- N'Diaye's 18 points were a career-high, eclipsing his previous high of 11 points vs. Fresno State (12/28/24) while playing at UNLV as a freshman. - Tang became the first Wildcat head coach to be dismissed during the season.
- The 12 wins represented the third-fewest in the last 25 seasons, only surpassed by 9 in 2020-21 and 11 in 2019-20, while the 3 Big 12 wins tied for the second-fewest since the league's inception and the lowest since winning 2 games in 1999-2000.

Exhibition 1 – Missouri 71, K-State 67 (view stats, highlights, etc. here)

- In the exhibition against Missouri, K-State nearly fought back from a 14-point second half, closing the deficit to one possession several times in the final minute, before falling 71-67 at Bramlage Coliseum.
- McDonald's All-American Jason Crowe Jr. led the Tigers with a game-high 21 points to go with 5 assists, while three Wildcats scored in double figures led by fifth year Jaden Schutt and sophomore Montana Wheeler, who had 12 points each. Senior Brandon Rechsteiner added 11 points to go with team-highs in both rebounds (8) and assists (5).
- The Tigers scored the first 13 points of the second half to quickly erase a 5-point halftime deficit to the Wildcats. The lead ballooned to 14 points at 61-47 with 6:38 remaining after an 11-1 run that was capped by a 3-pointer freshman Toni Bryant. However, the new-look Wildcats wouldn't go away, slowly chipping away behind the play of Rechsteiner, Wheeler and junior Isaiah Abraham, who accounted for the team's last 20 points.
- Rechsteiner answered the Bryant 3-pointer right before a K-State timeout with 6:04 to play. He added another 3-pointer following jumpers from Wheeler and Abraham that cut the lead to 63-57, forcing a Missouri timeout with 2:44 remaining. Following a pair of Crowe free throws, Rechsteiner had a layup to go with two free throws from Wheeler that made it 65-61. The teams traded free throws before a steal and layup by Abraham closed to one possession at 67-65 with 27 seconds.

- Fifth year Dez Lindsay forced a bad pass by sophomore Bryson Tiller on the next possession, but Tiller recovered to block Abraham's layup with 17 seconds. Tiller grabbed the defensive board and fed it to senior Kennard Davis Jr., who converted on a layup on the other end to put the Tigers up 69-65 with 13 seconds. Abraham's dunk with 5 seconds pulled the Wildcats to within 69-67 but two free throws from Crowe with 2.3 seconds provided the final points.

Exhibition 2 – Nebraska 88, K-State 84 (view stats, highlights, etc. here)

- Junior Braden Frager and senior Pryce Sandfort combined for 51 points, as Nebraska out-dueled Kansas State, 88-84, in a high-flying, high-scoring exhibition on Oct. 26 before 5,338 fans at the BigIron Events Center in Grand Island, Neb.
- In a back-and-forth affair that lived up to the billing as the "Battle at the BigIron," the teams combined for 29 made 3-point field goal on 80 attempts, including 16 by the Wildcats. Nine different players connected from long range, including a combined nine by senior Brandon Rechsteiner and fifth-year Jaden Schutt.
- The 16 made 3-pointers were the most-ever by a Wildcat team in an exhibition game.
- Frager and Sandfort accounted for nine of the Huskers' 13 triples, as Frager led all scorers with 28 points, while Sandfort added 23 points. Rechsteiner paced three Wildcats in double figures with 21 points to go with 7 assists, while Schutt and freshman Jaylen Alexander accounted for 16 and 11 points, respectively.
- Fitting for a game in which the teams combined to make 29 3-pointers, it was a stretch of 3-point makes that gave the Huskers the edge they needed in an up-and-down affair.
- After Rechsteiner connected on his fifth triple of the game that pulled the Wildcats to within 58-57 at the 11:36 mark, three different Huskers – freshman Jacob Lanier, junior Taj DeGourville and Frager – knocked down long range shots that extended the lead to 67-59 with just over 9 minutes remaining. They extended the lead to as many as 13 points at 75-62 after a 7-0 run capped by a fifth Frager 3-pointer with 4:15 left.
- However, the never-say-die Wildcats kept chipping away at the deficit, using an 18-7 run to close to within 82-80 after back-to-back layups by Alexander with 25 seconds. DeGourville knocked down a pair of free throws to extend the Husker lead to 84-80 with 18 seconds but Alexander made it a one possession game at 84-82 with a layup with 11 seconds to go before a K-State timeout.
- Two more free throws by Frager followed by a Rechsteiner layup once again made it a one possession game at 86-84 with 3 seconds. However, Lanier put the game out of reach with two more free throws at 88-84 with 2 seconds remaining.

