Lander, USC Spartanburg tie

Sept. 28, 1992

GREENWOOD----Lander University's soccer team, ranked No. 11 in the NCAA Division II poll last week, saw its six-game winning streak come to an end on Saturday, Sept. 26, when the Senators tied USC Spartanburg, 1-1.

Bernard King scored Lander's goal on an assist from Andrew Durbin. King is a transfer from Columbus (Ga.) College who was named to the Peach Belt All-Conference team last year.

In this week's games, Lander plays at Catawba (N.C.) College at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 30, and at Pembroke State (N.C.) University, at 3 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 3.
