BULLDOG NOTES

ALONZO IN THE ZONE

Third-year linebacker Alonzo Jackson Jr. had a stellar performance at Troy, making 11 total tackles along with 2.5 tackles for a loss, 2 sacks and a 66-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown. His performance gave him Week 10 SBC Defensive Player of the Week honors. It was his third game making at least 10 stops and sixth with at least one sack. Jackson is the only player in the country with 15+ TFLs, 9+ sacks and 3 fumble recoveries.

CAREER DAY FOR CALWISE

Wide receiver Marcus Calwise Jr. set new career highs with 9 receptions and 137 receiving yards, while also adding his third receiving touchdown as a Bulldog in Saturday's 41-17 win at Troy. It is the second time Calwise has posted 100+ receiving yards in a game, giving LA Tech SBC bests with eight total 100-yard recieving performances by a conference-leading four different players.

ELI FOR 1K

Fourth-year tight end Eli Finley eclipsed 100 career receptions as well as 1,000 career receiving yards following his dominant performance on Oct. 24 against Old Dominion. He is the 25th Bulldog in program history to reach both milestones, and the first to do so since Tru Edwards (2022-24).

DEFENSE PITCHING GOOSE EGGS

For the first time since 1959, Louisiana Tech has consecutive shutouts following a 24-0 win at ULM and a 26-0 win over Old Dominion for Homecoming in Ruston. During that 1959 season, LA Tech had three separate occasions of shutting out opponents in back-to-back games.

LET BLAKE BAKE

Quarterback Blake Baker is off to a strong start in conference play, with 1,144 passing yards on a completion rate of 76.5% and an efficiency rating of 174.31, 12 total touchdowns and no interceptions. He had a career day in the program's first-ever Sun Belt game with 319 passing yards on a career-best 76.2% completion rate (min. 25 attempts) along with 3 passing touchdowns and 1 rushing score. It was just the second time in his career with 300+ passing yards and the first time to do so along with multiple passing touchdowns. His three scores through the air tied his career high from the season-opening win over Northwestern State and his 54 rushing yards marked a season high for the Cypress, Texas native.

Baker continued to dominate through the air, posting his third game of the season (and his career) with 300+ passing yards and his third consecutive game with multiple touchdowns and no turnovers. His 82.4% completion rate was a new single-game career high for the Cypress, Texas native.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Lousiana Tech has seen eight separate 100-yard receving performances, two of which were during the Bulldogs' inaugural Sun Belt win over the Ragin' Cajuns of UL-Lafayette and two more in LA Tech's shutout victory over Old Dominion. Eli Finley (9 rec., 114 yards, 2 TD) and Talyn Shettron (8 rec., 102 yards) were the duo in the SBC opener, followed with Marcus Calwise Jr. (8 rec., 119 yards) putting on a show against ULM in Monroe on Oct. 17. Calwise Jr.'s performance set new single-game career highs in catches and yardage, as well as giving Tech it's SBC-leading fifth 100-yard receiving game by four different receivers, which is also the most for a single team in the conference. It is also the first time since 2022 the Bulldogs have at least four different receivers with a 100-yard receiving performance through the first six games (Cyrus Allen at Missouri; Griffin Hebert at No. 4 Clemson; Tre Harris vs. UTEP; Smoke Harris at North Texas).

The Bulldogs followed with a pair of 100-yard receiving performances by Mickens (8 rec., 110 yds) and Finley (10 rec., 128 yds, 1 TD) in LA Tech's 26-0 win over Old Dominion. Finley was the first SBC pass catcher to eclipse double-digit receptions in a single game this season, and Mickens leads the conference with three 100-yard performances.

TECH #TAKERS

The Bulldogs have 12 consecutive games forcing a turnover dating back to the 2025 season, with 19 interceptions and nine fumble recoveries in that span. LA Tech also has a turnover forced in 20 of their last 22 games since the start of last year. Among those contests, the Bulldogs have forced multiple turnovers in 12 of them. Since the start of 2025, the Bulldogs have picked off opponents on 34 separate occasions along with 11 fumble recoveries. Since the start of 2025, the Bulldogs have nine games with multiple interceptions--tied with Notre Dame for the most in the country over that span.

