to 23 with just over 4 minutes to play before a late surge made for the final 105-91 margin.

TRADITION

From All-American players Ernie Barrett, Bob Boozer, Rolando Blackman, Mitch Richmond, Michael Beasley and Jacob Pullen to Hall of Fame coaches Jack Gardner, Tex Winter, Jack Hartman and Lon Kruger, K-State has one of the nation's proudest men's basketball traditions.

ESTABLISHING THE FOUNDATION

1903 TO 1953

The Wildcats have been playing the game since 1903 and have racked up more than 1,750 victories, 32 NCAA Tournament appearances and 21 conference championships. The program has advanced to the Sweet 16 on 18 occasions, while making 13 trips to the Elite Eight and four ventures to the game's ultimate destination, the Final Four (1948, 1951, 1958, 1964).

This tradition of excellence began on January 16, 1903 when K-State took on Haskell College. The Manhattan Herald reported that "... with our boys, breath was at a premium, and they exhibited neither the speed nor the skill of their dusky competitors." The score was 60 to 7 in favor of Haskell. Unfortunately, the rest of the inaugural season went a similar way as they lost all five games.

After a two-year hiatus due to the lack of a suitable place to play, the Aggies returned to the court in 1905 under the direction of C.W. Melick, as assistant in dairy husbandry. Melick led the team to their first victory - a 15-6 win over Minneapolis High School - on December 9, 1905 in Glasco, Kan. He won six games in his first and only season, which included Fort Riley, St. John's Military, Clay Center High School, Emporia State and the K-State faculty team.

Melick was replaced after a year by a man who has become a true pioneer in K-State Athletics, Mike Ahearn. The man who once coached nearly every sport on campus and became the namesake for Ahearn Field House took the reins in 1906 and guided the Aggies to three consecutive winning seasons, including their first double-digit win total (10) in 1910. Guy Lowman replaced Ahearn after five seasons, leading the team to three straight winning seasons.

Head coach Z.G. Clevenger captured the first of K-State's 17 conference crowns in 1916-17, when he helped the Aggies to a 15-2 record and the Missouri Valley Conference Championship with a 10-2 mark. The team rallied off 13 straight wins to conclude the season, winning by average of 20 points. The season would produce the first All-American, as guard F.I. Reynolds garnered first team honors from the Helms Foundation. After a second-place finish the following year, Clevenger guided the program to another conference title in 1918-19 with a 17-2 mark. During his four-year tenure, he helped the program to a 54-17 (.761) record, including a 38-15 (.717) league mark.

>>> FIRST TEAM IN 1903

After successful tenures by Charles Corsault (1923-33) and Frank Root (1933-39), the university hired Jack Gardner in 1939 as its ninth head coach. Gardner, who is enshrined in 11 different Halls of Fame, including the Naismith Memorial and College Basketball Halls of Fame, coached the Wildcats in two stints, from 1939-42 and again from 1946-53. After posting just 20 wins in his first three seasons, he returned to Manhattan in 1947 and led the school to their first winning season in 16 years and most wins since 1919 with a 14-10 mark.

The following season, K-State made the most of their first NCAA Tournament appearance, advancing all the way to the 1948 Western Regional Finals, where the Wildcats lost to eventual national runner-up Baylor, 60-52, at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City. The squad became the first in school history to win 20 games en route to capturing both the Big Seven Holiday Tournament title and regular-season crown. Led by Howie Shannon, nicknamed the "Silent Smoothie," became the third Wildcat to earn All-America honors when he was selected to the second team by the Helms Foundation.

Gardner led the K-State to a tie for a second league title in three seasons in 1949-50, as the squad posted a 17-7 record behind the play of Rick Harman, Ernie Barrett and Clarence Brannum. The team's leading scorer - Harman - would become the first Wildcat since F.I. Reynolds in 1917 to earn First Team All-America accolades when he was selected by The Sporting News.

K-State would open a new 14,000-seat on-campus arena - Ahearn Field House - on December 9, 1950 with a 66-56 win over Utah State, setting the stage for perhaps the greatest season in school history. Behind the play of First Team All-American Ernie Barrett, the Wildcats rattled off a then school-record 25 wins to just four losses en route to capturing the Big Seven crown for the third time in four seasons. The team won 13 consecutive games, which included a sweep of the Big Seven Holiday Tournament and a rousing 85-65 win over No. 4 Long Island before a Ahearn Field House-record 14,028 fans.

Entering the NCAA Tournament ranked fourth in the nation, the Wildcats survived a scare from No. 12 Arizona, 61-59, in the West Regional before wins over No. 11 BYU (64-54) and No. 24 Oklahoma State (68-44) to advance to its second Final Four in four seasons and a date with top-ranked Kentucky in the national championship game at Williams Arena in Minneapolis, Minn.

K-State grinded to a 29-27 halftime lead against No. 1 Kentucky before the other Wildcats responded with a big second-half effort to earn the NCAA title. A shoulder injury to Barrett three days earlier against Oklahoma State hampered the team's chances, as they shot just 28.8 percent (23-of-80) from the field, including a 2-of-12 effort with 4 points from the injured Barrett.

Gardner helped the program to back-to-back second-place conference finishes over the next two seasons, including a No. 3 AP ranking with a 19-5 record in 1952 and a Big Seven Holiday Tournament championship and a No. 9 UPI ranking with a 17-4 mark in 1953. Dick Knostman became the first Wildcat to claim All-America honors twice in a career, including first team honors in 1953.

A contract dispute ended Gardner's tenure following the 1953 season, as he departed for Utah, where he would lead the Runnin' Utes to 339 wins and seven conference championships over the next 18 seasons (1953-71). He would become the first head coach to lead two schools to multiple Final Fours with appearances in 1961 and 1966. He still ranks fourth on the all-time wins (146) list, which includes a sterling mark of 126-47 (.730) in his last seven years.

WINTER SETS THE STANDARD
1954 TO 1970

Following the departure of Gardner, K-State handed the reins of the program to former assistant coach, Fred "Tex" Winter, in 1953. The 31-year-old was a natural to succeed his mentor as he was the school's first full-time assistant coach (1947-51) during Gardner's glory years when the Wildcats advanced to the Final Four in 1948 and 1951 and won three Big Seven Conference titles. He spent two years away from K-State as head coach at Marquette, where he led the school to the 1953 National Catholic Invitational Tournament.

An innovator of the "triangle offense," Winter earned a reputation as one of the most creative offensive coaches in the land and in 1962, published a book on the offense entitled The Triple-Post Offense. Like Gardner, he graduated from USC, where he learned the triangle offense from legendary Trojan coach Sam Barry in 1946-47 upon transferring from Oregon State.

Winter's first two seasons were tough, as the team combined for 22 wins and 20 losses, sprouting signs from fans saying, "Spring is here, Winter must go." Fortunately, Winter stayed, and it was a "long, hard Winter" for K-State foes for the next 13 years (1955-68) as he guided the Wildcats to a 239-98 (.703) mark that included five 20-win seasons, six NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of Final Fours (1958 and 1964).

One of only two people to be affiliated with all four of K-State's Final Four appearances, Winter owns the second-most wins (261) of any head coach, and has laid claim to more league titles (eight). He would lead the school to postseason play seven times. K-State won the Big Eight Holiday Tournament four times under his leadership, and achieved top 20 finishes on four occasions.

Winter's Wildcats broke through for the first of his eight conference titles in 1955-56, as the team won 17 games, including nine in Big Seven play, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The next season, the tandem of Jack Parr (20.6 ppg.) and Bob Boozer (19.6 ppg.), set the stage for what was to come with a second-place conference finish that included narrow losses to No. 16 Iowa State and No. 2 Kansas to close the 1956-57 season.

During the memorable 1957-58 season, the Wildcats rose to the No. 1 ranking with wins in 20 of their first 21 games, including a legendary two-overtime victory over Wilt Chamberlain and No. 2 Kansas at Allen Fieldhouse. Despite losing their last two regular-season games, the team won the Big Seven title and earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. They began their run to the Final Four with a dramatic 83-80 double-overtime thriller over Oscar Robertson and second-ranked Cincinnati before a 69-57 win over Oklahoma State in the Midwest Regional Finals.

Unfortunately, the Wildcats ran into Elgin Baylor and Seattle in the national semifinals at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky., losing 73-51. Winter was named UPI National Coach of the Year, while Boozer and Parr were both First Team All-Americans, including Boozer becoming the school's first consensus choice.

K-State won the first Big Eight crown in 1959, posting a perfect 14-0 mark in Big Eight play, and losing just once in the regular season, but the top-ranked Wildcats saw their 21-game winning streak end in the Midwest Regional Final at Allen Fieldhouse as Robertson and No. 5 Cincinnati enacted their revenge. Boozer once again was named a First Team All-American.

Winter led the Wildcats to a share of the league championship in four of the next five seasons, including a NCAA Tournament appearance in 1961, before breaking through to the Final Four for a fourth time in 1964 with wins over Texas Western (UTEP) and No. 5 Wichita State. First Team All-American Willie Murrell became the first player to be named to a Final Four Team after he averaged 24.5 points and 11.5 rebounds in games vs. UCLA and Michigan.

Winter would lead K-State to another Big Eight title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 1968 with a 19-9 record before departing for Washington. He would go on to acclaim in the professional ranks as an assistant coach to Phil Jackson, winning nine NBA championships with the Chicago Bulls (1991-93, 1996-98) and L.A. Lakers (2000-02).

Assistant coach Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons followed Winter as head coach in 1968-69, guiding the Wildcats to 34 wins, including 19 in league play, over the next two seasons (1968-70), including the 1970 Big Eight crown. He had joined Winter's coaching staff after winning 223 games and a pair of NJCAA National Championships (1966, 1967) at Moberly Junior College in Moberly, Mo.

Fitzsimmons' 1968-69 team was the league runner-up in his initial campaign in 1968-69, winning seven of their last nine games then won the Big Eight crown in his second and final season in 1969-70 as he was selected as the Big Eight Coach of the Year. His final squad eclipsed the 20-win mark for the first time in six seasons and advanced to the Midwest Regional semifinals.

Fitzsimmons left K-State to become head coach of the Phoenix Suns in 1970, the first of three coaching stints with the franchise. He went on to coach 21 seasons in the NBA, compiling 832 victories with five different teams.

HARTMAN BECOMES WINS LEADER

1970 TO 1986

K-State's long line of successful coaches continued in 1970 when then-athletic director and former All-American Ernie Barrett plucked a litte known coach, Jack Hartman, from Southern Illinois as head coach in 1970.

A native of Dewey, Okla., Hartman was a two-sport star for Oklahoma State, where he was an All-Missouri Valley Conference quarterback and guard for the Cowboys, before embarking on a coaching career that included stints at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College and SIU.

Shrewd, calculating and intense all describe the would-be winningest coach in K-State history. Hartman endeared himself to K-Staters for a number of reasons, but none more memorable than his ability to take seemingly less talented teams and consistently come out on top.

Hartman led K-State to a school-record 295 wins, three Big Eight titles (1972, 1973, 1977), two Big Eight Tournament championships (1977, 1980) and nine postseason appearances during his 16 seasons (1970-86) as head coach. He saw the Wildcats register 20 or more wins seven times, including 24 wins in 1976-77 and 1980-81. He also guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament seven times (1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1980, 1981, 1982), including six trips to the Sweet 16 (1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1981, 1982) and four appearances (1972, 1973, 1975, 1981) in the Elite Eight. His teams finished the season ranked among the Top 20 five times, including the No. 7 (UPI) and No. 9 (AP) rankings in 1972-73.

Hartman coached a number of future pros, including Walt Frazier at Southern Illinois and Wildcat legends Rolando Blackman, Mike Evans, Lon Kruger, Ed Nealy and Chuckie Williams. In all, he coached 10 All-Americans, five Big Eight Players of the year and 16 first team All-Big Eight selections.

After a losing record in year one, Hartman delivered the first of back-to-back conference championships in 1971-72, as the Wildcats posted a 19-9 record, including a 12-2 mark in Big Eight play, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament where they lost to No. 4 Louisville in the Midwest Regional.

The 1972-73 squad became the first to win 20 games under Hartman, as they tallied a 23-5 record, including a 12-2 league mark, to earn a second consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament. Junior Lon Kruger joined Bob Boozer as the only Wildcats to be named Big Eight Player of the Year, while the "Big Kid," center Steve Mitchell, was selected a First Team All-American by the Helms Foundation, becoming the first Wildcat in nearly a decade to earn the honor.

Hartman led the Wildcats to Big Eight runner-up finishes over the next three seasons, winning 20 games in both 1975 and 1976 behind the "Purple Pop Guns" tandem of Mike Evans and Chuckie Williams, who combined to average better than 39 points per game in those seasons.

Kruger repeated as Big Eight Player of the Year in 1974 in directing the team to 19 wins, including 11 in a row in league play, before a pair of costly late season losses to Nebraska and No. 15 Kansas ended hopes of a NCAA Tournament bid.

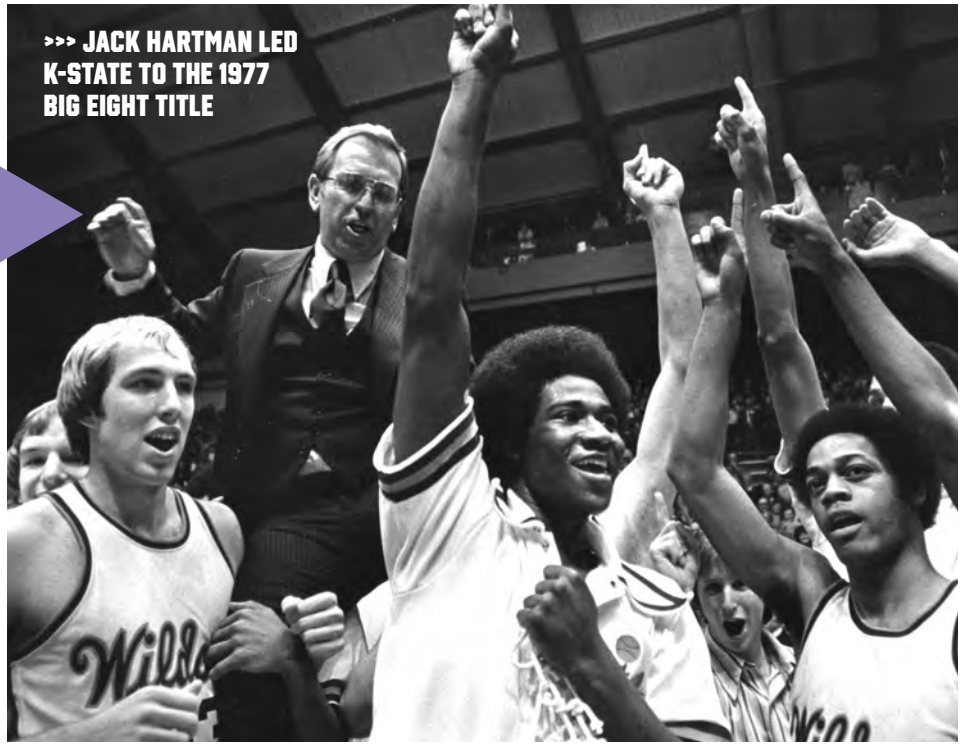

Behind Williams, who made a jump from averaging 5.3 points per game as a sophomore to 22.1 points as a junior, and Evans, who averaged 17 points as a true freshman, the Wildcats won 20 games returned Hartman to the NCAA Tournament in 1975. Once there, they knocked off Ivy League champion Penn on its home floor at the famed Palestra in Philadelphia before defeating Boston College, 74-65, to advance to the Elite Eight. An overtime loss to Syracuse prevented the squad from making a fifth trip to the Final Four.

Williams and Evans nearly averaged 40 points per game in 1975-76 in helping K-State win 20 games for consecutive seasons for the first time since the early 1960s but a late season loss to No. 15 Missouri ended hopes of a Big Eight title and a second consecutive NCAA Tournament berth. Williams ended his career by becoming the first Wildcat to earn First Team All-American honors in consecutive seasons since Bob Boozer in 1958 and 1959.

Evans took the reigns from Williams, and alongside freshman Curtis Redding, helped K-State return to the NCAA Tournament in 1976-77. The Wildcats won the Big Eight regular-season championship with an 11-3 mark before capturing the league's first tournament title with an overtime victory over Missouri. The team knocked off No. 13 Providence in the first round of the Midwest Regional before losing a heartbreaker to eventual national champion Marquette, 67-66.

An uber-talented team in 1977-78 that included Evans, Redding and future pro Rolando Blackman couldn't finish off a late season run, as they lost the Big Eight Tournament championship game to Missouri in overtime. En route to breaking the all-time scoring record with 2,115 points, Evans repeated as Big Eight Player of the Year, joining Bob Boozer and Lon Kruger, as two-time winners, and he was a First Team All-American by the Helms Foundation.

Blackman (17.3 ppg.) replaced Evans as the Wildcats' leading scorer in 1978-79, and along with a promising big man named Ed Nealy, set the stage for what was to come with a second-place Big Eight finish.

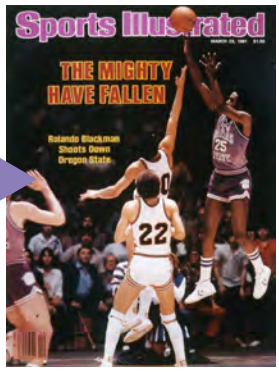

>>> JACK HARTMAN LED K-STATE TO THE 1977 BIG EIGHT TITLE

On the strength of Blackman's prolific scoring, Nealy's rebounding and the deft passing of point guard Tim Jankovich, Hartman led the Wildcats to 69 wins and three consecutive NCAA Tournaments from 1980-82.

The 1979-80 team won 16 of their first 19 games to rise into the AP Top 20, however, they finished the regular season by losing five of their last seven games to tie for second place in the Big Eight at 8-6. The Wildcats got hot again with three straight victories to capture their second Big Eight Tournament title and the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Once there, they defeated Arkansas, 71-53, before losing to eventual national champion Louisville.

Blackman became the third Wildcat in eight years to be named Big Eight Player of the Year, while he earned First Team All-America honors.

The Wildcats' momentum continued in 1980-81, as the squad won 19 games in the regular season and finished in a tie for second place in the Big Eight standings. After losing to Kansas in Big Eight Tournament final, the eight-seeded Wildcats made a legendary run through the NCAA Tournament, knocking off San Francisco, 64-60, before a legendary upset of No. 2 Oregon State, 50-48, which was chronicled on the cover of Sports Illustrated (right). Another upset of No. 19 Illinois advanced the team to the West Regional Final, where their miracle run ended against eventual national runner-up North Carolina, 82-68.

Following the season, Hartman was honored as National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Blackman completed his career by once again earning First Team All-America honors, including from the Wooden Award. He remains the only Wildcat to earn all-conference honors in four consecutive seasons.

Jankovich and Nealy, along with fellow seniors Tyrone Adams and Randy Reed, guided K-State to a third consecutive 20-win season and NCAA Tournament berth in 1981-82. The team jumped out to a 14-2 record and a Top 20 ranking before losses down the stretch relegated them to second place in the Big Eight. Wins over Northern Illinois and No. 12 Arkansas got the Wildcats to back to the regional semifinals, where they lost to Boston College.

Nealy, who became the first Wildcat to collect 1,000 career rebounds, became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors both on and off the court, as he was honorable mention pick by The Associated Press to go with his second team Academic All-America accolades.

Hartman was selected as the United States' head coach for the 1983 Pan American Games in Caracas, Venezuela, leading an American team that included a 20-year-old Michael Jordan to a gold medal over Brazil.

Hartman eclipsed Tex Winter as the school's all-time winningest coach with his 262nd win on Feb. 15, 1984 in a 74-64 victory over Colorado at Ahearn Field House. He finished his career with 295 wins, including his final one over his alma mater Oklahoma State on Feb. 19, 1986.

Hartman could never recapture the magic from the 1970s and early 1980s in his waning years as head coach, as cronic health problems, including a heart attack that forced him to miss the last 15 games of the 1984-85 season, forced him to retire after the 1985- 86 season. He briefly returned to coaching as interim head coach for the women's basketball team during the 1995-96 season, guiding the team to a 3-4 record. He passed away at the age of 73 in November 1998.

HARTMAN PASSES BATON TO KRUGER
1986 TO 1990

K-State had no better replacement for the school's winningest coach than former Wildcat and assistant coach Lon Kruger. A native of Silver Lake, Kan., he was a three-year letterman for Hartman from 1971-74, winning Big Eight Player of the Year accolades in both 1973 and 1974 while leading the Wildcats to Big Eight titles in 1972 and 1973. He scored 1,063 points in his career.

Following a professional career, Kruger served as an assistant coach to Hartman for four years (1978-81) when the Wildcats advanced to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, including the 1981 Elite Eight. He left to become the head coach at Texas-Pan American (now UTRGV) in 1982, guiding the Broncs a 20-win season, before returning as Hartman's successor in 1986.

While Kruger is remembered for many accomplishments as the Wildcats' head coach from 1986-90, he is best remembered as the first to take the school to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments. Despite K-State's reputation, no coach had been able to secure four straight trips to the prestigious event. He changed all that by taking the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years, and becoming the first coach in school history to win 20 games in his initial season.

