THE BARKS

>> Louisiana Tech opens its 121st season of football on Saturday when the Bulldogs host FIU for a nationally-televised 8 p.m. contest inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

>> Saturday's matchup will be the sixth meeting between LA Tech and Florida International. The Bulldogs lead the series 4-1, including a 2-0 record against the Panthers in Ruston. FIU took last year's matchup 42-34 in double overtime.

>> Quarterback Hank Bachmeier will lead the LA Tech offense in 2023 after transferring from Boise State this off-season. Bachmeier was a Johnny Unitas Watchlist Selection in 2022 and threw for 6,605 yards and 41 touchdowns during his four seasons as a Bronco.

>> Wide receiver Smoke Harris enters 2023 with one of the most accomplished careers of any FBS player. Harris ranks among the NCAA Active Career Leaders in punt return average (3rd, 11.2), receptions (3rd, 224), punt return yards (4th, 605), touchdown receptions (6th, 19) and receptions per game (6th, 4.57). He is the only Bulldog to score a touchdown in every season dating back to 2018. Harris was recently selected as the Conference USA Preseason Special Teams Player of the Year.

>> LA Tech will be debuting a new look for the season opener when they step on the field in brand new primary uniforms for the first time since 2020.

>> 2023 marks the 55th season of the Bulldogs playing at Joe Aillet stadium where they hold a 174-72-2 overall record.

BY THE NUMBERS

WR Smoke Harris has recorded a reception in 32-straight games which is the 7th-longest streak nationally.

Louisiana Tech has been dominant in home openers since Joe Aillet Stadium opened in 1968 holding a 44-9-1 record.

44

18 Bulldogs on the Louisiana Tech roster have already obtained their bachelor's degree.

18

A LA TECH WIN WOULD...

>> Improve it's all-time record to 639-488-38 and record in season-openers to 60-56-5.

>> Be the ninth-straight home opener win and the 85th home opener win all-time.

>> Improve Tech's all-time record against FIU to 5-1 while improving it's all time CUSA record to 46-33.

>> Be the 175th win all-time at Joe Aillet Stadium and improve the Bulldogs to 45-9-1 all-time in openers at Joe Aillet Stadium.

>> Be the first-season opening win since Sept. 19, 2020 when the Dogs' defeated Southern Miss 31-30 in Hattiesburg, Miss.

SERIES / MATCHUP NOTES

» Saturday's matchup will be the sixth meeting between LA Tech and Florida International. The Bulldogs lead the series 4-1, including a 2-0 record against the Panthers in Ruston.

» FIU took last year's matchup 42-34 in double overtime on Oct. 28, 2022 in Miami. RB Marquis Crosby rushed for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the contest. Smoke Harris recorded his 200th career reception, becoming just the seventh wide receiver in program history to accomplish the feat.

» LA Tech is 2-0 all-time at The Joe against FIU. The Bulldogs took the last matchup 43-31 on Sept. 20, 2019. Current Las Vegas Raider Amik Robinson returned an FIU onside-kick attempt 30 yards for a touchdown. Running back Justin Henderson ran for three touchdowns and placekicker Bailey Hale connected on five field goals.

» Saturday's matchup marks the 14th time that Louisiana Tech will open its season with a conference opponent. The last time the Bulldogs opened their slate with a conference opponent was in 2004 when they were member of the WAC and defeated Nevada 38-21 on Sept. 6 at Joe Aillet Stadium in a nationally televised matchup on ESPN. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 257 yards on 33 carries which is still the fourth-best single-game rushing total in program history.

» LA Tech is 46-33 in CUSA play since joining the conference in 2013 and holds a 40-13 all-time record against current CUSA member schools.

ON THIS DATE

» Louisiana Tech is 1-0 all-time during games played on August 26th. The Bulldogs' lone prior matchup on this date was a 63-10 thumping of Mississippi Valley State to open the 2000 season. # LOUISIANA TECH HEAD COACH

HEAD COACH SONNY CUMBIE

TEXAS TECH, 2004

CAREER RECORD (YEARS): 5-12 (2)

SCHOOL RECORD (YEARS): 3-9 (1)

Louisiana Tech President Les Guice and VP and Director of Athletics Eric Wood introduced one of the most innovative offensive minds in college football when Sonny Cumbie was welcomed to Ruston as the 34th head football coach in Bulldog history on December 1, 2021.