SWARMING DEFENSE

Louisiana Tech's defense entered Week 10 leading the Sun Belt with 10 interceptions, a conference-best 8.4 TFLs/game and 67 total team TFLs for the second-most. The Bulldogs also lead the Sun Belt in turnovers gained (16), and are top 3 in the conference in opposing 4th-down conversions (.333), passing defense (197.3), scoring defense (20.9), opposing passing efficiency (118.81), team sacks (2.75/game) and total defense (332.6). Alonzo Jackson Jr.'s two fumble recoveries are in a massive tie for the fourth-most in FBS and an eight-man tie for the most in the Sun Belt. Janard Lockhardt's 1.25 passes defended/game are tied for the fifth-most in the country and second-most in the SBC, and Jordan McRae's Bulldog-leading three picks are tied for the third-most in the SBC and top 20 in the country.

STRONG RECEIVING CORE

LA Tech saw three receivers with 90+ receiving yards in the same game for the first time since the 2015 New Orleans Bowl on Saturday. Eli Finley had a game-high 114 receiving yards with two touchdowns for his second career game with 100+ yards receiving, following with Talyn Shettron (8 rec., 102 rec. yards) and Jalen Mickens (9 rec., 92 rec. yards, 1 TD). Mickens set a new single-game career high with his nine catches, and Shettron posted his first 100-yard receiving game as a Bulldog and the second of his collegiate career. Finley and Shettron are also the first receiving duo to post 100 receiving yards each in the same game since Smoke Harris (129) and Cyrus Allen (103) at Middle Tennessee on October 10, 2023.

FLIPPING THE FIELD

Punter Lexington Matthews's average of 45.6 yards per punt ranks as the second-longest average in the Sun Belt entering Week 8 of the 2026 season. His 67-yard punt against ULL is tied for the third-longest punt in the conference this season, along with his seven punts of 50+ yards tied for the second-most in the SBC.

KEEPING TRADITION IN NEW ERA

Louisiana Tech opened up the Sun Belt era with a fourth-quarter comeback to down in-state rival UL-Lafayette, 32-31, in the program's first-ever SBC game at Joe Aillet Stadium. It was the 49th all-time win over the Ragin' Cajuns as well as the ninth-straight win since 1997. The Bulldogs also extend their winning streak at home to five games.

GETTING TRICKY

The Bulldogs have two trick passing plays that have been executed to perfection. In the season opener, tight end Joshua Brantley had a 16-yard touchdown pass to Talyn Shettron vs. Northwestern State on Sept. 5. On Oct. 3 vs. Army, quarterback Trey Kukuk threw a lateral pass to the right side of the field to Marcus Calwise Jr., who then reared back and fired a pass back across to the left sideline and found a running Dylone Brooks in stride for a 74-yard touchdown.

BROOKS BOOKIN' IT

Dylone Brooks had a career night against Army on Oct. 3. The second-year running back racked up 200 all-purpose yards to become the first Bulldog to do so since Smoke Harris had 208 all-purpose yards on Oct. 5, 2023 vs. WKU. He is also the first 100-yard rusher this season for LA Tech, ending the game with 119 rushing yards and 81 receiving. Majority of his yardage came on two plays--a 72-yard rushing touchdown after getting through a pile of defenders, and a 74-yard touchdown reception on a trick play pass from wide receiver Marcus Calwise Jr.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Louisiana Tech enters Saturday riding a four-game winning streak when playing at Joe Aillet Stadium, with their last loss at home being a heartbreaking 28-27 final in overtime to Western Kentucky. Since the start of 2024, the Bulldogs are 11-3 at Joe Aillet Stadium.

MICKENS STOCK RISING

Jalen Mickens has quickly emerged as a top receiving target for Louisiana Tech through four games, with his 342 receiving yards and his 85.5 receiving yards per game both pacing all Sun Belt receivers through Week 5. He is also one of four Sun Belt receivers with 20+ catches and 300+ yards thus far in the season, and the only Sun Belt receiver with multiple 100-yard receiving performances this year.

