KENNESAW STATE

OWLS

(1-1-0)

Head Coach: Benji Walton

Record at KSU: 28-18-6 (4th season)

Career Record: 135-98-16 (14th season)

Conference: ASUN

As Of Late...

On Thursday night, the Kennesaw State Owls welcome College of Charleston to Fifth Third Bank Stadium for the home opener of the 2019 campaign. The Owls have started the season with a record of 1-1, their most recent result being a 4-1 win over the Georgia State Panthers last Sunday in Atlanta.

The Owls were led to victory over the Panthers by a pair of goals from sophomore Kendall Baker as well as goals from Erin Harris and Becky Contreras. Assists for the Owls were provided by Isabella Contreras, Emely Sosa, and Kelsey Hahn.

The Panthers offense was stalled by the efforts of redshirt-sophomore goalkeeper Tiffany Sornpao, who recorded five saves in the win. The Owls look to continue their run of form against the Cougars from Charleston on Thursday night.

Conference Rankings

After a week of action, the Owls lead the ASUN Conference with a total of 35 shots and an average of 17.50 per-game. KSU's five goals and 13 total points also top the conference in totals and averages. Goalkeeper Tiffany Sornpao is third in the league with 11 saves.

Coach Speak

Head Coach Benji Walton on what to expect this week:

"The College of Charleston is a very, very tough opponent. They are always in the conversation when it comes to the best mid-majors in the South. Our current team hasn't seen them play, and we've got to attempt to do the same things defensively that we were trying to do against our first two opponents. We've got to be able to roll with the punches because this early in the season you never know exactly what you'll see. We need the same intensity and discipline we had last week."

Scouting College of Charleston

The Cougars have also started the season at a modest record of 1-1, defeating Stephen F. Austin by a score of 2-1 on Opening Day. They followed up with a 1-2 loss to Furman this past weekend. The Cougars lost their top goal-scorer from last season, Laura Ortega, but seniors Rachel Kim and Talia Colchico look to take up the reigns and lead the front line for the Cougars this season, both already recording a goal each this season. Last season the Cougars were 11-8-1 and advanced to the CAA Semifinals.

COLLEGE OF

CHARLESTON

COUGARS

(1-1-0)

Head Coach: Christian Michner

CoC Record: 74-53-18 (8th season)

Career Record: 64-80-10 (11th season)

Conference: CAA

Series Versus College of Charleston

The Owls are 4-1 all time vs the Cougars of Charleston, with Thursday being the fifth all-time meeting between the squads. The most recent confrontation between the two was in 2015 and resulted in a 3-1 loss to the Owls in Charleston, and the Owls will surely be looking for revenge Thursday night.

Scouting Alabama A&M

The Bulldogs began their season in Starkville, Mississippi and were beat 4-0 by the hosts Mississippi State. The Bulldogs then take a road trip to Georgia where they will play Georgia State in Atlanta before taking on the Owls in Kennesaw Monday afternoon. The Bulldogs finished 5-12-1 last season. The Bulldogs are a very young team with many of their starters from last year returning, including top scorer Ayanna Gooden and play-makers Nia Thompson and Kahdian Wright-Brown.

Series Versus Alabama A&M

Monday's match will be the 8th all-time meeting between the Owls and the Bulldogs, with the Owls leading 7-0. Quite spectacularly, the Owls have never conceded a goal in all seven meetings while also averaging over eight goals vs the Bulldogs. The Owls will look to extend the streak to eight on Monday.
