OPENING KICKOFF

SERIES HISTORY

WKU and Louisiana Tech are knotted up with five wins each in the all-time series, which dates back to 1939. The Hilltoppers have won the last two meetings, which were both played in Ruston, Louisiana. Last year's meeting was the first since 2018. The Hilltoppers are 3-1 against the Bulldogs in Bowling Green, Kentucky. WKU held on for a 35-28 last season at Louisiana Tech, and were led in the game by receiver Malachi Corley, who had eight receptions for 207 yards and three touchdowns.

LAST TIME OUT

WKU Football moved to 5-0 in Conference USA play with a 41-28 win over New Mexico State on Saturday, Nov. 9, at Aggie Memorial Stadium in Las Cruces, New Mexico. It was the fourth consecutive win for the Hilltoppers (7-2 overall, 5-0 CUSA). WKU is one of two teams sitting at 5-0 in CUSA play after Saturday's games. WKU's defense forced five turnovers in the game, while the Hilltopper offense posted its third-highest point total of the season.

CUSA STANDINGS

The Hilltoppers sit atop the CUSA standings entering this week's games. They're one of two unbeaten teams in league play, along with Jax State, with both currently boasting a 5-0 record. It's the second time WKU has been 5-0 in league play and the first since 2015, when the Hilltoppers went 8-0 in regular-season CUSA play before claiming the conference championship. Sam Houston is behind WKU and Jax State at 4-1 in CUSA play, while Liberty is fourth at 4-2.

BOWL ELIGIBILITY

WKU became bowl eligible for the sixth time in six seasons under Tyson Helton with its 31-14 win over Kennesaw State. The win marked the first time WKU has become bowl eligible before November under Helton and the first time the program has become bowl eligible before November since 2016. WKU became bowl eligible in October three times before – in 2012, 2015 and 2016. WKU is one of only 16 programs that played in a bowl game each of the five seasons from 2019-23, and one of only seven programs to win a bowl game each year from 2021-23.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

WKU is 4-0 at home for the first time since the 2015 season, when the Hilltoppers finished 6-0 in games at Houchens-Smith Stadium, including a win in the CUSA Championship game.

WHAT YOU DO IN NOVEMBER, THEY REMEMBER

WKU is 16-4 under Tyson Helton in games played in November, including a 15-3 record against CUSA competition. The Hilltoppers have won three straight games in November and five of the last six.

DEFENSE HOLDING STRONG

WKU has been stout since the season-opening loss at Alabama. The Hilltoppers are allowing only 17.0 points per game over their last eight games, and have allowed more than 21 points in a game during that stretch only once. WKU has been especially good in the red zone all season, allowing scores just 62.5% of the time. The Hilltoppers rank first in CUSA and third nationally entering this week's games in the category. WKU posted five turnovers gained in the most recent game at New Mexico State, and are tied for first in CUSA in the category and are tied for 14th in the category nationally.

TYSON HELTON

HEAD COACH | @COACH_HELTON

8TH YEAR AT WKU – 6TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH | HOUSTON, '99

Tyson Helton was named Western Kentucky University's 21st head football coach on November 27, 2018. The 2024 campaign will mark his sixth season at the helm of the Hilltopper program after producing a 40-26 mark (including 28-11 in CUSA play) and reaching five bowl games in his first five years, with victories in four of those bowl games.

Helton led his team to an 8-5 record and a fifth consecutive bowl game during the 2023 season. WKU became one of only 16 teams to play in a bowl game each of the last five seasons, and became one of only seven programs to win a bowl game in each of the last three years when Helton's Hilltoppers rallied from a 28-0 deficit to defeat Old Dominion 38-35 in overtime in the Famous Toastery Bowl. The win marked the fourth-largest comeback ever in a bowl game.