PICK SIX U

Since 2017, Louisiana Tech has been the country's top team when returning interceptions for a touchdown. Since October 1, 2017, the Bulldogs have seen 24 interceptions returned for six points, leading all of FBS in that span which includes some notable programs such as Utah (22), Pitt (22), Alabama (19) and Notre Dame (18).

HONOR THE STARS & STRIPES

Saturday's game vs. Army will be Military Appreciation Day and Legends Day at Joe Aillet Stadium, honoring and celebrating all those that have served in the armed forces, past and present. In celebration of this special game day, the Bulldogs will wear their red Stars & Stripes helmet, blue jersey and white pants against the Black Knights.

DO-IT-ALL 'DOGS

LA Tech has consecutive games with two Bulldogs posting 100 all-purpose yards with Jalen Mickens (164 in Week 1, 101 in Week 2) doing so in each of Tech's first two games. Dedrick Latulas (107) was alongside Mickens in Week 1, while Jordan McRae (100) was the second Bulldog with triple-digit all-purpose yards in Week 2. It is the first time in the Sonny Cumbie era to start the season with multiple 100 all-purpose-yard players through the first two games of the season, and the first time it has happened since 2017--Teddy Veal (126), Boston Scott (110) and Jarred Craft (103) acheived the feat in Week 1 against Northwestern State, followed with Marcus Gaines (104) and Scott (104) in Week 2 against Mississippi State.

MAGIC MICKENS

WR Jalen Mickens has back-to-back games with 100 receiving yards and a score to start the 2026 campaign, becoming the first Bulldog to do so since Tru Edwards in 2024. Mickens ended Week 2 at LSU with a team-high 6 receptions and 101 yards, icluding a 67-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter against the Tigers.

ALONZO IN THE ZONE

Linebacker Alonzo Jackson Jr. made a statement on the defensive side in front of a crowd of 100,000+ at Tiger Stadium, recording the second-most tackles on the team with 12 and leading with 3 sacks and 3.5 total tackles for a loss. The third year Bulldog leads all Sun Belt players with 5.0 TFLs and is tied for the most sacks at 3.0 thus far. His sack and TFL totals also rank among the top 5 in FBS.

MCRAE MAKING HISTORY

DB Jordan McRae made program history against LSU on Saturday, returning a goal-line interception all the way back for a 100-yard pick six in Tiger Stadium. It is the longest interception or fumble return in program history, and McRae is the first player in 2026 with a 100-yard interception return after there were four recorded last year at the FBS level. The third year Bulldog posted a game-high 13 tackles which was also a new single-game career high, and his interception was the second pick six of his career--had an 83-yard interception return for a touchdown his freshman year at Georgia Military College.

WEEK 1 DOMINANCE

The Bulldogs outgained Northwestern State 528-129, giving the Bulldogs their lowest total yardage allowed in a game since allowing 142 to New Mexico State on Oct. 17, 2009. Tech's 528 yards are also the most in a season opener since recording 587 total yards of offense on Sept. 5, 2015 in a 62-15 win over Southern at Joe Aillet Stadium

NEW 'DOGS ON THE FIELD

Among the 22 starters for Louisiana Tech in the Sept. 5 season opener, just three players have at least 10 starts in their Bulldog career with Hayden Christman being the only starter with at least 25 starts at LA Tech.

YOU GET SIX! YOU GET SIX!

There were several firsts for Louisiana Tech in their 80-6 win, including the first time with 11-straight touchdown drives and 63 points in a half of play in program history. Along with the high team numbers, there were also several players to score their first touchdown as a Bulldog. First FBS touchdowns belong to Dylone Brooks, Sergio Snider, Dedrick Latulas, Joshua Brantley (passing TD) and Luke Watkins. Jaden Miller and Talyn Shettron brought in their first touchdowns as Bulldogs, with Miller scoring on the ground and Shettron scoring with a receiving score and a rushing score. Shettron is the first Bulldog with a receiving TD and a rushing TD in the same game since Greg Garner on Sept. 11, 2021 vs. Southeastern LA (2 rushing, 1 receiving). Eli Finley and Jay Wilkerson also registered their first touchdown receptions since 2024.

