MATCHUP NOTES

FRESHMAN AT THE HELM: Redshirt freshman QB Harrison Burch is the new starting quarterback for the Panthers heading into the 2025 season. The Russellville, Alabama, native appeared in two games last year, highlighted by his first career start in the season finale at Ashland in which Burch went 20-34 for 363 yards and three touchdowns against the eventual conference champions.

TOUGH ROAD AHEAD: The Panthers are staring at a tough schedule in the 2025 campaign, beginning with non-conference battles at home versus #6 West Florida and on the road at William Jewell before jumping right into conference play, headlined by #23 Ashland and a Findlay team that received votes in the national preseason poll.

WHAT A START FOR UWF: West Florida hosted arguably the biggest game of week 0, taking on then-ranked #17 Lenoir-Rhyne. Led by head coach Kaleb Nobles, who worked for Dabo Swinney at Clemson before UWF, the Argonauts delivered a 48-21 drubbing of the Bears to announce their serious contention for the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Head Coach

Tyrone Young

4th season as Head Coach at KWC

Since being named the 7th head coach in school history on March 8, 2022, Coach Tyrone Young has been a vital part in re-shaping the culture of the Panthers. 2023's Kentucky Wesleyan football team won four games, the team's most since 2015, and achieved a school-record three conference victories. The Panthers are now looking to bounce back from a rough 2024 campaign.

In his first season at the helm, the Panthers finished second in the G-MAC in both interceptions and defensive efficiency and tallied 21 total sacks on the year. Overall during his time at Wesleyan, Young has coached a total of ten All-Conference players and was a crucial part in the development of First Team All-American KiShawn Walker.

Prior to his time at KWC, Young spent a year at Anderson University (NCAA Division III) in Anderson, Indiana. While at Anderson, Young coached four All-Conference honorees, including HCAC Freshman of the Year and All-Region defensive lineman Elijah Smith. He recruited Anderson's all-time leader in pass receptions, Zac Tallent, and was instrumental in developing the Adopt-A-Raven program, which played a big part in helping the football team develop a relationship with the community.

Young came to Anderson after a year at Lock Haven (NCAA Division II), where he was the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. He was also the Bald Eagles' assistant recruiting coordinator and handled video and practice operations. In his lone year at Lock Haven, Young coached three All-Conference honorees, including defensive back Isaiah Flamer, who was named First Team All-Region.

From 2013-16, Young was an assistant coach at King's College (NCAA Division III) in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Young held many hats for the Monarchs, including defensive pass game coordinator, special teams coordinator, defensive backs coach, graphics coordinator, and JV head coach. In 2014, Young started the first Fellowship of Christian Athletes group at King's College and served as their campus liaison until he left. While at King's, Young coached three All-Conference players and recruited an average of 18 Scholar-Athletes a year into the football program.

Before King's, Young started off his career at his alma mater, Kentucky Christian University, where he was the director of football operations, recruiting coordinator, and assistant running backs coach. After a four-year playing career, Young graduated from KCU in 2012 with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration (Sports Management and Marketing) and Biblical Studies.

Young currently resides in Owensboro with his wife, Shiloh, their daughter, Payton, and their son, Tauren.