Kruger made an immediate impact in his first season, guiding K-State to its first 20-win season and first NCAA Tournament in five seasons in 1986-87. The team also collected their first NCAA Tournament win since 1982 with an 82-79 win in overtime over Georgia before falling to No. 1 UNLV in the second round. They won 13 of their first 16 games, including four of their first five Big Eight contests, while snapping their skid vs. ranked foes with the win over No. 12 Oklahoma.

Kruger's initial success set the stage for his best team in year two, as the Wildcats tied the school record for wins (25) en route to advancing all the way to the 1988 Midwest Regional final in Pontiac, Mich., where they lost to eventual champion Kansas. The team opened the year at just 7-4 before winning 18 of their last 23 games, including five straight to end the regular season. They lost to No. 4 Oklahoma in the Big Eight Tournament final before reeling off three in a row in NCAA Tournament play, including an upset of top-seed Purdue.

Mitch Richmond, who would become the No. 5 pick in the 1988 NBA Draft, was selected as the school's 17th All-American, including the first consensus pick since 1959 en route to breaking Bob Boozer's single-season scoring record with 768 points. Kruger was named NABC District Coach of the Year.

Despite losing four starters from his 1988 Elite Eight team, Kruger guided the Wildcats back to the NCAA Tournament in 1989 after a third-place finish in the Big Eight. K-State ushered in the Bramlage Coliseum era with an 81-77 win over Purdue in a rematch of the 1988 Elite Eight in the opener. The team ended the year with wins in seven of their last nine games before losses to No. 10 Missouri in the Big Eight Tournament and Minnesota in the NCAA East Regional.

His final squad in 1989-90 upset a pair of top-5 foes, including the first-ever over a No. 1 team in Missouri en route to a fourth straight NCAA Tournament. Senior Steve Henson set the school career records for both assists (582) and minutes played (4,474), which still stand today.

Kruger, who left K-State for Florida in 1990, went onto win 674 games in his illustrious 35-year coaching career which included stops at Illinois (1996-2000), UNLV (2004-11) and Oklahoma (2011-21) and the NBA's Atlanta Hawks (2000-02). In 2012, he became the first head coach in NCAA history to take five schools (K-State, Florida, Illinois, UNLV and Oklahoma) to the NCAA Tournament.

ALTMAN REPLACES KRUGER
1990 TO 1994

Former assistant coach Dana Altman took the reins from Kruger following the 1990 season, guiding the Wildcats to three postseason appearances, including the 1993 NCAA Tournament. Best remembered for his uncanny ability to win close games, his teams were a remarkable 28-13 in games decided by six points or less, which included a 6-1 mark in one-point games. They also pulled off some of the big upsets, including No. 1 Kansas in 1994 at Allen Fieldhouse.

After posting a losing season in his inaugural season, Altman got the Wildcats back to the postseason in year two with 16 wins and a trip to the NIT.

Picked to finish last in the Big Eight, Altman's 1992-93 club won 11 games in the final minute and earned the school's first Top 25 ranking in five seasons en route to making a return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1990.

His 1994 squad, led by Askia Jones, upset No. 1 Kansas, 68-64, before a nationally-televised audience on ESPN in Lawrence en route to winning 20 games for the first time since the 1988 season and advancing to the NIT Final Four at Madison Square Gardens in New York. During the Wildcats' run to the NIT semifinals, Jones broke the school single-season scoring mark with 62 points against Fresno State on March 24, 1994.

HUGGINS REJUVENATES PROGRAM
2006 TO 2007

After middling success under head coaches Tom Asbury (1994-2000) and Jim Wooldridge (2000-06) with just one NCAA Tournament appearance in 12 years, the university turned to a proven winner in 2006 by tapping legendary head coach Bob Huggins as the program's 22nd head coach on March 23, 2006.

Although he stayed just one season, Huggins made an immediate impact on the school, as he guided the program to a 23-12 overall record and a fourth-place finish in Big 12 play with a 10-6 mark. It was the most wins since tallying 25 during the 1987-88 season and first 20-win season since 1998-99, while the 10 conference wins were the most in the Big 12 era and the most since the Mitch Richmond-led 'Cats earned 11 Big Eight wins in 1987-88. Huggins also guided the squad to its first postseason appearance in eight seasons with its invitation to the NIT, including the Wildcats' first postseason win since 1994.

MARTIN TAKES THE NEXT STEP
2007 TO 2012

Hoping to continue the momentum started in 2006-07, the school chose Huggins' top assistant, Frank Martin, as the Wildcats' 23rd head coach on April 6, 2007. He built upon the school's tremendous tradition with an unprecedented stretch of five consecutive 20-win seasons and five postseason appearances, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Armed with one of the nation's top recruiting classes, Martin became just the second rookie coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament, as the Wildcats advanced to the Big Dance for the first time since 1996. Once there, he helped the program capture their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1988 with a thrilling 80-67 win over fifth-seeded USC in the Midwest Regional.

Under Martin's tutelage, Michael Beasley had one of the greatest seasons ever by a college freshman in NCAA history in 2007-08, as he averaged 26.2 points and 12.4 rebounds per game en route to becoming the school's first consensus First Team All-American since Bob Boozer in 1959.

Armed with the All-American backcourt of Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, Martin guided K-State to one of its greatest seasons ever in 2009-10, totaling a school-record 29 wins en route to the school's first Elite Eight appearance in 22 seasons. The Wildcats earned their highest-ever seed (No. 2) in the NCAA Tournament and recorded three wins (North Texas, BYU and Xavier) at the tournament for just the fourth time before losing a hard-fought 63-56 contest to eventual national runner-up Butler in the West Regional Final. The Wildcats finished in the Top 10 of both major polls, including seventh in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, for the first time since ranking ninth in 1973.

Martin was the runner-up for a number of National Coach of the Year awards, while he was a near unanimous choice for Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. Clemente and Pullen became just the second Wildcat tandem to earn All-American honors in the same season.

>>> BOB HUGGINS AND FRANK MARTIN

K-State faced huge expectations in 2010-11 with multiple preseason Top 10 rankings and a preseason All-American in Pullen. Despite some bumps in the road, the Wildcats recorded their fifth consecutive 20-win season and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four seasons. Overall, the team beat six ranked foes, including the No. 1 team for the second straight season.

In his final season, Pullen became one of the program's all-time greats, earning All-America honors and surpassing Mike Evans as the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,132 points, leaving the school owning seven career records.

After guiding the Wildcats to another 20-win season and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011-12, Martin departed for the head coaching position at South Carolina. He left with the most wins (117) by a coach in K-State history in his first five seasons and the most-ever by the school in a five-year span.

WEBER ASSUMES REINS
2012 TO 2022

One of the winningest active Division I coaches, Bruce Weber succeeded Martin as head coach on March 31, 2012. During his 10 years, he guided the Wildcats to 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances five times, while winning a pair of Big 12 regular-season championships in 2013 and 2019.

Armed with All-American Rodney McGruder, Weber made an immediate impression in year one by leading the Wildcats to 27 wins and a share of their first conference title since 1977. The 27 wins were the second-most in a single-season and just the fifth 25-win season, while the 14 league wins tied for the most in school history. The team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 27th time, including a school-record tying fourth consecutive season.

After a pair of trying seasons, Weber helped the Wildcats string together three straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2017-19, including consecutive 25-win seasons for the first time in school history in 2017-18 and 2018-19.

Led by All-Big 12 selections Barry Brown, Jr., and Dean Wade, the Wildcats posted a 25-12 overall record and a fourth-place finish in the Big 12 with a 10-8 mark in 2017-18, which included nine victories over postseason teams.

Weber's ability to rally his team through adversity was put on display during K-State's run to the Elite Eight, as the Wildcats were forced to play the entire NCAA Tournament without their leading scorer Wade. Highlighted by special performances from Brown, Xavier Sneed and freshman Mike McGuirl, the squad beat No. 8 seed Creighton, Cinderella and No. 16 seed UMBC and No. 5 seed Kentucky before falling to 11-seed Loyola Chicago in South Regional Final.

In 2018-19, Weber led K-State to a 25-9 overall record, which included a share of the Big 12 regular-season title with a 14-4 conference mark, and a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in his tenure, including the third consecutive season. The school's seventh 25-win season was highlighted by a nine-game Big 12 winning streak that was the longest in conference play since 1974.

TANG FINDS SUCCESS

Following three consecutive non-winning seasons, K-State turned to Jerome Tang as its 25th head men's basketball coach on March 21, 2022. One of the chief architects in helping build Baylor into a national powerhouse, Tang made an impact in his first season, guiding the Wildcats to 26 wins, including a tie for third place in the Big 12 with, and the school's 13th trip to the Elite Eight.

Seniors Markquis Nowell and Keyontae Johnson formed one of the top tandems in the country, averaging 35 points per game, en route to becoming the first Wildcat duo to earn AP All-America honors in the same season. Nowell capped his K-State career by becoming the first Wildcat to ever win the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard, while he was named the NCAA East Regional's Most Outstanding Player after his memorable performance in the NCAA Tournament, which included a tournament-record 19 assists.

Tang was named Big 12 Coach of the Year by The Associated Press and league coaches, while he was selected as the Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Tang led the Wildcats to 71 wins in his three-plus seasons as head coach with a pair of postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT).

ALEXANDER BEGINS NEW ERA

1968 [March 16]
Tex Winter, who led K-State to an eighth conference title and the NCAA Tournament for a sixth time, coaches his last game for the Wildcats in the 1968 Midwest Regional in Wichita to take the head coaching job at Washington. He leaves K-State with a 261-118 (.689) overall record, including a 144-56 (.720) mark in Big Seven/Eight play, in 15 seasons.

TEX WINTER

1968 [December 13]
Nichols Gym is torched while many theories remain about the source of the fire, the crime to this day remains unsolved. The Wildcats posted a 227-135 (.627) record in their first 40 years (1910-50) in their first home.

1968 [March 29]
Within 6 hours of Tex Winter's departure, K-State promotes assistant coach Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons to head coach. Fitzsimmons leads the Wildcats to a 14-12 record, including a second-place finish in the Big Eight with a 9-5 mark in year one.

Hartman's 11-15 mark in year one would be his only losing record in his first 12 seasons.

Jack Hartman helps K-State complete an eight-game turnaround in his second season by tallying a 19-9 record, including a 12-2 first-place finish in the Big Eight, and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Silver Lake, Kan., native Lon Kruger is named Big Eight Newcomer of the Year.

1977 [March 17]
Marquette wins a controversial 67-66 decision over K-State in the Midwest Regional semifinals, as Darryl Winston was fouled while making a layup that seemingly would have tied the game after a free throw. However, the shot was waved off, as Winston made both free throws and Marquette was able to run out the clock.

RUSSIAN WIN

1978 [January 19]
K-State handed the Soviet National Team their only defeat during a 5-game college tour, as the Wildcats knocked off the Russians, 57-54, despite a lineup that included four Russians who were 6-foot-8 or taller compared to the tallest Wildcat being 6-foot-7. Curtis Redding led all scorers with 16 points to go with 6 rebounds and 4 steals.

1990 [April 2]
After guiding K-State to 4 straight NCAA Tournaments for the first time in school history, including the Elite Eight in 1988, Lon Kruger departs his alma mater for the head coaching job at Florida. He finishes with an 81-46 record.

So Close, Yet No Cigar

K-State has won 21 conference championships in its history, including 19 regular-season titles dating back to the first one in the Missouri Valley Conference in 1916-17. However, the Wildcats could have way more as they have finished second a remarkable 18 times since they began conference play in 1913-14. Remarkably, the squad finished first or second in Big Seven or Big Eight play 29 times in a 41-year span between 1947-48 and 1987-88.

Big Six / Seven / Eight Holiday Tournament

For 33 years, the Big Six / Seven / Eight Conference sponsored one of the most successful basketball tournaments in the nation - the Big Six / Seven / Eight Holiday Basketball Tournament. The four-day tournament included eight teams, each guaranteed three games with consolation and winner brackets.

The event began in 1946 when members of the Big Six Conference invited SMU and Arkansas to complete the field of eight. In 1947, the Big Seven invited Missouri Valley Conference member Oklahoma A&M (now Oklahoma State) to participate. Completing the field until it became the Big Eight in 1958 were: Harvard (1948); Michigan (1949); Minnesota (1950); Stanford (1951); Yale (1952); Washington (1953); California (1954); Cornell (1955); Michigan State (1956); Princeton (1957).

The tournament was held at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., from 1946-73 before it moved to Kemper Arena (now Hy-Vee Arena) beginning with the 1974 tournament. The last Holiday Tournament was in 1978, and cancelled because the league also conducted a postseason tournament for automatic NCAA Tournament qualification. The two tournaments were conducted in the same year three times: 1976-77; 1977-78; 1978-79.

K-State won the Holiday Tournament seven times - 1947, 1950, 1952, 1958, 1960, 1961 and 1963 - and advanced to the championship in seven other seasons - 1954, 1957, 1962, 1967, 1971, 1972 and 1977.

C.W. MELICK

1905-06 [6-9]

Little is known of K-State's first official head coach - C.W. Melick - who led the Aggies during the 1905-06 season. After the team played their inaugural season in 1903, basketball wasn't played in 1904 and 1905 due to the lack of a suitable place to play. In January 1906, the Commercial Club of Manhattan gave the students the use of their hall for practice and games. Melick, an assistant in the department of dairy husbandry, was selected to coach the team and a schedule of 15 games was arranged by general manager and professor Geo. A. Dean. Six games were played with college teams, five in a high school tournament, two with Fort Riley, one with the faculty and one with a team selected by Mike Ahearn.

After four straight defeats to open the season, Melick led the Aggies to their first official win - a 15-6 win over Minneapolis High School at the Glasco Tournament in Glasco, Kan., on Dec. 9, 1905. He followed with wins over Fort Riley (46-19) and St. John's Military (34-28) to post the first winning streak. The team finished with wins over Clay Center High School (47-10), Emporia State (48-13) and the KSAC Faculty (41-29) to post a 6-9 record in Melick's lone season as head coach.

MIKE AHEARN

1906-11 [22-24]

Member of the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (1961)

Perhaps no person embodies the term of the "Father of K-State Athletics" like Mike Ahearn, who served as the second men's basketball coach from 1906-11. He led the Aggies to a 22-24 record in his four seasons, which included the first winning season (7-3) in 1908-09 and the first season of double-digit wins (10) in 1909-10. He also guided them to their first conference title in the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KIAC) in 1910.

Hired from Amherst College in 1904 as foreman of the newly-constructed campus greenhouses, Ahearn coached the football team from 1905-10, guiding the Aggies to a 39-12 record in six seasons. In his last two seasons as football coach, Ahearn's Aggies posted a 17-3 record, outscoring opponents, 672-42. He also directed the Aggie baseball team to a 90-35-2 record from 1904-10. Then in his "spare" team, he also coached K-State's track, tennis and golf teams while maintaining his full-time position as a horticulturalist.

The press of departmental work forced Ahearn to resign his coaching duties in 1912, but he still remained involved in athletics as the school's faculty athletics representative from 1912-20. He was named athletic director in 1920 with the resignation of A.G. Clevenger and remained in that role until 1947.

Some of the highlights of Ahearn's tenure included the building of Nichols Gym in 1911, and later led the push for a new indoor facility (Ahearn Field House) which would be named after him in 1950. He was also largely responsible for the building of Memorial Stadium in 1924.

GUY LOWMAN

1911-14 [38-21]

Following Ahearn's departure as coach in 1910, Guy Lowman is selected as head coach after serving as the football, basketball and baseball coach at Warrensburg Teachers College (Central Missouri), Missouri and Alabama. In addition to his work with the football (1911-14) and baseball (1912-15) teams, he guided the Aggie basketball team to a 38-21 record with four consecutive winning seasons from 1910-14. His 1912-13 squad won a then school-record 14 games, while his 1913-14 team finished second in their first year in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Lowman would later serve as a basketball coach at both Indiana (1916-17) and Wisconsin (1917-20), winning a Big Ten title with the Badgers in 1917-18. He would also coach the football (1918) and baseball (1918, 1921-32) teams at Wisconsin before remaining at the university as a professor until his retirement. The baseball field at Wisconsin was named in his honor.

CARL J. MERNER

1914-16 [19-15]

Carl J. Merner followed Guy Lowman as head coach in 1914, guiding the Aggies to a 19-15 record in two seasons. His 1915-16 team posted a 13-3 record, including a third-place finish in the Missouri Valley with a 9-3 mark and swept all four meeting with Kansas.

Merner would leave K-State in 1916 to coach at Columbia, guiding the Lions to a 6-8 mark on the hardwood. He would later coach the track and cross country teams for more than 35 seasons at the school until his retirement in 1953.

ZORA G. CLEVENGER

1916-20 [54-17]

Member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1968)

Zora G. Clevenger, who coached the football, basketball and baseball teams at Tennessee from 1911-16, came to K-State to coach all three sports plus serve as the school's first athletics director in 1916. He guided the Farmers to a 54-17 record and a pair of Missouri Valley Conference championships in 1917 and 1919 on the hardwood. His first team posted a 15-2 record, which included a 13-game winning streak to end the season, and the program's first MVC crown in 1917. His third squad - led by All-American F.I. Reynolds - was even better, winning a still school-record 17 straight games to open the season to collect the MVC championship with a 10-2 mark.

After leading the Farmers to a 10-8 record in his final season in 1919-20, Clevenger left the coaching profession to become the athletics director at Missouri (1921-23) then his alma mater Indiana (1923-46). A star halfback on the Hoosier football team in the early 1900s, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1968. The I-Men's Association at IU annually awards the Z.G. Clevenger Award as its highest honor.

E.A. KNOTH

1920-21 [12-5]

E.A. Knoth followed Zora G. Clevenger as head coach in 1920, guiding the Wildcats to a 12-5 record in his lone season. His team finished third in the Missouri Valley with a 9-4 mark, including a four-game sweep of Kansas.

E.C. CURTISS

1921-23 [5-28]

E.C. Curtiss served two seasons as head coach from 1921-23, winning just 5 games. After posting a 3-14 mark in year one, his Wildcats won just 2 in 16 tries in 1922-23, finishing ninth in the Missouri Valley.

CHARLES CORSAUT

1923-33 [89-81]

Charles Corsaut, who enjoyed tremendous success as a prep basketball coach at Wyandotte High School (1919-23), posting an 81-16 record and winning the 1923 state title, was named head coach in 1923, mentoring the Wildcats for 10 seasons (1923-33). He returned the team to respectability, posting winning records in 5 of his 10 seasons, including an 11-6 mark and a tie for third place in the Big Six in 1930-31. Corsaut's 89 wins would be the school record until Jack Gardner's second tenure from 1946-53.

FRANK ROOT

1933-39 [38-72]

Frank Root would succeed Charles Corsaut as head coach in 1933, leading the Wildcats for six seasons (1933-39) and producing 38 wins. He posted 9 wins in back-to-back seasons (1935-36 and 1936-37), which included fourth-place finishes in the Big Six.

Root coached the school's second All-American - center Frank Groves - who earned second team honors from the Omaha World-Herald and third team accolades from Converse Yearbook in 1937.

JACK GARDNER

1939-42 [20-34] / 1946-53 [126-47]

Member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame (1984) and College Basketball Hall of Fame (2006)

Jack Gardner had great numbers, great teams and great results. That is why he is enshrined in the Naismith and College Basketball Halls of Fame, basketball's highest reward. It's also the reason that he is often credited with beginning the great basketball tradition that exists at K-State today.

The only coach in school history to hold the top position on two occasions (1939-42; 1946-53), Gardner's second stint resulted in some of the best basketball ever played in Manhattan, as the Wildcats won 73 percent (126-47) of their games and advanced to two Final Fours (1948, 1951). The team finished first or second in the Big Seven in five of his last six seasons at the helm, including conference championships in 1948, 1950 and 1951.

Entering the 1946-47 season, K-State hadn't finished above the .500 mark for 15 years, but Gardner, renowned for his tactical prowess, rallied the Wildcats to a 14-10 season in the initial season of his second go-around. By his second season in 1947-48, the Wildcats had posted their first-ever 20-win season and captured both the Big Seven regular-season and Holiday Tournament titles.

The 1950-51 squad, perhaps the school's best-ever, would soar to a 25-4 record and become the only Wildcat team to play for a national championship, losing to Kentucky, 68-58. Gardner's teams won three conference titles in seven years and secured two Big Eight Holiday Tournament titles, in addition to finishing the year ranked in the Top 20 twice. He finished his tenure with a 146-81 (.643) record, including a stunning 126-47 (.730) mark in his final seven seasons.

Aside from his on-the-court achievements, Gardner is remembered as the force behind the construction of Ahearn Field House in 1950. His successful teams of the late 1940s drove basketball fans in the state of Kansas into a frenzy, and tickets were as rare as the losses. After nearly a decade of trying to persuade state legislators, the new arena became a reality in December 1950.

Gardner left K-State in 1953 to take over the head coaching reins at Utah, where he remained for the next 18 years (1953-71). He led the Runnin' Utes to six NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips (1961 and 1966) to the Final Four. He remains one of only three coaches (along with Rick Pitino and Roy Williams) to twice lead two different programs to the Final Four. He finished his career in Salt Lake City with a 339-154 record while winning seven conference titles.

Gardner, who was selected to the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2000, has been inducted into 11 Hall of Fames, including the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in 1984 and the College Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006.

Following retirement, Gardner worked as a consultant for the NBA's Utah Jazz from 1979-91 and is credited with discovering perennial All-Star and future Hall of Famer John Stockton. He passed away at the age of 90 on April 9, 2000.