MICKENS ON THE MOVE

Jalen Mickens started the 2026 season off with a 75-yard touchdown reception on the first offensive play of the season, ending the game with 164 all-purpose yards and 133 receiving yards. Mickens is the first Bulldog with 100+ receiving yards in a game since Marlion Jackson (vs. WKU) and Eli Finley (vs. Southern Miss) in 2025.

YEAR TWO LUKE

Second-year defensive coordinator Luke Olson looks to build off success from his first year in 2025, when his defense saw the most defensive touchdowns and second-most interceptions in the country. The Bulldog defense also ranked in the top 10 nationally in 4th down conversion percentage (.500), red zone defense (.718) and total turnovers (25). There is a wealth of experience returning for Olson, including linebackers Kolbe Fields, Zheric Hill, Jadon Mayfield and Alonzo Jackson Jr. Veterans Donovan Rieman and Judd Rouyea look to lead the front line for Olson's defense, while some fresh legs in the secondary feature Sam Fongang, Kam Carter, Amari Butler and Jordan McRae.

NEW LOOK IN THE BACKFIELD

With the departure of Clay Thevenin and Omiri Wiggins to the transfer portal following the 2025 season, LA Tech had some holes to fill. Along with having to replace the team's leading rusher, it was also vital for Sonny Cumbie to find a way to fill the hole of losing the team leader in rushing touchdowns in Andrew Burnette. In doing so, the Bulldogs brought in Jaden Miller, a stand-out running back who transferred in from Keiser. During his time with the Seahawks, Miller was named First Team All-Sun Conference and is coming off a stellar season with 1,127 yards and 18 touchdowns on the ground, becoming the fourth player in Keiser program history to rush for 1,000 yards. He tied for the most rushing touchdowns in a single game with four, and his 24 career touchdowns on the ground at Keiser rank fourth all-time. Through the air, Miller caught 15 passes for 120 yards last year after averaging 20.5 YPC in 2024 with six receptions for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

FINLEY'S FINAL AUDITON

In what has been a very busy offseason for LA Tech tight end Eli Finley, with fall camp and many NFL scouts coming to see the sought-after TE. Eli still has a big season ahead of him--he comes into the season just 35 receptions shy of 100 career catches and 232 receving yards shy of 1,000 for his career. Last year he led the team in receving yards and had a 155-yard game against rival Southern Miss, which earned him the John Mackey Tight End of the week honor. That game was also the first 100-yard receving game from a LA Tech tight end since Dennis Morris in 2009.

THE KUKUK ARMY KNIFE?

After showcasing his dual-threat talents, head coach Sonny Cumbie and Nathan Young have a different gameplan in mind for quarterback Trey Kukuk in 2026. Kukuk was one of two LA Tech players to rush for 600 yards last year, finding the end zone five times and ending the year with three 100-yard rushing games in the last three games, including a career-high 172 rushing yards in a 42-30 win at Missouri State.

ALL-AMERICAN STAFF

Former Louisiana Tech safety Jakari Foster joins the 2026 coaching staff after being named an AP First Team All-American and a Water Camp Second Team All-American, as well as Second Team All-CUSA honors. Foster's eight interceptions were tied for the second-most in a single season in program history and were the most by a Bulldog since 1995. His eight picks also led the country, with one of them returned for a touchdown to contribute to the team's FBS-best seven defensive touchdowns in 2025. Foster will assist first-year safeties coach Dexter McCoil Sr.

RUSTON - Louisiana Tech opened the 2026 season in historic fashion Saturday night, opening the 2026 season with an 80-6 victory over Northwestern State at Origin Bank Field at Joe Aillet Stadium. Tech's 80 points marked the most the Bulldogs have scored as a Division I program, while the 74-point margin of victory was the largest against an FCS or FBS opponent in a season opener in program history.

It is also the most points ever scored at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The Bulldogs (1-0) scored touchdowns on their first 11 possessions of the game, marking the first time in program history LA Tech had found the end zone on each of its first 11 drives. The Bulldogs also scored 63 points in the first half, the most in a half on record in program history—42 of which came during a second-quarter outburst.

Quarterback Blake Baker led the offensive attack in the first half, completing 10 of 14 passes for 232 yards and three touchdowns. Trey Kukuk added four completions on four attempts for 45 yards and two touchdowns, while Joshua Brantley, a native of Ruston, completed his lone pass attempt for a 16-yard touchdown to Talyn Shettron on a trick play in the opening quarter.