Helton's program faced a lot of uncertainty heading into the 2022 campaign after losing record-setting quarterback Bailey Zappe along with both coordinators, but Helton added the right pieces to put the Hilltoppers back together and produced another 9-5 season. Transfer quarterback Austin Reed led the nation in passing yards offensively while Helton's defense led college football in forced turnovers. The team's success throughout the regular season culminated in an appearance at the 2022 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl where the Tops defeated a 10-win South Alabama team, 44-23.

The 2021 season was arguably Helton's best on The Hill as the Tops strung together a 9-4 record that featured a C-USA East Division Title and a victory over App State in the Boca Raton Bowl. Helton also led the WKU offense to a historic season that saw quarterback Bailey Zappe set new NCAA record in passing yards and touchdowns in a single season. At year's end, Zappe was drafted by the New England Patriots, joining defensive end DeAngelo Malone who was drafted by his hometown Atlanta Falcons.

WKU finished the 2020 campaign with a 5-7 overall record, including a 39-21 loss to Georgia State in the 22nd Annual LendingTree Bowl. The Hilltoppers were only 1-of-16 college football teams in the nation to play in 12 or more games during the COVID-19-affected year.

In his first season as head coach at WKU, Helton led the Hilltoppers to one of the best turnarounds in the nation. With a 9-4 overall record in 2019, WKU tripled its 2018 win total (3-9) and matched the number of victories from the previous two years combined (9-16).

The Hilltoppers' six-win improvement from 2018-to-2019 tied for the third-best in FBS, behind only Navy (8) and Central Michigan (7). WKU was voted to finish fifth in the East in the preseason Conference USA poll, but concluded the year tied for second with a 6-2 league record.

Because of the team's success, Helton was voted 2019

C-USA Coach of the Year, the first Hilltopper head coach since Jack Harbaugh was the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2000. It was only the sixth conference Coach of the Year honor in program history, with the previously-mentioned Harbaugh, Jimmy Feix (1973, 1978 and 1980) and Nick Denes (1963) as the only other WKU head coaches to earn the recognition.

Tyson and his father Kim (at Houston in 1996 – with Tyson on the team as a freshman), are the only father-son duo to each be named Coach of the Year in C-USA's 25-year history in any sport. The Heltons are the first father-son duo to each be named Coach of the Year in any FBS league since the Bowdens – Tommy (Clemson in 2003) and Bobby (Florida State in 1993 and 1997) – in the Atlantic Coast Conference

Helton returned to WKU three years removed from the 2015 football season which ended with the Hilltoppers' final Associated Press ranking of 24 – the highest in school history – and a school-record 12 victories, including the first-ever FBS conference championship. Helton's previous tenure coincided with quarterback Brandon Doughty's astronomical ascension up the NCAA's career record book and total rewriting of the program's own offensive records.

During his three years away from the program, Helton spent two seasons at the University of Southern California as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Clay Helton. Helton developed quarterback Sam Darnold into an All-Pac-12 First Team quarterback and the No. 3 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

In that same draft class, another of Helton's protégés, WKU's Mike White, was also selected in the fifth round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Immediately prior to his return to The Hill as head coach, Helton was Tennessee head coach Jeremy Pruitt's first hire on his initial coaching staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018. In just one season in Knoxville, Helton developed quarterback Jarrett Guarantano into one of the Southeastern Conference's most formidable signal callers. The redshirt sophomore followed an up-and-down freshman campaign by becoming the No. 5 ranked SEC quarterback in passing efficiency (147.8) and completion percentage (64.5). His 144 consecutive pass attempts without an interception set a new school record, and he enjoyed new career highs for completions (27), attempts (39), passing touchdowns (2), and passing yards (328) under Helton's tutelage.

Helton was WKU's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2014 and 2015 under then-head coach Jeff Brohm. WKU's offensive numbers ranked among the nation's elite during Helton's two years on the staff and featured the first-ever 4,500-yard passer (Brandon Doughty) and 1,500-yard rusher (Leon Allen) in the same season in FBS history in 2014.

