- » As a program, Lenoir-Rhyne is 724-631-7 (.537) and 234-293 in the SAC. LR has made the postseason nine times in its history, including five NCAA Tournaments.

TOUGH SCHEDULE EARLY

- » So far this season, Lenoir-Rhyne has played the first, second, fourth and fifth place teams in league play along with a game at Coker. Anderson comes into Wednesday's game as the third place team in the standings.
- » LR's first six opponents are a combined 32-10 in South Atlantic Conference play and only two of those first six games will be played in Hickory.

CATAWBA RECAP

- » Despite missing a pair of contributors in Blaikley Crooks and Tilda Lindstrom, the Bears battled No. 12 Catawba on Saturday.
- » LR tried to overcome 29 turnovers in the contest but eventually fell by a final score of 55-44.
- » Lenoir-Rhyne opened an eight-point lead with 6:02 left in the third quarter but Catawba forced 13 turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game and outscored LR 29-10 the rest of the way.
- » With the win, Catawba improved to 9-0 overall and 7-0 in South Atlantic Conference play.

HANGING CLOSE

- » Despite having nothing to show for the games against the top teams in the league, Lenoir-Rhyne has played all of them closely.
- » The Bears had a late lead at Limestone before the Saints came away with a 72-70 victory on Nov. 27.
- » LR and second-place Wingate played into overtime and LR had the lead most of the contest before the Bulldogs came back late.

SEASON-LOW

- » The 44 points scored against Catawba on Saturday was a low for the season as were the 17 made field goals in the game.
- » Lenoir-Rhyne only attempted 36 shots in the game due to the amount of turnovers and shot 47.2 percent from the floor and 44.4 percent from long range.

BACK IN THE SHU

- » The Bears will play at home for just the third time this season and first time since hosting Wingate back on November 17 which makes it almost a full month in between home games.
- » This will kick off a stretch of three straight at home and four of the next five games take place in Hickory.
- » The game against Anderson will mark the 555th all-time game at home for LR in program history. The Bears will be in search of their 350th home win in LR Women's Basketball history.