In his inaugural season in Ruston, he led Tech to a 3-2 record at home in 2022, marking the first time since 2007 that a first-year head coach finished with a winning home record when Derek Dooley accomplished the feat.

Cumbie garnered his first win as head coach at Louisiana Tech with a dominant 52-17 triumph over Stephen F. Austin on Sept. 10, 2022 at Joe Aillet Stadium. A win in which Tech accumulated a season high in total offense (516 yards) and rushing (300 yards).

The Bulldogs garnered two wins in Conference USA play with a 41-31 win over UTEP in the CUSA opener (Oct. 8) and a 40-24 shellacking of Middle Tennessee (Nov. 5). Despite finishing the inaugural campaign with a 3-9 record Tech fell in overtime twice and had four losses by 10 points or less, including three by a single possession.

Tech garnered a total of 15 all-conference selections in 2022. Wide receiver Tre Harris, defensive lineman Keivie Rose and wide receiver/return specialist Smoke Harris all earned First-Team All-Conference USA honors while defensive back Myles Brooks was named second-team all-conference. Tre Harris was named a semifinalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award and Brooks was invited to the East-West Shrine Bowl and NFL Combine following the conclusion of the season. Redshirt freshman running back Marquis Crosby was named Honorable Mention Freshman All-American by College Football News after a breakout season in which he rushed for 918 yards and nine touchdowns on 183 carries. His 918 rushing yards ranked sixth nationally among all FBS freshman.

Under his tutelage, Cumbie's quarterbacks ranked 32nd nationally in passing yards per game with 267.2 a contest. Quarterback Parker McNeil threw for a season-high 424 yards in a loss at North Texas which was the most by a Bulldogs since Ryan Higgins in 2016.

On the recruiting trail, the Bulldogs' 21-member signing class was the highest-rated class in Conference USA and ranked fifth among all Group of Five schools. Tech ranked 70th nationally in the Rivals 2023 Team Recruiting Rankings, edging out its 2020 signing class by a spot for the best slot in program history.

Cumbie has spent the past 12 years as an assistant coach in the Big 12, including two stints at Texas Tech (2009-13, 2021) and one at TCU (2014-2020). He has served as offensive coordinator the past nine years for the Red Raiders and Horned Frogs and worked under some of the top coaches in college football, including Mike Leach, Tommy Tuberville, Kliff Kingsbury and Gary Patterson.

His offensive philosophy should fit in well with the Bulldog faithful. High-octane football is craved at Joe Aillet Stadium on Saturdays in the fall.

"Sonny Cumbie is the perfect fit for our program, our department, our University, and our community," said Wood. "Culture. Class. Competitive Excellence. He exemplifies all of these things. As our student-athletes, staff, and fans get an opportunity to know Sonny, they will see what we saw during the interview process.

"I've heard so much in the last year about the history of high-scoring offenses and hard-hitting defenses. Our fan base wants an exciting brand of football. They want to win conference titles. They want to continue to build upon the success we have had over the past decade. Sonny will bring all of that to Ruston."

Cumbie came to Tech after serving as the offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2021, including serving as the interim head coach over the final four games of the season. This was his second stint in Lubbock, after beginning his college coaching career with the Red Raiders in 2009.

He also served as the quarterbacks coach and the offensive coordinator at TCU during his seven seasons in Ft. Worth. And everywhere he has been, his offenses have been innovative and entertaining.

"Sonny Cumbie is a strong young coach who impressed us all with his depth of understanding and focus on the game," Guice said. "His ability to recruit promising student-athletes and maximize their talents will help us continue to take our football program to a higher level of competitiveness. I look forward to seeing Sonny be the next in line of so many great Louisiana Tech coaches, and I know he and his family will be a great addition to our Tech Family."

During his tenure at TCU, Cumbie oversaw the Horned Frogs' quarterbacks and served as the sole offensive play caller each of the final four years. TCU boasted the Big 12's second-best conference record (38-25) and its third-best overall mark (58-30) over his seven seasons, which coincided with six bowl appearances.

