BULLDOG STORYLINES

- Louisiana Tech opens up the 2023 Conference USA Basketball Championship on Wednesday night at 8 p.m. CT versus FIU at the Ford Center at The Star. Despite this being the 10th season the Bulldogs and Panthers have been league foes in C-USA, this will be the first time the two teams face off in the league tournament.
- LA Tech went toe-to-toe, again, with the best team in C-USA, and came up just short in falling, 76-72, to Florida Atlantic to end the regular season this past Saturday in Ruston. It was another near miss of upsetting the Owls (lost to them in overtime in Boca Raton) who have only lost three games all season. The Bulldogs actually led for almost 40 minutes in their two contests and led for more time than the Owls.
- Isaiah Crawford came back from a season-ending knee injury to earn Third Team All-Conference USA honors in 2021. The forward did the same thing in 2023, returning from another season-ending knee injury to be voted Third Team All-Conference. He poured in a game-high 20 points in the regular season finale against Florida Atlantic (averaged 22.5 points per game against the regular season champion Owls).
- Keaston Willis was named All-Conference USA Honorable Mention, becoming the 10th different Bulldogs to earn C-USA postseason honors since the program joined the league back in 2013-14. Also, Jordan Crawford was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. LA Tech leads the league in most All-Freshman Team members over the last 10 years (Crawford became the sixth Bulldog). It is the third straight year LA Tech has had a player on the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
- Two-time All-Conference USA selection Isaiah Crawford has been stellar as of late. Over the last 11 games, He is averaging 15.8 points, 6.2 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 1.8 steals, and 0.8 blocks per game. He is also shooting 48.9 percent from the field and 42.9 percent from beyond the arc during this span.
- Jordan Crawford was named C-USA Freshman of the Week for his performance in the final week of the regular season. The All-Freshman Team selection picked up his third weekly award after averaging 14.0 points and 6.0 rebounds against FIU and Florida Atlantic. He tallied 14 points apiece in the two games and then registered a career-high eight rebounds versus the Owls.
- LA Tech has been in close game after close game after close game. In fact, 21 of their 31 games this season have been decided by 10 points or less (the most since the 2011-12 season). Unfortunately for the Bulldogs, they are a combined 7-14 in those games.
- Two of those close games has been against FIU. The two teams faced off last Thursday in Ruston with the Bulldogs coming out on top, 77-76, in overtime. LA Tech overcame a 16-point deficit in the second half, tying for the fifth largest comeback in the last 50 years. It was also the fifth OT game played by LA Tech this season, the most in program history. The other matchup came down in Miami about a month ago with the Panthers eeking out a 66-62 win. Each of the last five meetings between the two teams has been decided by four points or less.

TALVIN HESTER

HEAD COACH | 1ST SEASON

Louisiana Tech President Dr. Les Guice and Vice President/Director of Athletics Dr. Eric A. Wood introduced Talvin Hester as the 19th head men's basketball coach in program history.

Hester, who has 20 years of coaching experience, is no stranger to Ruston after spending three seasons (2018-21) as an assistant coach with the Bulldogs. Most recently, he spent one season as an assistant coach at Texas Tech where he helped the third-seeded Red Raiders reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

While in Lubbock this past season working under new head coach and Associated Press Big 12 Coach of the Year Mark Adams, Texas Tech put together a 27-win season including victories over Montana State and Notre Dame to help the program make its fifth Sweet 16 appearance in program history.

TTU, which had five All-Big 12 selections, was ranked as high as No. 9 in the country and reached the Big 12 championship final for just the second time in program history. The Red Raiders had the No. 1 ranked defense in the country (per Kenpom.com) while limiting opponents to only 60.2 points per game, holding teams to 38.2 percent shooting and forcing 15.9 turnovers per contest.

During his three successful years at LA Tech under Eric Konkol, Hester helped the Bulldogs register three winning seasons of 20-plus victories. The 2020-21 season saw the 'Dogs register a 24-8 overall record while claiming a Conference USA West Division title and a third place finish in the National Invitation Tournament. The team received an at-large berth to play in the NIT for the first time since 2015 and became just the second team in program history to make the Final Four.

