MEDIA SERVICES
The Louisiana Tech Athletic Communications Office looks forward to working with any media outlets during the 2021 football season.

Any member of the office can answer your questions or direct you to someone who can, so please feel free to call us at (318) 257-3144.

WEB PAGE
Louisiana Tech's official athletics web page has up-to-date information on all of Tech's varsity programs.
Please visit LATechSports.com today.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM
CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Conference USA and Louisiana Tech football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for Louisiana Tech, Conference USA and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

WORKING CREDENTIALS
Requests for press box seating should be made directly to the LA Tech Athletic Communications Office before Monday of game week. Admission to the press box of Joe Aillet Stadium is by credential only and credentials are distributed to working members of the media only – no family members or friends. Passes will be mailed if time allows; otherwise, left at Will Call on the stadium's west side at the press box elevator entrance.

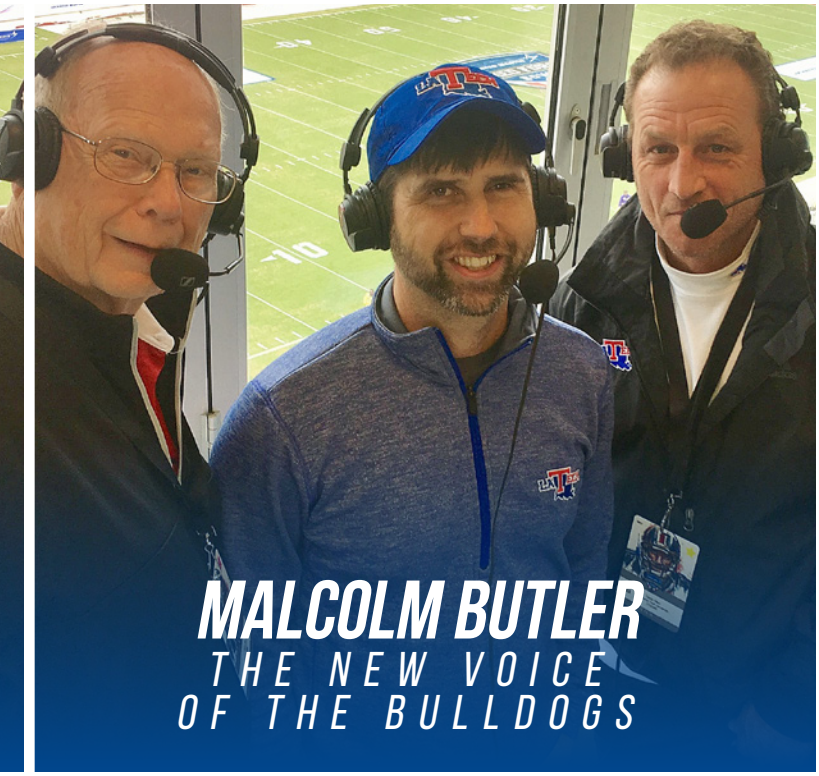

RADIO/TV POLICY
Permission to broadcast from Joe Aillet Stadium and Independence Stadium must be obtained through the LA Tech Athletic Communications Department. The visiting team's official network will be provided free broadcast rights. For information concerning courtesy phone lines, contact Ashley Springer at (318) 257-5071. Additional phone lines can be obtained by calling BellSouth directly at 1-800-866-6701 (outside Louisiana). The first level of the LA Tech Press Box offers an unobstructed view for television cameras.

PRESS PARKING
Parking is limited and passes will be issued on a priority basis. The Joe Aillet Stadium press parking lot is located on the southside of the stadium, across West Alabama Avenue.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
All vital game information is provided by the LA Tech Stat Crew. Post-game quotes from head coach Skip Holtz and selected players, as well as the visiting coach, are also available. Telephone and high-speed internet lines are available for media usage and a pre-game meal is served at each home game starting approximately two hours before kickoff. Level three provides working space for print and electronic media and the LA Tech Stat Crew along with LA Tech and visiting athletic director booths. Level one provides space for cameras, while level three houses home and visiting radio booths and coaches' booths.

DIRECTIONS TO JOE AILLET STADIUM
From Interstate 20, get off at Exit 84 and drive south toward Louisiana Tech University. At the first traffic light, turn right (West Alabama Avenue). Joe Aillet Stadium can be seen on the right. Media parking is immediately past the stadium.

WILL CALL
Media Will Call is located at the ticket booth on the west side of the stadium near the press box elevators.

The new Voice of the Bulldogs has a familiar tone.

Beginning July 1, Malcolm Butler, for 22 years a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department and the University's associate athletic director in charge of athletic communications, will take on a hybrid role. One of his roles will be serving as the play-by-play voice for Bulldog Football and Men's Basketball.

Butler takes over Tech's mic for Louisiana Sports and Louisiana Tech Hall of Famer Dave Nitz, who recently decided to call only Bulldog Baseball games after nearly half a century as the voice of Tech Athletics.

Butler's new title is Associate AD for Communications and Broadcasting. He will continue to be a member of Wood's executive team, maintain oversight of the athletic communications department, and sports supervision for softball as well as a variety of new responsibilities.

Lady Techsters Basketball will also have a new voice, not yet determined; Butler has called those games for 21 years.

In his new role, Butler will continue to work closely with Learfield IMG College, the university's athletics multimedia rightsholder which oversees the broadcast operations as part of the overall rights relationship.

Butler joined the department in July 1999 as the assistant athletic communications director before being elevated to the director's position that same fall. He was promoted to his current position in 2008 and has served as a member of the athletic department's senior staff over the past 13 years.

During the past 22 years, the department has won more than 100 awards at the annual Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) SID contest. During that same time, Butler has personally won 45 awards, including first-place awards for radio play-by-play.

As the radio play-by-play voice for the Lady Techster basketball team, the Ruston native has broadcast more than 600 women's basketball games, including 15 NCAA Tournament games. He was named the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) State College Radio Broadcaster of the Year in 2017 and has placed in the top three in the contest six of the last eight years.

He has broadcast in excess of 500 softball games in his career, including the 2008, 2017 and 2019 NCAA Regionals, and served as both the play-by-play voice and color commentator on various Bulldog football and basketball broadcasts. He served as the sideline reporter for the Bulldog football broadcasts from 2013-16.

A 1994 Tech journalism graduate, Butler served as the sports editor and editor of The Tech Talk, the University's student newspaper.

Louisiana Tech fans can tune into the "Voice of the Bulldogs" Malcolm Butler and color analyst Teddy Allen on the LA Tech Sports Network this fall for all live game broadcasts for the Bulldogs' 12-game schedule as well as the weekly Inside Tech Football with head coach Skip Holtz.

For the 24th straight year, the LA Tech Sports Network will team up with KXKZ-FM (107.5) Ruston as the flagship station for Tech Athletics.

Fans can also access all live audio through the Louisiana Tech mobile app which is available for download on the iTunes App Store or Google Play.

The LA Tech Sports Network team will host a 90-minute pre-game show prior to each kickoff and a 30-minute post-game show.

DAILY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

The following is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Associate Director of Strategic Communications Ashley Springer at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Ashley Springer for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

Monday: Head coach Skip Holtz's radio show airs from 6-7 p.m. live from the Dawg House in Ruston.

Tuesday: LA Tech's weekly media luncheon starts with food served at noon and statements/interviews beginning around 12:30 p.m. A few players will also be made available. The last 30 minutes of practice are open to the media. Coaches and players are available following practice (first-year players not available). All video must be of individual players and not of team drills or formations.

Wednesday: The last 30 minutes of practice are open to the media. Coaches and players are available following practice (first-year players not available). All video must be of individual players and not of team drills or formations.

Thursday, Friday and Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Postgame availability only. Members of the LA Tech Athletics Strategic Communications Staff will escort media representatives to the media room with five minutes remaining in the game. The Louisiana Tech locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times. Postgame interview requests should be submitted to Ashley Springer before the five minute mark in the fourth quarter.

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech postgame press conference will be held in the Jarrell Room located in the Davison Athletics Complex after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Holtz and selected Louisiana Tech players will be available in the press conference following games. Opposing coaches will be available outside the visiting locker room following a 10-minute cooling off period.

SKIP HOLTZ

HEAD COACH

@CoachSHoltz

Skip Holtz enters his ninth year as the head coach at Louisiana Tech after former Louisiana Tech University President Dr. Dan Reneau introduced him as the 33rd head football coach of the Bulldogs during a press conference on Friday, Dec. 14, 2012 in the Jarrell Room of the Charles Wyly Athletic Center.

During his tenure, Holtz has built not just a winning program, but a consistent winning program as the Bulldogs have made seven straight bowl appearances, including a streak of six winning seasons and six bowl victories (2014-19).

In 2020, Holtz oversaw a season unlike any before as the world was faced with the COVID-19 pandemic. During the season, Tech had four games canceled and one postponed to finish the season with a 5-5 overall mark. Holtz led Louisiana Tech to its seventh straight bowl appearance as the Bulldogs competed in the 2020 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

Holtz guided defensive lineman Milton Williams to be named a third team All-American by Pro Football Focus, while linebacker Tyler Grubbs was named a freshman All-American by the FWAA, ESPN and 247Sports.com. In total, Holtz saw nine players earn first or second team all-Conference USA honors during the 2020 season and coached quarterback Luke Anthony to be named the 2020 C-USA Newcomer of the Year. Defensive lineman Eric Kendzior was named a Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Semi-Finalist, while kicker Jacob Barnes was a Lou Groza National Collegiate Place-Kicker Award Semifinalist.

In 2019, Holtz guided LA Tech to a 10-win season which marked the first time since 1984 that the program produced double-digit victories. The 10th win came in the 2019 Walk On's Independence Bowl as the Bulldogs shut out the Miami Hurricanes, 14-0, in Shreveport. It was the first shutout in Independence Bowl history and the only shutout of the 2019 bowl season. With the victory, the Bulldogs became the only team in the nation to win six consecutive bowl games from 2014 to 2019 (tied for fifth longest in FBS history).

LA Tech won all six games at Joe Aillet Stadium as well, marking the first time since 1973 that the program produced an undefeated season of 6-0.

In 2018, Holtz guided the Bulldogs to an 8-5 overall record and a 31-14 victory over Hawaii in the 2018 SoFi Hawaii Bowl. This was followed by a 2017 season when the team closed out the regular season with two victories to become bowl eligible and then overpowered SMU, 51-10, in the inaugural DXL Frisco Bowl.

In 2016, Holtz earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors after he guided the Bulldogs to yet another highly successful campaign as LA Tech finished the season with a 9-5 overall record, a Conference USA West Division title and a thrilling 48-45 victory over No. 25 Navy in the Lockhead Martin Armed Forces Bowl. It marked the Bulldogs' first win over a Top 25 team since 2005.

The 2016 team had arguably the greatest offensive in school history, producing a program-record 620 total points and 7,206 total yards. The Bulldogs averaged 44.3 points per game that year, the second most in FBS. Holtz led another potent offensive team in 2015 to a 9-4 record after dismantling Arkansas State, 47-28, in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

It was in his second season at the helm that the program started its winning streak as Holtz and the Bulldogs enjoyed a five-win improvement, going 9-5 and taking the Conference USA West Division title in the program's second year as a member of the league. The season was capped off with a 35-18 win over Big Ten opponent Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

In 2014, Holtz engineered an offense that was ranked fourth most improved with an average of 37.4 points per game, while Louisiana Tech was the national leader in points off of turnovers on the defensive side of the ball.

In his first season, Holtz inherited a team that lost 35 seniors with seven being invited to NFL camps (two through the NFL Draft) and brought together the team as it entered a new conference (Conference USA) under a new President and new Athletics Director, going 4-8.

In his eight years at LA Tech, Holtz has amassed 61 victories as head coach which is the third most in program history. He has had 13 players selected in the NFL Draft, the most in C-USA. Among them are defensive tackle Vernon Butler who was selected in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers with the 30th overall selection as well as defensive backs L'Jarius Sneed and Amik Robertson who were taken with back-to-back picks in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs and Las Vegas Raiders, respectively.

Holtz has coached seven All-Americans and 57 All-Conference USA selections (first or second team) while having eight players garner specialty awards – Cody Sokol (2014 C-USA Newcomer of the Year), Jeff Driskel (2015 C-USA Newcomer of the Year), Ryan Higgins (2016 C-USA Most Valuable Player), Carlos Henderson (2016 C-USA Offensive Player of the Year and Special Teams Player of the Year), Teddy Veal (2017 C-USA Newcomer of the Year), Jaylon Ferguson (2018 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year), J'Mar Smith (2019 C-USA Offensive Player of the Year) and Luke Anthony (2020 C-USA Newcomer of the Year).

Holtz had spent the past three seasons as the head football coach at the University of South Florida. He also served as the head coach at the University of Connecticut and East Carolina University where he won back-to-back Conference USA titles with the Pirates in 2008 and 2009. He also led his teams to five consecutive post-season bowl games between 2006 and 2010.

Holtz has participated in 21 postseason games in his coaching career, including 13 as a head coach and eight as an assistant coach. Of the 13 games as head coach, 11 occurred in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and two occurred in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In his first season at South Florida, Holtz promptly led the Bulls to their fifth consecutive eight-win season, making them one of just 15 teams nationally that had won at least eight games during that time span and one of only 10 teams in BCS leagues to accomplish the feat. In addition, USF played in its sixth consecutive bowl game, a 31-26 victory over Clemson in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. At the time, USF was one of just six programs nationally that had reached postseason play in each year as a BCS league member. In addition, with the victory, USF was one of just four programs that had won three consecutive bowl games.

In 2010, USF accomplished numerous firsts under Holtz. The Bulls won at Cincinnati and at Louisville for the first time in program history and beat Rutgers in Tampa for the first time. In addition, USF traveled to Miami and defeated the Hurricanes in an overtime thriller, 23-20, marking the Bulls first win over Miami in program history.

The 2011 season showed major improvement on the field, if not in the record, as USF finished 5-7 thanks to numerous heartbreaking defeats. After starting 4-0, including a huge win at Notre Dame to open the season, the Bulls dropped six of their final seven games by a combined 28 points or 4.7 points per game. Included in those six losses were four 3-point defeats, three of which came on the final play of the game. USF was the only team in the nation that lost three games at the final gun.

Looking passed the wins and losses, the Bulls improved in virtually every statistical category, especially on offense. USF improved its national ranking in total offense 75 spots from 2010 to 2011, the largest jump of any school in the country. The biggest improvement came in the passing game, where USF improved by 85 yards per game. Only two teams saw a greater jump in the passing offense national rankings. In addition, the Bulls improved 39 spots in rushing offense. Defensively, the Bulls finished second nationally in TFL and fourth in sacks and in the top 40 in run defense, total defense and scoring defense.

Holtz went to USF after five seasons at East Carolina, where he won back-to-back Conference USA Championships in 2008 and `09 and finished with a 38-27 record. Holtz also spent five years as head coach at Connecticut, where he amassed a 34-23 record.

Holtz led ECU to unprecedented heights, including four-straight winning seasons, a quartet of bowl game appearances and the back-to-back league crowns. A once-proud program, Holtz quickly revived the Pirates, which had stumbled to record just three wins in a 25-game period in the two-plus seasons prior to his arrival in 2005.

He promptly instilled a sense of pride, commitment, character and discipline into a Pirate team that went on to reward its loyal and passionate fan base with the school's first-ever run of four consecutive bowl invitations and the program's first four-year streak of winning seasons since the 1970s.

The drastic turnaround at ECU, which included a 7-6 finish in 2006, an 8-5 ledger in 2007, a 9-5 mark in 2008 and another nine-win campaign in 2009, coincided with dramatic school-record attendance increases at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

While the initial success in 2005 relied heavily on a wide-open offensive assault, it was a no-nonsense and fundamentally-sound defensive effort that launched the Pirates back into college football's competitive arena a year later.

Holtz followed by using a combination of both in 2007, offering a well-balanced offense and a run-stopping, ball-hawking defense to lead East Carolina to its highest Conference USA win total in school history at that time. The Pirates ended up just one victory shy of earning a berth in the league championship game, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in program history, which was loaded with four Bowl Championship Series members.

In addition to guiding ECU to its first postseason win since 2000 with a 41-38 victory over No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Holtz fine-tuned the efforts of running back Chris Johnson, who was college football's national statistical champion in all-purpose yards. Johnson also became the program's second first-round draft choice (first since 1992) when the Tennessee Titans selected him with their initial pick in April, 2008. Johnson went on to be named the 2009 NFL Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2008, Holtz' Pirates earned a spot in the Conference USA Championship game. ECU defeated Tulsa to claim the program's first conference title in 32 years, earning a bid to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. During that season, Holtz led the Pirates to a No. 14 ranking in the polls and victories over No. 17 Virginia Tech and No. 8 West Virginia.

Holtz continued his success at East Carolina in 2009, leading the Pirates to a second consecutive Conference USA Championship. They became the first team in C-USA Championship game history to post consecutive victories.

Prior to his time in Greenville, Holtz spent six seasons at South Carolina. He wore several hats during his tenure with the Gamecocks, coaching the quarterbacks his first four seasons, before handling the tight ends in 2003 and then returning to guide the signal-callers in `04. He displayed his all-around abilities as a coach in working closely with the Gamecock offense in addition to handling a variety of duties as assistant head coach under his father, the legendary Lou Holtz.

While at South Carolina, Holtz was recognized as an Assistant Coach-of-the-Year in 2001 by the All-American Football Foundation. That year, the Gamecocks ranked second in the Southeastern Conference in rushing offense, and under Holtz's tutelage, senior Phil Petty went on to lead South Carolina to 17 victories in his last 23 starts, including back-to-back Outback Bowl wins over Ohio State in 2001 (24-7) and `02 (31-28).

Holtz went to South Carolina after a successful five-year stint as head coach at fellow BIG EAST school, Connecticut. While at UConn, he led the Huskies to their best season in school history, up to that point, in 1998 and was recognized as one of the top young coaching talents in the country.

Holtz has been credited for developing high-powered and prolific offenses throughout his coaching career. During his last season at Connecticut, he led the Huskies to a then-school-record 10 victories and an appearance in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. His team ranked 11th nationally in scoring offense and averaged nearly 36 points per game.

During his five-year tenure as head coach at UConn, Holtz guided the Huskies' program to national top 25 rankings the last four seasons and unprecedented success in the school's 100-year football history, which provided a firm foundation for the school's eventual move to the FBS level in 2002.

The success Holtz earned on the field at Connecticut during his first head coaching tenure was matched by his involvement in the community as a successful speaker, clinician and humanitarian - often donating his time and effort to many charitable and educational organizations. He served as the honorary chairman for Camp Courant in Hartford for four consecutive years, helping fund-raising efforts to send more than 1,000 under-privileged area children to recreational and educational camps during the summer. Holtz was also actively involved with the American Diabetes Association, serving as an honorary chairman and member of the Board of Trustees for two years.

Holtz was honored in 1996 with the National Football Foundation Man-of-the-Year Award and was a member of the Foundation's ethics committee. He was also the recipient of the Franciscan Life Center's St. Francis Award in 1995, an honor given for his dedication and support of Christian values and outstanding athletic achievements.

Prior to taking the head coaching job at UConn, Holtz worked on the offensive staff under his father at Notre Dame. He spent four years at Notre Dame and served as the Fighting Irish's offensive coordinator during the 1992 and `93 seasons.

During those years, Holtz was in charge of one of the country's most potent offensive attacks - a period in which the Irish compiled a 21-2-1 record. The 1992 Notre Dame offense ranked third nationally in total offense, averaging better than 470 yards per game. The 1993 Irish offense, despite the loss of All-America running backs Jerome Bettis and Reggie Brooks, ended the season ranked No. 9 in scoring offense (36.6 points per game). During Holtz's two seasons as offensive coordinator at Notre Dame, the Irish offense averaged nearly 37 points per game.

Holtz has also served on the coaching staffs at Florida State and Colorado State. While serving on Bobby Bowden's FSU staff in 1987 and `88, the Seminoles rolled to a 22-2 record, captured the Sugar and Fiesta Bowl titles and earned a No. 2 and No. 3 national rank, respectively.

In all, he has been involved in eight New Year's Day bowl games during his coaching career. Prior to his stint at South Carolina, the overall record of teams he had been associated with as an assistant coach was an impressive 67-15-2.

Born March 12, 1964, in Willimantic, Connecticut, Louis "Skip" Holtz spent the first two years of his life in Connecticut, while his father served as the top football assistant on the Huskies' staff from 1964-65. He was a prep quarterback at Fayetteville (Ark.) High School, while his father was the head coach at the University of Arkansas.

He attended Holy Cross Junior College in South Bend, Ind., for two years before transferring to Notre Dame in 1984. Holtz earned his bachelor's degree in business management in 1986 and was a football letterwinner for the Irish that same year, appearing in all 11 games as a special teams member and backup flanker.

Skip and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of three children: Louis Leo (Trey) Holtz III (currently on staff as the inside receivers coach), Chad Fitzgerald Holtz and Hailey Elizabeth Holtz.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

Joe Aillet Stadium has been home to Louisiana Tech football for over 50 years as Bulldog fans have watched legends such as Terry Bradshaw, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Pat Tilley, Matt Dunigan, William Roaf, Troy Edwards, Tim Rattay, Kenneth Dixon and Jaylon Ferguson all don the Tech red and blue.