His impact was felt immediately at TCU as the program broke the Big 12 record with a 21.4 points per game improvement, the largest by any team nationally since 1999-2000 (Northwestern). TCU ranked No. 2 in scoring (46.5) and No. 5 in total offense (533.0) on the way to a 12-1 record.

The 2015 Horned Frogs once again lit up the scoreboard, ranking No. 3 in total offense (562.8) and No. 7 in scoring (42.1) on the way to an 11-2 record and a win over Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl (rallying from a 31-0 halftime deficit).

Cumbie helped push TCU to the Big 12 Championship game and a top-10 ranking in his first year as sole play caller in 2017 as the Horned Frogs closed the year at 11-3 overall following a 39-37 victory over No. 13 Stanford in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

"My family and I are extremely excited and honored to be the head coach at Louisiana Tech University," Cumbie said. "We look forward to many successful seasons in Ruston with an exciting brand of football. I cannot wait to assemble our staff and get to building relationships with our players and the coaches across this great state."

During his first stint with the Red Raiders, Texas Tech threw for more than 4,000 yards each of the four years while averaging more than 35 points per game.

His 2012 Texas Tech offense boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers, making the pair the first teammates to each eclipse 1,000-yard seasons since 2007 when future NFL stars Michael Crabtree and Danny Amendola did so. In 2013, he coached a pair of freshman quarterbacks and still boasted an offense that finished second in the FBS in passing yards per game (392) and eighth in total offense (511). On the recruiting trail, Cumbie helped land arguably one of the game's most talented quarterbacks in two-time NFL MVP and five-time Pro Bowler Patrick Mahomes.

"I've gotten a chance not only to experience first-hand the tremendous coaching ability of Sonny Cumbie, but also to understand how exceptional a person and leader he is," said Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury. "Coach Cumbie is one of the bright young offensive minds in football. This opportunity is a great one, and I am excited to watch the success he will have at Louisiana Tech. The Bulldogs are getting a good one."

After walking on for the Red Raiders in 2000, he earned the starting role his senior season and led the country in passing yards (4,742 yards) and total offense (4,575 yards) with 32 touchdowns. Texas Tech went 7-4 in the regular season and earned a berth to face Top 5 Cal in the Holiday Bowl, where the Red Raiders were huge underdogs. Cumbie completed 39 of 60 passes for 520 yards (still a Holiday Bowl record) and three TDs in the win over the Bears.

Cumbie twice led the Red Raiders to 70-point games that season on the way to garnering honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades as well as Academic All-Big 12 first team honors.

He spent time playing for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League, earning a spot on the AFL All-Rookie Team in 2006 as well as being a finalist for the AFL Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. He was back in the AFL for the 2007 season, leading the Avengers to their first playoff victory in franchise history while throwing for 83 touchdowns.

LOUISIANA TECH HEAD COACH

Following his time in the AFL, he served time as a head coach in the Indoor Football League where he also played some quarterback during the 2009 season. Following the IFL stint, he joined Mike Leach's staff as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas, and graduates of Texas Tech. They are parents to two sons, Grey and Hays.

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: MISSOURI 52, LA TECH 24
Memorial Stadium | Columbia, Mo. | September 1, 2022

Columbia, Mo. – Louisiana Tech held the lead through the first 15 minutes, but Missouri tacked on double-digit points in each of the last three quarters to pull away in a 52-24 win on Thursday night at Memorial Stadium.

LA Tech (0-1) had the upper hand in the early going, taking a 3-0 advantage into the second quarter thanks to a 33-yard field goal by Jacob Barnes.

However, Missouri (1-0) broke through on its first play of the second stanza with a 5-yard touchdown run by Cody Schrader and quickly added another touchdown off a 29-yard pick-six.

That ended up being the theme of the night as the Tigers racked up 328 yards on the ground and nabbed three interceptions thrown by the Bulldogs' starting quarterback Matthew Downing.