>>> JACK GARDNER

CHILI COCHRANE

1942-43 [6-14]

Chili Cochrane followed Jack Gardner's first stint as the Wildcats' head coach in 1942-43, guiding the team to 6-14 record in his lone season. Among his wins were two over Fort Riley and a Big Six triumph over Iowa State. He also coached the Wildcat baseball team from 1941-46.

CLIFF ROCK

1943-44 [7-15]

Cliff Rock followed Chili Cochrane's lone season with one of his own in 1943-44, leading the Wildcats to a 7-15 record, including a 1-9 mark in Big Six play. He posted wins in four of his first five games before winning just three times in the last 17 games.

FRITZ KNORR

1944-46 [14-33]

Member of the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (1974)

Fritz Knorr spent two seasons as the Wildcats' head coach in 1944-46, guiding the program to a 14-33 record, including six wins in Big Six play. His best season came in year one (1944-45) when he led the team to 10 wins, which were the most in 15 seasons (since 1930-31).

One of the most influential early wrestling coaches in the Midwest, Knorr drew acclaim for his 19-year tenure (1952-71) as the Wildcat wrestling coach, guiding the program to a 142-115-4 dual record.

FRED "TEX" WINTER

1953-68 [261-118]

Member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame (2011) and College Basketball Hall of Fame (2010)

Fredrick "Tex" Winter was an assistant coach during Jack Gardner's glory years. He was a natural to succeed his mentor, although the early years were tough (22 wins to 20 losses in his first two seasons). So tough, in fact, that at one point signs sprouted saying, "Spring is here, Winter must go."

Fortunately, Winter stayed, and it was a "long, hard Winter" for K-State foes for the next 13 years, as he guided the Wildcats to a 239-98 (.703) mark that included five 20-win seasons, six NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of Final Fours (1958 and 1964). An innovator of the "triangle offense," he earned a reputation as one of the most creative offensive coaches in the land and in 1962, published a book on the offense entitled The Triple-Post Offense.

One of only two people to be affiliated with all four of K-State's Final Four appearances, Winter owns the second-most wins (261) of any head coach, and has laid claim to more league titles (eight). He would lead the school to postseason play seven times. K-State won the Big Eight Holiday Tournament four times under his leadership, and achieved top 20 finishes on four occasions.

Winter helped the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking twice in his career, including for the first time in school history for four weeks in late February and early March 1958 and again for two weeks at the end of the 1959 season. Eleven players achieved all-league honors under Winter, and two (Jack Parr and Bob Boozer) were All-Americans. He was named the UPI National Coach of the Year in 1959.

There were several outstanding teams under Winter, two of which made trips to the Final Four. Spearheaded by the play of All-American Bob Boozer, the 1957-58 team was ranked among the nation's top-5 for most of the season and spent numerous weeks as the No. 1 ranked team before losing to Elgin Baylor and Seattle in the national semifinals. Then, in 1964, the Wildcats charged back to the Final Four, finally being eliminated by eventual champion UCLA, 90-84.

Winter's 1958-59 squad nearly made it back to the Final Four, going 25-2 and 14-0 in Big Eight play, before falling in the Midwest Regional Finals to Oscar Robertson and No. 5 Cincinnati. The 1960-61 team went 22-5 before again losing in the regional final to the eventual national champion Bearcats.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif., Winter began his career as the first full-time assistant at K-State for Jack Gardner from 1947-51. Like Gardner, he graduated from USC, where he learned the triangle offense from legendary Trojan coach Sam Barry. An All-American pole vaulter for the Trojans, he became the youngest coach in the nation at Marquette in 1951, guiding the Warriors to the National Catholic Championship in his first season. After his second season at Marquette, he replaced Gardner as head coach at K-State in 1953.

Following his departure from K-State in 1968, Winter served shorter stints as head coach at Washington (1969-72), the NBA's Houston Rockets (1972-74), Northwestern (1975-78) and Long Beach State (1978-83). In total, he won 454 games in college, while he went 51-78 with the Rockets.

In 1985, Winter started another chapter of his life, serving as an assistant coach with the NBA's Chicago Bulls under famed 11-time championship head coach Phil Jackson and teaching the triangle offense to legendary players Michael Jordan, Scottie Pippen and Dennis Rodman.

As a assistant coach to Jackson, Winter was an integral part of the Bulls' NBA championships in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 1998. He followed Jackson to the Los Angeles Lakers in 1999, where he collected four more championship rings in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2009.

A member of both the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and K-State Sports Hall of Fame, Winter earned recognition to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010 and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011. This was Winter's second honor from the Naismith Hall of Fame, as he was named the 1998 winner of the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement.

K-State once again honored Winter in January 2015 by dedicating the drive leading to the Wildcats' Ice Family Basketball Center in his name. He passed away at the age of 96 on October 10, 2018 at his home in Manhattan, Kan.

LOWELL "COTTON" FITZSIMMONS

1968-70 [34-20]

Member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame (2021)

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons and Tex Winter had at least three things in common. Neither used their given first name, both took over at K-State after serving as an assistant and both are remembered for a coaching style marked by personality and their winning ways.

Fitzsimmons was a menace in the Big Eight in his two years, winning 34 games, including 19 in league play, and finishing among the top two in both seasons. His 1968-69 squad was the league runner-up in his initial campaign, then won the league crown in his second and final season with a 10-4 mark in 1969-70. His second team eclipsed the 20-win mark, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament and earned Fitzsimmons 1970 Big Eight Coach of the Year honors. It was the school's first 20-win season and first trip to the NCAA Tournament in six seasons since advancing to the 1964 Final Four. He saw three players earn All-Big Eight honors in his tenure, including Steve Honeycutt in 1969 and Jerry Venable and Bob Zender in 1970.

Fitzsimmons was colorful, literally. He became the first coach to ever add a third color to the uniforms, when he attached a gold trim during his stay. Of a less literal, Fitzsimmons' style drew attention, too. His first team finished 14-12, but that 1968-69 squad averaged more fans (12,166 per game) than any team in the history of Ahearn Field House.

A native of Hannibal, Mo., Fitzsimmons began his coaching career at Moberly (Mo.) Junior College, where he compiled a 224-58 (.794) record in 11 years and won national titles in 1966 and 1967. He was twice named the National Junior College Coach of the Year. He spent one season as an assistant coach to Winter before being named head coach in 1968, helping the Wildcats to a 1969 Big Eight title and the NCAA Midwest Regional Semifinals.

Fitzsimmons left K-State in 1970 to become head coach of the Phoenix Suns, the first of three coaching stints with the franchise. He went on to coach 21 seasons in the NBA, compiling the 16th-most victories in the league's history with an 832-775 (.518) record with five teams - Phoenix (1970-72; 1988-92; 1996-97), Atlanta Hawks (1972-76), Buffalo Braves (1977-78), Kansas City Kings [currently the Sacramento Kings] (1978-84) and San Antonio Spurs (1984-86). He was twice named NBA Coach of the Year, first in 1978-79 with the Kansas City Kings and lastly in 1988-89 with the Phoenix Suns.

Fitzsimmons received the highest honor of his esteemed career in 2021, as he was one of 16 individuals selected to the 2021 class of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Formally inducted on Sept. 11, 2021, he is the fifth individual with K-State ties named to the Hall of Fame and third head coach. He was also named to both the Arizona (2015) and Missouri (1981) Sports Halls of Fame, while he was inducted into the Phoenix Suns' Ring of Honor in 2005.

Fitzsimmons was Senior Executive Vice President for the organization before his passing at the age of 72 in July 2004 due to complications from lung cancer.

JACK HARTMAN
1970-86 [295-169]

Member of the College Basketball Hall of Fame (2024)

Shrewd, calculating and intense all describe the inningest coach in Kansas State history. Jack Hartman endeared himself to K-Staters for a number of reasons, but none more memorable than his ability to take seemingly less talented teams and consistently come out on top.

Hartman led K-State to a school-record 295 wins, three Big Eight titles, two Big Eight Tournament championships and nine postseason appearances during his 16 seasons as head coach. He saw the Wildcats register 20 or more wins seven times, including 24 wins in 1976-77 and 1980-81. He also guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament seven times (1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1980, 1981, 1982), including four trips (1972, 1973, 1975, 1981) to the Elite Eight. His teams finished the season ranked among the Top 20 five times, including the No. 7 (UPI) and No. 9 (AP) rankings in 1972-73.

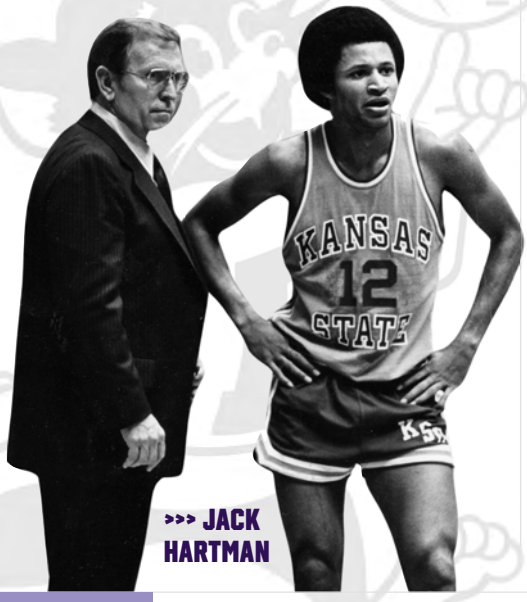

Hartman was honored as National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) after the 1980-81 season. Led by All-American Rolando Blackman, the eight-seeded Wildcats charged into the NCAA West Regional Finals on the strength of upset wins over San Francisco, No. 2 Oregon State and No. 19 Illinois. The Wildcats were denied their first Final Four in 17 years by No. 6 North Carolina in the finals. He was also named Big Eight Coach of the Year following the 1974-75 and 1976-77 seasons. His 1976-77 squad won the Big Eight regular-season and tournament titles before losing a heartbreaker to Marquette, 67-66, in the Midwest Regional Finals.

In 23 years of coaching at the Division I level (the other seven coming at Southern Illinois from 1962-70), Hartman compiled a 439-233 (.653) record. He also enjoyed success in the community college ranks, posting a 150-46 (.765) mark in seven seasons at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College from 1955-62. During his stint at Coffeyville, he was one of the few coaches to take a junior college team through a season undefeated, including the national title, as his 1962 squad went 32-0. In addition, he was the head coach for the United States at the 1983 Pan American Games, and led the Americans to the gold medal.

Hartman coached a number of future pros, including Walt Frazier at Southern Illinois and legends Rolando Blackman, Mike Evans, Lon Kruger, Ed Nealy and Chuckie Williams at K-State. In all, he coached 10 All-Americans, five Big Eight Players of the year and 16 first team All-Big Eight selections.

A native of Dewey, Okla., and a two-sport star at Oklahoma State, Hartman played professionally on the gridiron. After garnering All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as the Cowboys' quarterback, he played for the CFL's Saskatchewan. He was also an outstanding basketball player for OSU, and played for the legendary Henry Iba.

After retiring from coaching in 1986, Hartman served as a color analyst for the Wildcat Television Network as well as the Big Eight television package. He served as interim coach of the women's basketball team during the 1995-96 season, guiding the squad to a 3-4 record. He remained active in K-State Athletics until his death at the age of 73 on November 6, 1998.

LON KRUGER
1986-90 [81-46]

Member of the College Basketball Hall of Fame (2022)

A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year for K-State in 1973 and 1974, Lon Kruger is remembered for many accomplishments as the Wildcats' head coach from 1986-90. At the top of that list, one will find four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Despite K-State's reputation, no coach had been able to secure four straight trips to the prestigious event. Kruger changed all that by taking the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years at the helm, and became the first coach in school history to win 20 games in his initial season.

His best team was the 1987-88 club, which featured All-American and 2014 Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Mitch Richmond. That squad tied the school record for wins (25) and advanced all the way to the Midwest Regional title game at Pontiac, Mich., where the Wildcats lost to eventual champion Kansas. Following that season, he was named NABC District Coach of the Year.

With a coaching style marked by calculated precision and calm under pressure, Kruger led the Wildcats to several triumphs that will be recalled for many years to come. His upsets of some of the nation's highest-ranked teams became almost routine as his trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Kruger made an immediate impact in his first season, guiding K-State to its first 20-win season and first NCAA Tournament in five seasons. The team also collected their first NCAA Tournament win since 1982 with an 82-79 overtime victory over Georgia before falling to No. 1 UNLV in the second round.

Despite losing four starters from his 1988 Elite Eight team, he guided the Wildcats back to the NCAA Tournament in 1989 after a third-place finish in the Big Eight. His final squad in 1989-90 upset a pair of top-5 foes, including the first-ever over a No. 1 team (Missouri), en route to the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Silver Lake, Kan., Kruger was a three-year lettermen for coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74, winning Big Eight Player of the Year accolades in both 1973 and 1974. He scored 1,063 points in his career, including a 17.6-point average his senior year, and his jersey was retired in 2006.

Kruger served as an assistant to Hartman for four years from 1978-81 before becoming head coach at Texas-Pan American (now UTRGV) in 1982. He spent five years at UTRGV before becoming at head coach at K-State in 1986.

Following his time at K-State, Kruger moved onto coach at Florida (1990-96), Illinois (1996-2000), the NBA's Atlanta Hawks (2000-02), UNLV (2004-11) and Oklahoma (2011-21). He finished his career with 674 wins in 35 seasons with 20 NCAA Tournaments, including Final Four appearances in 1994 and 2016.

In 2012-13, Kruger became the first coach in NCAA history to take five different schools (K-State, Florida, Illinois, UNLV and Oklahoma) to the NCAA Tournament, while he was the first to take four schools to the Sweet 16 since the tournament expanded to 64 teams. He was also the first coach to take five schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances.

Kruger was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022.

DANA ALTMAN
1990-94 [68-54]

Although his four-year tenure as head coach only produced one NCAA Tournament, Dana Altman's tenure will be remembered most for his uncanny ability to win close ball games, and for pulling off some of the biggest upsets, including No. 1 Kansas in 1994 at Allen Fieldhouse.

Altman's teams were a remarkable 28-13 in games decided by six points or less, which included a 6-1 mark in one-point games.

After posting a losing season in his inaugural season, Altman got the Wildcats back to the postseason in year two with 16 wins and a trip to the NIT. The team played the 10th-toughest schedule with 11 of their 13 losses coming to teams ranked or previously ranked with wins over No. 23 Iowa State and No. 6 Missouri. The Big Eight had an all-time record six teams in the NCAA Tournament.

Picked to finish last in the Big Eight, Altman's 1992-93 club won 11 games in the final minute, earned the school's first Top 25 ranking in five seasons, finished 19-11, reached the championship game of the Big Eight Tournament and returned K-State to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1990. He was named him Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1993 and he capped the season by upsetting No. 6 Kansas, 74-67, in the Big Eight Tournament semifinals.

The following season, Altman made it two in a row over Kansas when he upset the top-ranked Jayhawks, 68-64, at Allen Fieldhouse. The 1993-94 squad finished the year with a 20-14 record and advanced to the NIT Final Four. During the team's run to the NIT semifinals, Askia Jones broke the school single-season scoring mark with 62 points against Fresno State on March 24, 1994.

Upon leaving K-State, Altman went on to a Hall of Fame coaching career, which included stints at Creighton (1994-2010) and Oregon (2010-26). He built the Bluejays into one of the top mid-major programs, posting 327 wins in 16 seasons with three Missouri Valley Conference regular season and six tournament titles to go with seven trips to the NCAA Tournament. He continued his impressive work at Oregon, where he has led the Ducks to 382 wins, nine NCAA Tournaments and a trip to the 2017 Final Four before retiring in October 2026.

Altman's teams made 27 consecutive postseason appearances from 1998 to 2025, which included 16 trips to the NCAA Tournaments. He has made three Sweet 16s, two Elite Eights and a Final Four.

TOM ASBURY

Tom Asbury continued the rich tradition of K-State basketball, guiding the Wildcats to 85 victories from 1994 to 2000 to go with three postseason appearances, including an NCAA Tournament appearances in 1996.

Asbury was hired after an impressive six-year stint at Pepperdine, where he guided the Waves to 125-59 (.679) record from 1989-94 and three West Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. He also led the Waves to five trips to the postseason, including three NCAA Tournaments (1991, 1992 and 1994). He was also named the West Coast Conference (WCC) Coach of the Year following the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons.

Known for developing tough defensive teams, Asbury guided K-State to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in three seasons in just his second season at the helm, as his 1995-96 squad advanced to the East Region where they lost to No. 23 New Mexico. The Wildcats were picked to finish seventh in the final Big Eight season but ended the year in a tie for fourth-place at 7-7. Senior Elliot Hatcher, who led the league in steals (2.4 spg.), became the first player since Steve Henson in 1989 to be named to the All-Big Eight First Team.

Asbury helped the Wildcats to back-to-back trips to the Postseason NIT in 1997-98 and 1998-99. His 1997-98 squad made a 7-game improvement from the previous season, as they enjoyed the third-best start in school history and the best since 1957-58 by winning their first nine games. His 1998-99 team led the nation in field goal percentage defense, as the Wildcats held opponents to just 37.1 percent shooting from the field. That squad posted the 19th 20-win season in school history and the first in five years.

Upon leaving K-State, Asbury entered private business before returning to bench as an assistant coach to Mark Gottfried at Alabama from 2003-07. After a brief retirement, he returned to the sidelines in 2008 for his second stint at Pepperdine, guiding the Waves for three seasons (2008-10) before retiring for good in 2010. He concluded his career with a 242-212 (.533) record in 15 seasons at Pepperdine (1988-94; 2008-10) and K-State (1994-2000).

JIM WOOLDRIDGE

2000-06 [83-90]

When Jim Wooldridge was hired as K-State's head coach in 2000, he brought with him the reputation as a builder of programs. After all, he spent 16 years mastering the art at places like as Central Missouri (1985-91), Texas State (1991-94) and Louisiana Tech (1994-98).

Hired after a stint coaching with the NBA's Chicago Bulls, alongside Tim Floyd and coaching icon Tex Winter, from 1998-2000, Wooldridge rebuilt a program that had won just nine games the year before he arrived to double-digit wins in each of his six seasons (2000-06) at the helm, winning 83 games.

After slowing but steadily improving the K-State program, Wooldridge guided the Wildcats to their first winning season in six years in 2004-05 with a 17-12 record. The team started the year with eight wins in a row, which represented the best start by a squad since the 1979-80 team also started 8-0 en route to the school's best non-league record (10-1) since 1993-94. The Wildcats went on to tally six wins over teams that advanced to the postseason. They also had a number of near misses, as seven of their Big 12 losses came by 10 points or less, including two on last-second shots and two in overtime. Despite 17 wins, including a sweep of Missouri, the team did not advance to the postseason.

Wooldridge again had the Wildcats off to quick start in 2005-06, as the team won seven of their first eight games and ended non-league play with a 9-2 mark. After back-to-back losses to open Big 12 play, his Wildcats knocked off archrival Kansas, 59-55, at Allen Fieldhouse to snap a 31-game losing streak to begin a 3-game winning streak. However, his tough luck continued as the team lost eight of their last 11 games, including six by 5 points or less. Nine of the 13 losses came by a grand total of 21 points with six one-possession setbacks.

Wooldridge returned to the coaching ranks at UC Riverside in 2007, posting a 70-112 record before retiring from coaching in 2013 to become the school's athletic director. He left to become athletics director at Riverside City College in 2015 before retiring in 2020. He finished his coaching career with a 381-350 (.521) overall record in 25 seasons.

BOB HUGGINS

2006-07 [23-12]

Member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame (2022)

Although his tenure as K-State's head coach lasted just one season in 2006-07, legend Bob Huggins left an indeliable mark upon the program and establishing a new standard.

Hired as the 22nd head coach on March 23, 2006, Huggins came to K-State as one of the most successful coaches in the country with over 500 career wins and 15 trips to the NCAA Tournament to his credit, including the 1992 Final Four.

Huggins helped guide the Wildcats to their first 20-win season and first postseason appearance in eight seasons, as his squad posted a 23-12 record and advanced to the second round of the Mastercard NIT. The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.

Huggins also helped the program to one of its best ever in the Big 12 era, as the Wildcats earned their first bye in the conference tournament with a fourth-place finish and a 10-6 record. In the process, K-State snapped No. 22 Texas' 22-game home court winning streak (its only home loss), swept the series from rivals Missouri, Iowa State and Colorado. The team's win over Vermont in the first round of the NIT was the Wildcats' first postseason victory since 1994.

Huggins left K-State in 2007 to become coach at his alma mater, West Virginia, where he led the Mountaineers to a 345-203 (.630) record and 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in 16 seasons, including a trip to the 2010 Final Four. His teams went 15-9 vs. the Wildcats after they joined the Big 12 in 2012-13.

One of just six coaches in NCAA Division I history to win 900 games, Huggins received the ultimate honor in 2022 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. He retired from college basketball coaching in July 2023, as he finished in his career with a 935-414 (693) overall record in 41 seasons with 25 NCAA Tournaments and 12 conference titles to his credit. His 935 victories rank eighth all-time in NCAA Division I men's basketball.

FRANK MARTIN

2007-12 [117-54]

Just like it had done twice before when it elevated assistant coaches Tex Winter (1953) and Cotton Fitzsimmons (1968) to the head coaching spot, K-State tapped Bob Huggins' top assistant Frank Martin as his replacement in 2007.