Jalen Mickens provided one of the game's biggest plays, hauling in three passes for 133 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown reception on the first offensive play of the season. Eli Finley added four catches for 52 yards and a touchdown, while Shettron accounted for two touchdowns, including a 37-yard rushing score.

The Bulldogs finished with 528 total yards, including 296 through the air and 232 on the ground. Dylone Brooks rushed for 48 yards and a touchdown, while Jaden Miller and Sergio Snider each added rushing touchdowns for their first scores in a Bulldog uniform.

Louisiana Tech's defense was equally dominant, limiting Northwestern State (0-2) to 129 total yards. The Bulldogs held the Demons to 86 rushing yards on 45 attempts, an average of 1.9 yards per rush, and recorded 13 tackles for loss.

The 129 total yards allowed were the fewest by a Louisiana Tech team since the Bulldogs allowed 142 total yards to New Mexico State on Oct. 17, 2009.

Dedrick Latulas provided a spark on special teams, recording 107 all-purpose yards and returning a punt 58 yards for a touchdown. Logan Watkins and Latulas also caught touchdown passes from Kukuk in the second half. Latulas had the first punt returned for a touchdown for LA Tech since November 18, 2023 at Jacksonville State.

The Bulldogs return to action for their first road trip, taking on LSU at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge on Saturday, September 12. Kickoff is set for 6:30 p.m. CT. on SEC Network+.

BATON ROUGE, La. – Louisiana Tech's defense created opportunities throughout the night, including Jordan McRae who delivered a piece of program history, but the Bulldogs fell 45-14 to No. 8 LSU Saturday night at Tiger Stadium.

McRae provided Tech's (1-1) lone touchdown of the first half when he intercepted LSU (2-0) quarterback Sam Leavitt and returned it 100 yards for a touchdown with 1:53 remaining in the second quarter. The return marked the longest interception or fumble return in Louisiana Tech program history.

The Bulldogs forced four LSU turnovers in the first half, marking the most turnovers LA Tech had forced in a game since Sept. 22, 2012, when the Bulldogs forced six turnovers against Illinois. Louisiana Tech recorded three interceptions and recovered one fumble in the first half, with Zheric Hill, McRae and Kam Franklin accounting for the interceptions. McRae forced the fumble which was recovered by Janard Lockhardt and returned 35 yards.

The defense also established itself early against the Tigers' rushing attack. LSU was held to just 13 rushing yards in the first quarter, its fewest in the opening quarter since recording 10 yards against Southeastern on Sept. 20, 2025. The Bulldogs limited LSU to 44 rushing yards in the first half, LSU's lowest first-half rushing total since it recorded 29 yards against Nicholls on Sept. 7, 2024.

The Bulldogs continued to create disruption up front, recording 11 tackles for loss in the contest. Louisiana Tech's previous game with 10 tackles for loss came against Western Kentucky on Oct. 21, 2025. The Bulldogs had not recorded double-digit tackles for loss in consecutive games since 2019, when they did so against UMass on Oct. 12 and Southern Miss on Oct. 19.

McRae finished with 11 tackles, including five solo stops and six assists, while Alonzo Jackson Jr. led Louisiana Tech with 12 tackles and added three sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss.

Offensively, Jalen Mickens provided Louisiana Tech's biggest spark, hauling in six passes for 101 yards and a 67-yard touchdown from Blake Baker in the fourth quarter. Baker completed 11 of 21 passes for 128 yards and one touchdown, while Trey Kukuk added three completions for 15 yards.

Mickens is the first Bulldog with consecutive games posting 100 receiving yards since Tru Edwards in 2024. He had 127 yards receiving on six catches with a touchdown against Middle Tennessee followed with nine catches for 110 yards and two scores at New Mexico State.

Louisiana Tech was held to 132 total yards of offense, its lowest total since recording 154 yards at LSU on Sept. 6, 2025.

The Bulldogs are back on the road next week, heading to Waco, Texas to face Baylor at McLane Stadium on Saturday, September 19. It will be the seventh all-time meeting between the two programs, and the first meeting since 1996. The Bulldogs have not made a visit to the Bears in Waco since 1994.