Downing was able to get a big play in the game, finding Griffin Hebert over the middle who outran everyone for a 75-yard touchdown catch. Sandwiched in between that though was another 5-yard TD run by Missouri and an end-of-half 31-yard field goal to make it, 24-10.

While the Bulldogs could not get the ground game going, the Tigers rushed for four more scores in the second half to put the game out of reach. Parker McNeil came in at quarterback and delivered two touchdown strikes to Cyrus Allen – one for 64 yards and another for 37 yards. The freshman wide receiver ended with five catches for a game-high 126 yards.

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME TWO: LA TECH 52, STEPHEN F. AUSTIN 17
Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | September 10, 2022

RUSTON – Louisiana Tech racked up 300 yards on the ground, anchored by Marquis Crosby who amassed 196 in the first half alone, as the Bulldogs routed Stephen F. Austin by a final score of 52-17 on Saturday night inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

LA Tech (1-1) and SFA (1-2) were tied up at 7-7 in the early going, but the home team proceeded to score 45 unanswered points in route to Sonny Cumbie's first career victory as head coach of the Bulldogs.

While the 'Dogs were putting up points left and right, the defense was keeping the Lumberjacks at bay with forcing three turnovers and allowing just four third-down conversions out of 15.

Smoke Harris gave the Bulldogs their first points of the game, capping off an opening drive with a 7-yard touchdown reception that he snuck into the end zone at the right pylon.

The Lumberjacks evened things up though three minutes later, utilizing special teams and defense to get on the scoreboard. After a 56-yard punt pinned the Bulldogs at their own 4-yard line, SFA picked off Parker McNeil on the very first play. JaTerious Evans snagged the INT and returned it 17 yards down to the goal line. Quarterback Trae Self punched it in on the keeper on the very next play.

The tie was short-lived though as the Bulldogs scored on the ensuing drive, needing just two plays to get it done. First, Crosby took the handoff 68 yards down to the 11-yard line. On the next possession, fellow running back Charvis Thornton went the remaining 11 yards off the left side for the touchdown.

After the LA Tech defense forced a three-and-out, the squad tacked on another quick score as McNeil found Tre Harris up the left sideline for a 40-yard touchdown to put the Bulldogs up 21-7 with 5:24 to go in the first quarter.

Crosby continued his running ways in the second quarter, producing back-to-back touchdown runs of three and 42 yards. Capping off the first half was Jacob Barnes who converted a chip shot from 18 yards to give LA Tech a 38-7 advantage at halftime.

The Bulldogs were not done offensively in the third quarter as McNeil hooked up with Griffin Hebert for a 63-yard touchdown. It was the defense's turn to put up points next as Myles Brooks forced a fumble and J'Dan Burnett did a scoop and score for 30 yards to make it a 52-7 lead with 6:46 remaining in the stanza.

GAME THREE: LA TECH 20, No. 5 CLEMSON 48 Memorial Stadium | Clemson, S.C. | September 17, 2022

CLEMSON S.C. – The Louisiana Tech Football team continued to produce explosive plays offensively, but four turnovers was too much to overcome as the Bulldogs fell, 48-20, to the No. 5-ranked Clemson Tigers on Saturday night inside Memorial Stadium.

LA Tech (1-2) had seven plays of 20+ yards, all through the air by Parker McNeil who finished with 311 passing yards. And the Bulldogs found themselves down just one score, 13-6, at halftime, but the game shifted in the third quarter because of turnovers.

The 'Dogs first three possessions of the second half resulted in two interceptions (one in the red zone) and a turnover on downs that was turned into three touchdowns by Clemson (3-0) to quickly make it a 34-6 deficit for the visitors.

LA Tech refused to go away quietly though. After being limited to two made field goals by Jacob Barnes (35 and 36 yards) in the first half, the Bulldogs found the end zone on back-to-back drives to get to within 14 with still 11:05 to play in the game.

The first TD was an 8-play, 79-yard drive that was capped off by a 3-yard rushing touchdown (the first allowed by the Tigers this season) from Marquis Crosby. The second TD took only five plays, set up by a 20-yard reception by Griffin Hebert and then finished off with a 13-yard pass play to Tre Harris for the score.