CASEY ALEXANDER

HEAD COACH

Belmont '95 [B.A.] | Austin Peay '96 [M.A.]

First Season at K-State // 2-1 [.667]
16th Season Overall // 305-181 [.627]

Casey Alexander, who guided Belmont to 166 wins and 4 conference titles in the last 7 seasons, including the 2026 Missouri Valley Conference Championship, has been named the 27th head men's basketball coach at Kansas State, Director of Athletics Gene Taylor announced March 13, 2026.

Alexander agreed to a 5-year contract, which was approved by the K-State Athletics, Inc., Board of Directors and President Richard Linton. Alexander will be paid $3.3 million in 2026-27 and will receive a $50,000 base salary increase each year remaining on the contract ($3.35 million in 2027-28, $3.4 million in 2028-29, $3.45 million in 2029-30, $3.5 million in 2030-31).

Alexander, 53, has accumulated 303 wins (303-180; .627) in his 15-year head coaching career (2011-26), which includes stints at Stetson (2011-13), Lipscomb (2013-19) and his alma mater Belmont (2019-26), with 6 league championships (2018 Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament, 2019 Atlantic Sun Conference regular season, 2020, 2021 Ohio Valley Conference regular season, 2020 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament and 2026 Missouri Valley Conference regular season).

Despite playing in one-bid leagues in his entire head coaching career, Alexander's teams have appeared in the postseason 5 times, including the 2018 NCAA Tournament where Lipscomb lost to 2-seed North Carolina in the first round and twice in the Postseason NIT (2019, 2022), including a trip to the championship game in 2019. In that run to the finals, the Bison won 3 consecutive road games at Davidson, UNC Greensboro and N.C. State and a neutral-site victory over Wichita State in Madison Square Garden before a loss to Texas in the championship game.

Alexander's first Belmont squad in 2019-20 earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament after winning the OVC Tournament before it was cancelled. His current Belmont squad would've given him another postseason after winning the Missouri Valley Conference title but declined an NIT bid.

"We couldn't be more excited to announce Casey Alexander as the next head men's basketball coach at K-State," Taylor said. "We had significant interest in our job from numerous talented and successful coaches from around the country. What was evident throughout the search was the positive reputation of K-State basketball, and of the coaches we talked with Casey emerged as the one who best fit our program. He is known nationally as a tremendous evaluator of talent and one of the best offensive minds in the college game. He has built and maintained successful and winning programs at Stetson, Lipscomb and Belmont, and his reputation of developing players and a strong culture all make him a perfect fit for us. We are pleased to welcome Casey, his wife Sunni and their children - Allie, Reed and Mason - to Manhattan and the K-State family."

Alexander has led teams to 10 consecutive 20-win seasons (238-91; .723 winning percentage), which includes double-digit conference win totals each season (138-42; .767 winning percentage), despite navigating 3 different conferences (Atlantic Sun, Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley). In that span, his teams have averaged nearly 24 wins a season (23.8), including nearly 14 (13.8) in conference play, with six total championships, including four regular-season league titles, and three runner-up finishes while placing no lower than fourth place. He is one of 4 coaches to win 20 or more games in 10 consecutive seasons, joining Gonzaga's Mark Few, Houston's Kelvin Sampson and Kansas' Bill Self.

A majority of his 303 wins have come at the helm of his alma mater Belmont, which he has guided to a 166-60 (.735) overall record, including a 102-33 (.756) in conference play, since following the legendary Rick Byrd as head coach in 2019-20. His teams have won 4 conference championships in that span, including the most recent Missouri Valley Conference title.