Opened in 1968 at a capacity of 23,000, Joe Aillet Stadium -- which wasn't given its current name until Nov. 11, 1972, when it was dedicated in honor of the former Tech coaching legend -- has proven instrumental in some of the biggest wins in the program's 100-plus year history.

The facility was upgraded in 1985 when a luxury sky box was added to the press box and again in 1989, when an additional 7,600 seats were added, increasing the seating capacity to 30,600.

In the summer of 2006 Joe Aillet Stadium received a new surface as FieldTurf Mono -- which is considered the top of the line artificial turf -- was installed by FieldTurf Tarkett. In the summer of 2008, that turf was replaced with a new version to include the athletic department's new logo. In the summer of 2015, Joe Aillet Stadium received another upgraded surface as FieldTurf Revolution was installed in time for the upcoming season.

A brand new, state-of-the-art videoboard was installed in the north end zone in time for the 2009 season, a $2 million addition to the facility. Built by Daktronics, the national leader in scoreboard and videoboard manufacturers, it is 25 feet x 45 feet and can show one display or be split into multiple replays.

Construction on a new South End Zone facility began as ground was formally broken during the T-Day Spring Game in 2014. The removal of two sections of stands dropped the capacity to 27,717 for the 2014 season with capacity set to rise to 28,019 with the addition of 300 seats in a premium club section opening in time for the 2015 season. With the addition of the new $18-plus million press box and suites facility, the capacity of Joe Aillet Stadium has once again increased to 28,562.

As a tribute to the tremendous contributions of the Davison family, Louisiana Tech President Les Guice and then-Athletics Director Tommy McClelland announced on June 25, 2015 that the University is naming the new south end zone facility at Joe Aillet Stadium in honor of the Davison family. The Davison Athletics Complex is home to the Bulldog football program as the $20 million-plus facility encloses the south end of the stadium.

The stadium's namesake -- Joe Aillet is a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame -- guided his Tech teams to a 151-86-8 record and nine conference championships from 1940-1966. The winning tradition Aillet established during his days of coaching at Louisiana Tech has continued as the Bulldogs have posted 10 perfect seasons in the facility's history.

Since the first game ever played in the stadium, a 35-7 win over East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968, Joe Aillet Stadium has been the site of some of the most magical moments in Louisiana Tech football history.

Joe Aillet Stadium has proven to be a tough place for opposing teams to play for more than four decades. Over the course of the stadium's history, Tech has dominated opponents as the 152-62-2 record indicates a winning percentage of more than 70 percent. Since Tech moved up to Division I-A in 1989, the Bulldogs have registered a mark of 90-35 at Joe Aillet Stadium, a winning percentage of over 70 percent.

In that inaugural game against East Carolina at Joe Aillet Stadium, a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw guided the Bulldogs to the victory as Tech fullback Buster Herren scored the first touchdown ever at the stadium on a two-yard run with 6:20 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the first of many memorable moments for Tech fans in Ruston.

On two different occasions over the past 50 years, Tech has registered streaks of 18 straight wins at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The first such streak started with a 23-0 win over UL-Monroe in the final game of the 1971 season and ended with a 49-20 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga in the fifth game of the 1975 season. That run by coach Maxie Lambright's teams included two small college and one Division II national championship seasons.

During the late '80s and early '90s, the Bulldogs won their first 18 home games after joining the Division I-A ranks. Tech defeated Northern Illinois 42-21 in the first home game of the 1989 season to begin the streak with the last of the 18 wins being a 17-16 victory over Northern Illinois in 1993.

Included in that string of wins was a 31-30 victory over Colorado State on Nov. 17, 1990, that catapulted the Bulldogs into the 1990 Independence Bowl. Tech trailed 30-14 late in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points, capped by Gene Johnson's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Slaughter with 2:14 to play. The Bulldog defense held the Rams to four and out on their final possession as a wild celebration ensued, which ultimately ended in the goal posts in the south end zone being torn down by Tech fans.

One of the biggest individual matchups in the stadium's history came on Sept. 5, 1998, when two future NFL quarterbacks squared off as Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper led his team to a 64-30 win over Tech's Tim Rattay and the Bulldogs. Culpepper passed for 370 yards and four scores while rushing for 69 yards and two more touchdowns while Rattay passed for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

The 2000 season saw a milestone reached at Joe Aillet Stadium as the Bulldogs under head coach Jack Bicknell recorded the 100th win in the facility's history. True freshman quarterback Luke McCown tied an NCAA Division I freshman record by tossing six touchdowns in the milestone 48-14 victory over UL-Lafayette on Oct. 14, 2000.

Joe Aillet Stadium hosted its first nationally televised game on Dec. 5, 2002, when ESPN came to town to produce Louisiana Tech's game against Fresno State. Although Tech fell in the contest, it was another milestone for the program and the facility it has called home.

The 2004 season opened with another nationally televised home game, as the Bulldogs defeated Nevada 38-21 Sept. 6 on ESPN2. This was just a preview of things to come during the season at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Less than one month later, Tech fans were able to witness one of the greatest games in Joe Aillet Stadium history, as Louisiana Tech downed No. 17 Fresno State 28-21 on Oct. 2. Tech trailed 13-0 early in the second quarter before running back Ryan Moats and the Bulldog defense turned up their level of play. Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores, including the game-winner with just under four minutes to play, which was set up by an interception deep in Fresno State territory.

The win was sealed when current Green Bay Packers star Tramon Williams intercepted Paul Pinegar with less than :30 remaining, starting a wild celebration that saw the goal posts in both end zones torn down.

The 2011 season saw disappointing lows early on but a wet championship finish. After leading Houston 34-7 with 20 minutes to play, Tech dropped a heart-breaking 35-34 decision to the Cougars but ended the year with seven straight wins, including two at home, as the Bulldogs clinched the 2011 WAC Championship with a 44-0 rout of New Mexico State in a driving rainstorm in late November.

The following season, LA Tech played its first ever game inside Joe Aillet Stadium as a nationally-ranked team. The Bulldogs were ranked No. 22 in the country when they overpowered UTSA in early November by a final score of 51-27.

Bulldog fans have packed into "The Joe" for these games and many more. Most recently, a crowd of 27,905 (the second highest attendance in JAS history) saw LA Tech defeat Southern 62-15 in the 2015 season opener.

As the warm fall evenings approach and another year of Bulldog football begins, Joe Aillet Stadium will once again host some of the best college football the nation has to offer.

THE SPIRIT OF '88

At the corridor inside the brand new Davison Athletics Complex in the southwest corner of Joe Aillet Stadium where the team enters and exits the field on game days, stands a bronze Bulldog statue named the Spirit of '88.

The statue commemorates the 1988 Bulldog football team that blazed the path into Division I-A football for Louisiana Tech.

That 1988 team had to endure one of the most difficult schedules in school history. In what was the nation's 11th toughest schedule that year, the Bulldogs faced five Division I-A bowl teams including Houston, Florida State and Texas A&M.

The results were as expected: losses like 60-0, 56-17 and 66-3 ... but as a team, the Bulldogs grew. Those experiences likely played a key role in Tech finishing 5-4-1 the following year, its first in I-A, and 8-3-1 in 1990's Independence Bowl season.

The statue, which every Tech player and coach touches as he walks onto the field before every home game, also brought good fortune to the Bulldogs at home. On Oct. 14, 1989, when it was unveiled, Tech proceeded to pummel a very good Northern Illinois team, 42-21. That was just the start of one of the best runs in Tech football history.

Over the next four-plus seasons, home games were few and far between, but each one resulted in a win. The Bulldogs eventually reeled off 18 consecutive home victories, tying the all-time stadium record set by head coach Maxie Lambright's great teams of the early 1970s.

Some wins have been more magical than others. The endings to three of the biggest wins in school history have taken place in the south end zone ... almost as if the Spirit of '88 has played an integral role.

In only Louisiana Tech's second season in the Division I-A ranks, the Bulldogs trailed Colorado State, 30-14, late in the third quarter and their bowl hopes looked bleak. However, 17 unanswered points later, Tech had rallied for a 31-30 win over the bowl-bound Rams to earn their own Independence Bowl berth.

The winning touchdown pass from Gene Johnson to Bobby Slaughter in the final minutes came fittingly in the south end zone, just in front of the Spirit of '88.

Eleven years later, Tech clinched a share of its first Western Athletic Conference title with a 48-42 win over Boise State at Joe Aillet Stadium. With the Broncos driving towards what looked like a game-winning score late in the contest, the Spirit of '88 magic struck once again.

Ryan Dinwiddie's potential game-winning touchdown pass bounced off the helmet of a Tech defender and high into the air before Bulldog defensive lineman Brandon Avance plucked it out of the air, giving Tech the victory.

Some might say it's a coincidence that the two biggest wins in the program's Division I-A history had been decided in the south end zone under the watchful eyes of the Spirit of '88.

However, the third time proved it was more than just chance.

On a warm Oct. 2 evening in 2004, Louisiana Tech found itself trailing No. 17 ranked Fresno State, 21-20 late in the fourth quarter.

Fresno State had the football and the momentum, trying to move out of its own end zone – the south end zone – against a Tech defense and its 12th man, or should we say Dawg.

On third down Fresno State quarterback Paul Pinegar was intercepted by Byron Santiago who returned the football down to the 16-yard line.

Two plays later, Ryan Moats gave Tech a 28-21 lead and the eventual win as he rushed eight yards to the right corner of the south end zone. The Bulldogs had defeated the 17th-ranked team in the nation.

A Joe Aillet Stadium crowd of almost 20,000 celebrated wildly with the Tech players, coaches and the Spirit of '88.

From 1989 to 2013, the Spirit of '88 stood at the bottom of the ramp in the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium. Due to construction on the Davison Athletics Complex during the 2014 season, it was temporarily relocated, but continued to be available for the team to touch before it takes the field.

For the first time in its history, the newly-mobilized Spirit of '88 accompanied the Bulldogs on a pair of road trips during the 2014 season. The bronze statue made an appearance in Huntington, West Virginia, for the Conference USA Championship game before traveling to the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas, where LA Tech came away with a 35-18 victory over Illinois.

Some may say the powers of that bronze Bulldog are a fluke. Tech fans won't agree. The numbers say 80 wins and just 33 losses at Joe Aillet Stadium since the Spirit of '88 was unveiled.

So fluke or not, the Bulldogs will continue to touch it each home game and hope the wins continue.

JOE AILLET STADIUM FACTS

Capacity: 28,562

Largest Crowd: 28,714, Tech defeated ULM, 17-16, on Sept. 13, 1997 (Capacity was 30,600)

All-Time Record: 168-69-2

Playing Surface: FieldTurf Revolution (Installed in 2015)

Lighting: New state-of-the-art LED field lighting was installed in 2017. It delivers a clearer, better quality lighting across entire Joe Aillet Stadium playing surface. Additional benefits include energy savings, low maintenance and greater flexibility in lighting controls.

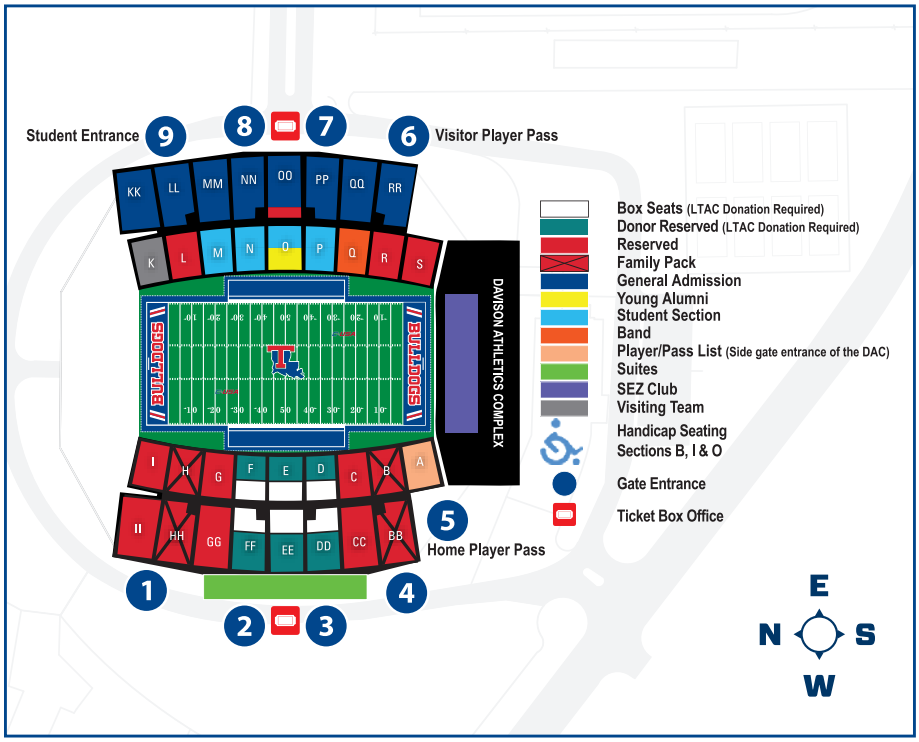

Scoreboards: A Daktronics light emitting diode (LED) video and scoreboard system measuring 25 feet tall by 45 feet wide at the north end of Joe Aillet Stadium. The videoboard can operate as a single giant display or can be divided into multiple zones to show a wide variety of statistics, information, graphics, animation and live and recorded video. A custom LED scoreboard also adds to the exciting game day environment at the opposite end of the stadium. The scoreboard at the north end also includes a custom sound system, which delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies and high-impact entertainment.

Press Box: A new $18.6 million, three-level structure was opened in August of 2017 after the demolition of the original 48-year-old press box. Level 1 of the structure contains the camera platforms for both national television and teams. Level 2 of the facility includes 14 luxury suites, each with a 20-person capacity (the Presidential Suite holds 40), as well as a shared space for suite holders. Level 3 of the new structure includes the press area (seating capacity of 65), home, visitor and alternate radio booths, national television booth, home and visiting AD suites, home and visitor coaches' booths, stadium operations, instant replay, public address and scoreboard operations.

Club Level: A 302-seat club premier game-watching location opened in 2015 located in the Davison Athletics Complex in the south end zone. The 5,000-square foot lounge space includes an all-inclusive indoor dining experience while wide, cushioned club seats are located outside (although covered from any potential weather).

Suite Level: The first floor of the newest facility houses 13 luxury suites plus the Presidential Suite. Each one of the luxury suites holds 20 supporters and includes 12 outdoor seats, indoor lounge furniture, a kitchenette area and a big screen TV. Patrons gain access to these luxury suites through a club area which will be used for catering food and beverage.

LOUISIANA TECH 31
SOUTHERN MISS 30

M.M. ROBERTS STADIUM • HATTIESBURG, MISS.

HATTIESBURG – It's been 268 days since Louisiana Tech last played football, and it took until the final seconds of the game for the Bulldogs to secure the 31-30 victory over Southern Miss on Saturday night at M.M. Roberts Stadium.

With the Bulldogs down 30-24 with 21 seconds on the clock, graduate student quarterback Luke Anthony took the snap at the USM four yard line and found junior wide receiver Griffin Hebert in the back of the end zone. The call on the field was incomplete, but upon further review, Hebert had a foot inbounds for the four-yard reception to tie the game. Redshirt freshman kicker Jacob Barnes converted on the extra point and LA Tech (1-0, 1-0 C-USA) defeated Southern Miss (0-2, 0-1 C-USA) in the season/C-USA opener.

"We said we needed to score one more point than they did," head coach Skip Holtz said. "I was really proud of this team. Proud of the way they competed. There were a lot of obstacles we had to overcome to get here. Having the top four linebackers out and having to start a true freshman at corner and to go out there have those guys compete the way they did. This is one of the only times in fall camp to tackle live. I think some of the weaknesses show. The one thing we didn't know what how well they would compete in a tough environment on the road. I couldn't be more proud of a football team than I am the way they competed tonight."

Louisiana Tech overcame a 17-point deficit after being down, 27-10, midway through the third quarter. Senior wide receiver Adrian Hardy caught the 32-yard touchdown pass from Anthony to trim the lead to 10, 27-17, with 5:31 left in the third. The momentum continued in LA Tech's favor after an interception from sophomore defensive lineman Deshon Hall set up another TD on a perfectly thrown ball by Anthony to sophomore wide receiver Smoke Harris for the 35-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 27-24 with 29 seconds remaining in the third period.

Southern Miss drove the ball down into Louisiana Tech territory in the fourth quarter, attempting to go up by two scores, but senior defensive lineman Eric Kendzior sacked USM senior quarterback Jack Abraham on third down for an eight yard loss to push the Golden Eagles to the LA Tech 20 yard line. USM converted on the 37-yard field goal attempted, giving the Golden Eagles the 30-24 advantage with just over five minutes to play in regulation.

"We were down 17 and the mindset if we could just get a touchdown," Holtz said. "All of a sudden you are down three. The defense did a great job of forcing a field goal which meant a touchdown won it. We put a saddle on the offensive line. Greg Garner stepped in with fresh legs as a running back. The offensive line kept yelling at me to run it again and again. That is what an o-line wants to do. Both quarterbacks played really well. Just didn't like the turnovers. Both stood in there and competed. They are selfless. This team loves them both and has great confidence in both of them."

Junior running back Greg Garner had a 24-yard rush in his first game as a Bulldog to put LA Tech at the USM 27 yard line. LA Tech continued to work down the field until Anthony capped off a 17-play drive by connecting with Hebert again in the back of the end zone for the one-point win.

Hebert recorded the first points of the season for the Bulldogs after catching the four-yard touchdown pass from sophomore quarterback Aaron Allen to give LA Tech the 7-0 lead with 1:49 to go in the first. After Southern Miss cut it to 7-6 on a TD and failed two-point conversion, Barnes made the first field goal of his career on a 28-yard attempt to give Louisiana Tech a four-point edge, 10-6, with 6:08 left in the second quarter.

Louisiana Tech finished the game with 163 total rushing yards, led by senior running back Justin Henderson with 69 yards on 18 attempts. Anthony led the Bulldogs in passing after converting 13-of-21 for 149 yards and three touchdowns. Hardy led the team with 79 receiving yards on five receptions. The Bulldogs finished the night with 218 net passing yards.

LA Tech had 89 tackles on the night, including two sacks, six tackles for loss and one interception. The Bulldogs were led by freshman linebacker Tyler Grubbs recording 16 total tackles, including four solo and one TFL, in his collegiate debut. Senior linebacker Ezekiel Barnett also had double-digit tackles with a career-high 10 total, including four solo and two tackles for loss.

Southern Miss ended the game with 129 net rushing yards, led by freshman running back Frank Gore, Jr. with 56 yards on 11 attempts. Abraham completed 24-of-32 pass attempts for 264 yards and three touchdowns. Senior wide receiver Tim Jones led the Golden Eagles in receptions with eight catches for 160 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, USM had 91 total tackles with two Golden Eagles record 14 tackles each in redshirt junior linebacker Santrell Latham and redshirt sophomore defensive back Malik Shorts.

"There is pride in both of these programs," Holtz said. "Both teams lived up to the rivalry and what this rivalry and this conference is all about. It was an exciting game. The touchdown we scored to end the game was the same call earlier when Griffin caught it. It was just a lot cleaner in the first one than the second one."

HOUSTON BAPTIST	38

JOE AILLET STADIUM • RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. – Luke Anthony threw five touchdowns and ran for another to lead Louisiana Tech to a 66-38 win over Houston Baptist Saturday night before a "Covid19 sellout" of 7,140 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Anthony, who faced the Huskies as the starting QB for Abilene Christian the past two seasons in Southland Conference play, found Wayne Toussant on a pair of long TD passes in the opening quarter before hitting Isaiah Graham to two more in the second quarter as the Bulldogs built a 38-17 halftime lead.

"One of the things we have said is that one of the areas we have a chance to really improve as a football team, we've got some weapons out on the perimeter, and we have two quarterbacks who are throwing the deep ball really well," said LA Tech head coach Skip Holtz. "They've done it all camp. They've got a feel for it, and that's something where you've just got to let your mind be a computer and lay it up there. They execute the deep ball really well.

"Wayne Toussant came alive and made some big plays for us. Isaiah Graham had two great contested catches over the middle of the field. We have some weapons out there. It was nice seeing those guys play as well as they did. Luke can definitely play better, but I'm really proud. He's only been in this offense five weeks, so he's really playing well. Overall, I was pleased with the way we came in and competed."

The Bulldogs (2-0, 1-0 C-USA) amassed 542 yards of total offense as Anthony hit 17-of-30 passes for 314 yards and the five scores. He found Jawaun Johnson for a 41-yard strike in the third quarter and also scored on a one-yard plunge in the third stanza.

"Early on in the game, there was a lot of me wanting to move more than I should of, and I think that forced some plays to extend and resulted in me throwing it away or me putting guys in contested catch situations," said Anthony. "Once we got rolling in our base offense and going quick game and being able to hit them over the top, at that point it's trusting the call and trusting everything you've been taught. Our O-line did a great job protecting me and gave me plenty of time to take the shots we needed to down the field that ultimately played a big role in the game."