The fiery Martin, a native of Miami, Fla., took the baton from Huggins and led the school to one of its greatest stretches in its long and storied history. He helped the Wildcats to a 117-54 (.684) overall record, including a 50-32 (.610) mark in Big 12 play, and the team advanced to the postseason each of his five seasons, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012). He is the first head coach in school history to post five consecutive 20-win seasons and the first to guide the Wildcats to the postseason in each of his first five years. His 117 wins rank fifth in school history.

Hired as the 23rd head coach on April 6, 2007, Martin posted one of the most successful inaugural campaigns in school history. He guided the Wildcats to a 21-12 record in 2007-08, including a third-place finish in the Big 12, and broke a 12-year drought in the NCAA Tournament. Once there, the team collected their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1988 with an 80-67 victory over USC. He became just the second rookie head coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and the first since Lon Kruger in 1986-87.

Under his tutelage, Michael Beasley posted one of the greatest seasons ever by a college freshman, averaging 26.2 points and 12.4 rebounds per game en route to earning consensus National Freshman of the Year honors and National Player of the Year honors from a number of outlets. Beasley became the first consensus first team All-American since 1959.

After a 22-win season and NIT finish in year two, Martin helped K-State to its first Elite Eight appearance in 22 seasons in 2009-10. Led by All-Americans Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, the Wildcats won a school-record 29 games and finished in a tie for second in the Big 12. In all, the team set 23 team and individual school records, including the scoring mark (2,949). The Wildcats earned their highest-ever seed in the NCAA Tournament (No. 2) and finished in the AP Top 10 for the first time since 1973. For his effort, Martin was the Big 12 Coach of the Year and a runner-up for the AP's National Coach of the Year.

Martin guided K-State to two more NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011 and 2012. The Wildcats won 23 games in 2010-11 and secured its school-record fifth consecutive postseason appearance, as they knocked off 12-seed Utah State in the second round of the Southeast Regional before falling to No. 4 seed Wisconsin. Pullen was selected as an All-American for the second straight season while becoming the all-time leading scorer (2,132 points) in school history.

The Wildcats posted their sixth straight 20-win season in Martin's final season in 2011-12 and advanced to the postseason for the sixth consecutive season, including the fourth time in five seasons in the NCAA Tournament. The team won an NCAA Tournament game for the third straight season with a 70-64 win over Southern Miss before falling to No. 2 Syracuse.

Martin left K-State in March 2012 for the head coaching job at South Carolina, where he won 171 games and advanced to the 2017 Final Four in 10 seasons. He was hired as the head coach at Massachusetts [UMass] on March 22, 2022, where enters the 2026-27 season with 350 career victories.

BRUCE WEBER

2012-22 [184-147]

K-State turned to one of the winningest active Division I coaches to replace Frank Martin, as Bruce Weber was selected as the school's 24th head coach on March 31, 2012.

Mentored by K-State alumnus Gene Keady during his 19 years as an assistant coach at Purdue before head coaching stints at Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-11), Weber enjoyed immediate success, guiding the Wildcats to a 27-8 record and a 14-4 mark in league play en route to its first-ever Big 12 regular-season title and a school-record fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2012-13. The 27 wins remain the second-most in school history, while the 14 in conference play tied the school record held by the 1958-59 team. The league title was the 18th in school history and the first since 1977, as Weber became the sixth first-year coach to be named league Coach of the Year.

Weber helped K-State to four more trips to the NCAA Tournament, including three in a row from 2017-19, while his 2018 team made the school's first trip to the Elite Eight in eight years, which included the first-ever win over Kentucky in the Sweet 16. During the 2018 NCAA Tournament run, he became just the 10th Division I head coach to take three schools to the Sweet 16. The following season in 2018-19, he guided the Wildcats to a second Big 12 title with a 14-4 mark.

Weber's 184 wins are the third-most by a head coach in school history, trailing Hall of Famers Jack Hartman and Fred "Tex" Winter, while he is one of four coaches with multiple conference championships. He is also the fourth coach to take the school to at least five NCAA Tournaments, while only Hartman had more 20-win seasons. Among his five 20-win seasons were consecutive 25-win campaigns in 2017-18 and 2018-19 for the first time in school history. The 14 league wins in 2012-13 and 2018-19 tie for the most in school history, along with the perfect 14-0 Big Eight mark in 1958-59.

Weber retired three wins shy of 500 for his career, as he compiled a 497-302 (.622) overall record in 24 seasons, which included 15 postseason appearances, including 13 in the NCAA Tournament. He currently works as a college basketball analyst on the Big Ten Network.

JEROME TANG

2022-26 [71-57]

Jerome Tang, who was selected as the 2023 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year after guiding the Wildcats to a 26-win season and its 13th trip to the Elite Eight in his inaugural season, served as the 25th head men's basketball coach from 2022-26.

Tang re-energized a K-State program which had endured three consecutive losing seasons before his arrival in 2022-23. In his 4 seasons, he led the Wildcats to a 71-57 (.555) overall record, including 29 wins in Big 12 play, with back-to-back postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the Elite Eight. He is one of four coaches in school history to help the Wildcats to the postseason in their first two seasons.

In his first season, Tang guided K-State to its third-highest win total (26) and a thrilling run to the Elite Eight despite returning just two players and being picked to finish last in the preseason Big 12 poll. During the historic season, he coached a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and small forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn All-America recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team.

Tang was dismissed on Feb. 15, 2026 with seven games left in the 2025-26 season after posting a 10-15 overall record, including a 1-11 mark in Big 12 play.

MATTHEW DRISCOLL

2026 [2-5]

Associate head coach Matthew Driscoll, who became the winningest head coach in North Florida history during a 16-year stint (2009-25) with the Ospreys, served as interim head coach for the last seven games of the 2025-26 season. He led the Wildcats to a 2-5 mark as an interim, which included home victories over Baylor and West Virginia. In snapping the school's 6-game losing streak in the 90-74 win over the Bears on Feb. 17, 2026, he became just the second interim to win his debut.

WILDCAT NICKNAME

Through its first 19 seasons, K-State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 football season, coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 new coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

WILLIE WILDCAT

Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheer coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student is kept secret.

K-STATE COLORS

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver and black are also common second and third colors. Former basketball coach Bob Huggins introduced a black uniform in 2006 and it continues to be used by both basketball teams, along with volleyball and baseball. The basketball team also utilized a silver uniform. Former basketball coach Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time.

LAVENDER TWO-TONE UNIFORMS

Head coach Jack Hartman returned from a recruiting trip in Illinois and called Jim Knight of Knight's Sporting Goods in Salina, Kan., to meet with him on a new jersey idea. The two had been friends for years and Knight's Sporting Goods had been the primary vendor for all K-State products. Hartman had seen a lavender jersey and wanted to see if Knight could find a manufacturer. After some research, Knight and his son, Chris, found a company (Sand Knit) in Berlin, Wisconsin that said they could create the unique look. Hartman and Knight flew to the company's headquarters in Berlin and approved the new color scheme. Knight measured all the players and sent the order in for the two-tone purple uniforms. This was a new concept in uniforms to utilize the two shades of the same base color. One of the assistant coaches got pulled into the process and he told Knight, "I think Jack (Hartman) has lost his mind!" Even at the first fitting for the uniforms, famed big man Ed Nealy remarked "We are going to get called names that you have NEVER heard before!" The nation got to see the unique uniform first hand when Sports Illustrated used the picture of Rolando Blackman draining the jumper to upset Oregon State in the NCAA Tournament in Los Angeles in 1981. The two-tone uniform has become a fan favorite and has been used by the current team for its annual Legends Weekend game for last several years.

POWERCAT LOGO

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the Powercat. The logo was introduced by legendary football coach Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan in 1989 as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing. K-State art professor Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the football helmet, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

SLOGANS

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" and "Every Man A Wildcat" or "EMAW" are just a few. The term "Every Man A Wildcat" was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, specifically with men's basketball, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. It has since been adopted by a number of sports. Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State", which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

ALMA MATER

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.
"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly.
Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.
"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

WILDCAT VICTORY

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.
"Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

WABASH CANNONBALL

With a history like no other, the "Wabash Cannonball" may be known as a second fight song to the K-State faithful. Composed in 1933 as a folk ballad saluting the nation's rail-riding hobos, "Wabash Cannonball" was first performed for an athletic event at K-State on December 19, 1968. Wabash was the only selection in the band's repertoire that evening for a home basketball game at Ahearn Fieldhouse. Just three nights prior, arsonists had set fire to Nichols Hall, at the time the home of the Music Department, destroying all of the department's assets, including sheet music. The band director at the time, Phil Hewitt, just happened to have taken one copy of the Wabash home from the library that night to work on the arrangement; thus making its the only selection to survive the fire. Since then the "Wabash Cannonball" has come to represent the survival of the underdog in the hearts and minds of all true K-State fans, and has earned a secure place in the university's history. It was the judged the No. 1 football pregame tradition in the Big 12 in 2016 by ESPN.com.

"VOICE OF THE WILDCATS"

To go along with the outstanding basketball tradition at K-State is a long line of memorable "Voices of the Wildcats." Wildcat fans around the region have enjoyed broadcasts by Hall-of-Famers Bob Hilgendorf, Dev Nelson, Gary Bender, Fred White, Steve Physioc, Ron Paradis, Mitch Holthus, Greg Sharpe and currently in his 25th season, Wyatt Thompson.

A pioneer in broadcasting n Kansas, Bob Hilgendorf was the Wildcats' play-by-play announcer for both football and basketball for seven years (1947-54). In 1951, he organized the K-State Sports Network, one of the country's first college-operated sports networks. He also broadcasted seven Final Fours.

Dev Nelson was the K-State Sports Information Director from 1966-72 and handled the Wildcats' play-by-play duties for football and basketball as "Voice of the Wildcats" for 25 years (1954-79). He earned Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors five times and appeared on that award's final ballot of three for 18 consecutive years. In addition to his work on the Wildcat Network, he also was the first man on the Big Eight TV Network and originated the state high school basketball tournament all-site coverage. His first K-State athletics broadcast was a 65-51 win over Kansas in 1951 at Ahearn Field House on the 550-station Liberty Network. The Press Level of the West Stadium Center is named in honor of the 1949 K-State graduate.

Gary Bender worked for WIBW calling the action at Wildcat games sandwiched between Dev Nelson and Fred White during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. He went on to work for many years at CBS Sports, ABC Sports, ESPN, TNT and Fox Sports, including calling the 1981 NBA Finals and 1982 and 1983 NCAA Championship games. He retired in 2011 from Fox Sports Arizona after 18 years as the television play-by-play voice of the Phoenix Suns. Bender was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

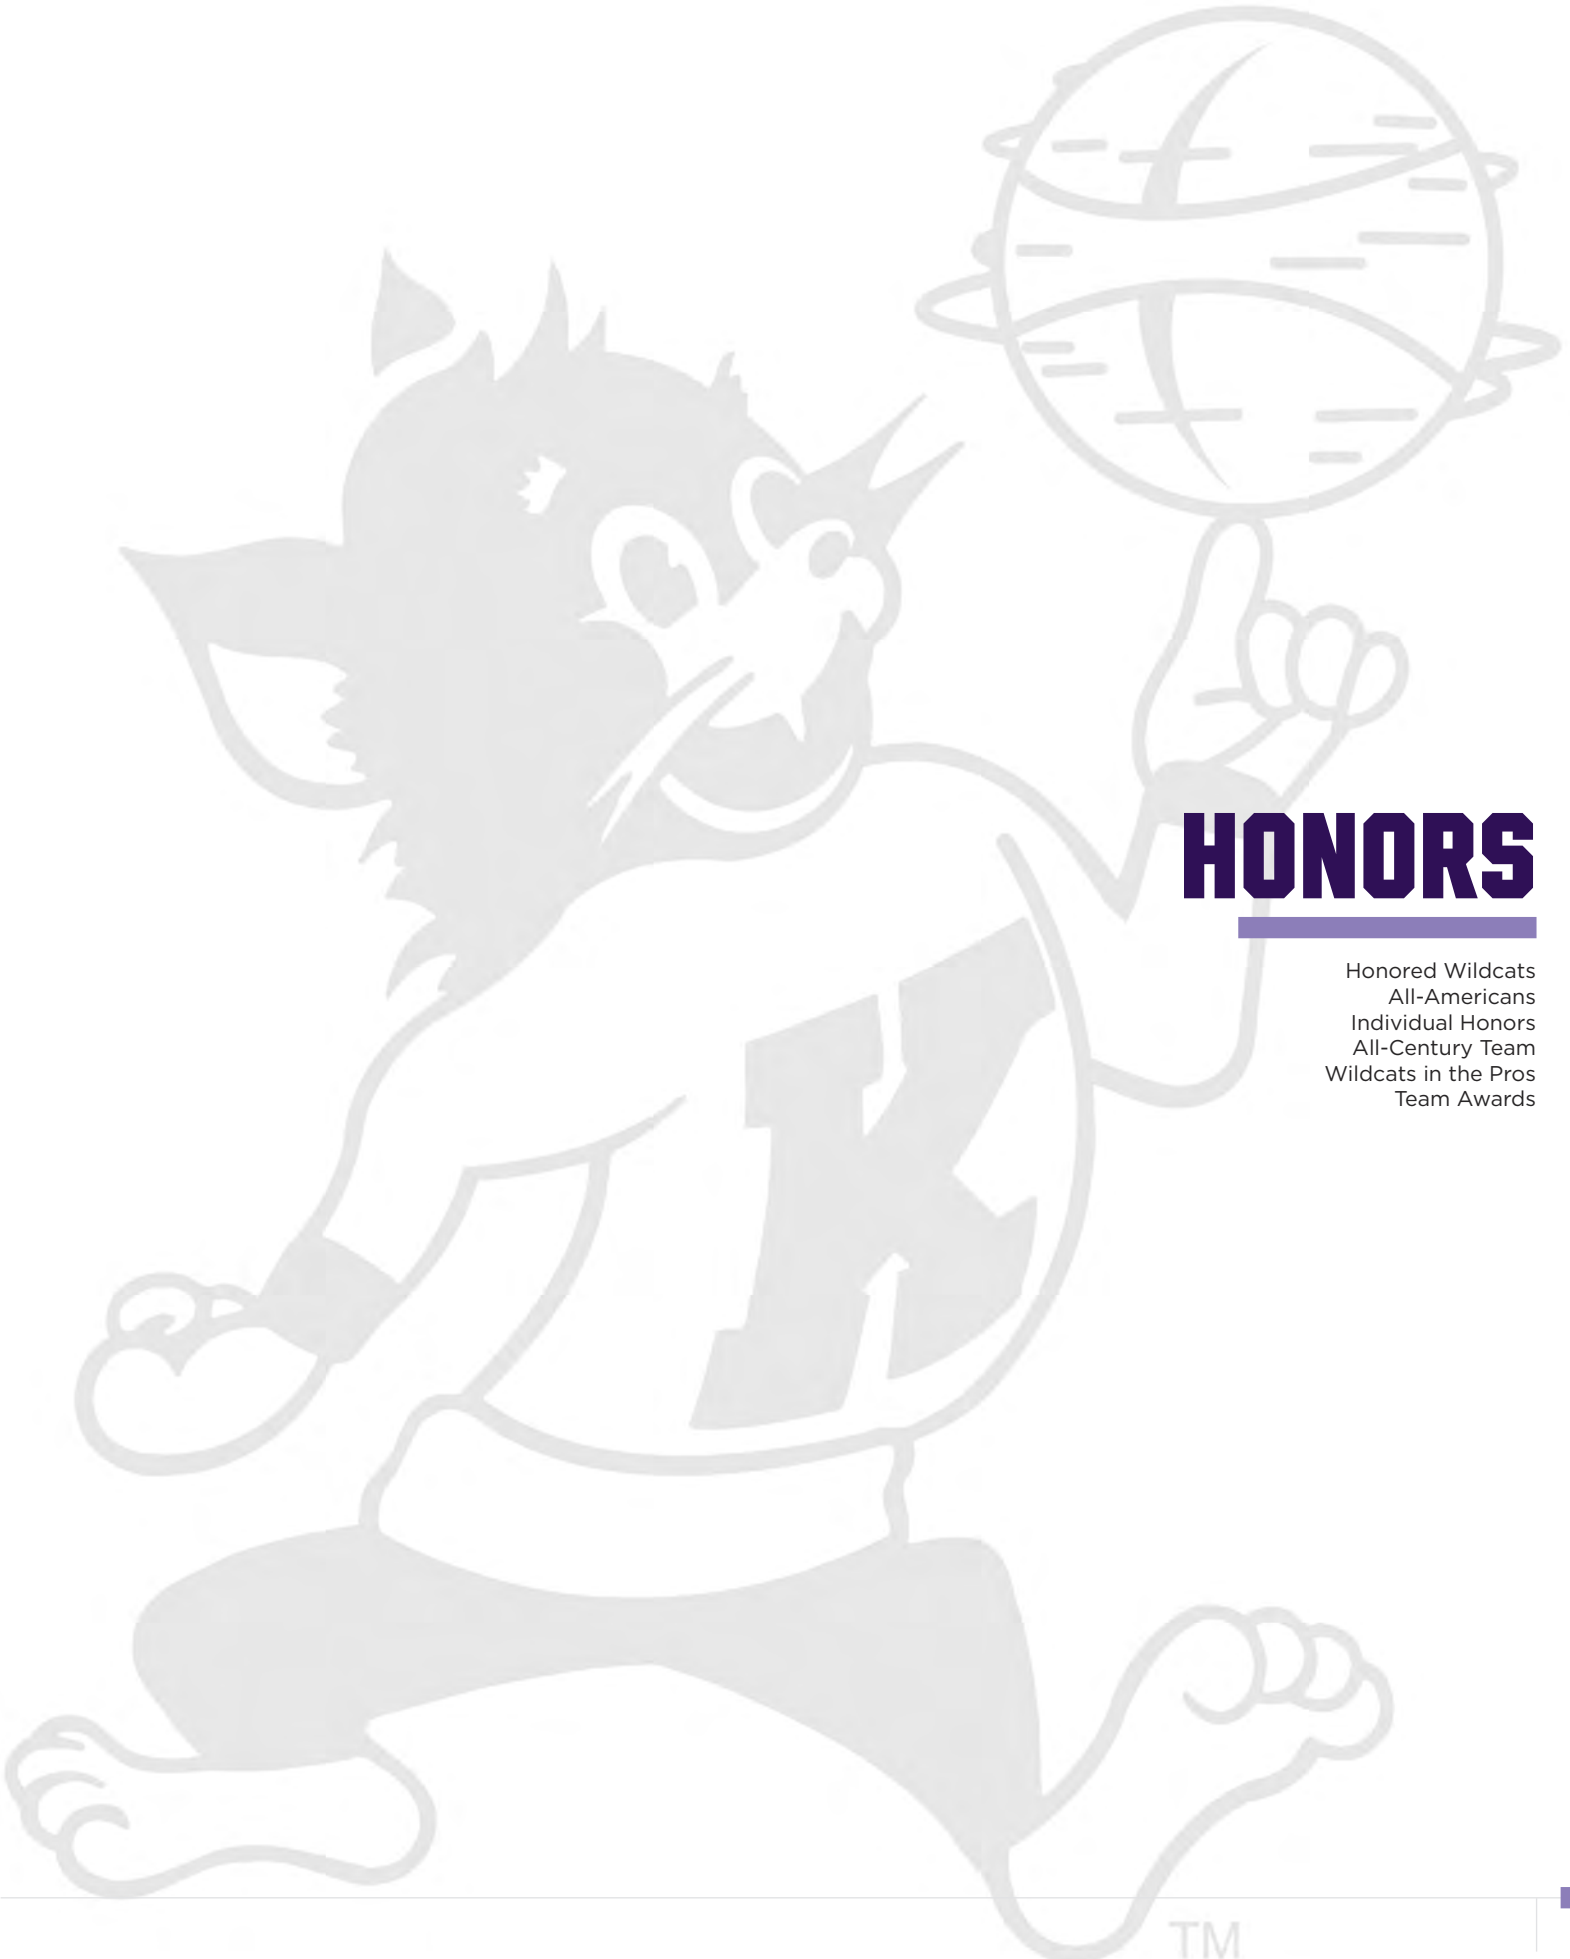

Fred White called the action for football and basketball games from 1967-79 for WIBW. He was the radio voice of the Kansas City Royals for 25 years. The award-winning announcer was heard year-round after working college basketball and football games for CBS Sports, NBC Sports, ABC Sports, TBS, Raycom, Jefferson Pilot, Creative Sports and ESPN. White, who earned numerous Kansas Sportscaster of the year awards, retired as the Royals' Director of Broadcast Services in 2008. He passed away on May 15, 2013 of complications from melanoma.

Steve Physioc served as "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1979-83. After leaving WIBW in 1983, he has served as play-by-play announcer for the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals (1983-87), San Francisco Giants (1987-88), San Diego Padres (1989-90), Golden State Warriors (1989-91), Vancouver Grizzlies (1995-96), Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim (1996-2009) before handling television play-by-play duties for the Kansas City Royals (2013-21) until retirement. Physioc was a member of the ESPN staff from 1988-95 where he announced MLB, college basketball and baseball as well as Big Ten football before joining FOX Sports Net and KCAL in Los Angeles. A 1977 graduate of K-State, he also broadcasted college basketball games on FOX Sports and Big Ten Network.