Belmont is one of only 16 Division I programs with 165 or more victories since the start of the 2019-20 season, which includes the likes of Houston, Gonzaga, Duke, Arizona and Kansas. The Bruins are one of only four teams outside the traditional multi-bid leagues (Akron, Drake, Liberty and VCU) in that fraternity. The 166 wins since 2019-20 are the 15th-most among Division I programs, while the .735 winning percentage is 11th in Division I in that span.

Alexander has twice been named the conference Coach of the Year, first in the Atlantic Sun in 2018-19 after leading Lipscomb to 29 wins and the regular season title and in the Missouri Valley in 2025-26 after guiding Belmont to 26 wins and the school's first title. He was also honored with the 2018 Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, which is given to the head coach who achieves success on the court while demonstrating moral integrity on and off the court. He is also a nominee for the award again in 2025-26 as well as the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award.

This past season, Alexander led Belmont to a 26-6 record, including a 16-4 mark in winning its first outright Missouri Valley Conference regular season title by 3 games. The Bruins opened the year with 8 straight victories then after a 1-2 start to conference play, which included 2 losses by 2 points, they ran off 9 consecutive wins in league play before an overtime setback at Bradley on Feb. 9. The team won 4 more in a row before ending the year with back-to-back losses. The squad had 11 true road wins which were only surpassed by Miami (Ohio) and SFA.

The Bruins ranked in the top-12 in 5 offensive categories in 2025-26, including first in 3-point field goal percentage (40.4), third in field goal percentage (51.4) and effective field goal percentage (60.7), fourth in assists/game (18.6) and 11th in 3-point field goals/game (10.9). The team was also 25th in scoring offense (83.9 ppg.). Graduate Tyler Lundblade ranked first in free throw percentage (93.4), while he was fifth in 3-pointers/game (3.59) and sixth in total 3-pointers (115).

Belmont has ranked in the top 40 in effective field goal percentage in each of the last 6 seasons under Alexander, including finishing in the top 10 4 times. He has coached the NCAA 3-point percentage champion or runner-up in 3 consecutive seasons from 2022-25 (Drew Friberg, Cade Tyson and Lundblade).

Alexander has developed 27 all-conference selections across 3 conferences (Atlantic Sun, Ohio Valley and Missouri Valley) in his time as a head coach, while he helped produce a pair of conference Players of the Year in Garrison Mathews (2019 ASUN at Lipscomb) and Lundblade (2026 MVC at Belmont), along with a MVC Newcomer of the Year in Cade Tyson at Belmont in 2023. Lundblade was joined on the All-MVC First Team by Drew Scharnowski, who was also on the All-Defensive and Most Improved Teams, along with Second Team pick Sam Orme. Rookies Eoin Dillon and Jack Smiley were named to the All-Freshman Team, while Smiley and Brigham Rogers were selected to the All-Bench Team by the league's media.

Alexander's success as a head coach followed his tremendous pedigree as first a player (1991-95) then as an assistant coach (1995-2011) for Byrd, who won 713 games in developing Belmont into a NAIA powerhouse from 1986-96 before transiting to Division I in 1996-97 and making the Bruins an NCAA Tournament mainstay before his retirement in 2019.

Alexander succeeded Byrd as the 10th coach in Belmont history on April 10, 2019. Belmont is one of 3 Division I programs (along with Gonzaga and Kansas) to win 20 or more games in each of the last 16 seasons, while the 21 combined conference championships (13 regular season and 8 tournament) since 2006 are only surpassed by the aforementioned programs. Belmont, along with Houston and Louisville, are the only Division I programs to win conference championships in three different conferences over the last two decades.

Alexander played point guard at Belmont from 1991-95, where he led the school to the top of the NAIA ranks with a 119-25 record, 4 postseason appearances and two conference titles. As a senior in 1995, he directed the then-Rebels to a 37-2 record, a No. 1 national ranking and an appearance in the NAIA National Semifinals.