Justin Henderson rushed 11 times for 77 yards and one score while Israel Tucker added 63 yards on nine carries to lead the Bulldogs ground game that totaled 182 yards in the game. Henderson scored on a three-yard run early in the second quarter to give Tech a 31-14 advantage.

Greg Garner added a two-yard run in the fourth quarter while Westin Elliott found Kyle Maxwell for a seven-yard score for the final TD of the game.

Freshman Jacob Barnes, who connected on all nine extra point attempts in the game, started the scoring for the Bulldogs with a 51-yard field goal just four minutes into the contest.

Smoke Harris led all Tech receivers with five catches for 30 yards while Adrian Hardy (4-69), Toussant (3-91-2 TDs), Graham (3-36-2 TDs), Maxwell (3-29-1 TD), Griffin Hebert (2-47) and Johnson (2-44-1 TD) were all involved heavily in the passing game.

Defensively, the Bulldogs got enough stops against a high-powered Huskies passing game that had scored 31 points against North Texas and 33 points against Texas Tech. HBU quarterback Bailey Zappe completed 37-of-58 passes for 406 yards and five touchdowns in the contest but did throw his first interception in more than 140 pass attempts on the season.

"This is a quarterback that threw for 500 yards in the opening week and 600 yards in his previous game, so when you say you held him to 400 yards, you feel really good about it," said Holtz. "It's not often you have a quarterback throw for 400 yards against you and you feel like your defense played well. They created the first turnover of the year. It certainly wasn't perfect. There are certainly things you have to do better, but we didn't flinch. They went out and they played."

BeeJay Williamson intercepted Zappe in the second quarter, upping the LA Tech streak to 19 straight games with at least one forced turnover. It also marked the seventh straight game with at least one interception by the Bulldogs.

"He's a great quarterback," said Williamson on Zappe. "I feel like we left a lot on the field, though. We had a lot of missed tackles. I feel like everyone in the DB room could play better altogether. Other than that, I'm happy with the victory we had."

True freshman Tyler Grubbs followed up his impressive debut against Southern Miss with another strong outing, totaling 12 tackles and one tackle for loss. Trey Baldwin added nine tackles before leaving the game due to a targeting foul in the third quarter while Williamson chipped in with seven stops.

Milton Williams, Levi Bell and Tristan Allen all recorded sacks in the game.

LOUISIANA TECH	14
#22 BYU	45

LAVELL EDWARDS STADIUM • PROVO, UTAH

PROVO, Utah – Quarterback Zach Wilson accounted for five of No. 22 BYU's six touchdowns as the Cougars secured a 45-14 victory over Louisiana Tech at LaVell Edwards Stadium on Friday night.

BYU struck first in Friday night's matchup with Wilson's first of three rushing scores. The Bulldogs, however, responded in just over three minutes when quarterback Luke Anthony connected with wide receiver Smoke Harris to tie Friday's matchup at 7-7 with 6:51 remaining in the first quarter. The redshirt sophomore made the catch behind the line of scrimmage on the left side and then made three Cougars miss as he streaked into the end zone for a 66-yard score.

Following Harris' touchdown grab, the Bulldogs (2-1) forced a stop when true freshman linebacker Tyler Grubbs forced a fumble on fourth-and-1 at the LA Tech 43. The two-yard loss set up Tech at its own 45, but the Bulldogs failed to cash in as BYU's Troy Warner intercepted Anthony's pass at the Cougars' 21-yard line just three plays later.

BYU (3-0) rattled off the game's next 38 points, including 21 in the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead. Wilson passed for two touchdowns and rushed for scores of nine yards, one yard and 14 yards to complete his five-touchdown performance.

"BYU is a very talented football team, and they did a really nice job," head coach Skip Holtz said. "We made things a lot easier than they needed to be from a defensive standpoint. It's just about executing the things we're supposed to be doing.

"We tried to come into this game and simplify things with a young football team on the road, and we did not execute very well. We've got to do a better job of doing the routine things."

Tech added a touchdown at the 4:58 mark in the fourth quarter when Anthony again hooked up with Harris, trimming the score to the game's final tally. The final touchdown of Friday's contest was a four-yard strike, giving Harris his second two-touchdown performance of his career. Harris finished with a team-high 82 yards receiving, while Anthony led the way through the air with 191 yards on 18-of-27 passing.

Redshirt senior defensive back Zach Hannibal led the Bulldogs' defense with seven total tackles, including six solo stops. Hannibal's seven stops ranked as a career high, amassing two more tackles on Friday than he did in LA Tech's Independence Bowl victory over Miami this past season.

Trey Baldwin and Grubbs added five tackles apiece. Grubbs finished with two tackles for loss and a forced fumble, which was the first of his career.

"We're very young and inexperienced at corner," Holtz said. "I thought they really had a good plan, and Zach [Wilson] executed very, very well.

"We've played three really good quarterbacks, and he's far and away the best we've played. But we've got to get better, it's not an excuse."

Redshirt senior running back Israel Tucker led the Bulldogs with four receptions. Harris, Wayne Toussant, Cee Jay Powell and Justin Henderson each hauled in three receptions for LA Tech.

Harris' 66-yard score was Tech's longest play from scrimmage since an 80-yard reception from Isaiah Graham against North Texas this past season. The score marked the first time BYU had allowed a score in the first quarter this season. BYU entered Friday's matchup allowing just 10 total points in two games so far in 2020.

UTEP	UTEP	17
LA TECH	LOUISIANA TECH	21

JOE AILLET STADIUM • RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - One week after a disappointing effort in a road loss at BYU, the Louisiana Tech defense made play after play down the stretch to give the Bulldogs a hard-fought 21-17 Conference USA victory over UTEP Saturday night at Joe Aillet Stadium.

It was a night that head coach Skip Holtz and Co. needed it.

The Bulldogs offense managed just 210 yards of total offense in a contest that saw the Miners (3-2, 0-1) record 13 tackles for loss and four sacks against a depleted LA Tech offensive line.

Even the Bulldogs special teams struggled, including surrendering a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD early in the fourth quarter when it appeared Tech had control of the game with a 11-point lead following the second rushing TD of the night by Israel Tucker.

It wasn't a pretty win. But it was a win – the eighth straight in the series against the Miners.

"It's not always pretty, it certainly was not pretty tonight, but these guys just keep competing and find a way to win," said Holtz. "I'm really proud of them for the way they hung in there and the grit that they showed and the way that they continued to compete.

"We really struggled protecting our quarterback and getting the ball off, but I thought our defense stepped up and played a great game in the second half. I'm really proud of how Ezekiel Barnett and Trey Baldwin and Tyler Grubbs. Those guys are always around the ball. Everybody was able to stay positive."

Tech appeared to be poised for an impressive offensive night. The Bulldogs took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards on 10 plays to take the early lead on a 15-yard run by Tucker. Jacob Barnes extra point made the score 7-0 with 11:23 to play in the opening quarter.

The next 60 offensive plays of the night totaled just 135 yards. UTEP's defense took advantage of LA Tech being without starting tackles Donavaughn Campbell and Antawn Lewis, who were lost on Friday due to Covid19-related concerns.

Quarterback's Luke Anthony and Aaron Allen were both under constant pressure all night, combining to complete just 14 of 28 passes for 119 yards. And on the ground, the Bulldogs managed just 2.2 yards per tote.

UTEP tied the game early in the second quarter on a 33-yard TD pass from Gavin Hardison to Devaughn Cooper. However, it would the only TD that the Bulldogs defense would surrender in the game.

Tech retook the lead late in the first half, when Justin Henderson took a handoff, made three UTEP players miss and outraced the Miners defenders to the pylon for a 14-7 advantage. The Miners cut the deficit to 14-10 on a 29-yard field goal by Gavin Baechle with 9:02 to play in the third quarter.

Tucker gave Tech what appeared to be a comfortable 21-10 lead with 11:47 to play on a 1-yard plunge, capping a 13-play, 60 yard drive.

"They're a very good defense, and we had two starters missing on the offensive line, but it is next man up," said Tucker. "We've got to fix those mistakes and do better."

However, the momentum was short-lived when Duron Lowe took the ensuing kickoff and raced untouched 100 yards for a score.

UTEP had three more opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter, but managed just 22 yards on 11 offensive plays as the Bulldog defense stood tall.

"It was more of a disguise of what we were bringing out in our game plan," said Trey Baldwin, who finished with a team-high 10 tackles. "They had a good offensive line, so hats off to those guys. We just had to disguise it more, and it started paying off after a while."

Freshman Cedric Woods came up with two huge defensive plays in the final quarter. The first was a break up of what appeared to be a long TD pass when he recovered from getting beat off the line. Woods then added his first career interception on another long pass play with 6:00 minutes remaining in the game.

"It was great play by him breaking it up," said Holtz. "I was a little flustered that the guy was behind us, and I'm a little thankful that the ball was underthrown, but I thought he made a great play on it by catching up and batting the ball away. That was a huge play in the game.

"And then the interception near the end of the game, I believe we only had one turnover tonight and it just happened to be the true freshman. I was certainly grateful that Cedric was able to come up with the play he did there at the end of the game."

MARSHALL 35
LOUISIANA TECH 17

JOE AILLET STADIUM • RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. – Brenden Knox rushed for 125 yards and scored two touchdowns to lead Marshall to a 35-17 win over Louisiana Tech before 7,140 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

The difference in the game was on third down as Marshall converted 13 of 16 while controlling the clock for over 35 minutes while the Bulldogs managed to convert just 1-of-10.

"They have a really good football team," said LA Tech coach Skip Holtz. "I was proud of the way the defense competed, but we've got to clean up the mistakes. But, if you look at this game, our woes are on offense."

Tech rushed 24 times in the game for a total of seven yards and allowed six quarterback sacks.

"We can't run the ball, and we can't protect our quarterback," said Holtz. "Tonight and last week are two poor performances, and we're not a very good offensive football team right now. That starts with me. I have to do a better job."

The Bulldogs defense played well enough to give itself a chance, but the inability to get stops on third down proved costly.

Knox was a workhorse for the Thundering Herd, totaling the 125 yards on the ground on 32 rush attempts. He also added one catch for 13 yards. The 32 carries were the most by an opposing running back since Anthony Wales (WKU) toted the ball 36 times against the Bulldogs in the 2016 Conference USA championship game.

When Knox wasn't controlling the clock on the ground, redshirt freshman quarterback Grant Wells was highly efficient through the air. Wells completed 19-of-24 passes for 227 yards and two TDs and ran six times for 27 yards and another score.

"He threw the ball very efficiently tonight," said Holtz. "They were 13-of-16 on third down tonight. He was very efficient. If you've got to get all your secondary involved to stop the zone schemes, (it's not good). They were very efficient on third down.

"We've got to get more pressure on the quarterback. We gave up the last touchdown in three deep. We're trying to make it as simple as we can. Before you can start to go after quarterbacks, you've got to be confident that you can cover."

In a game that was decided by three scores, it was the final sequence of the first half that changed the momentum of the night. With Marshall leading 14-3, Tech drove the ball 78 yards on 12 plays over the final 1:57.

Facing a second and goal on the one-yard line with just six seconds remaining and no timeouts, the Bulldogs opted to run a smash play for Justin Henderson. The Thundering Herd defense – which tallied nine tackles for loss in the game – stuffed the play as the final seconds ticked off the clock and Marshall took an 11-point advantage and the momentum into the locker room.

A Knox 7-yard TD run midway through the third quarter upped the Marshall advantage to 21-3 before Luke Anthony connected with Adrian Hardy for a 12-yard completion for a score to cut the deficit to 21-10. Hardy led the Tech receivers with nine receptions for 102 yards and one score.

After Marshall added two more TDs, Aaron Allen hit Isaiah Graham with a 9-yard scoring strike with 36 seconds remaining to close out the scoring.

Linebacker Trey Baldwin had a career night, recording 16 tackles in the contest while Tyler Grubbs added nine tackles and Maki Carabin chipped in with eight tackles.

ALAMODOME • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – Sincere McCormick rushed for 165 yards and three touchdowns to lead UTSA to a 27-26 come-from-behind win over Louisiana Tech Saturday night in Conference USA action at the Alamodome.

LA Tech (3-3, 2-2- C-USA) held McCormick, the nation's leading rusher, in check over the first two quarters as the Bulldogs took a 19-6 lead into the halftime locker room. McCormick ran for just 30 yards on 12 carries over the opening 30 minutes before finding a groove in the second half.

The Bulldogs managed four Jacob Barnes field goals and a TD reception by Jacob Adams to build the halftime lead, while the Tech defense stood tall – allowing just two first half field goals by the Roadrunners (4-3, 3-2).

"I thought the first half we played a good football game," said Tech head coach Skip Holtz. "We were able to run the ball, we were efficient. We weren't very good in the red zone, but I thought offensively we moved the ball and defensively we were playing stout. It looked really good at halftime."

The second half proved to be a different ball game. Tech struggled offensively in the third and fourth quarters, totaling just 55 yards on 23 offensive snaps.

"I give UTSA a lot of credit," said Holtz. "They created more pressure and moved their d-line more to take away the running game. I know we didn't handle their adjustments very well. We as coaches need to take responsibility. We have to do a better job. We have not handled the pressure very well."

After UTSA cut the Tech lead to 19-13 following the opening drive on the third quarter, the Tech defense responded. Ezekiel Barnett intercepted a Frank Harris pass and raced 60 yards to paydirt as the Bulldogs pushed the advantage back out to 26-13.

The fourth quarter proved to be the difference as McCormick and the Roadrunners capitalized on a pair of huge plays. Harris completed a 54-yard pass to Ogle Kellog to set up a 6-yard McCormick TD run that closed the gap to 26-20.

After Tech was unable to move the football and was forced to punt, UTSA took over on its 20 and promptly marched 80 yards on seven plays and took a lead on McCormick's 45-yard run to paydirt on a third down and two play. The extra point gave the Roadrunners a 27-26 lead with 6:16 to play.

Tech got to more offensive opportunities. But the Bulldogs simply couldn't move the football as an interception inside a minute to play sealed the win for UTSA.

"We have been really good in the red zone so far this year," said Holtz "We ran the ball well in the first half, but there weren't a lot of big plays in the running game. We did not execute very well as a team in the second half.

"UTSA hung in there and fought, but this game was about us. It was about us executing what we are trying to do. I know we are inexperienced and young at some positions, but at this point in the season we have to be able to execute. We have to do a better job getting the ball into our wide receivers hands."

Trey Baldwin led Tech defensively with a career-high 18 tackles and an interception while Tyler Grubbs added 12 tackles.

UAB		34

JOE AILLET STADIUM • RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. – Halloween. Full moon. Bulldogs and Blazers.

It was a Conference USA match-up that had all the ingredients to be one for the ages. And it was.

Jacob Barnes 35-yard field goal in the second overtime period lifted Louisiana Tech to a 37-34 victory over UAB before 7,141 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

In a game that kicked off in the light of the day, the sun had set on both the day and the Blazers by the time Barnes' kick sailed through the uprights,

It took a late come-from-behind rally by Tech (4-3, 3-2 C-USA) to send the contest into overtime where neither team could find the endzone. But the Bulldogs defense, which played its own version of trick or treat on the Tech Faithful during the 4-plus hour affair, came up big.

After each team traded field goals in the first OT period, UAB got possession of the football to start the second overtime and immediately connected on a 22-yard pass to the Tech 3-yard line. On the ensuing play, UAB running back Spencer Brown found himself in a rugby scrum around the goal line before being stripped of the football by Tech safety BeeJay Williamson.

Zach Hannibal recovered the loose football, seemingly giving the Bulldogs possession. However, as on par for most of the night, instant replay came into play and after a lengthy delay, the call on the field was confirmed.

Tech ran three plays, setting up Barnes' game-winning attempt. Simple enough? Not on Halloween night.

Barnes' 38-yard attempt sailed right as the Blazers sideline erupted. But a running into the kicker penalty – dropped after the play had ended but that was confirmed by video evidence – gave Tech a first down.

Three more running plays by the Bulldogs and Barnes had a second chance. This time the true freshman split the uprights from 35-yards away and it was the Tech sideline's turn to celebrate, the Bulldogs snapping a three-game losing streak against UAB.

For the second straight week, Tech's offense controlled the opening two quarters but ultimately struggled to find paydirt. The first three offensive possessions of the night saw the Bulldogs drive deep into Blazers territory, including twice inside the 10-yard line. But the only points Tech could muster came on a Barnes 27-yard field goal.

It appeared Tech had taken a 10-0 lead on its second drive – following Bee Jay Williamson's first of two interceptions and ultimate return to the UAB 3-yard line. On first down, Luke Anthony appeared to hit Adrian Hardy for a TD but the official ruled the pass incomplete. Instant replay took its turn – the first of many on the night – and the officials ultimately confirmed the call. Tech would eventually go for it on fourth and goal from the two but came up empty.

Although the Bulldog defense surrendered 338 yards on the ground, it came up with big play after big play all night long. Williamson's second interception of the night provided the game's first TD.

The sophomore picked Blazers QB Bryson Lucero for a second time on the Tech 17-yard line, and after a three-yard return, pitched it to Khalil Ladler who then raced 80 yards untouched for a 10-0 Tech lead.

UAB started to find its running game in the second quarter. DeWayne McBride raced 75 yards for the Blazers first score and then Brown gave UAB its first lead on a 6-yard scamper with 1:42 to play before half. Brown's TD run was reviewed when it appeared he had fumbled through the end zone, but instant replay couldn't overturn it on the angles.

Tech answered on an 18-yard Luke Anthony to Adrian Hardy pass with 19 seconds to play before the half as the Bulldogs appeared poised to take the momentum and the lead into the locker room. However, UAB returned the kickoff to its own 47. Following a nine-yard completion that gave the Blazers the ball on the Tech 44, UAB threw a Hail Mary to the near pylon that was ruled a TD catch initially.

However, instant replay over-ruled it as the Blazers receiver's foot was just out of bounds on the catch. Tech led 17-14 at the break.

UAB dominated the third quarter of play, outscoring Tech 17-0 during the stanza. McBride – who rushed for 133 yards on 13 carries – scored on a 22-yard run and Brown – who rushed for 140 yards on 29 carries – followed with a 10-yard run. Matt Quinn added a 45-yard FG and the Blazers built a 31-17 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Tech responded.

The Bulldogs defense came back to life, holding UAB to only 30 total yards on 15 offensive plays in the frame.

Meanwhile, Aaron Allen rejuvenated the Tech offense. Allen completed 10-of-14 passes for 125 yards and two scores, including the game-tying TD to Hardy from 24-yards out with 10 seconds to play in the game.

Allen finished the game by completing 18-of-26 passes for 191 yards and two scores while Hardy led the Tech receivers with seven receptions for 101 yards and two TDs.

Both teams traded field goals in the opening overtime period as Barnes connected from 36-yards away while Quinn hit from 42-yards out.

The Bulldog offensive line played its most complete game of the season, not surrendering a sack despite 46 passing plays in the game.

And in the end, the Bulldogs provided plenty of treats for their fans -- and a few tricks for the Blazers -- in their biggest win of an already spooky season.

NORTH TEXAS 31

APOGEE STADIUM • DENTON, TEXAS

DENTON, Texas – Louisiana Tech's Israel Tucker had fresh legs entering Thursday night's Conference USA match-up against North Texas.

Good thing.

After almost a full month with no football due to cancellations and postponements, Tucker rushed a career-high 37 times for 161 yards and two scores to lead the Bulldogs to a 42-31 win over North Texas Thursday evening at Apogee Stadium.

Tech (5-3, 4-2 C-USA) improved to 12-7 all-time against the Mean Green (3-5, 2-4), including seven wins in eight tries in Denton.

"It's been a long time since we got out on the field," said Tech Head Coach Skip Holtz. "I know our players were excited to be back out here. It has taken a lot out of us when games kept getting canceled. I was a little worried about rust, but I wasn't worried about the team competing. I thought we played physical, and I thought we played hard."

Tucker became the first Bulldog since Lennon Creer (32 times vs. UCA, 2011) to tote the ball at least 30 times. The 37 carries are the fourth most in program history and the most since Ryan Moats' 38 vs. Hawaii in 2004.

"We knew the running backs would have to play a huge role," said Holtz. "With two new tackles, it seemed like every time we dropped back to pass we were getting hit. How about Izzy Tucker. What he was able to do tonight with 37 carries and 161 yards. I couldn't be more proud of him and the effort he put forth. Izzy got his opportunity and he made the most of it."

Although Tucker was the focus of the Tech offensive game plan, he had plenty of help from his supporting cast. Tech was perfect in the red zone, going 6-for-6 with six touchdowns including two by Smoke Harris (one rush, one reception).

The Bulldogs defense would not be outdone. It started the night with an Ezekiel Barnett interception on the first NT possession of the night and ended it with a fourth down stop, the third of the night for Tech. The Bulldogs also tied their season high with four sacks in the win.

Harris got Tech on the scoreboard early, capping a 7-play, 55-yard drive that took 2:17 minutes as the Bulldogs led 7-0 with 10:25 to play in the opening quarter.

