PATRIOT LEAGUE PLAY

Lehigh is off to a 6-2 start in Patriot League play. Lily Fandre leads the league in scoring throughout league play, averaging 18.1 points per game in conference action. The Mountain Hawks also feature three of the league's top 3-point shooters by percentage, with Gracyn Lovette leading the league at 52.0 percent, followed by Fandre at 46.2 percent and Belle Bramer at 44.4 percent.

THE RIVALRY

Lehigh defeated Lafayette 62-48 last Saturday, extending its winning streak in the rivalry to three games. Alana Reddy delivered a career performance in the win, scoring a personal-best 15 points while knocking down five 3-pointers. Whitney Lind and Gracyn Lovette each added 14 points, as Lehigh continued to showcase a balanced offensive attack in the victory.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK TIMES FOUR

First-year wing Leia Edwards has been named Patriot League Rookie of the Week for the third consecutive week, the league announced Monday afternoon (1/5). Edwards averaged a double-double for the second straight week, highlighted by a 21-point performance in the Mountain Hawks' 66-52 win over Cornell on Wednesday. Edwards shot 7-for-11 from the field Wednesday evening and 3-for-5 from 3-point range, achieving her new career high in 3-pointers made. Edwards scored 17 points and grabbed a team-high 12 rebounds in the team's loss to Mount St. Mary's on Sunday. On the season, Edwards has now scored in double figures in seven of the nine games this season and leads the team in both points per game (13.7) and rebounds per game (7.0). With Edwards being named Patriot League Rookie of the Week the past two weeks, she becomes the first Mountain Hawk to win the award three straight weeks. Edwards won the award for the 4th time this season on 1/5/26 after scoring 22 and collecting 10 rebounds in the win vs Bucknell.

SHARING THE WEALTH AT STABLER

Four players scored in double figures in Lehigh's win over Brown on Nov 30, led by 14 from sophomore Belle Bramer. It marked the third time in four home games that the Mountain Hawks had four players score in double figures. Lehigh also had four players reach double figures in its home opener against La Salle (Nov. 11) and in a win over Drexel (Nov. 19).

CALIFORNIA MOUNTAIN HAWKS ENJOY RETURN HOME

Lehigh's recent trip to the San Francisco Bay Area served as a homecoming for northern California natives Gracyn Lovette (San Rafael), Keshia Vitalicio (Concord) and Belle Bramer (Los Gatos). Bramer and Lovette both enjoyed strong showings playing in front of family and friends. On Nov. 23 at Stanford, Bramer led the Mountain Hawks with 13 points. Lovette scored a season-high 13 points and made three 3-pointers Nov. 25 at San Francisco.

FANDRE IS ON FIRE

Senior Lily Fandre is having a career year for the Mountain Hawks. She has scored in double figures in 12 of the team's last 14 games and has surpassed the 20-point mark six times this season, emerging as one of the league's most consistent offensive threats. Fandre posted a career-high 32 points in the Jan. 21 win against Loyola, doing so with impressive efficiency. She shot 64% from the field and connected on three of five attempts from beyond the arc, leading the Mountain Hawks to the victory.

OKAY, JESSIE!

Junior guard Jessia Ozzauto joined classmate Whitney Lind in having a career-best performance in the win at Cincinnati. Ozzauto scored 25 points, more than double her previous career high, and led the Mountain Hawks with four made 3-pointers and seven rebounds. The Algonquin, Ill., native made her first career start against the Bearcats. Ozzauto followed up that performance by leading Lehigh with 18 points and seven rebounds at Fairfield. She was named Patriot League Player of the Week on Nov. 10. Ozzauto registered her first career double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds in the win over Brown. She is also averaging six assists per game over her last three outings.

ANOTHER BIG WIN

Lehigh opened its season with an 88-85 victory at Big 12 member Cincinnati on Nov. 4. The victory marked the second consecutive season that Lehigh defeated a power conference team during the regular season. Last year the Mountain Hawks defeated Big 10 member Northwestern 85-68 in Evanston, Ill. The win was Lehigh's first-ever against a Big Ten opponent and the Mountain Hawks' first win over a power conference opponent since defeating Mississippi State in December 2010.

A HAPPY HOMECOMING

Junior Whitney Lind made the most of her homecoming game at Cincinnati. The Florence, Ky., native scored a career-high 26 points in front of family and friends in the Mountain Hawks' 88-85 victory. Lind shot 7-of-15 from the field, made a pair of 3-pointers and converted 10-of-12 from the free throw line. She added five rebounds in the victory.