Clemson put an end to LA Tech's upset hopes though as DJ Uiagalelei connected with Antonio Williams for a touchdown on the following possession. The Tigers tacked on another score late after recovering a fumble, LA Tech's fourth turnover of the game.

The Bulldog wide receivers had a good night with Hebert registering a career-high 122 receiving yards, Julien Lewis having a career game with seven receptions for 76 yards, Tre Harris catching five balls for 56 yards and Smoke Harris cracking into the top 10 in program history for career receptions.

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME FOUR: LA TECH 14, SOUTH ALABAMA 38
Hancock Whitney Stadium | Mobile, Ala. | September 24, 2022

MOBILE, Ala. – Turnovers proved costly again for Louisiana Tech as they fell 38-14 to South Alabama on Saturday night at Hancock Whitney Stadium.

LA Tech (1-3) coughed the ball up five times (four interceptions and one fumble), including on four straight possessions.

Despite three of those turnovers coming in the first half and USA (3-1) jumping out to a quick 14-0 lead within the first four minutes due to a fast 6-play, 80-yard drive and a punt return for a touchdown, the Bulldogs found themselves down just 17-7 at halftime.

Getting the ball first to start the second half, LA Tech was looking for more big plays to slice into the deficit like the first score of 52 yards in the air from Parker McNeil to Smoke Harris. However, the 'Dogs quickly dug themselves too deep a hole by throwing a pick-six and then losing a fumble that was turned into another touchdown for the Jaguars.

What was a 17-7 deficit turned into a 31-7 deficit just four minutes into the third quarter.

The two teams traded passing touchdowns in the fourth with the one from the Bulldogs being a 4-yard score on fourth down from McNeil to Griffin Hebert.

GAME FIVE: LA TECH 41, UTEP 31 Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | October 11, 2022

RUSTON, La. – Louisiana Tech started its "new" season off with a victory on Saturday night as the Bulldogs claimed their Conference USA opener by way of a 41-31 win over the UTEP Miners inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

It was all LA Tech (2-3, 1-0 C-USA) in the first half, building a 30-10 advantage midway through the game. However, UTEP (3-4, 1-1 C-USA) chipped away with a pair of touchdowns to make it a one-possession game at 30-24.

The Bulldog offense had lost all of its rhythm in the second half, going 3-and-out on their first three offensive drives. It was close to being four straight with about nine minutes left in the game as they were facing a 3rd-and-2 on their own 21-yard line.

Arguably the play of the game happened on the next possession as Parker McNeil and Tre Harris hooked up for a 64-yard reception. Then on the very next play, McNeil found Smoke Harris all alone in the end zone for a 15-yard score to put the game out of reach.

LA Tech was cruising early, scoring on four of its first five drives of the game. Tahj Magee was the recipient of an 8-yard touchdown reception to open the contest. That was followed by a 38-yard touchdown by Tre Harris to put the 'Dogs on top, 14-0, just five minutes into the contest.

Smoke Harris caught his first receiving TD of the afternoon with two seconds left in the first quarter to make it 20-3. In the second quarter, UTEP got a 5-yard rushing score from Deion Hankins while LA Tech got a 44-yard pick six by Myles Brooks and a 28-yard field goal from Jacob Barnes to make a 30-10 lead.

The Bulldog defense continued to keep the Miners at bay, recovering a fumble in the end zone and then stopping the visitors on back-to-back 4th-down plays. However, UTEP punched through a pair of touchdowns in the span of three minutes to make it 30-24 with 10:18 still to go.

Then came the 4-play, 87-yard touchdown drive for the Bulldogs, which included the long reception to Tre Harris, to push the lead out to 38-24 after a converted 2-point conversion.

GAME SIX: NORTH TEXAS 47, LA TECH 27 Apogee Stadium | Denton, Texas | October 15, 2022

DENTON, Texas – Louisiana Tech suffered its first conference loss of the season, falling 47-27 to North Texas on Saturday afternoon at Apogee Stadium.

LA Tech (2-4, 1-1 C-USA) got behind 21-3 just 17 minutes into the game. However, behind the arm of Parker McNeil, the Bulldogs managed to claw their way back in by making it a one-possession game at 34-27 with one quarter to go.