North Texas took its only lead of the night with back-to-back touchdowns, including a DeAndre Torrey 1-yard run with 4:45 to play in the first quarter. The Mean Green led 14-7.

Tech answered with a strong second quarter, outscoring the Mean Green 21-3 to take a 28-17 lead into the halftime locker room. Greg Garner tied the game on a 1-yard plunge and then Tucker gave the Bulldogs the lead with a two-yard run with 7:40 to play.

Following a NT field goal, Tech mounted a time consuming drive and scored when Luke Anthony hit Kyle Maxwell with a 5-yard TD with only 13 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Jacob Barnes's extra point – one of six on the night – gave the Bulldogs the 11-point halftime lead.

The Bulldogs came out and increased its lead early in the third quarter on Harris' 6-yard TD reception from Anthony. Tech led 35-17.

After NT cut the lead to 35-24, Tech mounted another strong drive capped by Tucker's second score of the night.

Jaelon Darden caught his third TD of the night early in the fourth quarter, but that was it for the scoring as the Bulldogs defense held the Mean Green scoreless the rest of the night.

Anthony completed 13-of-20 passes for 110 yards, two scores and one interception while Aaron Allen completed 6-of-11 passes for 48 yards.

LOUISISNA TECH 10
TCU 52

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

FORT WORTH, Texas – TCU running backs Zach Evans and Kendre Miller combined for four of the team's six rushing touchdowns as the Horned Frogs ran past Louisiana Tech 52-10 at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

After LA Tech forced TCU to settle for just three points on its first two red zone possessions, TCU quarterback Max Duggan punched it in from 5 yards out to give the Horned Frogs a 10-0 lead. TCU added three touchdowns in the second quarter to extend its lead to 31-0 heading into halftime.

The Bulldogs (5-4) scored 10 of the game's final 17 points. After long snapper Reeves Blankenship recovered a muffed punt earlier in the drive, Jacob Barnes got LA Tech on the board with a 34-yard field goal with 5:48 remaining in the third quarter. The freshman moved to 11-for-13 on the season as his third-quarter try sailed through the uprights.

Quarterback Luke Anthony hit wide receiver Griffin Hebert for a 13-yard touchdown with 11:13 remaining in the fourth quarter. Hebert's third receiving touchdown of the season was his first since his game-winning TD grab at Southern Miss in Tech's season opener.

"It was a very uncharacteristic performance, and sometimes you get into these games and think you'll do well, but you press and you make some uncharacteristic mistakes," head coach Skip Holtz said. "We had seven penalties in the first half, and I believe our average starting field position was our 10-yard line where you thought you were starting in the shadow of your own end zone all night.

"We dropped a number of passes that were in our hands. We had two turnovers, and we gave up a lot of big plays defensively. I give TCU a lot of credit. They're a very good football team, but this certainly wasn't our best effort."

Jaiden Cole and Tyler Grubbs denied the Horned Frogs a scoring chance on their first possession on a fourth-down stand inside Tech's 5-yard line, combining to drop TCU's Chase Curtis for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-2. The Bulldogs stood tall once again on the Horned Frogs' next possession, making TCU convert a 22-yard field goal attempt to take a 3-0 lead.

Following a Tech turnover, Duggan's rushing touchdown extended TCU's lead to 10-0 before a 76-yard pass from Duggan to wideout Quentin Johnston busted the game wide open early in the second quarter. Evans plunged it in from 4 yards out before Johnston recorded his second touchdown of the quarter on a 1-yard run to cap off a 21-point second quarter for the Horned Frogs.

Poor starting field position plagued the Bulldogs throughout the evening, starting all but one drive inside their own 30-yard line. LA Tech's first three drives of the game all came inside of the 10-yard line, which all eventually resulted in red zone opportunities for the Horned Frogs.

Tyler Grubbs paced the Bulldogs with nine tackles and 1.5 tackles for a loss. Five different Bulldogs recorded at least half a tackle for a loss or more in Saturday's contest, including Trey Baldwin, who finished with eight total stops and one tackle for a loss.

On offense, LA Tech converted all three of its fourth-down tries, moving to 16-for-18 on the pivotal down this season. Isaiah Graham led LA Tech with 44 receiving yards, while Anthony paced the Bulldogs with 161 yards passing and a touchdown.

R+L CARRIERS NEW ORLEANS BOWL • DECEMBER 23, 2020

LOUISIANA TECH	3
GEORGIA SOUTHERN	38

MB SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Louisiana Tech (5-5, 4-2 C-USA) saw its six-bowl game winning streak reach its end on Wednesday as the Bulldogs lost, 38-3, to Georgia Southern (8-5, 4-4 Sun Belt) at the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

"It certainly wasn't the way that we wanted to finish," head coach Skip Holtz said. "I was really proud of the way that the team competed. It would have been easy in a lopsided game in the way that it was for guys to throw their arms up or to lay down. I couldn't be more proud of the way the defense had continued to fight even with very little help from our offense."

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by freshman linebacker Tyler Grubbs and redshirt senior linebacker Trey Baldwin with 12 and 11 tackles, respectively. Two Bulldogs recorded a sack against Georgia Southern as redshirt sophomore defensive back BeeJay Williamson had a sack early in the third quarter and Grubbs registered a sack on a third-and-goal situation at the top of the fourth that would force an Eagles field goal.

Offensively, redshirt senior running back Israel Tucker set the Louisiana Tech bowl record for rushing yards with 123 yards on 20 carries. It marked the second time this season and in his career Tucker registered 100-plus rushing yards in a game.

Turnovers hurt the Bulldogs as Tech threw four interceptions, including three in the first four Tech possessions of the game. Georgia Southern was able to make the most of the turnovers as the Eagles scored on two possessions that followed an interception.

"In a game that you throw four interceptions, you're not going to win," Holtz said. "It's unfortunate that some of the mistakes were made early."

Georgia Southern opened the game with a 10-play scoring drive as redshirt senior quarterback Shai Werts rushed for a one-yard touchdown to take the early 7-0 lead. Though the Tech defense forced three-and-outs in the next two Georgia Southern possessions, the Louisiana Tech offense was unable to convert as the Bulldogs threw three interceptions in the opening four drives. Following one of the interceptions, Werts connected with sophomore wide receiver Khaleb Hood on a 65-yard touchdown pass to take the 14-0 lead early in the second quarter. The Eagles would extend the lead to 21-0 in the second period after a 37-yard rushing touchdown from Werts.

With less than a minute left in the half, the Eagles punted the ball to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Smoke Harris who returned it for a career-high 60 yards to the Georgia Southern 20 yard line. Harris' 60-yard punt return marked a Louisiana Tech bowl record. Redshirt freshman kicker/punter Jacob Barnes would go on to kick a 45-yard field goal, which was the second longest field goal by a Bulldog in Tech bowl history, to put Louisiana Tech on the board as the Bulldogs trailed, 21-3, heading into the break.

However, the Bulldogs unable to score again. Georgia Southern would score two more touchdowns and make a field goal to secure the 38-3 victory.

"Overall, they fought until the end," Holtz said. "I give Georgia Southern an awful lot of credit. It was a hard-fought game on both sides. It's just a painful way to finish a hard-fought season with everything everybody went through to make a COVID-19 2020 season work. You just wish there were no losers because so many people had to overcome so much just to have the opportunity to play the game."

Tech again had two quarterbacks see action on the field as redshirt sophomore quarterback Aaron Allen completed 10-of-24 passes for 41 yards and three interceptions. Freshman quarterback JD Head entered the game in the third quarter and went 9-of-14 for 78 yards and one interception.

"I was really proud of the way JD Head went in there and competed as a true freshman," Holtz said. "He's got some energy. He stood in there. He read. He did a really nice job. He had a bunch of drops, but he competed."

Tech is now 8-4-1 all-time in bowl games and 1-1 in New Orleans Bowl contests.

One of the main building blocks of success for a football program is stability in the coaching staff, and for over 50 years, Louisiana Tech had not only stability but incredible talent.

Joe Aillet remains the winningest football coach in Louisiana Tech history and was one of the most respected in the country during his 26-year coaching career with the Bulldogs. Aillet produced a record of 152-86-8 and won or shared 12 conference championships between 1940 and 1966. He served as Tech's athletic director for an additional four years.

A member of several national coaching halls of fame, Aillet was instrumental in forming the Louisiana High School Coaches Association in the 1930s and the Gulf States Conference in 1948.

Maxie Lambright replaced Aillet in 1967 and remained at Tech through 1978, producing a "Golden Era" of Bulldog football which included seven conference titles, three national championship seasons and two Division I bowl games. He produced 11 All-Americans and sent a dozen Bulldogs into the pros.

He also built the nation's longest college football winning streak at 23 games during 1973 and 1974.

Another building block at Louisiana Tech was Maxie Lambright. Lambright coached the 1972 Bulldogs to a 12-0 record as Louisiana Tech won the National Football Foundation national title with a 35-0 win over Tennessee Tech in the Grantland Rice Bowl. The following season, Lambright's Bulldogs claimed the Division II national title defeating Western Kentucky 34-0 in the championship game.

During his 12 years on the Tech sideline, Lambright amassed a mark of 95-36-2 while winning seven conference titles.

BULLDOG HISTORY

The names ring like a Who's Who in the National Football League: Terry Bradshaw, Pat Tilley, Roger Carr, Mike Barber, Fred Dean, Matt Stover, Willie Roaf, Doug Evans, Tim Rattay and Troy Edwards.

They are just a few of the many great players who have donned a Louisiana Tech Bulldog uniform over the past century, and their accomplishments at Tech are even more impressive.

Starting with its very first game in 1901, Louisiana Tech has become a household name in collegiate football circles.

And over the years Louisiana Tech has produced numerous conference titles, numerous all-American honors, numerous professional players and two national championship titles.

This year's players and coaches should only add to an already impressive resume.

Although so much emphasis is placed on the present, with 108 seasons of Tech football in the record books, it's important to remember so many great moments, so many great players and so many great coaches that have already made Tech's history on the gridiron successful.

From the very first team to last season's squad, Tech football can be described with three words: TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

1901: FIRST RECORDED INTERCOLLEGIATE FOOTBALL GAME

Louisiana Tech intercollegiate football history began with that 1901 season, as Edwin Barber — the first athletic coach employed by the young university — led the Bulldogs on the playing field.

And although records of some of the first years in Tech history are incomplete, Barber's team lost the only two games for which results do exist, falling to Louisiana State 57-0 and Arkansas 16-0. However, the Tech tradition had begun.

The November 1902 Industrialist, the first student publication at Tech, reported that Coach Frank Singleton led the second team to "a fairly successful season," although the record of that Bulldog squad is not known.

1904: FIRST RECORDED INTERCOLLEGIATE FOOTBALL WIN

Coach E.G. Pierce led the 1904 Bulldogs to the first recorded win in school history with a 6-0 victory against Louisiana State during a 1-3 season. The game not only marked the inaugural win in Tech history, but also the first shutout.

Tech's first winning season was posted in 1906 as Z.T. Young led the Bulldogs to a 2-1-3 record with wins over Ouachita Baptist and the Ruston Athletic Club.

The following season, Coach George Watkins and the Bulldogs registered a 9-1 mark, which is still the most wins by a first-year head coach in Tech history. During that season, Tech outscored its opponents 248-37, with the lone setback coming against Louisiana State.

It is not known where those first Bulldogs played their games, but beginning with the 1904 season, all Tech athletic events were held in an athletic park, with a grandstand, located next to Harper Hall and present-day Howard Auditorium.

1910: FIRST PERFECT SEASON (7-0)

During this decade of Bulldog football, Prince coached Tech for seven seasons, including the school's first perfect year in 1910 with a record of 7-0. Prince was the first coach at Tech to coach for multiple seasons, finishing his career with a record of 24-16-5.

His 1911 and 1915 teams also posted winning records, recording marks of 4-2-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

1916: FIRST RECORDED GAME AT INDEPENDENCE STADIUM

In 1916, Coach A. Flack took over for Prince, but the Bulldogs struggled, going 2-4 with wins over Ouachita and Northwestern State. V.S. Pugh took over the coaching duties in 1917 and led Tech to a 2-3 season.

However, Prince came back and coached Tech for one last season in 1919 as Tech lost to Henderson State and Northwestern State in the only two recorded games.

Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1925-1929)/None

Six different coaches led the Bulldogs of the 1920s as Tech posted a winning mark of 38-34-8 during the decade.

Coach R.F. Clark helped start the 1920s right for Tech fans as his two Bulldog teams registered winning records of 5-1 and 6-0 in1920 and 1921. After Clark's 1920 team lost the first game of the season 12-0 to Northwestern State, he proceeded to win 11 consecutive contests over the span of the next two years.

William Dietz picked up where Clark left off in 1922 and 1923 as the Dietz-led Bulldogs posted records of 5-1-1 and 6-2, including a 100-0 win over Clark College in 1922 and a 66-7 victory over Northwestern State in 1923.

After struggling through a 1-6-1 season in 1924 under Coach Phillip Arbuckle, Tech began its first athletic affiliation, becoming a member of the multi-state Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1925 under Coach R.C. Kenney.

Hugh Wilson coached the Bulldogs to a 5-2-2 record in 1926 and a 3-5 mark in 1927, a year that was highlighted by a game played against Mississippi College at Forsythe Park, the first intercollegiate football game played in Monroe.

1928: NEW FOOTBALL FIELD BUILT

Then, in the fall of 1928, a new Tech athletic field was built immediately adjoining the men's gymnasium on the current site of A.E. Phillips Laboratory School. The field was dedicated on Homecoming day Nov. 5, before the game with UL-Lafayette (UL-Lafayette won 45-6).

The nickname Bulldogs and school colors of red and blue were decided upon sometime during the early years of the university. However, T.J. "Cotton" and Henry Matthews, two Tech freshman brothers from Bossier City, donated Tech's first live bulldog in 1930.

On the playing field, Coach George Bohler led Tech into the 1930s as the Bulldogs posted a 3-6 season in 1930 before rebounding to record the school's third perfect season at 7-0 in 1931.

1935: 5,000 SEAT FOOTBALL STADIUM BUILT

In 1934, according to The Tech Talk, the Louisiana Legislature appropriated $25,000 for a concrete stadium to be built beginning in January 1935. The stadium seated 3,000, and wooden bleachers holding an additional 2,000 were built on the east side of the field.

Again, Tech — under the guidance of Coach L.P. McLane — and UL-Lafayette dedicated the facility as Tech won the game 25-0 on its way to an 8-1 season. It also marked the first night game played at Louisiana Tech.

1937: JOHNNY WYSS NAMED TECH'S FIRST ALL-AMERICAN

The 1937 season brought two more firsts for Louisiana Tech football as the school's first sellout came Sept. 17, 1937, in the season opener against Oklahoma City. Following a 6-3-2 season, Bulldog guard Johnny Wyss was named Tech's first All-American.

The 1939 season brought with it a new coach and a new conference as Ray Davis took over the Bulldog coaching duties, guiding Tech to a 5-6 mark in the school's first year as a member of the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

1940: JOE AILLET ERA BEGINS

It is no coincidence that the first 10 years of Joe Aillet's tenure as football coach at Tech was one of the winningest decades percentage-wise in Bulldog history.

1948: TECH JOINS GULF STATES CONFERENCE; GULF STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Aillet, who is still the school's winningest coach with 152 wins, took over in 1940 and promptly led the Bulldogs to four conference titles during the decade, three as a member of the Louisiana Collegiate Conference and one as a member of the Gulf States Conference which Tech joined in 1948.

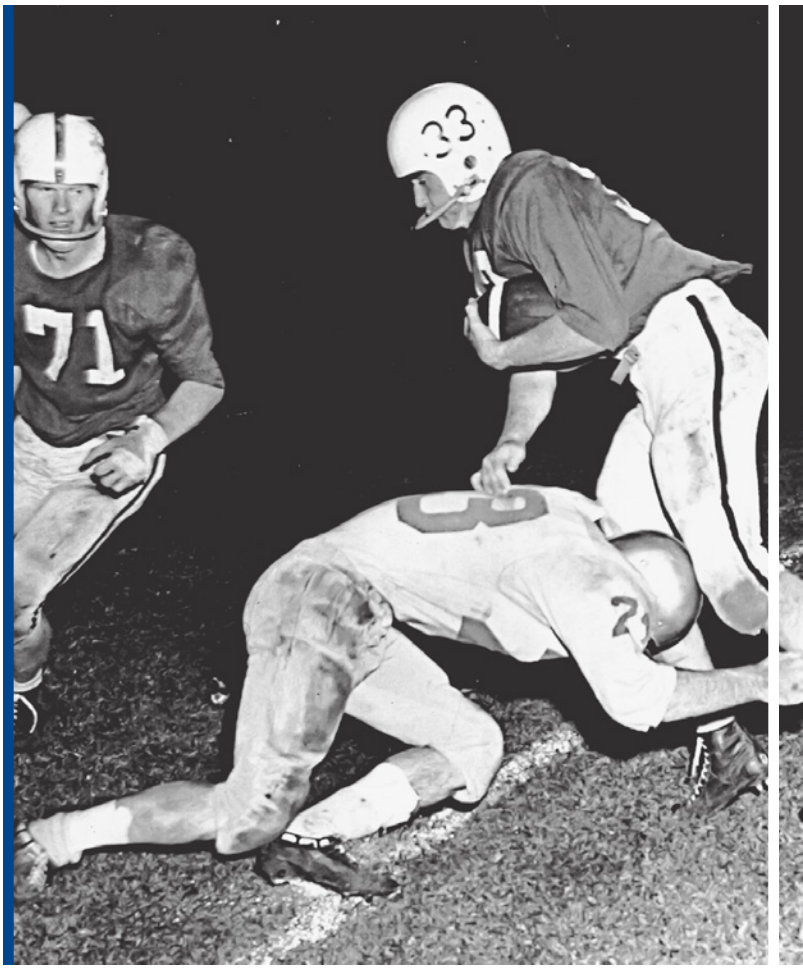

Aillet, who was instrumental in forming the GSC, was the first president of the league.

Tech also posted eight winning seasons during the nine years of football in the '40s (football was discontinued during 1943).

Aillet, who is a member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame as well as being a charter member of the Tech Athletic Hall of Fame, led Tech to a 6-4 record in 1940 before guiding the Bulldogs to the school's first conference title in 1941 with a mark of 5-4-1.

Tech also won the LCC title in 1945 (6-4) and 1947 (5-4), while capturing the GSC title in 1948 (7-2-1) and 1949 (7-2).

A number of All-Americans led the Bulldogs during the 1940s, including the likes of Jimmy Harrison (1949), Garland Gregory (1941), Mike Reed (1946, 1947) and Ed Stassi (1948).

Amazingly, Joe Aillet's second decade as the Bulldogs' head coach was more successful as his teams won an incredible 70 percent of their games during the 1950s while claiming six Gulf States Conference titles.

Tech registered 10 winning seasons during the 1950s, never losing more than four games in a year. Tech captured its first GSC title of the decade during 1952, when the Bulldogs went 6-1-2, including wins over Florida State and Memphis State.

Aillet also led Tech to Gulf States titles in 1953 (6-3), 1955 (9-1), 1957 (6-4), 1958 (7-3) and 1959 (9-1).

During the era, Tech had 33 players earn All-Gulf States Conference honors including the family foursome of Tommy (three times), Pat (twice), Bobby and Joe Hinton (twice).

Nine of Aillet's players were named All-American during the 1950s, including Charles Anderson, Gordon Brown, Joe Hinton, Pat Hinton, Tommy Hinton, Jerry Hudson, Russell Rainbolt, Leo Sanford and Jess Storts.

The 1960s saw plenty of change for Louisiana Tech late in the decade.

However, early on it was the same old winning ways for Joe Aillet and his Bulldogs as Tech opened the era with yet another Gulf States Conference title and an 8-2 record.

After recording marks of 5-4, 4-4 and 6-3 over the next three seasons, the Bulldogs captured another GSC title in 1964 with a 9-1 record. A 14-7 loss at the hands of Southern Mississippi kept the Bulldogs from obtaining the perfect record.

Following another 4-4 season in 1965, the change began. Aillet's 1966 squad, his last at Tech, fell to 1-9, breaking a streak of 21 consecutive years of non-losing seasons under the Tech legend. Aillet's 26-year tenure as the Bulldogs head coach was over after 152 wins and 12 conference titles.

1967: MAXIE LAMBRIGHT ERA BEGINS

In 1967, Tech hired Maxie Lambright to take over the duties and after posting a 3-7 record in his first season, the Bulldogs resumed their winning ways in 1968 with a 9-2 record, thanks in large part to a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw.

1968: FIRST GAME PLAYED IN JOE AILLET STADIUM

During the 1968 season, the Bulldogs also moved into a new home, the 23,000-seat present-day facility named Tech Stadium, which was renamed Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, in memory of the Tech coach who had passed away the previous year.

Lambright, Bradshaw and the Bulldogs ended the decade claiming the 1969 Gulf States Conference title with an 8-2 mark, the school's last GSC championship.