LA Tech, which had the highest-rated defense in C-USA ranking top 30 in the country in field goal percentage defense and three-point field goal percentage defense, upset Ole Miss in the first round, defeated league foe Western Kentucky in the quarterfinals and won a 76-74 thriller over No. 1 overall seed Colorado State in the Final Four consolation game.

In his second season in 2019-20, the Bulldogs registered a 22-8 overall record during the regular slate, but the team did not have a chance at post-season play with the Conference USA and NCAA/NIT Tournaments being canceled due to the public health threat of COVID-19. The 22 wins ended up being the most victories of any Conference USA team and of any Louisiana Division I team. The Bulldogs also recorded a 13-5 league record, finishing in a tie for second place.

In his first year with the 'Dogs, Hester helped the team to 20 victories. Eight of the 20 victories came against teams who also produced 20-win seasons, the most in program history. One of those came in the season opener at Wichita State as the Bulldogs shocked the Shockers, handing them only their fourth loss in their last 76 games at home.

Hester helped coach All-Conference USA selections DaQuan Bracey (First Team), Kenneth Lofton, Jr. (Third Team and C-USA Freshman of the Year) and Isaiah Crawford (Third Team) as well as Cobe Williams who was a member of the C-USA All-Defensive Team.

Along with stops at Texas Tech and Louisiana Tech, Hester spent the majority of his coaching career in the south, especially in the Lone Star State. He spent time at Oral Roberts, Houston, Texas State, Stephen F. Austin, San Jose State, Prairie View A&M, Texas College, Texas Wesleyan and North Lake College during his career.

Hester began his coaching career in 2002 at North Lake College in Irving, Texas. His coaching resume also includes a stop with the Texas Rim Rockers of the United States Basketball League as an assistant coaching intern and the Dallas Mustangs AAU team for one season.

As a student-athlete, Hester played at Dallas Christian College during the 1996-97 season. He received his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Texas Wesleyan in 2003.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TALVIN HESTER

MARK ADAMS, TEXAS TECH HEAD COACH

"Coach Hester was invaluable to the success of our program last year. I have no doubt that his 20 years of college experience and extraordinary passion for LA Tech make him a perfect fit to lead the program."

ERIC KONKOL, TULSA HEAD COACH

"Talvin has been a part of tremendous programs across many levels of basketball during his career. He was an integral part of ours at LA Tech as a coach, mentor to the players, and member of the community. Talvin has a terrific basketball mind, is an outstanding recruiter, and is a winner. I am very happy for Talvin, Jamieka, and Rhyann on their return to Ruston."

ALVIN BROOKS, LAMAR HEAD COACH

"Talvin Hester is the complete package. He possesses a great understanding of the game, is a tremendous teacher and recruiter, leader of people and has the ability to develop special relationships with his players. He is a wonderful role model for young men and a winner."

KELVIN SAMPSON, HOUSTON HEAD COACH

"This is a grand slam hire for Louisiana Tech. Talvin's work ethic, his unbelievable communication skills, his temperament, his connectivity with the players, it was just a matter of time before he became a head coach. I applaud LA Tech for this hire."

PAUL MILLS, ORAL ROBERTS HEAD COACH

"Talvin's experience, knowledge, and genuine love of people provide a unique combination for a leader in college basketball. Talvin is the total package. He is a winner in every facet. His handprints are all over each program he has been involved with as an assistant and he has left each of those programs better due to his involvement. Great things are in store for Louisiana Tech as the Bulldogs are in great hands."

ARMONI BROOKS, NBA GUARD

"Coach Hester is a great coach but an even better person. I have known him for years and he cares about his players off the court almost more than on the court. He is going to make sure his team plays hard and plays together while making sure that he teaches life lessons off the court."

TRYING TO GO DANCING

From 1984-91, the Bulldogs were regulars in the NCAA Tournament, making five appearances including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1985 with NBA legend Karl Malone.

However, the Big Dance has eluded the program over the last 31 years with their last appearance coming in 1991 after winning the America South Tournament championship to receive the automatic bid.

