BY THE NUMBERS

81

This will be the 81st all-time matchup between Louisiana Tech and Northwestern State, but just the 20th time playing in Ruston and the fourth time at Joe Aillet Stadium

7

The Bulldogs ended the 2025 season with seven defensive touchdowns to lead the country, five coming off of interception returns and two from fumble returns.

22

The Bulldogs' 22 interceptions were the second-most in FBS in 2025 and led all of Conference USA. LA Tech was one pick shy of tying fellow SBC member Southern Miss for the country's lead of 23. It is the most interceptions by a LA Tech defense since picking off 26 passes in 2014. Saturday's game will mark the fifth-straight meeting in Ruston between LA Tech and Northwestern State--the longest such streak since the first five games in series history (1907, 09, 10, 11, 13)

5

A LA TECH WIN...

- Would give the Bulldogs their 56th win all-time against Northwestern State and 14th when playing at home (4th at Joe Aillet Stadium)
- Would give Sonny Cumbie his 20th win as LA Tech's head coach
- Would mark the fourth-straight year to open the season with a win
- Would give the Bulldogs a third-straight win when playing Northwestern State at home

BULLDOG STORYLINES AND LEADERS

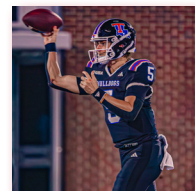

• The 2026 Louisiana Tech football team brings back a lot of experience from their successful 2025 season, which ended in a 2025 Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl win over Coastal Carolina with 60 returners, yet just 10 of them made at least 4 starts last year (7 on offense; 3 on defense). LA Tech enters 2026 coming off the best season of the Sonny Cumbie era.

• Under first-year defensive coordinator Luke Olson, the Bulldog defense saw one of the best statistical seasons in the country last year. The country was led by LA Tech's 7 defensive touchdowns (5 INT returns, 2 fumble returns), and the second-most interceptions in FBS with 22 behind Southern Miss' 23 to lead the country. The Bulldogs ranked first in Conference USA in red zone defense (71.8%), rushing defense (134.6 yards/game) and scoring defense (20.8 points/game), along with opposing quarterbacks having only completed just under 55% of their passes with an efficiency rating of 113.01.

• Eli Finley led the Bulldogs with 38 receptions and 444 receiving yards despite not finding pay dirt for the entire season (has not scored a TD since Nov. 23, 2024 at Arkansas). The Heath, Texas native needs 232 receiving yards to reach the 1,000-yard mark of his career, and is 35 catches shy of 100 career receptions.

• Along with Finley, Tech's offense will feature some key returners in Blake Baker, Trey Kukuk, Jalen Mickens along with Hayden Christman and Ashanti Cole on the offensive line. Mickens saw a surge towards the end of the 2025 season, making 14 of his 20 catches on the season across the final six regular season games.

• LA Tech's linebacker room features some high-level experience with the return of local talent in Jadon Mayfield and Zheric Hill, as well as Kolbe Fields, who is coming off a season-ending ACL injury from last year.

YEAR TWO LUKE

Second-year defensive coordinator Luke Olson looks to build off success from his first year in 2025, when his defense saw the most defensive touchdowns and second-most interceptions in the country. The Bulldog defense also ranked in the top 10 nationally in 4th down conversion percentage (.500), red zone defense (.718) and total turnovers (25). There is a wealth of experience returning for Olson, including linebackers Kolbe Fields, Zheric Hill, Jadon Mayfield and Alonzo Jackson Jr. Veterans Donovan Rieman and Judd Rouyea look to lead the front line for Olson's defense, while some fresh legs in the secondary feature Sam Fongang, Kam Carter, Amari Butler and Jordan McRae.

NEW LOOK IN THE BACKFIELD

With the departure of Clay Thevenin and Omi-ri Wiggins to the transfer portal following the 2025 season, LA Tech had some holes to fill. Along with having to replace the team's leading rusher, it was also vital for Sonny Cumbie to find a way to fill the hole of losing the team leader in rushing touchdowns in Andrew Burnette. In doing so, the Bulldogs brought in Jaden Miller, a stand-out running back who transferred in from Keiser. During his time with the Seahawks, Miller was named First Team All-Sun Conference and is coming off a stellar season with 1,127 yards and 18 touchdowns on the ground, becoming the fourth player in Keiser program history to rush for 1,000 yards. He tied for the most rushing touchdowns in a single game with four, and his 24 career touchdowns on the ground at Keiser rank fourth all-time. Through the air, Miller caught 15 passes for 120 yards last year after averaging 20.5 YPC in 2024 with six receptions for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

FINLEY'S FINAL AUDITON

In what has been a very busy offseason for LA Tech tight end Eli Finley, with fall camp and many NFL scouts coming to see the sought-after TE. Eli still has a big season ahead of him--he comes into the season just 35 receptions shy of 100 career catches and 232 receiving yards shy of 1,000 for his career. Last year he led the team in receiving yards and had a 155-yard game against rival Southern Miss, which earned him the John Mackey Tight End of the week honor. That game was also the first 100-yard receiving game from a LA Tech tight end since Dennis Morris in 2009.

THE KUKUK ARMY KNIFE?

After showcasing his dual-threat talents, head coach Sonny Cumbie and Nathan Young have a different gameplan in mind for quarterback Trey Kukuk in 2026. Kukuk was one of two LA Tech players to rush for 600 yards last year, finding the end zone five times and ending the year with three 100-yard rushing games in the last three games, including a career-high 172 rushing yards in a 42-30 win at Missouri State.

ALL-AMERICAN STAFF

Former Louisiana Tech safety Jakari Foster joins the 2026 coaching staff after being named an AP First Team All-American and a Water Camp Second Team All-American, as well as Second Team All-CUSA honors. Foster's eight interceptions were tied for the second-most in a single season in program history and were the most by a Bulldog since 1995. His eight picks also led the country, with one of them returned for a touchdown to contribute to the team's FBS-best seven defensive touchdowns in 2025. Foster will assist first-year safeties coach Dexter McCoil Sr.

WHEN DOES CLASS START?