Alexander joined Byrd's coaching staff upon graduation in 1995, spending the next 16 seasons (1995-2011) with the Hall of Famer, where he was part of 287 wins. In Alexander's final 8 seasons on staff, the Bruins tallied 172 victories, 6 postseason appearances (4 NCAA Tournaments, one NIT, one CIT), 4 Atlantic Sun Conference regular-season championships and 4 more tournament titles. The team posted a remarkable 132-41 (.763) in conference play in that span and posted road victories over Missouri, Alabama and Cincinnati.

Alexander returned to his alma mater after spending 6 seasons (2013-19) across town at Lipscomb, where he produced a program renaissance in leading the Bison to the best 3-year stretch (72-31) of their NCAA Division I era and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history in 2017-18. Overall, he led the school to a 113-84 (.574) record, including a 59-31 (.656) mark in Atlantic Sun play.

Alexander earned his first head coaching job at Stetson University located in Deland, Fla., in 2011-12, guiding the Hatters to 24 wins in two seasons (2011-13), including 18 in Atlantic Sun Conference play. He grew the win total from nine in year one to 15 in year two, including the school's most ASUN wins (11) since 1987.

Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Belmont in 1995 before obtaining a Master's in sports management from Austin Peay in 1996.

Alexander was born on June 8, 1972 in Nashville, Tenn., and prepped at Brentwood Academy. He and his wife, the former Sunni Dixon, also a 1995 Belmont graduate, are the parents of three children: Allie, Reed and Mason.

■ KILL SHOTS

A "kill shot" is a term coined by college basketball analytics reporter Evan Miyakawa. Miyakawa defines a "kill shot" as any time that a team scores 10 or more unanswered points against their opponent. The ability to maximize "kill shots" while minimizing your opponent's "kill shots" plays a major factor in erasing deficits and holding leads.

01 SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

Nov. 3, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

South Dakota State	35	33	—	68
K-STATE	28	38	—	66

▶ Clutch 3-pointers from redshirt freshman Davis Kern and senior Kalen Garry lifted South Dakota State past K-State, 68-66, in the season opener for both teams on Nov. 3 before 7,047 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Kern and Garry converted on the back-to-back 3-pointers after Kern broke a 60-all tie with pair of free throws with 2:51 to play. Kern's fifth triple of the night gave the Jackrabbits (1-0) a 65-60 lead with 2:31 remaining. Garry's 3-pointer then made it 68-62 with 1:40 left.

▶ Despite these clutch shots, the Wildcats had two chances to tie the game in the last 25 seconds. Freshman Jaylen Alexander intercepted a bad pass with 25 seconds remaining, but fifth year Dez Lindsay couldn't convert on a reverse layup with 9 seconds. After a timeout, junior Joe Sayler was fouled with 6 seconds but missed the front end of a 1-and-1 free throw, allowing the Wildcats' one last chance. However, senior Brandon Rechsteiner's floater in the lane missed as the buzzer sounded.

▶ Junior Pape N'Diaye was a bright spot for the Wildcats, as he paced three players in double figures with a career-high 18 points on 5-of-8 field goals and 8-of-8 free throws. Rechsteiner and junior Isaiah Abraham each scored 16 points, while Rechsteiner added 7 rebounds and 3 assists.

▶ Kern led four Jackrabbits in double figures with a game-high 24 points to with a game-tying 8 rebounds, while Garry and sophomore Jon Mekonnen each had 14 points. Summit League Preseason Player of the Year Joe Sayler added 10 points.

▶ K-State shot 41.5 percent (22-of-53) from the field, including 28.6 percent (8-of-28) from 3-point range, with 12 assists to 22 made baskets with 12 turnovers. SDSU connected on 43.9 percent (25-of-57) of its field goals, including 41.7 percent (10-of-24) from beyond the arc.

▶ The loss spoiled the debut of head coach Casey Alexander, as K-State lost in a season opener for the first time since 2023 and the first in a home season opener since 2020. K-State is now 95-28 all-time in season openers, including an 83-11 mark at home and a 31-4 mark at Bramlage Coliseum.

