HEAD COACH NITRA PERRY

Nitra Perry enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Kennesaw State women's basketball program after becoming the sixth head coach in the history of the program on April 25, 2012 after coming to Kennesaw from the University of Toledo.

Perry is coming off her most successful season at the helm of the Owls as she led KSU to the winningest season in the Division I era with a 17-13 record in 2014-15, including opening the season with a Division I program best 10-2 mark in the first 12 games. It was the first winning campaign since the 2008-09 season, with KSU finishing in a tie for fourth in the Atlantic Sun Conference standings with a 6-8 mark in league play, the Owls' best finish in the A-Sun since 2011-12. Along with the historic season, Perry earned her first superlative honor as head coach when then-junior Jasmine McAllister was named the 2015 A-Sun Newcomer of the Year in her first season in the Black and Gold.

In her first season guiding the Owls, Perry led Kennesaw State to a 7-24 overall record, including a 3-15 mark in Atlantic Sun Conference play. KSU advanced to the conference tournament where it fell 73-47 to Mercer in a first-round match-up.

Despite one less win in Perry's second season, the Owls showed improvement in a 6-24 season and advanced to the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament for the fifth-consecutive season after finishing seventh in the league with a 4-14 mark. KSU would give eventual runner-up Stetson a run for their money in its quarterfinal match-up, before falling 73-56 to the Hatters.

Prior to assuming her first head coaching position, Perry spent four seasons as a member of the Rockets' coaching staff and in 2011-12 she served as the program's associate head coach. Recognized as one of the top young assistants in the business, Perry was involved in all facets of the program, including on-floor coaching, academic support, individual conditioning workouts and scouting. She also served as the program's recruiting coordinator. During her four years at Toledo, the Rockets amassed an impressive 96-40 overall record and a 50-14 mark in the Mid-American Conference.

"Nitra is a rising star in this profession," two-time MAC Coach of the Year Head Coach Tricia Cullop said of her former assistant. "She has an outstanding work ethic, tremendous communication skills and is a winner. She did an amazing job helping us rebuild our program and I know it is only a matter of time before she has Kennesaw State challenging for an Atlantic Sun title."

In 2011-12, Perry helped guide Toledo to a 24-10 record as the Rockets advanced all the way to the Elite Eight of the WNIT before falling to Syracuse. She also coached and mentored Andola Dortch, who was the 2012 MAC Defensive Player of the Year, and Courtney Ingersoll, who was the No. 6 nationally ranked three-point shooter in the country.

In 2010-11, Perry helped mentor the Rockets to a school-record 29 victories and become the first MAC basketball program to capture a national postseason tournament. Toledo's WNIT run was capped off by an eight-point triumph over Southern California in the championship game. Perry was also instrumental in signing a 2010-11 recruiting class that ranked best in the MAC (No. 68 in NCAA), according to the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report.

During the 2009-10 season, Perry aided UT to its fifth MAC West Division crown in school history, as well as advance to the league tournament finals for the first time since 2001. The Rockets earned their sixth all-time appearance in the WNIT. Toledo defeated Big East foe Pittsburgh in the first round and moved on to the second round for the first time since 1998. The Rockets finished 12-4 in conference action and concluded the season with a 25-9 ledger.

In 2008-09, Perry assisted Toledo to double-digit league victories (11) for the first time in the last six years and an appearance in the MAC Tournament Semifinals, despite being picked sixth in the West Division by the MAC News Media Association. Toledo won six more conference games (11-5 record) than it did in 2007-08 (5-10 mark).

Perry arrived at Toledo following two seasons at her alma mater Mississippi State, where she was responsible for player development, practice preparation, assisting with recruitment and overseeing academics. While with the Bulldogs, she helped mentor All-SEC Freshman performers Alexis Rack and Mary Kathryn Govero. Perry returned to her alma mater after serving as an administrative assistant with the Georgia Tech program for three seasons (2004-06), where she also assisted with the Yellow Jackets' women's basketball camps.

A four-year letterwinner for the Lady Bulldogs from 1996-2000, Perry garnered numerous honors at Mississippi State, including being named honorable mention All-SEC by the Associated Press in 1999 and 2000 and earning SEC Academic Honor Roll and SEC All-Tournament Team honors in 2000. She currently ranks in the Top 15 on the school's all-time scoring chart with 1,124 career points and in the Top 10 on the rebound list with 746 career boards.

Perry was a member of three Lady Bulldog squads to reach postseason play, making two trips to the NCAA Tournament and one to the WNIT. During her senior campaign in 2000, she helped MSU to a program-best 24 wins and a run to the SEC Tournament Championship game.

Following her graduation in 2000 with a degree in education, Perry traveled overseas to play basketball for two years, competing in Portugal in 2001 and Italy in 2002. She also competed for the Birmingham Power of the NWBL during 2003-04 before joining the coaching ranks.