Ron Paradis was a three-year letterman at K-State from 1964-66 before embarking on a broadcasting career. During his tenure at WIBW-TV, Paradis served as "Voice of the Wildcats" in 1984.

Mitch Holthus was "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1984-96 while earning Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors in 1987, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994 by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters. He is the youngest broadcaster to receive every major sportscasting award in the state of Kansas, winning the Kansas Broadcasters Association best play-by-play sportscast nine times. The 1996 winner of the Hod Humiston Award of Excellence in Kansas Sportscasting and the 2007 winner of the John Sanders Spirit of the Valley by the Missouri Valley Conference, he was inducted in the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016. He is also a member of the Kansas Association of Broadcasters and the Missouri Broadcasters Association Halls of Fame. He is in his 33rd season as play-by-play voice for the 3-time Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs.

Greg Sharpe was K-State's man behind the mike from 1997 to 2001 and moved into the play-by-play role after serving as the Wildcats' color analyst from 1989 to 1996. Sharpe was named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year in 1997. He went onto serve as the play-by-play voice of the Nebraska Cornhuskers before his passing in 2025. The home radio booth at Memorial Stadium is named in his honor.

Touted as the greatest team in Olympic history, the 1960 U.S. squad went 8-0 in winning gold in Rome, averaging 101.9 points a game and posting an average margin of victory of 42.4 points... Selected with the No. 1 pick of the 1959 NBA Draft by the Cincinnati Royals, he went on to play 11 seasons (1960-71) in the NBA for six teams, leading the Milwaukee Bucks to the 1971 NBA title... ALL-CENTURY TEAM

100 years of Kansas State Men's Basketball // 1903-2003
The 13-person team was selected as part of K-State's All-Century celebration in 2003

ERNIE BARRETT guard // wellington, kan. // 1948-51

Affectionately known as "Mr. K-State," Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook senior season in 1950-51, as he led the Wildcats to the NCAA Championship game, earned first team All-America honors from the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News and International News Service and played on the team that opened iconic Ahearn Field House.

ROLANDO BLACKMAN guard // brooklyn, n.y. // 1977-81

One of just three players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman was selected as a first team All-American as a senior in 1980-81 when he was chosen to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award teams in helping K-State to the 1981 West Regional Final... He was also the 1980 Big Eight Player of the Year and twice named Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year.

BOB BOOZER forward // omaha, neb. // 1956-59

Considered to be K-State's most decorated player, Bob Boozer was the landslide vote-getter for the All-Century Basketball Team and remains the only Wildcat to be a two-time consensus first team All-American... A three-time letterman for head coach Tex Winter, he was a first team All-American in 1957-58 and 1958-59 and averaged a double-double for his 77-game career with 21.9 points on 44 percent shooting with 10.7 rebounds per game.

MIKE EVANS guard // goldsboro, n.c. // 1974-78

The first player in school history to total 2,000 career points, Mike Evans earned first team All-America honors from the Helms Foundation as a senior in 1978... In addition to his All-America accolades, he is one of just two players to be named Big Eight Player of the Year twice (1977, 1978) and one of just three to receive the honor.

STEVE HENSON guard // mcpherson, kan. // 1986-90

The first player to lead the school to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, Steve Henson was once described as "K-State's stick of dynamite"... Considered the school's greatest point guard, he broke 21 school records and etched his name among the Top 10 in 41 categories... He still owns career marks for assists (582), free throw percentage (90.0), minutes played (4,474) and consecutive starts (118).

LON KRUGER guard // silver lake, kan. // 1971-74

One of only two K-State players ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger led the Wildcats to a pair of Big Eight Championships and two Elite Eight appearances during his three seasons playing for head coach Jack Hartman... He is one of only three Wildcats to earn Academic All-America honors twice.

ED NEALY forward // bonner springs, kan. // 1978-82

The only player to earn All-America honors on and off the court, Ed Nealy was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1978-82, leading the Wildcats to 85 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances... He is the only Wildcat to total more than 1,000 career points and rebounds with a school-best 1,069 career boards.

JACK PARR center // richmond, va. // 1955-58

Known for his hook shot and a soft "face the basket" jumper playing for Tex Winter, the two-time All-American Jack Parr still ranks among the Top 10 in several school statistical categories, including first in both single season (14.5 rpg.) and career (12.7 rpg.) rebounding averages and second in career double-doubles (40).

MITCH RICHMOND forward // fort lauderdale, fla. // 1986-88

One of the more recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond led K-State to a then school-record tying 25-wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and the 1988 Elite Eight... His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career, while his 786 points as a junior in 1987-88 rank second on the single season list.

CHUCKIE WILLIAMS guard // columbus, ohio // 1972-76

One of the school's most potent scorers, Chuckie Williams paced the Wildcats in scoring at 22.1 points per game en route to the 1975 Elite Eight... His 47 points vs. Holy Cross in 1975 stood as the school record for 19 years.

COACHES

JACK GARDNER head coach // 1939-42, 1946-53

A member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Jack Gardner led the Wildcats to 146 wins during two stints as head coach (1939-42; 1946-53) to go with two Final Fours (1948, 1951) and three Big Seven titles.

TEX WINTER head coach // 1953-68

A member of both the Naismith and National Collegiate Basketball Halls of Fame, Tex Winter led the Wildcats to 261 wins as head coach (1953-68) to go with two Final Fours (1959, 1968) and eight Big Seven/Eight titles.

JACK HARTMAN head coach // 1970-86

The program's all-time winningest coach with 295 victories from 1970-86, Jack Hartman helped the Wildcats to seven NCAA Tournament, including four trips to the Elite Eights, as well as four Big Eight Championships.

Exhibition History

K-State has been playing exhibition games since the 1963-64 season when the Wildcats defeated the Peruvian National Team at Ahearn Field House. The school played exhibition games off and on, including its first international tour in 1981, before the NCAA regulated the practice by allowing Division I institutions the ability to schedule two exhibition games per season prior to 1987-88. Schools can now schedule up to three exhibition/closed scrimmages per season.

K-State has primarily played the Kansas members of the MIAA (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association) since switching to Division II teams in exhibition play in 2004. Prior to that change, the Wildcats played traveling teams of former Division I players like Athletes First, EA Sports All-Stars and Global Sports in exhibition play from 1987 to 2005.

Weekly Rankings in The Associated Press Poll [1949-present]

Following is a look at Kansas State's week-by-week ranking in The Associated Press poll since it began in January 20, 1949 with an original poll of 20 teams. From the 1961-62 season through 1967-68 season, there was only a Top 10. It expanded again to 20 teams from 1968-69 through 1988-89. The Top 25 began in 1989-90, and it has stayed at that number ever since.

BRAMLAGE COLISEUM

39th season [1988-present] // Officially opened on Nov. 26, 1988 vs. Purdue
Capacity: 11,010

Now in its 39th season of hosting Wildcat men's basketball, the Fred Bramlage Coliseum has carved its own niche in K-State's colorful history of basketball residence. In keeping with the tradition established by Nichols Gymnasium (1910-50) and Ahearn Field House (1950-88), the arena has given the team a deafening, winning environment since its opening in November 1988.

The coliseum is named for the late 1935 K-State graduate and Junction City (Kan.) businessman Fred Bramlage, who made the principle contribution. The building was constructed at a cost of $17.2 million and was built in a 22-month period beginning in October 1986. Financial backing came from a number of areas, including $7 million from the student body and a matching figure from alumni. The groundbreaking took place on Oct. 18, 1986.

Dubbed the "Octogon of Doom," K-State has posted a 451-161 (.737) all-time mark in its current home, including an emotional 81-77 win over Purdue (led by alumnus Gene Keady) in the facility's debut on Nov. 26, 1988. The 451 victories are the most at a home venue for the Wildcats, surpassing the previous mark of 378 wins at Ahearn Field House (1950-88) during the 2020-21 season.

K-State has earned double-digit victories in 29 of its 38 seasons at Bramlage Coliseum, including a streak of 18 consecutive seasons from 2001-19. Three times Wildcat teams have set the single-season mark with 16 wins in the arena, which came in the 2008-09, 2010-11 and 2012-13 seasons. The 2010-11 team set the high water mark for highest winning percentage (16-1; .941) in a single season, which was then matched by the 2012-13 squad. The team recorded a 15-1 mark at home in 2022-23, which tied for the fewest losses in arena history. They have registered a winning record in 37 of 38 seasons in the building.

K-State's home court advantage has been even better since the 2001-02 season, as the Wildcats have a compiled a 312-104 (.750) record at Bramlage Coliseum, which includes a 179-21 (.895) mark in non-conference play. Among those 312 victories are 133 in Big 12 play, including 42 against ranked conference foes. In the last 25 seasons, the school has posted double-digit wins 21 times with an average of just over 12 home wins (12.7) per season.

Seating changes and construction has reduced capacity over the years to its current total of 11,010 for the 2026-27 season.

Wins over Top 25 teams have also been a regular occurrence at Bramlage Coliseum since its opening in 1988 with 54 ranked opponents falling to K-State, including 23 Top 10 opponents. Four No. 1 teams have been defeated in the arena's history, including No. 1 Missouri in 1990, No. 1 Texas in 2010, No. 1 Kansas in 2011 and No. 1 Oklahoma in 2016. The Wildcats have beaten at least one Top 25 team at Bramlage Coliseum in 16 of the last 17 seasons.

The three Top 10 victories (No. 9 Baylor, No. 4 Kansas and No. 6 Iowa State) at Bramlage Coliseum in 2024 were a first in the arena's history. It surpassed the mark of two Top 10 wins set four times (1989-90, 2007-08, 2013-14, 2022-23).

In addition to wins, Bramlage Coliseum has also played host to some of the biggest crowds in the history of K-State basketball. The Wildcats have averaged better than 12,000 fans in 10 seasons since the doors to the arena opened in 1988-89, including a program-best 12,978 fans during that inaugural season.

Nine of the school's Top 10 attendance averages have come since 2006-07.

K-State has ranked among the NCAA's Top 40 nationally in attendance 13 times in the last 20 seasons, including a program-best 24th in 2012-13 (12,528) and 25th in both 2007-08 (12,529) and 2011-12 (12,783). In addition, the program has been rated 26th in 2006-07 (12,301), 2010-11 (12,652) and 2014-15 (12,549), 29th in 2013-14 (12,125) and 2016-17, 31st in 2009-10 (11,884), 32nd (11,903) in 2015-16 and 35th in 2018-19 (10,640).

The Wildcats sold out eight games and ranked 23rd nationally in percentage capacity at 87.57 percent as well as 40th in average (9,372) and total attendance (149,951) in 2022-23. The team ranked among the top 50 in each of the past three seasons, including 39th in 2023-24.

K-State was one of six Big 12 schools (Arizona, Iowa State, Kansas, Texas Tech and West Virginia) to have both its men's and women's programs finish in the Top 50 nationally in average attendance in 2025-26, as the Wildcats finished 35th in women's basketball attendance with an average of 3,980 fans. In 2023-24, the Wildcat women hosted NCAA First/Second Round action for the first time since 2017, selling out the arena for their Second Round matchup with Colorado.

#Big 12 Championship Game

NICHOLS GYM

Home arena for 40 seasons [1911-50] // Officially opened on Jan. 30, 1911 vs. Bethany
Capacity: 2,800

K-State's basketball tradition was born in Nichols Gymnasium located now on the grounds of Nichols Hall on the university campus. The gym achieved its fame, however, more for spawning the movement to build Ahearn Field House and for an arsonist's fire which gutted the structure on Dec. 13, 1968.

Nichols was named after Ernest Nichols, the university's fifth president from 1899-1909. Work on the facility began in February 1910, and was completed in June of that same year at a cost of $84,190.

The Wildcats defeated Bethany in the opener by a 40-20 count, on Jan. 10, 1911 then lost to Missouri, 58-55, in the final game on March 3, 1950.

>>> NICHOLS GYM RAFTERS

Over the years, K-State won 227 games in the building (with a .627 winning percentage), including four seasons - 1916-17 (10-0); 1918-19 (10-0), 1919-20 (10-2) and 1947-48 (10-1) - of 10 victories. The last four teams compiled an impressive 36-5 (.878) record at Nichols Gym, including a 10-1 mark in 1947-48.

Fans at Nichols Gym saw some of the early milestones of the K-State program, including its first three All-Americans F. I. Reynolds (1917), Frank Groves (1937) and Rick Harman (1950) as well as early head coaches Mike Ahearn, Zora G. Clevenger (who would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame) and Jack Gardner (who later would be inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame).

The school's first two conference championship teams - the Missouri Valley Conference champions in 1917 (15-2) and 1919 (17-2) - both called Nichols Gym home with each of the squads going 10-0 in the building. The school's first Final Four team - 1947-48 - also competed in the arena and posted a 10-1 mark, while its last team won the Big Seven Conference crown in 1949-50.

The seating capacity of Nichols was just 2,800 and by the time it closed, the crowds were easily overflowing. The student body was divided into two groups, and the groups alternated in attendance at every other game. People actually sat on the rafters and practice goals to see the games. That overcrowding problem eventually led to the construction of Ahearn Field House.

Prior to the advent of Nichols Gym, K-State basketball was played in several locales. Among the homecourts were Commercial Hall, the K-State YMCA at 1100 Fremont in Manhattan and various other buildings around the town, including a closed-down skating rink.

The first game ever played on campus, a bout between the student team and the faculty, was staged in the Ag Barn at the north end of campus in January 1906. Twenty-five spectators attended, and the goals were provided by the blacksmith shop.

AHEARN FIELD HOUSE

Home arena for 38 seasons [1950-88] // Officially opened on Dec. 9, 1950 vs. Utah State
Capacity: 11,000-14,000

Ahearn Field House has meant different things to different people. To K-Staters, it meant great atmosphere, roaring crowds and Wildcat victories. To opponents, it meant intimidation, deafening noise and likely defeat.

Then legendary Indiana head coach Bob Knight paid the facility one of its biggest compliments by saluting the fans. The Hoosier mentor said, "This has to be the greatest basketball crowd in America."

SOUVENIR PROGRAM
Opening of the
Kansas State College Field House
Saturday, December 9, 1950
Kansas State vs. Utah State
On the Campus of Kansas State College, Manhattan

Over four and half million fans witnessed Ahearn's long and fruitful tenure and saw the Wildcats amass an incredible record of 378-86 (.815) in 38 seasons. Included in those totals are six undefeated seasons - 1951-52 (11-0); 1958-59 (11-0); 1961-62 (10-0); 1969-70 (11-0); 1972-73 (12-0); 1974-75 (12-0) - and an arena-best 16 wins in 1981-82 under head coach Jack Hartman.

K-State averaged almost 10,000 fans for its 464 games in Ahearn Field House and drew an arena record 12,166 fans during the 1968-69 season. In fact, the Wildcats drew 11,000 or more fans 16 times in the history of Ahearn Field House, including nine straight seasons from 1961-62 to 1969-70. The 378 wins are also the second-most at a home venue.

Ahearn's beginning officially started April 16, 1940, with a student rally although athletic director Mike Ahearn had mentioned the need for a new gymnasium several years earlier. The rally took place a full 10 years before the first game was played at the new field house. The student rally kicked off an extended period of student demonstrations, petitions and pleading with state legislators for a new athletics facility which would be home to numerous events. However, at the heart of the matter, was basketball seating, or the lack of it.

As head coach Jack Gardner's Wildcat teams began to take off, so did the demand for tickets in the 2,800-seat Nichols Gymnasium, which had been home to the team for 30 years. The college's enrollment alone was almost twice the seating capacity of Nichols Gym. Students began their field house campaign, which soon grew to be a statewide effort, with the slogan "Let's have a Crackerjack Field House instead of a Crackerbox Coliseum."

After countless petitions and rallies, the students took things a step further in January 1941. With over 100 legislators attending the K-State/Kansas basketball game as guests of the university, a body fell from the rafters of Nichols Gym where many of the students were forced to sit. Although the body was made of straw and covered with ketchup, the point was well taken.

"The way those students sat up on those rafters, it's really a wonder that somebody wasn't injured or killed," said Dev Nelson, the "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1954-79. "When the dummy fell from the rafters, it startled a lot of people."

In time, the long endeavors of the K-State students and supporters paid off with a new $2 million facility, which was the fifth largest in the country at its construction and the largest in Kansas with a seating capacity of 13,000.

The structure opened on Dec. 9, 1950, when K-State defeated Utah State, 66-56 before a sellout crowd. Later that same season, on Jan. 31, 1951, a record crowd of 14,028 crammed in to see the Wildcats crush No. 4 Long Island, 85-65.

The last game in the building took place on March 5, 1988, when K-State defeated Missouri, 92-82, in front of 11,850. The last official capacity for the facility was 11,220 (over the years, seating was reduced due to fire codes).

Ahearn Field House also served as the home venue for K-State's acclaimed men's and women's indoor track and field teams and the women's volleyball squad until 2020. The building served as host for the NCAA Tournament five times (1996, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2007), while it played host to the conference indoor track meet on two occasions (1976 and 1999). The building was closed to sporting events following the 2020 indoor track season.

T-MOBILE CENTER

20th season [2007-present] // Officially opened on Oct. 10, 2007

T-Mobile CENTER

T-Mobile Center (formerly the Sprint Center) has served as a home away from home for K-State, serving as the host for 13 Wildcat Classic games (2007-12, 2014, 2016, 2018-19, 2022-24), while also serving as the host for Wildcat games in 18 Phillips 66 Big 12 Championships (2008, 2010-present), the 2010, 2015, 2021 and 2025 Hall of Fame Classics and the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Located in downtown Kansas City, T-Mobile Center opened on Oct. 10, 2007, inaugurated by an Elton John concert three days later on Oct. 13. In addition to the annual Big 12 Championship, the arena has hosted the first and second rounds of the 2009 and 2013 NCAA men's basketball tournaments, plus the regional rounds of the tournament in 2017, 2019, 2023 and again in 2027. It has also hosted the NCAA women's basketball tournament in 2010 and 2018 the NCAA women's volleyball Final Four in 2010, 2017 and 2025 and the NCAA Division I men's wrestling championships in 2024.

K-State played its first game in the arena on Dec. 17, 2007 with an 87-60 win over Florida A&M in the inaugural Wildcat Classic. The team has played host to the Wildcat Classic 13 times in the past 20 seasons, including six in a row from 2007-12. The Wildcats have won 10 of 13 Wildcat Classics, including a 5-game winning streak (No. 23 Alabama, No. 8 Florida, No. 21 Texas A&M, Washington State and Vanderbilt) from 2011-18.

Among the 10 wins are three over ranked teams, including No. 23 Alabama (71-58) in 2011, No. 8 Florida (67-61) in 2012 and No. 21 Texas A&M (71-64) in 2014.

K-State lost just its third game in the Wildcat Classic in 2024, as eventual Missouri Valley Conference champion Drake outlasted the Wildcats, 73-70, in overtime. The school will host the Wildcat Classic for the 14th time on Dec. 11, 2025 when the Wildcats host in-state rival Wichita State for the second time. They defeated the Shockers, 69-60, in the arena on Dec. 21, 2023.

K-State has played 29 games in 18 Big 12 Championships (2008, 2010-present) held in the T-Mobile Center, including a run to the title game against Kansas in 2010 and 2013. The Wildcats went 0-1 at the most recent Big 12 Championship, losing to NCAA Tournament participant BYU, 105-91, in 2025.

The Wildcats have also played in four installments (2010, 2015, 2021, 2025) of the Hall of Fame Classic, which has been played every year since 2001. They have advanced to three championship games in the event, losing to top-ranked Duke in 2010, No. 9 North Carolina in 2015 and Nebraska in 2025. Last season, the team defeated Mississippi State, 98-77, in the semifinals of the tournament before losing 86-85 to the Huskers, who advanced to the Sweet 16.

INTRUST BANK ARENA

17th season [2010-present] // Officially opened on Jan. 2, 2010

INTRUST Bank. Arena

INTRUST Bank Arena, a 15,004-seat arena in Wichita, has served as a home arena for K-State on four occasions (2011, 2013, 2015, 2017) in the Wichita Wildcat Classic. Typically, the arena has hosted the Wildcats on odd years when they didn't hold a Wildcat Classic at the T-Mobile Center in Kansas City.

The arena opened on Jan. 2, 2010 with the Wildcats staging their first game a little over a year later with former coach Bob Huggins and his West Virginia Mountaineers on Dec. 8, 2011 in the inaugural Wichita Wildcat Classic. The Mountaineers survived a thriller in double overtime, 85-80.

K-State posted its biggest win in the second edition of the Classic with the Wildcats knocking off national power and No. 21 Gonzaga, 72-62, on Dec. 21, 2013. The team has since returned three other times to the arena, defeating Colorado State, 61-56, on Dec. 19, 2015, losing to Tulsa, 61-54, on Dec. 9, 2017 and defeating Wichita State, 65-59, on Dec. 5, 2021.

The arena regularly hosts a wide range of sporting events, including Professional Bullriding Association (PBR), college basketball and NBA and NHL preseason exhibitions. It's home to the ECHL's Wichita Thunder (hockey) and the Wichita Force (Champions Indoor Football League). It has also hosted the NCAA women's basketball tournament in 2011 (first/second-round games) and 2022 (Sweet 16 and Elite Eight) and the NCAA men's basketball tournament in 2018 (Rounds of 64 and 32) as well as in 2025 (Rounds of 64 and 32).