WACO, Texas – Louisiana Tech built an early offensive rhythm and continued to create opportunities defensively, but Baylor pulled away in the second half as the Bulldogs fell 36-19 to the Bears Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium.

LA Tech (1-2) opened the game with its longest opening drive against a Power Four opponent in the 21st century, marching 75 yards on 15 plays over 6:59. Quarterback Trey Kukuk completed his first four passes of the game, including a 31-yard completion to Jalen Mickens, before Andrew Burnette capped the possession with a 2-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7. The Bulldogs converted all three of their third-down attempts on their first possession.

Baylor (2-1) answered with a pair of second-quarter touchdowns to take a 20-7 lead. The Bears' second touchdown came on a 51-yard pass from Nate Bennett to Louis Brown IV, but LA Tech's Kam Franklin blocked the ensuing extra point to keep the deficit at 13 points.

The Bulldogs continued to generate defensive plays before halftime. Kolbe Fields led Louisiana Tech with seven tackles through two quarters and recorded a sack, while Alonzo Jackson Jr., Jadon Mayfield and ZaQwaun Nunn each added tackles for loss. Nunn also forced a fumble late in the second quarter that was recovered by Mayfield.

Baylor extended its advantage to 29-7 in the third quarter, but Louisiana Tech continued to fight. Eli Finley caught a 19-yard touchdown pass from Kukuk with 8:18 remaining, and Jalen Mickens added a 2-yard rushing touchdown less than three minutes later to cut the deficit to 29-19.

Baylor answered with another touchdown to put the game away. Bennett finished 21-of-24 for 253 yards and three touchdowns, while Jayden McGowan caught two touchdown passes. Kukuk led the Bulldogs with 75 rushing yards and completed 25 of 44 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown.

Finley posted season-best marks for the season with eight receptions for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Mickens finished with four catches for 63 yards. Marcus Calwise Jr. added four receptions for 36 yards—both new single-game highs as a Bulldog for the Eastern Kentucky transfer.

With the loss, Louisiana Tech falls to 1-6 all-time against Baylor and 1-4 in games played in Waco, with Saturday's game being the first-ever meeting at McLane Stadium. The Bulldogs will enter a bye week before hosting Army at home inside Joe Aillet Stadium on Saturday, October 3 for a rematch from the 2024 Independence Bowl. Kickoff with the Black Knights in Ruston is to be announced at a later date.

RUSTON – Louisiana Tech used an explosive offensive performance and held off a late Army rally to earn a 31-29 victory Saturday night at Origin Bank Field at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The Bulldogs (2-2) piled up 503 yards of total offense, including 244 on the ground and 259 through the air, while averaging 8.8 yards per play. It marked Louisiana Tech's second 500-yard performance of the season, joining its 528-yard outing against Northwestern State on Sept. 5.

The victory marked Louisiana Tech's first in four all-time meetings against Army (2-2) and extended the Bulldogs' home winning streak to four games.

Louisiana Tech struck first with an 83-yard opening drive that ended with Sergio Snider breaking free for a 24-yard touchdown untouched by a defender on fourth down. Snider entered the night with just 17 rushing yards on the season before recording his second rushing touchdown of the year. The score extended Tech's streak to seven consecutive home games scoring on its opening possession and six straight with an opening-drive touchdown.

Army answered with Zach Mundell's 21-yard touchdown run, but Louisiana Tech regained the advantage late in the second quarter. Starting at its own 4-yard line, the Bulldogs needed just four plays to travel 96 yards as Dylone Brooks broke loose for a 72-yard touchdown, sending Tech into halftime with a 14-7 advantage. Brooks appeared to have gotten stuck in a pile of linemen, but somehow broke free for the long run and score.

After Army opened the second half with a 54-yard touchdown run by Samari Howard and a successful two-point conversion to take a 15-14 lead, the Bulldogs responded immediately. On the ensuing possession, wide receiver Marcus Calwise Jr. connected with Brooks for a 74-yard touchdown on his first career touchdown pass. Trey Kukuk tossed a lateral pass to the right side of the field to Calwise, who then launched a pass across the field to a wide-open Brooks for his second score of the game.

