1994 NAIA BASEBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

48-14 (20-8 GIAC)

It was their first and last appearance in the NAIA World Series and the Owls made the most of it. With Kennesaw State set to advance to NCAA Division II status the Owls left the NAIA a champion and brought home the university's first intercollegiate athletic national title. Led by Head Coach Mike Sansing, the Owls finished the season on a then-school record 17-game winning streak en route to a 2-0 win over top-ranked Southeastern Oklahoma in the national title game held at Sec Taylor Stadium in Des Moines, Iowa. Left-handed pitcher Chris McKnight tossed a complete-game, three-hit shutout in the title game earning him a spot on the All-Tournament team. He was joined on the team by second baseman Darrell Baggett, catcher Ryan Coe, first baseman David Armstrong and pitcher Todd Kirby. Additionally, Baggett won the Golden Glove Award while Kirby was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Sansing, who was named Regional and District Coach of the Year, guided the Owls to 48-14 overall record including 20-8 in conference play. His squad posted a team batting average of .330 led by outfielder Fabian Herndon's .382 mark. Coe (.369, 18 HR) set a then single-season school RBI mark with 79 and was named NAIA District Player of the Year and All-American while third baseman Perry Shiver (.371, 11 HR, 42 RBI) earned an All-American Honorable Mention. In addition, Coe, Herndon, Shiver, shortstop George Edwards (.362, 37 RBI) and pitcher John Kown (9-1, 1.88 ERA) earned All-District honors. Coe and Shiver also captured All-Region selections. McKnight finished the season with a 10-2 record and 3.15 ERA. Other key contributors included Chad Morris (10-2, 2.15 ERA), Chris Tracy (6-3, 3.59 ERA), Armstrong (.366, 34 RBI), Jerry Coffey (.313), and Steve Meyer (.279, 12 HR, 47 RBI).

1996 NCAA DIVISION II BASEBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONS 48-17 (17-6 PBC)

After finishing second to Columbus State in both the Peach Belt Athletic Conference (PBAC) regular season (17-6) and tournament, the Owls beat the Cougars when it counted the most – by taking two-out-of-three games in the South Atlantic Regional Tournament to advance to the College World Series. Playing at Paterson Field for the first time, KSU swept its way to a second national crown by going 4-0 in the tournament. Jason Childers capped off a season of perfection (12-0, 2.01 ERA) by pitching the game of his life. The junior fired a seven-hit, complete-game shutout in the 4-0 title game win. For the season, Childers was named PBAC and South Atlantic Region Pitcher of the Year along with earning first team All-American status. Junior catcher Chris Halliday (.354, 10 HR, 48 RBI) also had a season to remember that ended with him being named first team All-South Atlantic Region and All-PBAC, along with garnering the MVP of the NCAA Division II Baseball Championship.

“It goes without saying that I’m extremely excited for this group to be able to get recognized in the Kennesaw State Hall of Fame,” said former KSU head coach Mike Sansing. “It’s a special group of people that includes some tremendous leaders and competitors and there was no better example than Chris (Halliday). This team’s determination laid so much of the groundwork for today’s program. They were able to transition out of the NIAA seamlessly and paved our road to Division I, as well.”

Other key contributors for Mike Sansing’s Owls on the mound were pitchers Matt Houmes (6-3, 2.78 ERA), Derek Perkins (7-3, 3.52 ERA), Chris Bowen (5-1, 3.45 ERA) and Alex Garcia (5-2, 2.96 ERA). Hitting notables in addition to Halliday were Brian Mallette (.360, 34 RBI, 21 SB), Joe Parks (.356, 37 RBI, 37 SB), Nathan Cothran (.306, 57 RBI), Brannon Whatley (.300, 31 RBI) and Brian McDevitt (.273, 48 RBI). Childers, Halliday and Parks were selected to the all-region team.