02 CSUN

Nov. 6, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

CSUN	29	49	—	78
K-STATE	57	38	—	95

▶ K-State earned the first win of the Casey Alexander era with a barrage of 3-point field goals, as the Wildcats knocked down 17 triples, including 11 in a first half when they built as much as a 28-point lead, en route to a 95-78 win over CSUN on Nov. 6 before 7,012 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The 17 made 3-pointers are the fourth-most by a Wildcat team in single-game, while the 11 in the first half tied for the third-most in any half. Both were the most since the team connected on 19 vs. Mississippi Valley on Dec. 8, 2025, including 13 in the first half. The Wildcats' 41 attempts from beyond the arc were also a school record, surpassing the 40 vs. UAPB in 2024.

▶ Seven different Wildcats recorded at least one 3-pointer, including 6 by senior Brandon Rechsteiner, who led all scorers with 26 points. Four others – freshman Jaylen Alexander, sophomore Matt Gilhool, fifth year Jaden Schutt and senior Brock Vice – had at least two treys.

▶ Rechsteiner was joined in double figures by sophomores Matt Gilhool and Montana Wheeler, who each had 12 points. It was the first double-digit scoring game of Gilhool's career. Schutt added 9 points, while junior Isaiah Abraham, Alexander and Vice each chipped in 8 points.

▶ Behind its 3-point success, K-State (1-1) raced out to a 57-29 advantage at the half and led by as many as 31 points (62-31) early in the second half before a pesky CSUN team (0-2) cut the lead to 87-73 with 3:38 remaining. However, a sixth 3-pointer from Rechsteiner thwarted any further momentum as he and Wheeler added layups for a 94-75 lead with 1:48 to play.

▶ K-State shot nearly 50 percent from the field, hitting on 49.2 percent (31-of-63) of its field goals, including 41.5 percent (17-of-41) from beyond the arc. CSUN hit on 38.8 percent (26-of-67) of its shots, rebounding from a dismal first half (27.8 percent; 10-of-36) to make 51.6 percent (16-of-31) in the second half. Both teams had 17 turnovers.

▶ Junior Mikah Ballew led four Matadors in double figures with 23 points, including 15 in second half.

03 CREIGHTON

Nov. 10, 2026 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Creighton	40	42	—	82
K-STATE	40	49	—	89

▶ Senior Brandon Rechsteiner equaled his career-high of 26 points for the second consecutive game to pace four Wildcats in double figures, as K-State used a late 20-5 lead to defeat Creighton, 89-82, on Nov. 10 at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Rechsteiner, who first set his career-best with 26 points vs. CSUN just five days ago, was joined in double figures by fifth year Jaden Schutt (14 points), junior Isaiah Abraham (12 points) and sophomore Matt Gilhool (11 points). Abraham nearly notched his first career double-double with a career-high 9 rebounds, while senior Brock Vice dished out a career-best 6 assists.

▶ Rechsteiner, who posted his fourth career 20-point game, finished 9-of-16 from the field, including 6-of-12 from 3-point range, in 32 minutes.

▶ With the score knotted at 55-all with 15:06 to play, Rechsteiner scored eight of his 26 points during a pivotal 20-5 run that gave the Wildcats (2-1) a 75-60 lead with just over 9 minutes to play. Five players contributed points during the run, including 5 by Gilhool, 3 by Vice and 2 each by Abraham and Dez Lindsay.

▶ Creighton (2-1), which won its first 2 games by an average of 21.5 points, responded with 12 straight points to cut the deficit to 75-72, prompting a timeout by head coach Casey Alexander with just over 6 minutes remaining.

▶ However, Rechsteiner came through in the clutch again, knocking down his sixth 3-pointer of the game followed by two free throws from Vice that sent the Wildcats to the final media timeout ahead 80-72 with 3:57 to play. A 3-pointer by senior BJ Davis gave the Bluejays a chance at 81-77 before an Alexander timeout with 2:26 left but a Vice 3-point play ignited a run of 7 straight points that put the game away at 88-77 with 45.6 seconds.

▶ The teams combined for 27 made 3-point field goals, including 14 by K-State, while they also combined for 36 turnovers. The Bluejays converted 22 turnovers into 30 points compared to 21 points off 14 turnovers by the Wildcats.