Forty-eight Bulldogs earned All-Gulf States Conference honors during the 1960s, while Bradshaw, Tom Causey, Jerry Griffin, Joe Hinton, John Williamson, and Mickey Slaughter all earned All-American honors.

1969: GRANTLAND RICE BOWL APPEARANCE

Bradshaw was selected as the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft following his 1969 senior year.

It could easily be said that the 1970s was the premier decade in the long history of Louisiana Tech football.

1971: PIONEER BOWL APPEARANCE

After opening the era with a 2-8 mark in 1970, Lambright guided the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and a conference title in 1971, Tech's first season as a member of the newly formed Southland Conference. However, that was just the beginning.

1972: GRANTLAND RICE BOWL APPEARANCE

The next three seasons are considered the greatest three-year stretch in Tech football history. Lambright led the 1972 team to a perfect 12-0 record, and the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 in the Grantland Rice Bowl to claim Co-National Champion honors along with Delaware as chosen by the National Football Foundation.

1973: CAMELLIA BOWL APPEARANCE

The 1973 team would not be outdone, as Lambright and the Bulldogs finished the season 12-1 and defeated Western Kentucky 34-0 in the Division II National Championship game in Sacramento, Calif.

1974: PIONEER BOWL APPEARANCE

Finally, the 1974 team made it three in a row by winning the United Press International College Division National Championship despite losing to Central Michigan, 35-14, in a Division II national semifinal game.

1977: INDEPENDENCE BOWL APPEARANCE

The following season, Tech joined the Division I ranks for the first time, and two years later, the Bulldogs played in their first bowl game, defeating highly favored Louisville, 24-14, in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

1978: INDEPENDENCE BOWL APPEARANCE

Tech made a return trip to the Independence Bowl in 1978 but was defeated by East Carolina, 35-13. The loss marked the end of another era at Tech, as Maxie Lambright retired from his 12-year coaching career with a 95-36-2 record, trailing only Aillet in number of victories as Tech football coach.

Larry Beightol was hired in 1979 and led Tech to a 3-8 record in his only season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

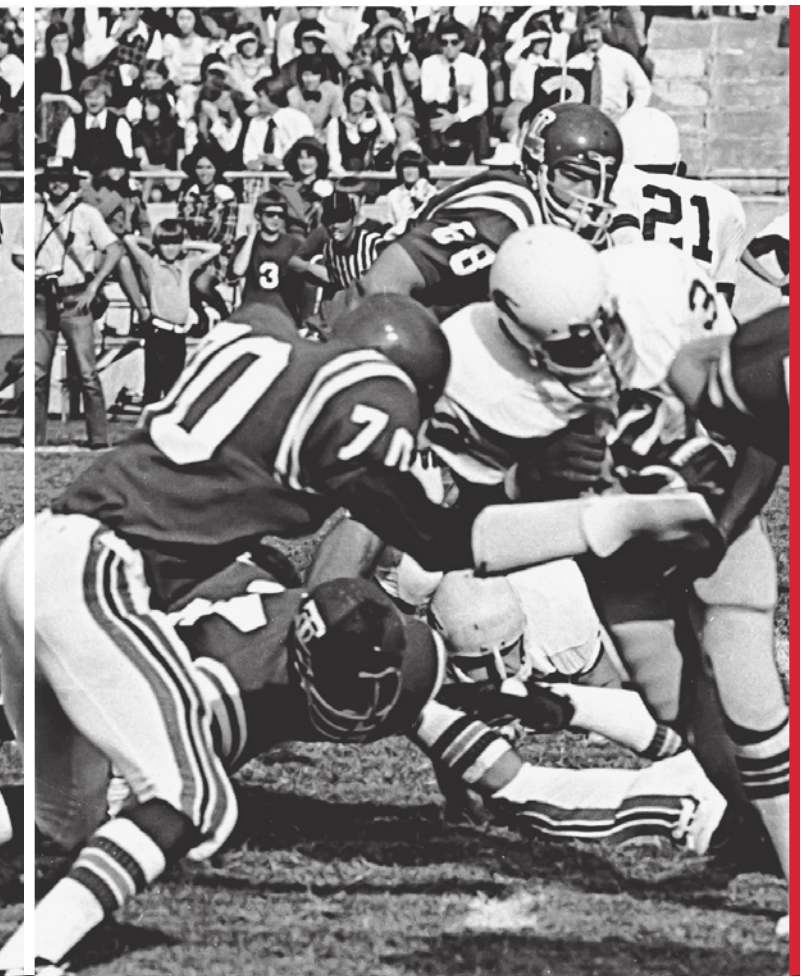

With the success Tech had during the 1970s, it is no wonder the Bulldogs had 66 players earn all-conference accolades, while the likes of Ron Alexander, Larry Anderson, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Ken Lantrip, Ardis McCann, Charles McDaniel, Joe McNeely, Chris Richardson and Billy Ryckman earned All-American honors.

The 1980s proved to be a turning point for Louisiana Tech football as the university made the decision to move up to Division I-A status starting in 1989.

However, the '80s started slowly with two straight losing seasons under new head coach Billy Brewer (5-6 in 1980 and 4-6-1 in 1981). However, Brewer's third and last season was much more successful as the Bulldogs posted a 10-3 record and won the Southland Conference title in 1982, after being reclassified into Division I-AA.

The Bulldogs, led by quarterback Matt Dunigan, won their first-round playoff game before falling to Delaware 17-0 on a rainsoaked afternoon at Joe Aillet Stadium.

A.L. Williams took over the coaching reins in 1983 and after a sub-par first year (4-7), Williams guided Tech to the Division I-AA National Championship game in 1984.

After winning the Southland Conference title, Tech defeated Mississippi Valley State and Jerry Rice, No. 1 Alcorn State and Middle Tennessee before losing to Montana State 19-6 in Charleston, S.C., in the national championship game.

1987: TECH BEGINS ITS MOVE TO I-A

Tech played in the Southland Conference for the final time during the 1986 season as university President F. Jay Taylor's goal was to leave what he called "mandated mediocrity" — Division I-AA. The Bulldogs competed as a Division I-AA independent in 1987 and 1988 during the "Movin' Up" campaign.

During those two seasons, the Bulldogs fought an uphill battle, playing road games against the likes of Baylor, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Houston, Wyoming, Kansas State, Southern Mississippi and Florida State in an effort to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Another 6,000 seats were added to Joe Aillet Stadium as part of meeting those same requirements to move up to the next level.

1989: TECH GAINS I-A STATUS

Finally on Jan. 20, 1989, the call came from the NCAA, and at the football banquet that evening, the official acceptance into Division I-A football was announced by Tech President Dan Reneau. Tech officially began competing in the NCAA's highest classification with the 1989 season opener at UL-Lafayette, a contest the Bulldogs won 40-14 on their way to a 5-4-1 record.

On Oct. 4, 1989, the Spirit of 1988, a bronze Bulldog statue guarding the south entrance to Aillet Stadium, was unveiled to commemorate head coach Joe Raymond Peace's Tech team of 1988, which endured the brutal schedule in order to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

1990: INDEPENDENCE BOWL APPEARANCE

Louisiana Tech football opened and closed the 1990s with a bang as the 1990 Bulldog team earned an Independence Bowl berth while the 1999 team earned the school's first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking.

The 1990s also proved to be the decade for quarterbacks at Tech as the program produced two of the top signal callers in Bulldog history in Jason Martin and Tim Rattay.

Coach Joe Raymond Peace led the 1990 Bulldogs, in only the school's second year as Division I-A Independent, to an 8-3 record during the regular season and an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The Bulldogs tied Maryland 34-34 in front of over 48,000 fans in one of the most exciting bowl games of the year.

1993: TECH JOINS BIG WEST CONFERENCE

The following season, the Peace-led Bulldogs dropped the opening game and then proceeded to win eight and tie two the rest of the year. After a 5-6 season in 1992, Tech joined the Big West Conference in an effort to help scheduling and secure a bowl tie.

However, the Bulldogs' three seasons in the conference never yielded much success as Peace's squads compiled a 10-23 mark from 1993-1995.

The 1996 season saw a number of changes and much more success as Tech once again joined the ranks of Division I-A Independents and offensive coordinator Gary Crowton was hired as head coach.

Crowton, who was known for his great offensive mind and wide-open passing attack, molded quarterbacks Jason Martin and Tim Rattay into two of the nation's total offense leaders.

In 1996, Crowton guided Tech to a 6-5 season, including a 38-23 win at Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, while Martin had 3,360 yards and 32 touchdowns. It was just a sign of things to come.

The following season, Tech posted a 9-2 mark with wins at Alabama and against California, while sophomore quarterback Tim Rattay led the nation in total offense, passing for 3,881 yards and 34 touchdowns.

Rattay shattered his Tech records the following season, passing for 4,943 yards and 46 scores while leading the Bulldogs to a 6-6 record. Rattay's main target was wide receiver Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 touchdowns, the latter two marks setting new NCAA records.

In a nationally televised game against defending National Champion Nebraska to open the season, Rattay and Edwards showed a preview of what Tech fans had to look forward to as Rattay passed for a school record 590 yards, while Edwards snared 21 passes for 405 yards, a new NCAA single game record.

After Crowton departed to the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1999, Tech Athletics Director Jim Oakes hired Jack Bicknell III as the 30th head coach in school history.

Bicknell led Tech to an 8-3 season, a 29-28 upset victory over eventual Southeastern Conference champion Alabama and the school's first Associated Press Top 25 ranking. Rattay finished his career ranked No. 2 in NCAA history in career passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes.

The 1999 season was made even more successful with an October announcement that the university would be making an allsports move to the Western Athletic Conference in the fall of 2001.

During the decade of the '90s, 54 Bulldog players earned all-conference honors, while Josh Bradley, Edwards, Marty Kent, Rattay, William Roaf, Bobby Slaughter and Willie Smith were named All-Americans.

Louisiana Tech finished its last season as a Division I-A Independent in 2000 with a 3-9 record. During the season, the Bulldogs played perennial powers such as Kansas State, Penn State, Auburn and Miami. Despite playing a difficult schedule, the Bulldogs were still one of the top offensive teams in the country, finishing 7th in the nation for passing offense.

2001: TECH JOINS WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE; HUMANITARIAN BOWL APPEARANCE

The Bulldogs made a splash in their new conference by going 7-1 in league play and claiming the 2001 WAC Championship. Louisiana Tech overcame an early conference loss to win its last six conference games to take the WAC title.

The championship earned the Bulldogs a berth in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since the 1990 Independence Bowl. Despite a 49-24 loss to Clemson in the Humanitarian Bowl, the season was still a success and proved that Louisiana Tech would be a foe to be reckoned within the Western Athletic Conference.

Tech began the 2002 season by defeating eventual Houston Bowl participant and Big 12 foe Oklahoma State to open the season in a thrilling last minute 39-36 contest. However, Tech's early non-conference schedule proved brutal with road losses to Clemson, No. 15 Penn State and No. 24 Texas A&M.

For the seventh straight season the Bulldogs ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing offense while senior running back Joe Smith earned first team All-WAC honors, becoming the first Tech player since 1994 to rush for over 1,000 yards.

The 2003 season started with a nationally televised home contest against defending national champion Miami at Independence Stadium in Shreveport as a Bulldog home record crowd of 43,279 witnessed the historic event.

And although the 2003 season didn't go as planned with Tech finishing 5-7, the Bulldogs did have plenty of bright moments topped by Tech's 20-19 come-from-behind road win over Michigan State, a team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking and eventually earned a spot in the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Individual highlights included senior kicker Josh Scobee becoming Louisiana Tech's second all-time scoring leader with 339 points. Senior quarterback Luke McCown finished his career ranked in the top 5 in NCAA Division I history in passing yards and total offense.

2004: TECH FACES TOP 25 SCHEDULE; PULLS UPSET OVER FRESNO STATE

Tough wouldn't describe Louisiana Tech's schedule in 2004 as the Bulldogs played seven games against eventual bowl-bound teams and six games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at one point of the season.

And although Tech's 6-6 record fell one game short of being bowl eligible, it was still an accomplishment.

The biggest moment of 2004 came in Tech's 28-21 win over No. 17 ranked Fresno State Oct. 2 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores and the Tech defense intercepted two passes late in the game to seal the victory.

Moats shattered the school record with 1,774 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns before declaring himself eligible for the 2005 NFL Draft (third round, Philadelphia Eagles).

2008: BULLDOGS CLAIM INDEPENDENCE BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

Louisiana Tech opened its season with a visit from Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, the first SEC team to ever come to Joe Aillet Stadium. And after the Mississippi-based Bulldogs left after a 22-14 LA Tech win, they might be the last for a while. The win marked the first win over an SEC team since 1999 when Tech topped eventual SEC champion Alabama 29-28 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways throughout the season, going 7-5 in the regular season and 5-3 in the WAC which was good enough for a second place finish. Included in the seven regular season wins was a 21-0 shutout victory at San Jose State, the first shutout by a Tech team since 1996 and the first road shutout since 1988.

Tech earned its first invite to a bowl game since 2001 as the Bulldogs received an invitation to play in the Independence Bowl against Northern Illinois.

Tech would capture the 2008 Independence Bowl title by virtue of a 17-10 victory over the Huskies, highlighted by a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Phillip Livas. The Bowl victory was the first bowl win for the Bulldogs since they won the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Running back Daniel Porter became the eighth Louisiana Tech running back to ever rush for over 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns in 2008. Tech also placed a program record seven players on the All- WAC team, led by first team members in Porter, Livas, defensive tackle D'Anthony Smith and safety Antonio Baker.

In 2009 Porter continued to showcase his rushing talents, becoming the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 rushing yards to his credit while Dennis Morris earned all-America honors and was named the College Football Performance Awards' National Tight End of the Year after leading the country in touchdown receptions among tight ends.

Louisiana Tech began the Sonny Dykes era with high hopes for a high octane offense. The engine finally shifted gears midway through Dykes first season with a high offensive output in six of the team's last seven games, including 683 total offensive yards against Idaho, then the fourth-most in school history.

2011: TECH WINS WAC TITLE; POINSETTIA BOWL APPEARANCE

The 2011 season had an ominous 1-4 start (losing the season opener in the midst of Tropical Storm Lee in Hattiesburg) but the team rallied off seven-consecutive wins – the most since 1974 – and finished the year winning the WAC title. Tech came within a possession of upsetting No. 15 TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl game to close the season. Sonny Dykes was named the WAC Coach of the Year, Adrien Cole was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Year and was one of 11 All-WAC honorees and the Bulldogs stunned the country in the midst of its winning streak with a 27-7 throttling of Ole Miss.

2012: TECH SETS OFFENSIVE RECORDS

Louisiana Tech's 2012 season was a year marked by national attention and record-shattering performances as the team finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense, scoring and net punting while Freshman All-American Kenneth Dixon broke three of Marshall Faulk's NCAA Freshman records. Punter Ryan Allen became the first punter to win back-to-back Ray Guy Awards and quarterback Colby Cameron won the 2012 Sammy Baugh Award. Tech reached as high as No. 18 in the rankings and finished the year 9-3 but, in its final season in the WAC, was left out of the postseason as the league only had one bowl tie-in and three bowl eligible teams.

2013: SKIP HOLTZ, C-USA ERA BEGINS

In early December of 2012, Sonny Dykes left Tech for Cal and the Bulldogs hired Skip Holtz to become the program's 33rd head coach and to guide the program into Conference USA.

A revamped roster ended up going 4-8 in 2013, the first C-USA victory coming on Oct. 5 in a 38-35 victory at UTEP.

2014: BULLDOGS WIN C-USA WEST DIVISION TITLE; DEFEAT ILLINOIS IN HEART OF DALLAS BOWL

Early blowout victories at UL-Lafayette and North Texas were a sign of things to come in the program's second year as a member of Conference USA. With grad transfer Cody Sokol under cener and star running back Kenneth Dixon in the back field, the Bulldogs reeled off five straight league wins and wrapped up the west division title with a 76-31 stomping over Rice inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

A late rally by Marshall in Huntington, W. Va. in the C-USA Championship propelled the Thundering Herd over the Bulldogs. However, the season was capped off by a 35-18 win over Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl, the program's first bowl victory since 2008.

And the bowl wins have continued ever since.

2015: NEW ORLEANS BOWL TITLE

With one of the most prolific offenses in school history, the 2015 team won the R+L New Orleans Bowl with a dominating 47-28 win over Arkansas State as running back Kenneth Dixon registered a short-lived NCAA record 87 career touchdowns (topped one week later by Navy's Keenan Reynolds). Dixon, quarterback Jeff Driskel and defensive tackle Vernon Butler all went in the 2016 NFL Draft with Butler going in the first round with the 30th overall pick to the Carolina Panthers.

2016: BULLDOGS CLAIM C-USA WEST DIVISION TITLE; WIN THIRD STRAIGHT BOWL GAME

Jonathan Barnes' 32-yard field goal as time expired gave Louisiana Tech its third consecutive bowl victory as the Bulldogs defeated No. 25 Navy, 48-45, in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas.

LA Tech took home four of the seven individual awards handed out by Conference USA in 2016, including Most Valuable Player (Ryan Higgins), Offensive Player of the Year (Carlos Henderson), Special Teams Player of the Year (Carlos Henderson) and Coach of the Year (Skip Holtz).

Higgins led the league in almost every statistical category while averaging 350.7 yards per game that ranked third in the FBS. His touchdown total tied for fifth nationally as well. Meanwhile, Henderson became the first player in C-USA history to win both Offensive and Special Teams Player of the Year since the league began sponsoring football in 1996. He ranked fourth nationally with 21 total touchdowns, including a league-high 17 receiving). As a kick returner, he had 22 returns for 668 yards (30.4 average), with two scores of 90 and 92 yards.

Holtz became the sixth different coach in LA Tech history to earn league coaching honors. The Bulldogs went 6-2 in coference play and won seven consecutive games to clinch the West Division title for the second time in three years. The offense ranked first in C-USA and third nationally in passing offense and fifth in the FBS in scoring, posting 44 or more points in seven of its wins.

2017: BULLDOGS MAKE IT FOUR IN A ROW

Needing two wins in the final two games of the regular season to become bowl eligible, LA Tech defeated UTEP on the road and then stifled UTSA at home. The result was an invitation to play in the inaugural 2017 DXL Frisco Bowl in Frisco, Texas against SMU.

The Bulldogs dominated the Mustangs in a lopsided 51-10 victory. The defense forced six turnovers, scored two touchdowns on interception returns and recorded four sacks. Cornerback Amik Robertson earned the Defensive Player of the Game award after totaling four tackles and returning a first quarter interception 45 yards for a score. He would end up being named to the FWAA Freshman All-American Team.

2018: LA TECH OVERPOWERS HAWAI'I FOR ANOTHER BOWL VICTORY

Jaylon Ferguson got the record and Louisiana Tech got the victory.

The star defensive end passed former Arizona State and NFL star Terrell Suggs as the NCAA all-time sack leader, guiding the Bulldogs to a 31-14 win against Hawai'i in the SoFi Hawai'i Bowl.

The All-American and C-USA Defensive Player of the Year recorded 2.5 sacks, ending his decorated career with 45 sacks. As a whole, the Bulldog defense totaled a Hawai'i Bowl record nine sacks and registered three interceptions, adding their fifth straight bowl trophy to the case.

2019: BULLDOGS REACH DOUBLE-DIGIT WINS; SHUTOUT MIAMI (FLA.) IN INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Louisiana Tech picked up its 10th win of the season with a 14-0 victory over Miami (Fla.) in the Walk-Ons Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

The Bulldogs recorded their first shutout since 2011 and it was the first ever shutout in Independence Bowl history as well as the only shutout of the 2019 bowl season.

The 10-win season was Tech's first since moving up to the FBS ranks in 1989 and the first since 1984 when the Bulldogs advanced to the FCS national title game.

J'Mar Smith, the C-USA Offensive Player of the Year, passed for a touchdown and ran for another to contribute to the Bulldog offense. Running back Justin Henderson carried the ball 22 times for 95 yards in route to being named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player.

Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz led Louisiana Tech to its seventh-straight bowl appearance at the 2020 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

2020: TECH COMPETES IN SEVENTH-STRAIGHT BOWL GAME

The Louisiana Tech football team ended its season with a 5-5 overall record, including a 4-2 finish in Conference USA play. Tech made its seventh straight bowl game appearance in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl against Georgia Southern (Dec. 23).

The Bulldogs had a combined 21 student-athletes represented on Conference USA's 2020 Football All-Conference Teams and quarterback Luke Anthony was selected as the C-USA Newcomer of the Year. Freshman linebacker Tyler Grubbs was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), ESPN and 247Sports.com, while junior defensive lineman Milton Williams was named a third team All-American by Pro Football Focus. Williams went on to be selected as the 73rd overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2021 NFL Draft.

R+L CARRIERS NEW ORLEANS BOWL • DECEMBER 23, 2020

GEORGIA SOUTHERN	38

MB SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Louisiana Tech (5-5, 4-2 C-USA) saw its six-bowl game winning streak reach its end on Wednesday as the Bulldogs lost, 38-3, to Georgia Southern (8-5, 4-4 Sun Belt) at the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

"It certainly wasn't the way that we wanted to finish," head coach Skip Holtz said. "I was really proud of the way that the team competed. It would have been easy in a lopsided game in the way that it was for guys to throw their arms up or to lay down. I couldn't be more proud of the way the defense had continued to fight even with very little help from our offense."