Since then, LA Tech has reached the conference tournament championship game four times and suffered losses in all four. They have now reached the title game for the first time in eight years (first year in Conference USA).

1992 (Sun Belt title game)
vs. Louisiana-Lafayette L, 71-75

1997 (Sun Belt title game)
vs. South Alabama L, 43-44

2012 (WAC title game)

2014 (C-USA title game)
vs. Tulsa L, 60-69

2022 (C-USA title game)
vs. UAB L, 73-82

TEAMS FACED IN TOURNEY

Despite this being the 10th time LA Tech will play in the Conference USA Tournament, there are four teams the Bulldogs have never faced and FIU is one of them, a team the Bulldogs will face in the first round.

On the flipside, they have played Florida Atlantic, North Texas, UAB and now Marshall on multiple occasions.

The most common opponent has been the Mean Green of North Texas and the UAB Blazers (three times each). They faced UAB in the C-USA Tournament finals last season.

IMMEDIATE IMPACT FOR FROSH

Jordan Crawford had only one scholarship offer from a Division I college basketball program ... and that was the home town school of Louisiana Tech.

The true freshman who won four state championships at nearby Simsboro High School has made an immediate impact for the Bulldogs.

He has played in all 31 games while making 20 starts, and is first on the team in total assists (97) and second in total steals (35).

MTE SUCCESS

Practically every season, Louisiana Tech plays in a multi-team event. And practically every season, the Bulldogs go updated in said events.

LA Tech went 3-0 in the Samford MTE this season, winning road games at Alabama A&M and Samford plus a neutral site victory over UT Southern.

Over the last decade, the 'Dogs are a combined 31-6 in multi-team events.

HESTER WINS FIRST GAME AS HC

Talvin Hester picked up his first ever win as head coach in the season opener as the Bulldogs defeated the Choctaws of Mississippi College, 78-61.

He became the third straight LA Tech HC to win the season opener and the seventh straight to win their home opener.

COACHED IN MANY LEAGUES

With over 20 years of coaching experience, new head coach Talvin Hester has seen first hand the talent level of several college basketball conferences. In fact, he has coached in eight different Division I leagues.

WINS AND SUN IN PUERTO RICO

LA Tech got in some extra work this summer in preparation for the 2022-23 season under first-year head coach Talvin Hester as the Bulldogs went on a summer tour to Puerto Rico (in previous years the Bulldogs have gone to the Bahamas (2014) and Costa Rica (2018)).

The 'Dogs spent six days on the island where they toured the capital city of San Juan, enjoyed paddle boarding, ziplining, down time at the pool and beach ... and three wins.

FROM BULLDOG TO GRIZZLIE

Kenneth Lofton, Jr. racked up several honors in his two seasons of playing Bully Ball with the Bulldogs prior to declaring for the NBA Draft.

- Two-time All-Conference USA
- Louisiana Major College Player of the Year
- NABC First Team All-District 11
- Naismith Trophy Midseason Team
- C-USA Freshman of the Year

Despite going undrafted, he ended up signing a two-way contract with the Memphis Grizzlies where he made the opening day roster.

Junior was one of just 17 undrafted rookies to make an NBA opening day roster and became the first Bulldog since Erik McCree (2018 with Utah Jazz) to play in an NBA game.

BACK-TO-BACK 24-WIN SEASONS

After going 24-8 in 2020-21, the Bulldogs matched their win total in 2021-22 with an overall record of 24-10.

LA Tech is one of only 10 Division I teams in the country to have recorded at least 24 victories in each of the last two seasons.

WINNING STREAKS

With a lot of winning over the last decade-plus has come a lot of winning streaks.

After the Bulldogs extended their winning streak to five here recently with a 74-59 win over Southern, they have now registered at least a 5-game winning streak in every season going back to 2009.

HOME WINNING STREAKS

With the domination at home have come plenty of home winning streaks.

Over the last decade, the squad has had seven separate home streaks of at least 10 victories.

ANOTHER 20-PIECE

LA Tech put together yet another 20-win season. It marked the 28th time in program history of reaching 20 wins. The Bulldogs are one of just 18 teams in Division I to have won 20+ games in at least nine of the last 10 seasons.