WKU broke more than two dozen school offensive records under Helton, including the points scored record in each of his two years. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (1st, 177.4), scoring (3rd, 44.3), passing (4th, 372.2), first downs (8th, 349) and total yards (9th, 526.4).

In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351).

Helton was among four finalists for the 2015 FootballScoop.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year Award. He coached quarterback Brandon Doughty to back-to-back Conference USA MVP honors as he threw 97 touchdown passes in 2014 and 2015 (the most in NCAA history in consecutive seasons). Doughty led the nation in 2015 in completion percentage (71.9), passing touchdowns (48), passing yards (5,055) and points responsible for (304) while ranking second in passing efficiency (176.5). That came off a 2014 campaign in which he threw for national bests of 4,830 yards and 49 TDs while winning the Sammy Baugh Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus as the nation's top quarterback. Wide receiver Taywan Taylor ranked second in the nation in 2015 in receiving touchdowns (17) and was third in receiving yards (1,467), both school season records as was his 86 receptions. Fellow receiver Jared Dangerfield had 82 catches in 2015, second most in school history.

Helton spent the 2013 season as Cincinnati's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Cincinnati set a school season total offense record (6,137 yards) as Helton coached tight end Blake Annen and kick returner Ralph David Abernathy IV to All-American Athletic Conference first team honors.

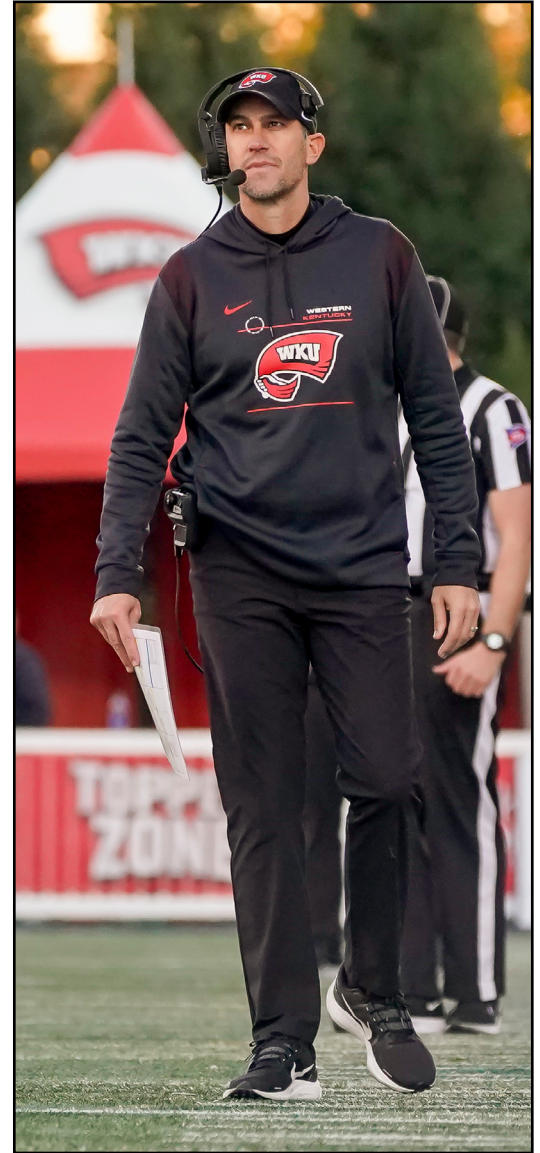

He spent the previous six seasons (2007-12) at UAB, with the first five as the quarterbacks coach, and then 2012 coaching the running backs and serving as the recruiting coordinator. Under Helton's guidance, quarterback Joe Webb developed into one of the most prolific quarterbacks in NCAA history. In 2009, when he finished sixth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency, Webb became the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. The 2009 and 2010 Blazer offenses produced the two highest total offense yardage totals in UAB history, both topping 5,000 yards. Then in 2012, running back Darrin Reaves was an All-Conference USA first teamer as he ran for 1,037 yards and a school-record 13 scores.