THE 2024-25 CHAMPIONSHIP CAMPAIGN

The 2024-25 season was one to remember for the Mountain Hawks, who went 27-7 and captured Patriot League regular season and tournament titles to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2021. The 27 victories are the third-highest single-season total in program history. Lehigh won its three Patriot League Tournament games by an average of 17 points and defeated Army West Point 74-62 on March 16 to secure the fifth Patriot League title in program history. The Mountain Hawks squared off against No. 2 seed Duke in the first round of the Birmingham Region.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

Lehigh welcomed four first-years into the program this season with the four newcomers representing four different countries. Guard Alana Reddy is a native of Sydney, Australia; wing Myrto Lianoudi hails from Athens, Greece; wing Leah Edwards comes from London, England; and forward Ellie Mjaanes is from Cary, Ill. Reddy and Edwards both attended prep schools in the United States, with Reddy attending Blair Academy in New Jersey and Edwards playing at California power Sierra Canyon.

GLOBAL LEARNING

Five members of the Lehigh women's basketball team studied abroad this past summer, part of a program philosophy that encourages global learning and personal growth beyond the basketball court. Senior Lily Fandre spent five weeks in Athens, Greece studying environmental science. Junior Gracyn Lovette analyzed European marketing in Barcelona, Spain. Senior Katie Hurt and junior Jessie Ozzauto both spent time in Italy, with Hurt shadowing surgeons in Milan and Ozzauto studying the history of Western medicine in Florence. Sophomore Belle Brammer studied marketing in Belgium before representing Chinese Taipei on the court at the FISU World Games in Germany.

TWO NEW FACES

On Jan. 18th welcomed two new players to their team. Melani Dowling comes by way of the Lehigh Track and Field team. Cyndea Labissiere also joined the team. Labissiere comes by way of the Lehigh Women's Soccer team.

THE CO-CAPTAINS

Senior forward Lily Fandre and junior guard Gracyn Lovette are serving as Lehigh's captains for the 2025-26 season, guiding the Mountain Hawks as they move beyond the midway point of the year. Fandre leads the team in scoring, averaging 15.4 points per game, while Lovette has done it all for Lehigh. The junior ranks fourth in the Patriot League in assists at 3.7 per contest and continues to provide steady leadership on both ends of the floor.

SHARE IT AND SHOOT IT

Share it and shoot it has become part of Lehigh women's basketball's identity, and the numbers don't lie as the Mountain Hawks have led the Patriot League in scoring and assists the last four seasons. Last season, Lehigh averaged a league-best 68.4 points per game and handed out 489 assists in 34 games. This recent stretch is highlighted by the Mountain Hawks setting a program single-game scoring record against La Salle in a 106-60 victory on Dec. 7, 2023.

LEHIGH TO THE WNBA

Former Lehigh women's basketball alum Cathy Engelbert '86 is the commissioner of the WNBA. Engelbert has been a trailblazer for women's sports here at Lehigh as well as she gave a $1 million gift to create the LEAD Scholars Program, which will bring together cohorts of women, as well as male advocates, in a holistic program that will empower and impact the development of women athletes, staff and girls in the Bethlehem community. Former guard Kaylee Van Eps '25 and senior forward Lily Fandre were both selected as LEAD Scholars.

FANDRE REACHED 1,000

On Wednesday, Jan. 8, 2026, Lily Fandre eclipsed the 1,000-point mark for her career, reaching the milestone on a 3-pointer from the left corner. Fandre led Lehigh in scoring with 23 points, including 17 in the first half, as the Mountain Hawks earned a 60-57 victory.

LAST TIME OUT FOR LEHIGH

Jan 24, 2026
LEHIGH 62 LAFAYETTE 48

Behind a balanced offensive attack and a strong defensive effort, Lehigh defeated Lafayette 62-48 Saturday at Stabler Arena in the Rivalry presented by Lehigh Valley Orthopedic Institute, part of Jefferson Health.

Four players scored in double figures with first-year Alana Reddy and sophomore Belle Brämer leading the way with 15. Reddy set a new career high, while Brämer tied her career high. Juniors Gracyn Lovette and Whitney Lind both scored 14 points as Lehigh won its second straight.

The Mountain Hawks shot nearly 40 percent from the field and made 11-of-30 from deep, while limiting Lafayette to 31.5 percent shooting.

Lehigh improves to 10-8 overall and 6-2 in Patriot League play.

Lafayette led by as many as seven in the opening quarter and finished the period with a 20-16 lead.