However, North Texas (4-3, 2-0 C-USA) continued to pound the ball on the ground in route to outscoring the 'Dogs 17-0 in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

The Mean Green scored early and scored fast, taking just 10 total plays to amass 21 points (included a 51-yard touchdown reception and a 92-yard rush).

While a 46-yard field goal by Buck Buchanan were the only points LA Tech could muster in the first stanza, McNeil started carving up the UNT defense. He found Tahj Magee for a 34-yard grab as well as a 74-yard catch-and-run by Smoke Harris that set up a 1-yard rush up the gut from Greg Garner to make it a 27-17 game at halftime.

Jacob Barnes converted a 23-yard chip shot to make it a seven-point deficit at 27-20. The Bulldogs would get back to within a touchdown again after they converted a fourth-down conversion that resulted in a 58-yard TD by Tre Harris, making it 34-27 with 1:19 to go in the third quarter.

That was all the points LA Tech could register as North Texas tallied four sacks in the fourth quarter while also getting a pair of field goals and another long rushing touchdown.

LA Tech did not turn the ball over and was able to record 504 yards of total offense, 424 of that through the air by McNeil. Smoke Harris (156 yards) and Tre Harris (129) did much of the damage from the skill position.

Meanwhile, UNT racked up 671 total yards of offense with 475 of that coming on the ground. The Mean Green were a perfect 3-for-3 on fourth-down conversions and 5-for-5 in the red zone.

GAME SEVEN: RICE 42, LA TECH 41 Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | October 22, 2022

RUSTON, La. – Louisiana Tech suffered a heartbreaking loss on Saturday, falling 42-41 in overtime to Rice inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

LA Tech (2-5, 1-2 C-USA) had as much as a 10-point advantage, leading throughout the first three quarters. However, Rice (4-3, 2-1 C-USA) jumped out on top with back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth to go up 35-27.

With both Bulldog quarterbacks – Parker McNeil and Matthew Downing – having suffered injuries in game, Landry Lyddy came in with 37 seconds left and threw a dime to Cyrus Allen who made the acrobatic catch, getting a foot down for the score. An even better catch was made on the two-point conversion by Tre Harris who brought in the one-handed grab to tie it up 35-all and send it to overtime.

It only took the Owls three plays to drive 25 yards for a touchdown in the first OT period to make it 42-35. With the 'Dogs facing a 4th-and-3, Lyddy found T. Harris in the corner for his third TD reception. The two tried to hookup again, going for the win on another two-point conversion, but the ball was overthrown.

McNeil and the Bulldogs were rolling early on, jumping out to a 10-0 lead thanks to an 8-yard strike to T. Harris and a 48-yard field goal by Buck Buchanan. McNeil suffered an injury on his next offensive play, taking a big hit on a 3-yard scramble, making way for Downing to come in.

After the Owls had three turnovers on their first five offensive possessions – one turnover on downs and two lost fumbles – they finally found the end zone with just 2:06 remaining in the first half.

The score would remain 10-7 in favor of the Bulldogs heading into halftime. In the second half, the scoring ramped up for both teams. Rice scored two touchdowns in the third quarter while LA Tech put up 17 in the stanza to cling to a 27-21 lead.

That was until the Owls took the lead when quarterback TJ McMahon broke off a 64-yard touchdown run. Sticking to the ground game, they extended their lead with a 17-yard rush by Luke McCaffrey who also racked up 171 receiving yards.

LA Tech's three quarterbacks combined for 229 passing yards and five touchdowns, each with at least one. T. Harris tallied a team-high eight catches for 92 yards and three scores and Marquis Crosby picked up 87 yards on the ground.

GAME EIGHT: FIU 42, LA TECH 34
Riccardo Silva Stadium | Ruston, Fla. | October 28, 2022

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech lost in heartbreaking fashion for the second game in a row, falling 42-34 to FIU in double overtime on Friday night at Ricardo Silva Stadium.

With LA Tech (2-6, 1-3 C-USA) starting true freshman Landry Lyddy at quarterback and short two of their top receivers (Griffin Hebert out for a second straight game and Tre Harris leaving early due to injury), the Bulldogs still came from behind in the fourth quarter to take a 27-24 lead.