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by freshman linebacker Tyler Grubbs and redshirt senior linebacker Trey Baldwin with 12 and 11 tackles, respectively. Two Bulldogs recorded a sack against Georgia Southern as redshirt sophomore defensive back BeeJay Williamson had a sack early in the third quarter and Grubbs registered a sack on a third-and-goal situation at the top of the fourth that would force an Eagles field goal.

Offensively, redshirt senior running back Israel Tucker set the Louisiana Tech bowl record for rushing yards with 123 yards on 20 carries. It marked the second time this season and in his career Tucker registered 100-plus rushing yards in a game.

Turnovers hurt the Bulldogs as Tech threw four interceptions, including three in the first four Tech possessions of the game. Georgia Southern was able to make the most of the turnovers as the Eagles scored on two possessions that followed an interception.

"In a game that you throw four interceptions, you're not going to win," Holtz said. "It's unfortunate that some of the mistakes were made early."

Georgia Southern opened the game with a 10-play scoring drive as redshirt senior quarterback Shai Werts rushed for a one-yard touchdown to take the early 7-0 lead. Though the Tech defense forced three-and-outs in the next two Georgia Southern possessions, the Louisiana Tech offense was unable to convert as the Bulldogs threw three interceptions in the opening four drives. Following one of the interceptions, Werts connected with sophomore wide receiver Khaleb Hood on a 65-yard touchdown pass to take the 14-0 lead early in the second quarter. The Eagles would extend the lead to 21-0 in the second period after a 37-yard rushing touchdown from Werts.

With less than a minute left in the half, the Eagles punted the ball to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Smoke Harris who returned it for a career-high 60 yards to the Georgia Southern 20 yard line. Harris' 60-yard punt return marked a Louisiana Tech bowl record. Redshirt freshman kicker/punter Jacob Barnes would go on to kick a 45-yard field goal, which was the second longest field goal by a Bulldog in Tech bowl history, to put Louisiana Tech on the board as the Bulldogs trailed, 21-3, heading into the break.

However, the Bulldogs unable to score again. Georgia Southern would score two more touchdowns and make a field goal to secure the 38-3 victory.

"Overall, they fought until the end," Holtz said. "I give Georgia Southern an awful lot of credit. It was a hard-fought game on both sides. It's just a painful way to finish a hard-fought season with everything everybody went through to make a COVID-19 2020 season work. You just wish there were no losers because so many people had to overcome so much just to have the opportunity to play the game."

Tech again had two quarterbacks see action on the field as redshirt sophomore quarterback Aaron Allen completed 10-of-24 passes for 41 yards and three interceptions. Freshman quarterback JD Head entered the game in the third quarter and went 9-of-14 for 78 yards and one interception.

"I was really proud of the way JD Head went in there and competed as a true freshman," Holtz said. "He's got some energy. He stood in there. He read. He did a really nice job. He had a bunch of drops, but he competed."

Tech is now 8-4-1 all-time in bowl games and 1-1 in New Orleans Bowl contests.

2019 WALK ON'S INDEPENDENCE BOWL • DECEMBER 26, 2019

MAIMI (FLA.)	0

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Louisiana Tech picked up its 10th win over the year with a 14-0 victory over Miami before 33,129 fans in the Walk-Ons Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium Thursday evening.

Tech (10-3) recorded its first shutout since defeating New Mexico State 44-0 in 2011 and the first ever shutout in Independence Bowl history. It was also the first shutout by a non-Power 5 program over a Power 5 program in a bowl game in the BCS/CFP era (since 1998).

The 10-win season is Tech's first since it moved to the FBS ranks in 1989 and the first since 1984, when the Bulldogs advanced to the FCS national title game.

While the Tech offense sputtered at times against the Hurricanes talented defense, the Bulldogs defense saved its best performance of the year for Miami.

Tech, which won its sixth straight bowl game in the last six years, held the Hurricanes scoreless for 60 minutes, forcing nine punts and three turnovers in the game. Miami (6-7) never moved the ball inside the Tech 35-yard line in the game and totaled just 227 yards in the game.

After a scoreless opening quarter, Tech finally found the endzone early in the second quarter. On a first down and 10 play from the Hurricanes 26-yard line, J'Mar Smith avoided a sack and then lofted a pass to a wide open Israel Tucker who raced untouched down the Miami sideline for the score.

The play capped a 13-play, 91-yard drive that saw the Bulldogs convert three third down conversions. It was the most impressive drive of the night for either team.

The score remained 7-0 into the fourth quarter when the Bulldogs took over inside Miami territory after Darryl Lewis recovered a fumble on the Tech 40-yard line and returned it to the UM 30 on the final play of the third quarter.

Following a first down, Tech had a third down and nine from the Miami 18-yard line … with a chance to put points on the board and make it a two score game. However, a Smith screen pass was intercepted by Gilbert Frierson and returned to midfield.

Once again, the Tech defense came through. After allowing a first down to the Bulldogs 35, Tech forced the Hurricanes into a punt.

Miami had one final opportunity two possessions later. The Hurricanes drove to midfield before Aaron Roberson stepped in front of an N'Kosi Perry pass and returned the interception to the Bulldogs 44. With 3:22 to play and Tech leading 7-0, the Bulldogs offense put the game away, driving 56 yards on five plays and scoring on an 8-yard TD run by Smith with 1:15 to go in the game.

Justin Henderson was named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player after rushing for 95 yards on 22 carries. He became the 13th player in Tech history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing with 1,062 and 15 touchdowns.

Connor Taylor earned the games Most Outstanding Defensive Player, recording nine tackles and 1.5 sacks. Ezekiel Barnett also registered nine tackles and one sack while Trey Baldwin joined Roberson in the interception category, picking off a pass in the third quarter.

Tech is now 8-3-1 all-time in bowl games and 3-1-1 in Independence Bowl contests.

2018 SOFI HAWAI'I BOWL • DECEMBER 22, 2018

LOUISIANA TECH	31
HAWAI'I	14

ALOHA STADIUM • HONOLULU, HAWAI'I

HONOLULU, Hawai'i - Jaylon Ferguson got the record.

Louisiana Tech got the win.

On a night that saw Ferguson pass former Arizona State and NFL star Terrell Suggs as the NCAA all-time sack leader, Louisiana Tech defeated Hawai'i 31-14 in the SoFi Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium on Saturday night.

Ferguson recorded 2.5 sacks and the Bulldog defense totaled a Hawai'i Bowl record nine sacks and three interceptions while holding the high-powered Warriors offense in check all night long. The Bulldog All-American – named MVP of the game – ends his decorated collegiate career with 45 sacks, one more than Suggs, and coincidentally his jersey number.

Tech won its fifth bowl title in five years, adding another trophy to the case.

In a game that saw Tech trail 7-3 at the half after committing three first half turnovers, the Bulldogs came out and owned the third quarter, outscoring Hawai'i 21-0 and outgaining UH 210-53. Tech scored on three straight offensive possessions. While the Tech offense found its groove in the third quarter, it was – appropriately – a pair of defensive plays that sparked the rally.

After a failed fourth down play deep in Tech territory on the opening possession of the third quarter, Ferguson and the Bulldogs D stood tall. On a first down and 10 play from the Bulldogs 18, Ferguson tied Suggs for the NCAA record, teaming up with Jacorion Andrews for a sack of UH quarterback Chevan Cordeiro.

On the next play Jordan Baldwin stepped in front of a Cordeiro pass and returned it to the Tech 49 yard line, ending the UH threat. Following the interception, Tech drove 51 yards on three plays highlighted by a 41-yard pass from J'Mar Smith to Teddy Veal and capped by a 5-yard TD run by Israel Tucker. Bailey Hale's extra point gave Tech a 10-7 lead.

Ferguson wasn't the only Bulldog defensive lineman who had a field day on the Island. Willie Baker, who entered the game with two sacks on the season, recorded five tackles for loss, including four sacks for a Hawai'i Bowl record.

Leading by a field goal, Tech turned to Jaqwis Dancy on its next possession. After taking over on its eight yard line following a UH punt, Smith picked up a huge first down on a 25-yard scramble from the shadow of the Tech end zone. Back to back runs by Dancy picked up another first down and set up the second TD of the night. On a second down and 10, Dancy took a screen pass from Smith and raced 58 yards untouched to paydirt and a 17-7 Bulldog lead.

Tech's final score of the third quarter came via the legs of Smith. After a 54-yard hookup to Adrian Hardy took the ball down to the UH 7-yard line, Smith faked a handoff and ran four yards through the middle of the Hawai'i defense for the score.

The fourth quarter turned into the Amik Robertson Show. The sophomore all-conference corner fed off of the Hawai'i passing game, recording two interceptions off of UH quarterback Cole McDonald, equaling his total from the 12 regular season games.

Hawai'i added a TD with 6:14 to play following a blocked punt. McDonald drove UH 35 yards, 15 coming on a questionable defensive pass interference penalty, and finished the drive with a 7-yard scoring pass to Armstrong-Brown.

However, with the game still in doubt, the Tech special teams unit recovered an onside kick. The Bulldogs offense then sealed the victory as Kam McKnight took a third down handoff out of the full house backfield, ran off right tackle and went untouched for a 39-yard score with 3:45 remaining in the game.

The first two quarters of the game were far from explosive.

Hale gave Tech a 3-0 lead with a 24-yard field goal with 1:08 to play in the opening quarter, capping a nine-play, 44-yard drive.

The second quarter was one of turnovers for Tech as the Bulldogs committed three. Following a fumble by Hardy that UH recovered, the Warriors drove 71 yards on seven plays to grab a 7-3 lead on a 24-yard pass from Cordeiro to Jason-Matthew Sharsh.

Despite two more turnovers by Tech on its ensuing two possessions, UH wasn't able to add to its lead thanks to a stellar effort by the Bulldogs defense.

Offensively, Tech totaled 455 yards, including 285 through the air and 170 on the ground. Smith completed 19-of-31 passes for 285 yards and one score while Veal caught eight passes for 107 yards and Hardy added six catches for 93 yards.

Tech's defense held UH to only 226 yards and 2-of-14 on third down conversions.

2017 DXL FRISCO BOWL • DECEMBER 20, 2017

LOUISIANA TECH	51
SMU	10

TOYOTA STADIUM • FRISCO, TEXAS

FRISCO, Texas - Louisiana Tech entered its matchup against SMU in the DXL Frisco Bowl as a touchdown underdog as the Mustangs boasted one of the top offenses in the country.

The Mustangs met their match Wednesday night at Toyota Stadium. Namely, the Bulldogs defense.

Louisiana Tech's defense forced six turnovers, scored two touchdowns on interception returns and sacked SMU quarterback Ben Hicks four times to lead the Bulldogs to a lopsided 51-10 victory before 14,419 fans.

It marked the fourth straight bowl win for Louisiana Tech and left a savory taste in the mouths of Bulldog fans following a regular season that saw its share of sourness. The Bulldog senior class also recorded its 34th win in four years, the most by any LA Tech senior class since the program joined the FBS ranks in 1988.

Tech scored early and Tech scored often, building a 21-0 first quarter lead and a 42-10 halftime advantage. In its most complete game of the year, the Bulldogs saw contributions in every phase of the game as the Tech offense amassed 357 yards and the Bulldogs special teams added three field goals by Jonathan Barnes and a 65-yard kickoff return by Jaqwis Dancy in the first quarter.

Sophomore quarterback J'Mar Smith was named the offensive player of the game after throwing for 216 yards and three touchdowns. Smith completed 15-of-23 passes and also added a 1-yard rushing TD that gave Tech an early 7-0 lead.

Freshman defensive back Amik Robertson earned the Defensive Player of the Game Award. Robertson totaled four tackles, one tackle for loss and returned a first quarter interception 45-yards for a score, upping the Tech lead to 14-0.

Robertson and his fellow Bulldog defensive backs held a heralded trio of SMU receivers in check all night long. Trey Quinn, Courtland Sutton and James Proche entered the night with a combined 208 catches for just over 3,000 yards and 30 touchdowns.

However, the trio did little damage during the game. Quinn finished with eight catches for 45 yards and one score, Sutton added six catches for 68 yards and Proche was held without a reception.

Hicks also had a rough night behind center as he was constantly scrambling for his life. Tech blitzed time after time during the game, forcing Hicks to make quick throws resulting in three interceptions or getting the SMU signal caller to the ground. Hicks completed 19-of-34 passes for a season-low 127 yards and three interceptions. The previous low in passing yards for SMU this season was 218 in a loss to Memphis.

The first play of the game was a microcosm of the entire night. After receiving the opening kickoff, SMU running back Xavier Jones fumbled on the first play of the game and Bulldog defensive end Jaylon Ferguson recovered. Tech would stall out on offense and Barnes' 37-yard field goal attempt missed wide left as SMU dodged the first bullet.

It wouldn't matter.

SMU picked up a couple of first downs on the next possession before Scedrick Cooper interception Hicks and returned it 31 yards to the Mustangs 30 yard line. Nine plays later, Smith got into the endzone on a fourth down and 1 quarterback sneak and Barnes' extra point made it 7-0.

Robertson's pick six on SMU's next possession made it 14-0 Tech.

SMU's fourth drive results in a 25-yard field goal by Josh Williams. However, any momentum the Mustangs might have gained on the drive was doused with Dancy took the ensuing kickoff and galloped 65 yards to the SMU 26-yard line.

This time it took Tech four plays to cover 26 yards as Smith hit Teddy Veal on a quick pass, and Veal made two SMU defenders look silly on the six-yard TD. Barnes PAT upped the advantage to 21-3 and the route was on.

Tech added three more touchdowns in the second quarter. Darryl Lewis returned a Hicks interception 23 yards for a score. Veal then capped an impressive 5-play, 82-yard drive by the Bulldog offense with a 27-yard TD reception from Smith to up the lead to 35-3. Finally Kam McKnight made an acrobatic touchdown reception from 11 yards out following a fumble recovery by Russell Farris that set up the Bulldogs deep in SMU territory.

SMU added a 9-yard TD throw and catch from Hicks to Quinn with 15 seconds to play in the second quarter, but the Bulldogs took a comfortable 42-10 lead into the halftime locker room.

As impressive as the Tech defense was in the first half, it was even more dominating in the third and fourth quarters. After amassing just over 200 yards of offense in the first half, SMU totaled only 91 yards of total offense on 31 offensive plays in the second half as the Tech defense kept the Mustangs off the scoreboard.

With the lead, the Bulldog offense managed the clock in the second half. Senior running back Boston Scott chewed up yards and time as he finished the game with 110 yards rushing on 20 carries, giving him 1,047 yards for the season. Scott becomes the third Bulldog in the last four years to rush for over 1,000 yards and the 12th all-time.

Barnes contributed the only points by either team after halftime, hitting field goals of 28, 43 and 41-yards. The Baton Rouge native finished his Tech career with 462 points, second all-time and first among a host of NFL caliber Bulldog kickers.

Veal tied a season-high with 118 yards receiving on five catches and two touchdowns.

The 51 points were the most a LA Tech team has ever scored in a bowl game. Tech held SMU to 10 points, the fewest the Mustangs scored this season (the previous low was 22 against Houston).

2016 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL • DECEMBER 23, 2016

LOUISIANA TECH	48
#25 NAVY	45

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS

FORT WORTH, Texas - Jonathan Barnes' 32-yard field goal as time expired to give Louisiana Tech the storybook ending it deserved and clinched the Bulldogs' third consecutive bowl championship over No. 25 Navy Friday in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium in Fort Worth, Texas.

Tied 45-45 with under four minutes to play, the junior kicker's game-winning field goal capped off a wild back-and-forth affair between the Bulldogs and Midshipmen that ended up coming down to the final three seconds in the fourth quarter.

With the win, Louisiana Tech recorded its third straight 9-win season to end the 2016 campaign 9-5 overall. Navy fell to 9-5 on the year in the loss.

The two teams combined for nearly 1,000 yards Friday night in Fort Worth with the Bulldogs edging the Midshipmen with 497 yards of total offense.

"To come in here and beat a No. 25 team like Navy is big for our program," head coach Skip Holtz said. "It took us a while to get going offensively, and we had some sacks early, but Jarred Craft got our running game going and opened up the pass. This was a tremendous win, and everyone contributed. I'm proud of this team, and that was a really clutch kick to win it by Jonathan (Barnes) to get the win."

Ryan Higgins set new bowl records for completions as the senior ended the night 29-of-40 passing for 409 yards and four touchdowns through the air.

Trent Taylor earned Armed Forces Bowl MVP honors with 12 receptions for 233 receiving yards and two touchdowns. The senior receiver broke bowl records for receptions and receiving yards in a game on his way to leading LA Tech to a third straight bowl title.

In what ended up being the quickest start to a game in the history of the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Louisiana Tech's Carlos Henderson showed off his speed against No. 25 Navy on an 82-yard return on the opening kickoff and the Bulldogs never slowed down from that point.

Henderson's shifty return set up Ryan Higgins' quarterback keeper for a 7-0 lead for the Bulldogs in what became the fastest touchdown scored in bowl history less than 90 seconds into the game.

Henderson ended the night with 266 all-purpose yards with 129 receiving, 137 kick return yards and two touchdown receptions in the victory.

On Navy's first offensive possession, the Midshipmen gave Louisiana Tech an early Christmas gift by fumbling the football, which was recovered by Prince Sam to set up Jonathan Barnes' 22-yard field goal to extend LA Tech's lead to 10.

Midway through the first, the Midshipmen settled in and forced a LA Tech punt, which set up an 8-play, 55-yard drive by Navy to cut the lead the three with a 3-yard rushing touchdown by quarterback Zach Abey.

The Bulldogs responded on the next drive when Higgins had a hand in the second touchdown of the day for LA Tech with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Trent Taylor to put Tech up 17-7 over Navy with just 18 seconds left in the first quarter.

Navy had an answer on the first play of the second quarter as Abey completed a 64-yard touchdown pass to Darryl Bonner to cut the Midshipmen's deficit to 17-14.

The Midshipmen took their first lead of the game on the next drive thanks to Abey's efforts on the ground after a 30-yard rush, facemask penalty against the Bulldogs and then a 2-yard quarterback keeper gave Navy a 21-17 lead over LA Tech in the second.

Later in the first half, the Bulldog offense got its groove back a little bit with a 9-play, 65-yard drive that led to a 3-yard touchdown reception by Henderson to retake the lead over Navy, 24-21, midway through the second quarter of play.

After Navy tied it up at 24-24 thanks to a career-long 40-yard field goal by Barrett Moehring, Louisiana Tech answered with a 51-yard touchdown pass from Higgins to Taylor to send the Bulldogs into halftime with a 31-24 lead over the Midshipmen.

Navy opened the second half with a 14-play drive that took more than seven minutes off the clock and spanned 90 yards before knotting the game at 31-31 with a 24-yard rushing touchdown by Chris High.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, LA Tech drove 70 yards down the field on a drive that included a 41-yard reception by Taylor over the middle to set up Boston Scott's 12-yard rushing touchdown to give the Bulldogs a 38-31 lead over Navy.

Navy's Chris High tied the game, 38-38, midway through the fourth with a 9-yard touchdown run, his second of the game, but Carlos Henderson once again took the stage later in the quarter to give Louisiana Tech another lead.

With just over four minutes left in the game, Henderson caught his second touchdown of the night, both coming on fade routes on crucial third down conversions, to give the Bulldogs a 7-point lead in the final quarter.

Navy responded quickly with the game-tying touchdown, a 30-yard rushing score by Malcolm Perry to knot the game, 45-45, before LA Tech orchestrated a 9-play, 70-yard game-winning drive that took the final 3:40 off the clock.

2015 R+L CARRIERS NEW ORLEANS BOWL • DECEMBER 19, 2015

ARKANSAS STATE	28
LOUISIANA TECH	47

MERCEDES BENZ SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

NEW ORLEANS - Kenneth Dixon has always taken a team-first, me-last attitude. So it was fitting that on the series in which he set a new NCAA record for career touchdowns scored, the stitched numbers on his jersey were ripped off and he entered the end zone – and history – anonymously, at least visually.

Dixon scored four touchdowns total (two rushing, two receiving) and helped Louisiana Tech (9-4) set the fifth-most offensive yards in NCAA bowl history as the Bulldogs won the 2015 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, 47-28, over Arkansas State (9-4) late Saturday night at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

He would finish the game as No. 1, both in the record books and on his jersey as he wore teammate Carlos Henderson's number over the final quarter after Henderson left the game with a foot injury in the first quarter.

"That number is symbolic of his unselfish attitude," Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz said following the game. "It's incredibly symbolic; Kenneth Dixon gets just as excited when somebody else scores as when he does. He gets embarrassed talking about himself, he doesn't get embarrassed when he goes out on that field. He's an incredible talent, an incredible young man, you put them all together and he's pretty special."

For Louisiana Tech it was a game of breaking records. Dixon is now the NCAA's career touchdown scorer, LA Tech's 687 yards are the fifth-most of any bowl game in NCAA history and Tech set or tied 17 New Orleans Bowl records.