Lehigh battled back in the second, doubling up the Leopards 18-9 in the frame to take a 34-29 lead into halftime. Made 3-pointers by Reddy and then Lovette tied the game at 22 and then 25 with Lind then converting a layup to give the Mountain Hawks the lead for good.

Another Reddy 3-pointer put Lehigh up 15 with 2:49 left in the third quarter and the Mountain Hawks led by 11 after 30 minutes.

Lafayette (7-12, 3-5 PL) got no closer than nine with the Mountain Hawks maintaining control throughout the final quarter.

Reddy's 15 points came on 5-of-12 shooting from 3-point land.

Lehigh held a 38-31 advantage on the glass. Lovette added seven rebounds and six assists and three steals to go along with her 14 points.

Teresa Kiewiet led Lafayette with 17 points.

Addie Micir - Fourth Season

A tremendous leader with a strong basketball mind and understanding for the game, Addie Micir was appointed the eighth head coach in Lehigh women's basketball program history on April 27, 2022.

She will enter her seventh season overall at Lehigh in 2025-26, and her fourth as the Mountain Hawks' head coach. Micir is 72-41 at Lehigh.

Micir made history in the 2024-25 season, leading the Mountain Hawks to one of their most successful campaigns in program history. She guided Lehigh to the Patriot League Championship, a regular-season title, and an impressive 27-win season—marking the third-highest single-season win total in program history,

Her leadership was recognized league-wide, as she was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year. Micir's impact was felt not only in the win column but in the individual development of her players—most notably Maddie Albrecht who became the first player in program history to earn First Team All-Patriot League and All-Defensive Team honors in the same season. Albrecht also earned spots on the Academic All-Patriot League Team and the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team. Ella Stemmer (Second Team) and Belle Brammer (All-Rookie) also earned All-Patriot League honors in 2024-25.

Micir guided the Mountain Hawks to a 17-13 overall record and a 9-9 Patriot League record in 2023-24. Micir coached and mentored third team All-Patriot League honoree Maddie Albrecht. In addition to earning third team All-Patriot League honors, she also earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors while also landing on the Academic All-Patriot League team.

In her first season as a head coach, Micir led the Mountain Hawks to a 17-14 overall record, posting a 12-6 record in the Patriot League. Micir's 17 wins were the most wins in program history as a first-year head coach. Micir guided the Mountain Hawks to the Patriot League Semifinals. Also coached and mentored the Patriot League Player of the Year Frannie Hottinger and the first College Sports Communicators Academic All-American Mackenzie Kramer. Had two players land on the First Team All-Patriot League for the first time since 2010. Also had one player land on the All-Rookie Patriot League team.

Micir served as coordinator for Lehigh's offense and end of game special situations. She also worked closely with Lehigh's post players including All-Patriot League performers Camryn Buhr, Emma Grothaus and Frannie Hottinger.

With Micir on staff, Lehigh once again reached the mountaintop during the 2020-21 campaign, capturing the program's fourth Patriot League Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance, the first since 2010, with a 64-54 victory over Boston University. Two players, Hottinger and Mary Clougherty, earned Second Team All-Patriot League selections while both were named Academic All-Patriot League honorees. Kramer was a member of the Patriot League All-Rookie team, the program's first honoree since 2016.

With Micir on staff, Lehigh led the Patriot League in scoring, assists and three-point field goals made per game in both 2021 and 2022 and ranked in the top 10 nationally in three-point field goals made per game in both of those seasons.

Micir spent the 2018-19 season at her alma mater, Princeton, where she helped lead the Tigers to Ivy League regular season and tournament titles.

With Micir on the coaching staff, Princeton achieved an overall record of 22-10 and a league record of 12-2 en route to its second consecutive Ivy League crown. As an assistant, she helped develop Bella Alarie into the Ivy League Player of the Year and first team All-Ivy in 2018-19.

Prior to her season with the Tigers, Micir served as the assistant women's basketball coach at Dartmouth for five seasons, where she recruited nationally and internationally, helping to bring in players from 14 different states and three foreign countries. Two Big Green players were named to All-Ivy teams under Micir, including guard Kate Letkewicz in 2018 and Lakin Roland in 2016.

Micir had a prolific playing career at Princeton, being named the program's first Ivy League Player of the Year, which was also unanimous, in her senior season. A 1,000-point scorer and a three-time All-League selection, she played a big role in leading the Tigers to back-to-back Ivy League titles in 2010 and 2011. The league title in 2010 was Princeton's first outright championship since 1978, which included the team's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

A native of Newtown, Pa., Micir earned her bachelor's degree in Psychology from Princeton in 2011 and her master's degree in Liberal Studies from Dartmouth in 2018.
