As Of Late...

The Owls look to continue their hot run of form on Friday night as they welcome the Furman Paladins to Fifth Third Bank Stadium. The Owls are on a three-game winning streak, but with Friday's opponents on a three-match winning streak of their own, it will surely be an extremely contested matchup. Following Friday's action, KSU plays host to another Plametto state opponent, Presbyterian, for the first time since 2003.

Last week the Owls defeated College of Charleston and Alabama A&M 1-0 and 3-0, respectively, with strong performances from Erin Harris and Kendall Baker who both tallied a goal in the win over Alabama A&M, putting them both in a four-way tie for second in goals scored in the ASUN Conference with three. Erin Harris is second for total points with seven (goals+assists).

Conference Rankings

After three consecutive wins, the Owls are ranked third in the ASUN Conference with a total of 106 shots and an average of 13.3 per-game. KSU's seven goals and 33 total points keep the Owls in the top three. Goalkeeper Tiffany Sornpao is third in the league with 16 saves. Becky Contreras is third in the league with 11 shots. Kendall Baker is fourth in the league with six points.

From The Locker Room

"We're not just content with it. It's great progress and a good start to the season. As Coach Benji (Walton) says, 'A compliment doesn't make a career.' Just because we started well doesn't mean it can't go south. We have to keep our heads locked in." - Goalkeeper Tiffany Sornpao on the three-game win streak.

Scouting Furman University

Last time out, the Paladins defeated Elon 3-0 thanks to a brace from sophomore Erin Houlihan. Another sophomore, Isabella Gutierrez has also had a strong start to the season, notching two goals and two assists so far in four games. Last week, the Paladins also defeated College of Charleston by a score of 2-1. The Paladins average two goals per game while allowing only one per game.

Series Versus Furman University

Friday's match will be the 6th all time meeting between Kennesaw State and Furman, with the Paladins holding the edge over the Owls three games to two. Their last meeting was last season in Greenville, SC, and it ended in a 1-0 victory for the Owls. The Owls will be looking to even the series on Friday with a win.

Scouting Presbyterian

The Blue Hose have begun the season at 0-2 with an Opening Day loss to North Florida and a loss in Statesboro this past weekend vs Georgia Southern. Presbyterian finished 8-8 last season.

Series Versus Presbyterian

Kennesaw State has not played Presbyterian since the 2003 season when they played them twice that year, with both matches ending in an Owls' victory. The Owls defeated the Blue Hose in the regular season 3-1 and were victorious again two weeks later in the NCAA Division II tournament by a score of 4-0.
