NOTES

- The Bears are still dominating with the long ball as they lead the SAC with 17 home runs; Coker on the other hand has struggled with only one home run this season.
- Coker is not afraid of being aggressive on the base paths with their SAC-leading 59 stolen bases.
- Patience is key in the batters' box for both sides as the Bears lead the conference with 86 walks this season. The Cobras are not too far behind with 80 free passes this year, which is good enough for fourth-best in the league.
- Lenoir-Rhyne pitching has started to find their groove over the past few weekends as they now hold a league-best 3.18 ERA.
- Both pitching departments have been doing a great job of shutting down batters at the plate; LR leads the SAC with 184 strikeouts with Coker coming in third with 122 strikeouts.
- The Bears have been able to limit the number of mistakes on the field in the opening month with a SAC-best .974 fielding percentage.
- The LR bullpen has been solid this season and their success has been displayed in tight contests with a 7-0 record. Parker Kanupp and Brayden Collett both picked up wins in relief appearances vs. Cedarville over the weekend.
- Despite being conference foes, this is Lenoir-Rhyne's first trip to Hartsville, S.C. since March 26, 2019, when the Bears won, 9-6.
- The Bears are about to embark on a significant stretch away from Durham Field with seven of their next eight games coming on the road; LR is 3-2 in away matchups this season.