Helton coached tight ends and special teams at Memphis for three years (2004-06). Tigers' kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who established the school career scoring record, was Conference USA's Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005 and has since won three Super Bowls with the New England Patriots.

Helton began his coaching career at Hawaii for four years (2000-03), the first year as a graduate assistant working with the special teams and the final three seasons as the special teams coach. In 2001, his first as a full-time coach, the Warriors led the nation in kickoff return yardage and broke the NCAA record for season kickoff return average. Return specialist Chad Owens set NCAA game records for most combined return yardage and most kickoff return yardage and tied an NCAA record with 2 scoring kick returns in a game.

Helton played quarterback at Houston (1996-99), where he earned a bachelor's degree in business in 1999, after starring at Clements High in Sugar Land (Texas). His father, Kim, was the head coach at Houston during Tyson's tenure.

Helton and his wife, April, have two daughters, Shelby Grace and Presley, and twin boys, Cole and Clay. Besides being Houston's head coach (1993-99), his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and UAB), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and CFL (Toronto Argonauts).

PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Expectations are high for the Hilltoppers in 2024. WKU was picked second in the 2024 CUSA Football Media Predicted Order of Finish, while running back Elijah Young, offensive lineman Quantavious Leslie, defensive lineman Hosea Wheeler, defensive back Upton Stout, and kicker Lucas Carneiro were named to the CUSA Preseason Watch List. Carneiro was also named the league's Preseason Special Teams Player of the Year. Six Hilltoppers – Stout, Anthony Johnson Jr., Leslie, Dalvin Smith, Kisean Johnson and TJ Finley – were named to the Shrine Bowl 1000 Watchlist. Finley was also on watch lists for the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, the Davey O'Brien Award, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Reese's Senior Bowl. Leslie was included on the Outland Trophy Preseason Watch List, while Johnson was on the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List, Smith was on the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, Easton Messer was on the Paul Hornung Award Preseason Watch List, Young was on the Doak Walker Award Watch List and Wheeler was named to the Lombardi Award Watch List.

NEW THREADS

WKU broke out new-look uniforms in 2023 – most notably with the special edition Big Red helmets, which featured seven different Big Red logos worn by players based on position. This season, the Hilltoppers are bringing back red helmets to join a lineup that also includes white and black helmets. For the Oct. 10 game against UTEP, WKU wore special edition Big Red helmets, featuring Big Red's eyes as the helmet decal.

COACHING CAROUSEL

WKU dealt with the coaching carousel between the 2022 and 2023 seasons, with only three full-time assistants remaining with the team for 2023. The Hilltoppers have seen some slight changes to the coaching staff during the most recent offseason, but were able to retain much of the staff from 2023. Joining the program for 2024 are offensive coordinator Will Friend, offensive line coach Joe Bernardi, outside linebackers coach/run game specialist Kap Dede, assistant offensive line coach Kevin O'Brien, analyst Grant Chesnut, analyst Chat Staggs analyst Pat Miller, offensive quality control coach Dontezy Byrd, graduate assistant Staymon Johnson, graduate assistant Chase Wilson and graduate assistant Jonathan Atchley. Drew Hollingshead remains on staff and will serve as the co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, while Zak Mizell was promoted to wide receivers coach and Brayden Herdic was promoted to assistant defensive backs/nickelbacks coach.

IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

The 2024 Hilltoppers feature all sorts of family ties up and down the roster. Redshirt sophomore quarterback Turner Helton is the nephew of head coach Tyson Helton. Coach Helton's brother, Clay Helton, who is the head football coach at Georgia Southern, is Turner Helton's father. The other redshirt sophomore quarterback on the roster, Caden Veltkamp, is the son of WKU's head strength and conditioning coach, Jason Veltkamp. Record-setting quarterback Bailey Zappe from the 2021 WKU team has a younger brother suiting up for the Tops again this season in redshirt sophomore linebacker Trent Zappe.