The Wildcats have a long history in the city of Wichita dating back to a meeting with Wichita State on Dec. 17, 1932. The team has twice played an NCAA Tournament game in the city, including advancing to the 1964 Final Four.

The NCAA announced in July 2026 that Wichita will host opening round games for the 2027 and 2028 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship at INTRUST Bank Arena. Wichita and Dayton, Ohio, which has served as the host city for the start of the tournament since 2001, both will host three games each day on the Tuesday and Wednesday after Selection Sunday. The change was necessitated by the decision in May to expand the tournament field to 76 teams.

Wichita's hosting history dates to the 1956 tournament, when the first round of the Midwest Regional was played at Levitt Arena, which eventually staged 24 tournament games over eight tournaments through 1981. The Kansas Coliseum hosted first- and second-round games in 1994, while INTRUST Bank Arena did the same in 2018 and 2025.

Season Notes

NIT FINAL FOUR

- K-State posted its first 20-win season since 1987-88, as the Wildcats tallied a 20-14 record, including a 4-10 mark in Big Eight play, and its first trip the NIT Final Four in New York City. The team defeated Mississipi State, Gonzaga and Fresno State before losing to Vanderbilt at Madison Square Garden in the semifinals.
- Among the 20 wins was a 68-64 upset of No. 1 Kansas at Allen Fieldhouse, which is the one of only 5 wins over the top-ranked team in school history and the first-ever on the road.
- K-State shattered the school record with 246 made 3-pointers, eclipsing the previous mark of 179 set in 1987-88. Senior Askia Jones also broke the individual single-season record with 110 treys.
- Jones set the single-game scoring record with a Big Eight record 62 points, including 45 in the second half, in a 117-77 win over Fresno State in the NIT quarterfinals in his final game at Bramlage Coliseum on March 24, 1994. He made a school-record 14 3-pointers (on 18 attempts), including a stretch of 9 in a row.

Season Notes

- K-State posted an 11-18 overall record, including a 10th-place finish in the Big 12 with a 4-12 mark, in coach Jim Wooldridge's first season at the helm. It was a 2-game improvement from 1999-2000 and included wins over No. 19 Iowa and No. 20 Missouri.

- The Wildcats held 13 of their 16 conference opponents below their season average. The team posted six of the top-19 single-game defensive field goal percentage performances since 1990.
- Three Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition, including All-Big 12 honorable mention and All-Newcomer selection Larry Reid, who twice earned Big 12 Rookie of the Week. Juniors Travis Reynolds and Phineas Atchison were both voted to the All-Bench Team.

Season Notes

- K-State posted a 13-17 overall record, including an 11th-place finish in the Big 12 with a 4-12 mark. Although the Wildcats didn't progress in the win-loss column, few can argue they weren't a better team as eight of their 12 conference losses were by single digits.
- The 2002-03 season marked the 100th anniversary of basketball at K-State, as the university released its 13-member All-Century team that included players and coaches from the past century.
- K-State nearly became the first 11-seed to win a game at the Big 12 Championship, however, Colorado banked in a 3-pointer at the buzzer to pull out a 77-76 first-round victory.
- Eleven of the Wildcats' 13 wins, including three of four Big 12 victories, were by double figures.
- Seniors Gilson DeJesus and Pervis Pasco were both named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team. DeJesus was also selected to the league's All-Underrated Team, while fellow senior Matt Siebrandt earned All-Improved Team honors.

Season Notes

NIT SECOND ROUND

- K-State produced its first 20-win season and advanced to the postseason (NIT) for the first time since 1998-99 in Bob Huggins' first and only season as head coach. The team's win over Vermont in the first round of the NIT was the first postseason victory since 1994. He left to take over as head coach at his alma mater West Virginia after the season where he retired as head coach in 2023.
- The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year head coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.
- The Wildcats earned their first bye at the Big 12 Championship with a fourth-place finish and 10-6 record. The 10 Big 12 wins were the most in conference play since posting 11 in 1987-88. During the year, the team snapped Texas' 22-game home court winning streak and swept rivals Colorado, Iowa State and Missouri.
- Junior Cartier Martin was named All-Big 12 Second Team.

NCAA MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

- K-State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in nearly 12 years (1996) and collected its first NCAA Tournament win since 1988 with its 80-67 victory over USC in the first round of the NCAA Midwest Regional in Omaha, Neb.
- The Wildcats posted consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in nearly 20 years (1986-87 and 1987-88), while they achieved 10 conference wins for the first time in the Big 12 era, which resulted in a third-place finish. The third-place finish was the best in conference play since also finishing third in the Big Eight in 1988-89.
- Freshman Michael Beasley achieved the greatest rookie season in school history, as he set 30 school records and 17 Big 12 marks en route to earning National Freshman of the Year and Big 12 Player of the Years honors as well as First Team All-America distinction.
- Head coach Frank Martin became just the second first-year coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament.

NIT SECOND ROUND

■ K-State posted its third consecutive 20-win season as well as its third trip to the postseason, as the Wildcats won 22 games, including 9 in Big 12 play, and received an at-large bid to the Postseason NIT. The team defeated Illinois State in overtime in the first round before losing to the region's top-seed San Diego State, in round two.

■ It marked the first time in 15 years (1991-94) that the team advanced to the postseason in three consecutive seasons, while the three straight 20-win seasons was a first in over 25 years (1979-82).

■ K-State became just the second school in Big 12 history to rally from an 0-4 start to get back to at least .500 in league play. The team was just the fourth in the Big 12 era to start winless (0-4 or worse) in league play and advance to the postseason.

■ Junior Denis Clemente was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year as well as Second Team All-Big 12. He was the ESPN.com National Player of the Week on Feb. 2 after tying the Big 12 single-game record with 44 points in a win at No. 11 Texas.

Season Notes

- K-State ended a rebuilding season with back-to-back wins (Iowa State and TCU) to wrap up the 2019-20 season with an 11-21 overall record. The team's quarterfinal matchup with No. 5/5 Baylor in the Big 12 Championship was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The non-winning season snapped a streak of three consecutive 20-win seasons and was the first since 2014-15.
- The Wildcats set school records for both overall losses (21) and conference losses (15). The 21 losses surpassed the previous low of 20 in 1945-46, while the 15 Big 12 defeats eclipsed the 14 in Missouri Valley play in 1922-23. The team finished last in Big 12 play for the first time since finishing 12th in 1999-2000.
- 18 of the 32 games were decided by 10 points or less, including 17 by single digits. The squad lost 13 games by single digits (8 in Big 12) and seven by 5 points or less.
- Senior Xavier Sneed was named honorable mention All-Big 12.

Season Notes

- In one of the most challenging seasons in school history, K-State had to navigate COVID-19 protocols on a near daily basis while fielding one of the nation's youngest teams. The nine wins were the fewest in a season since also posting nine in 1999-2000.
- The Wildcats did respond by winning 4 of their last 6 games, including a home victory over No. 7 Oklahoma and a win at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship for the sixth straight season.
- The team was one of the youngest in the country, as it returned just four lettermen while welcoming eight newcomers. The average age of 19.6 years ranked 336th out of 347 teams in Division I.
- Three true freshmen (Davion Bradford, Selton Miguel and Nijel Pack) started in 17 games, including 12 in Big 12 play. The 71 combined starts by freshmen ranked second nationally to Kentucky's 72, while the 17 games with at least three true freshman starters placed third behind Duke (19) and Kentucky (18).
- Senior Mike McGuirl was named honorable mention All-Big 12.

Season Notes

- K-State put itself in a position for a postseason berth by winning 4 games in a 5-game stretch in mid-February, however, the Wildcats could not sustain the momentum, losing their last 6 games to post their third consecutive losing season and end the Bruce Weber era.
- Health was a major storyline for the Wildcats in 2021-22, as 12 of the 16 players listed on the roster combined to miss 107 games. Fifth-year senior Mark Smith was the only player to start every game, as injuries and COVID-19 health and safety protocols forced Weber to use 12 different starting lineups.
- Sophomore Nijel Pack was among 3 Wildcats to earn recognition for their outstanding play, as he was selected as the league Most Improved Player as well as All-Big 12 First Team. He was the first Wildcat to be named the league's Most Improved Player, while he was just the sixth in the Big 12 era to earn First Team honors. Pack was joined by Smith, who was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team and All-Newcomer Team, and junior Markquis Nowell, who was named All-Big 12 honorable mention and to the All-Defensive Team.

Season Notes

NCAA EAST REGIONAL FINAL
FINAL RANKING: No. 15 (AP), No. 9 (USA Today/ESPN)

- K-State defied preseason expectations under first-year head coach Jerome Tang to post a 26-10 record, including a tie for third-place in the Big 12, and the school's 13th trip to the Elite Eight.
- The 26 wins are the third-most in school history, trailing the school-record 29 in 2009-10 and the 27 in 2012-13, and just the eighth 25-win campaign and first since 2017-18.
- The Wildcats tied the school record with 7 Top 25 wins, including one over defending national champion and No. 2/2 Kansas, another at No. 6/6 Texas and a home-and-home sweep of Baylor.
- Seniors Markquis Nowell and Keyontae Johnson formed one of the nation's top tandems en route to becoming the first Wildcat duo to earn AP All-America honors in the same season. Tang was named Naismith National as well as Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Season Notes

■ During a roller coaster of a season that included a 6-game losing streak followed by a 6-game winning streak, K-State could not overcome a disappointing non-conference season, as the Wildcats finished with a 16-17 overall record, including a tie for ninth place with TCU in the new-look 16-team Big 12 with a 9-11 mark.

■ Among the 16 wins were 10 over teams that advanced to the postseason (3 NCAA Tournament, 1 NIT and 6 College Basketball Crown), including ranked wins over No. 3/3 Iowa State, No. 16/17 Cincinnati, No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 23/23 West Virginia.

■ Seniors Coleman Hawkins and David N'Guessan were both lauded for their outstanding seasons, as Hawkins was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team while N'Guessan was selected Honorable Mention. Hawkins was the only Division I player to average 10.0 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. The Wildcats' leading scorer (13.3 ppg.) and rebounder (7.2 rpg.), N'Guessan led the Big 12 with a 64.4 field goal percentage while ranking in the league's top 20 in both scoring and rebounding.

Perhaps best known for his school-record 62-point effort vs. Fresno State in 1994 Postseason NIT, Jones finished his four-year playing career (1989-94) with 1,834 points... Many of his accolades from that game still stand, as he holds records for most points in a half (45), most 3-point field goals made (14) and attempted (18)... During his senior year in 1993-94, he became the second Wildcat to score 700 or more points in a single season... His 254 steals not only shattered the school's all-time mark by more than 44, it ranks as the sixth-most in Big 12 history... A semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year, he became the first Wildcat to be selected as the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in the Big 12 era and the first since Rolando Blackman won it in back-to-back seasons in 1979 and 1980.

Considered to be K-State's most decorated player, Boozer was the landslide vote-getter for the school's All-Century Team released in 2003 and remains the only Wildcat to be a two-time consensus first team All-American... Despite playing more than 50 years ago, he still ranks among numerous Top 10 lists for single-game, single-season and career record, including first in career 20-point games (45), second in career scoring average (21.9 ppg.) and 30-point games (10), fourth in career rebounds (824) and fifth in career points (1,685)... ▶ 11-seed Minnesota jumped out to a 14-point lead just 11 minutes into the first half en route to an 86-75 win over 6-seed K-State in the first round of the East Regional at the Greensboro Coliseum in Greensboro, N.C.

▶ The Gophers never trailed after Kevin Lynch's 3-pointer less 3 minutes into the game, as they connected on 51.9 percent (27-of-52) from the field, including 66.7 percent (8-of-12) from 3-point range.

2008 | MIDWEST REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 20, 2008 | Omaha, Neb. / Qwest Center

[6] USC	27	40	—	67
[11] K-STATE	37	43	—	80

▶ Led by a bevy of talented freshmen, 11-seed Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game in 20 years with an 80-67 victory over 6-seed USC in the Midwest Regional first round before 17,162 fans at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

▶ Four Wildcat freshmen scored in double figures led by All-American Michael Beasley, who paced all scorers with 23 points on 7-of-12 shooting to go with a game-high 11 rebounds. It was his 27th double-double of the season.

▶ Beasley was joined in double figures by redshirt freshman Bill Walker, who had 22 points, along with true freshmen teammates Jacob Pullen and Ron Anderson, who had 11 and 10 points, respectively, off the bench.

▶ For K-State, it is used to big things from the Player of the Year candidate Beasley, but it was his supporting cast who made the difference in the first NCAA Tournament win since 1988. The Wildcats jumped out to a 10-point halftime lead before leading by as many as 17 points late in the second half.

▶ Walker carried the load in the early going, scoring 17 in the first half and hitting a dagger of a 3-pointer in the closing minutes. Pullen, a lightning-quick guard, doled out five assists to go with his 11 points. Anderson, averaging only 3.1 points per game, scored 10 and grabbed 8 rebounds in 21 minutes to help the Wildcats dominate the Trojans on the boards, 44-27.

▶ Another K-State freshman - Dominique Sutton - stuck to USC star O.J. Mayo like a nagging cold, helping limit the freshman to 6-of-16 shooting. Mayo led the Trojans with 20 points, but it didn't matter. He was joined in double figures by Davon Jefferson (15 points) and Taj Gibson (10 points).

▶ Walker's first 3-pointer just a over minute into the contest gave K-State a lead that it would keep the rest of the first half, as they broke open a tight contest with a 7-1 run. He led all scorers with 17 points at the break.

▶ After the Trojans tied the game at 48 with 12:40 remaining, the Wildcats used a 13-5 run to pull back ahead 61-53 with under 9 minutes to play. After a pair of free throws by Daniel Hackett cut the deficit to 5 points with 5:57, Wildcat freshmen combined for 15 of the next 19 points to put the team ahead 76-60 with under 2 minutes left to put the game away.

▶ Among K-State's 44 rebounds were 21 offensive rebounds that the team turned into 22 second-chance points compared to just 3 for USC.

2008 | MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 22, 2008 | Omaha, Neb. / Qwest Center

[3] Wisconsin	39	33	—	72
[11] K-STATE	33	22	—	55

▶ Trevon Hughes matched his career-high with a game-high 25 points, as 3-seed Wisconsin eliminated 11-seed Kansas State from the NCAA Tournament with a 72-55 win on March 22 in the second round of the Midwest Regional before 17,162 fans at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

▶ Michael Flowers had 15 points and Greg Stiemsma 14 for the Badgers, who advanced to the regional semifinals for the first time since 2005.

▶ Wisconsin's top-rated defense held the K-State to just 55 points on 39.6 percent shooting (21-of-53), including 34.6 percent (9-of-25) after halftime. The Wildcats also missed all 13 of their 3-point field goal attempts, while they managed just 4 assists to 13 turnovers.

▶ Offensively, the Badgers were the picture of efficiency, connecting on 52.2 percent (24-of-46) from the field, including 40.9 percent (9-of-22) from 3-point range. They hit on better than 50 percent in each half.

▶ All-American Michael Beasley recorded his 28th double-double in what would be his final game as a Wildcat with 23 points and 13 rebounds, but he had only 6 points after halftime as the Badgers outscored the Wildcats, 33-22.

▶ Hughes, who had 8 points in a 71-56 first-round win over Cal State Fullerton, scored in double figures for the first time in seven games and had his biggest output since scoring 25 in the season opener against IPFW. He scored 8 points in a 13-2 run over the first and second halves to break open the game, and hit four of the Badgers' nine 3-pointers.

▶ Flowers paced Wisconsin early with three of the team's seven first-half 3-pointers. Jason Bohannon's 3 broke a 10-10 tie, and back-to-back 3s by Flowers put Wisconsin up 32-20. A Beasley dunk got the Wildcats back within 36-33, but the Badgers got another 3 from Flowers to lead 39-33 at halftime.

▶ Bill Walker was the only other Wildcat in double figures with 18 points, but he wasn't much of a factor in the first half after scoring 22 points. But he was the best thing going in the second half where he scored 10 of his 18 points.

▶ The Badgers led by more than double figures in the second half, turning a 39-33 halftime lead into a 14-point lead with 15:20 to play. The Wildcats got to within 58-49 with 9 to play, but a quick 14-2 run ended any hopes of a further comeback as the lead grew to 21 points with 3:35 remaining.

2010 | WEST REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 18, 2010 | Oklahoma City, Okla. / Ford Center

[15] North Texas	25	37	—	62
[2] K-STATE	41	41	—	82

▶ Led by Denis Clemente's 17 points, four Wildcats scored in double figures as second-seeded Kansas State advanced in the NCAA Tournament with an 82-62 win over North Texas on March 18 in the first round of the West Regional before 13,382 fans at the Ford Center in Oklahoma City.

▶ In addition to Clemente's 17 points, Curtis Kelly and Jacob Pullen each added 15. Dominique Sutton also pitched in 12 for the Wildcats, who shot 51 percent from the floor in the win. K-State's defense held North Texas to 30 percent shooting for the game and forced 16 Mean Green turnovers.

▶ Holding a 16-point advantage at the half, K-State extended its lead to 21 in the first four minutes of the second half on a Clemente lay-up. A McGruder three with 12:50 left matched the largest lead of the contest up to that point at 59-38 before a Wally Judge bucket pushed the margin to 62-38. The Wildcats held their largest lead of the game at 26 midway through the second half.

▶ North Texas would get to within 14 at 69-55 before a Kelly turnaround made it 71-55 and jump-started a 6-0 K-State scoring run to close out the win.

▶ Tristan Thompson led North Texas (24-9) with 28 points, while Eric Tramiel and George Odufuwa added 11 and 10 points, respectively. Odufuwa had a double-double with a game-high 10 rebounds.

▶ The Wildcats scored the game's first five points but the Mean Green answered and took their first lead at 8-7 with 15:26 left. With 11:21 remaining in the first half, the Wildcats held on to a 14-8 lead after two Kelly put-backs.

▶ Following a turnover and a foul, two Sutton free throws gave K-State its first double-digit lead of the game at 24-14. Pullen's driving layup then pushed the lead to 26-14 with 6:40 left in the half, forcing North Texas into a timeout. K-State took a 30-16 lead on a Clemente to Sutton fast break layup before Pullen's three with 3:50 left upped the margin to 35-18.

▶ Clemente hit consecutive three's to make it 41-25 at the half as the backcourt duo of Pullen and Clemente each had 11 first-half points. K-State held North Texas to just five field goals in the first half (20 percent) but the Mean Green were 13-of-18 from the free throw line.

▶ The Wildcats scored 46 of their 82 points in the paint, while they turned the 16 Mean Green turnovers into 17 points.

2010 | WEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 20, 2010 | Oklahoma City, Okla. / Ford Center

[7] BYU	31	41	—	72
[2] K-STATE	41	43	—	84

▶ Kansas State erased two early double-digit deficits and guards Jacob Pullen and Denis Clemente combined for 53 points as the seventh-ranked Wildcats advanced to the Sweet 16 with an 84-72 win over BYU on March 20 in the second round of the West Regional at the Ford Center.

▶ The matchup was hyped to be a battle of top guards and Pullen provided the firepower with a game and career-high 34 points, which included seven three-point field goals. Clemente added 19 as the two combined to go 13-for-13 at the free throw line to pace the Wildcats. Curtis Kelly chipped in 10 points.

▶ The Wildcats shot 41 percent and hit 11 3-pointers. But, the Wildcats' performance at the free throw line was the story as they went a season-best 27-of-30 on the night, which included an 11-of-12 effort down the stretch.

▶ K-State had to play catch up in the first half as BYU (30-6) opened the game with a 10-0 run to take control early. Pullen's three and a Clemente runner made it 12-9. But, the Cougars made another run to put the lead back to 10, 23-13.

▶ A Clemente three brought K-State to within six at 25-19 with eight minutes left and two free throws from Kelly tied the game at 25 with 5:31 left. Pullen's third three of the half gave the Wildcats their first lead at 28-27 with 4:17 left. The Cats would then connect on 7 straight free throws to go up 35-29 and Pullen's three at the 1:32 mark capped a 10-0 run to give K-State a 38-29 lead.

▶ Pullen, who scored 20 points in the first half, hit his fifth three of the half to give the Wildcats a 10-point advantage at the break, 41-31. K-State hit on 13-of-14 free throws in the opening half and connected on six three-point attempts while holding BYU to 37 percent shooting and forcing nine turnovers.

▶ K-State maintained a 10-point lead in the opening minutes of the second half until BYU closed to within 45-40 with 16:25 left. A Judge jumper and another Pullen three upped the lead back to 10 at 50-40 with 15:31 left and Clemente's runner upped it back to seven at 55-48 after BYU cut it to five.

▶ BYU would only get as close as 55-50 the rest of the way as Clemente and McGruder each hit big three's to keep the lead at double digits. BYU closed it to 66-59 but Pullen answered yet again with a big three and a defensive stand that culminated with a Samuels block secured a 71-61 lead.

▶ K-State went on to hit 11 free throws down the stretch to close out the win.

2010 | WEST REGIONAL SEMIFINALS

March 25, 2010 | Salt Lake City, Utah / EnergySolutions Arena

[6] Xavier	32	40	15	9	— 96
[2] K-STATE	31	41	15	14	— 101

▶ Jacob Pullen nailed a pair of 3-pointers in the second overtime and finished with 28 points as Kansas State held on for a courageous 101-96 win over Xavier in the West Regional semifinals before 17,254 fans at EnergySolutions Arena.