But as Dixon constantly preaches, it wasn't about him. It was about everyone else on his team.

It was about Jeff Driskel completing his redemption story by winning in the Superdome after losing in the Sugar Bowl in 2013. The Tech quarterback finished the year with 4,033 passing yards, ranking third in Louisiana Tech history, and set a new career-best performance with 458 passing yards.

It was about the Bulldogs making good on its week-long claim that "NOLA is Bulldog Country" with the dominating win, Tech's 10th straight over a Sun Belt Conference opponent.

And it was about the senior class becoming the school's winningest class in its Division I history by securing the 31st win, making good on a promise they made as freshmen to take the program to heights never seen before.

But as dominating as the win was, the game's outcome was in doubt for nearly three quarters.

The teams entered halftime knotted in a 17-17 tie and even traded field goals early in the second half. It took a 59-yard pass to Dixon from Driskel that pushed the Bulldogs ahead followed by Dixon running it in from eight yards out to secure the win and set the NCAA record.

Jonathan Barnes would kick a 28-yard field goal early in the fourth and Dixon would score once more as the 24 unanswered points proved to be more than Arkansas State could overcome.

Entering the week, turnovers were a key part of the game and critical in the pregame analysis. Deservedly so considering Arkansas State entered as the national leaders in interceptions and turnovers while Louisiana Tech committed seven turnovers in its last outing.

But it was the lack of turnovers that helped decide Saturday's outcome. Louisiana Tech did not commit a turnover while forcing three turnovers from the Red Wolves with two interceptions and a fumble.

"We talked to our football team about winning the turnover battle, and that's something that Arkansas State has done well," Holtz said.

Hardly lost in the Dixon and Driskel show was reliable receiver Trent Taylor's New Orleans Bowl record 149 receiving yards on 10 catches. His lone touchdown catch came early in the second quarter when Driskel found him alone in the back of the end zone as the A-State defense keyed in on Dixon.

Louisiana Tech's defense was its normal salty self with seven tackles for a loss of 21 yards, two forced fumbles and two interceptions. Beau Fitte led the team with seven total tackles while Vontarrius Dora registered two tackles for a loss of 12 yards.

Adairius Barnes made his 10th career interception while Xavier Woods tallied his ninth career interception.

With the win, Louisiana Tech joins Marshall as the only two Conference USA teams to record nine wins over the last two seasons.

2014 ZAXBY'S HEART OF DALLAS BOWL • DECEMBER 26, 2014

LOUISIANA TECH	35
ILLINOIS	18

COTTON BOWL STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS

DALLAS (AP) - Louisiana Tech's Houston Bates had a career day against his former team - his 4 1-2 sacks in the Heart of Dallas Bowl matched the number he had in three seasons at Illinois.

Bates, who graduated and transferred to finish his eligibility closer to home was chosen MVP of the game after the Bulldogs beat the Illini 35-18 on Friday.

"It wasn't Houston Bates vs. Illinois. It was Louisiana Tech vs. Illinois," Bates said.

Kenneth Dixon scored one of his two touchdowns on an 80-yard reception and Xavier Woods scored on a 69-yard interception. The Bulldogs (9-5) also got touchdown runs of 16 yards from Jarred Craft and 28 yards from Blake Martin on a dark, overcast day at the Cotton Bowl stadium.

Illinois (6-7) struggled early with penalties and missed field goals, but got within three points on David Reisner's 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarters. But Dixon scored his second TD from one yard out with six minutes left to make it 28-18 and the Illini couldn't answer.

Illinois appeared to have gotten a break when LaKeith Walls sacked Cody Sokol, causing him to fumble. Jihad Ward returned it 19 yards before Dixon forced a fumble and Sokol recovered. That drive was capped by Dixon's TD.

"The way the guys played, Kenneth and Cody and throughout the whole season, it's truly outstanding," Bates said. "It's something I'm going to live for the rest of my life. And if I die tomorrow, my life would be complete."

Tech coach Skip Holtz then asked Bates to skip the humble answer and say what it really meant to him to win.

"Unbelievable," Bates added with a huge smile.

"I know it's been an emotional week for him," Holtz said, "and I know it's been an emotional week to see him go out and do the things that he did."

Bates had an additional sack in the closing minutes negated when a teammate couldn't get off the field in time and the Bulldogs were penalized for having 12 players on the field.

Dixon became Louisiana Tech's career leader in yards rushing, finishing with 63 for a total of 3,410 in three seasons.

He is also the only FBS player with both a run and a reception of at least 80 yards this season.

Louisiana Tech went into the game tied for first place among FBS schools with 25 interceptions and first with 40 total turnovers forced. With Monday's two Illini turnovers, Tech converted turnovers into 198 points this season.

"I was just not giving up on the play," Dixon said. "I mean, he got the ball. He was running. I got behind him and just tried to do my best to get the ball back."

"I saw Kenneth coming and, what went through my head?" Holtz said. "`Get `im, Kenneth! Get `im! Get `im! Get `im!' And he got there. Great strip on the ball."

"That's the game of football to me," Illinois coach Tim Beckman said of the turnovers. "I think they've been very opportunistic in what they've done this year. We need to become that better, our defense. No question those were big, huge plays."

Tech led 21-9 lead at halftime after Reilly O'Toole's pass was returned for a touchdown by Woods midway through the second, but Illinois responded with a 3-yard scoring run by Donovonn Young. The 2-point conversion failed, though, but Reisner banked in a field goal to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 3.

O'Toole threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Jon Davis early in the second quarter. He was 24 of 39 for a season-high 295 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Taylor Zalewski kicked a 27-yard FG in the first quarter for Illinois, which committed eight first-half penalties for 53 yards and missed two field goals attempts and an extra point.

Sokol, who began his collegiate career in the Big Ten at Iowa, completed 14 of 28 passes for 247 yards and one touchdown.

On Woods' interception, the pass was thrown ahead of Dudek, whose uniform appeared to be held by Tech's Bryson Abraham just before Woods made the grab.

"Reilly threw the ball where I was supposed to be," Dudek said. "Which I probably would have been had I not been held, but the ref didn't call it."

#15 TCU	31

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

SAN DIEGO - Fifteenth-ranked TCU scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to complete a 31-24 come-from-behind victory over Louisiana Tech in the 2011 San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Wednesday night at Qualcomm Stadium.

With Tech (8-5) leading 24-17 midway through the fourth quarter, TCU running back Luke Shivers completed an impressive 18-play, 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge with 7:49 to play to tie the game at 24-24.

After a three-and-out by the Bulldog offense on its ensuing possession, TCU (11-2) took the lead on a 42-yard strike from Casey Pachall to Skye Dawson with 4:26 to play. The touchdown came on a third-down-and-five play where TCU caught the Bulldogs blitzing and the speedster Dawson beat the LA Tech secondary for the score.

Quarterback Colby Cameron and the Bulldog offense had one final opportunity but another three-and-out - the third of the second half - forced a Tech punt and TCU ran out the clock by grinding out two first downs via the ground.

The Bulldogs had the momentum in the opening two quarters as Matt Nelson's 23-yard field goal with 8:30 to play in the first quarter gave Tech a 3-0 lead. The score capped a 13-play, 65-yard drive by Tech which was highlighted by a 28-yard pass from Cameron to Quinton Patton that took the Bulldogs down to the TCU 12-yard line.

However, Tech was unable to get into the endzone on six plays inside the TCU red zone, forcing the field goal attempt.

Following a Hunter Lee fumble inside the TCU 35-yard line late in the first quarter, the Horned Frogs drove deep inside Tech territory and tied the game on a Ross Evans 25-yard field goal with 14:11 to play in the second quarter.

Tech countered immediately with a seven-play, 59-yard drive that was capped by Cameron's two-yard strike to Patton - a play that was initially ruled as an incompletion but that was overturned after instant replay. Nelson's extra point made it 10-3. The drive was highlighted by a 26-yard toss from Cameron to Taulib Ikharo that took the ball down to the TCU four-yard line.

The Bulldogs appeared to have all the momentum heading into half until TCU corner Greg McCoy intercepted a Cameron pass with just over two minutes to play and returned it to the LA Tech 25-yard line. Four plays later, Ed Wesley tied the game on a seven-yard run with only 55 seconds to play in the half.

The two teams entered the locker room tied despite the fact Tech ran 21 more offensive plays than the Horned Frogs and outgained TCU 266-144.

TCU took its first lead of the contest on their opening drive of the second half as Matthew Tucker scored from one-yard out, ending an 11-play, 55-yard drive.

Trailing 17-10, Tech was forced to punt on its next possession but the Bulldogs special teams came up big as Josh Cuthbert recovered a muffed punt by Brandon Carter inside the TCU red zone. Three plays later, Lee hit paydirt from two yards out and the game was tied again at 17-17.

After neither team was able to move the ball on their next possessions, the Bulldog defense came up with a turnover as Quinn Giles intercepted Paschall on the Tech 39-yard line. On a third-down-and 10 play, Cameron found Myles White deep over the middle for a 61-yard touchdown. Nelson's extra point was good as Tech regained the advantage 24-17.

TCU then put together the drive of the night, marching 72 yards on 18 plays and tying the game at 24 on a one-yard run by Shivers. The Horned Frogs recorded six first downs on the drive, converting two fourth down conversions and picking up a huge first down on a defensive pass interference call in the end zone on a third-down-and-goal at the nine.

The Horned Frogs dominated the time of possession in the second half, holding onto the football for 24 minutes and 10 seconds while running 52 offensive plays to LA Tech's 21.

Cameron finished the game completing 21-of-43 passes for 264 yards and two touchdowns with one interception while White (7-110, 1 TD) and Patton (5-67, 1 TD) were his top two targets. Lee rushed 20 times for 64 yards and one score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Jay Dudley (10 tackles, 1 TFL), Justin Goodman (9 tackles, 1.5 TFL) and Jamel Johnson (9 tackles).

Tech ends the season 8-5, the most wins by a Tech team since 1999. The Bulldogs also won their second Western Athletic Conference championship and participated in their second bowl game in the last four years.

2008 INDEPENDENCE BOWL • DECEMBER 28, 2008

LOUISIANA TECH	17
NORTHERN ILLINOIS	10

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.

It's no surprise that Louisiana Tech turned to its defense and special teams against Northern Illinois Sunday night at the 33rd Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium.

Those units were instrumental all season in leading head coach Derek Dooley and Co. to its first post-season appearance since 2001 and only its third since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989.

On Sunday night in Shreveport, once again, they came through leading Tech to a 17-10 win over the Huskies.

Phillip Livas, the offensive MVP of the game, got the game started for Tech with a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the first quarter and then the Bulldogs defense stiffened the rest of the way.

After allowing a NIU touchdown on only its second possession, the Tech defensive unit limited the Huskies to three points over the final three quarters of play.

Senior defensive back Weldon Brown, playing before a home crowd – Brown prepped at Bossier High School – , earned defensive MVP honors after recording a career-high 14 tackles, one fumble recovery, one interception and a key pass breakup on a NIU fourth down play early in the game.

Northern Illinois jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 8-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb with 1:56 to play in the first quarter. The play culminated an 11-play drive covering 69 yards in 1:56.

The lead was short-lived as "Saturday Night" Livas took the ensuing kickoff, ran straight up the middle before veering left towards the Bulldog sideline and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

It was Livas' second career kickoff return for a touchdown and the sixth longest in Bulldog history. Livas, who also has two punt returns for scores this season, now has four returns for scores in his career, the second most trailing only Larry Anderson with five.

The kickoff return was the second longest in Indy Bowl history and the first since Duece McAllister returned one for Ole Miss against Texas Tech in 1998.

After a three-and-out by NIU on its next possession, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead on an 11-yard Daniel Porter touchdown run with 13:41 to play in the second quarter. The touchdown, which came on a draw play on second and goal, capped a 5-play, 42-yard drive over 2:04.

After another three-and-out by NIU, Tech appeared to have threatened again when senior Patrick Jackson took a handoff and raced over 50 yards inside the Huskies 10-yard line but a holding penalty negated the play.

After a failed third down attempt brought up a fourth down and seven, Tech attempted a fake punt but Quin Harris was tackled a foot short of the line to gain as NIU took over on the Tech 46-yard line.

The game remained 14-7 but the Bulldogs had a golden opportunity to take a bigger lead into the half when Weldon Brown recovered a fumbled punt return by the Huskies with only 36 seconds remaining in the half.

However, after three straight incompletions by Ross Jenkins, Brad Oestriecher had a 41-yard field goal attempt partially blocked by Jake Coffman as the Bulldogs entered the halftime locker room leading by a touchdown.

Oestriecher redeemed himself early in the third quarter as the Bulldogs marched 49 yards on eight plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 33-yard field goal at the 11:54 mark.

NIU answered on its ensuing possession as the Huskies drove 66 yards on 10 plays and connected on a 20-yard field goal by Mike Salerno. The big play for NIU during the drive was a third down completion from Harnish to Marcus Perez that covered 40 yards and gave the Huskies the ball on the Tech 8-yard line.

However, little did anyone know that would be the last of the scoring for either team.

Over the last five offensive possessions of the game for NIU, the Tech defense held the Huskies to only 103 yards and NIU ventured past midfield only once – the Bulldogs defense held on a fourth-down-and-five play on its own 46 yard line with less than two minutes to play.

The Bulldogs on the other hand had a couple of opportunities to add on to their total as Patrick Jackson fumbled inside the NIU 15-yard line after a 34-yard gain on a screen pass from Ross Jenkins midway through the fourth quarter.

Tech also failed to capitalize after Brown intercepted Harnish at the Huskies 37-yard line with 6:25 to play. The Bulldogs lost five yards on their three offensive plays and were forced to punt.

The eight wins is the most by a Bulldog team since the 1999 Tech squad posted an 8-3 mark and the bowl win was the first since the 1977 Independence Bowl.

2001 CRUCIAL.COM HUMANITARIAN BOWL • DECEMBER 31, 2001

CLEMSON	49
LOUISIANA TECH	24

BRONCO STADIUM • BOISE, IDAHO

Four third-quarter touchdowns, including two Woody Dantzler scoring passes, were too much for Louisiana Tech to overcome, as the Clemson Tigers downed the Bulldogs 49-24 in the 2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl before 23,472 fans at Bronco Stadium Dec. 31, 2001.

Trailing only 14-10 at the half, Tech failed to find an answer for Dantzler and company in the third quarter. Dantzler, who finished the afternoon completing 15 of 23 passes for 218 yards and four touchdowns, found running back Bernard Rambert for perhaps the game's biggest play early in the second half.

Leading 21-10, Rambert caught a short pass out of the backfield on third down, and after appearing to be stopped short, spun out of the arms of four Bulldog tacklers and raced 62 yards down the sideline to give Clemson a 28-10 advantage. The play seemed to take all of the life out of the Bulldogs.

A Rambert 21-yard touchdown scamper, followed by an Airese Currie 19-yard jaunt, increased the Tiger lead to 42-10 heading into the final stanza. The loss of All-WAC selections Bobby Gray and Jamie Nichols to first half injuries added to the Bulldogs' defensive difficulties.

After holding Clemson to only 14 points and 207 yards in the first half, the injury-riddled Bulldogs' defense allowed 35 points and 341 yards in the second stanza. Two Bulldog touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 34-yard Luke McCown pass to Delwyn Daigre and a Joe Smith two-yard plunge, closed the gap to 49-24.

However, Clemson wasn't satisfied with the score. The Tigers drove down the field in the final three minutes and instead of running out the clock, attempted a pass into the end zone with under 30 seconds left before also attempting to run the ball in from the one-yard line on the game's final play.

Tech took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Josh Scobee 29-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession. Clemson scored the game's first touchdown when Dantzler found tight end Mike Bailey from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs retook the lead at 10-7 when McCown raced in from 11 yards away midway through the second quarter. However, a 15-yard penalty against Tech on the extra point allowed Clemson great field position on its next drive. Two plays later, Dantzler threw his second touchdown pass of the game and Clemson took a 14-10 advantage into the locker room.

One of the bright spots for Tech was the play of Daigre, who earned the most valuable player of the game award for the Bulldogs. Daigre caught 10 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Bulldogs finished their season 7-5, including the program's first Western Athletic Conference title.

1990 POULAN/WEED EATER INDEPENDENCE BOWL • DECEMBER 15, 1990

LA TECH	LOUISIANA TECH	34
M	MARYLAND	34

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.

SHREVEPORT, La. - An Independence Bowl record crowd of 48,325 showed up to see Louisiana Tech and Maryland battle to a 34-34 tie in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

Chris Boniol's 29-yard field goal as time expired gave the Bulldogs the tie.

Louisiana Tech, participating in its first bowl game since joining the Division I-A ranks prior to the 1989 season, fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter as Maryland running back Troy Jackson scored on a one-yard run and a two-yard run.

However, the Bulldogs would not let the predominantly Louisiana Tech crowd down as they fought back to tie the game at 14-14 at the half. Tech's first touchdown came with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter on a five-yard Michael Richardson run, and Boniol's extra point made the score 14-7 Terps.

Head coach Joe Raymond Peace's team tied the game with only 0:17 remaining in the first half on a three-yard Jason Davis touchdown run as the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 14.

Louisiana Tech came out in the second half and quickly took a 21-14 lead on a Richardson one-yard run.

Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game for Maryland, but the extra point failed as Tech led 21-20. The Bulldogs upped their advantage to 28-20 when Gene Johnson hooked up with Bobby Slaughter on a seven-yard scoring toss.

A Boniol field goal gave Tech a 31-20 lead. Maryland scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to pull ahead 34-31, the last coming with only 0:52 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Scott Zolak to Barry Johnson on a fourth down play.

Lorenzo Baker returned the ensuing kickoff 41 yards to the Terps 39-yard line setting up the final Boniol heroics.

Richardson (81 yards, two scores) and Davis (72 yards, one score) led Tech's ground attack, while Johnson and Sam Hughes combined to complete 11 of 17 passes for 115 yards and one score.

1978 INDEPENDENCE BOWL • DECEMBER 16, 1978

EAST CAROLINA	35

STATE FAIR STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.

Tech's return trip to the Independence Bowl was quite different from the first as East Carolina defeated the Bulldogs 35-13. The Pirates forced four fumbles and intercepted Bulldogs quarterback Eric Barkley three times en route to the victory.

ECU took control of the game early, scoring twice in the first quarter. The Pirates pushed their lead to 21-0 on a touchdown run early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown strike. Tech cut the lead to 21-10 with a 36-yard field goal less than a minute before the end of the half.

The second half was virtually all East Carolina.

Swilley booted another 36-yard field goal six minutes into the third quarter, but that was the end of the offensive night for the Bulldogs. Pirate running back Theodore Sutton raced 45 yards for a touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The Pirates sealed the victory with another touchdown late in the game. ECU rolled up 278 yards rushing on the night, while holding the Bulldogs to only 12 yards on the ground.

1977 INDEPENDENCE BOWL • DECEMBER 17, 1977

LOUISIANA TECH	24
LOUISVILLE	14

STATE FAIR STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.

Tech used a high-powered passing attack and a stingy defense to defeat the favored University of Louisville, 24-14, in the school's first Division I bowl game appearance. Bulldog sophomore quarterback Keith Thibodeaux was named the game's most valuable player, completing 19 of 39 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Cardinals looked to take control of the game early when safety Kevin Miller returned a Bulldog punt 60 yards for the game's first touchdown less than two minutes into the contest.

However, that was the end of the road for Louisville as Thibodeaux proceeded to pick apart the Cardinal secondary. The Opelousas native drove the Bulldogs 68 yards to paydirt, tying the score. Running back Charlie Lewis capped the drive, punching it in from one yard out.

Later in the first quarter Thibodeaux hooked up with receiver George Pree for a 41-yard scoring strike to give the Bulldogs a 13-7 lead. Tech never looked back, pushing its lead to 21-7 late in the first when Thibodeaux connected with tight end Larry McCartney from eight yards out and Lewis added the two-point conversion.

Tech added a 21-yard Keith Swilley field goal in the second quarter. Louisville tried to climb back into the game in the third, scoring on a 13-yard run by Miller midway through the quarter.

However, that was all the Bulldogs would allow. Tech forced three fumbles, an interception and held the Cardinals to only 11 first downs. The Louisville offense could muster only 100 yards rushing and an astonishing 61 yards through the air.

POSTSEASON PLAY

1984 NCAA DIVISION I-AA CHAMPIONSHIP

Montana State 19, Louisiana Tech 6
December 15, Charleston, S.C.

After an impressive run in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, Louisiana Tech struggled in the 1984 National Championship game as Montana State defeated the Bulldogs 19-6.

After scoring 131 points in its three previous playoff wins to advance to the title game, the Bulldog offense sputtered all afternoon long in large part because of the stellar play of the Bobcats defense, which sacked Tech quarterback Kyle Gandy 11 times.

Montana State opened the game with a 33-yard Mark Carter field goal on its second possession after Gandy threw an interception deep in Bulldog territory.

Two possessions later, following a blocked punt by Montana State, the Bobcats scored the game's first touchdown as Kelly Bradley hit Joe Bignell for a 17-yard scoring strike. Carter's extra point was wide left, but Montana State still led 9-0.