HOMETOWN HEROES

WKU's 2024 roster features six players from Bowling Green, Kentucky, in Elvin Fofanah, Kolbyn Price, Javy Bunton, Lofton Howard, Terrion Thompson and Caden Veltkamp. Fofanah, Price, Bunton and Thompson all prepped at Bowling Green High School, while Howard attended Greenwood High School and Veltkamp played at South Warren High School. Also hailing from southcentral Kentucky are wide receiver Jax Cooper from Scottsville, wide receiver Dalvin Smith from Glasgow and Aiden Miller from Glasgow. In total, WKU's roster features 17 players from the Bluegrass State. Among the others previously listed are wide receiver Easton Messer from Louisville, defensive back Khrystian Washington from Louisville, kicker Jackson Smith from Danville, offensive lineman Marshall Jackson from Brandenburg, offensive lineman Evan Wibberley from Edgewood, offensive lineman Gabe Claybrook from London, tight end Noah Meyers from Louisville and defensive lineman Jalen Hand from Lexington.

PENALTY FREE

WKU has committed just one penalty over its last two games. WKU did not have a penalty in the win over Kennesaw State, marking the program's first penalty-free game since the Oct. 10, 2020, game against Marshall – a span of 57 games. WKU had one penalty at New Mexico State in its last game. The Hilltoppers are first in CUSA and tied for second nationally in fewest penalties and fewest penalties per game.

CLIMBING THE CAREER RANKS

Dalvin Smith has 19 touchdown receptions in his WKU career after catching a 30-yard scoring pass in the win over UTEP. The 19 touchdown receptions are tied for seventh most in program history with Jared Dangerfield, Curtis Hamilton and Jay Davis. Taywan Taylor holds the program record with 41 touchdown receptions.

NEW FACES

WKU has become accustomed to using the transfer portal to build teams under Head Coach Tyson Helton and that is no different this season. The Hilltoppers have a total of 52 new players in the program that were not with the team in 2023. That group includes 24 offensive players and 22 defensive players. Of the 52, 32 arrived via the transfer portal and 20 are true freshmen. Of the 33 transfers, 14 are offensive players, 14 are defensive players and 23 have been on an FBS roster at some point in their collegiate career. Of the 20 true freshmen, 10 are offensive players and eight are defensive players.

WKU CELEBRATES GROUNDBREAKING OF HILLTOPPER FIELDHOUSE & PRESS BOX

WKU and WKU Athletics celebrated the groundbreaking of the Hilltopper Fieldhouse and new football press box on Friday, Nov. 10, 2023, at the site of the new Fieldhouse.

Construction on Hilltopper Fieldhouse is underway with project completion late in 2025. The press box is now being used for the 2024 season.

The 120,000 square-foot Hilltopper Fieldhouse will be home to the WKU Forensics and Esports programs, as well as provide practice and training space for the Big Red Marching Band and Hilltopper Athletics. The facility will be built upon the land that currently is home to the football practice field, in between Houchens Industries-L.T. Smith Stadium and Nick Denes Field.

The 15,300 square-foot press box serves as a first-class home for media coverage of Hilltopper Football games. Situated above the existing Harbaugh Club, the press box houses the radio booths, coaches' booths, working press and game operations. Premium suites will also be in the new facility.

The Board of Regents approved the project in June 2022.

WKU selected K. Norman Berry Associates Architects in association with HKS Architects for the project. A Steering Committee comprised of WKU faculty and staff worked with KNBA Architects & HKS Architects to design the new facilities.

WKU UNVEILS NEW SURFACE FOR FEIX FIELD

WKU is playing on a brand new, state-of-the-art FieldTurf Vertex CORE surface on Feix Field in the 2024 season.

The newest addition to the field design is Big Red, WKU's lovable mascot, on each 25-yard line opposite the Conference USA logo.