▶ Xavier led 93-91 with 1:23 left in the second overtime but had no answer for Pullen at the end. He hit an open three from the top of the key for a 94-93 lead with 1:09 left. Jason Love made one of two free throws on the next possession, then Pullen hit the next trey to make it 97-94. Pullen and Clemente combined for four straight free throws over the last 24 seconds to ice the game.

▶ Xavier sent the game into overtime twice with last second three-point field goals as K-State held leads of 72-69 and 87-84 late in regulation and the first overtime. With the Musketeers trailing by three at the end of regulation, Terrell Holloway got fouled while heaving up a 30-footer with 5 seconds left and calmly made all three free throws. Xavier was down by three again at the end of the first overtime, but Jordan Crawford rattled home a 35-footer.

▶ Clemente scored 25 points as he and Pullen combined for 53 points. Curtis Kelly had 21 points and Jamar Samuels had 14 to lead the Wildcats.

▶ Down one at the half, K-State grabbed the lead back in the early stages of the second half as a Pullen three gave the Cats a 40-36 advantage. Holding to a 44-43 lead, Sutton connected on a bucket to push the lead to 46-43. A Samuels three-point play made it 52-47. Following two free throws, the Wildcat defense forced a turnover and Kelly's layup pushed the lead to 56-49 with 8:47 left.

▶ Xavier answered with a 10-2 run to take a 59-58 lead with 5:31 left. Down 61-60, Clemente drained a three and converted a four-point play following a foul to give the lead back to K-State at 64-61 with just over four minutes left.

▶ Down 4-2, K-State turned up the heat defensively and transition baskets from Clemente and Pullen gave the Wildcats an 8-4 lead and jump-started a 17-0 run. A Judge put-back capped the run for the Wildcats to up the margin to 19-4 before a three from Dante Jackson made it 19-7 with 11:35 left in the half.

▶ But in a half of two big runs, one from each team, the Musketeers scored eight straight to cut it to 19-12 before a Clemente jumper stopped the run. Xavier charged back to score eight straight to pull within 28-27 and eventually took a 32-31 lead into the break. The Wildcats were held to just three points over the final 7:11 of the first half.

2010 | WEST REGIONAL FINALS

March 27, 2010 | Salt Lake City, Utah / EnergySolutions Arena

[5] Butler	27	36	—	63
[2] K-STATE	20	36	—	56

▶ Kansas State's historic 2009-10 season came to an end as the Butler Bulldogs held off a second-half surge from the Wildcats to take a 63-56 win in the West Regional Final at EnergySolutions Arena and advance to the Final Four.

▶ The 2009-10 Wildcats will go down as the winningest team in school history with their 29-8 record this season and the postseason run through the NCAA Tournament was one Wildcat fans will not soon forget.

▶ Despite trailing almost the entire game, K-State rallied as Denis Clemente made a three-pointer with 4:49 left to cap an 8-0 run and give the Cats their only lead of the game, 52-51.

▶ Butler's Gordon Hayward then got fouled going to the hole and made two free throws to take the lead back, and teammate Matt Howard made one more free throw to make it 54-52. Clemente dribbled for a layup to tie the score at 54, and that was the last significant basket the Wildcats would make.

▶ Clemente led the Wildcats with 18 points in his final college game, while Curtis Kelly and Jacob Pullen each had 14. K-State was out-rebounded by Butler, 41-29, while the Bulldogs held the edge at the free throw line.

▶ Down 7 at the half, Clemente hit a free throw and connected on the team's first three-pointer of the contest to pull within three at 27-24. Two Pullen free throws capped a 6-0 Cat run to open the half before Butler answered with seven straight to go up 34-26. The Bulldog lead would then grow to as many as 10 on two occasions before the Wildcats made their late charge.

▶ Hayward paced Butler with 22 points and nine rebounds en route to Most Outstanding Player honors in the tournament, while Shelvin Mack added 16.

▶ Butler grabbed the early 10-4 lead in the game as K-State hit just two of its first eight shots from the field. The Bulldogs hustled their way to a 20-10 lead as the Cats connected on just five of their first 20 shots. But, Kelly answered with four straight to pull within six before Butler scored five in a row to go ahead 23-14. Down 27-16, the Cats closed the half with a Luis Colon tip-in and a Clemente layup to get back to within seven at the break, 27-20.

▶ The 20 first-half points were the fewest in a half for the Wildcats, as they hit on just 35 percent of its field goals while committing eight turnovers. Clemente and Pullen combined for just two points in the first half.

2011 | SOUTHEAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 17, 2011 | Tucson, Ariz. / McKale Arena

[12] Utah State	22	40	—	68
[5] K-STATE	33	46	—	73

▶ Jacob Pullen had a big game after an illness kept him out of practice the day before and fifth-seeded Kansas State held off Utah State 73-68 in the first round of the Southeast Regional by making its free throws down the stretch before 10,293 fans at the McKale Arena in Tucson, Ariz.

▶ A 64 percent foul-shooting team during the regular season, K-State (23-10) made 11 of 14 from the line in the final 1:08 and 24 of 28 overall to move into the third round of the Southeast region against Wisconsin.

▶ Pullen paced four Wildcats in double figures with a game-high 22 points to go with 5 assists, while Curtis Kelly chipped in 15 points. Rodney McGruder and Shane Southwell added 10 points each.

▶ K-State seemed to be in control coming out of halftime, leading by 11 after Pullen scored 10 points despite missing practice due to a fever.

▶ The Wildcats had been good at closing teams of late, but reverted back to their old ways in the second half, stringing together miscues at both ends while Utah State (30-4) hit a series of big shots to climb back in it.

▶ Tai Wesley overcame early foul trouble to score 18 points, Brockeith Pane added 17 and Pooh Williams 16 in what was a superb season at Utah State.

▶ It was a game of strengths: K-State's swarming D vs. Utah State's patient offense. The Wildcats' goal was to disrupt the Aggies' offensive sets, not let them get to the spots they want on the floor or get the ball into Wesley in the post.

▶ K-State did just that in the first half, making every shot a chore for the Aggies, even the ones that went in. Wesley was almost nonexistent, limited to two points and three shots due to foul trouble.

▶ Wesley helped USU keep K-State in sight by getting to the rim, scoring eight quick points. The Aggies, who trailed by as much as 14, kept hanging around and made one last push, pulling within 56-50 when Rodney McGruder was called for an intentional foul on Pane - Brady Jardine hit the free throws when Pane hurt his arm - and Williams threw down a dunk.

▶ Wesley and Pane kept hitting shots and K-State kept making mistakes, but USU couldn't get any closer. The Wildcats made sure of that, answering anything the Aggies threw at them down the stretch by hitting from the line.

2011 | SOUTHEAST REGIONAL THIRD ROUND

March 19, 2011 | Tucson, Ariz. / McKale Arena

[4] Wisconsin	36	34	—	70
[5] K-STATE	30	35	—	65

▶ Jacob Pullen tied a school-record with 38 points in his final college game but it wasn't enough, as 4-seed Wisconsin advanced to the Sweet 16 with a 70-65 win over 5-seed K-State in third round of the Southeast Regional before 11,267 fans at the McKale Arena in Tucson, Ariz.

▶ Pullen won the individual matchup of marquee point guards, scoring anywhere and everywhere while Jordan Taylor clanged one shot after another. When it was over, Taylor was the one headed to the next round of the NCAA tournament, leaving Pullen dejected and wiping away tears with his jersey.

▶ Finding ways to contribute even when his shots weren't falling, Taylor made the biggest plays of the game down the stretch, hitting two big free throws and blocking Pullen's tying 3-point attempt in the closing seconds to seal the win.

▶ The anticipated duel of point guards was a one-sided show from a scoring standpoint, with Pullen matching a career high with 38 points and Taylor shooting just 2 of 16 from the floor with 12 points.

▶ Wisconsin's floor general made the plays when it mattered most, though, getting a steal in the post against a much bigger player to set up Mike Bruesewitz's tiebreaking 3 with 91 seconds left, then swatting Pullen's tying attempt after hitting two free throws that put the Badgers up by three.

▶ Josh Gasser sealed it with two more free throws, sending the Badgers (25-8) into the round of 16 for the fourth time since 2000.

▶ Pullen poured his heart into what turned out to be his final game, almost single-handedly keeping the Wildcats (23-11) in it. He shot 6 of 8 from 3-point range and broke Mike Evans' school career scoring mark (2,115 points).

▶ After a get-a-feel-for-it start, Wisconsin was able to establish its tempo in the first half against K-State, working the ball around to set up shots along the perimeter. The Badgers hit 5 of 10 3-pointers in the first half to lead 36-30.

▶ Pullen got the Wildcats back in it quickly in the second half. He opened by pulling up for a 3-pointer, then set up a layup and added another 3-pointer to cap a 9-0 run. K-State was back to its swarming ways at the defensive end to complement Pullen's shooting, forcing Wisconsin to miss its first six shots.

▶ The Badgers went through another string of missed shots and rallied to set up Taylor's finishing flourish that sent Wisconsin to the Sweet 16.

2012 | EAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 15, 2012 | Pittsburgh, Pa. / CONSOL Energy Center

[9] Southern Miss	27	37	—	64
[8] K-STATE	30	40	—	70

▶ Freshman Angel Rodriguez overcame early jitters to score seven of his 13 points in the final 2:10 as 8-seed Kansas State surged past 9-seed Southern Miss, 70-64, in the first round of the NCAA East Regional before 18,927 fans at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa.

▶ Southern Miss, making its first NCAA appearance in 21 years, pulled within 62-59 on a steal and dunk by Darnell Dodson with 2:34 to play.

▶ Rodriguez, handed the starting job in January after the Wildcats got off to a slow start in Big 12 play, calmly dribbled on the wing after a timeout then slipped past two defenders before hitting a nifty reverse lay-up.

▶ K-State's defense tightened up, and Rodriguez nailed five free throws over the final 57 seconds to send the Wildcats into a matchup with 2-seed Syracuse.

▶ Rodney McGruder led K-State (22-10) with 30 points - including 18 in the first half when the Wildcats could muster little else - and center Jordan Henriquez-Roberts added 15 points, nine rebounds and six blocks for K-State, which won its opening NCAA game for the third straight year.

▶ The Golden Eagles overcame some early jitters to build a five-point lead midway through the second half but couldn't win in coach Larry Eustachy's return to the game's biggest stage.

▶ Neil Watson led Southern Miss with 16 points, and LaShay Page had 15. Dodson scored all 14 of his points in the second half, but the Golden Eagles wilted during a critical stretch midway through the second half.

▶ After a Dodson 3-pointer gave USM a 45-40 lead, K-State responded with an 18-6 run led by McGruder and Henriquez-Roberts, who combined for 13 points during the burst, including a 3-pointer by McGruder that hit every inch of the rim before rolling in, for a 58-51 advantage with 4:30 remaining.

▶ No Wildcat was bigger or tougher than Henriquez-Roberts. The center dominated the lane, swatting six shots and altering a handful of others. A 52 percent free-throw shooter - he made 9-of-10 at the line to give McGruder some help after a first half in which McGruder singlehandedly kept K-State in front.

▶ K-State connected on 50 percent (21-of-42) from the field, including 58.8 percent (10-of-17) in the second half, while hitting on 76.5 percent (26-of-34) from the free throw line.

2012 | EAST REGIONAL THIRD ROUND

March 17, 2012 | Pittsburgh, Pa. / CONSOL Energy Center

[1] Syracuse	25	50	—	75
[8] K-STATE	24	35	—	59

▶ Scoop Jardine had 16 points and eight assists to lead top-seeded Syracuse to a 75-59 win over 8-seed Kansas State in the third round of the NCAA East Regional before 18,588 fans at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa.

▶ Dion Waiters had 18 points and James Southerland added 15 for the Orange (33-2), who didn't wait until the final minutes to seal the win as they did in the second round against 16th-seeded UNC Asheville.

▶ Syracuse blew open a one-point halftime lead with a 50-point second-half, as they hit on 66.7 percent (14-of-21) of their shots, including 5-of-5 from 3-point range, while making 17 of 21 attempts from the free throw line.

▶ Rodney McGruder had 15 points for the Wildcats, who struggled from the field against Syracuse's 2-3 zone defense. He had 30 points in the win over Southern Miss but he was just 5 of 13 from the field against the Orange.

▶ After scoring fewer than 70 points in five of its last seven games, the Orange flipped the script against the Wildcats with a strong second half, as Southerland was 5 of 6 from the field and Jardine and Waiters were each 5 of 9.

▶ With Waiters going 7 of 7 and Joseph 7 of 8, Syracuse finished 23 of 29 from the free throw line, while K-State was just 13 of 19.

▶ Jordan Henriquez-Roberts had a double-double with 14 points and 17 rebounds, as the Wildcats dominated the boards throughout, finishing with a 41-32 advantage. Henriquez had 11 of the team's 25 offensive rebounds, but they were only able to turn them into 20 second-chance points.

▶ Syracuse, which didn't take the lead for good against Asheville until there were 6 minutes to play and then saw the Bulldogs get within three points three times in the closing 1:20, took the lead for good with 18:20 to go on a 3-pointer by Jardine. The Orange pushed the lead to double figures on two free throws by Southerland that made it 45-34 with 12:52 to play.

▶ Waiters' three-point play with 5:19 left had the Orange ahead 63-47, and they were in control the rest of the way.

▶ Neither team had its leading rebounder. Syracuse's 7-foot Fab Melo, the Big East Defensive Player of the Year, was declared ineligible by the school earlier in the week. About 20 minutes before the start of this game, K-State announced that Jamar Samuels would be held out over an eligibility issue.

2013 | WEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 22, 2013 | Kansas City, Mo. / Sprint Center

[13] La Salle	44	19	—	63
[4] K-STATE	26	35	—	61

▶ 4-seed Kansas State nearly completed a miracle comeback, rallying from a 19-point deficit to take multiple lead in the second half, before three straight free throws by Jerrell Wright helped La Salle hold on for a 63-61 win in the second round of the West Regional at the Sprint Center in Kansas City.

▶ The Wildcats (27-8) stormed out of the locker room in the second half going on a 20-5 run to eventually take a lead with just over seven minutes left.

▶ Wright, who led all scorers with 21 points for the Explorers (22-9), made the first two free throws to give La Salle a 62-61 lead. Jordan Henriquez-Roberts missed in the paint on the other end, and Wright made the first of two more foul shots with 9.6 seconds to go.

▶ The Wildcats (27-8) raced down court, looking for a tying basket, but point guard Angel Rodriguez got hung up in the corner near the K-State bench. His off-balance shot over the corner of the backboard missed everything, and the Explorers jumped off their bench to celebrate.

▶ Henriquez-Roberts and Shane Southwell scored 17 points each for K-State, which trailed 44-26 at the break but managed to claw back into the game with some scrappy defense.

▶ Those open 3-pointers in the first half the Explorers had been pouring in were replaced with brick shots and air balls, their weary legs starting to show. And those lousy passes and missed layups by K-State were replaced with crisp feeds for open looks around the basket.

▶ Henriquez-Roberts, the Wildcats' 7-footer, started to take advantage of a six-inch advantage in the paint, scoring six points during their 20-5 run to open the half. When he checked out, bruising post player Thomas Gipson kept the pressure on, demoralizing the smaller Explorers.

▶ Gipson's basket in the paint drew K-State within 56-55, and then a put-back by McGruder gave the Wildcats their first lead of the game with 7:10 remaining.

▶ Wright's two foul shots with just over 4 minutes left in the game knotted it 60-all, and Henriquez-Roberts' free throw with 2:25 remaining gave K-State the lead. But McGruder missed a closely guarded jumper on the Wildcats' next trip, and then rattled out a 3-pointer. The misfires gave the Explorers the opening they needed to finish off a memorable upset.

2014 | MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 14, 2014 | St. Louis, Mo. / Scottrade Center

[9] Kentucky	29	27	—	56
[8] K-STATE	23	26	—	49

▶ Marcus Foster paced three Wildcats in double figures with 15 points, but it wasn't enough to lift Kansas State to victory as 8-seed Kentucky held on for a 56-49 in the second round of the Midwest Regional before 19,223 fans at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis.

▶ Julius Randle paced all players with a double-double of 19 points and 15 rebounds for Kentucky, while Aaron Harrison chipped in 18 points.

▶ Foster was joined in double figures by Shane Southwell (11 points) and Thomas Gipson (10 points) for a Wildcat squad that was held to just 35.8 percent (19-of-53) shooting.

▶ K-State (20-13), which started in a 1-0 hole after a technical for a dunk in pregame warm-ups, struggled to hit from the perimeter against Kentucky's tall lineup as the Cats hit just 5 of 21 from 3-point range.

▶ Sophomore walk-on Brian Rohleder, who played only 31 minutes all season, earned a technical foul for that pre-game dunk. NCAA rules prohibit dunking with less than 20 minutes until tip, and Rohleder's dunk came with 19:58 showing on the clock.

▶ Andrew Harrison made one of two free throws while fans showered the officials with derision, and Kentucky led 1-0 when the game finally started.

▶ The SEC tournament runner-up built on its advantage through the opening minutes, the Harrison twins each knocking down a series of outside shots. Kentucky pushed the lead to 29-17 with 2:23 to go on Randle's basket, but K-State answered with six straight points to end the half.

▶ Bruce Weber's team trimmed the lead to 35-33, only for Kentucky to regain control when Southwell was hit with a technical for arguing a no-call.

▶ Kentucky stretched its lead to 44-36 midway through the second half, and whenever its rival Wildcats threatened to get closer, Randle was there to answer the call. The bruising forward stuck back a miss to make it 46-38 with 8:02 remaining, converted a three-point play a few minutes later, and then scored again at the rim for a 51-40 advantage.

▶ K-State closed to 55-49 on Foster's off-balance 3-pointer with 24 seconds to go. But a team that replaced most of its key players from a season ago and defied expectations all year eventually ran out of time on its comeback bid.

2017 | FIRST FOUR

March 14, 2017 | Dayton, Ohio / UD Arena

[11] Wake Forest	36	52	—	88
[11] K-STATE	40	55	—	95

▶ Senior Wesley Iwundu scored a career-high 24 points to help guide 11-seed Kansas State to a 95-88 win over fellow 11-seed Wake Forest in a First Four game before 11,855 fans at the University of Dayton Arena.

▶ The Wildcats connected on 66 percent (31-of-47) from the field, including 69.6 percent (16-of-23) in the second half, to post their first NCAA Tournament win since 2012. It is the highest field goal percentage by a K-State team in a NCAA Tournament game and ties for the ninth-highest percentage in a game.

▶ Iwundu paced four Wildcats in double figures with his career-best 24 points, which came on 6-of-9 field goals and an 11-of-13 effort from the free throw line. He also added a team-high 7 assists and 6 rebounds in 35 minutes.

▶ Sophomore Kamau Stokes also registered a 20-point game, scoring 19 of his 22 points in the second half on 4-of-5 field goals, all from 3-point range, and knocked down 7-of-8 from the free throw line. Senior D.J. Johnson scored 18 points on 8-of-9 shooting to go with 6 rebounds and 3 blocks, while sophomore guard Barry Brown added 14 points with 5 rebounds and 3 assists.

▶ The teams battled through two ties before 5 straight free throws, including 4 in a row from Iwundu, pushed K-State to an 18-13 lead. The first-half advantage grew to 36-29 with 3:13 to play after 2 more Iwundu free throws before Wake Forst pulled to within 40-36 at the half by scoring 7 of the last 11 points.

▶ The Wildcats were sparked by 9 points from Stokes in the opening minutes of the second half, as the lead grew to 57-47 with 15:32 to play. However, the Demon Deacons continued to battle, pulling to within 67-66 on a pair of free throw from John Collins at the third media timeout with 7:43 remaining.

▶ K-State answered back with a 12-4 run to go ahead 79-70 with less than 4 minutes to play. From there, the lead never fell below 5 points and grew to as many as 11 points after a pair of Stokes free throws with 49 seconds.

▶ Wake Forest (19-14) connected on 47.2 percent (25-of-53) from the field, including 54.8 percent (17-of-31) in the second half, and went a stellar 90.6 percent (29-of-32) from the free throw line.

▶ Collins paced three Demon Deacons in double figures with a game-high 26 26 points on 9-of-13 field goals and a game-high 9 rebounds, and sophomore Bryant Childress, who totaled 20 points and a game-high 10 assists.

2017 | SOUTH REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 17, 2017 | Sacramento, Calif. / Golden 1 Center

[6] Cincinnati	39	36	—	75
[11] K-STATE	28	33	—	61

▶ Senior Troy Caupain paced an explosive Cincinnati offensive attack, as the Bearcats posted a 75-61 win over 11-seed Kansas State in the South Regional First Round before 16,154 fans at the Golden 1 Center in Sacramento, Calif.

▶ Hot-shooting Cincinnati (30-5) connected on 65.2 percent (27-of-43) from the field, including 65.2 percent (15-of-23) in the first half, and led for 38 minutes and 49 seconds. It marked the first time that K-State has allowed an opponent to shoot better than 60 percent from the field since 2013.

▶ A Dean Wade 3-pointer gave the Wildcats their first lead at 3-2 just 57 seconds into the game, however, senior Kevin Johnson gave Cincinnati the advantage for good with a jumper with 18:20 remaining in the first half as the Bearcats hit their first 8 field goals, including a pair of 3-pointers.

