Cody Bridges played and started in 211 games at Kentucky Wesleyan. He has 296 hits on his career, which is far and away a school record, and sits at second in G-MAC history. Bridges was a four-time All-Conference honoree, and in 2018 he set a school record with 91 hits on a .429 batting average, which helped him to be named the ABCA All-Region team. He was a major part of the 2017 Panther squad that won the G-MAC tournament and qualified for the NCAA Regional.

Pitching Records

Devin Smith had one of the best careers in Wesleyan pitching history. The hurler from Teutopolis, Illinois ranks second in Kentucky Wesleyan history with a 2.81 career ERA. Despite playing just two full seasons, he also sees himself on the all-time strikeouts list, sitting at sixth with 175. He is a two-time First-Team All G-MAC honoree and was named the 2019 G-MAC Pitcher of the Year.

Seth Wright (2020-24) worked his way up the charts during his time in a Panther uniform. He sits at second all-time with 250 strikeouts, fifth with 228.2 innings pitched, and sixth with 17 wins. He was named to the All G-MAC team twice, second team in 2024 and third team in 2022.

Matt Pobereyko's 2015 season was historic, as he set school records for both single season (104) and single game (18) strikeouts. Pobereyko's nine wins also sit as a school best. His 1.96 ERA puts him at fourth all time in school history, and he was named an All G-MAC First-Team selection for his performances that season.

Ben Wilcoxson was always a consistent presence both at the plate and in the field while he was at Wesleyan. The shortstop holds the school record for most career assists (454) and double plays turned (98). He is second all time with 203 games played, and ranks fourth with 199 hits.

Jordan White (2009-12) is a 2023 Kentucky Wesleyan Hall of Fame inductee, and for good reason. He is second all time in KWC history with 224 career hits, third in doubles (47), triples (9), total bases (331), and fifth in RBI's (120). He was a back-to-back GLVC batting champ in 2011 and 2012, and in that 2012 season he was named the ABCA Midwest Region Player of the Year and a Second-Team ABCA All-American.