The end zones remain black, with white "Hilltoppers" block text outlined in red instead of the "WKU" red block text outlined in white on the most recent surface, which was installed before the 2014 season. The WKU red towel primary logo remains at midfield, while the "Feix Field" text moves to each sideline on the new turf.

BOWL GAMES UNDER TYSON HELTON

2023 FAMOUS TOASTERY BOWL

WKU Football overcame a 28-point deficit to win the 2023 Famous Toastery Bowl, 38-35, in overtime at Jerry Richardson Stadium. The 28-point comeback was the fourth largest in college football history for a bowl game. Quarterback Caden Veltkamp was named Offensive MVP, going 40-of-52 for 383 yards and five touchdowns – three of them to Dalvin Smith – and Anthony Johnson Jr. was named Defensive MVP with eight tackles and a crucial interception.

After mounting the thrilling comeback – WKU went down 28-0 in the first half – Lucas Carneiro ended the game by drilling a 29-yard walk-off field goal in overtime to give the Hilltoppers their third bowl win in the last three seasons.

2022 R+L CARRIERS NEW ORLEANS BOWL

Led by its electric offense and dominant defense, WKU defeated South Alabama 44-23 to win the 2022 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl Championship at the iconic Caesars Supperdome.

The Hilltoppers put up 677 yards of total offense on the night, including 522 yards passing. Those 522 yards set a New Orleans Bowl record, marking the best passing display the bowl game has ever seen. Of those 522 passing yards, 497 belonged to quarterback Austin Reed. That mark set the individual record for passing yards in the New Orleans Bowl, and led to him being named the bowl game's Most Valuable Player. It was also the most passing yards a Hilltopper quarterback has ever thrown for in a bowl game. Reed's receivers were dynamic on the night, as Dalvin Smith, Jaylen Hall, and Malachi Corley all surpassed 100 yards on the night. It marked the first time three WKU receivers passed the century mark in a single game since 2017 against Middle Tennessee. Smith and Hall both caught a touchdown each, while Corley hauled in two scores. Hall's touchdown reception came on a trick play with Smith recording the touchdown pass.

2021 ROOFCLAIM.COM BOCA RATON BOWL

WKU Football quarterback Bailey Zappe completed 33-of-47 passes for 422 yards and six touchdowns, leading the Hilltoppers to a 59-38 victory over App State in the 2021 RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl.

With 5,967 passing yards and 62 passing touchdowns in 14 contests, Zappe set new all-time single-season FBS records. The previous record holders were Texas Tech's B.J. Symons, who had 5,833 passing yards in 13 games in 2003 and LSU's Joe Burrow, who had 60 passing touchdowns in 15 games in 2019.

2020 LENDINGTREE BOWL

WKU Football dropped its final game of the season, 39-21, to Georgia State in the LendingTree Bowl. The Hilltoppers finished the season with a 5-7 overall record, including a 4-3 mark in conference play.

Offensively, Tyrrell Pigrome completed 17-of-33 passes for 180 yards while adding a touchdown on the ground, but threw two interceptions. Tight end Joshua Simon racked up a team-high 84 receiving yards and Jones ran for a team-best 57 yards. Both Jones and Walker also recorded touchdowns in the contest. On the other side of the ball, Nick Days led the squad with a career-high 12 total tackles, followed by defensive tackle Ricky Barber, who collected 10 total tackles and one tackle for loss. The Hilltoppers recorded a combined 10 tackles for loss in the game, with eight different players contributing to that total.

2019 SERVPRO FIRST RESPONDER BOWL

Then-Freshman Cory Munson kicked a career-long 52-yard field goal with no time left after a rules review to give Western Kentucky a 23-20 victory over Western Michigan in the First Responder Bowl.

The Hilltoppers (9-4) drove 36 yards in 27 seconds before Munson kicked his third field goal in four tries. The clock had expired and Munson was given the final play after a five-yard defensive substitution penalty against the Broncos for having 12 players on the field.