LA Tech also opened the 2018-19 season winning 71-58 at Wichita State, a team that had won 72 of its previous 75 home games.

SPECIALTY AWARDS GALORE

LA Tech is tied with Middle Tennessee for the most specialty awards (nine) won in Conference USA since they joined in 2013-14.

CRAWFORD X2

If you are seeing double with the last name on the jerseys, it is not you. Last season, the Bulldogs had a pair of Williams' with Terran and Cobe. This season, there is the addition of having two Crawford's with Jordan and Isaiah.

They are just the 10th and 11th pair of Bulldogs to be on the roster at the same time with the same last name. This does mark the first time in program history that there are two sets of the same last name.

20-GAME LEAGUE SCHEDULE

With the departure of Southern Miss, Marshall, and Old Dominion to the Sun Belt, Conference USA went from a 14-team league to an 11-team league.

As a result, the Bulldogs will take part in a 20-game conference schedule for the first time in program history (had been an 18-game league schedule since 2014-15).

HOMETOWN KID

North Louisiana has seen its fair share of great basketball players. However, it is been rare to have a Bulldog from Louisiana Tech's hometown of Ruston.

And for the first time since 2008, a Bulldog calls Ruston home in Jordan Crawford. The guard was a four-time state champion at nearby Simsboro High School.

NORTH CAROLINA DUO

The majority of Bulldogs have always hailed from the home state of Louisiana and the neighboring state of Texas. Of course, Florida has been a popular state to pick players from as well over the last decade or so.

This season though, the Bulldogs have the addition of Dravon Mangum and Quandre Bullcock, both of whom are from North Carolina.

Prior to this season, there had been only two Bulldogs to have ever called North Carolina home. That has doubled this season.

CONFERENCE SERIES HISTORY

With the Bulldogs success in C-USA, its no surprise that they do not trail in any conference series history since joining the league.

ABOUT THE PANTHERS

FIU put an end to its five-game losing streak by winning on the road at Rice, 90-83, to end the regular season. The Panthers avenged an earlier loss to the Owls in a game that featured 14 lead changes and 12 ties.

FIU was led First Team All-Conference USA selection Denver Jones who finished with a career-high 30 points. The sophomore guard averages 20.0 points, which ranks second in C-USA this season. He has poured in at least 20 points in 16 games this season.

Defensively, the Panthers apply a ton of pressure. They rank top 20 in the country in both steals per game (9.0) and turnovers forced per game (16.48). They have forced at least 20 turnovers in four of their last eight games.

One of their havoc creators is Arturo Dean who was named C-USA Freshman of the Year as well as an All-Conference USA Honorable Mention selection. He averages 2.45 steals per game (has a total of 76). Both of those marks rank top 10 in the nation.

In the two games LA Tech and FIU faced one another this season, a lot of statistics stand-out. The Bulldogs have owned the glass with a +13.5 rebounding margin. However, the Panthers have forced the Bulldogs into an average of 22.0 turnovers per game and gotten to the free throw line 19 more times (averaging 19.0 made free throws to the Bulldogs 11.5).

Isaiah Crawford and Kenny Hunter have been the two best Bulldogs against FIU. Crawford is averaging 13.5 points and 6.5 rebounds while Hunter is averaging 10.5 points and 8.5 rebounds.

LA Tech have been league foes in two different conferences -- Sun Belt Conference (1998-01) and Conference USA (2013-present).

Since the two became C-USA opponents, the Bulldogs own a slim 7-5 advantage in the series. The two teams matched three-game winning streaks until the Panthers came out on top, 66-62, back on Feb. 9 in Miami.

LA Tech overcame a 16-point deficit in the second half to defeat FIU in overtime, 77-76, a week ago in Ruston. Five Bulldogs scored in double figures, led by Keaston Willis who had 18. The 'Dogs had a +14 rebounding margin and managed to overcome their 21 turnovers.

The last eight meetings between the Bulldogs and Panthers have been decided by seven points or less (and the last five meetings have been decided by four points or less).
