*First win as an NCAA Division I program; played in Fairbanks, Alaska

Through just two seasons with the Owls, Markeith Cummings (2009-present) already ranks in the top 10 in Owls history in points and field goals made, and is the second most prolific scorer in the program's Division I era.

Ronell Wooten (2004-08) was the first star player for the Owls during the Division I era, earning Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Week honors three times and being named to the All A-Sun Second Team in 2006-07.

Tony Williams (1989-93) led the Owls in scoring during his senior season at 14.4 points per contest, on the way to helping his squad to their first NAIA National Tournament.

The 2006-07 squad finished with a 9-9 record in the Atlantic Sun Conference, and saw their first season of a truly demanding non-conference Division I schedule. The Black and Gold hosted Western Kentucky and George Washington, while visiting Kansas State and Wichita State. Ronell Wooten would earn the team's first-ever all-conference selection at the Division I level, landing a spot on the All A-Sun Second Team.

Reggie McKay (2002-04) logged 31 minutes in the Owls NCAA Division II National Championship game against Southern Indiana.

One of just 13 career 1,000 point scorers in Owls history, Israel Brown (1989-93) helped lead the Black and Gold to the 1993 NAIA District 25 Championship and the program's first appearance in the NAIA National Tournament.

DID YOU KNOW ...

The 2004 NCAA Division II National Championship won by the Owls over Southern Indiana in Bakersfield, Calif. was the first, and so far the only, NCAA men's basketball national title won by a Georgia-based school. Also in that game, the Owls defeated Southern Indiana by 25 points, which was the second largest margin of victory ever in a Division II men's championship game.

Introduced as the Owls fourth head men's basketball coach on April 26, 2011, Lewis Preston brings with him to Kennesaw State the experience and leadership qualities that will help make the program a force at the Division I level.

The 2005-06 team was the first Owls squad to compete at the NCAA Division I level. They would compile a record of 12-17, winning nine of their first 10 Atlantic Sun Conference contests and garnering national attention in the process.

The 2002-03 Owls were the first to really begin to make a dent on the national basketball scene. Putting together a 25-10 record, they made their first-ever NCAA Division II Tournament, defeating Bowie State in their first round match-up.

Despite coming into the 2010 Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament as a number eight seed, the Owls were able to pull off one of the biggest upsets in tournament history, knocking off number-one seeded Lipscomb in the quarterfinals, giving them their conference tournament win in Division I history. It was their time being eligible for the A-Sun Tournament after going through NCAA Division I re-classification.