Kukuk then found Jalen Mickens for the two-point conversion to put Tech back in front, 22-15. Brooks' touchdown gave him the first multi-touchdown game of his career and marked his first game with both a rushing and receiving score.

The Bulldogs stretched the advantage to 28-15 later in the third when Kukuk capped a 65-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run.

Army cut the deficit to 28-22 early in the fourth quarter, but Louisiana Tech answered with a 10-play, 61-yard possession that took 5:43 off the clock. Hunter Rioux finished the drive with a 32-yard field goal to push the advantage back to nine with 7:28 remaining.

The Black Knights pulled within two on Cale Hellums' 6-yard touchdown pass to Parker Poloskey with 1:07 remaining, but Louisiana Tech secured the ensuing onside kick attempt and ran out the remaining time to seal the victory.

Brooks powered the Tech offense with a career night, rushing for 119 yards on seven carries while adding 81 receiving yards on two catches to finish with exactly 200 all-purpose yards. He became the first Bulldog to eclipse 200 all-purpose yards in a game since Smoke Harris totaled 208 against Western Kentucky on Oct. 5, 2023.

Kukuk completed 16 of 22 passes for 185 yards while adding 40 rushing yards and a touchdown. Mickens recorded a career-high and game-high eight receptions despite being held to a season-low 45 receiving yards, while Eli Finley added four receptions for 79 yards.

Defensively, Jadon Mayfield and Kolbe Fields each recorded a game-high 13 tackles. Alonzo Jackson Jr. registered Tech's lone sack, while Jordan McRae intercepted Hellums late in the second quarter. Punter Lexington Matthews was only called on to punt twice in Saturday's win, tying his season low for punts in a single game. However, Matthews tied his season high with each of his punts landing inside the 20-yard line, along with his fifth boot of at least 50 yards.

Louisiana Tech's 31 points were its most ever against Army, surpassing the previous high of 16 in the 2013 neutral-site meeting in Dallas. The victory was also the Bulldogs' second in program history over a U.S. service academy, joining the 48-45 win over No. 25 Navy in the 2016 Armed Forces Bowl. Tech improved to 3-5 all-time against teams from the American Athletic Conference.

The Bulldogs now look ahead to their first-ever Sun Belt game when they open conference play against in-state rival UL-Lafayette on Saturday, October 10. The Bulldogs' and Ragin' Cajuns' first meeting since 2015 is set for 6:30 p.m. CT on ESPN+, with LA Tech entering boasting an eight-game winning streak against ULL. The Bulldogs lead the all-time series, 48-33-6.

MONROE, La. – Louisiana Tech used a dominant defensive performance and three second-half touchdowns to shut out in-state rival ULM, 24-0, Saturday night at FMOL Health | St. Francis Stadium, extending its winning streak to three games while remaining unbeaten in Sun Belt Conference play.

The Bulldogs (4-2, 2-0 SBC) earned their first shutout since defeating Southeastern Louisiana, 24-0, in the 2025 season opener and their first shutout victory in Monroe since a 23-0 win over ULM (0-6, 0-2 SBC) in 1988.

After a scoreless first half, Louisiana Tech seized control when Taeden Rogers intercepted a ULM pass on the opening play of the third quarter. The turnover sparked the Bulldogs' offense, which capitalized on the short field with a touchdown drive capped by Sergio Snider's 5-yard scoring run, his third rushing touchdown of the season.

Louisiana Tech's defense continued to control the contest, forcing consecutive three-and-outs following the opening touchdown. The Bulldogs extended their lead later in the third quarter when quarterback Blake Baker connected with Brayden Bockler on a 2-yard shovel pass for Bockler's first touchdown as a Bulldog.

The Bulldogs added another touchdown in the fourth quarter following a 56-yard reverse by Marcus Calwise Jr. that moved the ball deep into ULM territory. Baker capped the possession with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Bockler, giving the tight end his first career multi-touchdown receiving performance.

Louisiana Tech's defense delivered another pivotal play in the fourth quarter when Kam Franklin intercepted a pass and returned it 66 yards to the ULM 10-yard line. Kaegen Kent followed with a 21-yard field goal to extend the Bulldogs' lead to 24-0.