Montana State's defense held Louisiana Tech without a first down in the opening 15 minutes of play while forcing two Bulldog turnovers.

The second quarter started better for the Bulldogs as Tech marched down to the Montana State 27-yard line before Gandy fumbled and the Bobcats recovered, ending the Tech scoring threat.

Montana State upped its advantage to 16-0 as it drove 80 yards, capped by a Bradley to Bignell 33-yard scoring strike. Carter added a 48-yard field goal right before the half as the Bobcats took a commanding 19-0 lead into the locker room.

After gaining only 62 total yards of offense in the first half, Tech had a little more success in the final two quarters of play. However, Gandy's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sherman with only 0:48 remaining in the game was too little too late as Montana State won the 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gandy finished the afternoon, completing 24 of 38 passes for 287 yards and the one score but was intercepted four times by the Bobcats defense.

Bradley posted stellar numbers for Montana State, completing 32 of 57 passes for 334 yards and two scores while Bignell registered 10 receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns.

1984 NCAA DIVISION I-AA SEMIFINAL

Louisiana Tech 21, Middle Tenn. 13
December 8, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Louisiana Tech running back David Green racked up 107 rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run, to help seal a 21-13 win against the Blue Raiders in Murfreesboro, Tenn., to advance to the national I-AA championship against Montana State.

Tech jumped on the board first when Richie Sims returned a blocked punt to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Middle Tennessee got on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a field goal and trailed 7-3 going into the half.

The Blue Raiders took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a seven-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown by running back Gerald Anderson.

The Bulldogs regained the lead minutes later when quarterback Kyle Gandy connected with Todd Breske on an 11-yard pass that capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee moved within one point at 14-13 with a field goal in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Blue Raiders got. On the next play from scrimmage, Green added his game-sealing run to give Tech the victory.

Gandy hit 16-of-28 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while Breske led all receivers with 44 yards on four receptions.

1984 NCAA DIVISION I-AA QUARTERFINAL

Louisiana Tech 44, Alcorn State 21
December 1, Jackson, Miss.

Louisiana Tech took on the SWAC Champs and the nation's No. 1 team in the 1984 quarterfinals in Jackson, Miss.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but the Tech offense erupted in the second quarter. Running back Gerry Jones started the scoring on a five-yard run early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes later, wide receiver Mike Sherman hauled in a 12-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy to push Tech's lead to 14-0. The Bulldogs added two points on a safety as the Tech defense sacked Alcorn's quarterback, Rich Myles, in the end zone. Gandy connected for two more touchdown passes in the quarter, an eightyard pass to Lester Mills and a five-yard pass to Todd Breske, to give Tech a 30-0 lead heading into halftime.

Tech continued where it left off in the third quarter, scoring two more touchdowns on rushing plays by David Green and Garlon Powell to build the Bulldog lead to 44-0.

By the time the Braves got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, the 'Dogs had rolled up 448 yards of offense and held Alcorn State to minus 67 yards rushing.

Gandy connected for 19-of-31 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. Sherman led all receivers with 160 yards on eight receptions while David Green led the running backs with 73 yards on 18 carries and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Bulldogs held Alcorn State to minus 56 rushing yards.

1984 NCAA DIVISION I-AA FIRST ROUND

Louisiana Tech 66, Miss. Valley State 19
November 24, Ruston, La.

Tech fans had fun at this game, as the 'Dogs turned the tables on the explosive "run and shoot" of MVSU. Tech rolled up an NCAA playoff record 703 yards of total offense and also set or tied six other playoff marks.

The Bulldogs struck first in the game with a 49-yard George Benyola field goal in the first quarter. Three minutes later, Tech took a 10-0 lead as Todd Breske pulled in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy.

Mississippi Valley scored its first touchdown at the end of the first quarter to close the gap to 10-6.

The Tech offense picked up in the second quarter as David Green scored on a one-yard run to push the Tech lead to 17-6. Tech's Gerry Jones scored two more touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from Gandy and a five-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 31-6 lead.

The Delta Devils scored with three minutes left in the second quarter to make the score 31-12, but Green answered with another Tech rushing touchdown with :33 left in the half.

However, MVSU was not done with its first-half scoring as future NFL star Jerry Rice scored on a 64-yard pass play as time expired to close the gap to 38-19 at halftime. It was the last time in the game that the Delta Devils scored.

The Tech offense picked up steam in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns, including a 69-yard run by Cleve Bailey. The Bulldogs added a final score in the fourth quarter as Lester Mills pulled in a six-yard pass by Jordan Stanley.

Tech picked up 408 rushing yards in the game, led by Green who recorded 179 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. Gandy connected for 11-of-18 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns while Breske led the receivers with 119 yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

Delaware 17, Louisiana Tech 0
December 11, Ruston, La.

Playing under cold and rainy conditions, the Bulldog offense failed to score against the Blue Hens as Tech was eliminated from the Division I-AA playoffs.

Delaware picked up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after gaining good field position following a blocked punt. The Blue Hens took over on the Bulldog 24-yard line and five plays later, picked up their first score.

Under the harsh conditions, neither team could move the ball effectively in the first half as Delaware took the 7-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Delaware finally sealed the win in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run by Kevin Phelan, giving the Blue Hens a 14-0 lead. Delaware added a late field goal to finish out the scoring.

Matt Dunigan led the Tech offense, completing 22-of-47 passes for 239 yards. Frederick Brown led the receivers with 66 yards on five receptions while Carlton Jacobs led the running backs with 33 yards on 11 carries.

1968 GRANTLAND RICE BOWL NCAA DIVISION II MIDEAST REGION CHAMPIONSHIP

Louisiana Tech 33, Akron 13
December 14, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Playing in the school's first bowl game, the Bulldogs battled sub-freezing temperatures and the Akron Zips but came out with a 33-13 victory.

The Bulldogs didn't waste any time scoring, tallying three touchdowns in the first quarter. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw picked up the first score on a 16-yard run. Moments later, Bradshaw hit Tommy Spinks on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a second touchdown. Fullback Buster Herren added a third score on a 2-yard run to give Tech a 21-0 lead early in the game.

Akron picked up a touchdown in the second quarter and trailed 21-7 at halftime, then moved within eight points in the third quarter, making the score 21-13.

But the Bulldogs toughened up in the fourth quarter, scoring twice on plays led by Bradshaw. On the first score, Bradshaw shook off several Akron tacklers and hit tight end Larry Brewer on a six-yard scoring strike. Later in the quarter, Bradshaw scored again on an eight-yard run to close out the scoring.

Bradshaw led the Bulldogs offensively, completing 19-of-33 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns. The young quarterback also led the team in rushing, collecting 35 yards on 12 carries for another two scores. Spinks led the receivers with 12 receptions for 167 yards and one touchtown.

THE LEGEND OF THE BULLDOG

The story takes place in the autumn of 1899 when five Tech students were returning home from school. They came upon an old, hungry bulldog sitting under a tree. The boys fed the dog with what food they had and continued their journey.

When they finally reached their destination, however, they found that the dog had followed them. Being sensitive young men, they sought permission for the dog to stay the night, and the landlord agreed – if the animal remained in the kitchen.

That night the house caught fire.

Their overnight guest was the first to awaken. The dog ran from room to room, rousing everyone in the building. Then, after all the other occupants had made their way to safety, one boy remained inside. The bulldog re-entered the smoke-filled house in an apparent attempt to rescue him, not realizing the boy had escaped in a different direction.

After the fire was extinguished and smoke had finally cleared, the boys went inside to see if the dog had indeed made it out to safety. But when they entered they found the lifeless bulldog lying in an unburned corner of one room. He had died from the smoke and the heat.

Naturally, the young men were shaken due to the death of their new friend. So they picked him up and carried him to the place they had found him the previous day. They then dug a grave and wrapped him in two jackets – one red and the other blue.

When the boys returned to school and related their story, the entire campus mourned the death of the homeless dog. The dog with no name had found a place in the hearts of Tech students.

Two years later, Tech organized a football team and decided the team needed not only school colors, but a mascot. A unanimous decision was reached as the bulldog, the first hero of Tech, was given the honor and the red and blue blankets he was buried in were made the school colors.

DR. LES GUICE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

@LKGuice

Louisiana Tech University and President Les Guice share a rich history together that spans five decades and has produced family ties deeply rooted in a passion for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters. From an architecture student stepping on the campus for the first time in 1972 to an appointment as Louisiana Tech's 14th President in 2013, Dr. Guice has shown an unwavering commitment to leadership and service to his alma mater.

Most recently, Guice's leadership in promoting a spirit of teamwork has helped the campus community and the City of Ruston work together to overcome the enormous challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic that came on the heels of the tornado that plowed through the campus and community in April 2019.

Yet unparalleled educational experiences and unparalleled campus growth have continued. The Integrated Engineering and Science Building opened last fall. The new baseball, softball, and soccer facilities are being built. Work is ongoing for new green space, intramural fields, and student housing along Tech Drive south of the railroad tracks. Add to that additional parking lots, green space and beautification at the site of the recently demolished Harper and Harris Halls, and plans to build a much-needed Tech Pointe II.

One of Dr. Guice's first achievements at Tech was earning a bachelor of arts in architecture in 1976. Discovering a passion for engineering under the mentorship of Professor Jack Painter, Dr. Guice went on to earn a master's degree in civil engineering from Tech in 1978. While working on his master's degree at Louisiana Tech, Dr. Guice also discovered a passion for teaching and education as a profession.

Dr. Guice accepted a position as an assistant professor of civil engineering at Louisiana Tech in 1978 and was promoted to associate professor in 1981. A few short years after earning his PhD in civil engineering from Texas A&M University in 1986, Dr. Guice was named the interim department head of civil engineering in Louisiana Tech's College of Engineering in 1988 and earned the permanent department head position and full professorship in 1989. As department head, Dr. Guice initiated the formation of the Civil Engineering Advisory Board and the Civil Engineering Distinguished Alumni recognition program, both of which significantly enhanced alumni participation and significantly enhanced fundraising for the department.

Throughout the next decade, Dr. Guice would continue to distinguish himself as an academician, researcher, administrator, and leader. His dedication to his students, his faculty, and the University would lead to his appointment as Dean of Louisiana Tech's College of Engineering and Science (COES) in 1999. As Dean, Dr. Guice continued to encourage and support innovations in the curricula. The College's faculty became increasingly successful in securing external funding for the integrated curriculum which resulted in a transformative redesign of programs throughout the College.

Dr. Guice's leadership and vision also reinvigorated the Engineering and Science Foundation to more effectively serve the needs of the College. He initiated a new integrated strategic plan, known as "COES 2010," and capital campaign, "Tech's BEST," which led to major advancement of the college and to funding for an Eminent Scholar Chair, 15 Professorships, $500k Scholarship Fund, and several new laboratories and facilities.

Dr. Guice's leadership also helped to guide the Institute for Micromanufacturing (IfM) toward a focus on the emerging field of nanotechnology. With the hiring of key nanotechnology faculty in numerous disciplines, further expansion of research laboratories, establishment of an interdisciplinary engineering PhD program with a nanotechnology track, and initiation of a BS in Nanosystems Engineering, the IfM and COES established strong research and education nanotechnology programs that have received national recognition.

In 2004, Dr. Guice's performance and accomplishments as dean led to his appointment as Tech's vice president for research and development. During his tenure as vice president and, beginning in 2012, as executive vice president, Tech has significantly increased patents, licenses/options, start-up companies, SBIR grants with affiliated companies, and has established strong industry partnerships for commercialization of technologies. Dr. Guice also led the establishment of Tech's first two technology incubators, the Rawle and Humana Enterprise Centers.

With a focus on the future and a progressive vision for economic development, Dr. Guice has led the planning and development of the Louisiana Tech Enterprise Campus – a research park connecting the university and downtown Ruston. Enterprise Campus' first building, Tech Pointe, was completed in 2012 and is now home for several companies and organizations, including an Air Force-funded Cyberspace Research Laboratory. With the completion of Tech's new College of Business building and renovation to University Hall as a home for interdisciplinary entrepreneurship and innovation activities, the first phase of Enterprise Campus was completed.

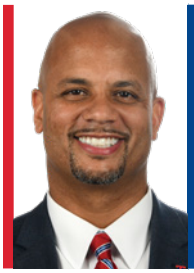

Dr. Guice's reputation for exemplary leadership and service is further evidenced by the many statewide and Conference-USA-wide organizations he has founded or chaired, and he's been honored with numerous awards, both locally and statewide. Currently he serves as chair of the C-USA Board of Directors.

As Tech's president, Dr. Guice is the chief executive officer of north Louisiana's only Carnegie Foundation national research university and one of only two public universities from Louisiana recognized in the top tier of national universities in the U.S. News and World Report. Dr. Guice leads a University that consistently receives high marks in affordability, in starting salaries for graduates, and in providing graduates with the best returns on investment.

Throughout his career, Dr. Guice has contributed to and played a central role in creating the culture and vision for the future of Louisiana Tech; he continues that commitment as president. Dr. Guice's focus on campus-wide engagement, building and growing relationships, and leadership in forging a path toward advancement of the University's academic and athletic programs, research and commercialization activities, and economic development efforts means that Louisiana Tech University's best days are yet to come.

Dr. Guice is a native of Monroe and grew up in Bastrop. He and his wife, Kathy, have three sons – Kyle, Chad, and Bret – and four grandchildren, Christopher, twins Everly and Elizabeth, and the youngest, Evie.

DR. ERIC A. WOOD

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS/VICE PRESIDENT

@EWOOD_AD

Louisiana Tech President Les Guice introduced Dr. Eric A. Wood as a Vice President and the Director of Athletics during a press conference held in the Chris Richardson Suite of the Joe Aillet Stadium Press Box on Oct. 23, 2020.

Wood, a former student-athlete at Sacred Heart University who is also 22-year veteran of collegiate athletic administration, comes to Ruston following a five-year stint at UCF, where he spent the past four years as the Deputy AD for Competitive Excellence.

He becomes the first Director of Athletics in LA Tech history to also serve as a Vice President.

"I'm proud to welcome Eric and his family to Louisiana Tech and Ruston," said Dr. Guice. "His record of accomplishment shows Eric's qualifications, and interacting with him quickly convinces you he is something really special. He is a dynamic, charismatic individual who leads with intelligence and character. It's a rare combination, and we're very fortunate to have him on our team."

The Bronx, New York, native has served in a variety of roles within athletics administration for more than two decades. In addition to his time at UCF, Wood has held full-time positions at the University of Arkansas, the Atlantic Coast Conference, Wake Forest University and the University of New Haven. He also served as a graduate assistant at both the NCAA national office and Clemson University early in his career.

"I want to thank Dr. Guice, Brooks Hull, Steve Davison, Mary Kay Hungate, Samuel Speed, and Dr. Donna Thomas for the opportunity to serve as the next Vice President and Director of Athletics, but more importantly for the opportunity to join the Louisiana Tech family," said Dr. Wood. "After meeting the search committee, I could feel the genuine love they have for Louisiana Tech, and I just knew I wanted to serve alongside them."

At every level of his professional career, Wood has made an impact. His qualifications and accomplishments include:

- Board of Trustee Member – Sacred Heart University
- 2019 "Next Up" honoree presented by Adidas and College AD for senior level administrators
- Athletics Representative on the UCF Presidents Advisory Staff Council
- 2016 Top 40 Under 40 in the Arkansas Business Journal
- 2009 graduate of the NCAA's Leadership Institute
- 11 years of executive staff level leadership
- $55 million in successful management experience for sport programs, operations and support areas
- $5 million in fundraising visits, proposals, and presentations for programing, operations and facilities
- Head coach hires in football, men's basketball, men's and women's tennis, and track and field
- Sport administrator experience (football, men's basketball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf)
- NCAA, NLI, Division I-A Athletics Director's Association (Now Lead1), USTA committee service
- 1997-98 NCAA football student-athlete Medal of Merit recipient as SA of the Year

During his tenure at UCF, Wood played a prominent role in the strategic planning process and day-to-day administration of the University's 16-sport intercollegiate athletics program, assisting with key initiatives that impact overall competitive excellence in the classroom and on the respective playing fields as a member of his executive leadership team.

He represented the department on the President's Advisory Staff Council and served as sport administrator for the football and men's basketball programs. Wood had administrative oversight of the Varsity Knights alumni letter-winners organization, UCF Convocation Corporation management and revenue generation, Knights Sports Performance, the sport administrators group, the sports science and sports nutrition departments, compliance, academics and all internal units impacting the competitive success of UCF's 450 student-athletes.

"President Guice and Louisiana Tech University made an absolute home run hire," said UCF Director of Athletics Danny White. "UCF's loss is LA Tech's gain. Eric Wood has had an enormous impact on our athletics program. Simply put, seemingly everything he touches turns to gold! I am grateful for Eric's many contributions that have led to an unprecedented amount of competitive and academic success at UCF.

"His interpersonal skills are second-to-none, and combined with his competitive drive, his work with our coaches and student-athletes allowed us to break a whole lot of records around here. I couldn't be happier for Eric, Celia, and their beautiful family, and I look forward to following their continued success in this new adventure."

Wood also assisted with the hiring of UCF football coach Josh Heupel and men's basketball coach Johnny Dawkins. The Knights football program has won 22 games over the past two seasons, including an undefeated regular season in 2018. The Knights men's basketball program earned a trip to the 2019 NCAA Tournament, the program's first since 2005.

"Dr. Eric Wood is everything a school could want in an athletic director," said Dawkins. "His greatest strength lies in his ability to connect with others. He is great with student athletes, administrators, and coaches. He will be greatly missed, but I can't wait to see what he will accomplish at Louisiana Tech."

During his time in Fayetteville, Wood served as the Associate Athletics Director, Deputy Title IX Coordinator/Diversity Coordinator (2011-16) as well as the Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development (2009-11).

Wood was the Director of Student-Athlete Programs and Compliance at the ACC (2005-09) following a stint as the Assistant AD for Compliance at Wake Forest (2004-05). He began is full-time collegiate athletic administration career as the Assistant AD for Compliance and Student Development at the University of New Haven (2003-04).

He is a 1998 graduate of Sacred Heart University, earning his degree in Psychology. He was a three-year starter at cornerback for the Pioneer football team with one outdoor season as a member of the track and field team.

Wood earned a Medal of Merit, the athletic department's highest honor, as the Student-Athlete of the Year his senior year at Sacred Heart. He completed his master's degree in counseling and guidance services at Clemson University in May 2000 and his Doctorate of Education in Sports Management at the University of Arkansas in 2016.

He is the first African-American Vice President in Louisiana Tech history as well as the first minority Director of Athletics in the University's history.

"I love the bold mission and vision of the University to be the top public research institution in the country," said Wood. "My vision for athletics is the same – competitive excellence. We will compete in the classroom. We will compete to develop more leaders. And we will compete to win more championships."

Dr. Wood and his wife Celia have four children – Eliana (10), Nia (8), Alyssa (6) and Elijah (4).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT DR. ERIC A. WOOD

"I'm proud to welcome Eric and his family to Louisiana Tech and Ruston. His record of accomplishment shows Eric's qualifications, but interacting with him quickly convinces you he is something really special. "I think Louisiana Tech University made an excellent decision in hiring Eric Wood as Director of Athletics. Eric is an effective leader with quality personal characteristics who has a great background as an athletics administrator that will serve the student-athletes, coaches, university and fans well at LA Tech. I am extremely happy for Eric, Celia and their children to be starting this next chapter in Ruston, and I know he will do great things for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters." – West Virginia Director of Athletics Shane Lyons

"Dr. Wood is uniquely prepared to assume this leadership position at Louisiana Tech from his time as a student-athlete and throughout his wide variety of positions in collegiate athletics. His ability to lead and inspire student-athletes, coaches, and staff will energize the entire program. The Wood family will be a wonderful addition to the University community and the city of Ruston. I am excited for Eric, Celia and their beautiful family for this new opportunity." – Kansas University Director of Athletics Jeff Long

"Louisiana Tech has made an outstanding hire in Dr. Eric Wood. He is a dedicated leader known for his integrity, his passion for student-athlete success, and his relentless commitment to competitive excellence. Widely regarded as one of the most talented rising stars in our profession, Eric builds strong relationships while maintaining high standards and expectations. Throughout his career, he has raised the performance of every unit, team and department under his supervision. Great things are in store for Louisiana Tech with Eric Wood as their next Director of Athletics." – Ohio University Director of Athletics Julie Cromer

"Dr. Guice has made a tremendous hire in Eric Wood. I have known him for many years and he is a well-respected athletics administrator, but more importantly, he is a man of integrity and character. He and his beautiful family will be a wonderful addition to the Tech Family and Ruston Community." – Vanderbilt Deputy AD Tommy McClelland

"Having worked with Dr. Eric Wood over the last two years, I am not surprised by this incredible opportunity for him and his family at Louisiana Tech. He is a family man and a man of integrity. I know these qualities will serve him well in his new leadership role. Dr. Wood has a great depth of experience and a passion for helping young people by providing opportunities for them to succeed." – UCF Head Football Coach Josh Heupel