FIU (4-4, 2-2 C-USA) managed to drive the ball 69 yards with no timeouts, kicking a 28-yard field goal to send the game into overtime.

The Bulldogs got the ball first in OT and it was back-to-back rushes of nine and five yards by Marquis Crosby that got them into the end zone. The Panthers matched though, sending the game into a second OT period.

The home team needed just two plays and a converted two-point conversion to make it 42-34. After one first down gained by the 'Dogs on an 11-yard catch by Nate Jones, four straight incompletions ended the contest.

LA Tech was clicking on all cylinders early, scoring on drives of 75, 61, and 75 on its first three offensive possessions - 1-yard QB sneak by Lyddy, 36-yard FG by Jacob Barnes and 29-yard rushing TD by Crosby.

The Bulldogs held a 17-7 advantage early in the second quarter, but the momentum shifted in favor of the Panthers. The home team took advantage of short field position, mainly by winning the special teams battle (blooped onside kick recovered, 17-yard punt by LA Tech, and blocked field goal).

FIU ended up scoring 17 consecutive points, taking a 24-17 advantage into the fourth quarter. LA Tech ended up totaling 184 yards on the ground, nine of which came on a speedy rush to the outside by Charvis Thornton to even things up at 24-all with 13:01 remaining. Another short FG by Barnes, this one from 32 yards, allowed by the Bulldogs to retake the lead until the Panthers countered with a short FG of their own.

In his first collegiate start, Lyddy went 28-of-40 for 256 passing yards, distributing the ball to nine different receivers. Smoke Harris totaled a team-high nine catches while Jones registered a team-high 72 receiving yards.

GAME NINE: LA TECH 40, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 24 Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | October 22, 2022

RUSTON, La. – Louisiana Tech dominated on offense, defense, and special teams to put an end to its three-game losing skid, defeating Middle Tennessee by a final score of 40-24 on Saturday afternoon inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

LA Tech (3-6, 2-3 C-USA) got 100-yard games on the ground (Marquis Crosby) and in the air (Tre Harris and Cyrus Allen), five takeaways and four sacks by the defense (including a pick six), and four made field goals by Jacob Barnes in picking up their second league win.

Middle Tennessee (4-5, 1-4 C-USA) got on the scoreboard first, cashing in on a 69-touchdown run after both teams went three-and-out on their opening possession.

Then came the big plays for the Bulldogs. Parker McNeil, after missing last week's game due to injury, connected on back-to-back throws of 36 yards to T. Harris and 41 yards to Cyrus Allen which knotted things up at 7-7.

The two squads traded touchdowns again, LA Tech getting there's on a 10-yard reception by T. Harris and MTSU pounding in a 2-yard run, making things even again at 14-14 early in the second quarter.

Then the defense and special teams started to take over.

The 'Dogs got their first field goal from Jacob Barnes of the 40-yard variety. The kicker tacked on another from 36 yards after the kick return team recovered a fumble.

T. Harris continued to be unstoppable, reeling in a 27-yard touchdown to cap a drive which included back-to-back one-handed grabs by the standout wide receiver.

The Blue Raiders did not go away though, slicing the deficit to six at 27-21 after scoring a TD with 11 seconds remaining in the first half. They got the ball first to start the second half, but the visitors could only muster three second-half points.

LA Tech picked off Chase Cunningham on three straight possessions, two by Myles Brooks and one by Willie Roberts that was returned for an 18-yard pick six. Barnes tacked on two more field goals in the third quarter for good measure to put the game away.

GAME 11: Charlotte 26, LA TECH 21

Jerry Richardson Stadium | Charlotte, N.C. | November 19, 2022

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Louisiana Tech's late comeback effort fell short as they suffered a 26-21 loss to the Charlotte 49ers on Saturday afternoon at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

Trailing by double-digits in the fourth quarter, LA Tech (3-8, 2-5 C-USA) cut it to a one-possession game on two occasions, the last one being after Marquis Crosby pounded his third rushing touchdown of the game with 3:05 to go.