SERIES HISTORY

First Meeting

Year	Result	Score	Record
------	--------	-------	--------

A WIN WOULD...

- Snap the Owls' three-game losing skid.
- Give KSU its seventh win on its home floor this season.
- Give Kennesaw State its first win over NJIT in program history.

TWICE AS NICE...

- Aareon Smith has come on strong lately, averaging a team-high 16.7 points per game in three Atlantic Sun Conference tilts.
- The junior forward notched two-straight 23-point performances against Lipscomb and North Florida, taking home A-Sun Player of the Week honors in back-to-back weeks.
- Aareon Smith is averaging 9.0 points per game on the road this season on 41.3 percent shooting from beyond the arc.
- Meanwhile, at home, Smith is averaging 9.9 points per game on 35.8 shooting overall from the field and has made 16 3-pointers at the KSU Convocation Center.

HOME VS. ROAD FACTS...

- Kennesaw State enters Saturday's contest with a respectable 6-4 mark in front of its home fans, while posting just a 1-9 record on the road this season.
- Both Jasmine McAllister and Kelly Dulkoski are averaging double-figure numbers (11.2 & 10.7, respectively) at home this season, while the Owls have no players in the double-figure scoring columns on the road.
- Overall, the Owls have shot the ball similar on the road, posting 38.8 percent at home and a 39.1 percent mark on the road. But, the Owls are allowing opponents to shoot close to 42 percent on the road compared to 37.7 percent at the KSU Convocation Center.
- At home, Kennesaw State is averaging 59.6 points per game, 38.6 rebounds per game and 13.0 assists per contest.
- On the road, the Owls are averaging 59.4 points per contest, 35.8 rebounds and 16.9 assists.
- KSU is outscoring its opponents in the first and fourth quarters at home this season, while being outscored in the middle two frames.
- In fact, the Owls are outscoring their opponents 173-139 in the fourth quarter, their largest margin in any quarter at home this season.
- However, KSU has only outscored its opponents in the first quarter on the road this season, 166-162.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE...

- Jasmine McAllister notched her seventh double-double of the season against Thomas University on Dec. 29.
- Four of her seven double-doubles this season have been on KSU's home floor - Presbyterian, Western Carolina, New Orleans and Thomas.
- The senior totaled 13 points and 15 rebounds against the Musketeers and then totaled 14 points and 13 boards against Thomas.
- Her 15 rebounds against Xavier notched her fifth game of pulling down 15 rebounds - four shy of her career high.
- Over her last four games, McAllister is averaging 11.3 points per game and 12.8 boards per game.
- She currently leads the team averaging 10.3 points and 10.0 rebounds per game.
- Most recently, McAllister fell one rebound shy of her eighth double-double, posting 19 points and nine rebounds at Jacksonville.

THE COUNTDOWN TO 1,000...

- Deandrea Sawyers has made 121 3-pointers over her first two seasons with the Owls. The most made 3-pointers in a season was 78 by Taylor Mills in 2011-12, which Sawyers fell just 15 shy of breaking that record.
- Sawyers has made only six 3-pointers this season, but has kept her 1,000 point pace by scoring 156 total points and averaging 8.7 points per game.
- Sawyers is 66 points (7.3 points per game needed for the remainder of the season) away from reaching the 1,000 point plateau in 2015-16. She would be only the third player to accomplish the milestone since the Owls turned Division I in 2005-06.

TEAM FACTS...

- The Owls 60-53 win against New Orleans on Nov. 29 marked the 70th win all-time at the KSU Convocation Center.
- With its victory against Lipscomb, the Owls have now won 70 Atlantic Sun Conference games since joining the league in 2005.
- The Owls won their first game when trailing at halftime against Lipscomb last Saturday.
- Kennesaw State is eight wins away from reaching 350 wins in the NCAA (335-281 entering the season) all-time.
- Jasmine McAllister also recorded 317 rebounds a season ago, which fell seven shy of the single season record of 324 by Sametria Gideon in 2012-13.
- McAllister has pulled down 200 through 20 games this season, averaging 10 boards per game.
- KSU welcomed back seven letterwinners from a season ago and has seven newcomers that make up the 2015-16 roster.
- Kennesaw State has had SIX players (Aareon Smith, Iceis Walker, Tayler Smith, Allison Johnson, Kelly Dulkoski & Clara Young) record career highs this season.
- Clara Young also recorded a career-high eight assists on the road against Xavier on Dec. 21, 2015.
- In addition, Young also recorded her career-high six rebounds against FGCU on Tuesday, Jan. 26.
- Aareon Smith's two games of 23 points is the highest total an individual has scored this season in a single game.
- Jasmine McAllister has recorded five games of 15 rebounds in a single game, the highest total this season from any Owl.