▶ The lead grew to as many as 13 points in the first half before Kamau Stokes connected on a 3-pointer to close the deficit to 28-21 with just under 5 minutes to play. However, Jacob Evans answered back with his own 3-pointer as the Bearcats ended the half with 11 of the last 18 points for a 39-28 lead.

▶ Trailing by 11 points at the half, K-State used a 7-2 run to cut the deficit to 49-43 with 14:15 to play on a 3-pointer by sophomore Barry Brown Jr. However, Cincinnati responded out of a timeout to score 10 of the next 12 points to push its lead back out to 59-45 with 9:29 remaining and end any further comeback.

▶ A 3-pointer by senior Wesley Iwundu pulled the Wildcats to within 60-50 with 7:33 to play, but a 7-0 Bearcat run capped by a 3-pointer from Jarron Cumberland pushed the lead to its largest at 67-50 with 5:31 remaining. From there, the lead never dipped below 11 points the rest of the way.

[8] Creighton	26	33	—	59
[9] K-STATE	32	37	—	69

▶ Three Wildcats scored in double figures, including a career-high 17 points from freshman Mike McGuirl, as 9-seed Kansas State topped 8-seed Creighton, 69-59, in the first round of the NCAA South Regional at the Spectrum Center.

▶ McGuirl was joined in double-figures by juniors Barry Brown Jr., and Kamau Stokes who added 18 and 11 points, respectively. Sophomore Xavier Sneed added valuable minutes with 9 points, while Brown added a team-high 6 rebounds and redshirt freshman Cartier Diarra led the team with 3 assists.

▶ K-State (23-11) played without All-Big 12 First Team selection Dean Wade, who was held out for the second consecutive game as a precaution due to foot soreness. With Wade out, the Wildcats used a four-guard lineup featuring guards Brown, Diarra, Sneed and Stokes and Makol Mawien. K-State's guards filled Wade's void nicely, combining to score 53 of 69 points for the Wildcats.

▶ As a team, the Wildcats shot 46 percent (23-of-50) from the field and 47.3 percent (9-of-19) from beyond the arc. K-State turned the ball over just 11 times, marking the 25th time the Wildcats committed 12 or fewer turnovers.

▶ Stokes scored the game's first 7 points, as K-State jumped out to a 10-2 lead less than 4 minutes into the first half. The lead grew to as many as 9 points, as four different Wildcats had at least 5 points at the half. Mitch Ballock cut the deficit to 29-26 with a 3-pointer, but McGuirl answered back with a triple right before the first half buzzer for a 32-26 advantage.

▶ A 3-pointer from Sneed and a Brown layup gave K-State a 37-28 lead less than 3 minutes into the second half before the Creighton pulled to within a possession on the strength of a 7-0 run. A layup by Stokes sparked a 14-6 answer from the Wildcats, who went ahead 51-41 with 9:34 to play.

▶ Although the Bluejays cut the deficit to 53-46 at the 7:34 mark, the Wildcats responded with 11 of the next 13 points to push ahead 64-48 with 2:25 to play and put the game away. McGuirl had seven of K-State's 11 points, including a pair of 3-pointers in the pivotal run. The lead didn't drop below double figures the rest of the way.

▶ Creighton (21-12) was led by Ballock who scored 16 points on 5-of-14 field goals. The Bluejays shot collectively 33.8 percent (23-of-68) from the field and 26.4 percent (9-of-34) from beyond the arc. K-State forced Creighton into 13 turnovers in the game and outscored the Bluejays' bench, 19-7.

2018 | SOUTH REGIONAL FINALS

March 24, 2018 | Atlanta, Ga. / Philips Arena

[11] Loyola Chicago	36	42	—	78
[9] K-STATE	24	38	—	62

▶ Paced by a game-high 23 points from senior guard Ben Richardson, Loyola Chicago used a near flawless shooting performance to defeat Kansas State and advance to its first Final Four since 1963 with a 78-62 victory in the South Regional Final at Philip Arena on March 24.

▶ K-State (25-12) concludes its record-setting 2017-18 campaign with its sixth 25-win season in school history and the first since winning 27 games in 2012-13. The Wildcats advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in the past 12-years, including the program's 12th Elite Eight appearance.

▶ The Wildcats were led by sophomore Xavier Sneed's 16 points on 6-of-10 shooting from the field, including 4-of-6 from 3-point range. Juniors Barry Brown Jr. (14) and Kamau Stokes (13) added double-figure scoring efforts.

▶ K-State scored 28 points off of 15 Rambler turnovers, but connected on just 34.8 percent (23-of-66) from the field, including just 23.1 percent (6-of-26) from beyond the arc. In contrast, Loyola Chicago hit on 57.4 percent (27-of-47) from the field, including 60 percent (12-of-20) in the second half.

▶ The teams went back and forth in the early going before the Ramblers used a 15-2 run to go ahead 19-7 with 12:16 left in the first half. The Wildcats slowly chipped away at the lead, closing to 27-22 on a 3-point play from Brown with 5:55 to play before halftime.

▶ A layup by Lucas Williamson ignited a 9-2 run by Loyola to end the half, as the Ramblers went ahead 36-24 on the strength of 55.6 percent (15-of-27) shooting. The Wildcats managed to make just 37 percent from the field.

▶ The momentum continued to start the second half, as a 3-pointer by Donte Ingram sparked an 18-9 run that ran the lead to 54-33 with 13:23 to play. The lead ballooned to as many as 23 points on a Williamson layup with 9:40 left.

▶ A layup by Stokes cut the deficit to 61-48 with just over 5 minutes remaining but Ben Richardson responded with his own 3-pointer, as the Rambler lead stayed in double figures for the remainder of the contest.

▶ Loyola Chicago (32-5) was led by a game-high 21 points from Richardson, who led three players in double-figures. Junior Marques Townes and Ingram added 13 and 12 points, respectively.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 17, 2023 | Greensboro, N.C. / Greensboro Coliseum

[14] Montana State	28	37	—	65
[3] K-STATE	34	43	—	77

▶ Hot shooting carried 3-seed Kansas State to its first NCAA Tournament win under head coach Jerome Tang and its first overall since 2018, as the Wildcats connected on 58.2 percent from the field en route to earning a 77-65 victory over 14-seed Montana State in the first round of the East Regional on March 17 before 17,150 fans at the Greensboro Coliseum.

▶ It was an impressive all-around offensive performance for the Wildcats, who posted the fifth-highest field goal percentage (58.2/32-of-55) in an NCAA Tournament game in school history and the highest since the 2017 First Four. The team hit on 51.7 percent (15-of-29) in the first half before connecting on 65.4 percent (17-of-26) after halftime. They also tied the school record for assists (21) in an NCAA Tournament game.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by 18 points from senior Keyontae Johnson, who went 8-of-15 from the field with a team-high 8 rebounds and 3 assists in nearly 39 minutes. It marked the seventh time that he has led the team in scoring and rebounding, while he has posted double digits in 32 of 33 games.

▶ Fellow senior Markquis Nowell dished out a career-tying 14 assists to go with 17 points on 7-of-12 field goals, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range, while adding 6 rebounds and 3 steals in 37 minutes. The 14 assists not only broke the school record for most by a Wildcat in a NCAA Tournament, surpassing the 12 by Steve Henson against Purdue on March 25, 1998, they also tied for the ninth-most by any player in an NCAA Tournament game. It was Nowell's 16th career double-double, including his 11th at K-State and eighth this season.

▶ The senior duo was joined in double figures by juniors Nae'Qwan Tomlin and David N'Guessan, who finished with 13 and 10 points, respectively. Sophomore Cam Carter scored 8 points on his birthday and senior Desi Sills added 7 points, as the Wildcats moved to 13-1 this season when six or more players have 6 or more points.

▶ K-State used an 11-4 run late in the first half to break open a tight contest and build a 9-point lead with 52 seconds before halftime. After the Bobcats (25-10) closed to within 34-28 at the break, the Wildcats scored 10 of the first 16 points to open the second half to extend the lead to double figures. Although MSU closed to within 8 points several times in the second half, K-State responded each time with a big shot, including a dunk by Sills with just under 2 minutes to play that extended the lead to a game-high 16 points.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 19, 2023 | Greensboro, N.C. / Greensboro Coliseum

[6] Kentucky	26	43	—	69
[3] K-STATE	29	46	—	75

▶ Clutch 3-pointers by junior Ismael Massoud and senior Keyontae Johnson in the last 2:21 helped lift No. 15/13 Kansas State to a trip to New York City for the Sweet 16 with a 75-69 win over Kentucky on March 19 in the second round of the East Regional before 16,517 fans at the Greensboro Coliseum.

▶ The win was the 25th of the season, as the Wildcats became the eighth team in school history and the first since 2018-19 to collect a 25-win season. The team advanced to their 18th Sweet 16 and first since 2018.

▶ Down 62-61 with 2:43 to play, Massoud gave the Wildcats the lead for good with a deep 3-pointer from the right wing with 2:21 to play that was followed by another deep triple from Johnson on an offensive rebound from junior David N'Guessan at the 1:23 mark. Senior Markquis Nowell continued the 8-0 spurt with a pair of free throws that extended the lead to 69-62 with 37 seconds.

▶ Kentucky (22-12) was able to get a basket from senior Oscar Tschiebwe, who posted a double-double of 25 points and 18 rebounds, to close the gap to 69-64 with 23 seconds, but Nowell and fellow senior Desi Sills clinched the game at the free throw line with a combined 6 consecutive makes.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by a special performance from the Harlem native Nowell, who finished with a game-high 27 points, 9 assists and 3 steals in playing all but 16 seconds. It was the most points by a Wildcat in an NCAA Tournament game since Rodney McGruder scored 30 points in 2012.

▶ After his 17-point, 14-assist performance in the win over 14-seed Montana State on Friday night, Nowell combined for 44 points and 23 assists in his first two NCAA Tournament. He is one of two players since 1990, along with Murray State's Ja Morant, to combine for 40 points and 20 assists before the Sweet 16.

▶ Johnson finished with 13 points to go with 4 rebounds and 3 assists. He has now scored in double figures in all but one game. Junior Nae'Qwan Tomlin, who led the way in the first half with 8 points, and Sills each added 12 points.

▶ After a shaking start offensively, in which, the Wildcats made just 5 of their first 16 field goal attempts, including going 0-fer on 7 3-point attempts, the team settled down to hit on 48.1 percent (26-of-54) from the field, including 63.6 percent (21-of-33) from inside the 3-point line with 40 points in the paint. They were nearly flawless from the free throw line, converting on 18 of 22 attempts, including a 10-of-11 effort from Nowell.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL SEMIFINALS

March 23, 2023 | New York, N.Y. / Madison Square Garden

[7] Michigan State	38	44	11	—	93
[3] K-STATE	43	39	16	—	98

▶ Senior Markquis Nowell sealed one of the greatest NCAA Tournament performances in school history with a steal of fellow New Yorker Tyson Walker with 3 seconds left in overtime, as 3-seed Kansas State earned a trip to the Elite Eight with a 98-93 win over 7-seed Michigan State on March 23 in the semifinals of the East Regional before 19,624 fans at Madison Square Garden.

▶ Nowell's layup at the buzzer gave him 20 points for the night to go with an NCAA Tournament-record 19 assists and 5 steals. His 19 assists surpassed the previous record of 18 set by UNLV's Mark Wade in the 1987 National Semifinals. The assist total also broke the school single season record of 16 set by Keith Frazier against Central Missouri on Dec. 18, 1976, while also surpassing his own NCAA Tournament mark of 14 vs. Montana State on March 17.

▶ In addition to Nowell's record-setting night, the Wildcats broke school records for most assists (26) and fewest turnovers (5) in an NCAA Tournament game while tying the mark for made 3-point field goals (11). The 98 points were the fourth-most (98) in an NCAA Tournament game in school history and the most since scoring 101 vs. Xavier in 2010 NCAA West Regional Semifinals.

▶ K-State connected on 55.9 percent (38-of-68) from the field, including 66.7 percent (6-of-9) in the decisive overtime period.

▶ Nowell was one of six Wildcats to score in double figures, including one of two with 20-point games, as fellow senior Keyontae Johnson led the team with 22 points in playing nearly 45 minutes. Junior Ish Massoud scored a K-State career-best 15 points, while sophomore Cam Carter had perhaps his best all-around game in a Wildcat uniform with 12 points, 6 rebounds and 3 steals. Juniors David N'Guessan and Nae'Qwan Tomlin each added 11 points.

▶ In game that included 16 lead changes and 14 ties, Michigan State (21-13) was able to force overtime with an impressive final minute, getting a second chance putback from senior Malik Hall with 51 seconds before Walker's driving layup tied the game at 82-all with 5 seconds remaining.

▶ In the extra period, Johnson broke a 92-all tie with a lob-dunk from Nowell with 52 seconds, then after a free throw from Hall with 43 seconds closed the deficit to 94-93, Nowell set the all-time NCAA Tournament record with his 19th assist to Massoud on an inbound play for a jumper and a 96-93 lead with 17 seconds remaining. Nowell sealed the game with a steal of Walker with 3 seconds and a layup at the buzzer for the final 98-93 win.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL FINALS

March 25, 2023 | New York, N.Y. / Madison Square Garden

[9] FAU	42	37	—	79
[3] K-STATE	38	38	—	76

▶ Despite a valiant effort from senior Markquis Nowell, it was a late 15-1 run by No. 25/25 Florida Atlantic that proved to be the difference as the 9-seed Owls advanced to their first Final Four with a 79-76 win over 3-seed K-State on March 25 in the East Regional finals before 19,680 fans at Madison Square Garden.

▶ Nowell, who was named the Most Outstanding Player of the East Regional, finished with just the second 30-point, 10-assist game in school history, as he led the way with game-highs in points (30), assists (12) and steals (5) in playing all 40 minutes in his final college game. He is the first player with at least 25 points and 10 assists in a game in the Elite Eight or later since Marquette's Dwyane Wade in 2003, while his 54 assists in the tournament are the third-most and the most since Michigan's Rumeal Robinson had 56 in 1989.

▶ Nowell was joined on the all-tournament team by Keyontae Johnson, who was plagued by foul trouble before fouling out with 2:44 to play with 9 points in 18 minutes. Junior Nae'Qwan Tomlin was the only other Wildcat in double figure with 14 points on 6-of-11 field goals to go with 6 rebounds and 2 steals.

▶ With K-State seemingly gaining control after a 3-pointer from Nowell gave the Wildcats a 63-57 lead with 8:39 to play, it was Florida Atlantic (35-3) that responded with a 15-1 run to flip the deficit into a 72-64 lead with 2:44 left. The Owls scored 10 straight points after the Nowell 3-pointer, taking the lead for good on dunk by sophomore Vladislav Goldin with 6:12 left.

▶ Despite the momentum and without their leading scorer, Nowell and the Wildcats continued to fight, using a 10-4 run that was highlighted by 3-pointers from Nowell and sophomore Cam Carter, to pull within 75-74 with 24 seconds left. However, FAU senior Michael Forrest knocked down down a pair of free throws with 17 seconds then after a Tomlin layup got K-State to within 77-76 with 8 seconds he calmly knocked down 2 more for the final margin.

▶ K-State connected on 46.6 percent (27-of-58) from the field, including 45.5 percent (10-of-22) from 3-point range, while making 66.7 percent (12-of-18) from the line. FAU hit on 48.1 percent (26-of-54) from the field, including 39.1 percent (9-of-23) from long range, and 81.8 percent (18-of-22) from the line.

▶ In a game where both teams shot nearly the same from the field, it was the rebounding that proved to the deciding factor for the Owls, as they held a 44-22 advantage on the glass, including 14 offensive rebounds that they converted into a 15-2 edge in second-chance points.

DR. RICHARD LINTON

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Fifth Year at K-State // Virginia Tech '88, '91, '94

@KState

Dr. Richard H. Linton is the 15th president of Kansas State University, serving in the role since February 2022. He earned his bachelor's degree in biology (1988), master's degree in food science (1991) and Ph.D. in food science (1994), all from Virginia Tech University. Linton participated in the Food Systems Leadership Institute from 2009 to 2011 and completed the Harvard Graduate School's Institutional Educational Management Program in 2018. He recently accepted the presidency at his alma mater - Virginia Tech - where he will start on January 11, 2027.

At Kansas State, Linton has led the creation and implementation of Next-Gen K-State, a strategic plan that will guide the university through 2030 and beyond. This initiative has resulted in significant advancements in student recruitment and success, a remarkable increase in research funding, enhanced statewide engagement and economic development, improvements in research and teaching facilities, record-breaking fundraising and competitive achievements in athletics. This new university strategy has increased undergraduate and graduate student numbers to over 20,000, enhanced competitive research by more than 20%, brought in nearly $700 million through philanthropy, and led to over $150 million in state and federal support. Key universitywide initiatives created by the plan include a statewide economic growth plan called K-State 105, and interdisciplinary efforts, including in biomanufacturing and biosciences, digital agriculture and advanced analytics, and water.

Before joining K-State, Linton served as dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at N.C. State (2012-22), department chair of food science and technology at Ohio State (2011-12) and a faculty member in the Department of Food Science at Purdue (1994-2011). At Purdue, he was the founding director of the Center for Food Safety Engineering and the associate director of agricultural research programs.

As dean at N.C. State, Linton led a college of over 300 faculty, 3,000 undergraduates and 1,000 graduate students. The college developed a strategic plan focused on enhancing people, programs and partnerships. Collaboration with industry and government were critical to the mission of the college, and Linton's dedication was demonstrated through the NC Plant Sciences Initiative and the NC Food Processing and Manufacturing Initiative, both aimed at job creation and addressing global agricultural challenges. Under his leadership, competitive research for the college reached $100 million annually, and the college raised $482 million during the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton has held several key leadership roles, including membership on the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board and serving as chair for the Binational (Israel/U.S.) Agricultural Research and Development Fund, a position he was appointed to by the U.S. secretary of agriculture in 2018. He also previously chaired the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities Healthy Food Systems, Healthy People Steering Committee and the NC Governor's Task Force on Food Manufacturing.

Linton and his wife, Sally, an ADHD/executive function life coach, have two children: a daughter, Lily, and a son, Chris.

GENE TAYLOR

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

10th Season at K-State // Arizona State '80 | St. Thomas '85

@KStateADGT

The Gene Taylor era could go down as one of the most successful periods in K-State Athletics history as Taylor's program has taken the college athletics world by storm. Team championships, individual national titles, postseason runs, record crowds, continued academic success and new facility enhancements have all been the cornerstone of recent Wildcat success.

Heading into 2026-27, K-State will be led by two new head coaches in Collin Klein (football) and Casey Alexander (men's basketball), while second-year track and field coach Travis Geopert is coming off a season that saw three Wildcats earn individual national championships and three teams finish in the Top 10 including a program-best fourth place national finish from the men's indoor program. Additionally, women's volleyball advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament under Jason Mansfield.

Previously, Chris Klieman's football team won nine games and were Rate Bowl champions in 2025, the women's basketball team garnered another Top 10 ranking and trip to the Sweet 16 under Jeff Mittie, while Pete Hughes and the baseball squad advanced to its second straight NCAA Regional. On the golf course, Stew Burke's women's squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history and were led by All-American Carla Bernat, who also won the prestigious Augusta National Women's Amateur title, and Big 12 individual champion Sophie Bert. Two new coaches began leading their respective programs in 2024-25 as Geopfert took over the track and field/cross country program and Colleen Corbin in women's soccer.

The 2023-24 campaign was highlighted by a Super Regional berth for baseball, just the second time in program history that the Cats have won a regional and advanced to the supers, a Pop-Tarts Bowl win for the football team and a women's basketball season that saw the Wildcats rise to as high as No. 3 in the national rankings before hosting the 2024 NCAA First and Second Rounds in Manhattan. Mansfield's first season leading the volleyball program included record crowds in the new Morgan Family Arena and numerous wins over top-10 opponents.

That all came on the heels of Klieman's football team winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship and playing in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and the men's basketball squad making a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league.

A former member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and current chair of the FBS Athletics Directors Association and member of the College Football Oversight Committee, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for seven bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments, the baseball team win the Fayetteville Regional and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and his staff have fundraised and implemented a department-wide facility master plan that benefits all Wildcat teams including the newly completed Indoor Track and Field Complex, the Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, Morris Family Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020 and the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to the NIL/revenue sharing collegiate model, have been well documented.

K-State Nation continues to support the athletics program in unprecedented fashion as overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2025 fiscal year totaled $40 million, of which $25.7 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program. Included in the $25.7 million annual giving was $878,000 raised during the Powercat Auction.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. When Klieman retired in 2025, he brought in Heisman Trophy finalist and Wildcat legend Klein. Jordan Smith took over the tennis program, Geopfert's early success has the track and field program among the best in the country, and Hughes took the Wildcat baseball program to just its second Super Regional in school history. Mansfield had a banner first year on the volleyball court as record crowds saw his squad knock off three Top 10 opponents at home. Burke, in his first season in 2023-24, catapulted the women's golf program up the national ranks and narrowly missed on qualifying as a team for the NCAA Tournament in year one before advancing to the NCAA Championship round in year two and making it back to the postseason in year three. Taylor's most recent hire was Alexander, who averaged more than 20 wins a year during a long stint at Belmont.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.