However, Charlotte (3-9, 2-6 C-USA) managed to run the clock out thanks to a questionable pass interference call and a big 3rd-down conversion by Calvin Camp who got 11 yards in the ground when he needed just five to move the chains.

The 49ers were the first to get on the scoreboard. After a scoreless first quarter (included a blocked FG attempt by LA Tech), Antonio Zita connected on a 22-yard chip shot after the Bulldog defense had a goal line stand inside the 10-yard line.

LA Tech took its first and only lead on the next drive, going 75 yards in 15 plays to go up 7-3 with 8:04 to go in the second quarter. The drive included a 39-yard pass and catch by Cyrus Allen and a 3-yard score up the gut on 4th-down by Crosby.

The lead was short-lived as Charlotte went 79 yards on 10 plays, capped off by a 4-yard rushing TD by Camp to give the home team a 10-7 edge. They closed out the half with another chip shot by Zita, a score that was setup by an interception in the red zone from Landry Lyddy.

The lone score in the third quarter came from the 49ers Camp who found his way through traffic up the middle for a 25-yard scamper to make it 19-7.

The 'Dogs fought back in the fourth quarter though, slicing the deficit down to 19-14 thanks to the ground game. Crosby and Charvis Thornton combined for 10 carries, ending it with a 6-yard rushing TD by No. 33.

It took only two plays though for the 49ers to push their lead back to double-digits at 26-14, but the 'Dogs countered again thanks to a deep reception by Nate Jones up the sideline and an 11-yard TD by Crosby.

Down 26-21 and with all three timeouts, LA Tech was not able to get the ball back to have a chance to win it.

LA Tech had 137 yards on the ground (105 of those by Crosby). Six different Bulldogs caught passes from Lyddy who was 23-of-31 for 213 passing yards. Smoke Harris caught nine of those balls, a game high, for 51 yards.

GAME 12: Charlotte 26, LA TECH 21 Jerry Richardson Stadium | Charlotte, N.C. | November 19, 2022

RUSTON - The Louisiana Tech football team concluded its season with a 37-27 loss in a steady downpour at Joe Aillet Stadium on Senior Day.

The Bulldogs eclipsed the century mark on the ground with 220 yards for the sixth consecutive game and eighth time this season. Redshirt sophomore running back Charvis Thornton had a career day rushing for 132 yards on eight carries for one touchdown. Thornton's touchdown came on a 63-yard dash at the 9:39 mark in the third quarter.

The Blazer's (6-6, 4-4 C-USA) two-back rushing attack of DeWayne McBride and Jermaine Brown Jr. proved to be the difference maker as they accounted for 391 of their 406 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

LA Tech (3-9, 2-6 C-USA) got on the board in the first half courtesy of true freshman kicker Buck Buchanan nailing a field goal from 46 and 49 yards.

After Buchanan's first field goal, UAB answered back with a 29-yard touchdown dash from Jermaine Brown Jr. to take the lead, 7-3, with 9:17 left in the first quarter.

The Blazers then extended their lead with a blocked punt return for a touchdown and a 39-yard field goal to make it 17-3 in favor of the visitors.

Buchanan's second field goal came as time expired in the second quarter to make it 17-6 heading into intermission.

McBride, the nation's second-ranked rusher opened the second half scoring with a nine-yard rush to put UAB ahead 24-6.

Thornton gave Tech its first touchdown of the game at the 9:39 mark in the third quarter to make it 24-13 UAB, courtesy of his 63-yard run, which was the longest touchdown rush by a LA Tech player this season.

Brown Jr. then found the end zone again from 23 yards out to extend the UAB lead to 17 points.

Tech struck back when Jack Turner connected with Tre Harris for his first career passing touchdown on a 17-yard pass with 2:27 left in the third quarter to bring the Dogs within 10. Harris led the Dogs with 63 yards receiving and six receptions.

Turner was solid in his relief of Landry Lyddy, completing 15 of 25 passes for 167 yards while tossing a touchdown and interception.

Two plays later, UAB answered when Dylan Hopkins threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Tre Shropshire, increasing the visitors' lead to 37-20.