The Warhawks threatened to break the shutout on their final possession, advancing inside the Louisiana Tech 20-yard line before the Bulldog defense forced a turnover on downs with 1:38 remaining. Trey Kukuk later converted a first down on an 11-yard run to seal the victory.

Calwise highlighted the Bulldogs' offensive production with career highs of eight receptions and 119 receiving yards. Andrew Burnette recorded his third consecutive game with at least 50 rushing yards, while Bockler finished with two touchdown receptions.

Defensively, Louisiana Tech recorded multiple interceptions for the second consecutive game and the third time this season. The Bulldogs have now forced at least one turnover in nine consecutive games dating back to 2025.

The victory marked Louisiana Tech's first three-game winning streak since the end of the 2025 season and gave the Bulldogs their ninth consecutive victory over ULM.

RUSTON – Louisiana Tech continued its dominant defensive stretch Saturday afternoon, shutting out Old Dominion, 26-0, in front of 20,444 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium to secure its fourth consecutive victory and remain unbeaten in Sun Belt Conference play.

The victory marked Louisiana Tech's first win over Old Dominion in program history and its first 3-0 start in conference play since 2019.

Louisiana Tech's defense registered 13 tackles for loss, six sacks and an interception while limiting Old Dominion to 13 first downs. The Bulldogs have now held opponents scoreless in eight consecutive quarters following last week's 24-0 victory at ULM.

Offensively, quarterback Blake Baker completed 28 of 34 passes for 303 yards and a touchdown while adding a rushing score. Eli Finley recorded a career-high 10 receptions for 128 yards and a touchdown, while Jalen Mickens added eight catches for 110 yards, giving Louisiana Tech two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the second time this season.

The Bulldogs wasted little time establishing control, marching 75 yards on 15 plays during their opening possession. Baker capped the 6:19 drive with a 4-yard touchdown run to give Tech an early 7-0 advantage. The drive featured three third-down conversions as the Bulldogs continued their streak of scoring on their opening possession at home.

Following a defensive stop, Louisiana Tech extended its lead with a five-play, 66-yard drive highlighted by a 31-yard reception from Mickens and a 21-yard completion to Finley. Trey Kukuk finished the possession with a 5-yard touchdown run, pushing the Bulldogs' advantage to 14-0 with 3:27 remaining in the opening quarter.

Tech added to its lead early in the second quarter when Hunter Rioux connected on a 49-yard field goal, matching his season long and sending the Bulldogs into halftime with a 17-0 advantage.

Louisiana Tech controlled the opening half on both sides of the ball, outgaining Old Dominion while limiting the Monarchs to just 57 total yards, including minus-17 yards rushing. The Bulldogs converted eight of 11 third-down opportunities and held possession for nearly 21 minutes before halftime.

The Bulldogs continued their offensive production in the third quarter, assembling an 11-play, 61-yard scoring drive capped by a 2-yard touchdown pass from Baker to Finley. Finley accounted for four receptions and 47 yards on the possession, extending Louisiana Tech's lead to 23-0 with 7:56 remaining in the period.

Kaegan Kent added a 25-yard field goal with 9:03 remaining in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Louisiana Tech's defensive front continued to disrupt the Monarchs throughout the second half. Zheric Hill led the Bulldogs with 10 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss and half a sack, while Alonzo Jackson Jr. registered seven tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. Jadon Mayfield contributed 2.5 tackles for loss and two sacks, while Justice Williams added 1.5 sacks.

Amari Butler also recorded his first interception as a Bulldog, helping Louisiana Tech preserve its second consecutive shutout.

The Bulldogs finished with 438 yards of total offense, including 302 passing yards and 136 rushing yards, while converting 11 of 19 third-down opportunities. Andrew Burnette led the rushing attack with 63 yards on 20 carries. Old Dominion ended the game with -13 rushing yards, marking the first time the Bulldog defense held their opponent to negative rushing yards since October 25, 2014, when LA Tech held Southern Miss to -31 rushing yards in a 31-20 win in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

The victory extended Louisiana Tech's home winning streak to six games, its longest since the end of the 2019 season and beginning of 2020, while its four-game overall winning streak is the program's longest since 2019.
