The husband and wife team of Caleb and Nicole Nieman enters their fiffh season as co-head women's coach at Kentucky Wesleyan College after compiling the most successful five year record in Panther history.

For the third consecutive season, the Niemans produced 20-wins as they finished the 2014-15 year with a 20-9 record, place third in the G-MAC regular season while reaching the G-MAC Championship game for the third time in four seasons..

The 2013-14 season marked a banner year as they won the Great Midwest Athletic Conference Tournament Championship after tying for third in the regular season as they compiled their second straight 20-win season with a 21-8 record plus 12-4 in the G-MAC.

The Nieman's also saw Karly Rhodes become their first All-American honoree and the third Panther in history to receive this award.

The four graduating seniors ended their career as the winningest senior class in history with a four-year record 75 wins.

In the 2012-13 season, KWC captured a share of their first-ever Great Lakes Valley Conference East Division Championship with a 14-4 slate and earning a trip to the NCAA Midwest Region Quarterfinals by finishing with a 20-9 record.

The 20 wins and the NCAA tournament appearance marked only the second time in Panther history while the 14 GLVC wins set a new KWC season record. The Niemans guided the squad to 10 victories in their last 12 games.

The Panthers also climbed to their highest spot in the NCAA Midwest Region rankings at No. 5 in the final poll. They also produced their second biggest upset in history by defeating the nation's No. 5 team, Indianapolis, 67-61, on Jan. 17.

The 2011-12 Panthers compiled their second straight 17-win season with a 17-13 mark as they pulled off two one-point upsets including No. 16-ranked Wisconsin-Parkside in the GLVC Tournament to reach the championship game for the first time in KWC history.

During the season while using 22 different lineups, they also set the single-game scoring record with a 115-113 overtime victory at Bellarmine. All 12 players competed in 24-plus games while averaging double-figures in minutes with eight seeing action in all 30.

The Niemans' guided the Panthers to a 17-10 record in 2010-11 and the first-ever trip to the NCAA tournament in KWC history.

They used 17 different starting lineups where 11 of 12 saw action in 20-plus games with all averaging 13 minutes or more per contest in their first season leading the Panthers.

Niemans' credits their balance philosophy for their remarkable triumphs.

"Our balanced scoring is a product of how we play defensively. When they are in there for three or four minutes, they've got to be going all out. It's hard to go that speed for more than that amount of time. That gives us balanced minutes, and then that results in balanced scoring.

"Creating a family atmosphere is our No. 1 goal."

Their appointment marked the first time in Panther athletic history for co-head coaches in any sport.

The couple came to KWC as assistants to then head coach Ron Williams in the summer of 2009 from Michigan where they combined for six years serving as co-head coaches in high school and two years of college coaching experience at a Division III powerhouse.

Prior to moving to Owensboro, Nicole spent two seasons as an assistant and head junior varsity coach at the legendary Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Mich. She helped lead the Knights to 35 wins in two years including a 19-8 record in 2009 where they set the NCAA Division III single game attendance record 4,395.

At the prep level the Nieman's inherited a 2-19 team at Greenville High School in Greenville, Mich., and proceeded to take the Yellow Jackets to back-to-back Class A district playoff wins for the first time since the 1998 season. For their accomplishments, they were named the Area's Coach of the Year.

Caleb, a certified strength and conditioning specialist, worked for the Grand Rapids MVP Sportsplex supervising over 700 athletes including collegiate and professional teams and athletes plus the Michigan State University's Athletic Strength and Conditioning program.

He is currently featured on Sports Illustrated's website (www.si.com/training) introducing cutting edge, sport specific training techniques to improve athlete's performance.

Caleb graduated from Grand Valley State University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's in kinesiology from Michigan State University in 2009.

Nicole, a native of Marlette, Mich. graduated from Aquinas College in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in learning disabilities and a master's in kinesiology from Michigan State University in 2009.

They have one daughter Lilly.
